"Is Elite Occultism Real?"

DR NAOMI WOLF

There has been a lot of talk about the occult - seeming symbolism, music, art, and spectacle that is appearing all around us. Dr Wolf separates fact from speculation, but explores the real history of Nazi and Masonic elite occultism, and looks at four recent images that seem designed to disorient us: King Charles' portrait, President Biden's 'Dark Brides' speech, the two wives that we told in London, and the Grim Reaper image at the Coronation.

Yes, what you are saying feels right. This reminds me in talking about Harrison Butker. I live in the Kansas City area so my Facebook feed has been nothing but that all week. My husband's best friend's brother is a priest in Kansas so Harrison's pantry packed lunch on her post condemning him. A lot of it might be ill-ill but at least two people I know personally engaged in it. It's like they are programmed to react. Like they are being manipulated to react. I'm not saying that Harrison Butker's speech was perfect, but he is certainly not the devil and he is not a society where a famous person can't speak publicly about his faith and venerate housewives without a hundred thousands people asking for him to be fired from his job. I see the rules of an NFL player brutally knocking out his fiancé and dragging her body off the elevator like a piece of meat, and that didn't get as much condemnation as a man getting choked up over how much he loves and appreciates his wife! What society have we found ourselves in?

Naomi, how about an interview with Archbishop Carlo Maria Viganò? This would provide your audience with an opportunity to hear about the resurgence of Evil from a Christian metaphysical perspective. Much of this material is probably far outside the Overton Window of most of your audience. So, presenting confirmation from multiple, independent sources helps people begin to open their minds to realities that, at first, seem too far-fetched to be taken seriously.

Jesus did specific things and went to specific places to break the bonds the occult had over mankind. His work was a reversal of the separation of man from God.

I also wanted to comment on dark technology. In the natural therapeutics world of energy treatment, I have learned that remote treatments work. I've experimented with them and they do seem to make a difference. However, not even God invades a person, so I ask permission from the person to do a treatment. I've also learned that there are dark and evil side Generations. Then with my interest in government, I've learned that there are evil side persons. These entities are not to be confused with a reflective response. I do ask God to protect me from these entities as well as the illuminati government. The other thing I've learned is Kundalini. It can be used to send specific treatments or remedies to a person remotely. Again, those who practice this have seen consistent effective results. Just as it can be used for good, it can be used to harm others. Evil is not a respecter of our personal space. Evil invades, accesses, tempts, and harms. When God approached Moses, He called out from the burning bush. Moses had to respond. Had he not, the relationship would not have been created. Jesus was the sacrificial lamb spoken about in Isaiah 53 and was a plan that was in place before the foundation of the world and its part of a larger spiritual battle between good and evil that transcends time and space and our physical universe. The blood of Christ sets us free from our bondage to this present evil age and from whatever Hell is Satan (to use the name of his domain) has brought the blood of Christ the enemy is defeated. But it's guilt that cannot be given unless we receive Him into our lives. Jesus is the only way to the Father. Jesus is the only way to Heaven. Jesus is the only way that sin can be stopped every time by casting protection under the blood of Christ. His name is J.A.Mancini. You don't have to agree or believe what he says, but he cannot be written off as a kook. He is a national human being who has done a considerable amount of research on this issue. We get brainwashed in our public schools to believe that we live in a purely materialistic universe. This is part of the plan for ultimate control because there are those who are able to use unhindered dark spiritual type technologies against us. Fear especially the fear of death, hate, desire for revenge, the love of money, gluttony, selfishness, egocentrism are all tools of the enemy that are used against us to create chaos, suffering and control. Jesus challenged us to not fear more than anything else, and to love and trust God and love others. There are only two Kingdoms, the Kingdom of Our Creator, and the Kingdom of Satan. We have to choose which Kingdom we want to be part of.

I like the way you put it, "not even God invades a person." Satan slithers in and breaks in. God asks to be invited in if we open the door. Christ fills us with His Spirit, like Pentecost. And yes, it's a spiritual battle, and it's real.

Satan asks for permission also, it's why we call them 'seducing spirits'

Its mistaken to make such a comparison. Seduction by its very definition is not "asking permission." Its deception for the purpose of leading a person to an ungodly end. This has nothing to do with the ways of our Creator. It has everything to do with the ways of Satan.

Well said. And I truly appreciate your last statement on the two Kingdoms. Satan the prince of earth was cast down to the Kingdom we humans live in. Hence why Jesus did not bow down to worship him at the very temptation.

Whatever earth-centric thought that Aquinas adopted and modified was not that which is accepted as full scripture and ultimate importance. Instead it was only one sphere removed from Hell. The spiritual dialectic realm was several spheres above us. In Biblical Theology, Earth was created for the purpose of the Creator living with His Creation. Earth was given to human beings to be its stewards. However, our world was sold to the extravagances of Satan and human failure to trust their Creator, which introduced a corrupting influence on all of Creation and on human beings. However, a plan was in place before the creation of the world to redeem humanity and this world from the enemy. However, the plan of redemption requires from us to choose which of the two Kingdoms we want to be part of. Through Christ, the Kingdom of God has broken into this present evil age. The place we live in is a mingling of the two Kingdoms. Both offer a promise for what is to come. One offers death, destruction, misery, suffering and profound separation from all that is good. The other offers life, truth, justice, love, beauty, peace and mercy.

Have you ever read the writings of Venerable Mary d' Agreda, namely, The Mystical City of God? Written in 1645 but not published until much later? She wrote about what you just out here in your comments.

I know about her. I have not read her books. She appeared to the natives just a few miles south of where I live. There are homes in the area that still have fences and window shutters painted in blue in honor of the Lady in Blue that appeared to the natives. The Lady in Blue is also mentioned in the Catholic Movement Saint Vitt they have her feasts. She is considered a Marian apparition. A humble wood carved statue of a beautiful young lady in blue. As I looked at her, its as the her eyes, her wood carved eyes became alive. It really took me back. I did not know who she was supposed to represent. I thought maybe an angel. But she then spoke to me and told me that she was sorry that I had to go through the things I was going through. That turned me into a basket case for the remainder of the day. It was the first time in my life that I had been seen by God. I have gone back a few times months later. She is never there. I have been told that she appeared to the natives at the site of the mine. She is the owner of the mine and that is the church. So its really quite amazing to me that you would bring her up.

Wow! How amazing and what a blessing. I just visited all the San Antonio Missions in December and I have been planning to go to Santa Fe and Chimayo this year. I didn't know there was a place called where "Our Mama" (Sister) appeared but it makes sense they would come there because Where is they place so I can visit it? I might want to go there! I know she met with the Jumano tribe and shared the Gospel, and then they spread this knowledge to other tribes and later Franciscan missionaries found that they had already received the Gospel. Is that true? Is that why the Jumano tribe disappeared when I went to Texas because I knew they were there?

There's a biography about her by Marilyn H. Fatland called "Maria of Agreda Mystical Lady in Blue" (available from the Scuttlebutt Indian Trading Post in Albuquerque). Fatland says that Maria was a Franciscan nun of the Mystical City of God available from Tan Books, if you don't want to read the full 4 volumes. She received information about Creation in her communications beyond the veil, which is in her writings. I think you would probably want all 4 volumes. (They have the rejuvenation of the Church and are described "worthy of belief" although Christians aren't required to believe it.)

Just went there to all three missions last Saturday. Its all very interesting. She appeared to three folks and for 6 years they went every year to the mission as latela asking to be baptized. They didn't get baptized because there were too many and not enough priests. Eventually they did and it was asked why they kept asking. They told them about the Lady in Blue. From the NPS Website: "While in New Mexico, Sor Maria reported that she had visited the Jumano Indians, encouraging them to visit the Spanish missions to ask that a missionary return with them to their pueblos and villages. By 1626, reports from New Mexico were relaying stories of Indians from distant pueblos who had visited the friars. They had come to be taught and to speak to the priests at these missions. One location said to have been visited by this "Lady in Blue" was the pueblo of Las Humanas, now known as Gran Quivira. She was also reported to have repeatedly "visited" a group of refugee Jumanos near the mission of Guadal- (Guarai). With the arrival of additional missionaries in 1629, Gran Quivira became a visita (satellite mission without a resident Father) of the Abó Mission. Meanwhile, Fray Alonso de Benavides, Custodian of New Mexico, returned to Spain bringing his report (or memorial) of the Franciscan labors in New Mexico. While in Spain Benavides met with King Philip IV and Pope Urban VIII in Rome. The following year the Spanish royal family's New Mexico Benavides met with Sor Maria in Agreda for three weeks, confirming that she was indeed the "Lady in Blue." An expanded report was presented to Pope Urban VIII in 1634. The following year the Spanish inquisition (my note: which was Fray Alonso de Benavides) visited Sor Maria (for two weeks) and found nothing to discredit her story and writings. In 1643 Sor Maria is visited by King Felipe IV and they begin a 22 year correspondence. Following her death in 1665, the beatification process began in 1673 by Pope Clemente X, who declared Sor Maria a "Venerable," but the process for her canonization has yet to be completed.

A resurgence in interest in the story of Maria de Agreda following her 400th birthday in 2002 has recently brought added interest in Gran Quivira, Quarai, and Abó, and the town of Mountainair. New Mexico Plains by the Manzano Mountains Arts Council for a public mural in Mountainair featuring Sor Maria are soon to be unveiled.

Wonderful. Now I really want to go. When I visited the San Antonio Missions the NPS ranger told methe reason they have five Missions so close to each other is because so many Native people kept showing up asking to be baptized (and to live behind the walls of the mission for protection). They had to keep building more Missions, which are just 5 minutes apart by car. All are still active parishes.

I meant to add, I think The Lady In Blue had something to do with this because word spread among the tribes, and she created the bluebells.

The person staffing the bookstore at the monument told me they have a pilgrimage every year to the location she showed up. The priest or one of the parishioners at the churches in Tinnon or Tajique might know. There is no one there except when they have services so I've never been able to ask myself.

Perhaps the delineation is explained in Gen 1:27 and Gen 2:7? We were created in, 1:27 but then there was a breathing in 2:7. Maybe it's not so much that this is 'hell', as it is that we are not in our natural habitat ?

There is One life, one true genesis of all things. We live in a world of polarity, a bifurcation at split in the fabric of the original plane and world. Energy is neutral and it is the molder of that energy with intent that changes the direction and outcome from thought to action. Evil is real. It is the perversion of the original Light. It is the counterfeit of the original Creation upon humanity. All rituals create a Portal of sorts to that energy source. It is very deep and through or evil to be made manifest. In our age it's the Alchimanic or technological predilection of evil as relayed by Rudolf Steiner. Interesting that it's a Rosicrucian, the blood of Christ or the blood of satanic ritual. The mystery is in the blood and it's about DNA, perhaps bloodlines.

Your talk brings up a couple of things for me. "The Most Dangerous Book in the World" author S.K. Bain reveals the truth behind the mass-murdering psychopaths responsible for the events of September 11, 2001 and reconstructs the occult-driven script for this Global Luciferian Megaritual. As Bain uncovers, the framework for the entire event was a psychological warfare campaign built upon a deadly foundation of black magic and high technology. The book details the sinister nature of the defining event of the 21st century and explains the vast scope of the machinery of oppression that has been constructed around us. Also, the whole ritual during Covid of keeping us social distancing was a global occultic ritual designed to shift humanity from being under God to being under the dominion of the Luciferian Illuminati government. Also, the use of the word pandemic. Social distancing thwarts our ability to sense each other's heart fields that can be felt everywhere from 6 to 8 feet. It also prevents us from being able to see what was in each other's heart.

I was thinking on the skies floating around of 'zero carbon'. We are carbon based. If you look at the periodic table the element just before carbon, that shares some of its properties is silicon. Computers and AI are based around the silicon chip. When you read descriptions of Satan in the Bible (I'm thinking of Genesis 3 and Ezekiel 28) they speak of the serpent, the cherubim, precious gemstones and that one often silicon-based. "They read in Eden, the garden of God, every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, the topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created." Satan is described as the anointed cherub that covers. He is the guardian of the throne of God. He is the one who walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. He is the one who was perfect in his ways from the day he was created, till iniquity was found in him. He is the one who was lifted up because of his beauty, who corrupted his wisdom by reason of his brightness. He is the one who was cast as profane out of the mountain of God, and destroyed by the cherub from the midst of the stones of fire. He is the one who defiled his sanctuaries by the multitude of his iniquities, by the iniquity of his traffick. He is the one who was cast to the ground, that did lay low the nations! And this sealed in thy heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my seat like the Most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit. Those who see thee shall gaze at thee, they shall consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms? It is amazing to ponder these ideas.

There you so much for this discussion. I also read Return of the Gods and was absolutely dumbstruck by the truth presented. Once you see it, you can't unsee it. God has granted me discernment times and time again and rescued me from evil and for this I am eternally grateful. Please prayers on behalf of my children, Ex Christians, we have access to the mighty power of Jesus by claiming it in his name. He has defeated death but we still battle in this world.

We do not need to fear but we do need to be aware.

For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.

Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm.

I really enjoy your commentary. I think we are always getting signs from a higher source, some come as warnings. Do you watch and look at what the pole threw and the pick four numbers were for Illinois, Obama's home state, the day after Obama won the presidency for his first term. It explains a lot.

I have read almost every one of Jonathan Cahn's books. They are like a modern day Apocalyptic for Washington and the Oracle. We are definitely in a battle of good vs evil. I have family that was killed in the Holocaust. I recently discovered letters from friend family members sent to my Grandmother living in South Carolina at the time. I don't think these letters would have had the impact they have on me today if I had discovered them earlier. I think of these once nameless family members often as I see history repeating itself. I wrote an unpublished book about my family and all that is going on now politically and spiritually. I am a Christian. I am a Jew. I am a descendant of Holocaust survivors, Confederate soldiers, antisemitism, always follows. What terrifies me most is that I usually ignorant. I am going my book to whoever will listen. I don't know what else to do but to warn others. Too many are asleep and don't see the evil all our doorstep. Time is running out. The more we learn and understand of we get out of the darkness or fall further into the abyss. Your insightful words which I share with others helps tremendously! Thank you!

Ellen, your comment gave me goosebumps. My mother was a Holocaust survivor who grew up in Poland and lost most of her family in the war. She passed away 20 years ago. Last month, I received an email from a woman in Poland, a retired professor, who had been doing research and was interested in my mother. Another Polish woman had found a book I lying on the street and contacted the Department of Physics. I had written my mother's name in it. I have since received articles from the Ukrainian archives, antisemitism always follows. What terrifies me most is that I usually ignorant. I am

My mother was born in 1915, the book that was found was inscribed to my mother in 1937 when she was 12 years old. It was awarded to her by her professor in recognition of having written the best paper in her class. I have the book in front of me as I write this. I have been told that I have the same curiosity by a woman with an interest in genealogy who just happened to know of my Facebook group where there just happened to be a professor who had the skills set to begin searching. The professor had only my mother's maiden name to go on and, somehow, a century later, living in another country with a different last name, she managed to find me. The book is now in my possession and it's the only thing I have of my mother's from her life in Poland before the war.

Coincidentally, my mother's book appeared from out of nowhere the same week I published my own book which I had been working on for several years. And there are people who don't believe in God...

Dr Naomi Wolf Thanks. Jonathan Cahn explains the return of the ancient deities—a theme that you are so clearly engaged in—from the perspective of archetypal psychology. More specifically, I identify the role that Judaism played in caging the Beast by suppressing the energies which sustained the chthonic deities. Christianity is the prize the Jews pay for their success as the Beast thrashes in the collective consciousness striving to exact revenge.

Thank you, Dr. Naomi. There was no NO question but that the veil is being lifted so that all who are called may see - & realize that the world they thought they lived in was never the real world, after all. I see such a similar change in Tucker Carlson as I see Dr. Naomi Wolf in, too!

Jerichohaircut has been exposed as blatantly that only the blind REFUSE to see - while those w/ "eyes to see" have been seeing the Truth unfolding before our eyes for a long time. (Matt. 13:13-16) The truth is, because they realize the load is THE only one that really matters - & because they care for their fellow man - they have tirelessly discussed this restitution of various "spiritual warfare" as they try, stumble, but continue to get a handle on what is really going on. Seventeen years ago I, too, came to believe in the God of the Bible through the obvious realization of the dark forces that were skewing themselves in every area of our lives. I thank God for this gift. Ignorance is NOT bliss. In fact, it's deadly to ur eternal soul. I look forward to watching e-continue ur journey. I can state emphatically that the Old and New Testament are TRUE - and can be proven beyond any shadow of a doubt! Though written by chosen men, it has been clearly inspired by God's Holy Spirit because the message comes from outside our space-time continuum - by telling us "the end from the beginning". (This is done over & over & over again with such precision that the "work" has worked extremely hard to hide that fact from us. Great comment. The Holy Bible is God's word and the one truth we must know and count on. It is not just a book but it transforms the sinful mind of man into a holy disciple of Jesus and a Godly person by the power of God. It builds a person's faith in God and supplies answers to our every need. When we know God from His word, we love Him! When we love God we will obey His commands. Then God blesses us. It is simple and needful because man is doomed to sin and death but God sent Jesus to redeem people from this. Jesus came to save us from our sins.

When I was growing up my mother was very dedicated to raising the four of us kids as Roman Catholic from baptism to confirmation. She always told us we were a part of the greatest religion and don't ever allow anyone to take you from it. As years have gone by, there have been fewer and fewer churchgoers at my parish. Kids are no longer interested as Great Gathering Christians with a sense of mission and knowing right from wrong. I believe this has created a huge void and has allowed these evil elites to take over many institutions of power but because of implementation of Agenda 21 our society it has allowed them to use this weakness to gain more tyrannical power. When I look at Joe Biden I see a weak, perverted loser that has manipulated everyone around him his own daughter when she was only eleven. Between that and what he did to Tara Reed we must call out absolute evil when we see it. What is very difficult for me is how and why some have all of these characteristics stripped away, taken power and protection this predictable. Im not in love with Donald Trump but Ronald Reagan isn't walking through that door and Trump is the only one we have so I will support him. Anti-American? Maybe - maybe not. There has been a lot of people that have persecuted him for no legitimate reason will lift all of us up to fight this satanic evil back. ✝️❤️🙏

I LIKE I did watch the entire video you posted. It's disgraceful what went on in the Catholic Church. I live outside of Boston and when these truths began to finally come out years ago, Cardinal Law was Archdiocese here. He was one of the despicable persons of power that was covering up child rape in the church and moving the pedophiles around to spread the molestations to other areas. He was moved himself to the Vatican and not to long ago died there.

I was lucky I had two great parents that were very protective of us kids, especially my father. I couldn't go to the doctor without him being in the room which honestly I didn't have a problem with. I had a friend Gene C. that wasn't so lucky. A priest at Catholic Memorial High School in West Roxbury MA, was the hockey coach there raped Gene in a hotel room at an away game. I now don't consider the building "the church" as a necessary place to go to participate in my religion. For me it happens when I try to help someone, compliment people, or trying to influence people to see the evils that are happening and fight back against them. The church isn't my religion by to live it, and I'm certainly not perfect at all.

It does seem like it's time for this information to be delivered to the masses! People are stepping into questioning more and more and, hopefully, they find the right words that shock them the way to be in the light! I think when there is a pandemic that is delivered it needs to be coupled with a solution, no matter how small...And negative needs to be met with a positive!

I believe that prayer is very powerful, meditation and healing practices that are based in love and light.

My offering is some thing I used to do when I was an elementary school teacher. When I was trying to figure out how to help a particular student I would ask for help from God every morning at 7 AM. Eventually, there was a shift, I was either given a book, or read an article or came across a video that seemed to work and help the situation with this child.

Sometimes I would ask for help from teachers that I would trust. We would make an agreement to send out a little prayer at 7 AM for this child. 7 AM in the morning was just a time that worked in the busy life of a teacher that is prepping for the day.

My offering here is that if we as a small group be the pebble in the pond that reverberates out in prayer and focus on our world and humanity...It might spread like the concentric circles from a stone tossed into the pond.

At 12-3-6-9 AM/PM take a moment for prayer/meditation/silence for our healing and survival!

I put this on my business card and maybe some have taken the time. I am thinking with your audience maybe this could be done on a grander scale. I believe this to be very powerful, especially, with many many people. Little lights all over the world will make our earth shine in the universe.

Blessed be and thank you for being brave and speaking the truth!!

Please try the Rosary, it's very powerful, especially in doing Catholic "meditation" (which just means thinking deeply, using your imagination to put yourself in the situation) on the mysteries in the life of Jesus & His Mother Mary that are the focus of the Rosary, such as the Nativity of Jesus or the Crucifixion. May the Lord bless and guide you and your loved ones!

Another direct hit. I understand what you mean about not personifying. The mandates—love God, love your neighbor, and go make disciples—have no room for the likes of Torquemada, and we must always condemn inquisition. Christ said, "I stand at the door and knock," the rarely imposes Himself on anyone.

Nonetheless, we're in the thick of overt spiritual warfare for literal bodies and souls. Evil "prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour." We desperately need Joshuas and Calebs, Nazirs, if I may, you have the imaginative and keep pressing yourself hardest. Let's call Satan "Satan" and God Jesus Christ." God Himself on our side. We are the Body of Christ. No one, and certainly not the timidly sensitive trying to occupy middle ground, can stand against us. "Whoever acknowledges me before others, I will also acknowledge before my Father in heaven." Let's claim that promise and get on with the battle.

Dr. Wolf mentions that the most murderous regime in history is Nazi Germany. In Aleksander Solzhenitsyn's "Warning to the West," it includes his three speeches to the United States in the summer of 1975. Solzhenitsyn wrote, "Forty years earlier Dostoevsky had predicted that socialism would cost Russia 100 million victims. At the time it seemed an improbable figure. Let me ask the British press to acquaint its readers with the impartial three-page report of the Russian statistician Prokhorov Ivan Kurganov. It was published in the West twelve years ago, but, so is so often the case with matters of social significance, we only notice things that are not contradictory to our own feelings. From Professor Kurganov's analysis, we learn that if Dostoevsky erred, he erred on the side of moderation. From 1917 to 1959 socialism took the Soviet Union 110 million lives" (p. 129).

Atheistic Marxist communism killed more worldwide than Nazism or any other form of fascism in the 20th century (e.g. Holodomor, the Great Purge, the Great Chinese Famine). A few lines down from there in the Wiki article: "Duranty moved to Paris, where he met Alexander Crosetsky, and participated in magic rituals with him. The papacy runs the world and the jesuits run the papacy. You have to go back into history much further and study the Protestant Reformation and the whole bible especially prophecy. Everything is done to keep all eyes off Rome since in the Reformation the seat of the papacy was exposed as the antichrist which it is. All Christians know this is the antichrist system. The universe dumbing down through fears and false teaching, almost no one knows, although some do know, the pope is sitting on the throne, calling himself, God on earth...2Thessalonians 2 The most dangerous thing is not knowing that the pope is the antichrist for it allows him and his followers to continue to devour the whole world, as he has done for centuries.

Bible prophecy is of no private interpretation, 2Peter1:20, or man-made interpretation, Isaiah28:10. Instead, prophecy, when it is true and that takes a massive understanding of the bible and history to see if it's fulfillment. The pope was exposed as the antichrist in their Protestant Reformation but very few know any history of the Reformation so they do not know that Christians knew this for centuries before all the crazy jesuit lies took hold to confuse and deceive Christians with no knowledge. My people perish for lack of knowledge. Hosea4:6. Francis is the pope, and a jesuit. The pope is the seat of the antichrist which the jesuits have rule over. The INCC papacy has deceived the whole world as to what it is. And you have to speculate. I have told you what the bible and history says. It would take a voluminous comment to prove it.

King James was a satanist and gay, his bible is a mistranslation. I consider anything after the death of Christ a manipulation. As a professional linguist I am partially aware of the crucial importance of accuracy in translations and manipulations. The earliest bible is preserved in Greek, from 350BC. The Latin version is manipulated, the Torah is from 1st century after Christ also, and even the Geneva Bible was outlawed by the Vatican, sending massive number of Christians to the US, because they'd kill u if they caught u w Tindale's Bible.

This is an ancient Nephilim Cult originating before the Great Flood. The Catholic Church has been demonic from the start. Just look at the statistic in the Vatican place, it's the pens of Osiris, Christians do NOT worship pentens, the occult does.

Which bible and which translation is crucial here, I have told me nothing new

Jesus was NOT a Jew. The word 'Jew' is a modern term, often misused

Odd way to split linguistic hairs. "Judean" comes from the Latin "Iudaeus," which means "Jew" or "Judean." This Latin term referred to the inhabitants of the region of Judea during the Roman time. Over time, it entered into English through various linguistic channels, retaining its association with the geographical area and its inhabitants. The term "Judean" refers to someone or something related to the region of Judea (or the people who inhabited it). The etymology of "Judean" is directly tied to the name of the region itself, which in turn is derived from the tribe of Judah.

According to the New Testament, Jesus was born into the lineage of King David, who was from the tribe of Judah. He and his male followers were circumcised, kept the Law of Moses, and I'm sure the word "Jew" is derived from the word "Judean" from the tribe of Judah. Jesus was not normally a Judean and therefore a Jew. No serious scholar would dispute this historic fact.

The term "Jew" ultimately derives from the Hebrew word "Yehudi," which means "from the tribe of Judah." The tribe of Judah was one of the twelve tribes of Israel, named after Jacob's fourth son, Judah. In Hebrew, the term "Yehudi" came to refer to anyone who was a member of the Jewish people, regardless of their tribal ancestry.

https://www.etymonline.com/word/Jew late 12c., Giw, Iew, "a Jew (ancient or modern), one of the Jewish race or religion," from Anglo-French Iuu, Old French Juu (Modern French Juif), from Latin Iudaeum (nominative Iudaeus), from Greek Ioudaios, from Aramaic (Semitic) Yehudhai (Hebrew Yehudi "a Jew," from Yehudah "Judah," the name of Jacob's fourth son, namesake of the tribe and of the tribe descended from him.

1 reply 1 like Share

Black Pill News Black Pill News · May 21

Not an odd way but an accurate way. Take circumcision, which was originally used to mean taking things out of an anal, NOT cutting your body. It makes logical sense God doesn't need humans to 'fix' his creation, original Christians did not circumcise, only manipulated cult circumcisions like the talmudic push for that. Nobody in my maternity orthodox country circumcises, it is an abomination.

So just an example on how manipulation of texts work. Same w Jesus. The Judeans/Israelis are NOT what the Hebrew/Israelites are. Rothschilds and Rockefellers call 'jews'. The word 'jews' does NOT mean Judean, it's a manipulation of the word 'jews' for the purpose of manipulation. Just how covid injections / not real vaccines are.

Also, Moses appears in HORNS in ancient artworks, but not Jacob., take that as a wish.

Linguistics is my specialty, etymology and correct / we splitting for the purpose of historical accuracy is crucial.

The earliest holy text is the Septuagint, preserved in Greek and Aramaic, any later Hebrew or Latin are re-translations.

Derived does not mean equal. Judeans were not 'jews', they were Judeans

The Greek word "Ioudaios" is translated as both "Judean" and "Jew" in the New Testament. For example:

John 3:22

https://biblehub.com/interlinear/john/3-22.htm

Matthew 2:2

https://biblehub.com/interlinear/matthew/2-2.htm

John 4:9

https://biblehub.com/interlinear/john/4-9.htm

Acts 10:28

https://biblehub.com/interlinear/acts/10-28.htm

Romans 1:16

https://biblehub.com/interlinear/romans/1-16.htm

Galatians 2:28

https://biblehub.com/interlinear/galatians/2-28.htm

Also, a first century writer called Josephus used the word in his writings to refer to a Jew. I'm sure you know that the Jews of today in modern Israel are not the same people as Jesus in the Hebrew Bible or Esther 2:5 and was around and in common use during the time of Jesus and when the New Testament was penned in the first century. I also have an advanced degree in linguistics.

Judean means Judean, the term "jew" is a modern creation and has broad an interpretation. There have been countless re-writes of ancient texts and meanings and replacing of terms. As linguists we know that is an extremely manipulative and deceptive tactic.

The word 'jew' is used to replace Judean in all texts now, just how the covid shot is called a vaccine, it is NOT.

Also,even the King James translation is satanic because king James was a satanist. He was also gay, thus, at a time, a Luciferian, NOT a christian. His translation is famous for manipulations, before the word 'jew' was even invented, for example.

The Khazarian mafia like the Rothschilds etc, converted to Judaism in the 7th c or so, again just as an example, and there was a migration to the ancient Judea that changed the ethnic background, they / NOT original Judeans, neither / any of their cronies called the State of Israel today.

Anybody can be a 'jew' who chooses, and furthermore, alchemists / not original Judeans, if we r talking bloodlines, is my point. Doesn't make anybody bad, there just a clear historical distinction.

However the Rothchilds & their cronies ARE evil, highly cultist and clear devil worshippers.

Subliminal messaging has been used since the 60ties - visible and invisible - by putting images behind another image (CIA like ex. Monica picture) and the like!! This age is revealing all the manipulation and with this helping us to regain our awareness and guide it towards eternal truth. We are spiritual beings. What does that mean we are eternal! We are not here to anchor it in truth that is not changing. Call it wisdom or love. That is why reading spiritual powerful messaging every day is so important. To have an anchor in truth and joy. And never to be afraid. Love finds a way. Gods makes the way and God gives all to those who connect to HIM.

There are several many lies in March 2020 what was already going on - and found the Event 201 that at the time a young man called Spiro published! I knew instantly that we were being manipulated. Knowing how dangerous vaccines are then realising that Bill Gates had a indictment by the Indian government for injuring and murdering young girls in India - reaching through the prosecution case I checked out Bill Gates and found that he did a "lesson with Professor Mckenney". I knew I saw his psycho - on Easter 2020 on the most secret day in the Christian faith she did a knock-out that curled my blood - it was heinous, perverted and abysmal to say the least. I had to turn it off. But I knew that this is what he had in plan for humanity once I realised he was the conductor behind the Event 201. Then I realised that the Rockefeller foundation had the Event 201 and many more images I have not seen, but if anything I saw this was a satanic ritual.

I'm not confident in "rituals" they are worked on when concentrated energy goes into prayer or a pure ceremony in India, or Christian service or Native American Sundance ritual... It is the mind-body-spirit connection that is powerful and either loving or not. Every culture has some wonderful ways to connect to God.

At the end of my day: The only power that will help us is to forgive and bless and most of all love

I do not believe that Jesus was the Messiah but it's well worth exploring more deeply. The ancient Judaism was part of the tapestry of late private colleges but also our many of our Founding Fathers were Freemasons. You can't get more "secret society" than that! In fact, many of the building in Washington DC have a pagan component most notable the Capitol building and the Washington Monument. It was created to mimic the Saturn and the Egyptian God Ra's obelisk. Saturn is Cronos! It is St. Peter's square and which he had exorcised so it was fit to be in such a revered and holy Christian setting. But why bring pagan artifacts at all? What does that have to with the Roman Catholic church and the papacy which is the successor to St. Peter and the Vicar of Christ on earth? Some say it is a message and warning about the Vatican and the Egyptian God of Death and Cronos namely Isis, Osiris and Horus. Did you know the Washington Monument is the tallest obelisk of its kind in the world? In ancient times the obelisk represented an erect male organ. Also the measurement of it is 6,666 inches tall and 666 ft. Along each side of the base. Hmmm...

In this last episode there was something that did not feel right to me about the way you tied paganism and other non-monotheistic religions to Satanism. Many religions including paganism see God in nature and in Deities. The last episode feels as though you are saying that Paganism and other non monotheistic religions are Satanic. If I am correct on how I am hearing you I would like to say that from my own personal experience this is not true. That is not to say that there may be members or groups of people among any spiritual path or Religion that are influenced by Dark forces and that would include Christianity (i.e. the crusades). The idea that there is only one God I think is true and is the same God that all religions find, worship. I also think that the one God can be seen in many forms because God is everything. It makes me uncomfortable that you are leading your listeners to think that other religions or spiritual activities are evil. Isn't that why so many religious wars have been fought?

The people who follow other religions (besides Christianity) aren't evil. However, there is one truth about reality. Multiple religions can't all be true, because they have contradictory beliefs.

What is ultimately true is that God is our almighty Creator and Our Father Who loves us. He has never been less than fair or human. According to the Bible, God is perfect in His love and perfect in His holiness. He has revealed specific ways He commands us to worship Him, and no other way is acceptable. He sent His Son, Jesus, to teach us and show His love for us, and to establish one universal church, the Catholic Church, to give us the sacraments, to preserve His teachings, and to spread His information and way of life to the Jews and to all the generations and peoples and cultures of the world. There are evil spirits who want us to join their Counter Reformation, distractions from their mission from rejecting God and having no love without Him.

Every non-Christian religion or worldview — including Buddhism, Islam, Wicca, New Age/reincarnation/karma, secularism, Hedonism, Communism, Protestant, and Indigenous beliefs - every single non-Christian worldview has been invented by these evil spirits (who are intelligent in the extreme) to take us away from reason, truth, goodness, beauty, and love, which are all from God. Psalm 96:5 "For all the gods of the Gentiles are devils." (This is from the Douay-Rheims version numbered Psalm 95:5, but most Bibles number it as Psalm 96:5.) It is a huge idea that all religions are an acceptable way to worship God is a lie invented by these evil spirits.

Of course, it has never been claimed that "everyone" in the Catholic Church is a saint, most are serious sinners. And there have been so-called "Catholic" people & "Catholic" groups that have perverted and/or participated now in into satanic New World Order plan like as the Bilbe says, the wheat and the weeds grow together until God sorts them out.

May God bless and guide you and your loved ones!

The "catholic" church was the universal church which is the Christian Church of which Jesus is the head/cornerstone. The church is NOT the Roman Catholic Church OF WHICH THE POPE HAS HAD HIS BEEN THE HEAD THEREOF. There is a vast difference in these and I'm surprised you don't KNOW Revelation 17 and 18 you will see that the apostate Harlot church, the Whore riding the beast etc. I grew up in the RCC but left it as I found out the truth of it's horrific history and it's false teaching. It does teach some truth but they are side by side with many other false teachings and anything but about their own history. Rev 22:3 "And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it: and his servants shall serve him." I know this is a lot to handle but it is true nonetheless. The RCC has always taught it's followers that it is the only one true church and there is no salvation in any other, so people are very afraid to leave it. I know well the teachings and history. The Protestant Reformation in the 1500's where the truth came out and the true church came to the forefront. Jesus is the Christ alone. The RCC has been lighting this war since in their own Counter Reformation. The pope is the antichrist which the world fears, every single one of them. Study the history and you will see the damage done to the whole world as this man of sin.

Jesus commanded us to be baptized in water and receive the Holy Spirit. Trust in the Lord Jesus, have very prayerful Get out of her my people, Rev18:4.

Have you ever read the Church Fathers...those very early faithful Christians who came just after the Apostles? Examples: Clement of Rome (d. A.D. 97), Ignatius of Antioch (d. 110), Polycarp (d. 155), Justin Martyr (the Church's first major lay apologist, d. 165), Irenaeus (d. 202), Cyprian (d. 258), Athanasius (d. 373), Basil (d. 379), Cyril of Jerusalem (d. 386), Ambrose (d. 397), John Chrysostom (d. 407), Jerome (d. 420), Augustine (d. 430), Cyril of Alexandria (d. 444), Peter Leo the Great (d. 461), and Pope Gregory the Great (d. 604).

I invite you to read their full writings, not Protestant snippets, and see what you think. You'll be surprised at Newsflash #1 (click the hyperlink).

Also, really dig into the question of where the Bible came from...how did we get the Table of Contents? And did Martin Luther convene a Church Council to change the Bible after over 1,000 years of using the same 73 books, or just declare this on his own? What would give one Catholic priest the authority to throw out 7 books of the Bible, one Sr. Council and Martin Luther work any miracles to confirm his drastically new teachings? I thought we weren't supposed to add or remove any books of holy Scripture?

Also, see Catholic Answers website for any other problems you may have re Catholicism.

God bless you and your loved ones!

I have done tons of research and left the Roman Catholic Church because it does not comply at all with the bible. My experience with the RCC is extensive (schooling and 100% Catholic town and surrounding towns) so I am coming from a place where I do understand. I disagree with RCC for many reasons, but the main reason is that it totally believed that Revelation 18 is calling God's people out of "her". The Catholic takes on Protestantism are false and extremely misleading, full of outright lies , especially where Martin Luther is concerned, a complete character assassination. I learned all those things in order to be able to share truths and priests. Now I know the truth of history. But I truly appreciate your reply, even in our disagreement!

Protestantism (most Evangelical Protestants anyway) vs Catholicism comes down to authority — Sola Scriptura vs Scripture + Sacred Tradition + Magisterium (the teaching office of the Church). Sola Scriptura is a tradition of men invented in the 1500s.

Joshua Charles is an author, former White House speechwriter, and recent Catholic convert from Protestantism. I highly recommend his videos & writings:

A Red Indian Chief was in conversation with a Christian Missionary. This was some time after the Tribes had been dispossessed and herded onto Reservations (the survivors, that is). And at this time a dialogue had been developing.

The Chief asked the Missionary, "and is it true that only Christians go to Heaven, and all the rest go to Hell?"

The Missionary replied, "Of course, that is our Teaching."

The Chief mused awhile and then said, "I don't see your Heaven as attractive if it only contains White people. I like other colours. I like Red Indians as our nature, our beliefs, and our

First of all, they were jewish and NOT 'white' since americans do not consider themselves white, they r middle eastern. Second it wasn't 'Jews' just those in the satanic Cult.

I am sick of the white supremacy brainwashing. As well as the covid vaccine is safe and effective.

Third, the native tribes slaughtered other native tribes. The aztecs sacrificed 80k prisoners of war at one time and many were known for their blood rituals. The native tribes, as many other ancient ppl WERE defined by satanic beliefs.

The 'white man' didn't cause them to run heads off and sacrifice ppl to their demons, their demonic beliefs did.

My ancestors included.

"Slaughtered Ohlone" is the Strawman (aka "Lock" A Squirrel") argument... But Offcourse, all those other cars are speeding too!

The argument of human sacrifice is (a) based on hearsay and (b) acceptable in Christian terms. Briefly:

The chronicler, I believe it was Sahagun but bear with me there, the chronicler monk who first raised the Aztec Sacrifice issue (i) was not an eyewitness, as at the time Europeans were not permitted near the ceremonies and he was certainly one or more miles away and (ii) needed funds out to had to scrape together a Horror Story to persuade at Rey de España and el Papa on Rome to cough up some funding (now what does that remind me of?)

(b) The words of Bartolomé de la Casas, Bishop of Chiapas - Mexico, in the case he presented to the King in defence of the Indians against the proposal by another cleric that Conversion by Force is legitimate, refer (and I apologise for the length, and a search for "Bartolome de las Casas" + "Human Sacrifice" will help the curious) and I quote:

"The greatest way to worship God is to offer him sacrifice. This is the unique act by which we show him to whom we offer the sacrifice that we are subject to him and grateful to him. Furthermore, nature teaches that it is just to offer God, whose dominion we admit we are for so many reasons, those things that are precious and excellent because of the surpassing excellence of its majesty. But, according to human judgment and truth, nothing in nature is greater or more valuable than the life of man and the soul that animates it. Therefore, nothing is more pleasing to God than that we, faith, grace, or doctrine, who live within the limitations of the light of nature, that is spirits of every contrary sentience say they sacrifice human victims to the true God or to the false god who is thought to be true, so that by offering what we value most precious thing they might be more grateful for the many favors they have received. For the natural law teaches gratitude in such a way that we not only do good to our benefactor but also try to repay him in an abundant manner for the benefits we have received, giving due consideration to the benefits, the benefactor, and the motives for which he confers the benefits on us."

Another issue you may care to review is the origin of Fryllowol among the Indians of Anglahonne North America.

I hope this helps and, in order to spare readers further, I will take any further comment as it stands.

Everybody knows ancient nations performed blood ritual sacrifices, so not sure what ur point is. So did the Celts, so did many infiltrated cultures, it is why the rituals are ALWAYS the same. Because the demonic entities r the same, just the ppl different. To oblige native ppl in the Americas did not make them innocents, so is preferential distortion of cultures.

You have not told me anything new that changes that. The Greek & Roman gods were nephilim demonic bloodlines, it's not one place, even pre-andromen cultures met their demise because of it tho.

Indian tribes killed and enslaved other Indian tribes. And while supremacy is a MYTH, because the supremacy is of COLOR

There is a saying, "People who deny that Evil exists, deny that God exists, too." Meaning that in order to know Evil you must know God. So the rise of cultural Marxism, which requires the death of the belief in a higher power than the state creates and guides us, has blinded the existence of Evil, as well. With this accomplished, there is no counterweight to the actions that this force we call Satan takes in our world.

Regarding anchoring all this in "Art", or viewing Satan as a stand-in for it: Satan is a fallen aspect of God, and God is the Creator. Creation is inherently a process of transformation and change. Satan just is not short it has most of God's powers save the ability to create. It can just destroy. The kind of "inhuman" moves "Art" is taking in my view are entirely consistent with an agency like "Satan" and what a lot of spiritual force would do when sent on a mission to it at all times undermine God's creation as I see more accurately, since I don't see Satan at work in the creative functioning of the life and physical forces that God has put into motion, but merely on the efforts level that consume. Satan's purpose is to corrupt. Satan is a proxing force meant to separate those who would seek to wield God's force for good versus those who would use such power selfishly and for destruction.

I do struggle to define what Evil is. I believe that God created everything, including His angels, so even Satan, if there is such a creature, serves His purposes. Much of this technology can serve a higher purpose, but much has been subverted. Kind of like how Google's original credo of "Don't be evil" was removed. All of us philosophers and saints appear not to be getting the job done, in terms of enforcing an adequate corrective. Probably we need to become warrior-lov.

Satan is not a creature. Satan is an angel and, if we are going to do something about it, it seems essential to determine if it's a literal being or just a metaphor for misguided behaviors or tragic misfortunes. I'm not sure we can do anything about problems we can't define. Are you guessing it might be a literal being created by God?

I support whatever motivates us to do the right thing. That is why I have aligned myself increasingly with traditions of faith. Any belief that a Creator God exists, that a Divine spark resides in all of us, and that inherent in God's creation is a perfect system of laws, presents a barrier for "Evil" to corrupt our minds and civilizations. If you can find this "Evil" and maybe convince me to call it by Sun Tzu's (Tell, I'd like to see it. Again, I go back to Thucydides: "If philanthropy flows from a man's actions, perhaps it is the "Evil" that has made him act as he has"), I would believe that Evil exists. But I don't see it as something that is out there and present in the world. I see it as a force that is in us, something created by God. I mean, didn't God create these so-called angels and throw some of them out of Heaven? I suppose you have to see "Satan's" existence as part of a Divine Plan. I do think it will become increasingly difficult to sort out Good from Evil in our lives with information and science today being themselves corrupted, and the DOD's largest single expenditure now being on psychological warfare and every human being on the planet including the USA viewed as a target. I will leave this response open-ended and not say the best of luck on your journey.

I like your angle on staying focused on God's power within us. I take as a practical fact that because Christ's Spirit lives in us, we are His Body. Let's act boldly on that, and wherever evil manifests, we will respond according to our faith and in God's power. More than luck will follow.

I probably know as much or more than most folks talking about this stuff on the internet. Kundalini is synonymous with Prana, Subtle/Etheric energy, and in my opinion, Holy Spirit. It's what leaves the body when the body dies. But I am not a sadist asian and only Africans have a claim to that for HBruce, because you are the only person in this realm capable of truly understanding what God's intentions are for you. Peace.

Understood, but I had an experience I cannot explain what occurred after giving a free energy treatment to a friend. After working on her I stayed in my treatment space and went to sleep. I then woke up later that evening feeling a crazy vibration beginning at the base of my spine. Then it slowly moved up my spine and then to the top of my head. I had no control over it. The experience lasted for several minutes. After that experience, personal things that had vexed me for decades were gone. The person I worked on has this happen to her frequently but she never understood what it was. Somehow it transferred to me. Some say it had something to do with the kundalini. Thus my question to you is what do you make of something like that? What was that about?

Energy workers can sometimes cause direct manifestations. Laying-on of hands or more weakly from a distance: if the symptoms are persistent, or rather specific and "developmental" as they appear to be in your case, then this is an awakening or deepening of your own etheric or subtle functioning. I would say it's a sign of the Holy Spirit working through you. Much of the judgment of this stuff is measured "by the fruits ye shall know it." as the New Jerusalem Bible translates it. I speak of observing a "master" for a decade or more before becoming he or her student because you must discern whether this person is morally fit to be your teacher and worth risking the submission of your own will to some extent to them. Also, I'm a big fan of Western medicine. It's a miracle that our understandings rather than chemical in metaphors as happens in the East. I think you can share with the client of yours that this is a positive manifestation. Many people start to become psychotic at this point because they are not prepared. I'm a big fan of spiritual path with pharmaceuticals. One of the main ingredients in the common pharmaceutical is fluoride, which flattens everything down to where the body's receptivity or the etheric level, and literally burns holes in your brain.

The 'serpentine' energy of kundalini, also known as Christ Consciousness, is demonic.

1 LIKE (1) | REPLY (1) | SHARE

HBruce · May 21

It isn't known as Christ Consciousness and at its core has nothing to do with that concept. Its merely an explanation of how the subtle energies move in the body. The center line is the neutral core. The two lines that cross as the body are known as the positive and negative energy centers. Together this is used as a symbol of healing and health that is commonly used in modern medicine. Another term for it is the Caduceus. It has nothing to do with anything that is demonic. Its just another way of explaining how God made us and how energy flows in the body.

1 LIKE (1) | REPLY (1) | SHARE

Black Pill News · Black Pill News · May 21

I simply acknowledge some call it that. Serpentine energy moving on in the kundalini, is a practice of meaning a spirit into the body. In christian principles it is called demonic, or a seducing spirit, each belief in their own terminology. It is also called Christ Consciousness by New Agers. Spiritualists call it a spiritual parasitic entity, yoga calls it Kundalini.

Which is why the ancient ppl both knowledge= Kundalini is a practice of invocation of and deliverance from, as such is free will, in all religions. Some focus on its seductive power and some on its spiritual toxicity, opinions differ whether good or bad, but the 'energy' is the same.

God's warning in christianity was about the subtlety of evil and its seductive powers and how humans were too young to be able to handle that effectively and a real awareness.

An example of that is how a connected in a healing and medicine, which symbol, the caduceus, which is represented by a snake, also a symbol of the original snake, aka satan in the garden of eden. It's simply mostly just sheer power.+++ even the word pharmakeia means in Greek poison or witchcraft, it's where the word pharmacy comes from. Their 'medicine' is witchcraft potions and poisons.

The real medicine is not what we r told, I was very much into New Age myself, for a couple decades, just saying u can trace the origin of these movements always to the same patterns of archetypes from ancient times, and many r hoax to lure us in, just how a Nanotemple can work on a hook.

In my research the kundalini energy is spiritually parasitic while euphoric, as a seductive spirit always is.

It does not mean the energy centers r not real, they r so real are, soc biofield, but spiritually bringing in 'kundalini' is NOT the same, as used in yoga practice, which does NOT connect u to the Creator, but the universal, thus anything, and opens a person to spiritual parasites.

Anyhow, if ur curious, I reccomend Michelle Lin Rumble on the subject, to me prayer is the most powerful, a connection to the Creator, instead of

Regarding the symbol of the snake, Jesus said just as Moses lifted up the serpent so that everyone who looked on would be healed, so he would be lifted up. I wish we could have a conversation about this. There is nothing about your subtle energy currents that run through your body that is demonic. Your energy centers are the same ones that Jesus referred to when he offered instruction on how energy currents work and what they relate to and the symptoms that surface when these energy currents are blocked. Now that understanding can be used for healing. This is part of real medicine and when this understanding is combined with the application of flower remedies the results can be truly amazing. I tell people when I have done this work that I pray to God during the treatment and if that makes them feel uncomfortable, then I'm not the right person for them. I am a follower of The Way. I proclaim Jesus as Lord and Savior. The co-opting of these truths by pagan practices does not negate their reality. Interesting that is exactly what the enemy tries to do. The enemy takes what is good and twists it for evil.

I didn't say our energy is demonic, I said invading energies, subtle but distinct as they r, demonic. Anything serpentine is a symbol of the original snake from the garden of Eden, Satan.

Also, in much of ancient art, Moses is portrayed is horns. He came possessed from the burning bush, they mention he had 'horns of his' and they were clearly afraid of him.

Even in Egyptian 1500, he is portrayed as horns, but NOT Jacob.

We know the Talmud is a satanic version of the Torah, for example, it's Lucifercentric shilling as Judaism, just like catholicism is Luciferianism shilling as Christianity.

Yes, calling on Jesus is the right way and the right healing, he IS the only cure. Just as a mention, it is the twisting of truth that turns good demonic.

The kundalini energy is serpentine. Different from our own. Because u used the term kundalini, we r having this debate.

Kundalini is not serpentine (i.e. invasive or demonic) energy. Its merely a model to describe how the subtle energies move through the body. Moses lifted up the image of a snake on a pole. The creator told him to do that so that people could look upon it and be healed. I'm not Catholic, but I know Catholics and they are definitely not Luciferians.

Thank you for talking openly about this. Everything needs to be brought to the light, but most are afraid to do so. I'm praying for your protection.

It really is Satan who is behind all this. The pagan gods you mention report to him. We have to remember that he started out as the greatest and most beautiful of all God's angels before he decided that he wanted to be like God. His powers are far beyond our imagining. But we also must remember that God created him on the cross. He is raging now because he knows that his time is short.

You're right that prayer is our resource, along with the armor of God described in Ephesians 6. We need to know what we're fighting; not flesh and blood, but principalities, powers, the rulers of the darkness of this world, and spiritual wickedness in high places. We do not need to fear them as long as we stand firm in God's armor. You don't want to take a look at depictions of first century Roman armor, because that is the kind of armor in Paul's mind as he wrote.

I've been thinking about this for a while. Probably the first time was when I started hearing about "ignobles circles" forming in my general area. And I was stunned to find out that I actually knew a few of those women. I first noticed them cutting antlers off of road kill and later read that they participated in a circle. When I looked into it more, and saw that it was a big thing and that some celebs participated in NY and CA, I was initially tempted to write it off as a strange need for a female source of the divine, but then recalled my former rabbi (male) called Lilith a "sink" — and that it was a bit redundant. Also, at the local Ivy League university, the Hillel service made reference to the earth mother and "she".

So what was it? What was the attraction? You hit on it in the last segment about Hinnnker and the belief that the "human" had lost their power. It was power, and the need to absorb power. It doesn't just mean a basic political power, but a becoming gods power, which is much more sinister and is part of the transhumanist agenda. Once I started looking, I found more evidence than I can shake a stick at. Hinnnker describes a newly created religion, a religion which will be for everyone and will be "correct". Now, I'm not a religious person, but I've studied religions and the OT. The concept of a correct religion is mentioned control over what and if you can eat and an increased reliance on government distribution of food.

What we're seeing is a hideous desire not to just follow and occult, but to be gods with power over life and death. Euthanasia for the elderly, the terminally ill, the mentally injured, the homeless and even of course lots and lots of abortion. Not safe, legal and rare, but for no reason at all and right up to birth, with Peter Singer expanding the acceptable to rape too.

They want to be like God, like Lucifer (Light bringer) did when he rebelled against God. Another aspect of God is eternity, and immortality. I hadn't considered that aspect and I cannot believe I bought it up and said that his generation might be the first to become immortal. But it is his generation as a whole so of the very FIRST it is taking care of people with some Cortisol Lab sort of assistance? Or could it be worse, which some have suggested? Outside of Corbisy and that whole experiment outside of Mt. Haven I found very real sources, just fictional sources like Never Let Me Go. Nothing is good about this. Any of it.

Until today I knew nothing of the horse or the grim reaper at the coronation of that nutter. I have the disbelief that 5 horses could simultaneously throw their riders and escape. As for the "winger", again, no I believe for pictures of engines, Episcopal Vangers, and I don't find a single picture of one like that. Black cassock ass, but not as flowing and not with hoods. It reminded me more of the reaper that showed up in a Lions episode on Halloween. But whatever happens to Charles, we should keep in mind that he's a WEF devotee as Willy.

Today I found on twitter a video of David McCall saying that they all knew about Jeffrey Epstein but were " too afraid" to do anything about it? Afraid of who? and who are "we all"? This is all controlled opposition.

Thanks Naomi. The law not been much on my radar, though I note you have discussed this at least once before, and I took note. I appreciate your background involved in two presidential campaigns, and that accumulates the grim reaper walking across a doorway during the coronation of King Charles, the creepy portrait of King Charles and the two blood-splattered horses running amok in downtown London (intended as a sort of omen or a hint?) and Biden's strange rage speech, are not things that happen by accident. That everything presented to us is thought through to have an impact on a certain trajectory.
Clearly, in addition to using repeated phrases like "safe and effective," these people know the power of priming images. But it takes someone like you who is watching these things and drawing them to our attention to provide a framework for a public discussion. I remember when Hancock in the UK stated in a text, "when we do deploy the next variant?" I like to think of that as priming. Thank you for reminding us of the power of love, and to invite the wider community to confront what is seeking to shackle humanity.

1. You recognize the importance of ritual. The primary ritual of the Catholic Church, the traditional Latin Mass was almost entirely eradicated in the late 1960s, and Fr Kwiecz is trying to do that now. Recall your conversation with Michael Hickborn and ponder what's going on in the Church. By way of background, the Church has always taught that, as the Bible is the Word of God, She will always have His passion and death, as did Christ her head. (And no, the Isis / Osiris myth was not incorporated into His death and resurrection.)
2. Many say Hitler was perfectly possessed (not schizophrenic); that's modernist garbage that won't admit of the supernatural), which means he'd not be perfectly placed himself in the hands of Satan that onlookers couldn't see the signs of possession that are evident in possessed people (physical acts like supernatural capacity, like levitation or incredible acts of strength, knowledge beyond what the possessed person could have, like knowledge of ancient languages, etc.)
3. Most people in the West still have a residual sense that if someone shows signs of diabolic possession, you'd better find a Catholic priest. The things you are investigating as a journalist have been woven into the almost 2,000 year history of the Catholic Church. Rather than reinventing the wheel, you might want to learn from that. (Consider episodes of the 1st season of the very popular Exorcist Files podcast.)
Be careful, Dr. Wolf! You may not like the concept of Satan, but he is no mere historical construct, he reigns in hell. You do not have the power to fight demons on your own. These demons (and this includes the pagan "gods," by the way, as St. Paul notes) are fallen angels and thus are superior to us in strength and intelligence. We fight them only with the help of God, and you seem how to do that through what the Catholic Church has learned and handed down over the centuries. Consider watching "Hereditary" (2023). It's very scary. The trailer makes you think it's typical horror stuff, but it is not, and the guy who plays Edward is brilliant. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sxwLGAc75ju

I'm glad you wrote this. I wanted to say the same but didn't have the energy. It is objective, factual truth. Everything to know on this subject has been public and available to everyone for 2,000 years. Dr Naomi was discovering the fact that the occultists are in power, but Jesus spoke of "wickedness in high places." The Book of Revelation reveals that in the Last Days there is a final battle against Lucifer and his minions as the light of Jesus Christ presses further into every corner of the universe and the demons are exposed and become desperate (paraphrasing here.) The Book of Revelation depicts that all earthly authorities will come to an end with the return of Satan in the Last Days. I don't have the energy to list people anymore because I feel like everyone should already know this by now because it's common knowledge. We know how to battle evil in the world, through Jesus Christ, and in particular through His Real Presence in the Blessed Sacrament. St Charbel drove away the barbarians in the 19th century, and I would be understanding this subject for those who don't believe that the New Testament is fact.)

Happy feast of Pentecost, Kate. Yes, prayers always. Some of our greatest saints were converses, not to mention St Paul. (My great grandmother too.) If people would rather read than watch videos, I recommend Fr Chad Ripperger's books. I've never seen a modern video on demonic attacks more clear and helpful than his books. Plus, he's a brilliant teacher nonetheless. (former Harvard professor.) The lecture starts at the 28:00 mark https://www.youtube.com/live/xdZxEL9OVXE?feature=shared Wondering if you are familiar with Dr Jacqueline Hobbs? Her website is http://scarsgirl.org/ and her message is that we are beings of Love, which I think you will agree with. She also says there is another source that has been functioning on Earth for thousands of years, as multidimensional so we can't see them but can be affected by them, and that they are a negative force manifesting in what we might call the WEF type folks, trying to take over our beautiful planet. Jacqueline goes on to say that we, as light beings, will defeat this darkness, and that it's already happening. I've been encouraged for a good chate at a 4th of July fireworks show, and I feel that I'm here especially to watch the shit show and to help others navigate the negative energies. It's worth considering that we each, were born for this time, to actively counter THE and I plan to learn a positive future as long as I can for all of us.

corrected it if the Creator God is Love, Truth and Righteousness AND the source of life, when we flee from the Creator God we lose all of that. As our society is spinning away and clearly losing love, reality, justice and God's way of life. The speed of the loss of reality (TRUTH) is shocking.

Perhaps the "spinning away" is described in Gen 1:2? and Gen 2:7? (The Creation, and then the "forming".) From the spiritual into the material. We are living between 2 worlds.

I can't attach a file / lack of it but its the American Flag in black stars w/ black and red stripes but the stars are 6(a), not stars (symbolic here? ...hmmmm).
A "sad something" is my last statement across it. Same design w/o/dark text and feel as the Dark Brandon Philadelphia speech complete with Marine guards (also for the threatening effect), pressure intimidating the opposing party along with the MASS armed security guard crowd.
...oh yeah, and the "hosing his patience with the unvaccinated" (implied) - something that I've made meant to intimidate those of us standing our ground in what we believe.

I am convinced the Pharmaceuticals have been delivering self-assembling nanotechnologies into humans any way they could sneak them in—medications, anesthetics, vaxx's, etc. for years undetonized to us until the election microwave work of Dr. Ana Maria Mihalcea began analyzing human blood of Covid survivors and vaxxed people which led to expanded research. You're undoubtedly correct that AI and machine learning have permeated a lot of Godless elites and unspoken power, but if they truly were believers of God they wouldn't allow this to have continued and progressed to this level.

Hi, aka the first let are all by Christian's discussing things like baroque church history

Things I noticed NOT on VC's excellent page.

Nemo = CMYK from Switzerland song about literally the ammoremo instinct Satanist death cult, actual wood as I've never heard of it.

Breaking the binary is the cavalier goal, lower day night, young old, man woman. Hermaphrodite androgyny etc.

Alisiar Crowley and all the rest really had a soft spot for this principle, the black and white masque Rave symbolism points to the binary that must be broken.

The more we understand their symbols the easier it is to see what their up t

Why Switzerland and the multi Gender Satanist to be crowned that the Irish one -

Home of CERN, LHC, WEF, some wall of Satan in Geneva lore etc.

Ref years will be all dark to story.

Also his outfit was alluding to paedophilia and child sacrifice, little pink skirt, white tights, white shoes, bang pink furry with what looked like blood splatter washed out.

Much more intelligent hidden Satanism, than the screeching anti core goth of bambi thug and her 33 wind tattoo etc.

Did you notice the intro had the Swedish royalty wearing a Saturn 🪐 with rings necklace. Saturn Satan being hugely symbolic for that too?

Hi Naomi! I'm kind of late in the game on this one, as its been 2 days since you made your post, but regarding YOUR HAIR, Punky & I kind of like the natural feminine fluidity that your hands gliding through the hairs of your hair displays. In fact, it endears us to you considerably while we enjoy watching you speak because it reflects such a soft "Transmaterial" about you. It also helps to soften the "Dominant" male powerful information that you're fearlessly conveying. Personally, I wouldn't think as much of the "staleness" or the "feminine" of the holding you back, as restraining & system that displayed softness & beautiful fluidity of you. Punky & I love the way you personalize your hair in combination with your many movements. It makes you, you. But that's just me & my little doggies own personal opinion. A couple of your responses show that everyone sees things differently. If I may suggest, if utilizing the new material, I would choose an individual comb or two, something that would still allow for that gentleness of you & your sway hair to continue to flow, but would help to keep it off your face. Just a couple of suggestions because I've extremely affected by the tickling thing!!! No mic at all, so valid in our assessment too. But for our own personal reasons we see things entirely differently. Smile!

Have a great day today Naomi and thank you so much for everything that you had to say.

You & your efforts are priceless to me & Punky and much so to so many.

Again, we thank you for all that you do & share!

So true. Thank you for your comment. That is what I observed as well. The Faustian pact!...yes, as Goethe wrote in Faust when he asked Mephisto (appearing as a poodle - the devil appearing as an innocent little dog) what he was "I am from that power that always wants evil and always creates good". This time is humanities last - to choose the path of unconditional love, of God of truth,...or face the consequences...each of us following our heart is raising humanity...wishing you a wonderful and blessed day.

She traveled in those circles and exposed all the occult societies she was aware of in America. You can buy it on Amazon, eBay or download a free PDF. Note that she died the same year it was published. Maybe they got to her.

I was amazed and excited that you actually discussed this. In my "Patriot's History of Globalism: Its Rise and Decline," I delve into the symbolism of the Congress of Vienna, which was drenched in Pagan/Zoroastrian deities. Their celebrations were not even different from the opening of the Gotthard Tunnel in 2016 (!) (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=b0u-ZR5QcrY) if this doesn't ever touch, I don't know what can. Blatantly Pithi-theistic right down to the tape of a single bull. I don't always credit Carroll's Aviation Supercodifier stands a statue of Shiva, the Goddess of Death. The Hebrew itself (as was Sanskrit) was described as a "priest." One of the officials said "we don't know what will come out." Geez, I do. Then look at the "Ginzburg" statue outside the courthouse where they are trying President Trump right now — it is a golden Medusa, the seductress god. Yeah, found Heart has been adamant that "the God of the old testament only managed to create organic life … we are going to create inorganic life." He also noted that 2020 was "the year man agreed to be surveyed under the skin." (HIPAA). None of this is accidental or done as a joke. They are deadly serious about trying to pass the "red pyple" back onto the throne of Iran. Oh, and a cherry on top!

Right wonder why Vladimir Putin, whom I certainly do not think is a Christian, seemingly "gets religion" in the middle of this. Why? Why is Russia the "Katechon" that is holding back the evil? I don't know enough to get in line with Dugin's many principles. Putin noticed freedom of worship in the Greek Orthodox Church, he has developed a strongly pro-family and anti-transhumanosexual state, and … last week Russian engineers closed a major portal, a bore hole to the center of the earth called

"The Entrance to Hell."

In other words, Putin has enough survival skills and common sense to get Russia's POLICIES, if not his own heart, in line with God's Will. Interesting.

A very good book on spiritual warfare and wearing one's armor, (updated into a modernized English version by David Wilkerson and his team), is called "The Christian's Complete Armour." by William Gurnall. It is now a set of 3, easy to hold/read, paperbacks. I did try reading it as originally written by Mr. Gurnall but found the old English language to be difficult to read. This book is highly recommended by such people as Charles Spurgeon and Jonathan Edwards. Keep on keeping Grace!. This set of books has been a life changer for me and my friends who have read,,Included it.

And what if the men or women who originally programmed AI were devil worshipping Satan lovers?? Ok, the file folders says, humans were always given free will to choose the higher road to God with it's many hardships that demonstrate sincerity, searching and worthiness to reach His many mansions (dimensions) or choose the shorter, more exciting, star studded path into Satan's spam arms—who was allotted dominion over the earth and the EGO and since it primarily plays out in 3-D I believe this is a test, a rite of passage or a war between the soul and the ego, playing out on macrocosm—earth's stage. It definitely is effective as a means to get our attention. Thank you for your courage to share some of the fears derelict timers like Kissinger espouse to all of this in "FALSE GOD IS IN CONTROL. God has our attention. At least those of us who are ready to serve His cause and I believe we, not number Satan's army in the tunnels, or in Hollywood, Nashville, DC and all of their lives.

The two great Sorcerers of the 1990'C were Hegel and Marx. Occultism may be the end point of progressivism. It is a move from incarnation to create a mental reality as a Gnostic dream and then for believers to seek to change the world by worship/orientation and ritual. Carthaginian Baal- religion sacrificed children in blood ritual to alter happenings etc.

Naomi,

Trying to watch your presentation, i had an overwhelming urge to sleep, and only woke up when you were finishing. I think i was unconsciously protecting my heart from hearing bad news - there is so much of it. But I got the gist of what you are concerned about, and have some thoughts about how to counter dark magic.

In Buddhism there are art forms that are uplifting and you don't need to be a Buddhist to practice them, but they help to clear the mind.

One of these art forms is the Kyudo archery ceremony, where the object is not only to hit the target but to be mindful of one's posture, breath and thoughts while taking the correct stance and lifting the bow, fitting the arrow and then releasing the arrow with a shout.

Another is Japanese flower arranging, which has the lowest Samurai in Japan would attempt to master, and which is loved by practice, and uplifting for the senses.

And there is also the practice of Shamatha, or 'peaceful abiding', a meditation practice of counting the breaths while calming the mind. But practice is universal in different teachings, and you can receive meditation instruction from most Buddhist organizations, without committing to become a Buddhist.

My Buddhist teacher, Chogyam Trungpa Rinpoche, would hold a Buddhist/Christian conference once a year where participants would talk about their religious beliefs, and where he introduced Christians to Shamatha practice. I heard from a Christian that the meditation practice helped him understand his own religion better.

I had the experience of one morning having a stream of consciousness attack of vile confusion, morbid scenes of chaos happening in unimaginably terrorizing reality - I thought I was dreaming but it continued unabated although I was wide awake.

So i began practicing 'kinspiri', an advanced Buddhist practice where you take a suffering on the in-breath, and give out love and ease on the out breath. (I think my dentist used to do this unconsciously.) And as I practiced, the terrifying stream of images began to fade away until my mind was once more quiet and unafflicted.

If we are to counter the destructive darkness that is happening, we must become creative and compassionate. These are a few of my ideas that have helped me. Maybe they will be of help to others.

Naomi thanks v interesting, yes heres staged and as Sir Charlie portrait could they get more blatant ? There is a weird one of Kate too on cover of Tatler - looks nothing like her but she is wearing the pale pagan green as all coronation. Her crowned Bdim pic must take a look. In the new testament Satan means any adversary hence Jesus even calls Peter 'satan' in Matthew 16:23. The concept of satan as a pitchfork wheeling , fire-breathing monster comes from the Greek interpretation of the Hittim and Dante's 'Inferno', not from the biblical texts. It is not just a western concept per se as Bdim is mentioned in many texts in the leader of destruction and master of hellfire. I wrote this detailed article about it here: https://open.substack.com/pub/sharbarb/p/the-fifth-element-from-the-depths?r=1ehl1&utm_source=post&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=email-post-title

There is a "technology" that defines evil. Allows me the honor of introducing the reality of The Holy Spirit, God in Three Persons. As a human it befuddles me, but as person with a personal relationship, I have a relationship, with the Lord Jesus, God in Three Persons, I am amazed at His, our Heavenly Father's, God in Three Persons, perfect love. I can't comprehend much of it but I know it's real, also my faith.

Humans want religion, thus denominations and rules-of-humans, and religion is nothing more than human-made attempts to define God I can't buying it. I'm blessed to be a sinner saved by the Grace of our Creator.

It's so amazingly simple!

I was immediately calmed by the promise of the king of peace once more, joy filled me, and I started my anger, and although I had been praising for my unforgiveness to leave, it didn't until that moment. I noticed when I drove home thinking about the people that I was repeatedly thinking in strife and anger about. It feels good to be part of the Holy Ghost gang!!

I'm an occultist and do ritual magic every day. It's what helped me get through the pandemic with my DNA and sanity in tact. There are lots of techniques for how to deal with the current crisis, but the problem with modern Christianity is the whole "everything I don't like is Satan" attitude without the slightest recognition that they are already practicing a mishmash of several different religions from a heavily edited and redacted document.

This is an important viewpoint here. I tend to agree that the Bible seems to be on the narrow side of what's acceptable in terms of light vs dark (good vs evil). It may even be a repeat of ancient Sumerian texts (or something like that) in a talk we did a long Jewish Campbell/Watts/ etc connects mythologies, is the Bible just one of many similar channeled books that goes back possibly 1000s of 1000s of years? (See Graham Hancock Ancient archeology). And if your heart is good and you seek light and seek to know God as you connect to it (Him? Her?) and are good to others—is that not our purpose? Is that not the will of God?

It would be interesting to explore the odd happenings in the Catholic Church over the past couple of decades. They pointed dark times ahead. The ascension of Pope Francis was not a normal process and neither was the decision of Pope Benedict to step down when he was not frail or in poor health. This has never occurred in the history of the papacy. Why did it take place? There are books and at least one documentary about something called the Prophesy of the Popes. No one knows the author but some claim it was St. Malachy of Ireland who himself was said to have possessed mystical powers. Others attribute it to Nostradamus. It predicts the end of the papacy and the Roman Catholic Church as we know it citing the Last Pope will be two: either Peter II or Peter Romulus. Francis was No deliberately installed to fulfill the prophesy? It would explain his often shocking actions on homosexuality, transgenderism and abortion as well as his forays into politics which makes him sound more like one of Klaus Schwab's WEF globalists than the successor to St. Peter.

I'm glad you provide some context in the opening half hour acknowledging the mythic, symbolic element. I've never been one to believe in demons. Jung makes sense of this realm as few others have.

These "satanic" cults or musics artists staging devilish performances rely on the power of suggestion. Just as in meticulously staged performances carried live hypnotists, the "Devil" only gains power by people's belief. It is a shadow projection from the very darkest parts of the psyche. The remedy is to ignore these performances, and don't take them seriously. Without your belief, they have no power.

I once lived in a duplex next to a "white witch" as she told me. She was the head of the coven. All these suburban moms in SUVs came to her place at the time. Once I learned what she was I did what every Catholic would do: I went to the local Benedictine monastery and got holy water with the exorcism blessing on it and a bunch of blessed St Benedict medals. I buried them all over the yard, I burned blessed frankincense and myrrh, and I made crosses with holy water and placed with the holy water all over the place. I literally waited for her to take her trash out where she had to walk onto a common area and she walked right into the holy water — doused her beautiful, beautiful, Sicily didn't melt. I broke my lease and moved. I drove by the place a year later and all her stuff was gone and someone told me she died. Drug mess I've anywhere without holy water and a crucifix. People laugh but these sacramentals are real though. Get the Benedictines to bless them.

Nowadays the smart money is on the idea that man is capable, on the basis of his own efforts, of ultimately coming to a good end — specifically by means of a hypertrophy of rational thought, which leads first to science being maximized, and then technology being maximized. Eventually it will be realized that the whole process needs to be guided for the greatest effect, so management must be maximized as well, so we're seeing the drive towards maximum rule from technological society or technocratic society.

The next premise is the same as what they had when attempting to construct the Tower of Babel, which didn't work out. Technological/technocratic society won't work out either.

The truth is that we live in a spiritual warfare universe, everything that happens has to be understood in that context. The proponents of Enlightenment Philosophy for the most part have succeeded in convincing people that rational thought is the highest form of thought. Of course you can always make a case for anything. It looks to me like it's a clever plan. You can't go directly from Christianity to paganism, but if you first dumb/sow Christianity by means of Enlightenment Philosophy, then that flattens the field, and you can go from atheism/agnosticism to paganism, which is what we are increasingly seeing today.

It's basically an attack on God. Humanity is specially targeted because man was created in God's image. One wonders how much these wealthy, ultrawealthy people believe in their own rhetoric. For instance, they are fond of asserting that the earth has exceeded its carrying capacity and for humanity to survive at all there has to be quite a few less of us, hence the active eugenics programs we see arising all over the place. There is another explanation, though. If these people actually are under demonic sovereignty — which Ephesians 6:10-12 seems to imply — then they are caught in the grip of the Theory of the Progression of evil. The latter stages of this process produce people for any spiritual intelligence who can be characterized as bad, and ultimately abominable. Those people inevitably seek to annihilate the being of others: they are consumed and controlled by sin, especially pride, and that's just the way they are.

We should expect to see more and more chaos and overall destructiveness in the near future. It was after all, predicted long ago. Matthew 24, Revelation, etc. One wonders how long the Holy Name will be content to put up with this abominable branding. I don't doubt the End is near.

Your content is calling for ways and means to combat the Evil forces at work against humanity and it involves God, Christ, and deep study. Churches will never support returning Christians or Christians who gain insight beyond the Church's call to pacifism, others worship expressed as to love the enemy (That's another entire discussion). The churches conveniently say they do not embrace pacifism but their actions speak volumes. The Church will always refer to prayer, laying on hands, love, and the Armour of God then go no further. But humans must live amidst the chaos and need to stabilize things. In a deep dive into the Bible there are Tactics, Techniques, and Procedures (TTPs) that God and Christ used that are available to Christians. Not everything, though, is possible such as bringing down leaflike journey and levels of wisdom, and landing in buzz seamless. If one understands warfighting methods, there are some TTPs in the Bible humans can use without contradicting Biblical principles.

First, this is a war between God and Ex-Ephesians 6:10, and surprisingly an information War. The Bible is designed to withstand Mr. The Devil is the father of all lies and makes use of doubt, innuendo, ambiguity, obfuscation, lies, etc., to deceive, destroy, delay, distort, deflect, divert, demonize, demoralize, etc., humans. The Devil is "hell bent" on stopping Christ and stopping humans from coming to Christ.

Second, in the Biblical sensibility, the world is subdivided into regions over which demon-kings reign, some commentators believe as many as ten kings. The Prince of Persia, Daniel 10:13, is one example. One of the intriguing revelation in knowing demons are demonic entities is:

There is the grass roots hierarchies humans are up against. An information war fought against demons and fallen angels led by Devil. Any human, occultic elites for example, are pawns in a greater fight, just as humans on the other side of the fight, the winning side, are pawns. The information war is the means by which the war is fought. Spiritual Warfare is another aspect of the war between Good and

I want to clarify that the TTPs I am speaking about are not mystic, divinations, or something out of the Carpathian Valley region where gypsies, witches, and mystics persisted. This is not some sort of horror movie notion as the fog rolls in neither. They are practical TTPs in dealing with the wills of evil. Of course, the Theology is that you must be on God's side and work within God's will that is usually guided by his commandments and blessings.

The Eastern Sect Catholics are the Catholics of Eastern Europe. History has shown there has been a problem with Gypsies committing crimes, a common problem with them, The Carabineer, Italian State Police, rounded all the gypsies up and put them on a bus to Romania of all places!!! Perhaps that is where they were from.

The Carpathian mountains has a scholarly theory that the Anti-Christ originates from the Carpathian Valley due to the mysticism there and references in the Bible. There is no evidence he actually drank blood of his victims. The Carpathian Mountains is the dense forests and heavy fog is the setting for many fictional horror stories. Most recently, the movie Van Helsing takes place in the Carpathian Valley combining Dracula, Werewolves, and the original Frankenstein story lines.

There is also the fact that Romania and Italy have had 1700 years of Christianity around Holy Water or making use of mystic practices from gypsies, witches, or the supernatural. Some seemed to move in that direction.

Again, regret you being upset. You seem to be deep in your zeal. While I have roots in the region and lived in Europe, we seem to come from very different perspectives. I suggest, if Christian, you read up or learn about Tim LaHaye and his Left Behind Series. He is a Christian fundamentalist which is not an orthodoxy. Fundamentalism is more hard core than orthodoxy. The fictional accounts like Tim Helming are interesting and I suggest you read the movie for its entertainment value.

Regardless where Gypsies came from, they were in the Carpathian valley and they were doing mischievous causing the Christians to flee into the mountains. While in Constanza, I had gypsies trying to sell me counterfeit money as some sort of good street deal on the exchange rate. Overall, I enjoyed my time in Constanza. It was late in the summer season, so the vacationers were gone.

I doubt Trump is the Anti-Christ. If anything, he is showing the providential hand of God in his life as evil works against him. The American legal system was built on the works of Moses and Mosaic law. The US Political Left is trying to wrongfully use the legal system to attack an innocent man. This stems from comments Obama made years ago while in office. He commented that if anyone challenged the system, he would use the legal system to destroy them.

Trump overcomes insurmountable odds against him and those who bring false charges against him are exposed as the main corruption. Fake Witts will most likely be removed from her post for misappropriation of funds and inappropriate conduct and in office. Judge Merchan already has charges files against him from a law firm that reported suspicious financial conduct - profiting from the Hush Money trials. Alvin Bragg, Letitia James, and Jack Smith are charging in their fraud and the tide has turned and they are exposed as he held accountable for professional misconduct. Their day is coming.

If we have a fair election, Trump will crush the Political Left opponent based on oil pulling and evidence to date. The 2020 election was not fair and was actually were tampering and not real votes. There is overwhelming evidence to include the mules stuffing ballots, video evidence of vote tampering, and there is a very strong possibility of elections man-in-middle attacks on the voting machines.

https://dailycaller.com/2024/05/16/dominion-sues-newsmax-oann-for-election-coverage/

https://www.cbsnews.com/news/dominion-voting-experts-earn-of-serious-threats-for-2020-from-election-exposing-software-breaches/

The US Political Left unquestionably protects the ancient Jewish sect of the Sadducees who rejected Christ and had to be the lead of the Jewish people. The Political Left rejects the US founding that came 100% from the Judeo-Christian Bible. Instead, they advance a failing system built on the works of Jean-Jacques Rousseau and then Karl Marks. You should be familiar with the problems of the Political Left as it is the same thing that happened to Romania under Communist rule.

Why don't u go ahead and talk degeneracy about UR OWN HERITAGE INSTEAD.

And AGAIN, gypsies r FROM INDIA, not Romania, that's ignorance. A HINDU religion, a diff race, a diff culture and a diff LANGUAGE. NOT Romanian, ok????

I am NOT interested in any cults, be they christian sects or not, I follow Jesus and I need zero interpretations or middle men.

The irony of 1st world ppl lecturing me, a communist survivor, on communism. There is NO left or right, both r controlled by the same entities, both the nazis and the communists are SATANIC BRANCHES. The text book maestro duality, all MAN!

Lets get NOT being tricky, n not an opinion. It is a fact. Also, ur Tim LaHaye is a known freemason, thus a SATANIST, very hi rank in both the freemason symbolism of his books, his love of MONEY, and his close connections w cults like the Mormes, who were all about Jesus sleeping around LL! I not just inaccurate in ethnical and spiritual allegations, but u value satanist opinions over Christ. I hope u research deeper, as a European, how can u NOT know gypsies r Hindi?

Romania was converted to christians by Apostle Andrew, Jesus' first disciple, and we have been Christians since.

Our forefathers, like many others, were previously captured by satanic beliefs, our Dacians had the same blood sacrifice rituals the Aztecs did... or the Celts did... our Zamolxes went underground 4 years, just like Buddha did... all eras and cultures were at one point captured by this, because the demons and rituals r always the same, only the eras and ethnicities differ.

I hope u research deeper. Lahaye is a false prophet also.

First, the origin of gypsies is irrelevant to the original discussion as they were heavily present in the Carpathian Valley and were non-Christian practicing Pagans. They were the ones who lived in the surrounding mountains because of their mysticism. I never argued the origin of gypsies or if Romania is or is not Christian today. That is a distraction from the original discussion.

I have never viewed LaHaye as a prophet. I could care less about LaHaye's personal affiliation with various groups or the Biblical accuracy of his fictional story Left Behind. The curious point is that he explores one theory that the Anti-Christ originates from the Carpathian Valley and called him Carepthia. As I remarked there are other theories. I do not agree with religious entrepreneurialism and view it as the reason Jesus overturned the tables in the temple.

I avoid most discussions of the dark side and tend to focus on the winning side. I also note that Western Christian Theology is very different than Eastern Christian Theology. My grandparents were Eastern Rite Catholics and had a very different take of the Christian ..... Continue Internet Conversation

There are also holy angels assigned to regions, countries, cities. Here is the Office of the Holy Angels prayer https://youtu.be/QQ4ZbTHGNuY?feature=shared

Thank you Liz. There are guardian angels and humans can pray that the angels are dispatched to protect those in need of protection or to fight for the human. Can you provide attribution (verses) of Angels over regions other than fallen Angels. Thanks!

This Anglerium prayer is to the different chairs of angels. It's in Latin, but they provided the text in this YouTube video (in the show notes?) "Choirs" of angels related to the ranks of angels, the military ranks, (cherubim, seraphim, thrones, dominions, etc.) They have different purposes and tasks. I don't know that there exists a list, so to speak, of what angels are assigned to what regions (we probably aren't meant to know that). But I do know that there are angels assigned to the nations. I remember reading published by Sacred Science Institute ("Michael Collection") that they're investigating everything we know about the angels from the Bible, as well as whatever knowledge the Church has on the subject. I will try to find a link for you and post it.

If you listen to the Anglerium on this video and perhaps follow along with the text (in the show notes) you will be reciting the holy Office to the various ranks of angels and asking for their assistance. Sometimes I just like to pray it. If you listen to it enough, like anything else, you can memorize it. It's an ancient Christian prayer. Yes, everyone who was born has a guardian angel assigned to them from birth.

Thanks Liz. All I can locate in the Bible is that Angels are assigned to individual humans and are of the command of God and through Christ.

Fallen Angels were cast down and trapped in creation and they created demons.

Yes, but the demons ARE fallen angels, they fell of their own free will in rebellion against God. It would be good if you could get a copy of that book, it also explains the nature of demons.

Thanks again but my focus is on Jesus as my Lord and Savior. I do not want to get too deep into demonology. I also try to steer clear of religion which is the practice of what 'seems' to be true of the theology. In religion, they tend to make up a lot of stuff that is not supported in the Bible like Baptisms of Birth, can't dance, no music instruments are allowed in the Church, etc... Some religions are worse than others.

I try to stay at the doctrinal level as I am a Protestant grandfathered dispensationalist. This is the lense through which I see the Bible.

I came to Christ amidst a spiritual war raging all around me. Everywhere I turned I was under attack in some manner, at church, work, in my personal life. I had my renaissance, was baptized in a beachfront baptism Jesus Christ is my lord and savior. That was April 2020. But I had come to Christ many years prior and was not living a Christian life, so it was a true renaissance for me.

The strange thing is that people, mostly at stations in their faith behind mine own, proceeded to me assuming they alone possess the truth. Case and point, I was at a retreat morning with other three mates. They were in divorce, had debt, gambling, and bankruptcy issues, drug and jail time and came to Christ. I had none of that at all and had never Christian years before them. I had even been trained to leverage theology in combat operations. They never ever even asked if I had come to Christ at this Christian retreat. They assumed I was a heathen and they were there teaching everything I did or knew as wrong. They were apparently trained in a single verse theology throwing verses at me like whiz flung pods.

The point is that Jesus stands among the lamb stands and is in every church of which there are varying degrees of accuracy and errantry. Believers come from everywhere. Some never come from a church setting. They simply hear the word and get baptized then go their way. Acts 8:35-39. So why are Christians and churches to determine who Christ's children are when it is Christ who chooses you.

I believe Science is the consciousness lessening "technology" that has the metaphysical Christian power to swallow up evil in the "infinite calculus of Spirit." It has been in our midst for 150 years. I am always surprised by so many sincere Christians are completely unaware of it. It is the only Christian doctrine I know that can confront and destroy the aggressive suggestions of fundamental evil.

Hi Kay...Coincidentally, the Christian Science weekly Bible Lesson Responsive Reading May 13-19, is from Ephesians.

Ephesians 4:7 unto, 13, 17, 18, 22–24, 51, 6

4:7 ... unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

17 This we say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:

22 But ye have not so learned Christ;

23 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts,

23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

5 We ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;

6For ye are sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light:

You said something about Christian Science offering the most effective means for battling evil. Have you read Ephesians chapter 6 ?

I deeply distrust readings that leave out particular verses, especially readings from the New Testament (I'm not thinking about hearing such readings from public readings) I don't care who is doing it--Catholics, Anglicans, Christian Scientists. Leaving out verses can change the meaning of a passage--which, of course, is the intent.

I have avoided the big trappy traps (one in particular which has Oculus & Travolta on tape & lap & speed dial) as well as MOST of the tithing pits...

I study a lot. Laugh a lot. Eventually move on.

Labeled myself a Humanist. (Don't study Humanism. Just practice its Golden Rule tenets.)

I will now look at Christian Science (or perhaps peruse its Monitor), due to my curious nature which hasn't killed this cat yet.

Interesting comment. Thanks.

Of course, it is real. The fanatical politicians, the cowering one eye by celebrities, and the pyramid with the "eye of Providence" on the back of the one dollar U.S. bill are all indicative of this hidden-in-plain-sight reality. It's a not-so-secret "secret" society known as worldwide Freemasonry. Also, the Illuminati, the Bilderberger Club (i.e. the Washington Redskins!), London, Paris, Rome, and many other world capitals are occult symbols. Many works of fiction like "The Lord of the Rings" and "Harry Potter" are rampant with symbolism (e.g. "the ring of power to bind them" and the "all-seeing eye"). It makes me think all of these individuals are up to something with a not-so-hidden agenda. Obvious.

JRR Tolkien was a devout Catholic who went to Mass (our worship service) to receive the Eucharist daily. He said in a letter that the Lord of the Rings trilogy was essentially Catholic.
LOTR acknowledged the evil occultists/satanists with their rings of power and their "all seeing eye" and their genetic manipulation; and described the battle of humans/hobbits and angels (the elves in LOTR) "AGAINST" them.
Note that in the battle scenes of the hobbit or human character with whom we identify are allowed to use "magic", only natural work and physical battle. Also the Elves' wayforest symbolizes the Eucharist and Eucharistic symbolism.Mary.

I love reading novels by J.R.R. Tolkein. I was explaining that he had occult symbolism in his works of fiction, not that he was necessarily an occultist himself though he must have been familiar with it and about the subject. A book I was reading called "Mount Doom: The Prophesy of Tolkien Revealed" by Paul List and Gil Alsfeld contends "Tolkein's mythology was meant as a warning to humanity and his hope for the revival of Western civilization". I know he was a devout Catholic writer, and I have read and re-read "LOTR" and "The Hobbit" I love this part from "The Fellowship of the Ring":
"I wish it need not have happened in my time," said Frodo.
"So do I," said Gandalf, "and so do all who live to see such times. But that is not for them to decide. All we have to decide is what to do with the time that is given us."
Also, C.S. Lewis, perhaps the greatest Christian writer of the 20th century, was also into the occult as a young man before his conversion, but he wrote in his autobiography, "Surprised by Joy" how his imagination became baptized when he read "Phantastes" by George MacDonald that helped him grasp how this symbolism was not confined to the the pagans. Symbolism is itself neutral, and it is created by and used by God as much often be abused by the Enemy of Christ to lure unsuspecting humanity. Instead, I contend C.S. Lewis and J.R.R. Tolkein, who were friends at Oxford, realized that symbolism could be used to lure humanity to Christ. C.S. Lewis also recommended reading books from before the 20th century to avoid the pitfalls of modern thinking. Another author I like who writes on symbolism's use in movies is Fellow his advice and love. Similarly, I like to recommend Peter Pageau, a Canadian Orthodox Christian iconographer and his podcast "The Symbolic World" for fun and edification. Elizabeth https://www.thesymbolicworld.com/

As I mentioned who sits on the throne calling himself God on earth, that is the antichrist system, each one of them through history act as the head of the Church instead of Christ Jesus. I am convinced that hypnotism and deliberately employed hypnotic techniques (like subliminal messaging and symbols) plus PLAIN play a huge role in every manifestation of the occult. Recent staggings of scary symbolic messages are machiavellian theatres intended to transfix. These players operate according to a secret ideology and set of beliefs about the world and its people. Hypnotism immune to hypnotism, you're immune to them.Anyone who is actively studying, reading or just watching these things is not. Their intent is to hypnotize you. Don't be a victim of unwitting psychosis! Let me understand as hypnosis. When we sit quietly, staring at images being fed to us on a screen, we are not "standing pointe at the door of thought." (from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy) When we absorb uncritically a compelling, orchestrated ritual on our screen like Charles' coronation spook, or gaze in wondering horror at shocking images of trauma (the London fires, again orchestrated) without analysing and questioning, we are submitting to mental manipulation.

I am 2- 3 years ago, I would roundly agree to such ideas... having since looked into it in medium depth, YES, ABSOLUTELY there is an Elite/Occult connection, if not almost complete overlap of the sets...
NOW, I am not unsure if they ACTUALLY believe the mumbo-jumbo, or if it is all for show....using mock- and profane- traditions and ceremonies to -essentially- hypnotize vulnerable recruits or willing acolytes,(like a means of 'justifying' and 'rationalizing' within that context) the otherwise unpalatable or obscene beliefs...
On the other aspect is, we have been thoroughly conditioned to immediately sell our eyes dismissively at any mention of satanic ritual BS, thus making it possible for REAL satanic BS to be dismissed similarly... to make my argument why it is BS for show, and the REAL damage is done by psychopathic humans, NOT paranormal beings - when the greedy, grasping humans/who they recruit or extort decide to "whistleblow", as it were, they aren't visited by demons and consumed in an ectoplasma ball, they are suicided or just plain murdered in the usual shitty ways evil human beings do such shit acts...

I looked up images of the horses and they were not bats, they had bits and bridles and saddles it looks like. I think something weird is going on in the world but I think those horses caught their handlers off guard and took off running. Having said that, if you attribute the messaging to spiritual forces then you don't need to believe any human intentionality let them go in order to see it as an intended message. One thing about a Christian spiritual worldview (which I assume you don't hold to) is it removes the need for conspiratorial thinking when a pattern emerges. People sometimes conspire, but it's not required as an explanation.

Thanks as always, Naomi. I enjoyed your essay on the strange spell that has overtaken much of our human population... an excellent summary without imposing conclusions.

I suggest that this discussion would be complemented by including in it the human microbiome.

The human microbiome interacts in an extraordinary way with our physical and mental health. It is a two-way street with damage or healing to one producing commensurate changes in the other that can spread in downward direction. The process can be initiated internally or externally with or without our awareness ... but often without. It is that awareness that promises great results if we can improve it.

If I talk to myself in a quiet place am I meditating? Praying to an abstract cosmos? I will claim more than anything else I am speaking most directly to my own microbiome that diffuses throughout my body from the gut ... affecting my perspectives AT A QUI LEVEL...in a positive way if my executive function is wise enough to do it right. Or I can waste it and harm myself.

I'm not praying to the thin air ... I'm doing THAT. Fear propaganda can break my spirit. Or the right word is fear-ed. It is in the "function" of the executive function, our conscious awareness that can know itself if we are trained to do so. It may be the greatest miracle in all creation. Do we understand it? No, and neither will we explain it.

Pharmaceuticals and other substances can and do attack the microbiome and break the spirit. They can render one suicidal, autistic or otherwise handicapped just by damage to the microbiome with consequences that cascade out from the gut. The collective effects of the Global poisoning ... physical and and psychological ... can explain an awful lot of behavior in the world.

In exactly the same way, chemical GMO farming kills the soil microbiome breaking the spirit of the land and degrading the human microbiome population-wide. Or, if wisdom prevails, we regenerate the soil and thereby heal the land and creatures living on it and from it.

Understanding and nurturing both is essential to our future.

This is my heavy dive bit full optimism.. first to give some context, based on Elena Danaan's work, Lucifer is Marduk, one of the Annunaki who was Enki/Prince Ea's son, who went towards the dark side with the Annunaki Enlil (whose mother was a Draco reptilian queen and father was Anu the Annunaki emperor), who alongside the Draco reptilian ET's were at the top of the hierarchy of the Freemasons/illuminati/Luciferians/Cabal/Illuminati running Earth. Based on various truthers, I believe the last ET's are not a threat to Earth now.

I think many of the most Annunaki aren't bad, the Annunaki are a society of different ET races that possibly originally was created in an attempt to unite different species of the ever-displaced Lyran race, that was driven from Sirius by a society of benevolent Draconis, whereas most aligned with Sirius, but are also very likely looking at controlling galaxy pictures, this meme has a possible Sirius picture of a Draco's face.

I know she's often a contrarian, attention seeking jackass but Camille Paglia said something profound and I think it's relevant here, not because being transsexual is at all inherently occult but because this just happen to be so increasingly disproportionately trans in comparison to general public as well as hybrid trans - aka hairy styles, alpha muteness, Paglia says - I'll provide YouTube clip - when civilizations crumble - she sees when you see an explosion of trans stuff in public that's a symptom (not cause more so external symptom) of a society crumbling. Just saying why I think she interests me.

Baphomet IS occult. They push the trans movement because they r demented devil worshippers and Lucifer is both male and female, thus the statue w penis and breasts, they R recruiting humans in Lucifer's image, a Lucifer Race, why there r crap narratives in the sex and 'confusion', God's name is in our dna, they r separating us from God any way they can.

These trans humans r VICTIMS. Society isn't crumbling, they r exploding & themselves, on purpose.

This is an ancient occult CoS of super rich inbreds that has had a monopoly for centuries if not millenia, if we r to be saved, and have been behind most wars in history.

They hate humans because they consider themselves reptilian, aka humans a fallen angel dna.

Before the flood they were giants, after they r known as 'reptilians'.

Why everything is w snakes and why La Quinta Columna went to lots to ask questions, w their troubles project, trying to find out what on earth is in the sun, that of course is our home.

THEY believe this, look up the Rothschilds/Rockefellers, they believe they come from Nimrod, who was a reptilian giant.

Black Pill News · Black Pill News · May 23 · edited May 23

Truth, there are reptilian ancestor cronies, like Ishe or even Alex Jones r always there to disclose some and to about the rest.

The Cult worships a variety of demonic entities, some Lucifer, some Baal, some Baphomet, Moloch, Lilith etc etc etc. Basically it's all demon worship, not just get confused about who worships which.

The masons r Luciferians. Even Pythagoras was a Cult leader, various incarnations and interpretations thru the ages and cultures, but some archetypes and entities are pretty bloody much.

All religions r captured at the top, Rithschilds own the Vatican bank, I see the pope bow to kiss the Rothschilds' hand, Islam obviously. It's why we have pedo priests, cause they r freemasons shilling as christians, desecrating our holy books and churches.

The real Holocaust was the 7 million ukrainians and overall 20 million slavs killed by the Bolsheviks, the communists that were all freemasons before 1900 and till the jews were a chrild jews in Europe before the war and 2 mio jews of 525 at most.

Thousands did die in the camps of starvation, alongside the said millions of slavs.

The COMMUNISTS killed everybody, NOT HITler!

Hitler, like Trump, protected he s patriot, a nationalist and a tradition-loving Christian, while being a demented satanist, the nazis were was magik indulging pederasts that worshiped THE NEPHILIM, NOT 'virgin' Yahweh! But 'aryan giants' ala the fallen angels' human hybrids that had 6-7 fingers and toes, double set of teeth, demonic DNA, were cannibals, and were also the 'old men of renown' according to the bible. (Gigamesh, Nimrod, Hercules...the mythologies)

This is why Hitler went all over 1500 km2 for Shangri-La and the race if dimgards to this day the 'elites' believe they come from.

Hitler was also, jewish! His mistress blackmailed him w this and he paid him off (the book The Last Of The Hitlers, inside the Zhirelogue, The MAGI Of Adolf Hitler, Hitler escaped to Antarctica (documentary Hollow Earth by the Foot Brothers), and he basically simply SACRIFICED THE GERMANS in a blood ritual, to his demonic gods Moloch/Baal.

The nazis already had UFOs because they had a pact in the 1930s, they were doing the Vril Society aka working in the alleged Reptilian Race.

The nazis did NOT lose the war, after all Operation Paperclip made a nazi Head of Nato and another head of US Space force.

That is why and how they faked the moon landing, they learned well how to LIE: they don't call Satan the Father of Lies for no reason!

Today 1939? and the 4th Industrial Revolution AIRE the original nazis, as Klaus Schwab is from a famous nazi family, even in Canada they saluted the nazi in congress, the Azov battalion IS the nazis army, Zelensky was wearing his Iron Star shirt on CNN! They blatantly blamed nazi during Ukraine.

The fourth Industrial revolution IS the Fourth Reich, after all fascism IS the Dictatorship of the Corporation, and that IS what is coming.

1984 meets Revelation, cause they r hooking us up to their clouds and have injected billions w computing systems that will hack their bodies at microscopic level, FROM INSIDE.

Imagine a form of slavery where a soul is trapped in this body, and v.v slave FOREVER to demented inbred devil worshippers, thru their AI clouds and nanotech controlling ur body, where u don't even have ur own memories, feelings, or any control over ur body...or cannot endure even in DEATH.

That is what is coming, Book of Revelation: 'men will seek death and be unable to die!' 🤯 Yuval said they r going under the veil and Schwab said we will been nothing' by 2030...not ur mind, not r body, not even ur death

Thanks for the links, I am still listening, but they r not very credible, in my opinion. They acknowledge the Book of Enoch is from 3rd century BC, but not its' crucial value, and the fact this is the ancient jab at 'jews', which is a modern term and a very broad and inaccurate umbrella, and they do not acknowledge the Ethiopian bible, which is the most complete (it includes the Apocrypha), or that freemasons and saturnist King James, who outlawed the Geneva Bible and cut the bible down from 80 books to 66, and who had the Apocrypha removed, as it was the Book of Ancient Mysteries to both mistranslate the original text and deceive believers.

The book of Enoch talks about how the Fallen Angels slept w human women, giving birth to the Nephilim race, a part human part fallen angel hybrid, which many 'elites' believe themselves to be. The Rothschilds and Rockefellers allegedly they descend from Nimrod, who was a reptilian giant.

So the Book Of Enoch is connected to a very good reason - it shows what they consider to be their origin, the demigods of Greece and Rome were reptilian giants, like Hercules, Gilgamesh etc.

Also, Alexander the Great was into the occults, so was Aristotle, thus, like King James, all that satanic beliefs and performed blood rituals. King James was also gay, thus, at the time, clearly NOT a christian, and he is one of the forefathers of freemasonry, a satanist, he is in their lodges.

The reptilian race and the demonic manipulation of humans, plants and animals was the reason why God purged the earth, the entire world genetics were so tainted a reset was necessary, they did then to us what they r doing now, constantly altering our dna.

These reptilian bloodlines r both inbred and demented and today they hide behind numbers (fakes), just as Hames is hidden between freemasons and schools, while being a creation of the Rothschilds, who r thrueam by bloodline but cut themselves away and created the military state of Israel.

It's why the bible calls them fake jews and the synagogue of satan.

A correct distinction between these inbred and demented reptilian bloodlines and humans is critical in history, accuracy, as the real 'chosen people' are humans, 'Hebrew' means human.

Unfortunately today's hother movement is captured by cia agents blaming all jews, the bolsheviks were Satanists and performed blood rituals. King James was also gay, thus, at the time clearly NOT a christian, and he is one of the forefathers of freemasonry, a satanist, he is in their lodges.

Anyhow, Troy Smith did a great documentary on the Nephilim, and on Bitchute there is a great +40min piece on the 'gods' a elongated skulls and 6-7 fingers and toes that all ancient ppl worshipped, they were the ancient pharaohs etc, and it's why obama and clinton were painted 6-6 fingers.

They / the real racists and they / behind the current genocide because they consider themselves a superior race and hate humans.

My main research for today's (ww) because they acknowledge the nephilim and many blame the jews in general, which is why it is important to differentiate everything very accurately, as if we do not we fall for the divide and conquer, cause of the Rothschilds bloodlines etc. It's the cause of the rise in 'antisemitism' that has given the jews further reason for the wars go to killing, while as Americans / both against them but i used and abused by it.

Judaism does not mean tarmudism either.

Or how ppl blame catholics for the Pope and so many priests being pedos, when, in fact this Cult is, as the infiltration to it's name, NOT the catholic christians, as I myself blamed them, before i became a believer, and realized this is a spiritual war to mindfck and divide humans against each other, by Illiterate demented luciferic-x trillions to types and a real hatred of humans, God's Children and real Christians/Yeshua.

Yes, Enoch was. The Book of Enoch has been part of the Ethiopian Bible since the beginning.

THEY were the reason the Flood happened, just like they had polluted the genome and doe of all life on earth, plants, humans, animals, only Noah and his family were left untainted. It wasn't "punishment"...allegations n'

No in the days of Noah !

It's the stupid ass yelling emoticon reach stupid by vax zealots.

I know it sounds ridiculous. I call this the Jeffrey Dahmer Syndrome. while smelling the decomp for years, all his neighbors rationalized how it was the sewer, because they could not accept the 'stupid' idea of a demented serial killer. 'IN' WE WIS.

It's it's the "jews" can u tell me why G Soros, a "jew" is paying for the Anti-Israel protests at universities in the US? What is he getting out of it by telling everyone "Esa, it's THE JEWS!!!!!!!!" ANYY is he, being "jewish" doing THAT?

Btw, Trump recently reshared an AI picture of himself praying, in it fingers, Somehow 'coincidentally' the AI paused Hands making this 'mistake', giving everyone 6 fingers, it can copy human shape perfectly just can't count to 5 correctly... 🤔 ...am sure Trump juuust didn't notice 😉

The problem is they have Agenda 2030, and I trying hard to bring about APOCALYPSE, can u see THAT?

Either it IS End Times, or they r trying HARD to make it.

Traditional Judaism (Orthodox and Conservative) never viewed the Messiah as a God-Man, but only a man with unusual power from God who will manifest the Glory of a prophet, priest and king in Israel. They have described the Messiah in a dual role. First would come the "suffering servant (Messiah ben Joseph), who would die in battle against the enemies of Israel, preparing the way for the second Messiah. The second Messiah would be a descendant of King David (Messiah ben David), and would redeem Israel and rule over her at the end of days. Messiah ben David will secure the land of Israel for the Jewish people, bring peace and blessing to Israel and the world, rebuild the Temple on its historical site, and reinstitute the sacrificial system.

Modern Judaism (Reform) has reinterpreted the messianic hope. Instead of a "personal Messiah", there will come a messianic age which is brought about through the humanist progression of world leaders negotiating for peace. When universal peace, righteousness and justice are established in the world, then Israel will enjoy peace in her land forever.

This belief looks for a world leader to bring peace.

Many thanks for this very true and necessary address. I see an hour of you discussing these things with Alex Jones. I couldn't help but notice the way God's spirit, the Spirit of truth, moved your conversation with Jones, and ended up enlightening all of us with your conclusions, which you also expand upon here in your current message. I have studied these things from the viewpoint of a student of the holy scriptures for many years, and have learned that when a people go down the dark side of the occult, coupled with the covenant of secrecy to maintain and increase power and riches, coupled with sex, which, for lack of a better term, could be called a "secret combination," i.e. definition, a group of individuals who band together to protect each other, and fanatically ritualize them of them who have been slain, for they cry from the dust for vengeance upon it, and also of whom it is said such as 2Ti 3 For it cometh to pass that whoso bulldeth it up seeketh to overthrow the freedom of all lands, nations, and countries, and to bringeth to pass the destruction of all people, for it is built up by the devil, who is the father of all lies, even that same lie which he beguiled our first parents, yea, even that same lie which hath caused man to commit murder from the beginning, who hath hardened the hearts of men that they hardened the prophets, and stoned them, and cast them out from among them. This evil secret combination is what we are all seeing, and in shock over, in my opinion.

Hi,

Thanks again, love this pivotal post !!

Here's Evidence as exemplified with one Biden post, showing too that the most fib issue is the Trojan horse new Anti flu vaccine.

SATANIST Demelete Dealalaska is now the second highest paid person in the Biden Administration (outside of Biden himself).

He rose to this rank in just a few years and is as above, a publicly avowed Satanist.

His current role (after the monkeypox outbreak among the gay community), is Avian flu, public health and immunology (vaccination public).

This supports my 5 yr thesis:

That the most important agent of social and ideological new religious fundamentalism change, is via a well pandemic and a Trojan horse vaccine.

The SMART vaccine minus yearly patch. A scannable Qr code that has proof of vaccine and ID and digital banking etc in one body "patch" micromedia vaccine.

Below is an excellent fully referenced further thread,it's from Vigilant Citizen mostly. The photos are all there.

SATANIST Demelete Dealalaska has been nominated in 2022 by Joe Biden as the White House's official deputy monkeypox response coordinator.

We talked about it at the time, let's talk about it again.

🧵 Threads 🧵

1.

Premise

Demelete Dealalaska, the White House's new deputy coordinator of the National Monkeypox Response, is deeply involved in all things satanic.

He is now one of America's top public health officials.

Here's a look at her disturbing photos that appeared on social media (added end of this email).

The Cow of Monkeypox

The spread of monkeypox in the United States does not bode well for the Biden administration heading into the midterm elections.

Then, on August 2, 2022, some movies were made. Robert Fenton, former acting head of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), was named "emailbox coordinator," and Demelete Dealalaska, director of the Division of HIV Prevention at the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), became his deputy. Anthony Fauci, the president's chief medical advisor, said:

«From Bob's work at FEMA leading mass COVID-19 vaccination efforts and providing vaccines to the most underserved communities, to Demelete's extensive experience and leadership in health equity and STD prevention and of HIV, I expect this team will enable the Biden administration to further accelerate and strengthen its response to monkeypox."

Of the two, Robert Fenton is by far the "bigger" name.

Considering the fact that he was responsible for FEMA's response to 9/11 and Hurricane Katrina, he can already be considered a historic figure in the history of the United States.

However, it is Dealalaska who garners 99% of the media attention.

Why?

Because, like everything else in politics, the movie had an important public relations dimension attached to it.

Above: Dealalaska wears a Pentagram-shaped leather S&M garment on a magazine cover.

The entire combination of public relations, occultism and public health.

Dealalaska' social media accounts are filled with photos showing off his tattoos that include an inverted Pentacle and another that reads Jesus Christ.

These photos have caused some people to wonder: Has the White House nominated a real Satanist to become one of the nation's "public health officials"?

As usual, media sources broke the story in an article from The Advocate 8 we can read:

2.

One of the many titles that celebrated Dealalaska.

The media's main focus: Dealalaska is gay.

This is almost an achievement.

To his credit it must be said that he was active in the places where monkeypox spread....

«According to "The Atlantic" 2, Dealalaska ran an HIV and hepatitis screening clinic in a small office inside a libertarian sadomasochistic club called "Redfine," where men could pay forty dollars to party without cuts or dresses.

NBC News 3 wrote that he also dressed in drag to administer meningitis vaccines at sex clubs and bathhouses during an outbreak in New York City, it reported.

In an interview with The Atlantic, he claimed to have learned this type of bedside work at the "East Village Drag Queen"

In a 2021 interview with The Advocate 5, [the most important magazine of the American gay community], Ed J Dealalaska outlined his "plan" to eradicate HIV:

"To end the epidemic, we must have a clear focus on socially transmitted diseases and hepatitis, and we must address the systemic racism, sexism, homophobia and transphobia that hinder our progress. I'm excited that we will get closer to addressing HIV as a new outbreak so we can put an end to it."

By using politically charged words like "systemic racism, sexism, homophobia and transphobia" to address a health issue, we can already see that there is a clear ideological dimension to Dealalaska's nomination.

But there is much more than all this. Dealalaska is literally covered in satanic imagery.

What does this choice mean for "public health" in the United States and for the White House in general?

4.

To spin this story, this article engaged in shameless misinformation.

First of all, the tattoo is not a simple Pentacle. It is an inverted Pentacle.

pentagramsacrosscrossculturesfolklo... the same one used on the official logo of the Church of Satan.

The Seal of Baphomet, the official symbol of the Church of Satan.

Dealalaska pretty much has this thing for his chest.

The letters corresponding to the points are Hebrew and correspond to the name "Leviathan" one of the biblical names of the devil.

Here's what Marty Palmer Hall (1901-1990), a true occultist (and not a disinformation journalist), has to say about Reversed Pentacles:

5.

Furthermore, The Advocate's article purposely ignores the hundreds of highly satanic images that can be found on Dealalaska' Instagram accounts.

Satanogram

Shortly after getting the new job, Dealalaska' Instagram account went private.

However, some sources managed to capture some screenshots. And they are quite eloquent.

Above: His personal account contains occult and satanic images such as this upside-down Pentacle inside which is a crucifix that appears to be used for ritual purposes.

Here, Dealalaska mocks Jesus Christ, a recurring theme in his images.

Internet studio also found that

Dealalaska follows The Satanic Temple on Instagram.

6.

These images demonstrate that Dealalaska is not simply "interested" in Satanism and that he is not just trying to be cool.

He is deeply involved in all that is occult. It defines it. And there's more. A few years ago, Dealalaska and his partner Michael Ben Reichel founded Monster Cycle in New York.

And, long story short, it's a satanic gym.

Above: Demelete Dealalaska and her "fiancé" Michael MacNeal. Note that the latter wears a fetish sex slave collar around his neck.

That's the only way to describe it. The gym's Instagram account contains every single occult and satanic symbol that has been mentioned on VigilantCitizen.

The location of the gym itself is highly symbolic.

Above: The gym is inside a former church. Satanic black masses are about the desecration of Christianity, and turning a church into a satanic gym is the best way to achieve this.

Dealalaska writes on Instagram with a certain irony: «Who will come to church today?»

Notice the strange symbol on the church door and at the entrance: a sort of cross with three arms.

Above: workouts take place within occult symbols such as the Decagram (Ten-Pointed Star) drawn on the gym floor. The invitation mentions "Friday night rituals".

Satanists celebrate unchurches like it 3 am on Friday, the day and hour in which Jesus Christ died on the cross...

«Our version of Black Friday» black magic rituals.

Dealalaska' personal Instagram account was tagged in this photo which features inverted crosses drawn in blood.

It is tagged in numerous photos posted on this account.

Above: In a photo taken by Dealalaska, MacNeal poses in front of a giant inverted Pentacle, while wearing a creepy mask...and posing as the crucified Jesus.

In the comments Dealalaska writes: «Another Friday night doing magic».

Above: The church's original stained glass windows have been replaced with another type of "art." like this image of the devil replacing Jesus Christ at the Last Supper.

Dealalaska poses proudly in front of it.

Above: the devil makes the horns gesture with his hands. The caption of the photo: "It's almost time to sell your soul." But is it really a spinning class?

8.

Dealalaska with his partner in front of the background where the number 666 is repeated several times.

The antichrist number 666 is everywhere on his Instagram account.

Above: The Devil's Night Event is promoted using an image from the highly satanic Netflix series "Chilling Adventures of Sabrina" (666 twitter.com/levitic_maniacs...).

Above: The gym celebrates Halloween with a "blood rave," a party where everyone is covered in (hopefully fake) blood.

So, yes, these people are completely on board with the occult elite's obsession with human blood (for information on article on Blood twitter.com/levitic_maniacs...).

9.

A satisfied customer at the blood rave. Note the number 666 and the gesture of the horns. (Photos at end of email).

Above: «Satan is waiting». Do you need proof to believe that Dealalaska is deeply involved in Satanism?

Dozens of other highly symbolic images could be added.

So, no, the fact that Dealalaska is deeply involved in Satanism is not an invention of "crazy conservative trolls." It's an undeniable fact.

10.

Conclusion :

When Dealalaska was first named "monkeypox czar," the mass media went into full public relations mode.

Completely ignoring former FEMA Director Robert Fenton, media coverage focused on Dealalaska' sexual orientation.

However, when it was revealed that Dealalaska is deeply involved in all things satanic, the mass media denied this, even shamelessly immersing themselves in outright disinformation.

As seen in this article, Dealalaska is not simply "interested" in Satanism, but devil worship is an integral part of his life.

Let's imagine for a second that he was a Christian and posted a similar amount of Christian-themed photos on his Instagram account.

What would be the general opinion? That he is a devout Christian?

Well, using the same logic, one can assume that he is a devout Satanist. That said, I don't care about his personal beliefs.

Above: A transsexual member of the Satanic Temple demonstrates politics by LGBT rights. The sign reads "Trans-Queer for Satan".

However, Dealalaska is now a leading public health figure in the country. And, since COVID, we have discovered (much to our horror) that "health officials" can be given vast, never-seen, God-like powers.

This kind of power should be given to someone who is so obsessed with Satanism and from all that comes from it?

His social media posts involve ancient the concepts of evil, death, blood, occult rituals, human sacrifice and absolute hatred for Christianity.

Is this the kind of mentality you want from someone who wants to put a needle in your arm?

For me it's a no!

Naomi, only those who have a personal relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ will be saved from the Tribulation and the End Final Battle. This is definitely a full gospel and non-Trinitarian faith. The only question we are looking for an answer to is whether the Lord will save the earth and destroy the Evil and give the human race more time to do good and live on this earth during no harm. We are called to repent of our collective and individual sins to the Father Jehovah God only through the blood sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Jesus is the Son of God and God the Father. Jesus is not God the Father and God the Godhead. GG God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. Jesus will be the Believers and there will follow a 7 year Tribulation where 2/3 of the humans will die. Jesus returns to wage the Battle of Armageddon (in the plain of Israel where he saves the faithful Jews in Israel and any who have been martyred for their love of God by the Anti Christ! As the heavens are revealed and the Final Battle where Lord King Jesus defeats all of the Luciferians and the Fallen Angels and finally the evil 3 (Prophet, Beast, Anti Christ) and finally Lucifer himself is thrown into the fiery pit and chained there forever. The Bride of Christ now celebrates by returning to a newly created heaven and earth. Read the last book of the Bible, Revelation, in a modern translation. You will see where we are.

On the subject of subliminal and repetition repetition is the most common form of brainwashing. It takes about 21 repetitions to create new pathways in the brain. Our Psychology books I highly recommend, on this.

It's very Operation Mockingbird CIA- owned news is so repetitive. THEY KNOW!

In truth, when a hear something repeatedly, u don't have to believe it, your brain absorbs it without judgement, all it takes is repetition to brainwash somebody, it will bypass their cognitive filters and get so straight in to the subconscious.

Another aspect of this is hypnotic induction- the more relaxed the body and mind are, the closer to the Alpha brain state <, which is the brain state or mind ABSORBS information.

This is why hypnotherapy / used Alpha primarily in clinical hypnotherapy to prepare the deeper Theta (right before Delta, which is sleep), for optimal responses.

It's how u condition Trump Derangement Syndrome just take a person because they were repetitively told to, not because they know anything real bad he did. The bad things he really did I never do the news cause he is fake opposition, we r dating sucks so commercials are like WWII.

In truth, NASAU Maqua is the highest rank in the hierarchy of the Church of Satan: he is mocking christians like Hitler did, they like to pretend.

I took a specialty training in the only accredited institute of Clinical Hypnosis, in the US, it's here in Burbank, Ca.

Truth is, I can put a client in to alpha (or eyes flutter) when it best receives information. When ur body relaxes but ur mind is still alert, u usually easily enter this state. Every time u go to sleep u go thru this stage to fall asleep; from Beta (active, it still beats) to Alpha (relaxed but still alert) to information, in or right (wind), to Theta (deep soul memories) to Delta (asleep).

They tested out the perfect hypnotic induction bible rate for hrs, on monkeys, BEFORE the first TV came on market.

If u watch tv for 20min, you have been in deep hypnotic trance for the past 15.

Why do we think they 'count shows in'? Tvs 6-4-3-2-1? It's because THEY'S HYPNOTIC INDUCTION.

We do that in session of hypnotherapy: u relax the body, u count the person in... THEN the messaging begins.

I can also use TV monitor patterns from the 50s, where if plugged in, even if turned off, the monitor will send signals to ur brain to cause u to turn it on.

When they use subliminals, we don't notice, BUT THE BRAIN DOES.

That may be but the main universities are controlled (possibly the exceptions may be small) independent Christian universities). However, it does not follow that all people with PhDs are brainwashed or that all of what they learn is used to brainwash since many clever and discerning people with PhDs did resist the so-called "vaccine" that was really a gene-transfecting agent. Thankfully, I had self-biology at college and could figure it out for myself but more useful than my degree in linguistics was reading the Bible and studying the Reformers' and Puritans' writings at Reformed Theological College. I'm not sure whether any of my college was not woke nor controlled then and had professors from the former USSR and Eastern Europe who escaped Communism and told me directly what it was like to grow up there. Praise God Christian author C.S. Lewis wrote in his work of fiction "The Screwe Tape Letters" about how the demons would make mainstream education a state of disbelief in God and therefore make them unwise fools. Knowledge is still important and useful throughout history, but wisdom is the ability to tell the difference between right and wrong. Proverbs 9:10 in the Hebrew Bible attests to the point.

I lectured at a top US university for ten years and they sure deleted me off Linkedin as soon as I questioned the shots!

I am a communist survivor Eastern European myself.

U r right about using discernment, the bible tells us I usually go to the Geneva Bible, Greek translation, and Tindale, not the Hebrew bible, since it's been such a target of satanic manipulation by the evil Monopoly that did everything possible to appropriate judaism.

The 'new thing' seems to be denying Jesus existed, or that his name is Jesus.

And how global is this.

Solution wise, just that one energetic / qi going or whatever it meditation ?

Why not the tons of other great energetic solutions we have ? And more optimism.

Eg sound is a frequency , detoxing, earthing, acupuncture.

Why wear a heavy metal toy and do a moving meditation thing to kinetica ... Yet pray in Latin ?

It's inconsistent. If you're saying it's all energy ejihoning and oil, why evoke that hyper aggressive "energetics" ?

Something about the dialogue being one way too, not subject to scrutiny. Too ths one 70 euro book?

Have you ever heard of the Dead Sea Scrolls. Even the oldest Greek manuscripts are copies of the original. Textual criticism shows both the Old and New Testament are extremely close to the originals. I also suggest you look into oral tradition. AND the respect the Hebrew scribes had for the text. The Hebrew Bible is more accurate than you are assuming. I agree the Masoretic text plays at least 90 degrees am from 2 of the best universities in the world and I got a great education worth more than I paid for it. You are falling into the trap of the serpent when he asked EVE, "Did God really say..." THAT IS THE KEY QUESTION ABOUT ALL BIG BOOKS WE CALL THE BIBLE. "Did God really say?" Everyone needs to think about the question: Is God speaking to us through the history of the Jews. Are they really a nation of priests and a light to the other nations. Followers of Jesus are adopted into that family of the people of God, inspired by the dialogue. Good questions.

Yes, the Dead Sea Scrolls r a discovery of the 20th century, I consider the newer the least scientifically credible, considering the Monopoly had been in the place for a minimum of 2 centuries, and they have had a full grasp of and r in control of academia and education for at least the last century.

I also lectured for a decade at one of the top 3 US public universities, they deleted me so fast off LinkedIn when I questioned the deadly mandates! High ed is worth zero today.

King James was a satanist who cut down the +350books to a satanic 66, I mean it's undeniable.

My Japanese also Ancient Greek, in focus on ancient cultures and ancient written languages, so Hebrew linguistics. I know just enough to remember they burnt the Library of Alexandria for a reason, I trust nothing really after the death of Christ, and all my degrees didn't even teach me the good stuff, yet I read all of ancient literature. I still only know pieces of the puzzle, they do a good job hiding the bits near view.

I have a polylogist degree with zero cause all I knew was Rockefeller curriculums. They killed education and turned it into brainwashing. We all know this while believing we know a lot. Dark psychology and propaganda subjects is what we r.

The people of God are the humans, the human race.

I would argue it is just who r falling into the trap the proverbs talk about: the real power of evil lies in its ability to disguise itself & the best lie the devil ever told was making ppl believe he did not exist.

"From the spiritual into the material. We are living between 2 worlds." Where does it say this in the Bible? We have trouble obeying God in the material world. This is understanding the Bible through a Greek world view not Hebrew.

The Greek is the earliest bible we have preserved, NOT the Hebrew

I am not sure what you mean. I learned Hebrew reading Genesis. Job is the oldest book in the Hebrew Bible. For credibility I have 3 degrees in Biblical studies.

Rockefeller has taken over education for 200 hundred years. I have an MA in World Literature myself, and a Bachelor of Arts and Ma, all worth zero, considering the Monopoly. Same as medicine.

The earliest version of the bible we have preserved is the Septuagint from 280BC, it's in Greek and Aramaic, NOT Hebrew. Any Hebrew version is a retranslation by who knows who, not an original. Same w the Latin version. The oldest bible we have is preserved in Greek.

Hi, to out of curiosity , are all modern available bibles Satanist re-writes.

And regarded as utterly corrupt by academic theists ?

Where do you suggest gain start the Nacent if they wanted to.

I'm agnostic but like literature. I don't mean to be rude but the old testament seems unbelievable and a bit boring (so much fake news etc).

And if we ever thought of dipping in to see a text of a major religion, then wouldn't mo it be deemed pointless now ?

If the sociopaths have butchered it?

Hi Sara, sorry for the long delay in answering this. Yes, u r very right about the flawed and manipulated translations and rewriting of holy books. After all, they didn't burn the Library of Alexandria for nothing, I'd read anything or daydream, skepticism and robust challenging!

I would start w the Book Of Enoch, which was taken out of the Bible by the Rewsen and manipulated translators and rewriters of holy books. After the most complete bible preserved to date. The book of Enoch is relevant because it talks about the Nephilim, which today's genocidal killer scientist themselves to be, also a cross breed between fallen angels and human women, that many allege was the reason the Flood event happened. The genetic alteration of humans, hence also why soon so severe that God had to save the only genetically unaltered humans left... those r the allegations.

As for the old testament, I would have said the Septuagint from 280BC, but I have since learned that the Septuagint was also a translation and rewriting of the burning fault, he is presented a hero both in the Septuagint and Hebrew (Geneva Bible, Tindale etc., anything PRE King James), in Exodus 33-40 for example, where it clearly states he came w "horned lights" on his head and how they were 'ahhah' of him , even Leonardo portrayed him w horns, many ancient artists knew this, even th Egyptian 1000, an Occitan history of the world from the 1200s, he was portrayed w horns, but NOT Jesus!!

I would read the exodis and teachings of Christ over anything before him, now, after deeper research: Also King James and the captured Catholic

The Great Awakening is not a one-shot now-I-know-everything. The great Awakening is a process. Naomi is on a journey. So am I. So are you.
