How British Spies "Seed the Internet With False Info, Control YouTube Pageviews and Manipulate Online Polls"

Submitted by Mike Krieger of Liberty Blitzkrieg blog,

Thanks to Edward Snowden, we now have proof about an incredible set of tools used by the British equivalent of the NSA, known as the GCHQ, or Government Communications Headquarters. These tools will essentially confirm every single conspiracy theory you could have ever imagined when it comes to propaganda on the Internet. It allows British intelligence officers to: "manipulate the results of online polls, artificially inflate pageview counts on web sites, 'amplify' sanctioned messages on YouTube, and censor video content judged to be 'extremist.'"

Being the creative folks that they are, GCHQ even came up with code words to describe each "product." These include, UNDERPASS (for poll manipulation), SILVERLORD (for censorship), GESTATOR (for the manipulation of YouTube views), PREDATORS FACE (for DDOS attacks), the list goes on...

Glenn Greenwald writes at The Intercept that:

The secretive British spy agency GCHQ has developed covert tools to seed the internet with false information, including the ability to manipulate the results of online polls, artificially inflate pageview counts on web sites, "amplify" sanctioned messages on YouTube, and censor video content judged to be "extremist." The capabilities, detailed in documents provided by NSA whistleblower Edward Snowden, even include an old standby for pre-adolescent prank callers everywhere: A way to connect two unsuspecting phone users together in a call.

The tools were created by GCHQ's Joint Threat Research Intelligence Group (JTRIG), and constitute some of the most startling methods of propaganda and internet deception contained within the Snowden archive. Previously disclosed documents have detailed JTRIG's use of "fake victim blog posts," "false flag operations," "honey traps" and psychological manipulation to target online activists, monitor visitors to WikiLeaks, and spy on YouTube and Facebook users.

GCHQ refused to provide any comment on the record beyond its standard boilerplate, in which it claims that it acts "in accordance with a strict legal and policy framework" and is subject to "rigorous oversight." But both claims are questionable.

Several GCHQ memos published last fall by The Guardian revealed that the agency was eager to keep its activities secret not to protect national security, but because "our main concern is that references to agency practices (ie, the scale of interception and deletion) could lead to damaging public debate which might lead to legal challenges against the current regime."

This last line is of crucial importance. The entire point of spying has nothing to do with terrorism, but as many of us have suspected, it is all about protecting and maintaining the status quo.

Oh, and just in case these products aren't enough fascism for you, no need to fret. We learn that:

And JTRIG urges its GCHQ colleagues to think big when it comes to internet deception: "Don't treat this like a catalogue. If you don't see it here, it doesn't mean we can't build it."

So next time you question the number of views on a certain video, or your website experiences a DDOS attack, there may be an intel officer at the other end of the line with a giant sign saying "fuck you mate."

0 When I was a young man, I learned how to make 3-dimensional mirror glass pictures using layers of masking tape, a reverse-drawing of a picture plotted and graphed, and a glass-beading machine. I would cut out the 'deepest' layers of the drawing first with an exacto knife, lightly glass-bead the back, and progress thusly in steps. I topped it off by using spray engine enamels and a fine paint brush to add color and realism to the 3-d artwork. I made several of these (getting free mirror getting the mirror glass cut to size from the friend that ran the glass shop next door to the engine machine shop I managed). I had a coffee table that took three panes of glass that were removable, and when parties were thrown (4 or 5 days out of seven, it seemed) I would substitute them at random. My most popular one was the 'Coca-Cola' artwork script design complete with the swoosh (and the two grooves cut on the face, convenient for metered dosages of the favorite inhalants of choice by simply taking the pile and swooping it over the grooves with a blade).

My BEST one by far was the 'High Times' Bomber. The GREEN B-17, complete with open bomb-bay doors, looked quite remarkable. Better, with a triple-beam and a pile of green shit on top.

THIS was about the time when National Lampoon was still a good underground magazine.

They were 'P.C.d' early on, though, and the PTB bought them out and have been fooling people ever since.

Zippy the Pinhead... that was a GREAT character!

"Stalin & Orwell would be proud."

No. Stalin and Orwell would now be INSANELY JEALOUS!

(This is not an endorsement for the experimentation, usage, or consumption of any substance deemed 'illegal' by local, state, federal, or regional authorities; nor is it an admission of any actions which are currently deemed 'illegal'. This post in no way indicates that such events or actions took place or are taking place, or will take place in the future by me or anyone that I ever associated with, associate with currently, or will associate with in the future. references to 'High Times' magazine and 'National Lampoon' magazine are made under common public domain law, and in no way implicate them in any way for encouraging such activity as described. Reality: What a concept! Be thankful that your dog is finally getting enough cheeze.

NSA, GHQ, MI6, and LIKUD: You are a fluke of the universe, and have no right to be here; and whether you believe it or not, the universe is laughing behind your back; YOU, the illuminists who insist upon trolling and collecting every keystroke for prosecution of 'futurecrime' are a pathetic joke to the people!

If you want to take out that complex you need a heavy round (to pierce the structure) loaded with whatever takes your fancy (there are lots of choices depending on your lab skills, but with the right instruction manuals you can make simple nerve gases, biotoxins and other fun stuff).

second that motion given that there is no excuse to have a downed

Internet right now and Z/H is not the only site. There is a heavy concentration of PSYOPS on Internet social media right now. The Ops are BIG and there is obviously a keen interest in running ops for the downed plane propaganda that the CIA is running all over the Internet.

The NSA and the CIA are latently childish in their purile antics that they choose to use against dissent. Like children they soon get bored when people are not mystified any longer and know that it is a childish prankster behind the antics. The NSA passes around hacked photos of American citizens and that is the sort of thing that children and infants engage in. Their behaviour is regressive and not appropriate for individuals that have matured past the stage of infantile behaviours.

The Internet houses a level of maturity that the NSA and CIA are ill prepared to understand because they are inherently regressive and immature. This is why they resort to such immature antics to prevent the population from communicating. Like children they cannot control the discourse so they throw a tantrum to disrupt the adults from conversation. Any parent knows what their children do when they demand attention out of frustration. The same holds for the CIA and the NSA cohorts of childlike soldiers.

The foregoing is a perfect example of a GCHQ "DUPLICATOR" attack in which an ordinary post is reposted multiple times to consume bandwidth, wear out eyeballs, embarrass the original poster and make everyone think he /she is a consummate dork.

For all the money that we pour into NSA I really think they should host a public porno site so we can all see how our neighbours are getting it on. They want us to be more submissive, so why would these politically savvy people refer to themselves in a way that would make us less submissive?

Instead of referring to themselves as "the current regime", they would have said "current administration" or "elected officials", or what ever is common PR in the UK.

 28 The NSA/GOV play a game claiming a 'higher morality' by saying, "if your not a terrorist, if you have nothing to hide then you have nothing to worry about if we the NSA/GOV watch you", this is how abusers create a Stockholm syndrome from their victims. Telling them its Ok after they have been raped and the victim is usually forced to apologize to the abuser for being difficult and it won't hurt as much next time your raped. It is called conditioning and most folks don't get it. The NSA is a classic criminal syndicate and we all are the victim, our privacy is raped with every keystroke. Clapper lies to Congress, the NSA continues with the approval of the stooges in Washington and then when someone gets busted with some pitiful weed in the wrong state will spend years in jail. We do not have a justice system and the term / name Justice Department is Orwellian. We have a legal system where a criminal can be bought and sold, his or her freedom depends on money and social status, nothing else.

Shooting Down
Airliners | LRC Blog

Tom: The statistis are so desperate to rehabilitate their dead horse that they will exploit every disaster. The ALGorythmic at NASA who suggested, a few years back, that aliens from another solar system might attack and seek to destroy Earth for failing to abide by Gore's "climate change" directives, might be offering today's downing of the Malaysian airliner as evidence the attack is underway. The NASA seer might even explain the missing Malaysian Flight 370 mystery as a warning shot taken against us Earthlings.

The erstwhile CIA official who was so quick to blame the loss of today's Malaysian airliner on Ukranian separatists might inform us how - and by whom - he was so quickly able to get his theory on air at CBS News. Will we next be told that these separatists have "weapons of mass destruction" with which to carry out their murderous deeds? For those who, like the late George Carlin, prefer to engage in that "moronic thing" called "thinking," the possibilities that the plane crashed due to weather, mechanical functions, etc., should be examined. So, too, should intelligent minds consider this to be a possible "false flag" operation. For anyone unfamiliar with how the U.S. government might - the word is "might" - script out such an occurrence, resort might be had to a plan generated by the Joint Chiefs of Staff in the early 1960s to fake the shooting down of an American passenger jet by fake Cuban fighter-planes. Google "Operation Northwoods" and see what lengthy documented details appear!

back their "freedom" and "privacy" so they could butcher their neighbors and live on dirt floors. The British created whatever legal system we have gave us our language but were brutal slave masters in their colonies. Currently Putin has on the Russian ballot a move to rehabilitate Stalin a mass murderer and China is busy stealing every bit of online secrets from USA companies to steal what's left of our jobs having gobbled up Tibet and of course taken every freedom from its own people. So wise up and shut up. Be an adult and live in the real world. The USA is the best option for you to keep you stupid mouth flapping in the breeze. 4 Add to this 06:38 | 4976600
0 outrageous behaviour by GCHQ is that last week the UK Parliament overwhelmingly approved - without scrutiny - a new Bill that Cameron tabled as "an Emergency Bill" which instructs all ISPs and Telcoms to retain records of all calls we make and our Internet activity for at least 12 months. Numerous agencies of The State will have access to the logs. And it's not just metadata that's being captured.

Whilst Cameron and the Home Secretary Theresa May claim this Bill was necessary because of a recent European Court ruling, I believe it was actually intended to retrospectively legalise GCHQ criminal activity which has been going on for a long time anyway.

And, like Mike Krieger, I believe all this spying has virtually nothing to do with anti-terrorism, protecting national security or keeping us safe from anything but is actually to keep us all under surveillance so they get early warning of a revolution coming down the tracks.

And the comment section is, well... not the same as it once was.

0 I'm glad you are our allies. I'm sure you've overcome that whole "loss of empire and decent into an eviscerated characature of your former glory" thing.

As our faithful ally we are comforted by your care for what and how we think. It's like having a Big Brother and we can be secure in your support of the every day man and not Oligarchs, Royalty, or perverted cabals of jaded sadists.

0 Thank you NSA,FBI,TSA,CIA, SEC, MIC, STATE POLICE and my friendly local police all over New Mexico. Doubleplus good!

dream up.

 2 As someone 12:52 | 4977162
0 who has been on the closely watched and monitored list for years even had the guys parked outside my accomadation occasionally (I have no idea why I made the list), you can have fun with these idiots. When calling a friend on skype (and he loves a good conspiracy as much as the next man) you can detect when they are they are intercepting your call as the signal degrades and you get strange background noises just mention that you know they are on the line and you've been f**k**g his missus. The call will be disconnected in seconds.
