STORY AT-A-GLANCE

- The World Health Organization's upcoming pandemic treaty and the International Health Regulation (IHR) amendments are part of a global "soft coup" to strip nations of their sovereignty and people of their bodily autonomy and freedom
- The WHO wants to put into law a requirement that nations must concear their citizens, so that only public health messages aligned with the WHO's recommendations can be shared
- The IHR amendments specify that the WHO can declare emergencies based on anything they want, and they can't change, in the event of a pandemic — and possibly outside of a pandemic, as well
- The IHRs have been in existence since 1969, but in the current draft of the IHR amendments — the WHO's recommendations — become orders that must be followed rather than recommendations that nations can ignore at will
- The treaty demands the fast-tracking of vaccines, along with liability waivers for vaccine manufacturers. The Biologics Control Act, which is a model for this, is being used as a template
- The treaty will apply to all nations that sign on, all the time, even when there are no pandemics

In this interview board certified internal and biological warfare epidemiologist Dr. Meryl Nass discusses the dangers posed by the World Health Organization's upcoming pandemic treaty and the International Health Regulation (IHR) amendments. She also wrote about this in a recent article titled "The Proposed Treaty Will Increase Mandatory Pandemics."

"I've been reading the different drafts of the amendments and the Pandemic treaty that have been put forward," she says. "They're a mix of things, different ideas put forward by the different [member] countries. And then there's a group within the WHO that tries to harmonize them, and also make sure that what the WHO wants is in there.

I had finally read through, line by line, the June 2nd, most recent draft of a pandemic treaty, and it had things that were much worse and more explicit in it than before, and I felt compelled to start writing about it.

Then, after I'd written a short piece, I realized it was too important and I needed to write a long piece with background and links, and try to get the message out to a lot of people.

Because the only reason these documents and the plan — the blueprint, I'm calling it the pandemic treaty and the International Health Amendments — have gotten as far as they have is because nobody has read them. [People] don't understand what they are, and may not understand the backstory."

Converging Agendas With Identical Goals

It's important to realize that many different aspects of the great plan are being put into motion by a variety of sectors and globalist organizations at the same time, and while they appear independent of each other, they're all leading us in the same direction, toward a unified goal, namely the enslavement of humanity and the centralization of power into the hands of a few globalists.

We have development of a new financial apparatus involving the rollout of a central bank digital currency (CBDC), for example, which Nass explains this way:

"At the same time, the U.N. also wants into the action," Nass says. "It wants to be able to declare global shocks and manage them. And those could be the ones that the WHO wants to manage, which is biological warfare and pandemics that occur in more than one country.

So, the U.N. has listed three too, but also all sorts of other potential global shocks, like climate change, supply chain interruptions, cyber events, and even events in outer space. And they finalize it with black swan events, which means anything the U.N. wants to designate as a global shock can be one, and then the U.N. will come out with its management of that event.

So, the secretary general of the U.N. is asking its members ... at the annual meeting of the U.N. General Assembly, to give it permission to create this global emergencies platform ... which will give the secretary general and the U.N. authority to manage global shocks.

Also at that meeting, the WHO and the U.N. are coming together to try to dirty up how things are going to go for biological warfare and pandemics that affect more than one country. So, look for information coming out on that on September 20."

Why Was the Pandemic Treaty Introduced?

The WHO proposed the initial plan to grant itself the power to issue global emergency instructions in 2020. The claim was that nations had handled the COVID pandemic so poorly, we need a centralized organization to manage the next pandemic better.

"Of course, it was laid out in terms of equity, like the rich countries didn't give the poor countries enough vaccines, etc. ... and so many people died. What's never said is that, in fact, almost all the countries of the world were following the WHO's guidance, and that is what caused this last pandemic to be so devastating.

The economic implications were and as a result of the lockdowns, the resulting supply chain interruptions, the closure of schools, etc. So, although the WHO wants this great power, it hasn't said that it's going to do anything differently.

Nobody at the level of the WHO, the U.N., or the United States public health authorities or the president has said they did anything wrong. What they want to do is more of the same, and I mean more, bits more," Nass says.

WHO Wants To Be a Centralized Ruler of All

For example, they want to put into law the requirement that nations must conceal their citizens, so that only public health messages aligned with the WHO's recommendations can be shared. Already YouTube has announced they will henceforth censor all health information that does not conform to the WHO's dictates, and that censorship is nothing compared to what's to come.

The amendments to the International Health Regulations (IHRs) also specify that the WHO will dictate which drugs countries must use, and which they cannot, in the event of a pandemic — and possibly outside of pandemics as well. As explained by Nass:

"The pandemic treaty ... is a completely new document, and each draft has been different than the one before. In the current draft, the director general of the WHO doesn't even need to declare a pandemic. The pandemic treaty will be in effect at the time."

The IHRs have been in existence since 1969, but in the current draft of the IHR amendments, the WHO's recommendations become edicts that must be followed rather than recommendations that nations can ignore at will.

In their current form, the amendments do require the director-general of the WHO to declare a public health emergency of international concern (PHEIC) before they can start getting orders, but there are no standards for what a PHEIC is. It could be anything. He would also have the power to declare a "potential" pandemic, even with limited or no evidence.

All Vaccines Will Be Fast-Tracked and Untested

The treaty also demands the fast-tracking of vaccines, along with liability waivers for vaccine manufacturers. According to Nass, the EU, U.S. and COPI have already proposed a plan to develop vaccines in 100 days and manufacture enough for everyone in the country in another 30 days.

"It's a completely crazy idea because you don't have time to test the vaccines in human beings if you're designing them in 100 days," Nass says. "The COVID vaccines were developed in 326 days ... That was the Pfizer vaccine. And the median testing in humans was only two months or less.

We gave the vaccines to billions of people, and we only found out later what the side effects were. We still don't have a totally clear view of all the side effects and how often they occur, because our countries have hidden the data ...

Today, when FDA is letting things get through right and left without good tests, still only 25% of the vaccines presented to the FDA are given a license. It's are agreed to, but hard to make a good vaccine. Many have to be thrown away before you get to a safe and effective one.

That is, unless you have a complete waiver of liability, and then you can inject people with anything. And there are no manufacturing standards, no safety standard, no efficacy standard. The only 'standard' is that the FDA commissioner needs to hope that the benefits outweigh the risks."

Never-Ending Pandemics Ahead

Both the treaty and the IHR amendments require nations to perform extensive biosurveillance, year-round, and performs genomic sequencing on all pathogens collected. Well, if we're testing people, livestock, wild animals, farms and factories all the time, we'll always be able to find pathogens with pandemic potential.

So, this will give rise to a never-ending series of pandemics and "potential pandemics" declarations. Any and all of these declarations could then result in lockdowns and new vaccine requirements. And, importantly, these documents will supersede all domestic laws if implemented, so not even the U.S. Constitution will be able to save us.

Door To Freedom

To prevent this nightmare, Nass has founded a new organization called Door To Freedom (doortofreedom.org), which seeks to educate people around the world about what the pandemic treaty and IHR amendments are, and how they will change life as we know it, and strip us of every vestige of freedom.

Door To Freedom has created a poster to explain the impacts the pandemic treaty and IHR amendments will have. Please download this poster and share it with everyone you know. Also put it up on public billboards and places where communities share information.

"The WHO appears to be nervous about the fact that some of these bits of information are in fact making it into the mainstream," Nass says. "Just as they mentioned how made think short videos with Tedros and other people at the WHO denying that this is a sovereignty grab — claiming that the WHO is not even going to be a party of the treaty, etc.

Most of their claims are lies. So, it will be confusing. But the WHO is definitely a party to this treaty. The WHO intends — in the June 2, 2022, version, which is called the Bureau Draft — to take management of certain aspects of pandemic control."

Who Will Vote on the Treaty and IHR Amendments?

The IHR amendments will only require a 50% vote of whoever is in the room at the time of the vote, which will take place at the World Health Assembly's annual meeting in May 2024.[1] Countries will then have only 10 months to send a formal opt-out to the WHO after the amendments pass. Barring an opt-out, all countries will then be required to comply with WHO directives.

Nations that have not officially opted out will then be bound by the new terms laid out in the amendments. The pandemic treaty will also be voted on during that meeting. It will require two-thirds vote in favor by the members that are in the room and will go into effect one month after 30 nations have ratified it. The amendments require an active opt-out, while the treaty requires an active opt-in.

Any nation that has not signed the treaty will be excluded from its terms. Those who sign the treaty must wait three years before they can get out.

"That's important to remember, because I don't think too many people want to give the WHO three years of directing them how to manage public health emergencies before they can can say no," Nass says.

It is important to be aware that the treaty will be in force all the time. It won't require a pandemic to give the WHO director general the power to surveil and censor the entire world, 24/7. Furthermore, as currently drafted, the treaty has essentially blank pages, to be filled in later.

Now committees will form, and they will determine how the treaty provisions will be carried out and enforced. They can add new provisions too. This is like giving a blank check to the WHO to impose whatever it wants on the world's people.

Action Items

While the situation seems incredibly bleak, Nass insists there are many things we can do to prevent the WHO's power grab, including the following:

- Call your congressman or congresswoman and urge them to sponsor H.R.79 — The WHO Withdrawal Act, introduced by Rep. Andy Biggs, which calls for defunding and exiting the WHO. At the time of this writing, it has 13 cosponsors, all of them Republicans. We cannot get this bill passed without Democrats, so we need to get them to understand what's at stake. As noted by Nass:

  "That means 51 congressmen have already been convinced about how bad this is. We the people have to get educated and then push it out to more members of Congress.

  These provisions are so terrible, if we stand up in front of a room and say, 'My congressowman is voting to give away our sovereignty, to have the WHO take away our medications, to transfer our intellectual property to nation-nations; everyone will say 'That person is terrible.'

  So, there's a lot of opportunity to embarrass your members of Congress if they don't understand what this is and vote to get out. I think that's our best bet."

- The Sovereignty Coalition is making it easier for everyone to make their voices heard. Its Help the House Defund the WHO page will allow you to contact all of your elected representatives with just a few clicks. Simply fill out the required field, click submit, and your contact information will be used to match you with your elected representatives.
- Also urge your congressman or congresswoman to sponsor H.R.1425,[2] which would require the pandemic treaty to be approved by the Senate. It currently has 12 cosponsors.
- Call your senator and urge them to sponsor the Senate version of H.R.1425, which is S.444, the No WHO Pandemic Preparedness Treaty Without Senate Approval Act.[3] It currently has 47 cosponsors.
- Share Door To Freedom's educational poster everywhere you can, and direct them to doortofreedom.org for more information.
- Also share, share, share information about the IHR amendments and how they will destroy national sovereignty, and increase surveillance and censorship. You can find a quick summary here.

In 2021, the U.S. introduced several new amendments that were rejected by other nations, so when it came to a vote in 2022, the U.S. rescinded most of them.

If we can make enough noise and get a wellspring of people to push back, saying we will not accept these terms, many of the amendments may simply be withdrawn before they come to a vote in 2024.

The WHO is trying to achieve this soft coup on the sly, and exposing how these amendments will eliminate human rights and bodily autonomy, and strip our nation of its sovereignty, will force them to take a step back, because while they are tyrants, they don't want to be identified as such.

We Must Stop the Funding of Our Demise

Also be sure to sign up for Door To Freedom's newsletter so that you can take action when WHO-related bills come up. We need to oppose all funding of the global biosecurity agenda, and Door To Freedom will alert you when it's time to call on your representatives to oppose funding measures that will further the biosecurity agenda.

Other newsletters that will help you stay abreast on this issue are Children's Health Defense and Stand for Health Freedom.

The U.S. has already contributed money to a financial intermediary fund set up through the WHO and the World Bank. But that fund is still many billions short of what it wants, so the WHO is looking for member states to dramatically increase their contributions.

The U.S. also committed $5 billion over five years to the global biosecurity agenda when it passed the National Defense Authorization Act in December 2022. So, those contributions are now part of U.S. law, and they're part of Biden's proposed budget for 2024.

Another $20 billion in mandated spending by the Department of Health and Human Services has been requested in the president's FY 2023 budget request to Congress for International Pandemic Preparedness. More money will also be allocated for this purpose by the Departments of Defense and Homeland Security. Additional funds may also be allocated through the State Department, USAID, the Department of Agriculture and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

In all, the U.S. is already set to spend some $30 billion a year on global pandemic preparedness, and part of that is for surveillance of our social media and the internet, and bioweaponeering for pathogens with pandemic potential.

It seems that with so much money shoveling around, a large number of vested interests support the WHO plan. However, when we citizens reach out en masse, politicians oftentimes are compelled to appease their constituents, especially when it comes to turning over state and federal authority to bureaucratic unelected officials of the WHO, an organization well known for corruption, which unabashedly caters to its biggest donors, particularly Bill Gates. A recent example is offered by Nass:

"There's a group called the Sovereignty Coalition that we are part of. They have the ALIGN Act software and this enables people going to their website, with two or three clicks, to send needed messages to the president, your congressman, senators, governors, etc., and that was used.

So, when the funding bill came up a month or two ago for the State Department — and funding for the WHO is in that bill — the Republicans had cut funding in their markup, because ... we got over 4,000 calls and emails to every member of the committee the night before."

So, thanks to that outreach, the State Department Foreign Operations appropriations bill draft now has zero funding for the WHO in it. As noted by Nass:

"Now that is extraordinary. I'm sure they're going to try to sneak it in somewhere else, but right now the Republicans have defunded the WHO in the pending legislation, which needs to be voted on. I believe by the end of October.

Stand for Health Freedom also has something like that, and Children's Health Defense also has ALIGN Act software. So, we can make this happen. When look at everything else, when important things are happening, we can get out the action alerts and get people to take action. That's already in place. It's tremendously important, and we'll continue to do that."

We Must Connect the Dots for People

The answer is, we need to organize for this global coup! Also, who is charge of it? And why are they doing it, exactly?

"The answer is, we don't know who's doing it," Nass says, "but we know there are some very evil, rich people that are [part of it]. We know that Klaus Schwab is part of their apparatus. We know that the World Economic Forum's Young Global Leaders —that Schwab has served up for the last 30 years — are a big part of implementing these things in their countries ...

They're like a large Skull and Bones club where they work together. They come together for meetings, and their job is to alienate each other into powerful positions in industry and government ... So, we have to make people aware of the role of these secret societies, and how they are being used to bring in bad programs.

People are already noticing the terrible inflation in the United States, and that's due to the money printing. They've to do the money printing to bribe the schools, the hospitals, the industries, the pharmaceutical industry, and the media in particular, to push this whole pandemic narrative through and make us do what they wanted.

Now everybody thinks we're coming up for another pandemic soon. The FDA is pushing out a new COVID vaccine in the middle of September. What are they going to do to us next? Are they going to be able to print money again and dole out $10 trillion of our grandchildren's money?

I think people are starting to understand this money printing inflationary spiral, and how it impoverishes us to the benefit of a small group. Those are bits of information — what's needed is connecting the dots. So, in my article, I tried to connect a lot of dots ...

Everything is so large happening at the same time and people are so confused. We need those who are paying close attention and know how to write to start explaining how these things are connected. We've got nine months until the WHO will vote on these two documents ...

At the beginning of May, I was invited to the International COVID Summit at the European Parliament in Brussels, and my talk was on the IHR amendments. I prepared a 10-minute talk ... but at the last minute the sponsors said, 'Look, you only have five minutes because we've so many.' ... So, I'm like, 'Oh my God, what do I do? I start at step one, what are the main points? And I guess a five-minute talk. I thought it must be terrible ...

Well, somebody made a three-minute, and somebody made a four-minute, and a four-minute little video of it and it went viral on Twitter and TikTok. Now people have added sound and they've added images. The thing has garnered millions of views. It's extraordinary.

But it's because I start off saying, 'We are experiencing a soft coup. This is what's happening. This is what the WHO is doing.' And it's so short, people are able to watch it. They see this little old lady who is speaking in a very measured way, and they see the European Parliament insignia behind me, and they're saying, 'Oh my god, maybe this is real.'

So that little thing has gotten 5 million to 10 million views and TikTokers are now adding to it. So, I think this whole issue of the WHO trying to grab our sovereignty is very meaningful to people. We just have to figure out the right messages, get them out there, and we'll win."

Where to Learn More

Door To Freedom is unique in that it is trying to introduce these highly complex, interlocking aspects of the global power grab in bite-sized pieces. The website has dozens of short summary articles and videos, with longer in-depth pieces for those who want to dive deeper. We also publish each new draft of the IHR amendments and the treaty as they come out, and I encourage people to have a look at the actual documents.

So, to get a good grasp of what's at stake, be sure to bookmark doortofreedom.org, and start sifting through it. Also, share the site with others and encourage them to learn more.

"We've put up the documents so people can read them," Nass says. "We have about 30 two-minute reads about the documents, about what's going on, about all sorts of things, trying to connect the dots on transhumanism, CBDCs, child sex education. And we have a large number of longer articles about related subjects.

So if you go to the site, it will give you an education about the massive global changes that the globalist cabal is bringing forward right now. As we speak, we're in the middle of the coup. The coup isn't next year. It's not when these documents get voted on. We're in the middle of it now. The documents are part of it.

Once we've completed everything on the website ... we will start building a worldwide coalition of organizations to fight all of this. That's the next step. Children's Health Defense ... are taking up this issue of the WHO, and there are many other organizations I'm working with: Stand for Health Freedom, organizations in England, in the European Union [and] South Africa ...

We want to then start pushing regular messaging to the world that will be the same everywhere. Education is the answer, because even if we beat back the WHO, if we don't beat back this entire agenda, the globalists will hit us with something else, either through the U.N. or through other multilateral organizations, or through national laws that are draconian.

[We must] make people understand what's happened over these last few years, where it's coming from, what led up to it and where it's going. And I think that's the best we can do. It's really important that we retain our ethics, our morals. We don't want to manipulate people.

We've all been manipulated, we've been mind-controlled. The media, the advertising, the education system have all been trying to limit the way people think ... We want you to open your minds, be able to identify propaganda when you see it, so that you can learn to think clearly for yourself. That's when we win."

If we want to stop this, then we have to start taking responsibility for our own lives and stop funding and mentally investing in all those entities attempting to build the prison around us. How are they ever going to police any of this? The only reason why the covid episode worked is because too many people's first reaction was fear and with that, their minds slipped a cog, they became irrational and then aggressive to those who didn't agree. This is where the problem is rooted, in decades, centuries even, of indoctrination, learned helplessness, belief that money is god and that those in power are some kind of benevolent parent.

Under neocolonialism complete African regions lost their sovereignty just because some foreign power took possession of the region's radio station and broadcast that they were now in power. That's what happened with covid, the government media just told you a pandemic was in full swing. They adopted all the paraphernalia of the Mediaeval alchemist or magician plus the present day equivalent in the 'scientific' personae with their charts, and AI generated figures and colourful images of spherical objects adorned with spikes and a suitably regal sounding name.

After that they trotted out the obviously dangerous sounding 'variants of concern' ad nauseam, having great fun so doing, given the names they continue to invent. Things aren't so just because some entity says they are, they achieve that status because you personally buy into it and/or you allow others to impose their acceptance of it upon you.

I don't believe any of this is to be stopped by writing to any kind of politician or figure in 'authority'. The solution comes from you and every individuals capacity for rational thought. Not one aspect of the pandemic makes any sort of rational sense and the fact that they even had to change the definition of the word 'pandemic' to fit, should have told you so, as that is the mark of a truly bad scholar.

Yes, Sue, efforts have been made to silence science and suppress information. The universities and medical schools themselves are part of the effort to prevent the truth from being recognized. Many of those who were misled and who so staunchly defended Vax, lockdowns and masks to family and friends are too ashamed to admit their mistake. Totalitarianism is taking hold, and is being tolerated by the masses and happily welcomed by Democrats and the left. The World Health Organization had deaths incorrectly recorded as "Covid deaths" to create fear in the name of the official narrative The personal well-being and freedoms represented by a WHO that will be able to translate its new unchecked and unaccountable authority into the opportunity to dictate the personal health care of Americans and all of humanity demands immediate action by Congress .

Push vaccinations for all children and adults at gunpoint, threatening parents with arrest and imprisonment if they refuse. An education that promotes obedient people instead of independent thinkers. The real goal is never "equality," but rather the marginalization and shaming of anyone who expresses her thoughts. Allowing powerful corporations to take control of the world's water supplies and charge monopoly prices.

Penalize coal, gas and oil while pushing for "green" energy subsidies spearheaded by friends of the White House. Destroy the free market economy and deny permits and licenses to those companies that do not obey government dictates. Concentrating weapons in the hands of the obedient executors of the government that govern. plunging the food supply into extreme shortages and causing runaway food price inflation that drives more people into economic despair. Strictly control all agriculture through a government bureaucracy corrupted by the interests of large corporations.

Unfortunately, awareness of what is really happening remains low, even among those who resist the continued destruction of our rights and freedoms, as well as the rapidly increasing number of "vaccine" deaths. Virtually all human beings fear the freedom to think for themselves, decide what to believe, and choose how to behave. Therefore, they think, believe, and behave according to norms determined by Elites with the WHO at the forefront and promulgated through Elite-controlled channels, including educational systems, entertainment media, and mass media.

That is the legacy of Rockefeller that now has continuity with the globalist elite that is now collected and expanded with the global tyranny of the WHO. We need mass civil resistance to undermine the power of the criminal Global Elite to control us and take back the freedoms that make our lives worth living. We are free to make decisions to fight against the tyranny of the WHO. The time has come to choose: are we on the side of love, life and freedom or fear, self-imprisonment and tyranny?

Study the history of where mandates have been enforced and understand the persecution that will follow of the unvaxed. Throughout history, there have been many mandates and dangerous vaccines.

Pretty funny; the one I thought was hilarious was the Kracken variant. Talk about trying to put fear into people!

And what is the primary weapon of that fear? It's something no one has ever seen and something which has never been scientifically proven to exist... viruses. As long as the masses continue to buy into this fear porn about the existence of these unholy phantoms, we will continue to have the UN and its minion, the WHO, pushing this fear porn upon us. Why? Because the jabs are exceedingly profitable and because pushing this fear button offers the predatory elites a form of power and control. We can't let a bunch of unelected 'officials' at the UN continue to do this to us. Set yourself free. Do not comply.

The Giant Octopus - how ever did I miss that one. My personal take on this is that the whole covid blueprint was as revealed in the script of the first three 'Pirates of the Caribbean' films because what we are seeing now is a renaissance of the East India Company, even down to the 'What's up is down', the global domination by a single commercial entity with its own private army, the shrinking of the World stage, the search for the Fountain of Youth and the threat of those who will not comply i.e. the pirates. Another interesting breadcrumb is the Monty Python Short - The Crimson Permanent Assurance https://vimeo.com/111458975 from 1983, produced a mere 4 years before Black Monday and the stock market crash of 1987, which was a wake up call back then for those who wished to hear.

Tour first paragraph says it all! Convince people that there is a need for these poisons and they loose all ABILITY TO THINK FOR THEMSELVES. oH, mY GOD, WHAT CAN i DO??? If the early pioneers hd rected this way to every problem they encountered, they never would hsve ventured past the first colonies! Write a politician! They have been bought, intimidated from the day they first accepted donations from big money! Biden, he is a demented, puppet! We have to be ready to stand for our rights. Early Christians did!

Sue, Regarding Pirates of the Caribbean plot in play in this, I have another movie analogy for "if we want to stop this." We can! The key to saving the world can be found in "Wonder Woman 1984." In that movie, people suddenly got the power to wish for whatever they wanted. That power, being given for free and unearned, was used frivolously and emotionally by most without much thought nor considerations of unintended consequences which the movie depicts quite well and cascading into catastrophic consequences that would have destroyed everything!

Wonder Woman got the people to solve the impending doom from their thoughtless "wishes" with her message to the entirety of the population of the world to "Renounce your wish!" Now substitute frivolous and emotional votes for wishes. Though votes are done and can't be renounced, our next votes can be deeply contemplated to avoid unintended consequences. Will people who are unintentionally voting for their own demise renounce their foolish vote choices before voting?

It's possible. It would "save the world!". But, I don't count on it. In sharp contrast, I expect they will get the unintended consequences that will make the survivors the majority. The future belongs to the survivors and their descendants as it always has and always will. I hope to see our highly aware Mercola.com commenter regulars among the survivors and offer to help facilitate that. IF you can't outvote them, then prepare to outlive them for they vote for their own demise! RonaldHLevine4548@yahoo.com 801 634-7249

The WHO is the globalists' conduit for control over humanity. They drain our resources, serve our enemies, and continue to work to establish a global dictatorship over everyone and everything. The WHO has many ambitions; but improving our health and supporting our rights are not among them. The governance of the WHO constitutes unprecedented fascism. 194 unelected puppets from all our countries, pretending to represent us, continue to prepare to erase our rights. The personal well-being and freedoms represented by a WHO that will be able to translate its new unchecked and unaccountable authority into the opportunity to dictate the personal health care of Americans and all of humanity demands immediate action by Congress .

Lawmakers should use the leverage coming from the Biden administration's insistence on raising the debt ceiling to force the president to withdraw from the WHO now. While the corporate media and governments remain silent about what is happening, WCH Law and Activism Committee member James Roguski is keeping a vigil and exposing their backroom deals, secret meetings and dark agenda. We humans must stop them before we, along with our descendants and future generations, experience horrors far beyond even crimes against humanity.

Powerful actions are shown to take. The WHO controllers are very serious and organized to kill most of us and enslave the rest. drtrozzi.org/2023/04/05/nb-updates-on-who-strategies-to-enslave-us/ (2023).------- drtrozzi.org/.../fight-the-who-now (2023).----------- CREATING A DIGITAL PRISON': WHO RUSHES AHEAD ON GLOBAL DIGITAL HEALTH CERTIFICATES childrenshealthdefense.org/defender/who-global-digital-health-certific.. Spot on Gui. Drain our resources. Block, stop, destroy, convert those resources to be the opposite of what they are stated for or chartered to be and push all into a kind of Social Solitary Confinement so as few as possible can figure out a clear path. With so many separated for so long as to how to provide our own basic needs at home or locally means we are starting from a deep, dark disadvantage. But, the Heavy Ham Handed Overkill Reaction from the Predator Machine suggests they are not anywhere close to where they expected to be. This WHO Treaty is direct offense against the States Separation of Powers and this Separation of Powers appears to be a major thorn in their side.

Well said Just, they are satanic technocrats at the service of the monstrous machine of the WHO and the UN with their theranic agendas that they have already been occupying and governing openly, by activating provisions in legally manipulated instruments with international and federal mechanisms. We are facing a false paradigm of the global threat to the establishment of world totalitarianism. The legal instruments that centralize power have been manufactured to become operational after the unilateral declaration of cross-border threats. The beast desperately wants the people of the world to think that the Monster's capture of global power is necessary and desired.

According to presidential candidate Robert F. Kennedy Jr., the WHO should lose funding if it doubles down on its medical tyranny instead of refocusing on health. "I understand how the WHO works and it has completely lost its way," he said. "And now, it is taking power to try to give itself the power to declare pandemics and then impose health policies on its member countries. Actually, it's almost ridiculous; "It's crazy." WHO used to be involved in useful efforts such as supporting local health clinics, local agriculture, economic development and clean water in Africa and elsewhere but now the outlook is totally adverse. "That is what the WHO should be doing.

They shouldn't be dictating global health policies or... [getting] involved in these gigantic vaccination programs," said RFK Jr. "They can't do that; "I'm not going to allow them to do something like that." "I will defund the WHO. What I'm going to do is negotiate with them. I will make sure that the WHO does those things, that it changes [and] becomes a health organization again. Otherwise, I won't fund them." RFK Jr. also lamented how the global health body "has now become an instrument" for communist China, Davos globalist billionaires, Big Pharma and Big Ag. www.brighteon.com/17eee516-4772-4a97-bec5-cfee5c855ca5

My suggestion is to follow the money; generous investments made by Bill Gates as his "charitable donations", have been steering the plandemic response before it even started. Also appears the NGO Gates started, GAVI is directing the actions of the WHO. This is not exactly an eye opener, but a succinct collection of his actions over the past decade, the agenda he called "the decade of vaccination". This includes vaccn by mosquito, by food, fake food, creating digital ID technology, spraying particles to block out the sun, and more. What's clear is he has funded media and damn near controls all mainstream media, some industry journals and a portion of university research.

This is the cover used for his eugenics program, now in full swing. He's developed a giant spider's web of investments, he's acting like the Worldwide Oligarch of Population Control. Forget the philanthropic smoke screen. ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ Here's an Oct 1 posting about: Bill Gates The Man Behind The Curtain - - expose-news.com/2023/10/01/bill-gates-the-man-behind-the-curtain/ - - Read down in the article as Astrid adds a few important tidbits about changes that occurred at the WHO, this summary article ends with a banned video of Gates that has resurfaced and gone viral (about 25 min).

Yes, Rose, a good suggestion, follow the money. Great link. Yes, Bill Gates is one of the main financiers and masterminds behind unrestricted global biochemical and psychological warfare, along with sponsors from the WEF and the UN. Bill Gates controls the policies of mass murder masquerading as "public health" by controlling the funding of international regulatory bodies. Today, contributions from member states to WHO are capped and represent only 16% of the budget. 84% of the money comes from Today, the contributions of member states to the WHO are capped and represent only 16% of the budget.

84% of the money comes from private entities (i.e. unelected rich  cartels that want to rule the world) private entities (i.e. unelected rich  cartels that want to rule the world), top ones are the Bill & Melinda Foundation Gates and GAVI who together contributed ~$1.2 million to the budget, making them the second largest financier of the WHO. The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation has funded both BioNTech and Moderna and has profited from these companies as their poisonous products were forced, through WHO policies, on billions of people around the world.

The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation also funded the main fraudulent studies Solidarity and Recovery which intentionally overdosed the patients with lethal doses of hydroxychloroquine. The worldwide narrative that covid is not treatable by repurposed drugs and gave the US Government-Pharma cartel the cover they needed to push the EUA countermeasures was established based on these “studies”. sashalatypova.substack.com/p/when-a-philanthropist-gifts-you-a?utm_sou.. THE TOP 10 REASONS WHY THE MEMBER NATIONS SHOULD EXITTHEWHO: 1)CONFLICTS OF INTEREST AND CORRUPTION: La OMS est infiltrada por las grandes farmacuticas, las grandes empresas monetarias y las grandes fundaciones y ha sido corrompida por donaciones financieras de corporaciones y organizaciones no gubernamentales que influyen en la poltica de la OMS de manera que benefician a las corporaciones y organizaciones a travs de una transferencia monetaria. -plan de blanqueo y trfico de influencias de proporciones masivas. La OMS sigue los dictados de sus llamadas “partes interesadas relevantes” mientras ignora las necesidades y deseos de “Nosotros, el Pueblo”.

2)VACCINE MADNESS: Influenciada por los fabricantes y promotores de vacunas como GAVI y Bill Gates, la OMS ha perdido de vista su propsito principal de promover la salud y ha enfatizado el uso de “vacunas” que en realidad han degradado la salud general. salud de miles de millones de personas en todo el mundo. 3)BUREAUCRACY AND WASTE: La OMS est dominada por burcratas y tecncratas que estn en deuda con las grandes farmacuticas, no por profesionales de la salud con conocimientos que se dedican a cuidar a los pacientes y ayudarlos a mantener y mejorar su salud.

relacionados con la salud carecen crnicamente de fondos suficientes. 4)FEAR-MONGERING:La OMS ha hecho sonar la alarma y ha perdido tiempo, esfuerzo y dinero al declarar FALSAS emergencias de salud pblica de importancia internacional 5)HORRIBLE RECOMMENDATIONS: The WHO has made horrible and corrupt recommendations in support of the expanded use of pharmaceutical drugs such as opiates that have been responsible for untold millions of unnecessary deaths.

6)FALSE MODEL OF HEALTH: The WHO is overly dependent upon the petro-chemical based pharmaceutical, medical, hospital industrial complex which practices allopathic medicine that is designed to alter and mask symptoms rather than actually improve health. The WHO does not offer a forum for clinical and scientific discussion or debate and clearly marginalizes natural healing modalities. 7)POWER GRAB: La OMS busca descaradamente aumentar su poder mediante la elaboracin de una propuesta de “Tratado sobre Pandemia” 8)MISTAKES:.The WHO has repeatedly demonstrated that it is absolutely unwilling and incapable of learning from its mistakes of the past and is destined to continue wasting money while providing horrible advice based on the corruptive influence of Big Pharma and Bill Gates 9)OUT-OF-TOUCH:

The delegates to the World Health Assembly are unelected, unaccountable, unknown to the people they purport to represent and completely out of touch with the needs and desires of the people of their respective nations. 10)SECRECY: The WHO operates in secrecy and lacks transparency. Far too much of what is done by the WHO remains hidden. What we know is horrible. What we don't know may be monstrous. jamesroguski.substack.com/p/exit-the-who?utm_source=%2Fsearch%2Fsubstr.. Thank you ROSE. Exit The WHO, JAMES ROGUSKI In order to protect our personal freedoms and our national sovereignty, the time has come for "We the People" to #ExitTheWHO jamesroguski.substack.com/p/exit-the-who?utm_source=%2Fsearch%2FwHO&am.. (06/2023).-- More about Bill Gates. To get more people to accept his chemical injections, billionaire eugenicist Bill Gates, in collaboration with the World Health Organization (WHO) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), is working on new injection technology. microneedle vaccine patch whereby people will be able to peel and stick the patches through the mail service. We are told that mRNA gene therapy technology can be implemented in these patches, which in theory can be mailed via the United States Postal Service (USPS) to every home in the country.

The ostensible goal is to continually inject people's bodies with gene therapy chemicals that will over time change their bodily functions and alter their immune system. It would seem to be some kind of Humanity 2.0 agenda involving transhumanism and other devious things. None of this has to do with health, just to be clear. Gates is only interested in two things: making money and genocide. And his new Big Pharma proposal for peel-and-stick microneedle vaccines by mail will advance that agenda by leaps and bounds if enough people end up complying. www.technocracy.news/gates-who-cdc-see-peel-stick-vaccine-patches-mail.. This also marks the events that are currently related to the WHO. On April 25, 2009, the WHO, headed by Margaret Chan, declared a Public Health Emergency of International Concern (PHEIC). And a couple of weeks later, the “Good Club” met in New York at the height of the H1N1 swine flu pandemic, which turned out to be a scam. In May 2009, the billionaire philanthropists met behind closed doors at the president of Rockefeller University's home in Manhattan. Participants included the late David Rockefeller, Warren Buffett, George Soros, Michael Bloomberg, Ted Turner, Oprah Winfrey and many more. This secret meeting was sponsored by Bill Gates. They called themselves "The Good Club For more than ten years, billionaires described as philanthropists have held meetings to reduce the size of the world's population culminating in the 2020-2022 Covid crisis.

Recent events suggest that “depopulation” is an integral part of so-called Covid mandates, including lockdown policies and the mRNA “vaccine.” The world population". Sounds familiar? That was the same Neil Ferguson (generously supported by the Gates Foundation) who designed the coronavirus lockdown model (released March 11, 2020). As we remember, that mathematical model of March 2020 was based on “predictions” of 600,000 deaths in the United Kingdom. www.globalresearch.ca/secret-may-2009-meeting-of-the-good-club-billion.. SILENCE = CONSENT OUR LEADERS RECOMMENDED CHANGES TO INTERNATIONAL HEALTH REGULATIONS THAT WOULD MAKE THE FAILED C19 MEASURES AND EXPERIMENTAL INJECTIONS OBLIGATORY THESE LEADERS ARE SILENT. About changes to the health regulations - hoping to hide their criminality. Dr Campbell interviews James Roguski on the timelines for the adoption of amendments to the International Health Regulations and the new pandemic treaty. “They have been negotiated in secret and will be presented to the International Health Regulations Review Committee, which is scheduled for December 15 and no revised addendum, version 2.0, or public comments have been published.

debate in Parliament or Congress, nothing in the news, everyone is talking about the Treaty and it just moves along silently and the danger is in the method by which it is officially adopted. This is the modus operandi of the WHO and the sycophants of the Cult. “Introduce measures that generate profits through control and surveillance measures that do not work, but generate money and then enact “the process is the punishment” to keep away all those people who have better ideas and who expose our corruption, incompetence and arrogance. What is surprising is the Biden Administration's attempt to shorten an 18-month review period to just 6 months, so that “ratification” occurs within the Biden Administration's mandate.

Many countries, including the US, EU and UK, drafted the amendments without consulting interested and highly qualified parties who are aware of the diabolical mistakes made during the pandemic. Petitions have been launched in the United Kingdom, Australia and Canada calling for a parliamentary debate under the laws of each of those countries.” peterhalligan.substack.com/p/silence-consent-our-leaders-recommended?u.. If anyone saw a bit of R-debates, the impeachment inquiry or budget hearings, and didn't think we are run by groups of insane idiots gone totally F-nuts; you need to be slapped, shaken and given black coffee!!! And if these "Honorables" are not crazy, they are corrupted traitors making the country nuts. Well said forbiddenhealing. I used to wonder how these (dis)honourables voted the the way they do. Always understood that they were never in it for you and I, but the extent of their greed and blind ignorance goes far beyond anything we have ever imagined. Seems to me that some of our illustrious MP's are firmly entrenched in the workings of the WEF; maybe some are blackmailed; maybe some are threatened; maybe some are bought. Whatever the reason, they are too stupid to realise that they are the architects of their own demise. More than possible, many of them will have shares in big pharma (case in point, our own PM).

Great position to be in, vote for multiple evermore jabs, fill your pockets. If that isn't a massive conflict of interest, I don't know what is. Yet the public keep voting for these dummies, unwittingly thinking that their vote means anything; put simply, it doesn't matter which party is in government, they are all part of the same beast, aka the City of London. As Albert Einstein said “unthinking belief in authority is the greatest enemy of the truth”. Maybe Guy Fawkes was right? Maybe the only answer is Revolution?

..and these are just the ones with their heads over the parapet, imagine how truly messed up the ones running the show are. There are only two ways 'they' can get any one to do their bidding, blackmail or paying them huge wads of sweaty money and by my reckoning they've infested every area of influence because everything is the opposite of what it purports to be from Education that doesn't educate to Health Care that is nothing about health and certainly doesn't care. Now the latest abomination is the rise of 'Environmentalists', who detest the natural world and all that inhabit it, except of course themselves.

They want violence because then they can point the finger and say: 'Look what happens when we are not in control'. They've fomented revolution throughout the centuries all the time pretending that was our choice and presenting us with yet another puppet. Marie-Antoinette never said 'let them eat cake' or even 'brioche', that was a line taken from the autobiography of Jean-Jacques Rousseau. The French crown was actually persuaded to donate huge amounts of money to the American Revolution, squeezing the working classes through taxation and that was her downfall.

No revolution ever comes from the people, it is orchestrated just like the vodka advert from the 80s. www.youtube.com/watch and we will never have a cohesive revolution from the people for this reason (start at 1.09 for the meat and potatoes): www.youtube.com/watch True history comes from fiction and that is a fact even in or perhaps because of this crazy upside down world. Getting people to think for themselves, growing your own organic food, barter, home-schooling those are the tools of real revolution.

Came across a glimmer of good/bad news last night, Peter Halligan found a class-action lawsuit being filed against Gilead Life Sciences in California, for false advertising. How many members are in this class of family and relatives of those who have been harmed or died from RundeathisNear? Around 100,000 Americans. Here's a link: "Class action lawsuit against the maker of Remdesivir - (“run death is near”) Gilead Sciences launched Wednesday, 27th September 2023 in California" - - peterhalligan.substack.com/.../class-action-lawsuit-against-the - - can only hope this will expose Dr Fauci for the pathological liar he has always been. Apparently, patients were never given informed consent, this sick plan was a means of increasing deaths and injuries to make the faked pandemic appear more deadly than it actually was.

The idea that inaction equals consent is ridiculous. It indicates arrogant monsters who think they know better than everybody else and should be in charge, etc. Against them is sheer truculence, i.e. noncompliance. Truculence has a long history of success in combatting tyrants. Violence nearly always fails. There are almost no masks where I live and I think this is from the example set by we who refused to wear them. We never got violent and rarely confrontational. We just treated masks like foolishness that was unworthy of intelligent attention. But I did do one other thing: loudly thank every beautiful God-created face I saw. Sometimes they were just taking a break from the suffocation and rebreathing germs. Getting appreciation for those times strengthened their desire for sense and freedom.

Didn't Trump get us out of WHO? We are a Republic not a Democracy. I wish people would research the Constitution. This is against the Constitution. It can be challenged in courts. Pa had mask mandates, unfortunately it took about 1.5 years to go through the Pennsylvania court system but now they can not mandate masks again in my state.

So its easy? Everyone points at the WHO, but its not JUST the WHO, rather it is the UN, WEF, GAVI, CEPI, Wellcome Trust and the BMGF, with a few more associated NGOs, like the World Bank, that are pulling their depopulation agenda forward, no matter the cost. It's a deadly web being shielded right now by their NGO status, especially those agencies based in Switzerland. Neutral nation? Hardly! David Martin mentioned recently, no International Court of Justice exits now to handle any claims or petitions against these NGOs.

Rrealrose, also monopolizing corporations. Especially industries like Big Tech, Big Pharma, and the privatized military industrial complex. The first two pretend to be independent of our governments. The last pretends to be accountable to our government when it's the other way around. Our "representatives" are greedy, traitorous scum in it for the money. Although covered before, constant updates on this subject, resistance to the WEF/WHO and all their wanna be dictatorship agenda is of critical importance. As mentioned in the article, what is not obvious to most is what appears to be separate organizations, institutions, media sources, etc., are actually corruption working in concert. Most of the General Public have never had Davos appear on their Bull Spit Detectors, let alone the WEF. Gates may be on their BS radar, but still not associated with these nefarious agendas separately, let alone as one Big Club, (and we are Not In It.) This is all incredibly dangerous as again, most of the General Public associate their misery with the Straw Men distractions and not the actual Root Causes as why things have steadily digressed downhill in nearly any front we face in our lives.

This route was already taken decades ago with the many Trade Agreements sending the foundation to our Middle Class out of the States. NAFTA, followed by just one Trade Treaty after another so now we have goods, needs built in made in slave labor conditions. They stopped bringing the slave here, and took the manufacturing to the slaves.

This Medical Farce Tyranny is just one more cornerstone in their desires for a worldwide dictatorship, a reduced population, for a bunch who do not play well or share with others. More will never be enough, so stop giving them more! Stop feeding the Beast. Shut down all the Snoop Tech feeding the Beast. (Here is another take on steps to take. As usual there most likely be some personal opinions not agreed with, but, much of the overall information seems useful.

Very true Just, we have to stop feeding the Beast. A sufficient proportion of social media and other types of "information" are biased towards promoting state propaganda, then the audience will inevitably be persuaded to believe the authorities. In contrast, a single well-researched and well-argued publication or article can permanently persuade readers to adopt an anti-government stance because it is more meaningful. Corporations, governments, the WHO, the UNU with their agendas that are out of control seek to penalize what George Orwell called "thought crimes." But they will never really be able to stop people from thinking for themselves, nor will they definitively know what the writer's intention is or what meaning people will ultimately get.

It is a bad law and will eventually fail because, in itself, it is based on misinformation The platforms locked us into their systems and made us easy victims, ripe for extraction. Twitter, Facebook and other Big Tech platforms are difficult to abandon by design. They hold hostage the people we love, the communities we care about, the audiences and customers we trust. The Internet Con: How to Leverage Computing Media is a book that distills 20 years of experience fighting for digital rights. Explains how the Internet is breaking down and how we will get it back. Plus, I do something better. I launch my audiobooks at the link

Gui, a major part of the Predator Paraite downfall will be Misinformation. Already being disconnected from Humanity and the misinformation this creates, they are also fed Misinformation from sources attempting to spin what the 'Big Guy' wants to hear. See the many articles where the research scientist reveals he felt compelled to pump up the Climate Change Agenda and downplay factors to address areas of positive progress because he felt strongly his work would never see the light of day. (How ironic, it didn't - did it, until he confessed.) So much of this information adjustment creating misinformation is going and on it is fed into their "infallible" computer models to then be foisted upon all of us, including the 1%.

This implies more often than not, they are not just leading us up the wrong hill, they are racing up it too. Look at the Fauci Circus's many trial run Pandemics turning out to be expensive nothing burgers except for the ma$$ive profit$ for Pharma, and more Power and Control too, as all the other Watchdog Institution at best failed, but at this point are more likely just more enforcers of Misinformation.

There was a time (UK) when we could only get the useful stuff from whistleblowers on RT channel. GB News is not too great but they DO regularly refer to 'the globalist agenda. It's possibly why OFCOM (the so-called regulator) is after them, but the cat is out of the bag for millions now, especially after the Russell Brand media meltdown.

juststeve, you say the Paraite route was taken decades ago, but their plan was concocted well over a CENTURY ago, before WW1! The best description of this long history can be found in books by Matthew Ehret, especially his new 4 volume series "The Clash of the Two Americas" volume 1 to 4, see Amazon. This is quite clear also from the new presentation of Dr. David Martin. If you pay close attention to his chart at 13m45sec, you will see that in 1947 Dr. Rene Sand founded WHO! This fact is NOT directly mentioned in wiki or in Dr. Meryl Nass poster/chart? Why? But the page for Dr. Sand does say that he was the key figure, a co-foundeer of WHO, and also that his university chair was founded by the Rottenfellers!

Download before the page disappears or is edited — en.wikipedia.org/.../Ren%C3%A9_Sand — A really curious psychological phenomenon - why would a former Dachau concentration camp survivor became the chief depopulator chosen by the cabal ?!? (To get crucial insights read the excellent book by the Holocaust survivor psychologist Viktor E. Frankl "Man's Search for Meaning", in which he wrote that "the best of us did not survive" - the survivors were mentally badly crippled and brutalized to the point to becoming indifferent to the torture and the suffering of others!) Brussels thus became the centre of this Nazi criminal cabal and it is no surprise that the Belgian minister Macr van Ranst was in charge of preparing the fake pandemic in 2019, see his lecture at the Viper's Den at Chatham house — www.bitchute.com/.../jml70rAN3awM — Notice also how the young brainwashed cabal minions at Chatham House laugh & giggle! Utterly disgusting!!! All this ought to be exposed to the public. Information like this is crucial for the general public to know so they wake up to what is really happening!

pth888, Right, no argument here. These tactics and more have been play for a very long time. In my own clumsy way what I'm trying to home in on is for those who lived it, if they did not realize it at the time a series of trade treaty agreements. NAFTA being prime, began a process of Trade Treaties designed to skirt around our Separation of Powers. These Trade Treaties allowed Too Big Corp's to become Monopolies, then Too Big to Fail, on to Global Monopolies now calling many of the shots through the Trade Treaties. (Called Globalization in many corners.) In my humble opinion this is strong evidence the push for the WHO Treaty is following just one of their well-worn paths from fairly recent history. Something to point to if one finds an ear willing to listen who may not begin to realize how anything they could unbolt was moved out of country or overseas.

It has been a Scream Meme Strawman since the Predator$ have moved the Industrial, Factory Work out that the Workers in the States can't compete with foreign interest because - we are too lazy, want too much, not educated, foreigners are stealing our jobs here in the states, yada, yada, yada. Thing is, how are we supposed to compete when there is no factory here to work in to compete out of? Legitimate Treaties are one thing. Treaties to feed and expand Corruption, Power & Control to force starvation, sickness, to eliminate National Sovereignty is another.

When "they" (WHO or whoever) say something is Mandatory, Required, Ordered, Requested, Ordinance, Decree, Recommended, or Compulsory just tell them it is not a law. If "they" pass a law, remember - Laws are made to be broken. Do Not Comply - Do Not Consent.

It could be that the 2nd Amendment in this country will finally either be used for what it was intended, and all those millions of guns which people own in this country will be the deciding factor ... or not. Mandatory injections for millions of armed citizens who see through the b.s.? I don't know about that. It's one thing to mandate injections / poison for unarmed, docile citizens. It's another to mandate that for citizens who see the lies, and who have deadly weapons. Writing to representatives ... would be like writing a note to Biden, hoping to change his mind (which appears to be non-existent) with a plea for our nation's sovereignty. Guns, on the other hand ... time will tell, and probably sooner than later. Of course I'm not advocating violence. I do have strong feelings about self-defense against people intent on killing me.

God Bless you Dr. Mercola for getting this Message out: They, the WHO/UN/WEF, et. al. want to control us economically and absolutely; in order to kill 90+% of us with the most extremely toxic & lethal injections ever concocted and in innumerable other ways as well! They want to be the Totalitarian Slave Masters of the world today and to be master over the few remaining survivors after their MEGA GENOCIDE in the future. These people are extremely ill both mentally and spiritually; they are a pandemic of Satanic Megalomaniacs! Charlie Manson and Klaus Swab are genetic siblings, severely deranged and far, far beyond redemption! "We the People" need to, MUST Oppose them all, and Object to anything and everything they propose to force upon us. Pay attention, do not condone or cooperate in any manner; their intentions are Diabolic in the extreme! God help us in the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

Ren, this is one of those 'black pills' ... they're all traitors, murderers, thieves. All of them at that level. they only get there by playing ball, and they do what they're told for money, because of blackmail, and / or threat of death. Probably all three for most of them. People who continue to see Republicans and Democrats as somehow different, or one better than the other, are duped, and a huge part of the problem. It's all scripted, all a movie, and they act their roles as they're told. My 'wakeup' on that level happened in '04, just before the election. It took me three years to 'see' 9-11 for what it was. And then I really saw. And from then on, I have described politicians as murderers, thieves, and liars. Oh, some local ones haven't crossed over to the dark side. But the lure of power and money, backed by threats and blackmail, seem sufficient to control every damned one of them.

Another step a US citizen can take to fight this insanity is to support RFK Jr's candidacy. His organization - Children's Health Defense - has been supporting Dr. Nass and features interviews with her. - Kennedy understands the law, the Constitution, and has a proven record of holding his ground against the corrupt elite. RFK Jr authentically works for the good of We The People!

RFK Jr is a hero and I hope and pray for his success in politics! However, I am somewhat puzzled that the "Republican" Christian right, represented by "pro-life anti-jab" Steve Deace and Daniel Horowitz (see The Blaze podcasts), which endorses Ron DeSantis for president. Politics is very tricky and Steve & Daniel are very knowledgeable politically, so we will see what happens. In any case, using very simple logic of an average citizen, wouldn't it be best if RFK Jr and DeSantis were somehow able to join the forces and send such messaging to the public? Perhaps DeSantis for president and RFK Jr for vice-president? Or some such arrangement of joint political forces? Otherwise I see no hope for the real moral revival in the USA and in the world - the cabal will win and we will all be either depopulated, or killed by bioweapons, or the whole world will perish in a DEW-nuclear holocaust!

Really!? "... the director general of the WHO doesn't even need to declare a pandemic. The pandemic treaty will be in effect all the time." Does this mean there will be a perpetual pandemic starting 2025? Or is this just a charade to mask continuous culling, murdering billions upon billions. Making people believe that several pandemics are running parallel and/or sequential would just be fine to get the job done. Or may be even this is not necessary so long they can make people want to take a vaccine for fear of non-existent viruses in nature or just simply non-existent viruses, full stop. They keep changing definitions, don't they, so may be the new definition of 'pandemic' should be 'depopulation'. The pandemic treaty is simply their "depopulation treaty".

Thank you Dr mercola for being such a freedom fighter! Luckily I was able to realize what was going on when the censorship started or when I realized it was starting and think of every dr and person I should sign up for their mailing lists so I wouldn't miss anything. We've been reading your work for 25 years and I appreciate being able to catch up on things. I'm proud of you being the king of the "disinformation dozen" haha. I miss all the herbalist etc you used to be able to find online. I hope we can claim back freedom of thought and freedom of information from EVERYONE!

If one believes that elections are selections, which they have been for decades, there is no benefit to going to your congress person. They won't do anything. You can have more influence with speaking with your neighbours and educating them. Many may not be aware or on the fence. The more people that become aware, the more the masses have influence. The shift in consciousness has to come from the working class. That's the only time things ever change. Voting rights for women, 40 hour work week, no child labor are all changes that came about when working people got together and brought about change

Always wondering why it's called World HEALTH Organization. For whom is it health? For the pharmaceuticals or better their OWNERS because of making money? Or what the health is THEY think about? They can't heal because the bacteria destroying chemicals prevent healing. But it's an intelligent one. If one has an inflammation in their body which is literally the bodies ability to heal itself if I am not completely nuts, then THEY give some drugs and the body goes to there and tries to fix the toxins, therefore the let's pain disappears because therefore it appears to be gone.

So it's like during the war, the British threw potato bugs over Germany in order for having the food destroyed, soldiers couldn't fight as good. And like always the Synagogue of Satan was involved at that time as it is now, or kabal thanks to the 'Allied' got used for their purposes. Lucas 19, 27, oh and an interesting one is deuteronomy (who came up with that tongue breaker name?) 28, 49. Guess who that could be and needed destruction?

The dynastic bankster families, the trillionaire class, are in charge behind the scenes of most governments. They along with the central banksters have immunity extended beyond any given to others.
home.solari.com/laundering-with-immunity-the-control-framework-part-1/ They all have self sufficient secret havens because they still fear the 99% and their pitchforks arriving at their gates in Europe and North America. A known example: In 2006 a 25 year old Jenna Bush was in Paraguay sealing a deal for 300,000 acres. the size of LA & 20% larger than NYC, over the Guarani Aquifer, the largest fresh water reservoir in the world.

The only reason we know about it is that Jenna, being Jenna, took her hunky Secret Service escorts bar hopping in Asuncion. Her purse was stolen. The taxi drivers were dancing and singing in the streets as the news spread. Too delicious a story to be ignored by the northern press, so we heard, but not since has there been a link. The rest of the dynastic trillionaire class also have secret havens in the southern hemisphere. We do not know who or where, but it can be suredly assumed. Because of the Coriolis Effect and Hadley Cells, the air and water masses between the North & South do not mix much.

With sea level rise there will be many more Fukushima like accidents that will severely radiate the North even if there is no nuclear war. 99% of the nuclear reactors are in the North. The .00001% hire the best informed to keep them safe. As in a former article, they eat only biodynamic food grown for them specially. They think in terms of dynasties so want to protect their heritage like kings of old & are also pathological narcissists so have no empathy for the 99%.

Which UNITES STATES? The Territorial United States U.S. Government (District of Columbia - since 1789) is a commercial foreign (offshore), privately owned, international, D&B commercially registered - incorporated legal entity, governmental services, for-profit, business organization - a municipal corporation (BRITISH CROWN) governmental services subcontractor for-hire - it is not our government - these employees work for a commercial BRITISH CROWN incorporated subcontractor, for-profit, business organization (and it has always been this way - since 1789!). Which makes them subject to law merchant law - international commercial law...the law of contracts!

This is their achillies heel! No contract...no jurisdiction! Our government (Federal Republic - American Sub-Contractor staffed by American State Nationals) has not been in office since 1860, moreover, our government is not incorporated...corporations have owners - So...produce the international commercial Maritime Contract! Are you U.S. Citizen (Employee, Dependent, volunteer, Franchisee) or an American State National? You better understand the difference because they sure do! Correct your political status and exit their strictly limited commercial jurisdiction! Problem solved...You better know who you are (political status), so that you have the standing (jurisdiction) and capacity to defend yourself.

Incorporated entities do not tell living people what to do without a contract! All of us were "trafficked" on paper into a foreign jurisdiction the minute we were born. Our mother signed in the box labeled "Informant" and checked the box U.S. Citizen on the BC...You better understand the definition of Citizen and Informant - Black's Law. All of us were American State Nationals for about 2 weeks until the Probate Court Registrar signed the U.S. Citizen franchise registration request and later showed up in your mailbox! The single biggest human trafficking scam in the history of planet earth.

I am reading a book that is quite in line with what you say. The U S is a holding company, the 50 states are its subsidiaries, we are an asset employee of the U S Corporation. And it is bankrupt. When you pay taxes or a court or parking fine, it is pretty much a debt collecting endeavor. When you enter a court, you are submitting to the law indicated by that flag (the gold fringed flag is British Maritime Law), and your constitutional rights are suspended and you are being tried under British Maritime Law. Whenever people who know the score ask for an American flag to replace the gold fringed one, it never happens.

Interesting, didn't think that would come up here, but eventually it does. As far as I always understood the corporation came up in 1871, coincidently when the German Reich was founded by Bismarck. I am sure there was an agenda behind that. As Roosevelt said nothing happens by coincidence in politics. As far as I know in each of the countries remains a part of the sovereign state. I think in the US it is the congress. If it is as in the FRG when you're born your parents get the family register with the human, then go to the 'public' office where they get the BC for the entity they just founded that you get your number for.

What I am not sure about but would make sense, that after seven years you are legally dead. As a juristic person you can't have kids, because they are alive and so on and so on. If I am not mistaken get yourself a BC. Get your family tree back to before 1871 on the same paper, with a pic of you. Get it legalised. As this isn't worth the paper it's been written on if the same, get an apostille on top.

Lots of opinions and interpretations of history when it comes to the origin of the Republic and events after, such as in 1871. I would highly suggest researching this extensively and careful to not stumble down a deep rabbit hole. I have did a lot of research on this and still not totally clear as to what is legally right.

As a general comment, I would say that we need to stop referring to freedom in the plural (freedomS - plural) as that suggests that it can be parsed out, piecemeal bit by bit, case by case. We are either free or we are not. You can't carve it up into little pieces, being free over here, but not over there, free over here, but not free over there. this is not freedom. Freedom can only have its true meaning, when expressed in the singular. When it is approached in the plural, there is an inherent meaning that bits of it can be taken away. I think it is safe to say that we are not free. This is the worst and most dangerous mindset of all when a people believe themselves to be free when they are quite the opposite.

The sad part is that humanity has never known 'true sovereignty' - We are so indoctrinated that we don't even realize that even a 'passport' is similar to what slaves used to carry to give them a 'pass' to go to the market without their slave owner. They say passports are for our 'safety' - all a crock of sh*t. I believe true sovereignty for humanity is coming as more and more normies wake up to understand they've been programmed as slaves with taxes, laws, limitations, a death system that is masked as 'healthcare' and a judicial system that protects all deep state actors from any of their transgressions (the judicial system was set up for us, not them.)

The coup has been going on for decades. Wild how long it took most folks to even sense it happening. How rude so many were when faced with it or shown pieces of it from 911 to the skies becoming full of spider webs. Where were y'all?? Guess we gotta forgive and forget. Well, we have repurposed antivirals, but, (clutching at straws here) can we find something that will minimise the effects of an mRNA jab if enforced? I'm recalling those reports early on in 2020, of medics in Germany turning up a people's doors along with a soldier, to enforce the jabbery process.

Bee, do you have proof of this? I live in Germany, and am not aware that such a thing happened.

Many of the treatments that worked against severe COVID-19 infection also help improve the adverse effects of the injection. This makes sense, since the toxic and most harmful part of the virus is the spike protein, and that's what your entire body produces if you get the shot. Two doctors who have begun to address the treatment of COVID needlestick injuries in earnest include Dr. Michelle Perro (DrMichellePerro.com), whom I interviewed about this topic, and Dr. Pierre Kory (DrPierreKory.com). They both agree that removing the spike protein that your body now continuously produces is a major task.

Perro's preferred remedy for this is hydroxychloroquine, while Kory typically uses ivermectin. Both drugs bind and therefore facilitate the removal of the spike protein. Kory also believes there may be ways to stimulate the immune system to allow it to degrade and eventually clear the spike from your cells naturally, over time. One of the strategies he recommends for this is TRE (time-restricted eating), which stimulates autophagy, a natural cleaning process that eliminates damaged, misfolded and toxic proteins.

Another strategy that can do the same would be sauna therapy. As a member of the Front Line COVID-19 Critical Care Alliance (FLCCC), Kory helped develop FLCCC's post-vaccine treatment protocol called I-RECOVER. Since the protocol is continually updated as more data becomes available, your best option is to download the latest version directly from the FLCCC website at covid19criticalcare.com 28 (hyperlink to the correct page provided above).

I-RECOVER Long COVID Treatment covid19criticalcare.com/covid-19-protocols/i-recover-long-covid-treatm.. In this report in Spanish, Dr. Mercola states that 10% of people treated for COVID-19 report fatigue, shortness of breath, or chronic pain for three weeks or more. This happens even among people with mild cases of COVID-19. Also several tips focused on improving intestinal health. -Do exercise. Light exercise, such as yoga - Consume CoQ10 and D-ribose supplements, a basic component of ATP. - Consume foods rich in glutathione precursors, sulfur and selenium to stimulate glutathione production. - Restrict the period of food consumption to a period of six to eight hours. - -Emotional Freedom Techniques (EFT) - Improve insulin sensitivity. ketogenic diet - Lumbrokinase, quercetin, vitamin D and zinc. - Use nebulized hydrogen peroxide with a 0.1% dilution.

Found this article on TrialSite news earlier, (this site requires a lot of login verification). Found it re-posted on the Brownstown Institute website here: "Germany Has Partnered with Gates Foundation to Tune of Billions not Millions of Euros" - - brownstone.org/articles/germany-partnered-gates-foundation-billions/ - sorry for all those in the EU, apparently have little idea what your govts may be investing in...

Our thinking and mindset is so totally foreign to that of the Luciferian globalists with supposed world domination agendas and their dupes. When we plan and build, success is intended. Their stated and unstated goals are not meant to be achieved and mostly cover for intended destruction of all that is good and of our Creator. But, should they actually achieve control of people worldwide using incredibly complex systems of technologies (their apparent small g, god) that are logarithmically more vulnerable as complexities increase, then it will eventually fail on its own to leave behind destruction and impoverishment for those remaining alive including them yet that is their real goal.

But, IF, extraordinarily complex controlling technologies actually work for their presumed control goals and didn't collapse on its own with a myriad of failures, then failures can be easily induced by those who understand science and technology who don't take kindly to intended genocides. It is very difficult to convince people that such a takeover by the WHO can happen. No one believes that it is possible for the US constitution to be superseded by some corrupt international organization. And that is the difficulty that we face - to convince non-believers that this can happen. Now we have someone on this site who says it is NOT possible. But who is this person? We at least know who Dr Meryl Nass is and I have heard Dr Francis Boyle , an expert in bio terrorism and international law , also say that it is very possible. And let's not forget that our own puppet president and many of our elected officials , are fully behind the WHO Treaty and are the ones who have proposed amendments to the IHR of the WHO , the worst of which is that member states of the WHO , will lose their sovereignty and be forced to implement any mandates , lockdowns , treatments , etc.,deemed necessary by puppet Tedros.

I cannot believe that our elected officials are all just ignorant of the import of the IHR amendments and the new Treaty or whatever they are calling it these days. In a country such as ours , with such well thought out checks and balances, our elected officials cannot see the inanity or foolhardiness of handing over sovereignty to a corrupt dictatorship? It boggles the mind.

I tried to sign up for the newsletter from Door To Freedom with the following results Sun Oct 1was able to submit request, and although the site said they sent an email it was not received. I sent another request with the same results. Today (Mon 10/1 I tried again this time the link would not even accept my Email when I typed it incould there be a censorship issue to accessing this link? Anyone else have a problem? I will next try just typing the link in a search window for Freespokehope it works. Interesting. Doing that only brought up the first paragraph on thier home page with the rest totally blank to understand the why of it all regarding the actions of those in power, is not only to understand what their religion is but what fundermentaly suports it ... calling them satanists or quoting Jesus in suport of your own perception does not clarify anything to yourself or anyone else ... i know what it is they seek and i know how they are trying to find it, and for this reason i know they will fail ....

Also, we need to get the word out that any diehard Democrats on the fence about Biden in 24 REALLY need to vote for Robert F. Kennedy Jr. even if he runs as an independent. Bobby is so aligned with Dr. Mercola, and they've appeared together often for seminars and programs on the state of the world, environment, health, and security.

Did anyone see that video of a meeting by some members of the WEF, where one of the speakers, a woman, promoted the idea of vaccination through the water supply? She is distraught that 100% compliance to the killshot did not occur. SMH... You know, I am not religious, but I do read the bible and I refuse to shut my eyes or automatically close my mind to anything just because it is not immediately to my liking. So here is my advice: REPENT. Yes, repent. I know I sound like one of those cartoons where a man with a beard, wearing rags, walks up & down the street with a sign saying "The End is Nigh! Repent!" So laugh all you like, I'm laughing too (in a way).

The global cabal is not untouchable. It consists of nothing more than people, who's sh*t stinks. It is a paper tiger. It is the spectacle depicted in the movie, Wizard of Oz that is under the control of a diminutive old man. We, the People, throughout the world, are the 99%. Let us come together and pull together to annihilate this centuries old spectacle. We know what and who they are:

Propaganda is alive and well and will survive any attempt to silence it. Most people will line up like sheep to slaughter and get the mark of the beast like they "RUSHED" to get the devil's bioweapon/5G shots! This goes for believers as well as non! The false "PROFITS" are numerous and have tricked many. Discernment is lacking and many will fall to their peril. Put on the FULL armor of God!

The flow chart must be simplified in order to be read by more people. We now live in a culture where classic books have been replaced with tiktok videos. Dr. Nass is smarter than I am, but maybe I have more insight into snapshot messaging. So I invite a fellow WHO detractor here to reconfigure the flow chart into a bullet point list. If you read my entire post of short sentences, perhaps that proves my point!

"These provisions are so terrible, if you stand up in front of a room and say, My congresswoman is voting to give away our sovereignty, to have the WHO take away our medications, to transfer our intellectual property to other nations,' everyone will say That person is terrible." THAT is my senator, Chuck Schumer. In a response to my message he says basically that he is ALL IN on The WHO takeover of health. Its treason in my view.

The cabal is out of money. The last bullet in their gun is fear-porn. They cannot launch major assaults against humanity through the WHO or any other agency because they are officially 'broke'. As governments around the world begin to shut down, this is the beginning of the end for the worldwide stage of political theatre puppets all owned and run by the cabal (as DC has always been just Hollywierd for ugly people.) Humanity has a very BRIGHT future as the Light has already won. This IS the most exciting time to be alive!

From the beginning, they lies to us about the Covid 19 virus and pandemics. Then they produced vaccines and lied about them. The vaccines don't work to keep us healthy. They even will kill us. I haven't and never will take their vaccines. It's my body my choice!

Muzzle all the doctors who think outside of the box and medical development will slow down. Left to the tender mercies of the civil servants - and that is what people who work for WHO are - and we will all be left to the mercies of the great mediocrity who are incapable of inventing anything but whose achievements can only be counted in what they restrict, curtail and destroy e.g. Ivermectin, zinc et al.
