STORY AT-A-GLANCE

- Pfizer's mRNA COVID-19 shots instruct cells to produce additional "off-target" proteins that could pose significant health risks
- The finding was revealed by a team of U.K. researchers, who found a "glitch" occurred due to the way the COVID-19 shots were genetically modified
- According to the study, off-target cellular immune responses occur in 25% to 33% of those who have received Pfizer's COVID-19 shot
- The "Pfrankenstein" proteins could potentially lead to health problems, including autoimmune conditions or endocrine disruption
- Pfizer's Pfrankenstein proteins should have been detected and reduced or eliminated long before mRNA COVID-19 shots were given to millions of people

The toxic spike protein produced in your body if you receive a COVID-19 shot is not the only health concern to be aware of. Pfizer's mRNA COVID-19 shots also instruct cells to produce additional "off-target" proteins that could pose significant health risks.

The finding was revealed by a team of U.K. researchers[1] who found a "glitch" occurred due to the way the COVID-19 shots were genetically modified. As a result, unwanted proteins are produced, with unknown effects — a phenomenon that should have been detected long before the experimental shots were given to millions of people.

Modified mRNA in COVID-19 Shots Is 'Prone to Reading Errors'

Ribosomes decode mRNA in cells, but about 8% of the time those in COVID-19 shots may misread the coded instructions, Maryanne Demasi, Ph.D., a former medical scientist with the University of Adelaide and former reporter for ABC News in Australia, explains:[2]

> "The researchers say that ribosomes, which are responsible for decoding the mRNA in cells, can slip and misread the coded instructions about 8% of the time — known as 'ribosomal frameshifting.' They say the 'glitch' has to do with how the mRNA in the vaccine has been genetically modified.
> Unlike naturally-occurring mRNA, the mRNA that exists in the vaccines has had a 'uridine' base replaced with a 'N1-methyl pseudouridine' (to stabilize it) and unfortunately, has made it prone to reading errors."

In May 2021, I interviewed Stephanie Seneff, Ph.D., a senior research scientist at MIT for over five decades, about the likely hazards of replacing the uracil in the RNA used in the COVID shots with synthetic methylpseudouridine.[3] This process of substituting letters in the genetic code is known as codon optimization, which is known to be problematic.

At the time, Seneff predicted the shots would cause a rise in prion, autoimmune and neurodegenerative diseases and, at younger ages, blood disorders and heart failure. One of the primary reasons for this is because they genetically manipulated the RNA in the shots with synthetic methylpseudouridine, which enhances RNA stability by inhibiting its breakdown.

Now, researchers at Cambridge University and the Universities of Kent, Oxford and Liverpool, have discovered[4] that the use of methylpseudouridine results in a high rate of ribosomal "frameshifting," which causes your cells to produce off-target proteins with unknown effects. In an interview with Demasi, research scientist David Wiseman explained the concerning findings:[5]

> "They found the Pfizer vaccine can cause your cells to make proteins that they are not supposed to make — you end up with what I call 'Pfrankenstein proteins.' … Imagine the following three-letter English words ABE DAN TEA TON ERA TWO — the letters are like the code on the mRNA. Now instead of starting to read the sentence at the letter 'A' of the first word, you frameshift to the next letter — the letter 'B.'

That means that all the other letters are shifted to the left and it will give you a new sentence with three-letter words BED ANT EAT ONE RAT etcetera. So, the new words have a completely different meaning from the original words. This is what happened in the body of some people vaccinated with Pfizer's product. New unwanted 'off-target' proteins were produced, that actually led to an 'off-target' immune response."

Your Body Is Being Hijacked to Produce 'Pfrankenstein' Proteins

According to the study, off-target cellular immune responses occur in 25% to 33% of those who have received Pfizer's COVID-19 shot. "It means their lymphocytes had seen the proteins before — their immune system had already been primed from a prior exposure, presumably after that person had received the mRNA vaccine," Wiseman said.[6]

The study authors stated there were no adverse outcomes related to the "frameshifted products," and the media has similarly downplayed any risk of harm. However, molecular virologist David Speicher Ph.D., told Trial Site News reporter Sonia Elijah:[7]

"Whenever our cells create an abundance of unintended proteins or prevent production of appropriate proteins it could lead to an unintended immune response with a huge potential to cause harm."

Wiseman was also clear in his explanation that the "Pfrankenstein" proteins could potentially lead to health problems, including autoimmune conditions or endocrine disruption. He told Demasi:[8]

"What you have to realize is that your body is being hijacked, not just to produce spike protein, but also to produce other, what I call, 'Pfrankenstein' proteins that are completely uncharacterized. We don't know what they are, what they do, for how long they're made or how long they last in the body, and we have no idea what their toxicity is.

From the Nature paper however, we do know that these unwanted proteins elicit immune reactions in the body.

… These researchers showed that frameshifting could create chimeric proteins. Basically, as the ribosome reads the code for the spike protein, it may slip in the middle of reading the code. So, the first half is spike protein, and the second half is a Pfrankenstein protein.

Now, just imagine one half can still attach to the ACE2 receptor on cells but on the other end, you've got this Pfrankenstein protein dangling outside of the cells. Your immune system is going to destroy the cell because it looks foreign, and now you've got something that looks like an autoimmune condition.

Or you could have a protein that turns out to be not necessarily identical, but sufficiently similar to another protein in our body like a hormone and it ends up mimicking the hormone's activity and disturbing your endocrine system."

Reading Errors Could Be Reduced — So Why Weren't They?

While claiming that frameshifted products weren't harmful, the Nature study authors stated it was important for future mRNA technologies to reduce ribosome frameshifting events. They suggested that they could identify the garbled sites or sequences and alter the mRNA sequence to reduce such effects in the future.[9]

But as Wiseman pointed out, this should have been done already. "This work should've been done by the vaccine manufacturers and by the regulators before the product was authorized and given to billions of people. They've asked people to take a vaccine, and put it into children and they have no clue what is happening inside the body."[10]

Further, the study authors are basing their assessment that there's no risk posed by these 'Pfrankenstein proteins' on just 21 people. Wiseman continued to Demasi:[11]

"The authors wrote, '... there is no evidence that frameshifted products in humans generated from BNT162b2 vaccination are associated with adverse outcomes.' But they only looked at 21 people who received Pfizer's vaccine, so you cannot call that a serious safety study by any stretch of the imagination.

And how did they select these people? The volunteers were part of another government funded study and had not reported undue effects from vaccination. Since they did not study subjects who had reported adverse vaccine effects, the selection of participants was probably biased.

… What they're trying to say now is that there have been no problems identified in 21 people, but in the future there may be problems, so we should just keep studying it. Are you kidding me? What they're saying is that 'we will inject you first and ask safety questions later.' It's not good enough."

It's worth noting that two of the researchers on the team have a pending patent application for mRNA technology,[12] so they certainly have reason to downplay the problem and propose all we need to do is a bit of tweaking and all will be well moving forward.

Is Foreign DNA Integrating Into Human Cells?

Along with Pfizer's Pfrankenstein proteins, there's potential that DNA integration from COVID-19 shots could pose a risk to the human genome. Tucker Carlson spoke with Florida Surgeon General Dr. Joseph Ladapo, who has called for an end to the use of COVID-19 mRNA shots, citing concerns about DNA fragments in the products.[13]

"Could foreign DNA enter your cells through the mRNA COVID vax and change your DNA — and humanity itself — forever? Sounds nutty. It's not," Carlson tweeted. "Absolutely that could happen," says Dr. Joseph Ladapo, the surgeon general of Florida.[14] In a December 6, 2023, letter sent to the U.S. FDA and CDC, Ladapo outlined findings showing the presence of lipid nanoparticle complexes and simian virus 40 (SV40) promoter/enhancer DNA.

While there are limits on how much DNA can be in a vaccine due to concern over DNA integration, the guidelines don't consider lipid nanoparticles and other factors in COVID-19 shots that could enhance how much DNA can enter a cell.

"Lipid nanoparticles are an efficient vehicle for delivery of the mRNA in the COVID-19 vaccines into human cells and may therefore be an equally efficient vehicle for delivering contaminant DNA into human cells. The presence of SV40 promoter/enhancer DNA may also pose a unique and heightened risk of DNA integration into human cells," according to a news release from the Florida Department of Health (DOH).[15]

In a 2023 preprint study, microbiologist Kevin McKernan — a former researcher and team leader for the MIT Human Genome project[16] — and colleagues assessed the nucleic acid composition of four expired vials of the Moderna and Pfizer mRNA shots. "DNA contamination that exceeds the European Medicines Agency (EMA) 330ng/mg requirement and the FDAs 10ng/dose requirements" was found.[17]

So, in addition to the spike protein and mRNA in COVID-19 shots, McKernan's team discovered SV40 promoters that, for decades, have been suspected of causing cancer in humans.[18] Further, according to the Florida DOH, the FDA's own 2007 guidance states:[19]

- "DNA integration could theoretically impact a human's oncogenes – the genes which can transform a healthy cell into a cancerous cell.
- DNA integration may result in chromosomal instability.
- The Guidance for Industry discusses biodistribution of DNA vaccines and how such integration could affect unintended parts of the body including blood, heart, brain, liver, kidney, bone marrow, ovaries/testes, lung, draining lymph nodes, spleen, the site of administration and subcutis at injection site."

The FDA responded to Ladapo's letter December 14, 2023, but provided no evidence that appropriate DNA integration assessments had been conducted. Ladapo called for a halt in their use as a result.[20] "It starts at crazy but it ends at somewhere else that someone could be just so nonchalant and, frankly, willy-nilly, with something as precious and as sacred as our human DNA," Ladapo told Carlson.[21]

Help for Those Suffering From COVID-19 Shot Injuries

If you're suffering from side effects of a COVID-19 shot, your first order of business is to eliminate the spike protein — and/or any aberrant off-target protein — that your body is producing. Two remedies shown to bind to and facilitate the removal of SARS-CoV-2 spike protein are hydroxychloroquine and ivermectin. It's unknown whether these drugs will work on off-target proteins as well, but it probably wouldn't hurt to try.

The Front Line COVID-19 Critical Care Alliance (FLCCC) has developed a post-vaccine treatment protocol called I-RECOVER. The protocol is continuously updated as more data become available, so your best bet is to download the latest version straight from the FLCCC website at covid19criticalcare.com.[22]

The World Council for Health (WCH), a worldwide coalition of health-focused organizations and civil society groups, has also released a spike protein detox guide,[23] which provides straightforward steps you can take to potentially lessen the effects of toxic spike protein that may be helpful. Another option is sauna therapy, which can also help eliminate toxic and misfolded proteins by stimulating autophagy.[24]

The truth is that the biological weapon against C-19 will kill 1 to 2 billion humans over the next decade as the spike protein's damage takes its toll. But even this is not enough for the demonic entities that control our planet, as they seek something closer to a total reduction of 90% of the human population. Suddenly, your strategy is very clear. Injections of spike protein mRNA cause a 90% suppression of the DNA repair mechanism known as NHEJ (non-homologous end joining). This is a cellular mechanism that exists within the cells of humans, animals and plants to maintain genetic integrity, a necessary condition for life.

Gui, the Jabs. The gift that keeps on giving. One more track for autoimmune dis-ease. So many over decades once so rare, never heard of. Asthma and some allergies early on. Now with constant additions, and when the studies mention prions, this is Mad Cow, Huntington's Chorea, Alzheimer dis-ease territory. One could suspect the 1% is attempting to hold their self-described Homo Superior - Devine Status by retarding the 99% mental, physical, emotional bodies. Then there are the turbo cancers. Risking being a wag, but did someone slip the Royals the real Jab? Or is it just me and it seems like they're all getting hit with a wave of Safe & Effective Jab Turbo Cancers?

Gui and Steve, Good morning! This recent roundtable hosted by Naomi Wolf is timely: Dr. Naomi Wolf is joined by medical experts to reveal the'TURBO CANCER' TAKEAWAYS - - www.bitchute.com/.../2nCsTFcmvtut - - the experts are Dr William Makis, Dr Chris Flowers and Dr Michael Palmer. Most of this discussion revolves around where the spike protein collects in the body (like the bone marrow), ongoing damage it can create, and how little they know about Turbo cancers.

And while those people are dying, any attempt to link the deaths to the vaccine will dismissed as tinfoil battery. It has already begun at a low level with a series of "studies" that seek to tie eggs to rising health problems, as if they're the cause of excess deaths, sudden deaths, heart issues among the healthy, and female problems among women. We've been played on an industrial scale yet a substantial portion of the population refuses to see it.

DebbyW, actually Charles, Fergie, maybe Randy Andy, we're told no for Katie. Hard to tell with such high-profile people surrounded by an intensive protection system. While the Queen & husband were very old by most folks' standards, still if given the Jab, who knows? Again, something that make you say Hmmm?

Thanks Just, Rose and everyone. The technology used in Moderna's COVID-19 vaccine carries toxicity risks, company scientists said in a new paper. Toxicity risks include "structural components of lipid nanoparticles, production methods, route of administration, and proteins produced from complex mRNAs," the paper's authors wrote. The authors of the article include Moderna employees Eric Jacquinet and Dimitrios Bitounis and Maximillian Rogers, who worked at Moderna when the article was being written. www.theepochtimes.com/health/moderna-scientists-warn-mrna-vaccines-car.. 06&utm_medium=email&est=4PZEHxOTBIloyb%2BzTXTpZo0hD4%2FP%2FXRHpWgwjDbiezYzBsBqa1sA0f7fFdXr7TUL (04/02/2024).----------
Most Americans believe COVID-19 vaccines may be to blame for many unexplained deaths, and nearly one in four say someone they know could be among the victims.

Sixty-nine percent (69%) of Republicans believe there are legitimate reasons to be concerned about the safety of COVID-19 vaccines, as do 37% of Democrats and 54% of those unaffiliated. none of the main parties.

The results definitely show that more and more Americans simply cannot deny the obvious fact that the "Covid" "vaccines" have been very detrimental to their health and/or know an immediate family member, co-worker. -neither neighbor, nor heard stories from these entities- that have revealed the damage of these shots. It is too difficult to continue denying it; although most people are too ashamed to admit it, lest they be canceled and ostracized on social media and by the sheep. winepressnews.com/2024/02/05/more-than-half-of-us-believes-the-covid-v.. Apologies but a bit more. No doubt not everyone on her large list are on the same page as many here are. But the criticism these parties are appearing on each other's platforms? Just my gut speaking, my observation is we are in a Modern Tower of Babble. There are actually many good people on different floors and even in different cubicles on those floors. Already organized to be Alone Together. C-19 just took it to new heights. Good people are kept separated so the one hand doesn't have a notion what the other hand is doing or why. When it comes to the Professional Maintenace Floor, there are good people who paid time and money being trained to do jobs and, in many cases, not to even be aware they have been programmed Not to See.

When questions arise like what has in C-19 they're trained to go to the same sources causing the Planned Demic to ask are you doing a Planned Demic. Definitely trained not to rock the boat. When it comes to the lower floors the Farmer doesn't understand the Factory Worker who doesn't understand the Service Worker and nearly none of them understand the Academic. More so, they/we get narratives to keep us separated so we don't compare notes. Because We. the People are the ones who Build Things. If we cross talk, make an effort to understand outside our one spot, the Predator$ fear is, we will build without the separations.

Build with a focus on those things we agree on. Build so while we may pursue our individual callings, we do not do so in ways to create and cause friction among us. If we continue to follow the current system focused on messages to make us create the Hate, Anger, Fear, Confusion, Despair, Depression that feeds the Predator$ - we will never turn and focus on those things We, the People Agree On. Never see or find them in the first place. A long row to hoe, as we all have been trained to act against our better angels.

In November 2023, the UK's Channel 4 News published a segment titled "Sudden cardiac death affecting 12 young people each week: what is this 'silent killer'?" The network wrote in a description: "He has been described as a 'silent killer' of young, apparently fit people. The charity Cardiac Risk in the Young estimates that every week, at least 12 people aged between 14 and 35 suffer sudden cardiac death, and 1 in 300 may be a carrier of the disease. Channel 4 added: "A leading pathologist has told this program that he believes those figures are underestimated. "The mother of a young woman who died is campaigning for grassroots sports clubs to give young athletes, who are potentially most at risk, mandatory heart tests carried out by specialists." These increases in these types of deaths are corroborated by an article recently written by Bloomberg.

(Sorry, but this should be above the post starting with apologies, a bit more.) As far as Bret, Campbell, she even post Dore as suspicious controlled opposition, of course a careful eye has to watch for such things. Bret for me is not a regular go to source but his observations of what has happened & is expected to be forced on us currently is pretty much on track. He, Campbell for that matter have openly admitted at the start they were on board with what their training had guided them through their careers. Can't speak for Bret, but Campbell for what I've seen presents the information & doesn't tell you what to think, you decide.

Jimmy Dore as he says, "I'm a comedian working out of my garage," has serious health conditions. Like many average citizens was only hearing, only knew what the official narrative owned & directed by Big Pharma was & he actually got the Jab out of fear. Then suffering severe negatives, he started doing his own research & realized we are being Bull Spitted. After sharing the disastrous effects on his health, the Machine attacked him from every angle. I also see RFKJR posted on her list of suspicious possibly controlled opposition.

RFKJR has worked with Doc, with Barbara Loe Fisher, many environmentalists on the issues of Mercury in the environment, Glyphosate, current devastating Farming methods, autism & standard Vax's need proper safety studies, High Tech Snooping, Digital Banking, WEF/WHO dictator initiatives & much more for years, some decades. After & still being silenced by Legacy Media for decades still fighting, sometimes winning- he is controlled? Yes, definitely look for concerns & act on them if so, but reviewing the link given, just my Gut, but she sounds likely controlled, or needs the click bait.

I like and also trust John Campbell. Polly did give me pause to view things from another direction and by Campbell's own admission, he was duped. The warning is that we must be forever vigilant and not fall into the "trusted sources" lul, even if the trusted source is called Mercola. Do our own research / think for ourselves. There's a lot of cointelpro creating confusion by planting seeds of doubt in the public's thoughts regarding controlled opposition. At a personal level, Robert Malone has engendered skepticism as a CIA asset, then and still, even though his lawsuit against The Breggins was dismissed.

Another example of misdirection is a recent quote from a "trusted source" (haha, there I go), taken with a grain of salt that in 2004 the CIA came out with the Flat Earth narrative to misdirect the thoughts of generally sober thinking people, True or not, I was poised and ready to receive that nugget because of my gargantuan bias against the authenticity of Flat Earth. Oy, those mine fields we walk on !

Gui, I'm sure this isn't the first time someone referred to you as a genius, but it is true. You have explained in great detail exactly what takes place when the "gene therapy" is injected to humans and animals. I totally believe "THIS WAS NO ACCIDENT". Frankly I believe your projection of future fatalities is far too conservative based on the fatalities during the past 3 years. The destruction of the ability to reproduce alone that has been noted will eventually depopulate the Earth. The "vaccine agenda" of the liberal left population control zealots has been in the works since the pre 1980's. This is the work of the elitist N.W.O. reprobates and as usual it was never properly thought through. Is there a way to close Pandora's Box ?? Most probably not. Far too many 'walking time bombs". Fauci & Gates and their minions have been successful. They provided China with the keys to a self collapsing castle.

epi-cure, it is completely exhausting to be in constant vigilance mode, but these days call for it. A good go too is who says so, & why would they say it. It's good to keep in mind, no matter how well versed, how experience, one's knowledge ends up being incomplete. Always seems to be another layer. A strong reason I personally trust Doc. Through the years he's freely expressed when he believes he's been wrong, or new information suggests a new direction. Even so, if my body tells me different, I keep in mind, One Size Does Not Fit All, if something isn't working for me, it doesn't work, or I haven't understood it right yet.

I've been exposed to all kinds of stuff, & we all have different environments we came from or lived in. This has been an exceptional site for many years. Not believing bad actors or useful idiots have not been poking around one would have to be asleep at the wheel. Currently I am agreeing with Bret, Predator$ & the political parties they own grew so used to also owning the Legacy Media.

Pushed out narratives, more often than not contradictory narratives from the same mouth to different audiences. They became lazy, extremely comfortable just flat out lying. Been so successful holding their bases in captured corners never comparing contradictory messages. It also very much seems the C-19 debacle went so far over the top, it exposed too many 'loyal subjects,' something is rotten in Denmark. If the Predator$ can't jam the truth signals with something, it seems right now we are in-between the Attack Them - (the middle stage,) & the Well of course it's true everybody always knew this.

So if this is the case, we will see many lick spittle's joining the chorus. Because now know we are not alone, their problem is how many now can see how they sing out of tune. No doubt some will go kicking & screaming every step of the way trying to hang onto the old order. One only has to look at those in our personal lives who will never admit what happened.

Very grateful maxxon for your reference. Above all, methodical and eager to learn. Yes, Why would the fertility rate suddenly drop in “developed” countries? Because people realize that to save the planet the world needs less, many fewer “eaters” and consumers? Or rather does it have something to do with the false “vaccines” against covid, widely coerced? watch the Dr. Mercola video at the link Isn't this precisely what the Gates-Rockefellers-Kissinger et al clan has in mind? Is that why mRNA-type injections (CDC emergency approval as “gene therapy”) include anti-fertility and sterilization components?

In fact, the abortion rate of pregnant women receiving the mRNA-type inoculation is as high as 30%, probably considerably higher when unreported cases are taken into account. Listen to Dr. Jos Mercola.

(12/16/2023).---------- DATA ANALYST UNVEILS WHERE THE VACCINE DEATHS ARE HIDING , “Myocarditis has become the darling of the anti-vax community. But myocarditis is about 1% of the overall vaccine deaths,” says John Beaudoin Sr, author of “The Real CDC.” Beaudoin discovered that in 2021, excess deaths in Massachusetts shifted from respiratory deaths to blood and circulatory system issues, such as clotting and bleeding.

There is where, Beaudoin says, the vaccine deaths are hiding. “So what people are dying from, they’re dying from ... cardiac stroke, pulmonary embolism, gastrointestinal hemorrhages, aortic arch dissections, more than the respiratory, which went down at the same time.”.. ....and consider immune disorders and turbo cancers

Just and Epi-cure. WATCH: AN EPIDEMIC OF HEART DISEASE DEATHS’ IN ENGLAND, Says John Campbell.------ There have been more than 100,000 additional deaths related to cardiovascular disease in England since February 2020, according to leading medical commentator John Campbell, Ph.D., in a video released today. The figure comes from a new report by the British Heart Foundation, which also shows that more than 39,000 people under the age of 75 died prematurely from heart disease and stroke last year alone, the highest number in 14 years.

Citing the lack of public outcry and government intervention over the statistics, Campbell said: "We have an epidemic of heart disease here," Campbell said. According to Dr Sonya Babu-Narayan, cardiologist and associate medical director of the British Heart Foundation, the surge is the "worst cardiac care crisis in living memory". "Urgent intervention is long overdue," she said. childrenshealthdefense.org/defender/epidemic-cardiovascular-deaths-eng.. (01/31/2024)

JOHN CAMPBELL: EXCLUDING DISSENTING VOICES IS 'INTELLECTUAL FASCISM' To highlight the importance of scientific principles and knowledge ignored or contradicted by authorities setting COVID-19 policies in recent years, John Campbell, Ph.D. , presented Russell Brand with a physiology textbook on a recent episode of " Stay Free with Russell Brand " on Rumble. Brand asked Campbell, a retired nurse educator in England who hosts a popular YouTube show explaining the evolving science on COVID-19, to provide key examples of how public health officials and Big Pharma compromised or distorted COVID-19 science to serve financial interests. The governments of the United Kingdom, the United States, Australia and Canada have ordered hundreds of millions more doses of mRNA COVID-19 vaccines, Campbell said, giving an example.

They did so despite knowing that the vaccine's lipid nanoparticles, which can cause severe inflammation, do not remain in the arm. "And yet," Campbell said, "people are going ahead with this massive cooperation between Moderna in this case and our governments to produce huge quantities of vaccines for which there may be a potentially fundamental problem that means they can't be used." . childrenshealthdefense.org/defender/john-campbell-russell-brand-intell.. The state of Florida has called for a halt to the use of mRNA vaccines against Covid-19, setting a precedent for the implementation of similar decisions not only in the United States, but around the world. The evidence is overwhelming. Read the letter from Florida State Surgeon General Joseph A. Ladapo below We call on people across America to pressure state officials to cancel Covid-19 mRNA once and for all. The evidence of mortality and morbidity resulting from vaccine inoculation, both present (official data) and future (e.g., undetected microscopic blood clots) is overwhelming.

Official data (mortality and morbidity), as well as numerous scientific studies, confirm the nature of the Covid-19 mRNA vaccine that is being imposed on all of humanity. The WEF is realizing that more and more people including high-level executives have lost and are increasingly losing trust in this corrupt, dystopian, rules-based wannabe World Order. Further signs that confidence in the system is rapidly losing ground around the world can be seen in a recent Telegraph article, according to which Defense Secretary Grant Shaps is planning to recruit women for military service, to offset the decreasing number of recruits by mail. www.globalresearch.ca/wef-davos-2024-world-falling-apart-show-must-go-.. Yes the C19 jabs have injured many, and millions of deaths to follow., As for the unjabbed we don't know the effects of shedding for us in the future. Though if the WHO pandemic treaty gets passed how can we escape the mandated vaccines. I will follow the non compliance route as best I can.

The UK Government has just concluded a 10 year deal with Moderna for the supply of mRNA influenza “vaccines”. Even the traditional flu vaccines are ineffective against all strains but this misuse of public money surely begs the question: Why the desperation to get mRNA shots into humanity without proper clinical trials? https://youtu.be/VUJ7pnw9F3A juststeve one of the marks of intelligence is adaptability to changing conditions. Also, a willingness to admit to errors made, be they innocent or temperamental, is an indication of emotional intelligence. Doc possesses both. Two areas in which he comes up short are the overstepping with censorship on the forum and circumventing open discussion of virus authenticity. Both may reveal where the rubber meets the road or, said another way, when one is over the target, the target being the terms and conditions set by overlords of what he's allowed to explore or should remain taboo. The latter may be self-imposed, still too hot a potato to tackle because it would make him an easy target for the dominant narrative versus this idea before its time.

When top names in research and clinical medicine continue to freely use the V-word its simply too big a hill to climb. It's not enough to state viruses don't exist. As Buckminster Fuller so poignantly stated: "we never change things by fighting the existing reality. To change something, build a new model that makes the existing model obsolete". Like you, I'm vigil battle fatigued and in other ways too. The best remedy for that is to talk less and do more. Our voice carries the most weight at the local level so that's where I apply my "do" efforts. One doesn't have to be a scripture apostle to glean the wisdom of, by their fruits you will know them (Matthew 7:16). "Them" applies to all of us.

A sad reality to come to grip with for sure. These criminals who orchestrated ALL of it from planning, to execution, and now ongoing execution unabated have gotten away with it scot free with many of them receiving generous pensions and we the people funded pay raises. All the same players in all the same positions. Its truly a epic disgrace considering what was "allowed" to be done with humanity in scope and continues. Just endless articles like this redundantly telling us what we all know over and over and over locked in some sort of endless infinity tunnel. ZERO accountability anywhere to be seen and still there are people asking why this all continues. Surreal...just sayin

Hi Brodiebrock and Segstar - This amazing interview with a retired electrical engineering manager is NOT TO BE MISSED. It is buried in a link Gui posted above: "Unexploded Bomb: Where the COVID-19 Vaccine Deaths Are Really Hiding | John Beaudoin" - - www.theepochtimes.com/health/moderna-scientists-warn-mrna-vaccines-car.. - - you may need to scroll down a bit in the article to get this. John has a substack Coquin de Chien (bad dog) in which he has been analyzing actual data he has from 3 states. No surprise here, many deaths have been mis-coded, death certificates may not have been filled in correctly to match their automated reading software.

Seems not many deaths were tagged to the shots, yet the symptoms shifted and most deaths are NOT covid. Worth listening to how John breaks down the data he has. The implications here are massive, as the CDC cannot see the data is incorrect if their coding system picks up bad entries. Apparently have no idea the errors coming to them from the states, and if its skewed from Mass. you'd better believe this is similar to all states...you may want to also check out John's substack.

Hey rrealrose...watched it all as a 3 year subscriber now with Epoch Times. Truly a eye opener with John Beaudoin, but the fact remains...it's all so redundant now. We KNOW what was allowed to occur, and still is with the astonishing atrocities occurring to humanity in an unabated fashion. A rapist will rape until IT is not allowed too. ALL of the rapists are running FREE still, and planning the next attack. We can read and read and understand all that occurs, but without the actual problem taken care of...none of it matters. What good in knowing when it's all just "allowed" to continue, and all the same players are in all the same positions. Just saying, and really do not understand why every soul is not screaming this constantly and demanding ACCOUNTABILITY.

Who is responsible? Most doctors are not trained on VAERS or filling out death certificates to fit the CDCs system. The Pharma-centric medical education system does not teach much about detecting toxins, looking for reactions to shots, or even acknowledging their dangers. We are witnessing a giant fail of a massive medical system, now upwards of 25% of the total GDP of the US. Shocking how this has crept into every aspect of American life. Do I think the entire system needs to be dismantled and redirected? Most of it, since 1970 or thereabouts.

One thing I didn`t see addressed here in the comments. Ok, over the weekend the article about shedding. Should we all be taking the FLCCC-irecover protocol? Did all of the unvaccinated get compromised? After visiting an ART practitioner, my wife has been battling squamous cell. The practitioner picked up graphene oxide in her system. Her remedy was a zeolite powder. I asked how it got in there and she said it is in our environment. Comments welcome.

I have low platelets from right after getting two Shingrix (the second which made me ill) and the Johnson and Johnson about two weeks later in 2021. Stupid me. Neither my pcp or my hematologist would admit it's from the shots but I know thrombocytopenia is a side effect of both. My hematologist diagnosed me as having an autoimmune issue. I'm being monitored and now my platelets are up to 56,000. I'll never get another vaccine.

I'm sorry. You learn from experience. There is growing evidence that C-19 "vaccines" do not produce sterilizing immunity, allowing people to suffer frequent reinfections. Recent research has also raised concerns that mRNA vaccines may induce immune tolerance that, added to that caused by the virus itself, could complicate the clinical course of a COVID-19 infection. Additionally, recent research has found elevated levels of IgG4 in people who were given two or more injections of mRNA vaccines. Taken together, the evidence suggests that the reported increase in IgG4 levels detected after repeat vaccination with mRNA vaccines is not a protective mechanism; rather, it may be part of the immune tolerance mechanism to the spike protein that could promote unopposed infection and replication of SARS-CoV2 by suppressing natural antiviral responses.

IgG4-induced immune system suppression due to repeated vaccination can also cause autoimmune diseases, promote cancer growth, and autoimmune myocarditis in susceptible individuals. similar to that which occurs during successful immunotherapy with specific allergens by inhibiting IgE-induced effects. IgG4-related disease (IgG4-RD) is a fibroinflammatory disorder named after the presence of numerous IgG4+ plasma cells in damaged tissues and high serum concentrations of IgG4 in most cases.

IgG4-RD includes a "wide variety of diseases, previously diagnosed as Mikulicz disease (MD) autoimmune pancreatitis, Riedel thyroiditis, interstitial pneumonitis, interstitial nephritis, prostatitis, lymphadenopathy, retroperitoneal fibrosis, and inflammatory aortic aneurysm." It also plays an important role in the pathogenesis of at least 13 autoimmune disorders. IgG4 appears to be linked to more aggressive cancer growth, and both were strongly associated with greater cancer malignancy and a worse prognosis

It was discovered that IgG4 can compete with IgG1 in binding to Fc receptors present on some immune cells in vitro. This competition results in the inhibition of typical immune responses against cancer cells, such as cellular and complement cytotoxicity and cellular phagocytosis, which are mediated by antibodies. Locally elevated levels of IgG4 in cancer tissue hindered antibody-mediated anticancer responses, helped cancer block local immune response, and indirectly aided cancer progression. Three different immunopotent mouse models supported this theory. Local administration of IgG4 was found to dramatically accelerate the growth of implanted breast and colorectal tumors, as well as skin tags caused by carcinogens.

I love the term Pfrankenstein, it communicates a lot in one word. David Wiseman provides clear explanations of how the mRNA shots can harm people but again, words matter, and he has couched his assessment in the overly forgiving nomenclature of our times. For example, he said "They've asked people to take a vaccine, and put it into children and they have no clue what is happening inside the body." Let's be clear, they didn't ask us, they duped us and lured us and bullied us. Worse yet, they know damned well what these things are doing to us. It's been a couple of years now since the first doctors who spoke out about a wide variety of ways these nasty shots could cause problems realized they were all right and that the plan was to kill people.

While it's awesome that more and more experts are speaking out about what has happened, we have to hold the people who committed heinous crimes against humanity accountable and watered down wording will be how they try to get away with it. We need to be sure that what was and clearly still is tyranny is known as such throughout the land. We win this thing with words. Check out my new word, coincidist, describing people who blame medical harm on coincidence. Coincidism is a filthy thing that goes right along with fascism and communism. We counter coincidism with creativity, humor and love.

Yes, above all awareness of reality. Keep in mind that billion-dollar profits are the driving force behind this diabolical agenda. . "Killing is good for business." What we are witnessing is a crime against humanity on an unprecedented scale, affecting the lives of the entire population of our planet. . The upward trend in excess mortality related to the Covid-19 vaccine is widely documented. . The unspoken truth: We are dealing with a highly profitable multi-billion dollar operation that is based on increased levels of vaccine-related mortality and morbidity. Based on the evidence, Pfizer had the responsibility to cancel and withdraw the "vaccine" on March 1, 2021, following review of the results of its own confidential report (Mortality and Adverse Events).

In broken Britain, we are - officially at least - nowhere near the level of investigating "pfrankenstein proteins" but are still stuck in the groove of the (politically) "safe and ..". Not so fast. Dr John Campbell notes that the UK prime minister (whose company, Infosys, remember, is a WEF partner) has dropped the word "effective". Is he admitting something here? M.P. Andrew Bridgen takes him to task by comparing the Post Office scandal lies with war criminal Blair's lies over Iraq. Thankfully, all this is recorded in Hansard, so no excuses when truth will out as it surely will in the end. youtu.be/m2skKkRwYj8

Good link, rrealrose. Both Dr John Campbell and Ed Dowd are sources of truth. The presumptuously named "Online Safety Act" is a case in point. There is no way of proving who is lying and who is telling the truth, unless you examine the evidence. The evidence proves "unequivocally" to quote Prime Minister Sunak's favourite word that MSM is not interested in truth, only propaganda.

wareagle, “no one among us was raised to believe that this level of malevolence would exist within our own govt, or that it would be expressed against us.” So true, we were raised to believe that our govt stood for everything that was good and right. So sad now as a 62 year old to realize how very, very long we have been lied to and used to help carry out their evil agenda. I didn’t just figure this out, but I also didn’t realize anywhere near as soon as I wished I had. I will now be regarded (by the powers) as a dangerous “domestic terrorist” for saying I don’t believe anything the media, medical establishment or government has to say and nothing you can tell me about what they’ve done (or will do) can surprise me.

So yet another alleged conspiracy theory is looking more and more like a fact? No wonder no one in govt wants anything resembling an honest inquiry into the Covid disaster. Because the whole thing is looking like a planned assault on the global population, with American public health agencies at the tip of the spear. Funny how China is constantly cast as our geopolitical foe, yet it's the country where we choose to fund gain of function research, it's the country the political class tries to cover when people say "Wuham flu." None of this should surprise anyone and yet, there is an element of that.

I know there are bad people working in the public sector but the depths of their evil is astonishing. No one among us was raised to believe that this level of malevolence would exist within our own govt, or that it would be expressed against us. The part that's even worse is how many choose to remain blind, still wearing masks, still believing in the vaccine, still ignoring the mountains of evidence before them of this being anything but a viral outbreak. I'm afraid that group outnumbers the rest of us which bodes poorly for the next great fear campaign that govt unleashes.

I'm wondering if this could explain the wide range of side effects. Some people got the first jab with no side effects at all. Then when they got the 2nd or 3rd jab they had major side effects. Could this had been the result of poor quality? If you had more "frameshifts" in one batch versus another you might see an uptick in adverse reactions. The prion disease is very disturbing! I learned several years ago to avoid eating parts of the animal that involves the central nervous system. You risk catching prion disease from eating things like brains. Squirrels are very risky for some reason. If you get a fast growing prion it is worse than dementia or Alzthiemer's disease.

Professor Byram Bridle mentioned that the spike protein was associated with the formation of Lewy bodies, which is linked to prion diseases. He expressed concern that vaccines could cause prion diseases such as dementia, Alzheimer's, and Creutzfeldt-Jakob disease (CJD). There is no doubt that mRNA vaccines are causing prion diseases. People did not have these diseases before the injection and suddenly develop them after the injection. There is no other explanation for this. There is no question that mRNA vaccines are causing prion diseases. People did not have these diseases before the injection and they suddenly developed them after the injection. There is no other explanation for this. None of the "fact-checkers" can explain the cause of the excessive fees.

And according to Ana Mihalcea it's also the non biological components like hydrogels we need to worry about. She speaks of IV successful treatment with EDTA. Does anyone have any experience with this particularly regarding safety issues with this as a medication? Then Bryan Ardis speaks about nicotine to preferentially bind nicotinic acid acetyl choline receptors thus releasing the venoms that he sees as being of significance. So there appear to be multiple mechanisms of harm.

Yes, my understanding is the nicotine addresses the cobra venom from Covid (which is why smokers didn't get covid.) Covid is only the first problem though....My understanding is that the mRNA poison injections are what is causing the horrific DNA damage...which is a whole different animal. AND...unfortunately no one actually knows what is in all the shots since humans were used as lab rats in their great 'experiment' - As Gui above says 1-2 billion deaths total...but is that still too optimistic? Will there be more? No one knows....crazy times

Oh, dear. Truth is the first casualty of war, so the saying goes. As one bright spark commented - "I would rather have questions that can't be answered than answers that can't be questioned". Liquid nano-particles, systemic inflammation and five-minute NIH trials of only up to 50 subjects - not a very reassuring mix for another billion dollar round of mRNA injections. Forget C-19, now it's influenza.

I've been on the anti vaxx since the minute the government/Faucci said it was necessary and Dr. Mercola said do not do it. Now I have been put into a massive dilemna. My husband needs a lung transplant and not only is the UofA transplant team making him take all the covid shots before he will be allowed to be put on the list, they are making me as well. To be put in this position to either I do it and my husband may possibly be on the list or I don't take the shots, they will not consider him at all. I hate them all for doing this to me.

Amazing the lack of any logic in this. Doesn't stop you catching and spreading it but you must partake.

Rebby, I am so sorry to learn of your situation. Without knowing the details, is it possible that he will live longer foregoing the operation and all those horrible toxic injections? The shots could give him turbo cancer just like my friend died from in just 7 weeks. I hope you will both stay clean.

I'm so sorry for your dilemma! There are doctors out there who will give "fake shots" and give you the necessary paperwork without taking them. Perhaps he can do it for both you and your husband. We are living in a crazy upside world. God bless you both.

Almond, if you're going to post something as nondescript as US Law 2013 could you instead be specific. There were many "laws" passed in 2013. Same w the "new Swedish study". Where's the link? The 2 links you provided don't address these questions.

Canadian farmer, the late Percy Schmeiser in a battle with Monsanto that lasted over 10 years ultimately prevailed. Unbeknownst to him, Monsanto's proprietary seed had contaminated Schmeiser's crop field. They claimed he was liable for ownership of their technology even though the infringement came from them. The same should apply to humans who have unwittingly been genetically altered. None of this loss of human nonsense. In the last year's interview between J.J. Couey and Reiner Fuellmich, biologist Couey disputes the ability of mRNA to continue replication. rumble.com/v46syq8-jonathan-jay-couey-why-the-pandemic-was-created.htm.. Wellness experts Brian Ardis, Ed Group, Henry Ealy and Jana Schmidt together address the multifaceted decontamination challenges of those injected with the vaXXine. how can they tell the percentage of people affected? I was given the Pfizer vaccine by mistake. I did not want Pfizer because of all the controversy over it, and previously had received Moderna vaccine. I needed to vaccinate, because I am immunocompromise due to some rare disorders that I have. I felt my best bet was with Moderna but the last one I had at the doctors office was Pfizer, but they didn't tell me till afterward. I have so many health problems I'm working on how can I tell if this has affected me in any negative way? every test to determine if this has happened in my body? Thank you for the interesting article. I don't really expect an answer, but I can hope.

Thank you Dr Mercola. In Dec 2019 (pre covid announcement) my husband and I got our flu shots (1st time). He got sick and I got deathly sick. He recovered but never really got well. I felt like I had my plug pulled the fatigue was so bad and has gotten worse ever since with various autoimmune issues. Hubby went back to the pharmacy and asked about the info pamphets for our flu vaccines. As the pharogives them to my husband he tells him that we received different vaccines. So when I reviewed them, my husband had what appeared to be the traditional vax with chicken egg, but my vax was made with animal cells. Does anyone know what this means??

My brother, who had the first 2 jabs and 2 boosters, has now been diagnosed with the rare and usually fatal disease Amyloidosis. Amyloidosis is a disease where proteins are misfolding and attaching to the organs. In my brother's case, it is attaching to the heart and possibly the liver. Both are enlarged. Does Amyloidosis fall under these Pfrankenstein Proteins?

I believe this was the intention of the injections all along. To alter our DNA, plus, to weaken our natural immune systems in order to reduce population...genocide in disguise.

It beggers belief that these scientists were totally unaware of the potential for frame shifting in the type of work they were doing. But maybe I am actually wrong and they were so narrowly educated they were in fact some of Voltairs' Bastards. If you don't know what this serious problem is about I would recommend reading the book available on Amazon.

WNS115 posted smokers didn't get Covid -19. Yes, smokers did get Covid--I personally know of smokers who became very ill and were in hospital with severe symptoms. Where did this come from that smokers were immune? Our world is in a very bad state and yes, many still refuse to believe that the vaccine did much damage. Ego is a bad thing so many refuse to believe the truth because their ego believes they are not stupid and the evidence is not true.

The mRNA jab destroys the immune system, causing HIV, which is always fatal and takes years to kill. The New York Times estimated that 72% of the world is jabbed. I read somewhere that 1 in 5 doses are a placebo.

'Ribosomal frameshifting' sounds a lot like 'cancer'. 33% offsite response matches the concept suggested of the larger experiment, 1/3 of recipients getting the actual heavy dose, 1/3 light, 1/3 placebo.

For spike proteins (vaxxed or unvaxed), many are saying the following are helpful: #1 Nano Soma, #2 Nattokinase #3 OnGuard by DoTerra (take daily drops and also place outside/under nostrils when in public), ...I add a #4 which is: 1 cup fresh beet juice combined with 1 cub fresh carrot juice) - followed by 3 apples. The last protocol is the most powerful on the planet for annihilating anything non-human in the body...do this 5 x per week and will eventually regrow entire body but 3 apples are a MUST or beets will cause severe digestive disturbance)

Fortunately, I learned the truth about the jab in time. Almost 70yo, I eat only what God gives us in Nature. No chronic conditions or aches and pains, no weight probs.

To add insult to injury of the depopulation scheme, most if not all will submit themselves to the very same monsters who created the jab: big pharma and its minions, the medical industrial complex. The result being that in addition to horrible treatment you (or family) will be left bankrupt. Kill and pillage, it's what they do best.

In a sense, big pharma is being short-sighted. They collected billions of dollars for delivering the Covid shot into so many people, and now they're collecting billions more as they offer treatments for the new illnesses that the shots caused. But they're causing their customer base to shrink and profits will drop.

Explains why they are not mandating masks, distance, jabs, etc because most people already got the original doses. And if I am not mistaken, you are still not considered fully vaccinated unless you got the original shots over 2 years ago. Even if you decided to get this season's version.

I was declared a domestic terrorist and spreader of disease. I had what was most likely Covid early on after a cruise on a very sick ship, understand about immunity and heard Fauci say "if you have natural immunity you do not need a jab". I stay away from jabbed people as shedding causes a repeat of my original symptoms.
