STORY AT-A-GLANCE

- The U.S. Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System (VAERS) is among the best adverse event data collection systems in the world, but it's antiquated and difficult to use. Still, it's a good way to identify signals that weren't detected during premarket testing or clinical trials
- There are unmistakable, unprecedented safety signals in VAERS for the COVID shots. While the U.S. Food and Drug Administration and Centers for Disease Control and Prevention claim no deaths can be attributed to the COVID jab, the data to discount that simply don't add up. In the U.S. territories alone, reported as of November 26, 2021:
- The estimated underreporting factor for COVID jab injuries in VAERS is between 31 and 100, so the actual death toll in the U.S. could be anywhere from 279,500 to 896,400
- There's a strong safety signal for female reproductive issues and for female infertility (miscarriage) in young men and boys. VAERS data show an inverse relationship between myocarditis and age, with youths being more frequently affected than older men
- VAERS data are being deleted without explanation. Each week, about 100 or so reports are routinely deleted, so there are now thousands of biologically missing reports

Jessica Rose, Ph.D., a research fellow at the Institute for Pure and Applied Knowledge in Israel, has taken a deep-dive into the U.S. Vaccine Adverse Events Reporting System (VAERS), and in this interview she shares the details of what she's finding.

VAERS, despite flaws and drawbacks, is one of the greatest tools we have to evaluate vaccine safety. It was implemented as a consequence of the 1986 National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act. While vaccine companies have been given blanket liability for adverse reactions under this law, VAERS was created to collect injury reports in a centralized database so the post-marketing safety of childhood vaccines could be monitored.

The system was actually launched in 1990, so we have three decades' worth of data to compare trends against. Granted, vaccine injuries are notoriously underreported. Investigations have found only 10% to as little as 1% — of injuries are reported.

When it comes to the COVID jab specifically, calculations by Steve Kirsch, executive director of the COVID-19 Early Treatment Fund, suggest injuries are underreported by a factor of 41. But despite that and other shortcomings, VAERS can still provide valuable information about a given vaccine.

Rose is a computational biologist with degrees in molecular biology and biochemistry. While a native Canadian, she did her postgraduate training in Israel, where she still lives. When her dream of working in Australia were dashed due to the COVID-19 outbreak, she decided to start writing code for statistics and graphics, and as the pandemic worn on, she applied those programming skills to the VAERS database.

No, People Are Not Filling Fake Reports

A common attempt to explain away the VAERS data by so-called fact checkers is to say that it's unreliable because anyone can file a report. This is pure hogwash. Yes, anyone can file a report, but there are positives for filing a false report, and the thing is time-consuming and exacting. We can be quite certain there's no over-reporting going on.

It takes on average 30 minutes to fill out a report, and the system is set up in such a way that you cannot save anything until you get to the very end. Even worse, each page of text and other an allotted period of time, forcing you to start from the beginning if you take too long to fill in the details.

"This probably frustrates enough people that they don't start again," Rose says. Indeed, the cumbersomeness of the website itself has often been cited as a reason why doctors don't report adverse events. Doctors don't have the time to do it, and most patients don't know they can file on their own. As noted by Rose:

> "[VAERS] is probably one of the best adverse event data collection systems in the world, but it's completely terrewhile. It's antiquated … Nowadays — it's a way to detect safety signals that weren't detected during premarket testing or clinical trials.
> And it is functioning that way, because there are many many safety signals [about the COVID jab] being known out the date. For example, everyone's heard of myocarditis … which is one of the safety signals being thrown off in VAERS. And so, we've learned that it happens to a little more so in boys."

One explanation for this gender discrepancy has to do with estrogen. Testosterone has been shown to facilitate entry of the spike protein into cells by activating a specific enzyme. This could help explain why men, who have higher testosterone levels, are getting myocarditis at much higher rates than women.

Most Lethal 'Vaccines' in Medical History

Rose continues:

> "I implore everybody to do this. … [VAERS] is very accessible. Just go to their website and download the CSV files. You can play with it in Excel, or use whatever is compatible with the CSV file. The OpenVAERS system is even easier to use.
> There are three separate files that you can download for the domestic data set, which includes the individual's data, the symptoms or adverse events that they reported (and it can be up to 19 different types), and the injection data …
> You can merge them so that, as per [Jacob] VAERS ID, you have a lot more information … That's what I did. All you have to do is count the number of adverse events that have occurred in 2021. In the context of the COVID-19 products, exclude all the other vaccines to isolate the signal, and compare the number of adverse events to the total number of adverse events reported in every single year going back to 1990.
> There's absolutely zero comparison. The average number of adverse event reports for the past 13 years is 14,000 and that includes the adverse event report data for all of the vaccines combined. There are a lot of them …
> So we're looking at about 39,000 total adverse events per year [on average for all vaccines], as opposed to 970,942 [adverse events post COVID jab] in the domestic dataset alone [Editor's note: Please note that all data are as of the day of the interview and have not been updated prior to publication]. And this is just inside the underreporting factor …
> We use the same trend when we isolate adverse stimulative events like death. There are over 10,000 [post COVID jab] deaths reported now in the domestic dataset alone, not including the underreporting factor, and in the previous 13 years, the average was 155 deaths for the entire year for all the products combined. This is over 6,000% increase in reporting for deaths.
> So, the question I've been posing to the FDA, the CDC and whoever wants to listen to me is, "What's the cut-off number? Because you kind of think of death as being the worst outcome in terms of adverse events in the context of a vaccine or a biological product.
> I think there are worse things than death personally. But most people think death is pretty bad. So that's why I always talk about death in the context. What's the cut-off number here? How many people have to die in order for these products to be deemed unsafe? So that's basically all you have to do in VAERS. I mean, you can stop there. You don't have to look at anything else. But there's so much more."

Can Causation Be Established?

While the U.S. Food and Drug Administration and Centers for Disease Control and Prevention outrageously deny that a single death can be attributed to the COVID jabs, the reality impossible to discount 15,552 deaths (8,986 in the U.S. territories alone) reported as of November 26, 2021. As noted by Rose:

> "It's not even statistically plausible to say that not one death out of 10,000 was caused [by the shot]. It's not causality that is … Those people, not 100% of them would have died anyway? That's not how life works."

The FDA and CDC are also ignoring standard data analyses that can shed light on causation. It's known as Bradford Hill criteria — a set of 15 criteria that need to be satisfied in order to derive strong evidence of causal relationship. One of the most important of these criteria is temporality, because one thing must come before the other, and the shorter the duration between two events, the higher the likelihood of a causative effect.

> "So, when you're talking about percentages of people who died within a short period of time — those jabs, we're just we're talking 50%," Rose says. "That's kind of suspicious to me. [The] they completely deny the causal effect. It's just because of coincidence?"

There's also a strong safety signal for female reproductive issues. Preliminary post-marketing data showed women who got the jab in the first 20 weeks of pregnancy had a miscarriage rate of 82%.[1] Pfizer's own data, which Rose analyzed, showed a miscarriage rate of 69% when given during the first 20 weeks. Yet no one is warning pregnant women away from these injections. Quite the contrary — women are being universally tied to.

How to Assess Underreporting

As mentioned, Kirsch has calculated an underreporting factor for post COVID jab events of 41, which is likely quite conservative. Rose's calculation is even more conservative than that. She explains:

> "Steve [Kirsch] and I are good friends. We've been working very closely on all of this stuff for a long time. His underreporting factor is 41. He estimated that based on a peer-reviewed publication that estimated anaphylaxis numbers, so he used anaphylaxis as a proxy for death.
> What that means is that when you hear as say these numbers, you have to multiply them by 41, if you want to go with Steve's estimate, or 31, if in the case of Marc Mabe is the most conservative estimate. I took Pfizer's Phase 3 clinical trial data that they presented to the FDA.
> There were over 18,000 participants in the drug group and the placebo group, and there were a certain percentage of individuals in each arm that succumbed to a severe adverse event, which includes death, hospitalization, visit to the ER, a life threatening adverse event, disability or birth defect.
> So, 0.7% of people in the drug arm succumbed to a severe adverse event according to their data. I used that rate, and multiplied it by the number of people who had been injected with one shot of Pfizer on a certain date, August 10, and that number becomes your expected number of people that would succumb to a severe adverse event based on their data.
> So, you take that number and divide it by the number of reports of severe adverse events, and you get a multiplier factor, an underreporting factor. When you use that base dataset, the Pfizer Phase 3 clinical trial data, you get 31. Ronald Kostoff has also published a paper in Toxicology Reports, and his estimate is 100, I believe.
> So, whenever you're talking about the underreporting factor, I think you should talk about it in terms of a range, because each adverse event is going to have their own [underreporting factor] …
> I think if people actually knew the reality of what was going on, they would decide very quickly, right now, never to go near these things. This isn't hearsay. It's not conjecture. The clinical trials are garbage, and there's no safety data. I'm not just saying this — it's very reflective in all of those adverse event data collection systems all over the world.
> They're all saying the same thing, the Yellow Card System in the U.K.[2] the U.S. [VAERS], Australia's [system]. They're all saying the same thing. As an example, myocarditis and young boys. You know, it's not something that you can ignore. There's a reason why this is happening. It's because the [shots] are not safe."

What Are VAERS IDs and Why Are They Missing?

VAERS IDs are the numbers assigned to individual report entries. Aside from underreporting, another oddity that strongly suggests the data are worse than we think is that VAERS IDs are going missing. In other words, case reports are being deleted from the system after they've been put in. Rose investigated this after seeing videos saying hundreds, perhaps thousands, of people had their reports deleted.

> "They went through this horrifying experience, which no human should be going through, and then they got disappeared. I won't even know what the word for that is. It's appalling. — Jessica Rose"

Now, there are valid reasons for deleting a VAERS ID. One reason would be if both the doctor and the patient file a report. The two reports then need to be combined, and the ID number of one of the duplicated reports is erased. However, what Rose found is that reports are indeed being deleted that shouldn't be. She explains:

> "The way I was determining if entries, if their IDs, were disappearing was by finding out which VAERS IDs didn't show up in the next update, because you would assume that every single ID that put into the system would stay in the system. And so, the next update would have that data set and a little more, but that's not how it works.
> There are removals every single week, and they're not explained. There's no explanation for those. So, the first thing I did was I found this — and I'm sorry, I'm jumping ahead — was to check if a high proportion of these deleted reports were deaths. It wasn't anything overly suspicious, something like 18%.
> Then I checked seven adverse events, then I checked children, because this is a big one that's happening now. A lot of babies are going missing in VAERS, and they shouldn't be. There [since the COVID shots aren't being given to babies yet], which is probably why they're being removed.
> So, there wasn't anything overly suspicious about the nature of the [missing] IDs. But that's not even the point. These are people who invested in these products, and listened to people who are telling them they are safe and effective. They were healthy. They went out and got the shots.
> Some of them suffered an adverse event, some of them died. These reports get filed to VAERS, and then they get removed. That's atrocious. I'm not speculating on that either. This is what is happening. They went through this horrifying experience, which no human should be going through, and then they got disappeared. I don't even know what the word for that is. It's appalling."

Data on Children Are Being Deleted

Rose has also delved into the VAERS data for children. Disturbingly, there are apparently thousands, likely tens of thousands of instances if you factor in underreporting, where the jabs have been given to children that were too young to receive the shot at the time they got it.

At the time she looked into this, there were approximately 1,127 VAERS reports with a metric code indicating that the product was given to a patient of inappropriate age. In fact, it was the most frequently occurred event type among young children.

> "So, there were so-called professionals injecting children without confirming their age," she says, "and then those children suffered adverse reactions in the thousands. And this doesn't include the underreporting factor. Some of them died. In the 5- to-11 age group, two of them died. One was 11, one was 13, and the timeframe between the death and the injection in one of the kids was five days, in the other it was one day.
> So, this was in close temporal proximity. The part that's even more disturbing that I'm on about is … something like 65 children had died between the ages of zero and 18, and 38% of those children were under 2. [The next week] that percentage went down to 30%. I'm like, wait now, that was late last week. What happened to them?
> There are these enormous inconsistencies in the data. Here's another one. I have about 150 affirmed files that contain algorithms that run code for specific things, like I have a kid's file, a cancer file, a prion disease file. So, I run them all with the updated data.
> Myocarditis is one of them. And there was this big chunk of data for the 50- to- 75-year-olds pertaining to myocarditis reports last week, and this week, it's over half. It's staggeringly obvious that something's very different in the data. The absolute number of reports were up to date. They've been shifted somehow.
> There could be a plausible explanation. But the fact is there's no reference at all as to how this data is being shifted around. There's no record. So, we as the public, have no idea what's actually going on. All we can say with absolute certainty is that something is going on."

Myocarditis Report Pulled From Publication

Together with Dr. Peter McCullough, Rose recently wrote and submitted a paper[3] on myocarditis cases in VAERS following the COVID jabs to the journal Current Problems in Cardiology. Everything was set for publication when, suddenly, the journal changed its mind and took it down. You can find the pre-proof on Rose's website. The data clearly show that myocarditis is inversely correlated to age, so the risk gets higher the younger you are.

> "Most of the reporting in VAERS was in young boys, aged 15. There was a sinkhole difference in reporting following dose one and two, which indicates dose response and/or causal effect. The rate for myocarditis in 12- to 15-year-olds is 19 times above background reporting for the United States, so there's a lot of stuff in that paper that was really important," Rose says.
> "There are many other papers coming out now that are 100% suspicious what we found. It's not debatable. [Spike] Eric Topol says before that [the reports] were the 9- to 11-year-olds, and I don't think that was a coincidence, because it would have informed people as to the potential risk of myocarditis in young people. So, of course, they don't want that, because they already bought 30 million doses for the 3- to 11-year-olds."

Latent Infections Reactivated

Another common side effect of the jabs is the reactivation of latent infections such as herpes infections and shingles. Rose explains:

> "There are a bunch of papers that have come out that lend some ideas as to why this is happening." Rose says. "One makes the claim that CD8+ T-cell populations are becoming compromised. In the acquired branch of the immune system, you have memory cell populations called CD4+ T cells and CD8+ T-cells.
> Everyone's heard of HIV/AIDS. So, the idea there is that you have a virus that preferentially infects CD4+ T-cells, which are the generals of the immune system. They kind of coordinate the other cells to do their jobs. If you have a depletion in this type of cell, then the rest of the immune system kind of collapses, because they don't have their general telling them what to do.
> The CD8+ T-cells are the killer cells. These cells are in charge of killing virally infected cells, so they're very important in the context of a viral infection. One of these studies showed that in people post injection, the gene profiles were very different for CD2 positive T cells.
> If we're talking about going beyond immune dysregulation, if we're talking about immune dysfunction, if we're talking about certain immune cells being depleted, that could be a possible reason why you're seeing a reemergence of a latent viral species, possibly. We're also seeing cancer resurgence.
> Another paper that came out shows that there might be problems in the realm of double-stranded DNA repair. There are two enzymes (BRCA and TDP1) that have been reported to be impaired that are very important in repairing double stranded DNA breaks, and if you have an impairment of essential proteins that are meant to repair double stranded DNA breaks, you have serious problems.
> One of those problems is proliferation of cells. So, whenever you get a certain type of exposure to a virus, say a cold or a flu virus, and it gets the better of you in your acquired immune system kicks in, you get these swollen glands. That is actual populations of T-cells proliferating.
> If you have scattered proliferative capacities, or if you have an impairment of that process, you don't have an immune system if it happens in T-cell and B-cell populations …
> So, in addition to the hyperinflammation that the spike protein seems to be inducing all over the body, there's this immune function impairment. That's really scary to me. It's something we need to investigate and absolutely another reason why these mRNAs should stop right now."

More Information

To learn more, be sure to peruse Rose's website, Jessica's World. There, you'll find links to videos in which she summarizes her various findings, and a weekly graphic update of the latest VAERS data for death, female reproductive issues, breakthrough COVID infections, cardiovascular events and immunological events.

Another excellent resource is OpenVAERS, which summarizes the most pertinent VAERS data for you on a weekly basis. If you click on the COVID Vaccine Adverse Event Reports, there's a sliding bar at the top of the page where you can select to view data either for the U.S. territories only, or all VAERS reports, which includes international reports.

The vaxxed population needs to be shot, shot, out of the flu like Zero Sum 2 out of the psychopathic mass murderers who are running the show, the puppet masters behind the scenes. Monsters like Bill and Melinda Gates, Anthony Fauci, Klaus Schwab, Neil Ferguson, Albert Bourla, and many more. And that four should nonetheless into isolcage and organ, so that these kitlers are brought to justice. And soon!

And you can rely on the mainstream media to blame it on surviving who have lost much-loved friends and relatives towards the perpetrators of this murderous, profit-based 'treatment'.

Steptipsh: Yes these murder monsters need to be brought to justice, but will they? In the UK for reporting adverse events there is the Yellow Card which most people have never heard of. The reason here in Scotland are desperate for their booster I fell you they are. Yellow Card reports are supposed to be sent to the Medicines and Healthcare products Regulatory Agency (MHRA) in the U.K. Bayer, Bias that reported to the Yellow card. Ref: A 70 year-old had the booster and flu and the same day was bruisiness and felt ill for a week and is still not right. My yellow card report either. His wife had the booster and flu and 2 weeks later she was in hospital with blood clots in her lungs two organ bands - no report either. The doctors in the hospital also said it was nothing to do with the vaccines, but of course it was. The problem is none of these people think it had anything to do with these "vaccines" They will get the same doctors who will say "vax" they definitely are in a state of psychosis.

Absolutely true Steptipsh. This is a global agenda of mass murder, depopulation and totalitarianism. The corruption goes all the way to the top to leaders of nations. They are either totally brainwashed, frightened, or compromised in some other way because of these murderous schemes. THERE IS NO EXCUSE for their actions regardless. All are complicit in this genocide of global proportions.

Insert. No excuse. correct if you apply normal corruption, but this is world wide and has involved every country. Disobey and you will face 5-15 type sequences. Have ears to hear & brains to think. We defeat the mass second building in history - and NOT ONE bit of the so called plans... but of course, the hard involvement the nonsense hack line and stinker just as they are now. Didn't notice that 3/4 of a kilometer of tower gone yesterday. a few metres of rubble and dust.

They can get all that information, but can't get information if he was jabbed or not? Early on, a lot of people I know of got jabbed only once and said that to be second. I wonder if they put him on Remdesivir in the hospital? A lot of people died at first from with it. First week on Remdes, 2nd week get sepsis, 3rd week liver shut down, then kidneys. That treatment will always be evil to me - and so Fauci because he knows how hard it is on the body. WE WRONG

No, shame is a human trait. I was never much into the ancient scriptures that write about it evil and good (just), but living it now, these identities have taken on new meaning and vision.

Ohhhn, these events showed me in no uncertain terms that not only the perpetrators but the large portion of the so called "victims" are more than willing to be gaslighted by them to find, not a lot of them. If most "people" were human what is happening right now cannot happen. The world is full of degenerated subhuman entities.

PPE, I mean as a birthday last night and this lady was very outspoken (instead of me for once) about VAERS reporting being 50 much less than actually? I didn't ask where she got the number over 100K dead in just our country alone. Isn't that the criteria that one of the vaccines had to reach to be approved? I'm sure she didn't know that. I'm sure she didn't know that the CDC changed the rules of death and disability this year 2021 or last year. That's a very sneaky way what they're reporting is bad. What we need are forced forensic autopsies not. I haven't gone in any personally, will they talk to you about what they're seeing? Maybe if we go in for some information on forensic expenses and start asking the questions?

But bonestilly, the way they escalated positive covid test numbers, and death numbers, and even down to paying hospitals for the deaths, and forcing the docs to put Covid on the death certificate even if it wasn't the cause of death, and the Remdesivir - ugh. Hospitals WERE in totally escalated and forced to be covered that? The only reason they would do this is to be able to keep paying SAFE AND EFFECTIVE. The whole medical industry has no shame!

Another UK banned doctor who raised concern about intervening funeral home directors in the truth. The VAERS statistics and the multiplied death thereof, may only be the tip of the iceberg. Are we perhaps looking at only a partial picture when looking at VAERS statistics alone? Consider that the California Bar Association's website states that is: Sworn death is legally considered murder, and what the implications are with regards to language offices from the COVID racts.

The target is 7,200,000,000, but I will wager 2 of the larger players, 2 languages I do not speak, will try to play back the mortality in their country in hopes of moving up upper hand in New World Order. I read Japan snapped out of the curse. As dad said "Believe half of what you see and even less of what you hear". Observation: People I know who were first in line, have had nada symptoms. So I place them into the standard sheeple that are selected to maybe be preserved. Their control SIP is so the control but if can be given to the correct target. For those speaking of preparedness, the 2 other main players are moving their tell it any influence chase on www.theguardian.com/.../japanese-island-tokelau Polesteen & tokkeu not even if it has to be a termination as per this offering, but if the atmosphere becomes full of x-ray material, this will help you survive. Yep, the world is still flat.

Dr Mercola, please take note! Great comment about intervening funeral home directors in the truth. The VAERS statistics and the multiplied death thereof, may only be the tip of the iceberg. Are we perhaps looking at only a partial picture when looking at VAERS statistics alone? Consider that the California Bar Association's website states that is: Sworn death is legally considered murder, and what the implications are with regards to language offices from the COVID racts.

A funeral director from the city by the name of John Looney has been speaking out for several months, about what he has been seeing. He recently made an updated video which may be found on Bitchute. His observations are very disturbing.

Right. The answer lies in all cause data; such as the UK data that shows over double the death rate for the vaccinated (presumably 5 or more days prior), and the Brandon data that shows a tripling of the death rate within 14 days of the jabs. Add those figures together, multiply by the norm, and I would expect it's quite a horrific toll.

I have seen very few videos from funeral homes on YouTube, warning, being threats to them. Many are worried about being business. What about the coroners who do autopsy tests. Not they are hunting for their lives and jobs too.

Another UK funeral director by the name of Wesley reports increased numbers of deaths in babies and in the 30-40 year old age group since the vaxx" Interesting Vaxx is approved in January 2021. Compared with previous years about ten times the number of newborns are dying. "Anybody and and everybody who died when the pandemic started was marked as COVID on their death certificates but that's not happening since the vaccine was introduced." Dr Mercola, make sure Jessica Rose downloaded VAERS data is also held by multiple individuals. If she is the only one who has reliably downloaded data every week, she is vulnerable to having it confiscated or worse. Even though this VAERS information has been publicly updated every week, she might be the only one who has every week's report for 2021. You, more than most controversial individuals, know how much pressure can be brought to bear. She might be at risk, as well as her data analysis.

Might, there's no doubt. I was listening to R K Jr this morning and wanted or wished I could tell him to get on a nebulizer. His voice sounded like a final warning / sign of health. All speakers need to be 'never alone'.

This past week there were huge anti-mandate protests in Vienna, Barcelona, Paris, Stockholm and Sidney. Tens of thousands of people were out peacefully protesting the anti democratic, unlawful, unethical mandates, yet not a peep about it on the anti-Democracy Mainline Media.

On the note of the release of variants, I believe that despite having had Covid-19 November 2019 onwards, living Covid, I have recently also contracted Omicron here in the UK. Being VH (unvaccinated) it wasn't too bad, just huge fatigue and weird chills for about a week or so. A lot less than 6 months in both I reckon and I've gain even more natural immunity.

I see that UK elites SAGE are estimating up to 6,000 deaths a day from the mild Omicron. I had comments deactivated at The Independent today for quoting South African doctors on the lack of Omicron deaths there over the past year.

Pigdaze - I hope you have recovered well and to have improved natural immunity. Apparently there is a book on Amazon named Understanding Omicron Variant - Copyright 2020 by Dr. Theresa Bishop - so looking at the copyright date is that a planned variant? Everything seems to just be too and more lies.

Good news - Fauci has now VOWED not to have shots for his twin twins thing through! ... you know, because 20 years later, he's done so good with AIDS and ALS not to mention his beloved Remdesivir - the kill cocktail. I don't know about you, but the folks at the WHO are looking pretty stupid for keeping him on!

#shoutoff and all that think that forced vaccinations is a 'nah', I am not so doubtful. My prediction is you will see this creeping up in all blue states by 12 pm the bellcast to leave the state and 2 to get down those who remain in the state. Why? To insure that what happened in VA does not repeat itself in their blue state. Individual resistance is futile when they show up at your door with an outstanding bone. It is nothing more than an attempt to retain control of our government. Being as they have the backing of so many corrupt agencies it will remain the way it is. Unless SCOTUS steps in and stops this ASAP, we are lost.

My grandpa's testimony taught me the American Revolution and I would do the same today, even at my age. As we sit and do nothing physically more and more slips away. If I knew where the recorder was located, I'd be there before dinner. PS The best time for any attack strategy is when the opposing force is relaxing, celebrating and just ready to a blindside. Russia & China are positioning themselves closer to us and the current administration has sold out to them long ago. So for your own sake, keep 1 eye open while you enjoy the family. Remember to keep your military personnel called and warned them we might strike, so we were not 'out for a military commander to do that to outright TREASON. 1 ⊕ upon

On Giffones yesterday, in the UK, Neil Oliver interviewed Dr Kate Wilson. The first time I have seen anyone allowed to speak against the psychopathic control freak jab narrative for nearly two years. Let us hope it is and the last time:
twitter.com/.../1471051460408582653 There is also legal action being taken against the UK Medicines Regulator Chaos, accusing them of an appalling failure to do their job. Long legal discussion but worth reading in the end. gofess.co.uk/.../...Ginko8816.pdf

Contributors to the site probably know that Pfizer (or identically criminal organisations) have signed secret contracts with Dumb across the world. What is in those contracts may reveal the lesson for our half a century - and we are supposed to live in a dimming. Rightdemocracy.com/2021/11/19/they-took-100-days-to-approve-pfizer-vaccc ... Well is it said that ? the Government knows all about you that is Tyranny. If you know all about your Government that is democracy! There is also more and more deeply concerning revelations about heart problems caused by the jabs. www.drugwatch.org/.../...Jobs.144.page.2.1587.0

Thank you so much for the links, Newtonian. I will send the legal case file to friends whose children are facing the same dilemma. Some big names included in its testify against the misinformation and criminality of the MHRA which as you may know is partly funded by Gates. £250,000 was a bad buy for the CEO of MHRA, June Raine, to collect for not doing her job. We have discussed the ahupharmic article previously. I like your quote about democracy no tyranny - so true and worse now than ever with so called "smart" technology at the ready.

Thank you Celauchon. There are some great people involved in the legal case brought by FLAN against the MHRA. Let us wish it God Speed for success. Just seen this wonderfully eloquent and thoughtful piece by Mark Sykes, the 'Forest Gump' Neil Oliver on GBNews. The best angle I have seen lately. I have seen on British Media for nearly two years. twitter.com/...1172498868214713859

The Ministry of Information is very busy right now. There is too much at stake. It is critical that the plan continue without interruption. All efforts to halt the Program will be countered and made null and void. That is just the way it works when billions of dollars are on the line and the ability to create a government class class to support the technocracy has manifested itself at last. As stated, this is war, but unlike WWII, the billions of casualties have already had the bullet pass through them. they just do not know that they are actually dead yet. Unless the Ministry of Information does its job, they will not know. The Ministry of Information is the only hope for the battered (or the same what they). The people are brought were our friends and allies were actually the ones seeking our destruction. We will see from the actions of this Holocaust, but those who remain will be forever altered, and the world that emerges will be nothing like what has passed away.

It is clear that the VAERS System is a bureaucratic construct which has no useful design features to track health, safety nor effectiveness of vaccines.

@Fire_RFK_Jr. You systematic displeasure and that is why he sounds unusual. All the intellectually bankrupt journalists have used it for another going nineteen story. Once, in an interview, he said that quite a few years ago now he was mad 9 and his doctor recommended that he vaccinate against the measles because there was a measles outbreak in his area. He said that he did so and he got measles right in the darkness. Kim a good guy. If I lived a child in a vaccine I wouldn't be sport about it, even if I made a mistake in authorizing it.

"How many people have to die in order for these products to be deemed a hazard? And why are the FDA and CDC ignoring standard data analysis (known as the Bradford Hill criteria) that can shed light on causation?" One most drug the rather-rotos idea that the Central Bank Cow is accomplishing of this evil "accidents". As for "people have to die", the answer is: Yes, they have to die. Why are you think they surreptitiously gained control of ALL MEDIA? All sovereign currency?

End and suffering don't blossom by benign "accident". This kind of treachery only exists through generation to generation nurturing/planning. This horror is the culmination of under the radar planning, period. But because the west, Dire, sits specifically continues to attribute it to "ignorance" or "accident" rather than facing up to the treachery and visceral hatred of mankind by that Central Bank Cow, they are not only able to continue it but EXPAND it as well.

Whom, other than the dual-world power, U.S. & U.K., could use their own cultural norms and know-how to force that Central Bank scum on every nation, (over Breed, on this planet for their "owners"? Finally what other nations but those same C-crash cultures would have the necessary "cultural" norms to do so? Who else would have the "cultural" norms to force the Central Bank scum? Who else would have the "cultural" norms to force the Central Bank scum? Who else would have the "cultural" norms to force the Central Bank scum

Just wanted to be reassured that missing entries from the VAERS US collection are not being transferred to the overseas section. If they were I don't see why more of the death entries would be transferred. Re: Reuters Fact Check Post Covid 6,000 VAERS reports were deleted by being foreign entries, CDC says

The CDC expects about 15,000 people to die each week from a variant in the US this winter. The vax must be destroying immune systems since the variants are mild.....so the toxins in the vax are kicking in.

FYI: www.cdc.gov/vaccines/ubc/downloads/pediatricvaccinationevaluation.html Everyone - look up what your state statute says regarding prosecution, control and reporting of diseases - know what they procedure is, what the requirements are, and how it would affect you if implemented.

They will not kill off the masses too quickly. That is a bad business plan. The newly developed and being developed mRNA medicines are coming to treat all the new masses of sick people in the coming decades who will never link their health issues to the vaxxes they took in the past. Cancer, heart disease, autoimmune disease, neurological issues, autism neurocognitive etc issues. Cancel kill the golden goose is quickly. Its a gold mine and pipeline of second ongoing profits

Agreed with Bradsbrock. The whole thing needs to hinge upon plausible deniability. They'll blame a "different strain" for which new death jabs are needed. But at some point the comparative survival rates of the unjabbed will be obvious. Then we may just be the "chosen ones". A stronger sci-fi novel could not be written.

So many excited doctors and scientists have been unheard (or worse) that I can only come to the conclusion that covid was set up as global coup (ritual That required much preparation and a huge investment (combination of blackmail / bribery for instance). The implication is that action to reverse the still surpassing atrocities might need to be at a similar or higher level (military).

An even better analysis would be comparison of all cause death and myocarditis rates to previous years, especially 2020, when COVID was already happening and only a very small percentage of people were in clinical trials. That would give us much better insight into the net effect of the jabs.

I would love to see a study of the Covid vaccine spike protein effects on those immediately near the vaccinated. Only my husband has been vaccinated and was boosted. The first round of vaccines somehow produced chicken pox in both of my 100% unvaccinated and vaccined children. This was very bizarre and our local medical professionals had no answer for it and no knowledge of any other local cases. I would also like to see data on overall death rates during the highest period of adult covid vaccines (March - June 2021). I know of so many friends' older parents who died, suddenly during this period.

Go to the VAERS data: openmedicine.com/covid-data (data as of 10 Dec 2021) for the noted adverse effects multiply the numbers by 31 or 31 to get the estimated real numbers

I appreciate all of the comments as much as the original article. Thanks to all of you who regularly contribute especially. This was just sent to me - timely for this subject matter - rumble.com/embed/v2ej1ed/?pub=4&t=0&v=6qLqc_dcJ&u=aHR0cDo6Ly9kZWFkbGluZXB1bmsgb3JnLyAgIA==&ecn=0&ecd=0&ecp=

The Covid Vaccines are "experimental" only in the sense that they provide plausible deniability for purposeful genocide. Bill Gates has long standing ties to Anthony Fauci and a family history of interest in population control. According to Wikipedia citation Bill Gates is served on the board of Planned Parenthood, which is the offspring of the American Eugenics Society and he also served as co-chair of the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. Eugenics and de-population is a clear interest of the wealthy and powerful. There is some evidence that the Covid Vaccines are being used to de-populate the planet. Population Control Bill Gates has stated that the current world population limit is 500 million. The current world population is almost 8 BILLION. rumble.com/...ryan-cole-a-pandemic-of-the-unvaccinated.html?u=4 Typical of elite manipulation, this agenda has 2 faces, the public face ostensibly public health, the hidden face is de-population to manage the medicare and social security deficits of select governments & to mandate digital health and identity passes.

Isn't it obvious by now that the pandemic is a designed marketing ploy to enrich the pharma companies—a few million excess deaths are no problem in that they don't impact the bottom line (legislated liability protection). Anything that interferes with jab sales must be suppressed.

This video shows how the engineered bioweapon virus and the pre-planned response are rooted in American Eugenics practices, which evolved into the use of vaccilenocaus and retrovirus technology to engineer the human genome for racial control and depopulation: Eugenics Exposed: Vaccines, Genocide, Population Control, Bill Gates, Fauci, Planned Parenthood, Abortion, Sterilization, Euthanasia Nullifying the immune system, eugenics proponents can linkedly target other general organisms of the population (immune compromised - the elderly) or specific populations by altering the chemistry in batches of the vaccine and based on the genetic characteristics of target populations. You must understand that this is eugenics in nature, and that the targeted killing of specific genotypes is a historical goal both of the eugenics movement, the wealthy elite and their tools in the military industrial complex.

I'm pretty sure it'll get the shot, I would become a statist. Yet no one wants to understand or listen to why I believe that. They just keep insisting its the only way I can be "safe"... like them.

I had a friend who was 85 years old and healthy looking, not overweight, I saw him about 3 weeks ago and he told me he was getting his booster the next day... then he died 2 days later from the Pfizer jab complications of covid 19? Another friend told me her son lives in New Zealand and he and his wife are only themselves to deal every night... so in NZ, they are still under house arrest, he can fly back to the USA but his wife who is NZ citizen... she's nowhere can cannot without more, of course. Parents have tried lawyers.

And someone else told me that he has a "friend" who hasn't been vaccinated and "he can die for all I care, the world has too many Republicans" I came home coughing, sneezing and runs runny like a house... so I took Dr Mercola's advice and I nebulized with 2%, hydrogen peroxide waiwai (safed dose)... and immediately my symptoms stopped. Immediately, no kidding! That was 2 days ago... I spoke to a guy whose eyes were really watery - I think I got rehabered it was - from flu.

Why isn't anyone here talking about the massive reduction in Jab deaths per VAERS. This woman quotes less than 1000 deaths but only months ago it was nearly 18000. And these deaths are reported voluntarily by a total dbag such as myself who had little and to Coordinate. What a mess. www.medalerts.org/vaerssdb/findfield.php?TABLE=ON&GROUP1=AGE&C

If they stop VAERS it will be a definite sign of evil. Silence always screams loudly that bad things are going on. Trust is being eroded on fast as they can. They are blind and deaf to anything but what propaganda has been pushed. Yes, this is the beginning of mRNA vaccines.

A Pathologist did Autopsies of which he Scientifically proved at least 15 had died as a result from the Jab. That means the CDC and FDA are outright lying about actual fatality numbers meant to mislead the masses. Why else aren't they debate Science Professionals?

It is not an obscure computer code it is the computer code for the statistical analysis of Big Data such as medical or climate records. It is simple to use and you do not need a programmer to do it. Anyone who has an interest in data analysis can and it uses private a library of databases etc but you can access most of the large ones available to the Government. For anyone, interested Edit/ Lots free courses on its use.

I looked at the VAERS site and compared the Covid "vaccines" to the other vaccines Covid had a 35% total adverse effect report, and the other vaccines had a 0.5 to a high of 1%... I would rather not work than get the Covid vaccine.

Slightly off topic, but equally absurd, my nephew, double gold medal Olympic champ for swimming, Tom Dean, is in Abu Dahbi for the short course world championships. Late 2020 he had a mild covid, early 2021 had a more severe version, recovered and had all the "vaccines" required to attend at Tokyo. His coach mate was just tested positive, so he is now in isolation for two days and will not be able to compete. My point is, we many here are now realizing, this has nothing to do with viruses, and everything to do with restructuring the whole of society. World leaders comply because they are frightened of the consequences if they dont. 6 11 being the basic.

I am reading the comments here. I have what I can see what I am told to believe. I have known only one totally unusual individual who go and and stay alone with comrades who were having many partners daily. Every other death or adverse reaction was reported as the vaccine jab given. I cannot help but be suspicious that it is the same doing the harm. 5 deaths, so far. Were anticipated? Our neighbor is experiencing severe immune system problems... he must isolate and not be exposed to other people for at least 2 years. I'm with some doctors that long to track his progress and see whether he can recover at all. (Presently, he sleeps upto at night after 24/7 stories are empty.)

That remind me, we should offer to be his proxy shopping. We dropped off Christmas gifts last week and observed a strange coincidence = 4 of our friends were complaining of leg problems... numbness, inability to walk and shaking/trembling. They had all recently received their boosters. I should not know of so many people dying shortly and observing so many adverse effects, after being cured, if the jab is so safe, as is being claimed.

My common sense tells me that even if you have a history of cancer, AIDS or allergies, you would not want to reactivate these. Your great should be to restore harmony to your immune system, not keep altering it. Lying that we can resist these mandates is the greatest lie we have been told. Nobody can resist the power of the state. Only a few have the courage to stand up and say no. Most bolter down the hatches in preparation for long term challenges. We are never as vitally prepared as we would like to be. The more we learn about events, the more we realize there is always still more we can do. One positive sign is that Americans are rapidly losing confidence in supporting Biden's social agenda and mandates. Support has now fallen to 33%, down from 60 some percent last April. Each pair of Americans is still much too high to be drinking the kool aid.

Fletch - I don't think the politicians are frightened as you put it - the problem with the political class is their inherent corruption - the highest bidder is the "darling" that has the most appeal - politics has always been a "dirty business" but in Cold Times politics has become exponentially dirtier - the cross versatily of the grasping hand of the politician is an age old problem that has become hugely expanded as the MMMMT has become technologized - politicians are not frightened but the hopes they wallow in the mud of corruption Fletch - that is very disappointing! Speaks to how well the "vax" works, eh? Why even get the damn thing?

Amen Almond. Oh my gosh - I hope I hear that about your family soon - that's what we're seeing with the kids - I was going to pose that question to the group because someone was asking if it was a possible side effect. I'm seeing more and more people say no to the booster. It still boggles my mind that someone would jump in for a booster without knowing a thing about how their body is working after TWO jabs.

When I had the science behind it spewed at me, it confirm my blind trust in the ruling of the situation - the jump in immune protection followed by the collapse and taking with it, a collapse in their white blood cell count. Every vaccinated person would do themselves only well to get an AIDS panel run. It's much more thorough and will speak volumes. Right now I've noticed a lot of people who are getting sick are having a lot of the virus. Makes sense if the immune system is compromised from the vaccine. Sad for the kids. My PT was talking about such matters. Most another one who sees people all day long very and has plenty to spill - Such a strange time.

It's Stasi, This is NWO in full flight and they know blackmail and extortion are far more powerful than greed. Started with Kennedy assassination, attack on the Pentagon to frighten the governments and the towers to frighten the people. Seeing the big picture requires the same holistic view as for health matters.

They must be frightened because NYT exists, they have taken the lofty express ride before they became leaders, isn't that what Christians said? I know the last two leaders of this tiny nation visited Washington months before they were elected. I always wondered why.

"World leaders comply because they are frightened of the consequences if they don't". I hope you are right, BigDatch. There is no reason why our elected politicians should not experience the same level of fear as the rest of us - perhaps even more so, as in Nuremberg. I, for one, am "only following orders" was not accepted. However, there is little evidence of fear being a factor amongst the criminal Westminster gang in the UK. Quite the opposite in fact - as the "fat guy" - supposed adviser to the Prime Minister, Dominic Cummings, has demonstrated. Cummings was reported to have been "celebrating" the anniversary of the "arrest of Jimmy Savile" by his colleagues. This recording went viral (very fast) yesterday. Meanwhile members of the public in mourning shaped a party of their own outside 10 Downing Street to remember the lives of their loved ones lost to Boris's vax mandates. https://www.rte.ie/brexit/2021

Interesting. No amount of proof will make the slightest difference to the easily manipulated. Did you know a Mars a day helps you work and rest and play? Coca Cola you can "reach the world in ang". All part of the same absurdo scene. There were two companents to 9-11. One was to warn the world leaders, and the other was to test how vulnerable the population was when faced with obvious proof contradicting the official story. Iw brought this point up a number of times here, with virtually no response, and that is, lately 3/4 of a kilometer of towers consisting of millions of tons of building structure, left a residual pile of a few meters of rubble and dust.

Very few even bothered to question what was in front of their eyes. I know there and then, the next stage could be rolled out and hardly anyone would question. Hitler... Sure, one of the weapons of manipulation is based on peoples shame and lively guilt, unique to our species. J Edgar Hoover was a perfect example. Of course, most never bother to wonder why we are so vulnerable to such. Perhaps, the Pentagon attack on Hitler's attempt to control people here, it started with the big bad, that together with the world, forced the Kaiser to "hang all of them". The response used on 9-11 demonstrated to the world governments "wang or also" Katyki1. All part of the NWO agenda

Many people I know who check the first two shots of Kool-Aid heartily are now showing signs of procrastination when it comes to the Booster! Their vaccine enthusiasm is waning a little bit, you can see it in their eyes. I would think that they would be doing to go get their third (or fourth) jab! The Mafiosos paid to that those who were preaching about how righteous they were to go out and get the force in the first place are now in out ranks again!

mihail, There are many absurdities, but the key one, as I said, was to test the level of cognitive dissonance amongst the general public, where very few even questioned the fact that they disintegrated, and in highest world leaders into following orders. You were equal also... it is actually an "internal" investigation, as I often say "It is a consciousness thing". The late Paul Hellier, retired Canadian minister was turned in.

You are telling Almond just what I know of a lot of people scared and convinced that jab could TK. The only 5 deaths are a result of the jab? I wonder how many people died or suffer the vaccine or covid 19 killed them. They all died within 48 hours of going to the ER and being put on a respirator. AHA. Remember was the cause of death? This is genocide!

Lowtoing, Not the towers, the Pentagon the most secured building. The towers were the best public demonstration, to get fear based compliance regarding the execution of the US Constitution being one example. The Pentagon was for the worlds leaders. Hitler was a puppet of the Kaiser, and the Kaiser was forced to hang all of them. Hitler was a puppet of the Kaiser. Some issues are a test of the depth of the limited transformation. If you are going to attack the enemy, best to know what you are up against. In well aware of the limited general public awareness. 75% which believe in so-good-a-proof so you can get by, even I was astounded at the level around 9-11.

That is when I knew the next stage was going to be unleashed, the delay was to get the tech economic controls in place. - now it is. Notice how NYT tries to keep anything critical from the authorities? Watch this "spout", hehehe, all part of the same agenda. There are arguments for this agenda, at least from the manipulators pov, such as the fact that the first world population is poisoning itself with excess (eg diabetes again), when there are still millions dying in the third world from scarcity, on an abundant planet. Their argument being " they cant solve these from free will".

It is the nature of viruses to mutate, a bit like us vaxly lol. It is not in their interest to kill the host, so the mutation is generally milder, but more transmissible, which the host also increases natural immunity. Theirs have one extra biologically, but concerning natural obstacles. This applies psychologically also = Of course, natural vaccine accelerate the natural immune response, but the Pentagon attack on Hitler's attempt to control, argue that the survival of the fittest is disrupted with any vaccine, the best Gilbert Bonnefoy(spelling) taking religious objections.

Smokejoe, the ingredients are not always the same in different lot numbers. As you can see by this short interview of Dr. Jane Ruby by Steve Pieczenik, beyond "Kool Aid", the VAERS reports by lot numbers found deaths in only 5% of medicine & pfizer jabs. Also they seemed to be happening in select states.

When facts are in people inconvenient the Big Brother and the Party in "1984", they simply disappeared and the term was "vaporized". That is what is going on here with data that indicates the profile of a bioweapon and not of a medical intervention.

I have a copy of the survey that was confiscated by the Warren Commission. It is collated with the capsular film frames by frame. If any one wants to see it I would be happy to forward the documents. The investigator was my uncle.

Especially George Bush senior who was photographed in Dallas on the day of the Kennedy hit and was obviously involved. Maybe we could do a ceremony to conjure him up and ask him about that. Though he'd probably confuse the gaslighting...

How many? Looks like the time has come to begin tallying the numbers desired. There was a vaccine legislation in NY, which I thought was in the US, or to be certain in 1972 to force everybody the unvaccinated! It is now time to roll up the sleeves and expose the anti. And, look at the banana boats in charge if this state! thenationalpulse.com/news/new-york-legislation-provides-for-indefinite... There is also a link to read the Bill in its entirety.

Yes - this is extremely disturbing - if you live in New York contact your representatives and demand the bill be quashed. Here is actual bill: www.nysenate.gov/...1691-b

Everyone needs to understand the power given by Congress under 42 USC Part 70 to the CDC (i.e for profit corporation) through the Dat'y of WHO. This power is exercised and we the people must be wary of it being used against us by our own government. Congress has given the CDC the power to "Arrest" and "Detain" people. Congress stated about Part 70: "expressly Executive Sec'y to sign the law on Oct 1st 2021 https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2021/09/21/2021-20286/military-control ... 2 days ago the CDC's Regulation page and gov educated on the "CDC open rules for commercial", especially under the link "Control of Communicable Diseases" (www.cdc.gov/ ... show more)

Its really important that everyone understand how the government agencies advise the people of proposed rule (law) changes through the Federal Register. (www.archives.gov/federal ... www.federalregister.gov/ ...25, 130 ,(FR) (www.federalregister.gov/agencies/centers-for-disease-control-and-prevea ...)The Federal Register gives us a time frame in which to comment on anything or ratify by the agency on the proposed rule change.

Here is a link to the CDC page from the Federal Register showing current "Significant Documents" and "Recently Published Documents". Under the Recently Not ' you will find notifications of CDC Advisory Committee Meetings. Your can click on the document to get the details. Not meaning to gloat, but Senator Elizabeth Warren has announced she tested positive for Covid-19, which she believes is a mild "breakthrough case" of Omicron, but of course she couldn't imagine the jab might have caused it.

From Dr David Martin (American lawyer, medical doctor and author):
www.fullfactsupdates.altervantagemedical.com From the National Association of Attorneys General:
www.naag.org/...powers-and-duties www.naag.org/naag-resources/research-data/who-are-american-attorneys-g... Look up your state attorney general's responsibilities so you know what you are dealing with. Use that information as a basis for your request. Basically it should say that he/her job is to defend the state and it duty enacted laws and to secure justice for the public in their state by investigating and prosecuting criminal activities.

Suggest your owner letter state you understand that, as an elected official of your state, your attorney general has the authority to investigate and prosecute criminal activities in your state. Suggest that, if he/she is not willing to investigate and prosecute, you would have to address the differently in your owner letter - probably address a copy whereas the appointing authority is.(Therefore, on behalf of the public, in the state of XXX, you are requesting the same investigation and action to investigate, prosecute, and indict the individuals, government agencies, and corporations identified as Defendant in the attached "Proposed Indictment". Also add you address details given for each proposed Indictment Count (there are 6 counts proposed in the document) provides clear evidence supporting your request or words to that effect.

Attach the document as supporting evidence to your owner letter and mail to your advisory general via USPS certified mail with return receipt. If you want to make sure the AG gets it personally (after that some office clerk you can send it Certified Mail Restricted Delivery Here's info on sending certified mail: www.uspsmails.com/usps-certified-mail

You mentioned going to the beach being banned, as well as outdoor activities. Well, fresh air and sunshine kills viral. And that is why they are trying to ban the CDC is, WHO, Bloomberg, and who knows what else is on their agenda. They want you to believe that sis no alternative besides their vax. But that is a lie.

Thank you for this! The vaccine has also been the government-directed COVID treatments. For monoclonals, studies show that (71-79) percent of patients either an adverse effect, and the drug often had to be stopped after five to ten days because of these adverse effects. Remdesivir, the government-directed treatment for COVID, has been shown to be ineffective, and has discontinued because death rate exceeded 50%. Yet, in 2020, Anthony Fauci directed their remdesivir was to be first drug hospitals use to treat COVID-19, even when the COVID clinical trials of remdesivir showed similar adverse effects. *this really stuck out to me! This really is scary! And how can they ignore the vaccine statistics and NOT ONE REPORTED!!!

said just add a couple drops of tap water (not distilled!!!) and a tiny pinch of salt.... hold the nebulizer at your mouth... I put it as close as I could without coughing and I did it for a few minutes. My symptoms were gone immediately. Dr Mercola gave us a recipe for 1% hydrogen peroxide, while this doctor said using hand held nebulizer and higher concentration works great, your body will react and cough if it's too strong for you... and you can move it away from you. Bottom line: It worked !!! and don't be afraid of it. Oh and the video doctor said using grocery store hydrogen peroxide is fine, doesn't need to be food grade.

http://chng.it/qxJD764X Please Sign & Share. This is my final appeal to all those wordsmiths. I could name a few who are brilliant, and I totally agree with what they all say, on this bastion of Mercola's sacred space. But as another sacred net Dr has said "Gates is more evil than Hitler." Unless you and millions sign the above and unite under IDC with a total eradication of 'RELIGIONS' (not GOD) from the Latin 'To bind,' you will finally lose your elegant dancing shoes you wear to, 'dance with the devil.' WW3 as Dr Mercola acknowledged a few days ago, is raging on every continent. I lived through WW2 and I am deeply grateful to all young Americans who gave their lives to remove Hitler one! Now I implore you to make an even greater sacrifice, and remove Hitler 2.

If people knew the TRUTH about ww2, the world would not be in the situation it is now. But no... instead they chose to complacently believe what the media has fed them. Do people actually believe the covid/vaccine lie is the first great global lie?

~"Correlation does not equal causation" what a cheap man's way to slide out. As the late biologist Lynn Margulis said, "You don't meld the outcome to fit the hypothesis, that is not science". ~Meryl Nass MD wrote a strong letter to the Maine Board of Licensure, in which she stated that BigPharma can NOT be rendered "legally" immune whenever they KNOWINGLY are causing harm and death!
childrenshealthdefense.org/defender/meryl-nass-disciplinary-action-lic.. Dr Mercola, why are you not calling this out? Why is RFK not calling this out? Why are people left in the dark about this?

~I say slam Anybody with special interests in prison who states that deaths from the jabs are "coincidental" and that "there is just no clear connection to the vaccine" Wherever there just plain obviously is that connection! And so many cases are so plain and clearly obvious. ~Further, let us ask: How can there possibly suddenly be so many deaths, heart inflammation rates, blood clotting, seizures, more....only after giving the jabs? No clear connection? The VAERS statistics bear enough reflection to the truth, and these are severely under reported figures. Get Real, BigPharma, your days of prospering and thriving based on death and medical maiming, are rightfully and lawfully numbered.

I'll try saying it again in different words. Some day it might take effect. Once again the statistic of 82% miscarriage rate in pregnant women vaccinated in the first trimester of pregnancy is quoted. This is a nonsense figure. The study ran from mid Dec 2020 to end March 2021. The criterion for the preliminary analysis published in April 2021 was pregnancies that had completed. For people given the Covid jab in the first trimester, the earliest they could have become pregnant is September 2020.

So the maximum length of a completed pregnancy for a woman "vaccinated" in the first trimester was 6 months, and mostly it would have been less than that. Of course most of those completed pregnancies would have resulted in death of the foetus because they were all premature ending of pregnancy. At the time of the preliminary analysis most of the women vaccinated in the first trimester WERE STILL PREGNANT and therefore were not counted in the analysis. You cannot legitimately claim any figure for miscarriage rates until ALL PREGNANCIES HAD COMPLETED. And that would not have been until August 2021.

Dr Mercola, every time you use this 82% miscarriage figure you are providing misinformation which makes you a legitimate target of the people pushing these "vaccines". We need honest champions telling the truth about the vaccines, not people who twist statistics to send a message that supports their own position and in so doing perpetrate the same crimes as the other side. PLEASE desist - we need you to be honest in everything you present..
