Many have written about the liberal bias of PBS and NPR over the years, particularly when it relates to the news and news talk shows. Almost all media bias charts put both government (at all levels) and the private sector in roughly equal amounts. Approximately 75% of the CPB's funding goes to public television, while 25% goes to public radio. About 70% of funding for local NPR stations comes from government sources. This in and of itself is astounding. How can over a half billion dollars a year from the US government go to supporting left-wing media organizations?

In fact, by almost all accounts, PBS and NPR have moved further to the left during the Biden years.

Since then, PBS and NPR have spiraled out of control. Let's look at a few examples of just how extreme these media giants have become; Social justice 'refers to the fair and equitable distribution of resources, opportunities, and privileges within a society" - which is otherwise known as socialism or Marxism, has become a touchstone for PBS news. They even have a webpage highlighting their offerings on the subject. PBS Live TV that explores how artists relate their music to societal issues and their own lived experiences. Again, another progressive and socialist vision for America.

Additionally, PBS has a virtual classroom for teaching about social justice -with the subject matter geared toward elementary and high schools. If this was a private corporation, they could do what they wished with their programming. But PBS alone receives 431 million dollars each year from the US government, and this money is being spent on brainwashing our youth to become socialists. Socialism, by its very

Our founding fathers and great American politicians are the heroes we and our children need for our time. Progressive ideology, CRT, and social justice theory are used to teach even the youngest children. Sesame Street is one such example. Rather than focus on literacy, STEM, or life skills, Sesame Street delves into progressive issues. Sometimes, it becomes cringeworthy. Circling back to Congress and President Trump - it is time to cut the cord. End the government funding of the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB) once and for all.
