STORY AT-A-GLANCE

- The reason our children are being targeted by COVID mandates is because vaccine makers want to get the shots onto the childhood vaccination schedule
- Once a vaccine is added to the childhood schedule, the vaccine maker is shielded from financial liability for injuries, unless the manufacturer knows about vaccine safety issues and withholds that information
- Products must satisfy four criteria in order to get emergency use authorization: There must be an emergency; a vaccine must be at least 30% to 50% effective; the known and potential benefits of the product must outweigh the known and potential risks of the product; and there can be no adequate, approved and available alternative treatments (drugs or vaccines). Unless all four criteria are met, EUA cannot be granted or maintained
- According to a U.S. federal court decision, the Pfizer shot and BioNTech's Comirnaty are not interchangeable
- Comirnaty is not fully approved and licensed. It's only "ready for approval." Comirnaty is licensed to be manufactured, introduced into state commerce and marketed, but it's not licensed to be given to anyone, and it's not yet available in the United States. They're waiting for it to be added to the childhood vaccination schedule, to get the liability shield

In this interview, Alix Mayer explains why our children are being so aggressively targeted for the COVID-19 injection even though they're not at risk of serious SARS-CoV-2 infection, and clarifies the status of Comirnaty.

Mayer, board president of Children's Health Defense — California Chapter, is herself vaccine injured; not from the COVID jab, but from a series of vaccines she received 20 years ago. (Incidentally, Mayer grew up in the Oscar Mayer family in the 5th generation descended from the original Oscar Mayer, a German immigrant who started as a butcher boy. Despite Mayer's vaccine injury, her family does not share her views on vaccine safety issues.)

Mayer graduated from Duke University with a BA and from Northwestern University with an MBA in finance and management strategy. She worked for Apple in the mid-1990s. When she was 29, Apple promoted her to acting manager of worldwide customer research.

In preparation for a family trip to Bali, her doctor recommended getting six vaccines: hepatitis A vaccine, hepatitis B vaccine, diphtheria, tetanus, polio and oral typhoid, which she did. Eventually, 13 years later, she finally realized it was these shots that triggered her health problems.

> "They gave me brain damage and total disability," she says. "I spent three years in my early 30s being 80% housebound, and I really didn't know if I was ever going to get better.
> I went through a whole bunch of diagnoses: lupus, chronic fatigue syndrome, Lyme disease. Ultimately, none of those made sense and none of the treatments made me any better, until we put the pieces together and figured out that I was actually vaccine injured.
>
> It's literally just a cause and effect. If you look back at my history and lay out my vaccine schedule, you can see that my health declined two weeks after I got the vaccines.
>
> I had encephalitis and encephalopathy ... digestive issues, hypersomnia — sleeping 16 hours a day — flu-like symptoms, a 24/7 migraine, joint pain. I really had no life at all in my early 30s until I went on a gluten-free diet. That started my health recovery.
> I then became an award-winning medical journalist with a bunch of different blogs, and then a health consultant. In 2018, I retired from all that and joined Children's Health Defense."

The COVID Jab Tragedy

While many vaccines have a questionable safety profile, especially when combined, data from the Vaccine Adverse Events Reporting System (VAERS) suggest there's never been a vaccine as dangerous as the experimental mRNA gene transfer injections for COVID.

What's more, while lack of transparency and accountability has been a chronic problem within the vaccine industry, the obvious hazards associated with vaccines are really being highlighted by the COVID jabs.

Many now know of someone who has been injured by the COVID jab, and most were injured so shortly after the shot that it's hard to deny a correlation. The staggering number of injuries reported among adults who have received the COVID shot in turn highlights the insanity of rolling it out to young children.

According to Mayer, the reason they're trying to mandate the COVID shot for children is to evade liability for injuries, because once a vaccine is on the childhood vaccination schedule, vaccine makers have immunity against lawsuits for injuries.

Vaccine Makers Want Zero Liability

The COVID shots currently have legal immunity against liability because they're still under emergency use authorization (EUA). If you think BioNTech's Comirnaty has been fully licensed, you'd be mistaken. Mayer explains:

> "I put together a slide deck about Emergency Use Authorization (which you can see in the video interview above) because there is so much confusion over this and what's really going on. Once you understand the genesis of EUA and the standards they have to meet in order to keep these products on the market, then you understand the behaviors [we're now seeing].
> They're falling all over themselves to protect the EUAs for these products and also introduce other very confusing kinds of approval to get away with stuff. So, let me just start to clarify it right now.
>
> This presentation is all about these three strangleholds that the vaccine makers and our government are never going to let go of ... These are the things they're guarding with their lives.
>
> First of all, they need to guard the emergency ... so they cannot have any early treatments. Those cannot exist. They're also going for full liability protection, and children will be used as pawns to get them full liability protection.
>
> Vaccine makers love EUA products because they have this huge liability shield. If you're injured by an EUA vaccine, you can't sue the manufacturer, you can't sue the person who gave it to you, you can't sue the institution where you got the shot.
>
> You have to go through something called the CICP, the Countermeasures Injury Compensation Program, where they'll only cover unpaid medical expenses, and probably only for pharmaceuticals and lost wages.
> Now, if you're vaccine injured, let me tell you right now, you are not going to be using pharmaceuticals because they do not work for vaccine injury. They will make you sicker. You'll be on two dozen pharmaceuticals before you know it and you're going to be sick from those. They do not work. The only thing that's going to get you better if you're vaccine injured is natural treatments ...
> That's the kind of treatment you're going to need, and that's not even covered, even if you were to get compensation. Everybody I know with chronic illness, whether it's a child or an adult who has chronic fatigue syndrome, vaccine injury, Lyme disease, they're paying $50,000 out of pocket per year.
> If you can't work and you have to pay for your treatment out of pocket, I don't know how you ever get by. People suffer like crazy, they lose homes, they go into bankruptcy."

Since its inception, the Vaccine Injury Compensation Program (VICP), which pays for injuries caused by vaccines on the childhood vaccination schedule, has paid out about one-third of claims. It's a long, arduous process that oftentimes takes years and in the end rarely provides adequate compensation.

> "If you do end up getting compensation ... they don't pay it out in one lump sum, they pay it out year by year, and they pretty much hope that whoever is injured is actually going to die of their injuries before they get compensated.
> That's been said to me a bunch of times by people who've been through this horrible process. Now, the CICP has only compensated 3% of claims. And so far, there have been no approvals for [compensation] for COVID shot injuries," Mayer says. [Editor's note: The first COVID case was recently determined "eligible" for compensation, but the case has not yet been adjudicated.[1]]

Stages of Liability: EUA

In her slide show, Mayer reviews each of the stages of product liability, and whether the mRNA shots can be mandated. As mentioned, vaccine makers have no liability as long as their product is under EUA, as the product is investigational.

> "Investigational is a synonym for experimental," Mayer says. "And the word experimental ties it directly into the Nuremberg Code, which says that we cannot be experimented on [without consent]. We always have the right to accept or refuse a medical treatment.
> [The Nuremberg Code] is not a law, but it's a code under which the whole world is supposed to be operating by. And it is actually codified into some local and federal laws as well ... So, what everybody needs to know is that coercion and duress are considered de facto mandates and illegal. De facto means that it's basically the same as an outright mandate.
>
> It's illegal medical segregation, medical apartheid [because that is a form of coercion or duress.] So, if you go to a restaurant and they demand your vaccine passport, only let you eat outside, and they might not let you use the bathroom, that's medical segregation.
> That is illegal and I do not support businesses that do that and you shouldn't either. Any access privileges that are different between the vaccinated and unvaccinated are illegal, and any visual indication of vaccine status like a sticker or a bracelet ... that's also illegal because that creates segregation and medical apartheid, [since they are all forms of coercion or duress.]"

Importantly, mass violation of the law does not make something legal.

> "If we all drove 100 miles an hour on Interstate 80, would we watch the speed limit signs suddenly changed to 100 miles per hour? No, it's not going to happen. Mass violation of the law has never made anything legal. And just because schools and businesses and our government are mandating these shots, it doesn't make it legal. It's all illegal ...
> Now, they know full well that it's illegal to mandate these [COVID shots]. President Biden knows it's illegal. But what they're counting on is that the court cases overturning their illegal mandates will take a while, and in that interim, people are going to be scared enough to get the shots. And unfortunately, it's worked."

Stages of Liability: Full Licensure and Childhood Scheduling

The next stage is full licensure (FDA approval). Once a product is fully licensed, the company becomes liable for injuries. At that point, the product can be legally mandated. Of course, knowing how dangerous the COVID shots are, no manufacturer wants to be financially liable for injuries. They'd be sued out of business.

> "This is the holy grail if you're a manufacturer of a COVID vaccine right now. You want it to be fully licensed, but not put on the market until you get it on the children's schedule. ~ Alix Mayer"

To get immunity against liability again, the vaccine manufacturers need to get their product onto the childhood vaccination schedule. This will also allow government to mandate the shots. As noted by Mayer:

> "This is the holy grail if you're a vaccine manufacturer of a COVID vaccine right now. You want it to be fully licensed, but not put it on the market until you get it on the children's schedule."

DOJ Redefines Medical 'Consequence'

In Doe v. Rumsfeld,[2] the court held that service members could refuse an EUA product without punitive consequences such as dishonorable discharge or other punishments. Therefore, there were no consequences to refusing an EUA product, other than the natural consequence of possibly getting the disease.

However, in July 2021, the U.S. Department of Justice attempted to redefine the term "consequences" just for the COVID shot, to suggest that punitive consequences, like job loss or being separated from your working or learning location, are legal when a person refuses an EUA vaccine.

> "But this type of consequence, a punitive consequence, has never been adjudicated," Mayer says. "That's not in any law. This is just an opinion from the DOJ. And it absolutely means nothing, except it came from our DOJ, so people give it a lot of authority.
> They also stated twice — and this is so hard to understand because it's just beyond reason — that the right to accept or refuse an EUA product is 'purely informational.'
>
> Literally, you can read that you could die by taking it, but it's purely informational. You cannot act on it. That's what the DOJ says. Again, it's not adjudicated, so it doesn't mean anything. It's an opinion. It holds no legal weight at all. So, as we said before, these mandates are starting to be overturned."

Four Standards for EUA

There are four standards that must be fulfilled for an EUA. If any of these criteria are not met, EUA cannot be granted or maintained. First, the secretary of Health and Human Services has to declare and maintain a state of emergency. If the emergency were to go away, all EUA products would have to come off the market. And that doesn't just mean vaccines. It also includes the PCR tests and even surgical masks.

The second standard is evidence of effectiveness. Historically, vaccines had to show a 70% or greater effectiveness, as measured by a fourfold increase in antibody levels, in order to qualify. For an EUA vaccine, the efficacy threshold is only 30% to 50%. In another departure from prior vaccine approvals, the COVID vaccine clinical trials relied on the RT-PCR test, not antibodies, to demonstrate effectiveness in the small "challenge phase" of the trials.

Now, you probably heard that the Pfizer shot was 95% effective when it first rolled out, but that was relative risk reduction, not absolute risk reduction. Confounding these two parameters is a common strategy used to make a product sound far better than it actually is. The absolute risk reduction for Pfizer's shot was just 0.84%.[3]

For example, if a study divided people into two groups of 1,000 and two people in the group who didn't get a fictional vaccine got infected, while only one in the vaccinated group got infected, the relative risk reduction would be reported as 100%. In terms of absolute risk reduction, the fictional vaccine only prevented 1 in 1,000 from getting the infection — a very poor absolute risk reduction.

The take-home message here is that even though the minimal threshold for effectiveness is ludicrously low, in terms of absolute risk reduction, these shots still don't measure up. Within six months, even the relative risk reduction bottoms out at zero. What's more, there's evidence that the clinical trials were manipulated as well.

> "I remember an analysis very early in lockdowns [that showed] if you added back all the probable cases of COVID to the clinical trial [data], the effectiveness went from 90% to between 19% and 29%,"[4] Mayer says.

The third standard is that the known and potential benefits of the product must outweigh the known and potential risks of the product. In the case of COVID shots, there's overwhelming evidence showing they do more harm than good.

The fourth and last standard that must be met is there can be no adequate, approved and available alternative treatments (drugs or vaccines). "This is why hydroxychloroquine and ivermectin were quashed," Mayer says. This is also another reason Comirnaty is not treated as a fully approved product in the U.S., because if it were, then all the other COVID shots that are under EUA would have to be removed from the market.

> "This is a four-legged stool," Mayer says. "If any one of these legs goes away, you have to take your EUA products off the market ... by law. I put [state of] emergency and [treatment] alternatives in red, because those are two of the things that they have a stranglehold on; those are things they are guarding like crazy.
> This means that every variant that comes out, they have to make it sound super scary to keep the emergency going. So, the variants serve a purpose. You have to think about these variants in the context of this crime, where they have to keep the emergency going to keep their products on the market.
>
> You would think this emergency would stop maybe when we get to herd immunity, maybe if we get 90% vaccination uptake, maybe COVID is just going to go away, like smallpox did in the early 1900s [even though] only 5% of people were vaccinated. [But it won't] go away [until] the shots get full approval and the manufacturers get a full liability shield."

Comirnaty's Quasi Approval

With regard to Comirnaty, is it or is it not fully approved and licensed? The answer is more complex than a simple yes or no. Mayer explains:

> "Comirnaty's quasi approval is just for BioNTech. It doesn't have to do with Pfizer, and this is why I'm doing this presentation because I'm going to explain what's going on with that.
>
> This is the race to get liability protection. Remember, that's the other stranglehold that they want. They really want to get this liability protection. Once the COVID shots are fully approved, the manufacturer has full liability.
>
> There's all this confusion about Comirnaty. Was it fully approved? Is it on the market? Is it interchangeable with the Pfizer shot? And does it make the COVID shot mandate legal? It's all the same answer. No, no, no, no.
>
> The FDA issued an intentionally confusing biological license application approval for Comirnaty. It was an unprecedented approval to both license the Comirnaty shot, saying it's 'interchangeable' with the Pfizer shot. But they also said it's 'legally distinct.'
>
> In that same approval, they retain the vaccine's liability shield by designating it EUA as well. They want it to be fully approved, but they want the liability protection, so they did this BS dual approval.
> So, [Comirnaty] is licensed to be manufactured, introduced into state commerce and marketed, but it's not licensed to be given to anyone, and it's not available in the United States. It's available in the U.K., New Zealand and other places, but it is not available in the United States because they're really scared of liability.

Now, are you ready for this one? The BLA actually states that Comirnaty is only 'ready for approval.'[5] It doesn't say it's approved anywhere in the document. And they buried this language in a pediatric section to confuse people even more.

Here's what they said; 'We're deferring submission of your pediatric studies for ages younger than 16. For this application, because this product is ready for approval for use in individuals 16 years of age and older, as pediatric studies for younger ages have not been completed.'

Why did they do this? Sixteen is a very important number. You would think the age break would be 18. That's a very typical age break for everything else that we do in this country. Why 16?

The reason they did 16 is because 16- and 17-year-olds are still on the children's vaccination schedule. And then the manufacturer gets full liability protection. That's why this is ready to be approved for 16 and up, not 18 and up."

Comirnaty Is Not Fully Licensed

This confusion is clearly intentional. On the one hand, the FDA claims Comirnaty is interchangeable with the Pfizer shot, yet it's also legally distinct. Courts have had to weigh in on the matter, and a federal judge recently rejected the DoD claim that the two shots are interchangeable. They're not interchangeable. That means Comirnaty vaccine is still EUA. It doesn't have full approval and it's not on the market.

> "Military members involved in lawsuits are challenging the military's COVID vaccine mandate. They filed an amended complaint seeking a new injunction after the judge last month rejected the assertion that the Pfizer COVID shot and BioNTech's Comirnaty are interchangeable. So, we're still hammering on this legally, but a court has ruled that they're not interchangeable.
> [Editor's note: This information is accurate at the time of the interview, but legal challenges are ongoing and courts may issue new rulings. December 22, 2021, the U.S. Supreme Court announced[6] it has slated January 7, 2022, to hear arguments challenging Biden's vaccine and testing mandates.]
>
> So, how do we know that Comirnaty is not being treated as fully approved? First, the approval states you have the right to accept or refuse the product. That means it's an EUA. Second, it's not available in the U.S. because Comirnaty doesn't have liability protection. Third, if it were available, it's an alternative [treatment] and all other EUA shots would have to come off the market.
>
> No. 4, the CDC Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP) would have to recommend it for ages 16 to 18 and the CDC would have added it to the children's recommended schedule. That's how we know it's not fully approved and on the market.
>
> Here is the label for Comirnaty. It says it's emergency use authorization. It doesn't say it's fully approved, because it's not. But look at the safety information they are recognizing: Myocarditis and pericarditis have occurred in some people who've received the vaccine, more commonly in males under 40 years of age than among females and older males.
>
> So, this is saying that young men are getting heart inflammation. And what we know from all the anecdotal reports is 300 athletes have died or collapsed on the field, and children in schools have died of heart attacks. That's what's going on here.
>
> And the reason they have to declare this is because they know it. They know it's happening. And the only way they can be sued is if they know there's a problem with their vaccine and they don't declare it. So, they declare it here, in very mild language as if it's not that big of a deal, but it's a very big deal. Young people are dying [from the shots] who have a 99.9973% chance of recovering from COVID ...
>
> The holy grail is to get the shot on the CDC recommended schedule for children, because then it gets full liability protection according to the 1986 Act. This is why they're going after our children when they have a 99.9973% recovery rate ...
> Every medical intervention is a risk benefit equation, and it doesn't calculate for kids at all. They should never be getting COVID shots. The shots don't prevent transmission. They don't prevent cases. They don't prevent hospitalization or death."

How You Can Help

Children's Health Defense has sued the FDA over the approval of Comirnaty, alleging that this is a "bait and switch" to convince people they are receiving a licensed vaccine, when in fact they are getting an EUA vaccine that cannot be lawfully mandated. Unfortunately, these kinds of legal cases can take a long time, and children are being needlessly harmed while we wait for legal clarification.

They also have a couple dozen other legal cases underway. If you want to help, please sign up to become a member on childrenshealthdefense.org. It's only $10 for a lifetime membership.

"That really helps us with standing in our legal cases, because the more people we represent, the stronger our cases are," Mayer says. If you're in California, you can join the local chapter at ca.childrenshealthdefense.org. You can also help by purchasing Robert F. Kennedy Jr.'s book "The Real Anthony Fauci: Bill Gates, Big Pharma, and the Global War on Democracy and Public Health."

Thanks for mentioning Hep B jabs on newborns, As i worked as an Anaesthetic Technician for 29 years assisting the Anaesthetist for emergency caesarian sections and I could not get over the midwives giving this jab. It broke me to see a newborn not even exposed to its mothers biome given a medicine for something it may never be exposed to, I was always so glad if the parents looked at me with the question in their eyes as i would always shake my head. Needless to say, I walked out of a broken profession and system, I couldn't live with perpetuating the lies, this was just prior to Covid hitting. I think i would have been sacked if I had been around during this 'Plandemic'.

Yes! Why into newborns? Why at that point before they even have the capacity to start with antibodies - (isn't that more towards 6 months?) ... but why am I surprised? We took breastfeeding out of the picture and gave kids a bottle - filled with what, God only knows. Yeesh!

At this point, we need to think about ways to reverse at least some of the damage resulting from the inoculations (e.g., www.bitchute.com/.../fHIT55iM4Zv9), for both adults and children. The approach of our recent paper focusing on reversing chronic diseases ("Prevention and reversal of chronic diseases: A protocol" available at (www.publichealthtoxicology.com/Prevention-and-reversal-of-chronic-dise..).) may be one possible solution. As a side benefit, this approach may be useful in preventing infectious diseases as well (such as COVID-19), based on the findings of two recent papers (pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/.../; pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/34779496).

My wake up moment was when a nurse prior to discharge mentioned I could "wait" if I wanted on those first vaccines. My son was born early, in the NICU and underwent 2 major surgeries. Of course I deferred. And then started researching after the pediatrician pressured me. I also used to work in healthcare and saw how they push the flu jab on elderly prior to discharge, almost as a requirement. I couldn't do it anymore. I also left.

I will regret for the rest of my life letting "them" poison my newborn C-section son with the hep B. He is autistic (aspergers) as a result of his shots, even though I wised up and stopped them at 6 months. He's never had another. I cringe to think how damaged he would be if I had just blindly listened to the pediatrician and kept on jabbing him.

When hospital staff wants to give your newborn infant the hepatitis vaccine, ask whether they know how hepatitis is transmitted. Ask whether they practice sterile procedure in their hospital... whether they reuse needles and have drug addicts working near infants.... or pedophiles sexually abusing children. Why would an infant born to a mother who does not have hepatiits, who uis breastfeeding need a hepatitis vaccine. besides, the infant does not develop much of an immune system FOR AT LEAST the first 6 months of life, so what kind of immune response are you expecting. That is why the infant needs to acquire immunity thru mother's milk and skin binding. All that happens when vaccinating a newborn is putting toxins in their tiny body.

It is far past time that the "Concord bridge" was crossed! God is going to destroy everyone involved with the murder of his children! If WE THE PEOPLE don't stand up to this murder NOW, we will all perish. Worldwide 1776 is now unavoidable!

mel, just reading your post, brings tears. Indeed, evil and as you state "a broken profession and system". As a social worker in mental health, the system is so co-opted by Big Pharma, people experiencing the effects of social and economic disadvantage which impacts physical and mental health, are medicated long term. The problem is in them, not in the neo-liberal structural systems that profit the rich and disadvantage the rest. Working to support these people improve their well-being was so difficult within such a system. Exhausting. Now, due to no jab, I am unemployed, now experiencing the reality of many of my clients. But I cannot submit to the jab.

lovestosing and all... Newborns do not have an immune system well-developed enough to be capable of antibodies until around age 6 months. Nature intended that infants be breastfed and acquire immunity from the milk of a healthy mother. There is something else that continues to annoy me and would have me screaming at hospital personnel until my infant and me were literally shoved out the door without being vaccinated. I would demand to have them tell me if they actually knew how hepatiits is transmitted. Then, I would ask why I should think there was a risk of reused needles being to inject infants (!!!).

Or whether they had pedophiles engaging with sex with infants (!!!). What kind of unsanitary conditions were they exposing the infant to--did they not understand basic sterile procedure (!!!). There is absolutely no reason to vaccinate a newborn for hepatitis. It can only poison a tiny body at such a young age. If the in-hospital risks are so high, both mother and child should leave the hospital immediately and have a protective person with them at all times. This is a good idea anyway.

Almond-I agree that infants should have mothers milk to be healthier but how many women are actually healthy before/during pregnancy and after giving birth? Many women seem to suffer from PPD when probably whatever little nutrients like Vit D have been depleted during pregnancy. This is prevalent in the African American community. They (so called experts) are trying to figure out why African American mothers have a higher mother and child mortality rate which can be 2 1/2 times the national average when all they need are probiotics/omega 3's/Vit D and essential nutrients. How can the newborn get a healthy biome when the mother is deficient? Now add in all the vaccinations. Perfect storm of lifelong sickness and disease.

Mel, in 2006 I personally Google searched these two words together at the same time: "Mercury Eugenics" and then almost every other soft kill poison from fluoride in the Coca Cola(s), tap water and bottled baby water, to HFCS, Saccharin, Aspartame, rhinoceroses, giraffes, to rubber bands, government, Rockefellers to Rothschilds to Wellcome Trust to Big Pharma, to bubble gum to Fruit Loops... and... every... other... title... soft kill... additive... or chemical and mercury in vaccines or food and dentistry I could find or think of and... the... word... "Eugenics" together... quite literally from morning to late, late at night [like an obsessive fiend, no joke] for about 6 months straight... and then at least a few times daily for years after with anything and everything that came to mind... I had the time and the flexible kind of job that allowed me to be able to do this on my own parallel adjacent personal computer with internet access... the rabbit hole went almost as deep as it has been exposed by Dr. Mercola from the late '90s to right here, right now over and over... and then the 2+2 for the "why now"... [note links below] Eugenics works... and it's OK. I hate that journey for Ms. Mayer, but I know that journey well - it's the same journey that threw me over the fence and landed me in a life where I read labels, I'm always the doctor in the house because I simply cannot trust outside medical care - unless it's urgent - and now, thanks to this plandemic, I have even more resources at my disposal - which is like adding a trampoline to the yard of the fence I have been thrown over. I have never felt such chaos in my body as when I hear the sentence: "The science is proven..."

You know what autism is? It's politely been renamed on those inserts - it's neurological damage - it's playing pinball in a baby's brain. It F*ING HURTS !! The kind of autism in kids that's permanent, that is exhausting, these kids don't sleep, as young adults they are still smearing feces on the wall and bumping into you to ask questions 24/7 because their minds don't slow down, and God forgive you're at the top of the stairs when they want to 'bump you' (happened to my friend) by her grandson (the mom dumped him off) has nowhere to go. Our legislation doesn't cover what to do with an over 18 year old permanently disabled from the shots as an adult. They are society's best kept secret.

Autism doesn't exist. Really? Look around - oh, you don't see them? Maybe because it would be uncomfortable to see a man banging himself on the ground in the grocery story screaming out in pain as his limbs are set on fire, but since he can't communicate (non-verbal) so people just think he's acting insane... Ya, I'm sorry, I digress, but if you haven't been around it, you don't know jack. There are different levels, of course, the "spectrum" - but since Tony Fauci has already said he's not going anywhere until "this pandemic (he created) is over" - and since he's vowed to not stop until every baby is jabbed with this ... Um - maybe it's Tony who needs to go. How come he gets to say if he stays or goes? Hmmm...We simply don't know what we are doing.

The years of researching and going to lectures and understanding vaccine damage, especially to the myelin sheath at the base of the brain (as in the case of SIDS babies) - onward to those babies who could not tolerate the MMR, which Sen Dan Burton knows well of - and yet, here we are, with a population aiming towards the 1 in 25, what are we at? 1 in 44? and nothing has still been done! Why? The all powerful big pharma. Thank for taking one for the team, baby!

In the case of public opinion and society at large, they want to put a frame around autism and call it something beautiful. High functioning autism is beautiful, my GF's son had a full ride to Harvard off a perfect SAT score. Of course he would die because he doesn't remember you have to eat to sustain life, nor would he ever change his clothes. But whatevs! His brain is incredible and he went on to be the top performer at our local university and he will do amazing things in this world, but his mom has to be at his side, even today - and the seizure meds are working, but it's all sketchy. So ya, there's that kind of autism too. Quite a spectrum, eh?

All that to say - VACCINES ARE NOT A KNOWN QUANTITY - WE CANNOT PREDICT WHO WILL BE INJURED AND WHO WON'T BE. And the first thing I thought of when my daughter was injured was - "Why didn't you know she couldn't tolerate them?" I read the contraindications form - I told them we had two of those in my husband's bloodline... they said it was like injecting water, don't worry. Well - fool me once ...Until we have a way of knowing who these things will hurt, disable, kill... why are we still doing them? It's a question I ask every day - and now we're playing with fire. I always thought if they insisted on vaccinating adults (because most adults no longer have antibodies) the jig would be up. Adults will march their kids in, but they surely won't march themselves in, right? Boy, did they fool me. All they had to do was start a pandemic. Plandemic.

It is so pathetic about autism, but what is even more pathetic is there is something (I forget the name) that has great results in treating autism and in some practically reverses it altogether and it is BLOCKED from being used. I heard about from listening to Dr. Judy Mikovits so I am sure you can research and find the name of it...

God, I pray Tony Fauci goes at some point this year. I suspect that if the political winds shift against his direction as we approach the season for election he will slither back to hell were he is most comfortable and I pray never returns. The only real way to end this vaccine nightmare is to end the germ theory lie the whole program is based on. I know so many who slept every night with someone who got labeled CoVid with this corrupt method of using PCR to define a pandemic and never spread it to the other one in the bed. This happened last week to a family member with the oh so contagious Omicron. I was also around this person all week while he hacked and nothing.

He went to the family party and no spread. come on. I did feel something coming on over the week due to way too much holiday eating and drinking of food I try to avoid. I upped my detox (more sauna, more sun, more C) and poof woke up fine. Terrain theory. Koch's postulates, Dr Stefan Lanka. Look them up. This is a germ theory built on a house of cards worth multi-billions to a few. It is time for the "holistic" world to band together and end this. If we don't we will never be free and we will all be sick all the time. The time for terrain is now. It is now or never for humanity. THERE ARE NO VIRUSES IN GOD'S UNIVERSE MEANT TO KILL US!. We poison ourselves and blame microbes. It is just stupid at this point. Stupid is as Stupid does. Be well and maintain your terrain, virus, fungi and bacteria oh my. WE NEED THEM ALL FOR LIFE.

The whole society is mentally sick and even without the toxic substances you can still develop autism (neurological damage). As proof I offer animals that are bred for the fur trade and bears that are kept in small cages for their bile. They develop neurological damage due to the unnatural conditions of life and engage in OCD behavior as repetitive motions, self mutilation, screaming and so forth, very similar to neurological damage due to autism. We live in a sick world in which everything man made is against you. The only true healer is nature. Unfortunately, in this sick society most "cures" offered (of course for pay) are artificial too. So the "cures" might be worse than the disease. The cures of nature are better and for free.

catladyjan prompted me to look into the autism claim, so I just ordered some from holisticgear.com/suramin-the-covid-vaccine-antidote-as-per-dr-judy-mik.. If Dr. Judy Mikovits says it works - I'm betting on it ! It's also her Covid antidote.

Autism is caused by neurological damage. How do the doctors typically treat it? With drugs that damage the brain even more. I have neurological, nerve, and immune system damage. I owe it all to respected members of the established medical field. I started out a depressed, nervous teenager. They drove me insane and damaged me in every way possible. Using "standard medical care." Now these evil XXXX are needle r*ping everyone on the planet. Curse them!

Tony needs to go! Thankfully none of my friends have had to go thru this but we need to stop all these jabs that are so destructive. I now have a circle of frtiends who reject all this, use natural ,edicines. I have started a wild food and medicine garden. we all eat organic, drink raw milk. at least 6 have contracted Covid including a 95 year old, stayed home,self treated and survived. we do NOT need Big Pharma, it needs us to maintain their profit level.

I read an article some time back that Sweden did clinical investigation into the explosion of Autism and found that 85% of mothers with an Autistic child used a anti-depressant drug during the pregnancy. This despite the fact that anti-depressants are not supposed to be prescribed during pregnancy. Not sure if that is a law in every country but where ever it is it is being violated. Anti-depressants alter brain chemistry in adults. What is does to a developing brain they won't say. But I believe I know.

Your post is a story that needs to be heard. I homeschooled my son for a number of reasons but one was to avoid the regular insistence of updates of vaccine doses. Long before Covid the Jesuit cabal in control of the medical system / media/ courts etc. have been poisoning our children. I stopped my sons vaccines before the MMR but I'm positive that the early vaccines that contain food proteins were responsible for his food allergies. It's ridiculous that these psychopaths in control deny any correlation with the ever increasing children with chronic illnesses, learning disabilities, autism, food allergies, etc. and the vaccine schedule had about 5 doses in the 1960s to over 70 doses by 2020.

Also has disgusting, criminal and evil as Dr Fauci is he is a puppet player for the Jesuit controlled NWO others behind the curtain are at higher levels. All Roads Lead to Rome. Vatican/ The Jesuit Order/ Black Pope. These people are keeping the masses who beLIEve the virus narrative on the MSM in the dark. They are the illuminated ones with access to esoteric knowledge. We must stay strong in the light and not consent to any of their tyranny.

yes, that is the worst thing. Parents not protecting their children, their children switching to hell, in near permanent pain or worse, and the dumb parents telling the kid in hell to 'calm down, you're ennoying'. Instead of feeling the pain they allowed and recognize the big mistake they made, they choose to side with big harma. And worse, defend big harma for providing them with expensive pills to 'save' their child (just making the hell less obvious to outstanders). I do not understand why the kid is paying for the bad parent's decision. I see bad parenting as the norm unfortunately. People who absolutely want to hook up their still healthy kids on junk food, sugar, electronics, 'social' media, meds etc to be able to 'enjoy' the same as every other kid... But no, they don't let their kids enjoy a natural fever to kill off a pathogen, to heal itself. They believe it's healthier to inject meningitis causing vax and then reduce fever medically 'to help'.

I love kids, they are angels, pure source of goodness and honesty. And then that pureness gets screwed up by braindead parents. It reminds me of the movie 'the emerald forest' where tommy/tommee is taken away from his parents by an indian in the amazon forest, because the old indian couldn't bear the thought of tommee going back to that evil world of machines. It pissed me off as a child (how could that indian do such a thing?) to understanding, almost agreeing later on, although it was a terrible thing. Still (the parents grief) makes me sad (sacred bond), while usually the media justify the opposite story: taking the natives out of the wild to 'enjoy' modern life. Kid abuse brings the red mist on me... it's one thing to be a murderer, it's another level of evil to harm defenseless babies. Fausti must be bulletproof.

Do you know if there is any vaccine given to children that are safe and necessary? I don't know much about it and I'm planning on having kids in the next few years, so I wanna learn everything about. If you have any interested link aswell, I would really appreciate it. Thanks!

Agree 100%....That "autism" is normal is a psyop...it never was. Growing up in Asia in the 60s, 70s & 80s, I never came across a single autistic child. As you know, asian communities have large networks, so i would known such cases...but came across none. Now due to the same medical corruption, they are jabbing kids there...and there and as a result we now see autistic kids there as well.

I was always mind blown that Hitler was able to brainwash a nation to ignore unspeakable atrocities. I am equally blown away at the atrocities happening to children today globally, the majority of parents and adults in general are going along with it. All these young innocent people won't know if they have subclinical damage until it is too late.

Guess what happens if you cure autism? Nothing. Autism cured is not medically defined. Any autism cure claims are easily dismissed. None can be proven, since cured is not defined. This is the same condition for ANY non-infectious disease. Cured is not defined for any non-infectious disease. Cure is also not defined for the common cold, influenza, measles, and yes, COVID. Because cured is undefined, no cures can be proven, so... "Prevention is better than cure." sells vaccines. Cures cannot be proven, so cures cannot be sold. Over 250 million patients have RECOVERED from COVID. Not one has been cured. Modern medicine has no general theory of cure because it benefits the current corporate and government bureaucracies. to your health, tracy

Hello Lovely, why do you think I researched "Mercury Eugenics" and "every other thing and Eugenics" so hard since 2006? [note my comment to Mel above] Almost the whole world has been vaccine damaged by design [not just for profits] to some extent for "logical, reasonable" long, long term eugenical globalist rancher reasons. There are people that come here to Mercola even, that no matter how much the information provided will continue to follow their Big Pharma/vaxxed "religion" and also for their kids... Eugenics works... and it's OK... look around... in 100 years it's all new people over and over again every 100 years without fail for many, many mega-millennia ...

natural and selective "natural" selection will hopefully make for a world of ever smart(er) "lovelies"... and naturally fewer Darwin Award/woke-tards... or it won't. Ice Ages [mini/maxi] and Mag/Revs are nature's cyclical natural great resets that happen every 200 to 400 years and really big time for 90,000 out of every 100,000 years... at least for the last 2 million years which is still just a blink of time relative to the billion years of life on the planet... either very good fortune and/or many "someone(s)/animals" must have made some very good "who lives/who dies" choices in the past over and over for folks as smart as the higher IQ multi cyclical mini/maxi Ice Age surviving Nordic folks and/or Atlantisians to have achieved this level of technology and more than occasionally this (or recent) levels of beauty in art, real science and breeding (including all the beautiful Victoria Secret trannies even, eh? ;).

Think of all the mothers who unthinkingly give their sons to the medical angels of death for genital mutilation often within hours of birth too. Eugenics/natural selection works... it obviously always has... it's always been a jungle with natural laws. This is what a "great reset" looks like from the inside... lotsa flux... and the lovelies that "get it" eventually become the remnants. Cheers

The autistic situation is caused by toxic fathers and mothers, the latter being the one to gestate a fetus for nine months. Check your copy of Silent Spring to read about the chemicals in the environment, and then find Our Stolen Future ny Dr Theo Colburn on the same subject. The obstetricians even got in on it by mandating folic acid for all pregnant women in the 1990s which caused autism in susceptible babies growing in mothers with an MTHFR genetic defect. The infant jabs push children over the top into autism.

Vaccines, passports, social credit credit scores, access to school, job, business. 24/7 monitoring. If the vaccine doesn't imprison you by injury it will imprison you by having control over your information. Imagine what dictators and tyrants could have accomplished with this technology. Since Nazi Germany, there have been efforts to "understand" obedience to authority (Stanley Milgram) or to "understand" conformity and people going along to get along (Solomon Asch). I think the powers that shouldn't be have perfected their understanding of why and how to get people to obey and conform. Fear is important. When my son talks to the believers of covid, he uses their fear. One guy told him he just got his booster and my son said all surprised "Oh no! I heard covid is now mostly affecting the vaccinated. It was on CNN. 70% of cases are in the vaccinated! I hope you'll be ok!"

Yes, me too, I agree, and it's to get us all accustomed to giving control of our lives and our children to the officials in charge. Just think, all middle class is wiped out, no stores for variety, just Amazon to shop at on line... so boring, we will lose interest in everything, school won't teach much anymore, bet they ban books and no opportunity for personal gain. They do believe we will be happy with nothing as they see us as bugs, just an annoyance. The shots will reduce births, so slowly they'll get rid of us. Agreed the Jesuit cabal is patient and plans years in advance. Incremental moves for sure. Much was done before the Covid deception just most were to busy working the slave life in the matrix and not paying attention. Sadly many won't have any problem with the total surveillance state.

King Herod comes to mind. This is evil of biblical proportions. I find it quite stunning that anyone could conceive of giving untested vaccines (jabs) with uncertain future effects to any one under 18, let alone under 12. Particularly with regard to future fertility, let alone long term health. There is only one answer to why? It has to be depopulation. The vaccination programme as it stands is harmful without adding these bioweapons into the arsenal. Moreover, the worst of this is that it is clear that this "holy grail" for Comirnaty is purely for commercial and profit purposes. Iniquitous.

I don't believe in the profit argument, it's just an extra excuse behind which they hide, saying they 'need' it. As most know, big evil, big weaponry = big pharma are the same or very close to big gov or any name or organisation behind which they hide and pull the strings. (just to be clear, I'm very 'carthesian', brought up anti-religion by people who choose that as the scapegoat; just mentioning it as some of my comments may seem religiously inspired, but that's just the honest conclusion of everything I've ever studied passionately)

The 'money tokens' are just for the sheep/slaves who are 'educated' to make those in power look legit. No money tokens for the real elite, they promote it anyway to make the masses believe money is the way, and to make them believe that they are 'just like you' and that they 'earned' their all-smashing fortune. Don't let the lie smash you into slavery. Our actions are our wealth. I don't believe in the depopulation agenda but admit there's lots that make it look it those days. I'm still convinced suffering is their business. Throughout history, there have been cultures of sacrifice and I find it hard to believe this was sheer stupidity as it was (is) widespread and always (please correct me if wrong) with victims who can suffer a LOT.

Not with a willing old victim who out of goodness says 'I lived long enough and am willing to sacrifice myself for the sake of the younger'. No, those sacrifice stories always involve helpless, terrified defenseless victims. Animals can eat part of their offspring too, there must be natural logic in that, it's not culture. Except for the most health motivated who could live long, historically people in societies didn't live that long and had a life with a decent amount of suffering. It looks like the plan is to delete older knowledgeable ones, to extract the max misery out of the masses. Who will know if there is no-one to tell that life is more than dying after giving birth at 16 after a life of miser

They will surely answer one day. Unless they repent and turn to the Lord they will have an eternity of regret for what they have done.

I find in my experience, there are basically two types of people that give their kids this shot 1) those that are "low information voter" types that believe that "public officials" are smart and have their best interests at heart because they WANT to believe someone in "authority" cares about them...and 2) very academically intelligent people who refuse to look at facts because they put their complete faith in "government" instead of putting faith and giving worship to almighty God.....

Do any on this thread realize the shots have lost most, if not all their meager (smoke and mirrors) 1% absolute risk effectiveness, as the "targeted mRNA technology" was targeted to the wild or Wuhan version of the virus, long out of circulation. The shots offered somewhat lower protection for Delta variant (so to speak) and are fairly useless for Omicron. So WHY oh WHY are were still being barraged with a continuous stream of fearmongering and shot malarky from media outlets, govt agencies, state and local officials? Why kids indeed! Protecting the teachers union?? Signs are pointing to omicron as overtaking and supplanting Delta, and far milder. Here's a link to a recent update from Chris Martenson explaining how this new variant may be the last or one of the last waves: "Omicron Deaths - A Surprising Number" - www.bitchute.com/.../WI1LYLgiTuD1

Clipped from Below the posting: "Various world leaders, mainstream press outlets, and pharma companies are working hard to whip up fear and anxiety about omicron. Are those negative emotions deserved? No, not in the slightest. Omicron spells the end of the Covid misadventure. At least that's what the data suggests at this time. That's great news. For you and me. Not so much for power and money-conflicted corporations and politicians who are rather attached to Covid being an endless and mind-numbingly expensive affair. Omicron is explosively transmissive, that is quite true, but it is also incredibly mild compared to past variants of concern. For most people it's barely a cold, if that. Sniffles, a headache, and some tiredness."...

There is evidence that there are different batches of the "vaccination" circulating around the country and probably the world, pipblanc. I have references for this of course but not sure if references are allowed to be mentioned on this site. It's not rocket science to see how depopulation could be achieved more slowly this way without arousing suspicion if the injection only affected some, not others. Doh!

My brother couldn't wait to get his kids jabbed. He claimed it would save their lives. He hangs on Fauci's every word despite his medical track record and character. Jay has always been a kind, intelligent, reasonable man. Till last year. He works closely with big pharma and has a vested interest in everything they tell him being true. Waking up would force him to turn whistle blower, realize he had been involved in shady deals long before 2020, and force him not just to give up all his fancy swank but probably force him to go into hiding with his family. I think he knows this and chooses to stay ignorant and buy the media narrative.

Katy69 - it's worse than 'different batches'. We have no idea, and certainly no assurances that any vaccine in a single batch matches the same vaccine from the same batch nor the same vaccine from other batches. There is no quality control and the system is locked - intentionally - such that quality control is impossible.

It takes as little as 1% of a population to create positive change, and I believe that if 100 million people underwent a personal transformation in the direction of peace, harmony, laughter, love, kindness, and joy...the world would be transformed. Deepak Chopra. This may sound like an impossible equation but if you take the rule of three, that each of us is connected to any one on the planet by a degree of 3 people, then it is possible. I once played this game with my father and we managed everyone from Mrs Thatcher to the Pope to the US president to a peasant in China to an Indian and so on. It was a fun game but has serious intent. Connection and frequency are the way to change minds and minds change thoughts and thoughts create history. I am creating a personal programme to outlive this pandemic and thrive. I shall survive and then I can help others. As Gandhi said "Be the change you want to see."

So true, Ghandi and what you've written here. Elon Musk's empire all started with vision. Dare to dream such that when enough of us become the best version of ourselves we will be unstoppable. Rule of 3? How so? I thought the generally accepted Rule Of Separation is 7.

I believe that only God can change the hearts and minds of people and that He does it through His word, the Bible. When this country allowed for Bible principles to be taken out of our schools, and everyday life it created the void that enabled the twisted "principles" of Satan to subtly take over......therefore only God can and will fix this

Oh I love this pipblanc! The world is one, there's no need to change what nature is. Wherever you are from, you have evolved, from the environment of your ancestors, and we still don't understand our pasts, let alone how natural forces will effect us. We don't need the tampering of other people, who consider themselves elites. What do they identify with, besides money? Peace, love, harmony, kindness laughter and joy, right back at you, pipblanc! There still are laws to be obeyed they can't deny, Laws of God, the Universe and Nature. These laws have no bounds. " For every action there is an equal and opposite reaction." They have brought it on themselves.

There's no pandemic. A planned worldwide mass deception through mind control aka media owned by those who have been suppressed and banned many times since their creation in 1540 by Ignatius of Loyola. They are masters of deception infiltration and manipulation so best to research the Jesuit Order and make the connections to who is running the Covid psychological operation. Many of the "famous" people you mentioned are media creations by those who write the history the masses are told to beLIEve in.

Dont be naive to believe that these pschopaths will give you an inch because you show love for them. We are right now driven to the cliff side...and the choice is either to unite and push back or jump. If you know of groups that are acting and doing something to help others, please let me know. I think there is something a bit different than depopulation going on here. I believe depopulation is what the globalists like Gates want, but Big Pharma is more about greed. Along with the outright billions the shot is making for them, I think they also want to create sick people to sell even more drugs. If the clot shot creates injuries and depresses the immune system so cancer rates rise and dormant diseases like Shingles " wake up", well, there are drugs and other vaccines for those, too, right? The clot shot is the gift that keeps on giving for Big Pharma. Over and over and over.

This is a long-standing M.O. for vaccine manufacturers, whether by design or default, this describes what has been occurring since the 1986 act, even earlier. "Safe and Effective" was coined for the roll out of the polio vaccines, it was 15 or so years later these were found to be contaminated with S.V. 40 - the monkey virus that caused(es) cancer across a broad swath of the boomer generation 20 to 30 years afterwards.

Hello For us common people, we may think Big Pharma is in for Greed. However, look at the investment banks that are in the top 10 of these pharmaceutical companies: Black Rock, Vanguard, Statestreet, etc. Those companies also owns shares in the companies that Bill Gates owns as well. Bill Gates is just a frontman that we see. His father a pioneer in Eugenics in the US with Planned Parenthood and experimenting on people. Who funds and supports his father are the same people for directs Bill Gates as the frontman.

These dominant men owns most of the world through owning the central banks, media, Big Pharma, Big data, Big Tech, Wall Street, the Medical and Military Industrial Complex, Communication, Education, Food Supply from growing to retailing and most of the packaged foods and thus controls governments = countries = people. These dominant men don't need anymore money as that is just a mechanism of trade. They want total control/ownership of everything including land, business, industries, medical, etc. Just imagine you are planning MONOPOLY and someone else owns every street and utilities, It doesn't matter how much money you have, in due time it will go to that person who owns all the properties.

While these people are actively depopulating because we are seen as "Useless Eaters" consuming their resources, they are also further decreasing our ability to fight back by siphoning the money from us into their controlled Big Pharma. These people know that the planet can not sustain the worlds population of such overbearing use of its resource and that the planet is imploding which the population will eventually see and stop following any laws and orders. So, they are fast acting now cajoling the people to line up for their death jab. They want to keep the planet as theirs and we are excess slaves that they do not need. They will keep the leftover population and indoctrinate them and their children to become permanent slaves.

I don't agree with Alex Jones on everything. But he talked about a "slow kill." A population full of crippled people unable to work would help bring down the economy in a subtler way than a bunch of dead people. And Pfizer could continue to milk them as they get sicklier and sicklier. I remember in Covid-19 and the Great Reset, Klaus Schwab suggested that Bill Gates will give free food to everyone as the "pandemic" keeps collapsing the economy. As long as they get every booster. Hmmm.

rensmith, I suspect Alex has been on-target in his predictions more than we can see at any one time. I don't have time to follow him that closely but ya cannot help but notice that he knows well in advance, what is possibly going to unfold. Adding to these genetic shots, if things remain "as is" (whatever that means these days), we are only 10 years away to the time when it has been repeatedly estimated that autism diagnosis will dominate 50% of the males from age 2 or 3 on...then again, considering many young women may not be able to conceive if they or their partner have taken the shot, maybe this will be pushed to some future date. Time will tell.

I had shingles in 70's due to streess on the job. Had them all over but unlike President Nixon, I worked every day. No drugs to treat it. just worked it out. Since 2000 when oncologist jabbed me (had Lymphoma thanks to Monsanto). none of chemos worked, 1 yeaqr after stopped and givn 3 months I went into remission, been there since. since 2000 No vaccines of any kind and healthy, now 81. They have absolutely no concern for people, only their pocket and the millions in it. How wonderful the world will be for them without all the poor to mess it up. But, they are esting the same food, drink the same water and breathing same air as us, what will it do to them? Maybe they eat organic, drink only filtered water?

Hi Dordee, hello REN and rrealrose, I just want to comment that Alex Jones is a fully supported controlled opposition and gate keeper. He does give half truths but should spin off the perpetrator to someone or something else. He does have a big platform and hopefully the listeners who otherwise would not know about some of these information will get it from him but can investigate on their own with other sources to learn the whole truth or at least be able to decide which parts are true and which is a deflection/scapegoat/and red herring.

Agreed of course many call this the " slow kill" maximize profits over time constant stream of new acute and chronically ill people. But there are many agendas at play and have been planned by the NWO gang for years. They control the big tech industry and we see moves of control there along with incremental moves to digital everything a surveillance state. Think of the book 1984.

Gates also runs GAVI....so pls connect the dots...there is a reason for him showing "empathy" for folks in Africa as well. Now he will also become "farmer" Bill...so he can Push GMOs on the world...removing or contaminating the food supply. Pharma companies. Know the game, and they have immediate $$ to be made....but they know 100% about the depopulation agenda. Why do you think people at CDC are not taking the clot shots?

Yup, just like I've been saying on here for ages....all my problems came after a series of vaccines. At 16 years old I was given 3 or 4 different shots and I don't even remember what they were. These were given at my yearly physical in order to "enter" into High School, even back then they told us these were "REQUIRED" (I'm 43 now) Within a month I came down with MONO, within 6 months i was diagnosed with HYPER/HYPO thyroid and within a year I became overweight, which is now what I realized something called "LYMPHEDEMA" ~ Those vaccines destroyed my whole life, I am now stuck in a mountain of a fat disfigured body with a skinny face and a skinny waist and tiny hands and feet, and big huge arms and legs and its something that diet, exercise and detox can't seem to correct. I am FUCKED. What a shitty quality of life , I mean can you imagine ? ~Vaccines have ALWAYS been poison and have always been meant to harm us...all of them with no exceptions!

I hear you! They wanted to give me radioactive iodine to kill mine, and then remove it so I'd have to be on a pill for the rest of my life. Um - no thank you. I'm sorry for this for you - I wish I had a detox for you. Or did they remove it? See, I still don't understand where the accountability is for vaccine injury. You injured me, you fix me! There's no accountability. When you go in, you have no idea who will bill you for what .. I'm still paying on things I had no idea would be my responsibility. This year I said - no more. I'm done with it. In four days the year will be over... so short of tripping and falling LOL I will have skated through the year without one f'ing visit to that insane industry. Buh bye! You know?

hi, sorry for your issues but many of us on 'alternative' health sites have trodden that path. There is no competition of who has lost most. When I was at my most sick I felt like I had the monopoly of misery, although rationally I knew that was not the case at all. Some illnesses take on average 20 years to be diagnosed correctly. That is assuming you survive the 20 years of being shamed. As when you don't fit in regular 'doctors' model, they basically blame you for their incompetence. Or medicate you to death.

At one time I would have been very glad to be diagnosed with cancer and felt jealous of people in a wheelchair because they got recognition and besides their visible problems, they looked fine (in my illness tainted eyes). Most important is feeling healthy and appreciating what you (still) have. Some fall uncontrollably asleep, some feel sick, some have zero energy (imagine the impact on any relationship of never feeling well, which roughly equates never smiling). I think most of them would be happy to switch that with partially imperfect aesthetics, which you can even hide in daily life. You look good, isn't that sufficient? Stay away from magazines showing 'perfect' humans, most of them are not real and don't have a great life either. Millionaires and fashion models commit suicide too.

You don't have true friends or a good relationship because of looks. It's through effort, as with everything, no shortcuts. Being healthy and the people you love being healthy is the most important. Give it more time, the body is made to heal itself, that's all it wants to do, even when damaged. Keep searching and experimenting (keep a full diary of: health food activities sleeping schedule meds etc.) and you're on the path to better. Also stay wary of fads and propaganda (and obviously vax) to not fall in the next trap (I fell for required vax +10 years ago and didn't understand why illness came back after all my efforts).

Publix & Walmart are making a lot of money off the shot. So are Walgreens & CVS. It's not a vaccine; it's an experimental gene therapy, and the definition of vaccine should not be different in Court to obliterate the protection from liability the pharma murderers are said to enjoy .Dr. David Martin said the manufacturers are charged with keeping VAERS accurate, but have broken law by not doing so.

Why are there people who are reluctant to call a spade a spade when it comes to discussing the origins of Deep State intentions to depopulate much of the world? "Oh, it appears like DS may have ulterior motives". Hello!! Are you there?"After 2 years of Sturm und Drang, why are people giving DS the benefit of the doubt? Harken back to the days when Australia and Austria were free countries. Where are they today? Is California under Newsom looking to duplicate Australian totalitarianism? How about replacing slimy Cuomo in the governorship of NY? Will he ever be tried for actual murder by Covid which he deserves as he conscripted seniors from hospitals to convalescent homes where thousands up and died? We are either going to commit some lives to the battles looming on the horizon or we are lost, destroyed, never to be free again. But, for crying out loud, let's finally admit we are being hunted like game animals and unless we fight back, it's over.

The second part, the denial part ... is for the people of today who have been brainwashed to believe the complete inversion of the Truth. Sounds too familiar, doesn't it... and THAT part of his-story was not exempt from the evil liars who create official stories to dumb down the masses. People were duped about THAT just as they are now. Let us begin with the purposeful omission of March 24, 1933. If people knew the TRUTH about THAT era, we would not be where we are today.

It's called Political Correctness. People are so afraid be being labelled that they can't speak their mind. Free speech is being curtailed because of the speaker being ostracised as a Racist, Bigot, Conspiracy Theorist, Flat Earther, etc.   It is coming to the point people will call a Spade "an African Color Suit in a deck of playing cards" instead of a Black Suit. This is how far the PC has come. The media controlled the narrative and using worlds that push their agendas. Vaccine Hesitancy - Freedom not to Inject Poison. unvaxxed - mindful people who want to leave Mandate - forced the people to voluntarily killing themselves.

Vaccines- experimental dna alternating kill shots. Boosters - continued dependence on Big Pharma to live All the variants - scripted Fear Mongering to depopulate Pandemic - orchestrated Planning of normal flu/influenza/pneumonia to allow the takeover by big brother and start the real PLANDEMIC of death jab Side Effects- know and intended consequence of the Jab for depopulation Social Distancing - ability to track each individual and removal of gathering and protest Face mask - force compliance and conditioning to submit to big brother The list is on and on. If we change the words that we use to describe our situation, we can really see and call a SPADE a SPADE.

People are reluctant because to call them out for their crimes against humanity would be admitting they are fools, easy to deceive. Looking at "big game hunters history" they have finally run out of exciting game to hunt, no challenge so now they are hunting humans. Just who are these Big game hunters? those who can afford $30 and up to hunt.

You are right Dordee, People need to understand freedom is not free and everyone needs to join the battle against tyranny and these psychopaths. We have been conditioned and indoctrinated from cradle to grave but with the Covid Scamdemic, I hope the population can finally wake up from their psychosis and this is the Catalyst for change. If the line is not drawn now, we may as well renounce all of our possessions and shackle ourselves to eternal servitude.

Watch the MRCTV video and see what these evil basrds are up to. ourpatriot.com/tv-commercial-shows-children-ask-santa-clause-for-vacci.. They can't even leave a child's Christmas alone. Consider this. In a biological experiment, it is common to have a control group. We have been told that the vaxine is authorized for EXPERIMENTAL use. So, who is the control group? Is it possible that certain states or groups are being targeted with different batches of vaxine or placebo?   If you study history, you know it would not be the first time something like that happened.

This would explain why some parts of the country see high rates of adverse effects and others see relatively few. With the electronic record keeping system and trackable phone apps, it would be easy to monitor results. Do you depend on a person who has proven to not be dependable? Do you trust someone who has shown himself to be untrustworthy? Will you rely on those who align with the forces of evil? There is no reliable data. So much has been manipulated, hidden or falsified. Therefore, you can only trust what you observe and experience. This is your "science"--not what you are being told to believe.

I like what Matthew 7:15 in the Bible says: "And you shall know them by their fruits....a good tree cannot produce bad fruit and likewise a bad tree cannot produce good fruit,....by their fruits you will know them"...   Says it all for me!

Hello Almond, I try to convince others what you just said about trusting someone who is not trustworthy and believing in someone who always lies. It doesn't seem to cross their minds because the conditioning is so deep that they dismiss this rational thinking.   I would often ask if 2 people told you opposing information, who should you listen to. 1. Listen to the one who doesn't benefit from you. 2. Listen to the one who may even lose their work, Reputation, or life over the information they've given you. 3. Look at the track record of the person to see have that person lied and cheated before.

4. Question that persons motive and who he works for or represents. 5. If possible, look at the logical reasoning of their information if you know about the field.   We have exposed and caught all the Lies spawning from Fauci since the inception of Covid and RFK Jr. Has also exposed him during the Aids Crisis. We look at his track record and the chronic diseases he is tasked to reduce/eliminate has exploded The same can be said of Bill Gates.

We have also exposed the Media lying so many times and even creating fake news about the 1st Gulf War in a studio pretending to be in Iraq. So many false flags with Sandy hook, etc. So much declassified information has came out from government and can see MK Ultra, Operarion mockingbird, project Popeyes, etc. Yet, the masses still believe the government and media lies and that the government has their best interest in mind. If lesser men are willing to kill for a few dollars, these dominant men/Controllers are willing to genocide for bigger $$$ and aim about absolute control of all of us.

I don't know if this has been mentioned in any recent posts, as I've had to do a lot of speed-reading-skimming, but a few wks. ago I heard how children in CA were being vaxxed without their parents' knowledge and advising kids not to divulge the information. My first thought (besides the EVIL DEED this is) is how many parents, being oblivious to this, would end up taking their children to get vaxxed and the littles were going to become victims of this horrible situation, no doubt suffering in the near or distant future.

HealthiestChoices... What if you don't know your kid got vaxed at school... they come home and say they are not feeling well (or have a seizure)? What if a parent puts a sick hid to bed early not realizing it may be a life-threatening adverse reaction? A young child may not understand all the implications if they have a severe allergy to vaxine ingredients. Even if you warn them about certain foods, they may not connect it to a socially-accepted therapy.

Ken... Good points! I do not consider myself overly naive, but, I am shocked at the numbers of evil people who are crawling out of the woodwork. I especially expect better from my countrymen. "To whom much has been given, much is expected." They say in the news that Biden is going to give another speech Tuesday. I expect he will scorn the unvaxed again and blame them for many of what are essentially his own failures. Passing the buck. All I know at this time is that it is going to get much worse. If we do not stand together and resist, the situation will never improve. Take a few moments and consider what you want to see written in your grandchildren's history books about this period of time we are living in.

I made a trip to town today. I don't know what it looks like in other parts of the country, but inventory in stores is pretty bleak here. Fortunately, many local people have food options other than supermarkets for their sustenance. Each part of the country may show different weaknesses and strengths. In some places, you may want to make sure your gas tanks are topped off. The clothing in stores is so shoddy and expensive. Most of what is being sold will not make it thru the washing machine a second time. I would not expect little children to stand outside and wait for the bus wearing the thin little jackets. Hand down clothing.

I prob spent a total of $10 for after Christmas sales, food and gift items--little worth buying. I saw a woman ahead of me in the checkout lane spend more on a modest prime rib roast than we spent on our entire Christmas! I decided we should try for 2 deer next year and make smoked sausage as gifts--that, and wine. People are going to need food, esp. meat, and I don't expect there will be much worth buying. If for some reason you have not read the writing on the wall and are unprepped, do what you still can. Definitely plant a garden and figure out how you will (economically) preserve food!!! Do not leave your family dependent.

Almond~   Exactly~! These people are SO EVIL! I remember a few short yrs. ago when no one was even allowed to administer an aspirin to a child in school. How times have changed! And for awhile now, in some states, it's legal for a school nurse to take your underage, pregnant teenage daughter for an abortion without informing the parents. This can also have life-threatening results that have happened on occasion from complications due to excessive bleeding, uterine perforation and more, including serious long-term side effects . I only know if I were the parent of a child today, they would never see the inside of a public school. Sometimes it almost seems like we're living in the Twilight Zone.

Thank you Almond, Surely we need to able to have sustenance in the event of a lock down and the break if the supply chain. My belief is the orchestrated outcome is even more dire than anyone of us can imagine. Just picture a world like the movie Mad Max but 10 folds. Most of us will be lucky to grow and store enough food to feed ourselves for a few months. We definitely need water and each person needs a gallon a day of drinking water.   Ultimately, we need our habitat and environment to survive. If the controllers turn off the rain to create droughts, or floods the area, or chemically cool down the area with snow, then their is only so much the population can do to forage/store food.

These controller do have the ability to control the weather and the big counties are all involved in it.   We don't need to spend outside our means but we do need to have an environment that can feed us and keep us safe from the elements. I'm concern that the habitable environment is shrinking at such an accelerated paste that within the next few years we will see the chaos unravel. The controllers know this and that is why they are speeding up their depopulation and New World Order Agenda. Sorry to sound so gloomy, I hope every enough the Holidays.

Ken and all... As for water... if you draw out of a stream, beware of seasonal changes that may affect water quality in your area--also wildlife. Giardiasis. Tannin and brown water in fall if enough leaves fall into it. Livestock near a stream. Possibly toxins coming in thru underground streams or run-off from chemicals applied to fields. Etc.. If a deep well, make sure you have a means to pump water without electricity. it takes a lot of energy to bring it to the surface. Shallower wells may accomodate a hand pump, but may also have more risk of contamination. I believe good, clean, well-mineralized water from deep in the earth--or glacial ruin-off--has the best energy. A well-stocked wine cellar does no harm, either. ;-)

It is ridiculous to believe anything coming out of criminal govt. bullshit artists, their moronic media and amalgamated monopolies....There is always a hidden agenda, and it's bad for you....We know the game so it's pointless to ruminate over the rules they make or wait for a crooked justice system to provide justice.

Many of your referenced authorities, including those in Congress are invested and profiting from the pandemic, one reason why no one wants to see it end! Meanwhile, this showed up recently: "Second call to WHO: Please, don't vaccinate against Omicron. | Dr. Geert Vanden-Bossche" - www.bitchute.com/.../L7wav7w38cUK Its not subtle: what Geert is suggesting is a way to continue this virus "thing", by eliminating means for more people to sterilize the virus. Its the root of why we had a 12-14 month virus stick around, past 18 months, even a few more months longer by my guess.

We have our two friends Relative Risk & Absolute risk, along with no context, just wild crazy numbers called - Science. Mr. Fraudci/Gates/Big Pharma marketing science. " The reason to mandate the COVID shot for children is to evade liability for injuries, because once a vaccine is on the childhood vaccination schedule, vaccine makers have immunity against lawsuits for injuries. I put [state of] emergency and [treatment] alternatives in red, because those are two of the things they have a stranglehold on; those are things they are guarding like crazy." Sick. Sick foundation for a sick, non-healthcare system.

"every variant coming out, they have to make it sound super scary to keep the emergency going. So, the variants serve a purpose. You have to think about these variants in the context of this crime, where they have to keep the emergency going to keep their products on the market." This why it was chosen, Corona's constantly change & usually drift into ever milder versions. With each & every change, big or small, the machine pumps out fear porn.

young men with heart inflammation with 300 athletes have died or collapsed on the field, & children in schools have died of heart attacks. ??? Sick, sick, sick ? Every medical journal knows that a vax is a risk beneficial to society, but they don't calculate for kids at all. They never be getting COVID shots. The shots don't prevent transmission. They don't prevent cases. They don't prevent hospitalization or death.? Says it all doesn't it? They know resistance to the jabs is well over 50% according to same Legacy Media, & a SHIT-load more the usual ! 2% needed to push an issue one way or another. The Emergency Use Authorization has to go, Omicron by all appearances is Creatinos Vaccine, mild to no symptoms and racing through a population, you know the years past.

There is a way for this to fail. It can fail if the dangers of and damage to children is exposed. We need to be diligent documenting, studying, and highlighting the damage done to children by these vaccines. Unfortunately our current medical bureaucracies, corporate, governmental, and media are all working hard to discount and depress such information. Vaccine injuries and deaths are systematically ignored.

so you don't think it would be a good idea to make vaccinators fear for their lives if they continue what they're doing?

As they have done with childhood vaccination injuries. Fauci knows how to hide it, so does the CDC (in the case of William Thompson) . I'm still waiting for this information to blow the doors open. Doctors have come forward all over and are still be suppressed. The blood information, what doctors are finding wrong in our blood after the shots - doesn't that speak volumes? Still, crickets. ( le_berger_des_photons: If, by "vaccinators" you mean the nurses who administer vaccines, I see them as innocent victims. They shouldn't be put in the position they are in - even though many believe they are serving their people and their governments. If you mean the people developing and marketing vaccines by twisting the system to their financial goals - I think some of them already have considerable fear. We need to raise the temperature. Those in the middle ground, our local politicians (and usually opposition members as well) can only be considered partly innocent.

The higher we go in government and corporations involved, the more guilt we will find - but at the same time, the more difficult proof becomes. There are, of course, organizations like the FDA and the CDC that are guilty, guilty, guilty. But what about the Mayo Clinic, and many other "reputable medical organizations" that blatantly claim (quoting the Mayo Clinic) " Treatment is aimed at relieving symptoms and includes rest, fluid intake and pain relievers " and propagandas like " Ivermectin isn't a drug for treating viruses and the FDA hasn't approved use of this drug to treat or prevent COVID-19. Taking large doses of this drug can cause serious harm. Don't use medications intended for animals on yourself." while ignoring common knowledge.

I'm writing a pamphlet to distribute locally. We need a grass roots movement to get kids OUT of these abusive state schools by providing alternatives and - where the state allows - drastically defund the schools. Removing 50-70% of the kids would allow us to vote for severely cutting the budget in my state. Getting more of these lazy, abusive cows fired. Yay!

We need to start local entities to protect ourselves first; we need to have the police and sheriffs don't carry out the orders and speak out to the local business to follow the ridiculous mandates of only allowing the vaccinated to get in. We need to show solidarity by pointing on the business that all people are allowed. We need to boycott the big chain retailers that are controlled by the same people who controls Big Pharma. We need to hold the actors in this theatre, the faces the people recognize, Fauci, Gates, all those CEOs and Directors, etc. under citizens arrest. We need to broadcast this worldwide. We need to hold a trial that is broadcast to the world like the Q-Disease trial.

Once, these faces receive extreme sentencing including death, then the other tiers of followers, such as media talking heads, directors of "Mayo Clinic", etc. will either choose to continue peddling the lies or expose it to protect themselves from prosecution. At this time the doctors, nurses, and medical staff involved in the jab and treatment either through coercion or false belief of its efficacy will switch sides with the population to fall under. Anyone one the fence will also have a population to fall under. The hyperbolized believers of the jab will then have a countering perspective from Respected Authoritative Sources, multitude of Whistle Blowers and can finally tell to see the truth.

When this happens we can use this to restructure all the laws and policies, and government to adhere to the people. The population can be taught from Childhood to spot tyranny and speak up and to have religion. We can develop and a system of governance that will not be in the hands of the controller. I hope this makes sense to the readers of this comment. I hope the day will come when this entrenched depopulation will end and the population will awake and take control of their own lives instead of having political talking heads make all the decisions for them.

Ken and all... It is important to elect strongly constitutional sheriffs. One of the best examples I have seen is where the sheriff regularly conducts classes and trains posse volunteers. There are often long waiting lists to get into these classes. Drills allow the sheriff to get to know each student and assess their capabilities. My preference is to network with farmers, veterans and outfitters. Any town or city hoping to survive needs to have some kind of police or military force to protect the farms. It should also be made known that guns will be confiscated and not allowed to be used against the people engaging tyrants. Not too much of a problem in areas where people are experienced at firearms and most people have returned to producing their own food. This has been my contribution, helping people share heirloom seed and garden now involving about 50% of households. Food security promotes a stable society.

None of us is going to have all the money, resources, skills and knowledge to do everything we will need. It is important to create our own alternative societies and economic systems. We can learn from the depression when some towns issued "scrip" as all or part of wages that allowed a person to buy necessities locally. This is only one example. For the most part, we will just have to accept that there are jobs many things we will do without. Ask your grandparents and great grandparents how they survived the depression and get by BTW, I am hearing a lot about people concerned about toilet paper shortages. Keep in mind that alternatives will pop out to fill available and your toilet may not function without electricity for running water. One solution is to scavenge all those pulp phone books that come out at the same time of year that many people discard. Sometimes, you can find whole stacks of them at public buildings such as post offices or libraries. Compile a page up a few times to suffer it.

Justclove, Bill Gates makes the carbon footprint. Alec Burn of The Simpsons look like a realistic and subtle villain by contrast. Amazing how people are so eager to let him put his junk in them. Usually those who praise him most haven't watched many videos of him. Especially that "pandemic response drill" from December 2019.

Hello Everyone, This is absolutely about depopulation. We are the "Useless Eaters" that are overconsuming their planets resource. That's what they think about. They know the planet can not keep on supporting our consumption and the planet is imploding. Before their illusion will disappear and the people will not place the laws and orders anymore when there is not enough food to go around, they are speeding up the depopulation process. They Elite/Controllers don't need 7+ Billion slaves to serve them and we are increase liability as they have hatched this diabolical scheme to kill off the vast majority of the people and spin it off due to a virus or people dying of other medical causes like heart attacks, respiratory disease, etc.

People will not blame the jabs if the death happens 1-3 years after the jab. They will not make that connection and thus will not have a manhunt for the heads of the perpetrators. The only problem now, is that they stories are telling immediately and people are seeing the contradictions/perplexion for causality. The sooner population sees that the Elites/Controllers along with their bought and paid for government and totalitied owned Propaganda Media, and their intimated/bought off Doctors are all involved the sooner that they can see the these Controllers has brought WAR to the them and all of humanity. The people will need to accept this reality and be prepared to fight instead of praying a superhero/deity will save them or pass the flight to someone else. Everyone needs to fight their own battles and in this particular situation, it is a battle for everyone collectively. It is for humanity and the children and future generations.

Ni sak, I doesn't take 50 words as gospel the mentioned 0.1-10%, not that that changes anything), imo he is not the master of evil, just the public face of it now (c'mon, all the snake politicians/newsachers on tv). I don't think some evil minion with hidden plans would state it in interviews. Successful manipulators are on both sides of the story (just like suspicioners and Reasoners who deliver by both sides so they can harm each other without ever harming the real evil instigator), control and distract from the true story.

Lastly, times are strange, it's all so public now, people cannot their own speech and thoughts to be politically correct', while at the same time allowing 'philanthropists' talk about mass murder in barely concealed terms. That barely concealed is on purpose so all those who are not combatted yet can take measures. People make wrong choices everyday even when the packaging says it's poison. I can about truth and choice and consider choice an unalienable right. But if it was only about depopulation they could do a lot more and a lot quicker and the masses would be none the wiser. People seem to think information is a given. If the real elite decides tomorrow to wipe us out, it will be quick.

To me it seems obvious that is not their goal. They have an immense arsenal in every aspect of our life and control it way more than what propaganda says. There must be something unique to humans to justify keeping us. What's the point of making a child suffer besides evil, it's not like it's a disorder yet. I wish there was just one lunatic, but the ones doing the actual harm are the masses. The reason this holistic site is alternative is because the masses don't care. We are heading towards self destruction. I'm not going to risk my life for the 99% (?) percent that don't care about truth/love/life (and which forcefully make us conform even if it means death). Not at all. Only for the 5% (maybe) whichever number seems accurate) who care.

hey sak, could you post the link to that vid where he says that? As what I post on social media only shows him stating 1 in 4s a good job, we will reduce population by 10% (I posted so many vids in which he appears, can't find it now, I think it was the one with Vandana Shiva regarding his views in India). 50% might be an even harder weasel word. I just checked and odysee is full with idiot BO and despo.

Anyway, our individual experiences don't matter that much at the moment, we must unite and not fight ourselves if we don't agree on everything. I mention this as little as possible (don't feed the enemy) but during protests - some idiots make a shame of it by fighting amongst each other over details and bad communication which only discredits the whole thing... (protests are not a statement of 100% written in stone facts, but a line of communication between those in the know who care to share and public who are undecided and still open minded enough for communication).

Maybe, just maybe, the minion BG has his quota of souls and wants to stop it there. But the evil elites are known for their taste for little ones, I doubt that changed. They might be different minions with each their own agenda. With all the snake politicians and to collaborators who jump on the bandwagon to silence there's more to it than BG agenda. All that suffering could be left out of the equation if it was only about bodysnatch.

A bogus catastrophe with bogus coverage, bogus war, 'accidental' nuking, alien attack, whatever, they could kill lots and make us believe all is good now and the happy and healthy afterwards. New stress and suffering seem to be the goal. I heard grocery stores could only provide for 3 days if supply stops. That is a threat that is best left as a threat, as without food it would be revolution in a week. Power is all about threats, potential, to force into slavery. Far more effective than killing of the slaves. That's my conclusion, regardless of BG's speech.

@airsurfer I found the video where Bill Gates talks about reducing the population by 10-15% through the use of vaccines. It was at 2:30 in this video. www.bitchute.com/.../ZpfTJqgBnDhh The rest of the video is more of the same. We have to get the carbon to zero, each person makes carbon, the only way to zero is to make the population zero. Why anyone would follow this nut is beyond me.

I think we'll know more as the fire and ice year marks 1/6. Until then, you have to know people who work with clients hour by hour - to hear the horror stories (maybe air surfer can go get their hair done and talk to their barbertor salon person) - because that's the first time it became aware of the collection of injuries and deaths in my small town - my hair girl. She's been collecting stories for two years now - said as soon as they started get injured or children, THOSE stories started coming in. Enough to make you want to cry. She's non-vax'd, hasn't had covid on the shot, and only will wear a mask if the client requests her to. I love her.

Depopulation - Agenda 21-30 - Well, we can see the vax doesn't work, harmless side effects, still pushing it and the boosters, Global, a high up in DC said they were culling the population already through food - and the end times would be through global vaccination... even though that was said in 2009, we've arrived on the doorstep to major changes. Fauci and friends (fellers) are stupid enough to line their pockets with the dollar, but what happens when that goes down the toilet? Get Gates turf that shots. We have NO IDEA what everyone is up to - but whatever it is, useless eaters are being pushed out the door fast.

I woke up thinking about the hundreds of flight cancelations because of sick pilots. And as we know, many boycotted the shot. So is this real, or is something else brewing and they're waking again - but it's not being made to look that way by media? I mean, they did warn about it back in Sept www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-9854977/Pilots-warn-vaccine-mandate-fuelling-travel-cha... Then I was reading about the 100% vaccinated crew on board the USS Roosevelt www.omdiversel.com/story/2021/12/25/news-100-percent-vaccinated-crew-s... I was thinking about Dr. Zelenko and what he said, that if this wasn't about a mass vaccination against enveloped pregnant - because we know it's highly treatable - so on here, alot of us are like - WHY? So what if it is about the hydrogel and nanoparticles that are highly tunable and controllable - that's what is being said about those vaxed superconductors that are gaining popularity in biomedical research.) www.lehigh.edu/.../news.html and getting them into each person.

We know from blood panels (the ADS type testing) what this is doing to the inside the body. We know now what happens when it worms. We know "EV," not in every day of life. But what if it is every day? Is it possible that they are actually gaining an - It's going to come in waves and stages, they've got to keep it going. We have a weird mandate on something created in a lab that's actually highly treatable if you do something about it (and NOT remdesivir and ventilators!) We have comirnaty which has made the masses who received the vax all fuzzy inside thinking that's pretty much what they got - even though now we see that is one big lie. Oh - and we have illegals and they don't have to have the vax. I want to go somewhere and be an illegal who doesn't have the "privilege" of being vaxxed. Or is the USA the only country doing this? So when you put it altogether, what have you really got

The Airline Journal wrote in their In Memoriam column that there was 1 death in 2019; 6 deaths in 2020 and over 111 deaths between January and September 2021, after the jab that so many fell for in hope of keeping their 'job' (www.alpa.org/.../air-line-pilot-magazine). And there is SO much in the medical journals and DARPA about EMFs, nano, quantum dots & hydrogels, behavior modification ("You'll own nothing and be happy..." Sound familiar?), geoengineering (if they drop this stuff out of airplanes, how do we escape that?) As a biologist, I am increasingly wondering what to do to protect humanity from this insanity. And yes, Gates has numerous times indicated that he thinks humanity needs to be culled (but OK for him to sire his three little eugenists to carry on his father's and their grandfather's legacy (Read any one of many articles by James Corbett www.corbettreport.com).

Twenty years I thought David Icke was a crazy man. Now I understand he was way ahead of the game the world leaders are playing. And who knows, maybe there is an agreement between world leaders and the 'aliens' ! This freaking planet has gone off the deep end. Pipblanc, yes, I do believe we can change the tide (Chopra and others, including Gandhi (plz spell his name correctly!)) Because quantum physics does support energy work on a universal level (David Bohm, Jude Currivan, Amit Goswami, Beverley Rubrik, Gary Schwartz, and so many contemporary scientists). So yes...regardless of seemingly insurmountable BS, pray, meditate and raise the planetary vibration. I think this community is awesome: Reading the comments is often as worthwhile as reading the articles! Namaste

San5129, I'm not sure how "consciousness" raising will change anything. Is it supposed to stop the mass hysteria so people quit going along with this stuff? I'm really curious. I believe in prayer and atheists mock me for that BTW.

There's a plan in USA's Biden administration to grant a green card to undocumented immigrants ("illegals") if they get "vaccinated." New York City has a plan for their non-citizen residents to vote in local elections.

It's the fertility, stupid. Land use, showing we are running out of arable land without burning more forests: i.imgur.com/nrQUArk.jpeg The astounding number of ships at sea: i.imgur.com/BL8zBgk.png Example of overpopulation: i.imgur.com/c6xArpo.png Darting horses: i.imgur.com/3OrESVG.png The latter is gonacon, an immunocontraceptive utilizing the immune system against conception on mammals, both male and female "Of the around 55,000 [...] ships trading internationally," some 27,000 were cargo as of January 1, 2021 Others are gas/oil & chemicals. Scenario: Elites were invited several at a time to a $500 billion yacht off Malta and given a presentation of their vision for planet earth, the standard of living in all nations raised to become like USA.

Only one problem, even merely getting cell phones into the hands of all people right now is up against resource limits, mining, copper to run electricity everywhere, plus vehicles, homes, stores, workplaces and factories to be built. Therefore a dial they can use to adjust fertility levels of any given region is the only hurdle, and perpetual pandemics like the war against terror provides the method to get the contraceptive regulator into all people. Edge testing results in some crippling and death but peaked in late March 2020. There are 237,328 new consumers per day according to UN figures. (unfpa)

The reason elites can grin while demanding everyone get jabbed is they fully believe they are a valued member of the top elite team creating that glorious new world, saviors of the planet and have been promised reward for it, knowing that no one is the wiser (which they find really funny so they have to strain to hold back their laughter at us). Only way to explain it. Don't get angry, get data: Gonacon no different from NAZI elite in Germany in 1930s. BUT, to tell the truth, the ONLY overpopulated country is INDIA. And this is what really Bill Gates is targeting. He never used the word "de-populate" or "reduce population". He says "to control birth rate and fertility".

the real elite is a real elite. They are not zombies like the masses but with lots of money more. They are different, 'better' (arguably, like better at planning ahead, I can't really say better at cruelty as that is hardly lacking amongst the masses) and hardly qualify as 'humans' for reasons of being too different. They live in another world, have other goals etc, they are not descendents of the masses. In short, they are way ahead in many ways, have other technology and medecine that works against nearly every ailment of the masses, just think science-fiction.

The masses seem to think the elite is at their service and that all technology and all knowledge is 'their right to know', basically that the elite should be benevolent and at their service free of charge (they have obviously been 'educated' to believe this, but a sense of logic would quickly expose this nonsense). In all logic, it is the opposite. They have every single bit of medicine to protect themselves from the jabs, the 'normal' jabs, pollution, emf's etc.I agree the breeders ennoy me, I mean 9 out of 10 kids are accidents, unwanted, not planned, not cared for, not really loved. I'd gladly applause good parents who genuinely love and defend their children, it's just so rare. Here I am again with my conclusion of misery business. I mean, if you wanted less of the masses, more death to offset all their pollution.

Wouldn't it be MUCH more healthy to preserve the earth's resources, to not give them all that technology in the first place (they would be none the wiser) and to create another culture where a beautiful 'healthy' death is promoted? (instead of death as a boogeyman)There's just so many ways to decrease population, why does it have to be so sinister as now? Ok, a little pain stimulates the brain but still. You could create smaller healthier masses, in short, consider yourself the pet breeder, would you rather breed illness, or a thing of beauty? Unless you consider illness/misery beauty?

Where did Bazos get his billion? It is sure he didn't make it from his business enterprises.

One way is not wasteful consumption of earth resources to preserve what we have. We don't need to depopulate, just don't live off some of the luxury's of modern society. Populations can still expend energy to create more energy that that they need to consume. However, we have passed the expend energy part to fossil fuels while simultaneously over consume and have wasteful consumption. The USA is 5% of the worlds population but consumes 25% of the worlds resource. If either China or India consumes like The USA there will be nothing left for anyone else.

The Elites/Controllers owns or influence almost every nation and industry and see the planet as theirs so we are only the inhabitants that are meant to be their slaves. They do not need or even want 7+Billion slaves. The population is an increase liability and may be a threat if they can't be controlled. So they want to kill off vast majority of the population. Just imagine for yourself, if you have everything you ever want in life, Money, Fame, Reputation, Family, all the material goods, any access to people and places, ideas, and business that you want; what do you think about everyday when you wake up? I will guess you will think about how to preserve your money, power, and control.

You will think about how to wield even more power and control and to do that you must lower the populations power and control by decreasing their wealth, private ownership, and make them dependent on you for all access that they need such as food, water, medicine. Etc. By having the masses not be self sustainable and not having private ownership, they will slaves forever and thus granting you absolute and total Control and Power. The next thing you will think about is how to pass on the money/power/wealth to your lineage and how to keep the population as slaves; by indoctrinating them, by monitoring them 24/7 w a chip in their body, and by dumbing them down and using meds to keep them down.

Is this not the closest thing one can get to the ideal depopulation plan? It's absolutely insidious, and is driven by the false belief in vaccines. Most people have an unshakable belief that anything called a "vaccine" is going to save lives, and no amount factual evidence will change that. And there are underlings at many levels to throw under the bus when the pigeons come home to roost.

Indeed get angry and find out who these elites are. I have and it's clear that it's large network planning and plotting for years behind the world wars, 9/11, shooting events, Covid19 which came 19 years after 9/11. 19 the Chaos number for the cabal in control. "They" are the Jesuit Order at the tip of the spear working at the behest of the Roman Catholic Church/ Vatican along with Freemasons and other secret societies which have been meddling and ruling over populations for hundreds of years. They tap into ancient knowledge and follow Kabbalah the dark side of it. They are true evil satanic and have a cruel dark history. Do the research and know the NWO is an old world order. We must end their rule to be free from their grip on humanity.

I repost: the jabs not being experimental, they know which misery they are injecting, they're just testing on large scale which is most efficient in creating misery. Death is an acceptable side-effect of the tests, they need to cross the line to know where the line lies. But it's not a goal in itself, as it wastes the production of misery (of course it creates misery in the lovers around; thus it is more efficient to 'waste' a family person than a single loner). The bloody guidestones are BS, just propaganda to scare people who don't look it up and think it's an ancient prophecy! There is never enough souls to make suffer, depopulation is another level of smoke. They take whatever they want anyway, more layers of population removes even more power from a single individual.

There is and never will be any shortage of money because money does NOT exist, it is printed by those in power. Now it's being digitally made so even less checkable by the masses. To justify transforming the masses (through you own propaganda laden 'educational' system) into slaves you convince them they are in debt. Just look at nature, is there, in 2021, any lack of food? No, not at all. I think it will be a very long time before any animal or mankind cannot find anything to eat anymore.

As long as you can poop, food can grow. Food is just conversion of one food into another. It's a closed system, no losses into some imaginary black hole. People don't see all the food right in front of them as they have no knowledge of what is eatable besides what they see packaged in the supermarket (obviously slightly different in mega cities but those are a tiny minority on worldscale). The transhumanism is to lock you into your body, a hell you cannot get out. The younger you are, the more intense you suffer (you produce lots more suffering in a given timeframe than an oldie), hence they finally get at where they wanted to, the kids. They just had to gain acceptance in the most expendable groups 1st.

Interesting how the whole first year of this THING it was common knowledge as much as anything can be that children were barely affected at all. Then slowly an idea took hold in general about asymptomatic transmission without anyone ever showing any proof (except maybe bogus testing?) and all of a sudden young innocent children could be little vectors of disease that could kill Grandpa.

And everyone was made to act as if we had a million little typhoid Marys running around. Again we proved, no science. I guess right now science means to be a new sided propaganda for the government and people repeat the words 'safe and effective' over and over robotically. Perhaps Merriam Webster needs to change their definition of science!

According to Dr. Malone who invented the mRNA Vaccine, it was never meant to be used in humans. WHY? SAFETY? Find out why. A Vaccine gives 1 immunity to a Virus. None of these do. So they are not Vaccines. More people have died from the shots than the Virus. The deaths from covid are much lower than actual occurrence. Hospitals have been told to list all deaths as covid. This is FRAUD. Only 1% of injury and death after vaccination are actually being reported to mislead the people into thinking the shots are safe and a falsehood to get the shots and booster.

If only a fake plane could crash into the FDA and another into the NIH. The only way that could happen is if the people who own those two criminal organizations needed them to be destroyed to hide papers which could lead to their imprisonment and execution.

In reply to "so you don't think it would be a good idea to make vaccinates fear for their lives if they continue what they're doing?" These people do not fear because they think they are above the law. Fauci is "not and out" lying to Congress (and all of us) and he will continue to do so because even though there is a huge paper trail of his deceit and lying going back forty years, he is allowed to continue. On the other hand, they think nothing of suicidal (Johnson&Johnson) holistic and integrative practitioners and have been doing that since the 1930s when Rockefeller and Carnegie formed the AMA. I wish I knew 40 years ago what I know now! I am grateful for being introduced to yoga and meditation in 1973, and managed to stay clear of most BS because I pulled completely out of the MSM, but so many have been injured and killed by AMA's "standard of care" including some of our community here. :-(It should be called "Standard of Killing". Lovely so they get at least a few years of medical compliance out of the patient....

Several years ago it was reported that the E.P.A. destroyed thousands of pages of documents. Those that revealed information that could have harmed officials in the group, or those that endangered public health and the environment. Yet, there are good people who work for the NIH and CDC who can tell the truth about the lies, peace.

"For an EUA vaccine, the efficacy threshold is only 30% to 50%." They couldn't set a lower bar? When efficiacy is that low, you don't have a vaccine; you have hope, which is neither a strategy nor a method.

Let's not sugar-coat it. The REAL purpose is population reduction by rendering them infertile and eventually dead, and profiting from the ensuing slew of health issues in the mean time.

They need to stop not just these pretend vaccines, but stop regular vaccines which overload/poisons/ruin young/too many vaccines at one time/too many vaccines total. They give 5 vaccines at a time or 8 vaccines at the same time which may cause Autism. Hepl B shot at one day old has polysorbate 80 which crosses the blood brain barrier and this shot may cause MS symptoms in adults. This is not prevention at one day old, but a way to destroy it/forever the population. SIDS/Autism/deaths/disability is not ok.

50 vaccines from birth to kindergarten is NOT ok and then 20 more up to age 18 and more for jobs/Tech school/college/travel/military etc. Flu shot and Gardasil shots are not good. Fish oil daily may stop cold/flu. They are making people infertile by the current shots. There maybe no abortions if they block fertility for all. All shots are for the greater good? No. They try to weaken Americans/America and make themselves lots of money and make it easier for a take over of this country.

Natural help has always been here which is better than a vaccine for prevention. They could teach the whole world how to take care of their own health. The Elite/rich may not be vaccinated. The immunity from being used for polio/doctors/vaccine companies needs to be stopped. Some kill others and don't care. Natural help helps in an awesome way. Colloidal silver may hurt, but you never hear those stories. People need to learn what is good for what is best for them with natural help.

Rich people trying to lower the population so offer free vaccines/drugs which hurt or kill. Adults getting the flu shot may get more Corona virus in the short or memory or polyorphate 80 etc.. Shingles shots/pneumonia shots/flu shots/anti-depression medicine/antibiotics/statin drugs/diabetes/withdrawing thyroid help, probiotics , ozone treatments or IV C/ Vitamin D etc. in the hospital may hurt people. Blocking hormeticsm as they can sell vaccines/use B and M drug is not ok. People can heal God's way.

The pharmaceutical manufacturers of poisonous "vaccines" or so-called vaccines and their CEO's are nothing more than war criminals seeking to harm human health and souls. They must be put on trial as traitors, enemies of the people, murderers, and a threat to global sanity. Imagine if 10,000 people surround their homes with pitchforks and stones. They must be taken to task for their evil deeds and justice must be served. The Satan globalist cabal, poisoning the world, is at an end. A free world that works together for the greater good and the light is beginning.

First of all, I want to commend Dr. Mercola for no longer using the term "vaccine" in a legitimating way. "Jab" or vaxx is much more appropriate. I think many here can relate to Alix Mayers story of vaccine injury.I certainly can. Even though I only had a small handful of jabs in the 50's and 60's, I nevertheless developed symptoms similar to Mayer's as a young person, symptoms my two older - unvaxed - brothers did not get. The Jab, at the age of 17, as a freshman in college, I was injected with a mandatory flu shot from which I developed a case of pneumonia that nearly killed me. The imposition of the plandemic by the elites is not the "Great Reset" they hoped for. I couldn't even stand to read most of this because I believe the real reason for childhood jabs is unbearably worse. The parents are surely jabbed--and we don't want to cope with millions of orphans, do we?

I'm wondered about the pets left without their pet parents, livestock without farmers, zoo animals without their keepers. Children without parents brings to mind the power of the state governments.

Today's Mercola article forum is so good a time and place as any other day to post the following Alliance for Natural Health (ANH) alert. It's a health related privacy article and petition that requires many signatures', so please help this effort.

It's going to get worse for those in the military. The US Army Medical Research & Development Command has created another spike protein jab to test on our brave volunteers in the military. The clinical trial for this jab has not been completed. But that does not matter in today's world. It's not about your health and never has been. It's about world domination by China and implementation of the 4th Industrial Revolution via the Great Reset and Stakeholder Capitalism. China wants Taiwan and is already planning to take it as soon as it's clear the US military cannot support Taiwan. Given the current chaos - who will stand up to China? The US military leadership has sold out to China. Russia is hoping to take advantage of the situation for its own benefit.

The "plandemic" is the set up to carry that out. It's working. www.army.mil/article/252890/series_of_preclinical_studies_supports_the_c-19moderna-pref__INCITEMENT#:~:text=Beginning%20in%20mid-,12-23,-,an-military-to-roll-out-spike-ferritin-nanop... To end this situation, the EUA for any mRNA bioweapon failed clinical trials as a vaccine must be eliminated. To do that, every US State Attorney General must immediately file a criminal indictment against the perpetrators of this crime as recommended by Dr David Martin. So everyone, please write to your AG and ask him/her to take immediate action to do so. I will add info on how to do this next.

From Dr David Martin (Attorney General Discussion) attach to your letter to your AG www.fullphysicalworks.com/attorneygeneraldiscussion1 From the National Association of Attorneys General www.naag.org/...(presents and states ... www.naag.org/naag/resources/research-data/who-are-americas-attorneys-g... Look up your state attorney general's responsibilities so you know what they are. Use that information as a basis for your request. Basically it should say that the AG is obliged to protect the state and it daily enacted laws and to secure justice for the people and their state by investigating and prosecuting criminal activities.

Suggest your cover letter state you understand that, as an elected official of your state, your attorney general has the authority to represent, defend and enforce the legal interests of the state and the public (Note if your AG is appointed rather than elected, you would have to address this differently in your cover letter - probably advise or copy whoever the appointing authority is.) Therefore, on behalf of the public, in the state of XXX, you are requesting he/she take immediate action to investigate, prosecute, and indict the individuals, government agencies, and corporations identified as Defendant in the attached "Proposed Indictment".

Also add you believe the details given for each proposed Indictment Count (there are 8 counts proposed in the document) provides clear evidence supporting your request or words to that effect. Attach the document as supporting evidence to your cover letter and mail to your attorney general via USPS certified mail with return receipt. If you want to make sure the AG gets it personally rather than some office clerk - you can send it Certified Mail Restricted Delivery. Here's info on sending certified mail: www.uspsmails.com/usps-certified-mail

Hello Max, I was once believed in the China and Russia being the threat. However, China and Russia is working with the USA on this Plandemic. It is the the controller behind the scenes of each country pulling the strings. It is the not highest level of politicians that we see on TV. These are just. The talking heads. The objective is depopulation and for each country to be able to country their own slaves/citizens. China and Russia's slaves have it worse as they are in a Communist Country where the population is fully under the control of Big Brother. The surveillance of China is out of control, it knows exactly where its citizens are and what they are doing.

The US is pointing the finger at China and Russia, and China/Russia is pointing the finger at the US. This is to just pacify their own population so they don't suspect their own government is doing it. We have to order the enemy is not China or Russia, it is the Elites who moves the levers of these country. The citizens of the US, China, and Russia should work together to overthrow these controllers and not fight amongst ourselves. Divide and Conquer is what they want and had been doing it with identity politics. If we realize the puppet master is the one to blame then they can no longer hide in the background, therefore, they want us to lay blame on a boogie man.

The pushing of vaccines on the population by the medical establishment reveals a profound misunderstanding of human health. Human health is not based on the introduction of external agents. True, robust human health is generated at the cellular level and if we understand how human cells work to support our health then clearly vaccines are simply not necessary. Dr. Fauci is no more than a life long health administration with little or no front line experience. This has led us down the road of one of the greatest human tragedies in history. If we understand how health is generated at the cellular level then we will have a fighting chance to experience radiant health. Dr. Fauci and his minions have a profound misunderstanding of how the human immune system functions. They seem to be germophobes who do not realize that germs, microbes and bacteria colonize almost every nook and cranny of our bodies both internal and external.

They seem to ignore the science of the microbiome as well as the science of epigenetics which puts forth the concept that our life style more than anything effects the expression of the genes and, therefore, has a major impact on our health. SARS-CoV-2 appears to be a human produced viral bioweapon designed to control and reduce population and make huge profits for the vaccine manufacturers. In summation this profound misunderstanding of how human health is generated has led us down a blind ally where being human is now, in fact, the greatest disease of all and being healthy is a criminal act. We must not allow this to go on.

Thank you Reluctantwarrior for your post about health being generated at the cellular level. Hardly anyone recognizes the fact that the antigen-antibody response, which the theory of "vaccination" is based upon, comprises only about 10% of the functioning of the human immune system. The other 90%, the electric and electromagnetic component of immune functioning is totally ignored. This is because 90% of human immune functioning isn't understood or even begun to be understood by conventional "medicine". If it were understood, that would lead to intervention that doesn't rely on poison drugs or "vaccines" for treatment or prevention. Effective and safe intervention would be based on things like pulsed electromagnetic or magnetic resonance therapy use.

Then, of course, no jab or injection would be needed. It is my hope that the 90% of immune functioning not even recognized by conventional "medicine" will come into play to prevent the dire predictions of everyone having received the "vaccine" being dead within 3- 5 years or cancer, other autoimmune disease or antibody dependent or paradoxical immune response. It's also ditsto how natural immunity acquired by having had and recovered from covid is almost totally ignored (purposefully) ignored.

We need to take a leaf from Dr. Mercola's thinking; we need to address the origins of the disease; that the primary problem is not the companies actions; it is the failure of the rule of law . . . that the challenge is to re-establish the rule of law. Everyone needs to understand that the underlying problem is the attitude of the primary law institutions within the United States, and their long term penchant to accept that corporations who commit crimes and are found guilty may pay a corporate fine in $US . . . while at one and the same time; deliberately turning a classic blind eye to the actions and decisions of the self same leadership of the corporations that were instrumental in the criminal activities of their corporations. That today, no member of the board of such corporations ever face the potential of being brought before a court of law, subjected to the potential of full discovery of their own actions in the leadership of the corporation; that might end in a judge, (let alone a jury), deciding to send them to jail for perhaps a considerable term of imprisonment.

That penchant to turn a blind eye has, very effectively; led to many massive crimes, often repeated by the same corporations; being regularly committed, without any action taken against the persons responsible. However, the absolute responsibility lays firmly within the remit of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the now massive flow of funds they greedily remit from the age of corporate criminality . . . which to my way of thinking, tells me that the FBI has to be seen as aiding and abetting criminality . . . and as such, must now be closed down and replaced with new leadership accepting a remit that deliberately excludes the concept of anyone buying their way out of the application of the rule of the law. Offering any form of a "Deal" must be made . . . against the law. Period!

It's the Maritime/Corporate legal system, with one's name spelled out in CAPITAL LETTERS- that is your corporate identity. See your major ID papers- birth certificate, credit cards, driver licenses, passports, and so on- observe the CAPITALS. Those are NWO/corporate identifiers. The UNITED STATES is a corporation! different from the United States, which is the original government of the USA. Your birth certificate, with your name in CAPS, means that you, as a CORPORATION, is now property of the UNITED STATES corporation! A slave! The United States is deliberately confused with the UNITED STATES corporation.

Ringer2 gaw9735 First of all I am a citizen of the United Kingdom, which, since the signing of the Defense Trade Cooperation Treaty is a colony of the UNITED STATES. Regardless, my sympathies are as a UK citizen and the rule of what is known as UK common law. The law is the result of more than a 1,000 years of debate about what makes for a civilised nation, and that debate continues to this very day. It is juries in a law court that define what is or is not a crime . . . similarly, it is the people that lie at the heart of the rule of law within a nation of laws. Law is the solid foundation of every civilisation. So, like it or not, it is our responsibility to change the way law is being applied if we do not agree with the manner it is being applied today.

If the FBI is not operating in the interest of a civilised nation; then it is the FBI that must be changed. Today there is massive evidence that the law within the United States is not working in the interest of the people. That instead, lawlessness is the order of the day. So, as a colonial citizen of the United States, it becomes a responsibility to seek the changes needed to bring the ship of state, the FBI; back into line with their responsibilities. So the answer to the points you have both raised has to be; stand up and be counted.

I've been at various times encouraging others here to put their actions where their words are. Emails sent to local government officials and appearances made at their meetings are all documented for posterity. At a minimum they can never again said they weren't told while along the way they're getting an education that is in diametric opposition to the propaganda being pumped through MSM. My focus is especially on the age 5-11 group that lhas become the latest target of their murderous campaign. Tell them in no uncertain terms that they are on the hook for at least negligent manslaughter and that Nuremberg has a long memory.

This is a general comment and nothing personal. I appreciate what you're doing and I'm doing my share too in another way. But them being warned (they knew all along) is that enough? (general question) That's not going to bring the wasted children's lifes back, they'll be the casualities because we stayed 'clean' in the murderer's 'laws' or mandates. Whichever way we look at this, there is no good choice left, nobody is innocent, just perpetrators and passive witnesses.

We'll have to choose between wrong or worse. I wonder if the guy in the mirror will accept my excuses, I doubt it since day 1 of this humanity test. If we persist on 'being the better man' I guess we'll land in a mass grave next to all the others who hoped 'help from above was on its way', as I hear that a lot these days, not saying I don't believe in positive energy but from whatever I believe from any religion, personal sacrifice is a key necessity to make goodness prosper/survive. Strength is what is tested in shitty times, everybody can be good in good times. I hope we'll all find it in ourselves to serve our own humanity, instead of our own selfish short term preservation.

I often read complaints of people who are sick of not being appreciated by the zombies around them. I agree. But honesty tells me that I am Not the victim in this scenario. Rather all the zombies cought in the trap are. They don't realize they're stepping straight into hell. I don't want to join them in any way, but sometimes I wonder why I am so lucky to not fall for the trap. Any enlightenment appreciated. Maybe it's just our blessing to do something about it. Nuremberg was a very bad joke, I want something better to tell the kids about what's going to happen to the evildoers. Mr in the sky, please help just a little more, as the way is still very unclear.

My take on why so many people comply with the shot has a couple of layers. One is that I guess around 53% of people on average would take the flu vaccine in before times, and this number probably corresponds in some ways to people who subscribe to the whole Western medicine trip in general. Now because we do not have a mature approach to cold and flu season, and because many people might be cajoled by their "loved ones", that number might be higher, so maybe that brings us to about 60% of the population who is merely habituated to take this sort of thing.

Of the 40% remaining many are dug in and of course will not take it, but for the others you cannot underestimate all of the shock and awe that took place at the beginning and continues to take place. Where I live we essentially had a version of Martial law enacted without any warning that lasted for months, and of course all the disruptions to school that parents had to deal with. In the face of all this I think a group of people said just give me the shot if it will make some of the craziness stop!

Swabien - I know so many individuals who dug their heals in. As of 42 minutes ago, 66.5% of the US population is vaccinated (fully? I don't know)... I'd love to see a breakdown of those numbers for real - injured? Still alive? Permanently disabled? Stroke? Heart attack ... I talked to a high up city planner guy who has bought, from his research, that the J&J vaccine is the only one that had side effects. UM - WHAT? So this avid mainstream news watcher has received the information that Pfizer and Moderna have zero problems? I can't even continue.

I'm just shocked at the lies they are the selling and the fact that any intelligent American wouldn't want to know what is being censored to keep people continuing to get their boosters. It's all about the boosters now, the news has to be targeting them to keep them boosting up with the injections. The saddest thing? They're not linking his wife's new abdominal issues to the vaccine. Even though it is a known side effect. *shakes head

What RFK says about Autism rates skyrocketing is spot on. I began teaching elementary school in '89 and there were no autistic students in my school. I didn't know anyone with an autistic child. A decade later, I had my first student with autism, a couple years after that, we began to see 4 or 5 per grade level, and now it's about 1-2 autistic students per class. And know we all know someone (or many) children with autism. And this doesn't count the large number of students who aren't high functioning and must be placed in one of the autism-specific classes that are in multiple locations across the district.

Many of those kids are non-verbal, or oppositional defiant, have seizures or have low IQ. In the last three decades I've seen the number of food allergies double (when previously almost nonexistent), anger issues in young kids (like kindergartners who can't stop hitting or throwing chairs or screaming), overall less gifted students (meaning IQ levels are dropping). The fact that no one in our government leadership can or will talk about this makes me so mad. We have essentially been drugging and poisoning a whole generation of kids. It's awful.

Everything about "COVID" is pure fraud. The tests for which the entire emergency powers were declared was found with 10 fatal flaws. That means every COVID gene therapy injection trial is falsified. It's like they never happened because testing whether a person had COVID or contracted it during the trial was based upon pure fraud. We have no chain of custody, no proof that the alleged China isolation of SARS CoV-2 was from just the sick person presenting with SARS respiratory issues because this person's lung lavage would NOT grow in human cells. It did grow in vero cells. The act of growing human lung lavage samples in vero cells created a chimera.

What was sequenced was not what infected the human at all. It was a chimera between monkey viruses and human pathogens. The fraud is seething. There is no justification whatsoever for declaring emergency powers. NONE! There ARE safe and effective treatments, proven beyond the shadow of a doubt. This alone should end the EUA's on all COVID protocols. There is no excuse for this continuing. NONE! We never had a pandemic. We had a casedemic caused by fraudulent tests, fraudulent changes to the coroners handbook on recording COVID cases and deaths and media gaslighting. There were isolated cases of SARS, as in people presenting with severe acute respiratory syndrome.

But there are number of possible causes for those, and they begin with the flu shots and viral interference. Suspiciously absent from investigations into the cause of SARS is looking for correlations between vaccinated people and unvaccinated. Earlier this year the Gateway Pundit had an article showing a worldwide correlation between influenza vaccinated and this so-called COVID. Associations with SARS symptoms have been found as vaccine adverse events, glyphosate toxicity, 5g non-ionizing radiation exposure, and cyanide poisoning from high smog cities, but these are ignored by the CDC.

"Products must satisfy four criteria in order to get emergency use authorization: There must be an emergency; a vaccine must be at least 30% to 50% effective; the known and potential benefits of the product must outweigh the known and potential risks of the product; and there can be no adequate, approved and available alternative treatments (drugs or vaccines). Unless all four criteria are met, EUA cannot be granted or maintained" And this is why the EUA for the phony Covid nonvaccine "vaccines" was issued under completely false pretenses: the powers-that-be knew all along there were safe and effective medications (e.g., Ivermectin) readily available. Thus, the deliberate campaign to demonize and discredit not only the alternative medications, but anyone who dared say a word about them.

As an experienced RN, I can tell you that US hospital medical records show Comirnaty as the vax being given when people receive Pfizer/BioNTech despite Comirnaty being not yet available in the United States. I verified with the pharmacy - "Comirnaty" is not on the packaging or vials. This is part of the deception, and possibly a major legal issue.

""Investigational is a synonym for experimental," Mayer says. "And the word experimental ties it directly into the Nuremberg Code, which says that we cannot be experimented on [without consent]. We always have the right to accept or refuse a medical treatment. [The Nuremberg Code] is not a law, but it's a code under which the whole world is supposed to be operating by. And it is actually codified into some local and federal laws as well ... So, what everybody needs to know is that coercion and duress are considered de facto mandates and illegal.

De facto means that it's basically the same as an outright mandate." --...and what does that tell you? It tells me that this Dystopian Nightmare we're living in, will never end; especially once the WHO takes over "Global Health Care". The 'health authorities' are already totally controlled by the WEF, WHO and the UN! The Nuremberg Code is written into the Canadian Constitution. The controllers couldn't care less. The continue to do what they want!

I remember my first "fight" with the doctors and medical staff right after delivering my first baby. I had signed a waiver stating I did not want silver nitrate or antibiotics put into my newborn's eyes automatically after delivery. I had researched this and knew it was standard procedure but also had the potential to injure the baby's eyes. It burns and they aren't able to see clearly for quite awhile. There was risk of an allergic reaction . I was challenged on it but stood my ground. I asked simple questions about the reasons for doing it. Why do you do it? To prevent syphilis and gonorrhea seemed to be the common answer.

I also found out it was a law because you couldn't discriminate and say " Well, this mother looks like she might have a venereal disease but this one doesn't so let's just give all babies the poison to be sure." I point blank asked my OB if she thought I had a venereal disease and she said no. I had to sign a release form stating I would not sue the hospital if my baby was blinded by disease because I refused the drops. I did it and took their dirty looks and wrath. After my second baby, a different pediatrician refused to check the baby after delivery because I refused the eye drops.

I told him he scared me because he never asked me why I didn't want the drops. Who wants that kind of doctor? I stood my ground through four births, no complications. Only the last one, born at a birthing center with a nurse midwife, 5 minutes from my home, understood my concerns. No drops given there! I also refused any shots including the Vitamin K shot. They " inadvertently" gave one to my third baby as I let my guard down, and she was the only one who experienced newborn jaundice. I know it was the cause. You have to educate yourself about all of this and fight for your choices!

Once again, the wonderful mayor of Vaccine Land, Dr. Infamous Fauci, said, "I will not rest until this shot is on the childhood vaccine schedule." I wish I could find that interview and attach it here! Maybe he's seen that would not be a good idea after watching babies' reactions :(Who knows? We sure don't. Well, until now. Comirnaty wasn't actually approved? I love the internet! Let's go and find all the resources saying it was approved. I'm sure we'll find every news outlet parroting THAT particular piece of information.

So many lies. OMGosh, and to think how many times that line was thrown at me - damn, I wish I'd known!!! The people who said, "Well, Comirnaty has been approved," threw that factoid around interchanging it with Pfizer's shot and the ..gov sites blatantly say it's the SAME as Pfizer's! Jeeze! And doesn't anyone feel it's suspect that neither of those, nor the J&J shot, have been fully approved? Yet they're 'approving the 4th booster, etc.' ... are you approving it, or not? If it's mandated, shouldn't it be fully approved for safety and efficacy? For a complete list of lies: duckduckgo.com and for the FDA.gov site lie:
www.fda.gov/news-events/press-announcements/fda-approves-first-covid-1.. and for a real whopper of a lie, faqs.in.gov/hc/en-us/articles/4405706969748-Have-any-of-the-vaccines-r.. Playing fast and loose with the words, guys.

I think the con is up when people know they are being conned.

Shucks. With all that said, is the above article updated in the sense the Comirnaty definitely hasn't been approved? It is STILL quasi approved?

In the US, the Supreme Court has ruled that vaccinated people worldwide are products, patented goods, according to US law, no longer human. Through a modified DNA or RNA vaccination, the mRNA vaccination, the person ceases to be human and becomes the OWNER of the holder of the modified GEN vaccination patent, because they have their own genome and are no longer "human" (without natural people), but "trans-human", so a category that does not exist in Human Rights. The quality of a natural person and all related rights are lost. This applies worldwide and patents are subject to US law. Since 2013, all people vaccinated with GM-modified mRNAs are legally trans-human and legally identified as trans-human and do not enjoy any human or other rights of a state, and this applies worldwide, because GEN-POINT technology patents are under US jurisdiction and law, where they were registered." Rudolf Steiner (October, 1917): "I have pointed out that while human bodies will develop in such a way that certain spiritualities can find room in them, the materialistic bent, which will spread more and more under the guidance of the spirits of darkness, will work against this and combat it by physical means. I have told you that the spirits of darkness are going to inspire their human hosts, in whom they will be dwelling, to find a vaccine that will drive all inclination towards spirituality out of people's souls when they are still very young, and this will happen in a roundabout way through the living body. Today, bodies are vaccinated against one thing and another; in future, children will be vaccinated with a substance which it will certainly be possible to produce, and this will make them immune, so that they do not develop foolish inclinations connected with spiritual life — 'foolish' here, of course, in the eyes of materialists." "The whole trend goes in a direction where a way will finally be found to vaccinate bodies so that these bodies will not allow the inclination towards spiritual ideas to develop and all their lives people will believe only in the physical world they perceive with the senses." "The soul will be made non-existent with the aid of a drug.

Taking a 'sound point of view', people will invent a vaccine to influence the organism as early as possible, preferably as soon as it is born, so that this human body never even gets the idea that there is a soul and a spirit." "The first step must be to throw people's views into confusion, turning their concepts and ideas inside out." "...It is pathological for people to even think in terms of spirit and soul.

'Sound' people will speak of nothing but the body. It will be considered a sign of illness for anyone to arrive at the idea of any such thing as a spirit or a soul. People who think like that will be considered to be sick and — you can be quite sure of it — a medicine will be found for this."

I (and many others, apparently) have seen this. No more discernment, blackness coming over a person's entity and causing them to do something very evil (which happened to me in November 2021 and it scared the * out of me.) Jon Rappoport (and his theories on the matrix) fall in line with this also. Hard not to view this as a total takeover. Although, with childhood vaccines being moved up to at birth and 2 months - etc., I believe happened because people took issue with the changes in personality they saw when vaccinating for school entrance. Vax'd as a baby meant the parents wouldn't ever know who their children would have been. I remember when I read that my blood turned cold.

But the very second & third necessity for a vax to be approved is against for its maker to escape liability... The second: the maker known there is harmful ingredient in the vax & withold that information - must eliminate their escaping of liability - as they obviously known there are harmful ingredients in the vax - they put them in - & they still fight with tooth&nail against giving out the ingredients - even constantly coming up proofs of pericarditis & myocarditis...in children & sportsmen. The third: the potential benefits of the product out-weight the harm they could cause - which is totally obviously false....proven by the endless numbers of vax injuries & deaths therefore they cannot escape liability - never mind they made the vaxes on a way that the harm appears after a time to make it difficult to combine/prove - still never before and now suddenly ....yes??? Or doesn't matter what you can prove or what is obvious still they do what they want???

Ultimately All "medical procedures including vaccinations, jabs, surgeries, etc. etc. carry risk and are NOT safe. Just looking at the increased numbers of autistic kids, ADHD, excema, and on and on and on. You take great risk just going in to a hospital where there are all kinds of deadly things - that cannot be gotten rid of. antibiotic resistant bacteria. WAKE up. the schools are not going to tell you. In fact the "health care professionals" are now inside the schools - pushing masks and vaccines. And they are all exempt from blame. 1986 Act. After the local newspaper editor kept pushing masks and now vaccines, I suggested the readership check in to your interviews - hmmmmm they took my suggestion off their online "facebook" site. I will still speak out and find other people who want the truth.

As I have said before, have you noticed how TERRIFIED children are of the needle? Is their little bodies instinctively telling them something? Even the children know it's WRONG! And like others it PAINS me to watch them refuse but the parents and doctors FORCE it on them anyway. Heartbreaking! But I do know the medical profession seems to have no respect for women, older people, and quite possibly children. I have seen and heard it too much.

I'd like to know the details on why it is taking so long for the Novavax vaccine to get EUA. Novavax is the traditional protein subunit vaccine that had none of the severe side effects that the Pfizer and Moderna mRNA shots and the AZ and J&J adenovirus vector shots have. No myocarditis/pericarditis, no blod clots, no Ball's palsy or GBS. My theory is if/when Novavax comes on the market, Pfizer is going to look very bad in comparison WRT side effects and deaths.

It's really ticking me off that Comirnaty now has radio and TV commercials encouraging people to get vaccinated with Comirnaty leading people to believe, falsely, that the vaccine they receive will be the 'approved' (believe I know truth about that as well- just pointed out more web if deception) vaccine and not 'EUA' (as if either is any good/safe) when Comirnaty is not even in production or use yet!!!! Why are these commercials allowed to go on??? It's false advertising and false information and propaganda!!! [I am NOT looking for excuse or explanation about why the commercials are allowed- I get the extent of control and corruption- I am just expressing my frustration!]

I've researched the scam of vaccines for over thirty years. Historical Data Shows that NOT ONLY do VACCINES NOT prevent so called infectious diseases.. They actually CAUSE the very diseases they're endlessly touted as preventing! In 1871-2, England, with 98% of the population aged between 2 and 50 vaccinated against smallpox, it experienced its worst ever smallpox outbreak with 45,000 deaths. During the same period in Germany, with a vaccination rate of 96%, there were over 125,000 deaths from smallpox. (The Hadwen Documents) - In Germany, compulsory mass vaccination against diphtheria commenced in 1940 and by 1945 diphtheria cases were up from 40,000 to 250,000. (Don't Get Stuck, Hannah Allen) -

In the USA in 1960, two virologists discovered that both polio vaccines were contaminated with the SV 40 virus which causes cancer in animals as well as changes in human cell tissue cultures. Millions of children had been injected with these vaccines. (Med Jnl of Australia 17/3/1973 p555) - In 1967, Ghana was declared measles free by the World Health Organisation after 96% of its population was vaccinated. In 1972, Ghana experienced one of its worst measles outbreaks with its highest ever mortality rate. (Dr H Albonico, MMR Vaccine Campaign in Switzerland, March 1990)

In the UK between 1970 and 1990, over 200,000 cases of whooping cough occurred in fully vaccinated children. (Community Disease Surveillance Centre, UK) - In the 1970`s a tuberculosis vaccine trial in India involving 260,000 people revealed that more cases of TB occurred in the vaccinated than the unvaccinated. (The Lancet 12/1/80 p73) - In 1977, Dr Jonas Salk, who developed the first polio vaccine, testified along with other scientists that mass inoculation against polio was the cause of most polio cases throughout the USA since 1961. (Science 4/4/77 "Abstracts") - In 1978, a survey of 30 States in the US revealed that more than half of the children who contracted measles had been adequately vacc

In todays world I would not have children. It is unfair to give birth to a potentially healthy, normal child (providing the parents are healthy) only to turn them over to the needle fanatics and compromise their future. My grandson got all his 'puppy' shots and suffered from constant health/allergy issues. His mother chose to refuse the shots for her second child and she has no issues. Your choice.

I'd say, any PharmaChem that petitions govt to allow hiding the real data on these vacs, for 55 years, KNOWS it's bad, & is just waiting for it to kill-off population, or, make it so the NAFTA Treaty protects their continued sales of it, or...waiting to see what gene mods happen once these kids grow into elders. We don't know what the gene mods will do. No real idea what BGates has in mind. But waiting 55 years will tell. Only, by then, a bunch could be dead, harmed, or morphed into something none thought they were getting.

Yes, it makes sense that big pharma wants the jabs into 16 & 17 year olds, so the covid jabs can go on the childhood schedule and they get liability protection for ever. Still doesn't explain why they want to jab down to 5 years old, and now they are looking at kids younger than 5. Is it just for the money, or are they really trying to kill or disable as many people as possible?

If they try so hard to force the jab into the children's vaccination schedule, wouldn't people start questioning some of the other vaccines as well.....? Maybe this will wake people up a little more. When was ever such force used? It's really getting ridiculous. It's starting to show very clearly this is not about the government and other 3 letter agencies caring about our health. It's all about the money as usual.

My son was born a preemie at 30.5 wks 24 yrs ago. Not once did the pediatrician defer any vaccine. If the calendar said 6 mos time for a shot, he got it, not thinking he was only 6 lbs. He was still a preemie. I knew nothing because I am not in the medical profession. When they wanted to give him guardisil, he was already diagnosed with autism. I knew to say no. These are very sick people forcing these jabs into to make a buck because illness gets them richer and richer.

I'm so grateful for Dr. Mercola helping me keep my head on straight! It's so hard to hear friends and family being so fearful of something that is blown out of porportion. They claim to be highly educated and following the science. Unfortunately, they didn't do their homework on this one. Thank you Dr. Mercoloa for giving us a place to stay in the know, and help keep our sanity!

As a Chicagoan in exile, the chief reason I read Mercola and Becker is to remind myself about what a great place Chicago used to be. Now Mercola's in Florida, Becker's in Arizona, I gather, and from time to time an interview, such as this with Alix Mayer, reminds me of what a thriving, stimulating location Chicago used to be before it fell victim to the siren song of "diversity" - five blacks running the joint - and taxed to the hilt so that anyone and everyone regardless skin color is looking to flee. Unfortunately, a great lesson in how wonderful places destroy themselves.

Thank you Dr Mercola and the guest for a lengthy discussion on the topic providing a great deal of sound medical background to larger issues behind EUA. however, the vxx can maim, make infertile and kill children just like adults, so the comment at the very end of the article about children recovering 99.9% from covid being the reason "why" children are being targeted, just doesnt fully add up to me. Consider a simpler thesis of "why" can be explained as a religious fervor of mass "child sacrifice"...a Satanic driven agenda of mass murder and depopulation through the sterilizing the bulk of the next generation.

The progressive and demented scientific "experts" have been pushing this eugenics narrative under many guises non stop for the last hundred years (global abortion, vax agenda, hyper environmentalism, man-made global warming and climate change, over-population agenda) This is pure evil, seeking for a pretense to kill humankind. In addition, if one takes the Chinese communist party's leaders and generals at their words, they have overtly spoken of the need to subjugate or destroy the west for their own people...if you destroy the children which are the foundation and future pillar of the west, it makes the task of takeover a whole lot easier. Who needs emps or nukes, the useful idiot doctors and medical establishment will do their dirty work for them. Thank you.

BigPharma's actions seem superfluous and obvious; obvious in that BigPharma ALREADY knows the chemical is harmful, hence them attempting to proactively get out of responsibility, and superfluous, as the Highest Office & Highest Court in the Land are both proven to be so corrupt, that any and everyone with power or money can and will get away with cold-blooded murder, with nothing more than a Gnat's-worth of annoyance.

Reading about all the vaccines ms. Mayer was given makes me think about the battery of vaccines the US Military FORCES soldiers to take. Remember "Gulf War Syndrome?" I remember in the late 1990s a number of couples appeared on The Montel Williams Show to discuss (in graphic detail) the side effects of taking the many vaccines and taking pills that they were told were to protect them from biological weapons exposure or other airborne agents. They talked about brain fog, digestive issues, developing allergies and strange sexual issues. One wife explained how when she and her husband had sex, afterwards, she had to clean herself up, off and out because wherever her husband's sperm was on her body it burned like acid. They both went to doctors who brushed off their symptoms, especially the many military doctors. That military pay may be tax free if you serve in a war zone but is it worth it?

In 2020 when I retired, I saw the "Coronavirus Testing & Vaccinated Train" coming. Thanks to people like Dr. Mercola and the others brave enough to tell us THE TRUTH. Most of us reading these pages have been aware since December 2019-January 2020 that some bad stuff was coming our way and are so-called journalists, politicians and medical professionals were all asleep at the wheel. I've never been tested, vaccinated and WILL NOT BE. So far I've been able to keep my name out of identifying systems (I think) and I'm going to keep it that way! What's being done to us is very sinister, scary just downright wrong. Stay informed and away!

yes this is ALL TRUE and the real reason they're pushing the jabs so hard is that they want to wet wire humanity with AI; to remote control, enslave, and totally surveil all life on earth especially humans using AI cyborg slavery. Reject this agenda with everything you've got and read Alison McDowell's research on this topic at wrenchinthegears.com

The Childhood Vaccine Schedule is a violation to the fundamental principle of Our Inalienable Rights which We the People hold above all whatsoever and enforced equally in our territory. We the People promise that a person born in our territory will have their Life & Liberty protected so they will be free to pursue Happiness. The mere existence of any mandate medical treatment is an infringement on a person's Liberty to decide what's best for themselves as well as having their Life endangered. There's a conflict of interest to the sovereignty of We the People by having organizations that are not funded by The U.S. Taxpayers interacting with the governance The U.S. Citizens. This is a matter that needs to be addressed immediately by calling for military intervention and ordering the arrest of The United States Attorney General along with the suspension all authority held by The Federal Government. I recommend assembling The Citizen's Militia and prepare to hold trial.

Thanks Dr Mercola, really informative on some of the legalities around how these authorizations and approvals are happening. I was wondering further on the new 'covid pills' that are coming out. Would they be affecting the EUA or would the pharma companies be managing keeping the EUA somehow despite these 'treatments'? In a recent interview I think RFK mentioned that Remdesevir does not affect the EUA because it is only a hospital treatment that is give through IV.

Information such as provided here is so important but unfortunately most of the public get their information from the liberal media which continues to push false information about the safety and necessity of these Covid vaccines and boosters. It's absolutely disgusting! How many lives will be sacrificed to the insatiable greed of the vaccine manufacturers?! Just sickening!

I can think of another of many reasons why they want to push this poison on kids: they know it affects fertility, so if they can jab as many kids as possible, they're reducing the population by making it difficult or impossible for many of them to have children when they grow up.

It is about the coming generations that the current children will be raised with a DNA genetic change to not be connected to the love of the Creator and become Godless. It is not a vaccination but a DNA genetic mutation.

Her perspective is invaluable! If people were honest, it would probably fail all the criteria for an EUA, especially the risks vs. benefits for children and the lack of other treatments. Also, what trials were ever done on the booster(s)? Six months isn't a lot of protection for 2 shots...The drug company corporate leadership and government regulators seem to either lack common sense or are pretending to be stupid. Maybe some are sociopaths. It's everyone's problem now to have to deal with these people and their mess. Reminds me of dealing with a narcissistic or sociopathic person.

It is all now proven. They are introducing nanotechnology with the jabs. Each one more. Which is going to work with 5 G. Vid YT Aaron Russo, RIP, about RFID chips. They intend to put people off who do not obey. They can steer emotions with the nanotechnology. Do they thus intend to incite racial wars here in Europe. Turn off the elderly and all those not scoring points like they are registering in China. China full of internment camps. Canada building many. I posted links in my comment.

What I don't get! If young healthy athletes are dropping like flies from these injections, normal healthy people are contracting hideous debilitating physical side-effects, what are we doing allowing these injections to defenseless people with known compromised immune systems, like the elderly? Intentionally putting the older folks in harms way. Genocide? Purging the people with acquired wisdom from the planet? I don't get it! ...and - leave the kids alone - period

A Christian man in charge of our local Singles and Mingles(married) group for well over the last 30 years died Christmas Eve

A Christian man in charge of our local Singles and Mingles(married) group for well over the last 30 years died Christmas Eve. According to a very good medical doctor and friend of both myself and this Christian Leader says he died of the complications of COVID and Pneumonia and Parkinsons. The Parkinsons was newly discovered. He was not breathing on his own and was on a Ventilator from the Tuesday after Thanksgiving. They took him off that Ventilator expecting him to die. He started breathing on his own the Saturday before Christmas. They were scheduling him for rehab and it was a near miracle. He had a massive stroke while on the Ventilator and no one expected he would live, but he did.

8:00 am Christmas Eve he suddenly went down and died. Doctor said it was COVID. The truth as I see it is this is a very nasty bio-weapon put out by a number of VIPs in the UN and our government agencies. China is also involved as a host nation for the disease. There is a very good explanation for the actions of the medical society of this Country. In simple words they will not approve any treatment that does not involved stealing a great deal of money from the American civilian population of this country. It also effects everyone serving in Military Service and it is likely it is against the Code from World War II and they are going to get away with it because they own the legal community body and soul.

So with an average ventilator cost that is a fortune, that is the treatment of choice. The embarrassing truth is medical doctors have come up with cures and they have had the FDA send them letters threatening their medical licenses if they continue. IF what I say is not true, why are these people not in jail for their crimes against humanity? Simply because money talks, and everything else walks. Our government does not dare go against these people because it involves billions of dollars of revenue into the medical community and they know it. I am sure they will go to hell.

I can't understand how anyone could hear or read the horrendous story by Alix Mayer and NOT realize the truth. There are thousands of stories about injuries and deaths that are, unfortunately, all being kept under wraps. Several people I know personally, are so much into the scientific realm, they won't even think about listening to or reading this 'made up' story for whatever reason. At the same time, we've all listened to the many doctors like Dr. Mercola, LifeSiteNews, Liberty Counsel, etc. who DO have a big platform, but yet for some reason, they still don't get exposed. I understand the news media have been paid millions to contain injury/death results. ..... As to the children being vaxxed, I feel it's also a way to inject them with birth control meds. to help further control the 'population' which has become the life interest of King Gates.

Every day there's more fear porn in the MSM. Here's the latest BIG LIE from the L.A. Times: "Jump in child COVID hospitalizations in N.Y. sparks concerns in California amid Omicron" "In metro New York, half of the children being admitted to hospitals are younger than 5 and ineligible for vaccination." People are urged to "test" often so if a child gets a cold and tests positive, they take the child to the hospital because of the dreaded Covid monster they've been misled to believe is deadly. This boosts the "cases" narrative to push for "vaccination" of ever younger children. Criminal conspiracy!

Why? Because it will almost guarantee a steady stream of income for big pharma who will prescribe millions of kids anti coagulants, blood thinners, anti-depressants when their body goes haywire, etc. Why? The same old why.... money.

I am not going for Big Pharma being strictly motivated by profit, not when the era of dollars created through debt is coming to an end. There is an agenda to all of these 'do as you are told' pandemic measures that are being forced on society. Once they have the sheep conditioned to line up for injections, wear masks and believe 'the science' that is when the real fun (for them) begins. I am not going to speculate on the end of game moves but just report what I see ~ Agenda 2030 is a scary end game and that has been the plan by globalists like Gates and Schwab for a while now.

We've been reading Kennedy and Atlas's books this week....... It is much worse than I ever knew. Thankfully we had COVID early on and listened to Fauci say we would not need the vax a year ago. We have focused on being heathy, growing our own food and harvesting game in my yard..... I am gathering all the fallen leaves I can(we don't treat lawns in my 'hood) and making compost for next year's garden. I have not bought fert in decades but worry about there not being enough for those who will need it.

Please! Everyone! I really didn't want to make this "political", BUT, be aware that, unless we are VERY careful, with Kam--- in our gov't, Communism could be just one step away. We MUST RISE! There HAS to be an awakening soon or it could be too late. 3 more years of our present "leaders", could be the ruin of US! They are doing everything they can, giving out "free" shots (that YOU pay for for the rest of your life) is just the beginning of the "handouts"! YES, my husband cornered me into taking the handout, and I took the first one, but not the 2nd, and suffice it to say, I will NEVER take another one!

Yes - A day late and several billions of dollars short? The current shots are of little protection against omicron. Its like asking people to agree to reading last year's news, except the jabs carry far more risks, soon (wait a week or two for omicron to take over) for nearly zero benefits.

Thank you Dr. Mercola and Ms. Mayer for this informative interview. Ms. Mayer, I am so sorry you went through what you did with your health after getting those jabs. You didn't know any better at the time what they were going to do to you. As for the ppl here who don't believe that there is a de-population plan at work here; you all need to get a grip on reality. Bill Gates HAS been recorded years back talking about his de-population agenda. It's common knowledge amongst most of us ppl who are holistic health minded. I pray that these Covid death jabs do not get on the schedule for our little ones!!

I'm just guessing here, but it is not outside the realm of possibility that this inoculation will prevent proper reproductive system development. So to make a long story short, these kids won't be able to reproduce when the normal time comes. Also, that might just be the beginning. Can you imagine what is being done to the brain in every sense? Years ago I read a book by Harris Coulter on the possible relationship between multiple vaccinations and criminal behavior down the line. This "vaccine" could only be much worse.

The sickos are already advertising Comirnaty on radio INTENTIONALLY LEADING PEOPLE TO BELIEVE THAT IF THEY GO GET VAX OR BOOSTERS THAT THEY ARE RECEIVING THE 'APPROVED' COMIRNATY. I've heard the commercials, if you know the truth (what was approved, what it means and that it is NOT yet in use) the commercials are scary disgusting (I've heard the commercials several times on radio). If you DON'T know truth, then they easily lead you to 'believe' that you are getting the now 'approved' version when you go get your 'shot'. There is also a commercial in some state using a CHILD writing to Santa saying 'please I just want a Covid vaccine for Christmas'

This is high-stakes and they will stop at nothing, but it will be difficult for them to hold a cohesive majority of people who are willing to keep taking this stuff! The group who hasn't taken it yet is more resolved than ever, and many people I know who have taken the third shot are horrified at ever taking it again! At one point during the holiday yesterday my sister-in-law took me aside and shared that this has been the worst year of her life health wise and she attributes it to having taken the three shots. She felt coerced into taking them because she works at a hospital in administration, but now she says she will never take it again. When she said this she looked into my eyes intently and squeezed my arm really really hard.

So a year ago she didn't think anything about vaccines one way or another and now she is as determined to never go near this stuff as the most insane conspiracy theory type anti-vaxxer, hahaha! So I guess what I'm saying is that their ranks of the vaccine takers are going to be ever-dwindling. Which explains why they are so desperate to pop as much poison into as many people as quickly as possible before they get found out, and they are getting found out. The propaganda machine is deafening of course. I would have to give top prizes in that category to the guardian and the New York Times. It is so interesting to me that New York City and London are at the Forefront of this as far as getting massacred by the cold train, and those two papers may as well be edited by the CEO of Pfizer right now

Numerous healthcare workers I've met are just crawling out of their skin, biting their tongues nearly in half & some just come out with it what the hell is going on. Who can't we do as we always have done, what has at least helped somewhat in the past - This is Nuts. Legal Chess Games while the Predator's charge the rules of the game as they go to suit & fack up whatever the current Bull Sh*t Lie is. Fauci's dismal track record decade after decade should have sent him off to Sing Sing or worse. The decades of Crimes against Humanity & against Life itself, unacceptable.

"The eye sees only what the mind is prepared to comprehend." Henri Bergson If true – we need to keep it simple. Life is duality. Hot/cold, up/down, inside/outside, light/dark, hot/cold, . . . good/evil. You are either part of the problem or part of the solution. One accepts the "Mental Reality of the Semblance" proposed by The Powers That Be (TPTB) (Power Elite, Deep State, etc.). Or, one accepts the "Reality of Common Sense" based on independence and the truth. If you perpetuate the "Bamboozle" you are part of the problem.

For example – Washington state Attorney General Bob Ferguson said Thursday he has tested positive for C-19. "While the timing is unfortunate, and I'm disappointed to miss Christmas with family, I'm grateful to be vaccinated and managing my symptoms at home," Ferguson said in a subsequent statement. "I'm beginning to feel better and look forward to getting my booster shot." Bob Ferguson ignores "natural immunity", the failure of the "Jab" to protect and prevent transmission, and the risks associated with the "Jab" (VAERS). He is void of "common sense" and reality. With leadership like this, I wonder why we still have the problem

The plan is clearly universal and repeated vaccination now, and vaccine segregation based on that. Then there will be other aspects of lifestyle segregation - healthy habits, unhealthy lifestyles, meat eating, exercise or not. Because the left has established that 'racism' is a "pandemic" too, pour segregating Antifa and Burn Loot Murders will also be monitored, and whether or not you are an "ally" of the uranian alphabet soup of inversion and perversion. As desirable classes are separated from undesirable classes, the social credit scores will be computed, the classes of Scorpion ("worm", "inverting" or "hostile") will be differentiated and the re-education camps and Gulags will be filled. This is why this needs to be stopped with this plandemic, this campaign of hysteria and these jabs.

To add a further strand to what I have posted below - the Governments don't want posts like Mercola and others to be different to what they want the multitude to believe, so 'they' have enacted Laws which take away our rights to communicate adverse information or negative points of view to those they want to be believed and acted upon, by "them" and many other sites like this one will be stopped, so that the information you get and believe is the news they want you to read and how you are processed to believe, accordingly.

So, if you have not been vaccinated don't be, because until you sign the consent form, you have the Human Rights under Human Law and cannot be forced to have the vaccines, against you will - which is precisely what the Elite do not want - they want everyone to be non human so whatever purpose the secret contracts that governments signed kicks into force - the demand for Embassies and Military Bases as part of the vaccine providing deal, we will then discover what their intention is for the vaccinated who have survived so far and where they might be shipped off too and for what reason, bearing in mind they are non human, an alien species and cannot refuse whatever is done to them, to advance the Elite's take on Humanity and for the future.

To extend Alien life beyond Earth a bio-human machine that does not breathe in the accepted sense of the word or need oxygen, is radiation tolerant and is controlled by a computer somewhere else and does what it is told to do, without question, seems the ideal choice and they will need lots of humans to experiment on to get the required final result - hence you will own nothing and you will be happy sort of thing - right? What we say here, won't be possible to say soon, so read, copy, save and maintain, because otherwise no resistance will be possible, once "they" have taken total control of everything and have their way, in the New World of their choosing.

mRNA vaccinated people worldwide are products, patented goods, according to US law, "no longer human". A no longer human, does not have any rights under the Humanity Laws, because Human Laws were never written to include non humans and by the same token, non humans are an alien species and thus cant own property either, so whatever agrees to these vaccines, by signing their consent to have them, automatically becomes the property of the vaccine maker concerned, because of the below/above Laws as the mRNA vaccines are synthetic, do not occur in the natural world, so they can be and are patented and once in, can't be taken out, so by default, whatever you own, automatically becomes the property of the vaccine makers.

By the same token, the purpose of these vaccines are to reduce the world populations substantially and these vaccines are the way to do that easy and efficiently, to save the planet from global warming and whatever other disasters these madmen believe, the Globalists that is, so as days and wks/wks - extermination and save the planet for the Elite who own everything and dictate who lives and dies by the rules they set themselves to enjoy, at our expense, or our pretty kids, the rest of us too old or ugly to be of any value.

Note that test tube babies are possible and they can be made to order and deleted when their use ceases to occur, to be killed off and replaced by the next crop of "desirable children" for the use of the Elite, with no comeback on them whatsoever, because the New World won't have any of the Laws or restrictions this one has. Let us see how things stand in 2 years time and how the murder is working out for the vaccinated - me being not vaccinated, that is - no way, not in this lifetime - but at 75 probably too late for me anyway. The weak link in the chain, is wanting revenge, what you can buy on time payments, today and past vacations in that place and nobody can afford to have the lifestyle they enjoy, otherwise - right?

The above post only confirms what we already know, but it does not deliver a punchline: mRNA vaccinated people worldwide are products, patented goods, according to US law, "no longer human". Since 2013, all people vaccinated with GM modified mRNAs are legally trans-human and legally identified as trans-human and do not enjoy any human or other rights of a state, and this applies worldwide, because GEN POINT technology patents are under US jurisdiction and law, where they were registered.

blogs.scientificamerican.com/guest-blog/new-supreme-court-decision-rul... 2013 USA is a unanimous decision last month, the Supreme Court ruled that naturally occurring genes are not patentable. But, said the Court, cDNA, a man-made copy of the genetic messenger in cells, is patentable.

On June 13, 2013, the United States Supreme Court brought an end to the long and drawn-out legal battle over the question of whether isolated gene sequences are eligible subject matter for patent protection. In Association for Molecular Pathology v. Myriad Genetics I the U.S. Supreme Court reached a one-unanimous decision: Breaking with decades of U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) practice, and showing no deference to the USPTO, the Court held that an isolated DNA molecule is not patent-eligible subject matter, if its nucleotide sequence has the same as a naturally occurring gene sequence. In contrast, an isolated DNA molecule with a sequence that does not correspond to any naturally occurring gene sequence, such as a complementary DNA (cDNA), sequence is patent-eligible. Now researched and proven. They are injecting Nanotechnology. With every shot more. Which is to work with 5 G. They can steer emotions, monitor all bodyfunctions etc. etc. Yet Karen Rosso about BFD chips and the intention to be able to turn people off and on. In China they are already giving social points for good behaviour. Are they also intending to incite racial wars? The intent to destroy Europe. Or according to John Coleman who they are CQ, intending to genocide 4 billion people. Without ability to reproduce for those left. Links in my first comment.

We already well know of enough lies to not trust anything else the liars tell us. We are also good at using logic to detect likely lies in seeking truth and that generally works yet betrayes us here. Many assumptions throw us off from seeing the truths regarding evil at this level of "biblical proportions" as pyjibiaz also comments here such as the ever popular "follow the money" which usually works, but not here.

So many wise commentors use that with this plandemic only to get to the point where they exclaim: "I don't know why ....." (regarding the dead end which it leads them). Maybe it is because of fear of being called a name, in particular "conspiracy theorist" yet thousands of years of world history of hundreds of nations is a chronology of conspiracies. To people hated by that, I admonish "You mean to tell me that suddenly in our time conspiracy worldwide has simultaneously stopped! Explain that for me!!"

The best way to be invulnerable to being called that is to proudly proclaim it as I do for theory in the start of thought and an initial stage of the scientific method right after observation. But, to the dumbed down, you will need to explain the meaning of science to those who have "faith" in "coronavirus science", an oxymoron, as their dishon religion of authority an anathema to science which is questioning everything including science while appeal to authority is a logical fallacy. I say that as a true scientist, a seeming rarity these days yet common among the commenters on Mercola.com.

Both logic and "follow the money" though normally reliable, fail here because people generally don't understand the self-destructive and convoluted nature of evil. The reason the answers that the insightful among us see don't make sense is simply because they don't make sense – not because they are incorrect. Ask yourself, demanding to know, "how it benefits them" and you won't see what is right before your eyes as the truth is more insidious!

just like throughout history, people willingly close their eyes, out of their own will, because they can't and don't want to deal with the evil that is right in front of them. In good times they could still believe the lie that 'oh but the people were stupid then, back in the days'. Well now people must have gotten extremely stupid then, because the overwhelming of what evil plan is playing out. The sad thing is lots will convince themselves it was for the better good that they die, self proclaiming themselves as heroes in this 'war' against that nasty viral instead of realizing they've been fooled at the way and are themselves to blame for the evil they participated in. I keep repeating it:

We are doing our natural behavior and natural strategies, which WORK in a natural environment (close your eyes, don't move, don't make a sound and there's a good chance the big beast won't see you and this behavior just saved your life) but NOT in our unnatural synthetic societies! People really make me think of cattle. They know evil is going on, but want to shut up about it 'lest upset the day' for the rest. We do it to cattle, now something else is doing it to us (or at least, it doesn't care to hide anyone as acceptance of evil has become so widespread).

History should teach us to look at history backwards to see where the story is heading. Instead of passively waiting, self-censoring own thoughts because it is 'politically incorrect' (hate that word as it should only apply to politicians, not to everyday people), hoping for a magic savior. History shows power enslavers and blood flows. I guess logic is a godsent. When will sheeple realize synthetic laws make their life an incomprehensible hell? And that ANYBODY can play the good guy on TV, that it's a lie, that it's just a show??? It really is too much to assess for the regular sheeple (we are zombies too, just another level), homo sapiens is a human hybrid slaughter conspiracies.

Ice Age Eugenics and Biodiglital Dysgenics and Convergence Now.Info Future Generations is about humanitarian eugenics. Humanitarian eugenics strives to leave a genuine legacy of love to future generations: good health, high intelligence and noble character. We advocate measures to improve the innate quality of humankind which are entirely voluntary. Please be forewarned that most ideas expressed on this website are "politically incorrect". We aspire to total honesty, believing that it is the only policy for people with integrity and furthermore, that in the long run, honesty is far and away the most compassionate policy. If we ever hope to solve the problems which face our species, it's imperative that we first look at them objectively and assess the scientific evidence without bias. If the truth about genetics and behaviour, about eugenics, or about race, is considered "taboo", and falsehoods are the only socially acceptable opinions, then this is truly a sad state of affairs, but we won't let it deter us.

https://www.eugenics.net/ https://web.archive.org/web/20211217201225/https://www.eugenics.net/ web.archive.org/web/20211815233116/https://eugenics.net/papers/useful... Dysgenics (the result of disregarding the principles of humanitarian eugenics) is now certainly on a scale far too vast to grasp at one time. [right here, right now] When you're dead, you don't know it. The pain is felt by those around you. The same is true for stupid people. Facts do not cease to exist because they are ignored. The truth is extreme, to make it moderate is to lie. You can ignore reality but you cannot ignore the consequences of ignoring reality. A mass dysgenics operation is well underway... avoid the poisons, avoid the traps... stay aware, stay current. Hopefully "we" will be among the remnants after this pre-famine/mass/mini ice age cull and "Great Reset"... Wong-Gifu dont always go on "planned", eh?[http://ice-age-ahead.tao.ca/]

The problem with socialists and liberals is that they do not mind their own business, but constantly seek to impose their will on others. This is the definition of slavery, forcing one man to serve another. For all their talk, they do not understand liberty.

This is beyond money. I believe the primary reason they want kids to get these shots is the systemic health and fertility injury they cause. These shots change DNA - changing us from God's perfect creation. The devil came to steal, kill and destroy. Destroying our health destroys our joy our witness and can separate us from God.
