STORY AT-A-GLANCE

- Organized crime laundered billions of dollars during World War II, forming the precursor of the CIA — the Office of Strategic Services (OSS)
- The web of corruption grew from there, as criminal factions and intelligence agencies developed a symbiotic relationship using blackmail as a tool to achieve their goals
- There's evidence that the fusion of organized crime and government occurred even before what was formally termed Operation Underworld, beginning with the Democratic party in New York City, which was entwined with organized crime in the early 20th century
- It's not just about money, although wealth is certainly part of it; it's about power and control, which those involved, including Jeffrey Epstein, would stop at nothing to achieve
- Webb explains her reasons for believing Epstein won't be replaced with a cadre of new blackmailers; thanks to modern surveillance technology, they can find blackmail material on anyone without any help

Investigative journalist Whitney Webb spoke with The Jimmy Dore Show about her book, "One Nation Under Blackmail: The Sordid Union Between Intelligence and Crime That Gave Rise to Jeffrey Epstein." The book is so long — and packed with so many incredible details and references — that it was split into two volumes.

When you get into this fascinating read, you learn that organized crime fused with intelligence agencies during World War II, forming the precursor of the CIA — the Office of Strategic Services (OSS).

The web of corruption grew from there, as criminal factions and intelligence agencies developed a symbiotic relationship using blackmail as a tool to achieve their individual ends. It's not just about money, although wealth is certainly part of it. It's about power and control, those involved, including Jeffrey Epstein, would stop at nothing to achieve.

War Was Used to Justify the Precursor to the CIA

When I interviewed Webb in 2022, she started at the beginning, going back to World War II, detailing the connections between the intelligence community in the U.S. and organized crime. There was a decentralized network of different organized crime factions operating in the U.S. in the early 20th century. It was known as the national crime syndicate. Webb told Dore:[1]

"Historically, organized crime in the U.S. — most people are probably familiar with it because of Hollywood — tended to be an ethnic enclave. So you don't have Irish organized crime, the Jewish mob, the Italian mafia and so on. The national crime syndicate broke down those silos and brought these different groups together. That made them a lot more successful."

According to Webb, the main people behind this were Meyer Lansky, representing the Jewish mob, and Lucky Luciano of the Italian mafia. The pair formally teamed up with the Office of Naval Intelligence and the OSS during World War II.

"OSS is the precursor to the CIA," Webb said, "and this was justified as necessary because it was the war, right? So a wartime necessity justification." Webb continued:[2]

"Then the war ends and the intelligence apparatus of the U.S. and these mob guys realize they have a lot in common and they work really well together. So that's why in the '50s and '60s you see a lot of people involved in assassination stuff for the CIA ... you see a lot of mob guys around, for example. There's a lot of other examples of them intersecting on and off over the years."

From there, it expanded into shadow banking, finance and the world of corporate power as well "and just really became out of control," Webb said. "This was a worldwide effort, however, not one contained to the U.S.

"The Israeli intelligence got involved in this developing power nexus," she continued, "because the Jewish mob side of the national crime syndicate was heavily involved in the arming of the Haganah [a paramilitary group] and the precursor to the IDF [Israel Defense Force]. So, basically, by the time the state of Israel is created, these alliances are part of its national security state from the off."[3]

Operation Underworld — The Consolidation of Power Networks

Webb states there's evidence that the fusion of organized crime and government occurred even before what was formally termed Operation Underworld, beginning with the Democratic party in New York City, which was entwined with organized crime in the early 20th century. The mob had taken over most of the unions, which means they had also largely taken over the Democratic party.

Later it expanded to the Republican party as well, but initially power consolidation began in New York, including with the political machine Tammany Hall. Infamous New York described it this way:[4]

"Organized, politically connected and deadly, by the 1870s the gangs of New York had metastasized from hoodlums hordes of criminals of the Civil War era into a cancerous pox, directed and controlled by New York's political machine, Tammany Hall. With names like the Dead Rabbits, the Whyos, the Monk Eastmans, and the Five Pointers, gangs became a hallmark of New York politics in the early 20th Century"

Sexual Blackmail's Role in US History

One theme that pops up repeatedly in Webb's book is the use of sexual blackmail in various scandals in U.S. history. She ties it back to Jeffrey Epstein, who, she says, is not an anomaly with behavior exclusive to him:[5]

"This is a type of activity that has been done over and over again in our political system ... It's a type of operation that was perfected first by the mob. So this is something that's really born out of, in my opinion, this organized crime intelligence team. It's been going on for an excessive amount of time at this point."

J. Edgar Hoover, who led the FBI from 1924 to 1972 and was the top law enforcement official in the U.S., was sexually blackmailed by the mob in the '30s, Webb said, which is why he didn't go after organized crime:[6]

"The sexual blackmail operation that entrapped him [Hoover] also intimately involved a man named Roy Cohn, who was best known as Donald Trump's mentor. And the two of them, along with the mob-linked businessman named Lewis Rosenstiel, were seen engaging in sexual blackmail operations themselves. But, again, Hoover and Cohn only joined that after they had been entrapped — and this involved minors."

Epstein's Ties to the Powerful Elite

Scandals involving sexual blackmail are numerous in U.S. political history. Webb rattles off several, including the page boy scandal in 1982, where congressmen were caught engaging in sex with underage Congressional pages, as well as the Franklin Scandal, a nationwide child trafficking and pedophilia ring. The most prominent modern-day scandal, however, involves Epstein.

Epstein, while dismissed as a simple sex criminal, was far more instrumental to the globalist cabal than it first appears. In addition to being a mastermind at shadow banking and illicit finance, he engaged in major financial crimes and lied ties to many powerful people, from Bill Clinton, Bill Gates and Donald Trump to the CIA, which Webb details in her book:[7]

"In my book I talk about how, in my opinion, Jeffrey Epstein was involved in two parallel operations of sex trafficking. So there's the one that everyone knows about — the underage exploited girls — but then there's these women that he invested a lot of time in when they're minors, then funds their education and what have you over time. He developed them as assets and then married them off to his powerful friends."

Webb also delves into Epstein's ties to Bill Gates. While mainstream media narrative states that Epstein and Gates didn't meet until 2011, Webb says that's not true:[8]

"There's mainstream media articles from 2001 saying that Jeffrey Epstein made all his money from his business connections — to three men — and those three men are Leslie Wexner [former owner of Victoria's Secret], Donald Trump and the third one is Bill Gates."

One example of the deep connection that actually existed between Epstein and Gates involves Melanie Walker, who is also, by the way, involved with the World Economic Forum:[9,10]

"She was recruited by Epstein in 1992, allegedly as a Victoria's Secret model, but there's no evidence she ever actually modeled for Victoria's Secret. He apparently was looking for education, hires her as his science adviser in the late '90s and then a couple years after that, in the early 2000s, she becomes the science adviser to the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

So if you're going to apply to be science adviser to the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, and your CV says my most recent experience is being the science adviser to Jeffrey Epstein, and you're Bill Gates hiring your top science adviser, you would have to know who Jeffrey Epstein is and what kind of science he's into."

Webb believes Gates is lying about his ties to Epstein not only to protect himself but also to protect Microsoft. "You also have, in the '90s, Jeffrey Epstein flying around on planes to official Microsoft functions in Russia, apparently giving women to the chief technology officer who was very close to Bill Gates ... all sorts of stuff going on there with Epstein and Microsoft," Webb explained.[11]

Suspicious 'Suicides' Continue

From Epstein's death to the death of Ghislaine Maxwell's father Robert, many "suicides" appear to be tied back to the global cabal and intelligence agencies attempting to hide incriminating information. One such death is that of Mark Middleton, special assistant to the chief of staff at the Clinton White House, who was responsible for setting up Epstein's visits to the White House:[12]

"Jeffrey Epstein had 15 meetings in about a year with a guy named Mark Middleton. Mark Middleton died earlier this year with an extension cord around his neck and a shotgun wound to the chest in Little Rock, Arkansas, which was ruled a suicide.

Here's the other thing. Mark Middleton was so scandalous for what he was doing at the same time Jeffrey Epstein was meeting with him that he was being investigated by Congress, and the only reason that investigation never finished is because the first time George W. Bush — the subsequent president — invoked executive privilege was to keep documents about Mark Middleton from being made available to Congress.

Mark Middleton was not a big fish, you would think, at the White House. He was just an aide to the chief of staff to Bill Clinton. So what was going on with Mark Middleton there?

Well, it's mostly remembered as this scandal in 1996 called The Campaign Finance Scandal of '96. It's related to the fundraising of the DNC for Clinton's re-election campaign, but a lot of what was going on is that foreign citizens were laundering campaign contributions, filling DNC coffers, but a lot of it was targeting Ron Brown."

Ron Brown, Clinton's secretary of commerce, also died under mysterious circumstances:[13]

"A lot of what was going on there were efforts to change Commerce Department policy so that a lot of very sensitive military technology could be sent to adversary nations when that was normally not allowed.

And some of the people at the center of this were people like Lockheed Martin's CEO, who actually later goes on to create InQTel for the CIA. And you have a guy named Bernard Schwartz that runs a race to run Coral Space. He was one of Biden's biggest donors in 2020.

So basically you have this huge effort to undermine the Commerce Department and buy off Ron Brown. Ron Brown at some point — as all of this kept going on pieces of it began to unravel — he agreed to cooperate with investigators. Not long after that he was unexpectedly invited to go on a trade mission to Croatia, and the plane crashes because of a supposedly aging navigational system.

Everyone on the plane dies except for a flight attendant that apparently walked away but then when she arrived at the hospital in a military helicopter, she arrived with a broken neck. Ron Brown's body was so cold when it was discovered that people in Congress called for it to be investigated because he appeared to have a bullet wound in the skull not caused by a plane crash."

The Solution — Don't Be Afraid and Get Local

In her book, Webb explains her reasons for believing Epstein won't be replaced with a cadre of new blackmailers. They don't need people like him anymore, thanks to modern surveillance technology.

They can access everything, all your accounts, cameras, phones, microphones, surveillance cameras, you name it. They can find blackmail material on anyone these days. Of course, this tech is also being used to enslave and control the rest of us. They're counting on you taking your cellphone with you everywhere, and adopting other forms of digital control, like vaccine passports and central bank digital currencies.

You don't have to volunteer to give this information and give up your control, however. You can opt out. Stay local and build connections in your community. Webb explained:

"What we need are regular people to take responsibility. So many of us are looking for the good guy versus the bad guy on the level of nation state leadership. No. The good guys are just the regular people like you and me, and the bad guys are the people most often at the top that have stomped on heads and clawed their way to the heights of power, regardless of what nation state you're talking about.

It's among regular people where you will find the 'good guys' you're looking for and it's time for those people to come together and say 'Enough! And we really can do it. It just is about taking personal responsibility ... We have to take our power back and that starts on an individual level."

The globalist elite, the cabal of government officials, agencies, careerists, politicians, intelligence personnel and the media, they have completely corrupted all governmental institutions. In this article, Dr. Joseph Mercola and Whitney Webb describe how Epstein's pedophilia and sexual blackmail company was a central cog in this network of corruption for decades. Webb says he carries out orders from higher-ups, including US intelligence. The purpose is global governance, moving the US away from a monopoly on power. This plot has been going on for decades. As Bank and Webb pointed out, the government is basically run by organized crime, a technocratic oil feudalism, a system of digital slavery. According to Catherine Austin Fitts and Mark Skidmore, some $21 trillion of US taxpayers' money has already been looted, stolen and diverted.

In the interview, Webb reviews the history of transhumanism, whose roots go back to Julian Huxley brother of famed author Aldous Huxley. Julian was president of the British Eugenics Society transhumanism is renowned eugenics. This is also borne out by the fact that the same individuals, families and organizations that in the past supported eugenics now support transhumanism. Likewise, the merger of Silicon Valley companies with Big Pharma is nothing more than eugenics framed in health care. And COVID has now shown us that this renewed interest in eugenics can be forced upon us. Schwab has stated that "the Fourth Industrial Revolution and is here to form a part of our physical, digital, and biological identities." Beyond its own being connected to the "enhanced" 5G cloud, the MIT envisions a near future where everyone's digital identity is connected to each other through an "Internet of the Body." Dr. Robert Malone also reviewed the US Department of Defense's plans for a human cyborg army "Cyborg Soldier 2050: Human/Machine Fusion and the Implications for the Future of the DOD" nematodenetd.substack.com/.../human-cyborgs-are-just-the-beginning (09/14/2022) ---> www.globalresearch.ca/its-great-reset-build-high-speed-internet-big-pharma/5799071 (11/18/2022)

Hey Gui, "What we need are people willing to take responsibility. So many of us are looking for the good guy versus the bad guy on the level of nation state leadership. No. The good guys are just the regular people like you and me, ..." Put another way, don't look for a Moses to lead us out of the wilderness, because, if a Moses can lead us out of the wilderness, another Moses can lead us right back into the wilderness. Regular people are the good guys, its why things are so cleverly crafted to hold and capture narrow segments of the population to break off into never ending battles of friction never able to come to an accord.

Then the Predator's walk down the middle to their hidden goal. Order Out of Chaos. Local, local, local. Short stable supply of necessities, and short stable supply lines. What has been stolen from us is the ability to create very social connections and bonds starting with ourselves as individuals & other good guys at the local level providing our own basic needs and necessities as much as possible.

Gui - yes the "globalist elite." "Power tends to corrupt, and absolute power corrupts absolutely" - Lord Acton Great wealth and capital are at this source of power. Consider the "Sets" of European Generational Institutions of Wealth and Capital. The Bank of England was founded in 1694. Federal Reserve is owning the "picture on the box" they use to put the pieces together. Everything else is just an elaborate deception.

Yes, JUST and BFS, without the predators and among them those who manage big capital, without them, corruption has no basis of support. The Federal Reserve is saving the seeds of its central bank digital currency (CBDC). It may seem like the purpose of a CBDC is to facilitate transactions and improve economic activity, but CBDCs are primarily about increased government control over individuals. If a CBDC were implemented, the central bank would have access to all transactions as well as being able to freeze accounts. www.globalresearch.ca/digital-currency-fed-moves-toward-monetary-total... (10/12/2022) The culprits of this situation meet in Davos, they are the control of the G20 to continue with the strategies of disinformation, manipulation and control, to establish surveillance and transhumanism.

The passports are part of a psychological strategy to convince people of the goodness of being controlled as a previous step of a total mental control of people on their way to the Great Reset. Those of us who search for the "truth" still have this ability to think for ourselves and find information that sets the course for true science and freedom.

Hitler's Basic Principles have been used against us and, in particular, have been used against "anti-vaxxer" and "anti-passport" doctors, scientists and lawyers who have spoken out against the totalitarian practices of the WEF, CDC, governments and the narratives approved by the WHO in a total control of Health During an interview on Chinese television, the founder of the World Economic Forum, Klaus Schwab, admitted, as much when he said that the communist regime in Beijing should serve as a "role model" for the rest of the planet. Schwab made his comments to Chinese journalist Tian Wei, host of the "World Insight" program on the Beijing-run China Global Television Network, regarding the recent G20 summit in Bali, Indonesia, News Punch reported.

When asked about the outcome of the summit, Schwab praised the agreements on political priorities, of which one provision states: "At the current critical moment for the global economy, it is essential that the G20 take tangible, precise, swift and necessary, using all available policy tools, to address common challenges, including through international cooperation on macro-policy and concrete collaborations. In doing so, we remain committed to supporting developing countries, particularly the least developed and small island developing states, in responding to these global challenges and achieving the SDGs."

In line with the Indonesian G20 Presidency motto: Recover Together, Recover Stronger, we will take coordinated action to advance an agenda for a strong, inclusive and resilient global recovery and sustainable development that creates jobs and growth." Separately, in a Financial Times interview quoted by News Punch, Soros said that China, which seeks to supplant the United States as the world's reigning superpower, should be given a bigger role on the world stage. "I think this would be the time, because you really need China to be the creation of a new world order. The financial world order," Soros said.

"They are kind of reluctant members of the IMF. They play along, but they don't contribute much because it's not their institution. Your share is not proportional, your voting rights are not proportional, to your weight."

Hi, Gui. One can only imagine that vast number of evil entities that are all linked together, globally, working together to destroy all that is good and wholesome in the world. I'm sure that bills buy alone has too many 'partnerships' to count! In light of the fact that bills buy seems to be essentially controlling healthcare around the world, when he knows absolutely nothing about health matters and has no credentials whatsoever - I think that I will refer to him as a False Prophet!

Yes, Randy, the future can be worse, the WEF not only constantly tells you what they are going to do, but they love to prepare ahead of time/make all these preparations before implementing what they are going to do. Before COVID-19 and monkeypox, they would set up and run their games, then COVID-19 and monkeypox happened. With this updated announcement, there are six themes developed in 2022 that have continued to be refined to set the stage for the 2023 conference beginning in less than a month, from 16-20 January: Theme #1: Ukraine shines a light on importance of global cooperation. Theme #2: Three interconnected crises - climate, food, energy. Theme #3: Don't use the 'R' (recession)word (but it might be coming anyway) Theme #4: Reopening for the post-pandemic requires ending health disparities. Theme #5: Gender inequality and Jobs of Tomorrow. Theme #6: Our future is digital! nematodenetd.substack.com/p/davos-2023-wef-shifts-into-high-gear?utm_sou... (12/30/2022)

Thanks for the reply, Gui. We who are truly awake, already know that our future is Pandemic after Plandemic after Plandemic! I think the term "Pandemic Preparedness" kind of makes that quite clear - especially if you've watched any WHO or WEF meetings. This society is totally evil! I was following one of the companies that plans to fill the atmosphere with sulfur particles, in order to block out the sun - for our "health and safety" of course! I was looking at their "partners" and could see throughout, Transvaccinalism, Transhumanism, the Metaverse, etc.. One of the CEO's of one of the companies was even referred to as "They". How long before using the proper pronoun of a person will be considered "hate speech"...or is it already? there are many companies that will pay for any employee who wants to "change their sex"! This society thoroughly disgusts me!

Whitney Webb: THEY MAY DEPLATFORM THE TRUTH, BUT THEIR LIES AND DISTORTIONS WILL NEVER REPLACE IT " The Big Tech firms that dominate our online lives, particularly Google and Facebook, were either created with some involvement of the U.S. national security state or have become major U.S. government and/or military contractors over the past two decades. When it comes to censoring and depatforming individuals for claims that run counter to U.S. government narratives, it should be clear that Google owned YouTube, and other tech platforms owned by contractors to the U.S.

military and intelligence communities, have a major conflict of interest in their stifling of speech. The line between "private" Silicon Valley and the public sector has become increasingly blurred and it is now a matter of record that these companies have illegally passed information onto intelligence services, like the NSA (National Security Agency), for blatantly unconstitutional surveillance programs aimed at American civilians."

To implement this strategy, the following stages were foreseen:. You cannot lose in a rigged game when you own all the horses in the race. Think Napoleon and Waterloo, it didn't matter to Rothschild who won, what mattered most was the ability to get to whatever party he needed to be in order to position they bet, when they hatch, so he could sign them up for unsavory contracts to benefit him, and not them or Napoleon.

Thanks Gui - Steve. My process is simple. Critical Thinker - ask questions and be skeptical (especially of someone identifying as a Critical Thinker). Intelligent Thinker - understand nuances and have discernment. Aware Thinker - clean up your "reality goggles" and don't succumb to gaslighting, lies by omission, the narrative, or the algorithms. For example - search for the "riches man" Elon Musk is the current candidate. My question - where is the "generational effect of wealth and capital?" I'm skeptical.

Thanks Gui - Steve. My process is simple. Critical Thinker - ask questions and be skeptical (especially of someone identifying as a Critical Thinker). Intelligent Thinker - understand nuances and have discernment. Aware Thinker - clean up your "reality goggles" and don't succumb to gaslighting, lies by omission, the narrative, or the algorithms. For example - search for the "riches man" Elon Musk is the current candidate. My question - where is the "generational effect of wealth and capital?" I'm skeptical.

bh27915, Discussion today is as dark for comedian Jimmy Dore, have no idea how Whitney Webb kept it together while reading all the articles and books behind her mind-mob-mafia related research. Amidst ongoing darkness, another important briefing/ interview Mike Adams had with Ed Dowd, in which Ed outlines what may be occurring today and what opportunities may lie ahead. Ted Dowd and Mike Adams discuss catastrophic civilization implications of vaccine DEATHS 29 Dec 2022" www.bitchute.com/.../aZlsDfjrQrv4 - Ed discusses Q1 and Q2 of 2023, and what he sees occurring thereafter...its a 'must watch' for anyone interested in economic failure of lockdowns, illegal experimental shot mandates and subsequent deaths and injuries.

Worldwide media is so controlled now, half of the world's population could die off and most would not notice.

bh- Nicely presented. Thomas Piketty in his book "Capitalism in the 21st Century" said that for the past 200 years the return on investment was 5% annually so the doubling of wealth takes 13 years. Elon Musk is not the richest man in the world. No family doubles every 13 years so individual inheritance of any of the dynastic families will be richer than Musk. Forbes lists 2,000 billionaires. There are no Rockefellers, Morgans, Rothschilds, Vanige or Mirvahens on that list. The last was Coral Rockefeller and 5 years before his death he had $5 billion. Five years later he was listed at $3 billion. That $2 billion did not disappear. A conservative estimate is that there are 8,000 billionaires which would make them the 2000's.

A military veteran who acted as protection for those on Forbes' list commented that his clients had visitors who weren't on Forbes, but he could tell from body language that his clients like him/her. His estimation was that Forbes' list is to distract the plebs/kulks and torches when they come out and direct the mobs to people on the list. Makes sense. In the 60s J. Paul Getty was considered the richest. There are no Gettys on the list. The 2000's have long ago established next and numerous tweens around the world but especially in the Southern hemisphere. The air and water masses do not mix much North to South.

100% of the nuclear weapons are in the North as are 99% of the reactors. When the problem reactors, and there are many, are in the North will be a disaster zone. The mirrors no longer work for the 2000's. Those informed their metals are in Zimbabwe, Zambia and Jenna Bush was sent to paraguay to seal the deal on 300,000 acres on top of the Guarani Aquifer, the largest fresh water reservoir on the planet. While her hopping with her Secret Service escort/ear purse was stolen. We would not know...if that had not made news. That land is bigger than NYS. Let that sink in. Paraguay leaders are laughing and dancing over that comedy.

It would not do any good. They are not "running things". They are mostly figureheads. Gates may have money but there are powers far greater and more evil than him above him. The saddest part is any replacements will be just as bad or worse. Even if you could get the entire governments and remove all people with any type of influence, the people with the desire to replace them would still not have pure altruistic motives. It is called sin nature and it has been with and in every society since the Fall of Mankind. There are no people that exist that can and will "come to the rescue".

Hello from Belgium. I have a big burning question. It is an important question: How come there are so MANY people walking around on the planet without a heart in their body, without feelings? Who are they? Why do they exist? Why do we have to deal with these evil cold monsters who unexpectedly dismantle our boundaries of being, the right to thrive, from everything that lives, animals, nature, oceans, fish, bees, trees the planet itself? I. humanity capable of hearing the trauma's inflicted on all of us? Why does someone cause someone else to suffer beyond belief? What is the answer? When we will know these answers, only then will we the people, be able to heal the state of things. Why do monsters exist?

I suppose the answer to your question depends on what you believe. I believe that at this moment in "time" we are under the rule of Satan. If you follow God kite he talks about God coming from a non-human force. Maybe one and the same thing. So, for me, my hope is in heaven and God is ready.

Hello there Belgium. This world is based on aggressiveness and pain. Modern day humans have had it too easy all their lives so they've forgotten it and they end up asking questions like yours. We are now farm animals with no teeth, that's why.

Demographics have shifted from rural to urban. People are more likely to do what they can get away with when they feel like they can remain anonymous, so there is less peer pressure as a means of social control. We have lost the influence of the black-robed cutaway. Many people have fallen away from churches that are no longer fulfilling their obligations. There is a lack of a father's strong influence in the home. The expansion of the socialist state has allowed people to claim entitlement without responsibilities or consequences for bad behaviors. The education system has brainwashed students. Excellence is no longer demanded. Civics, history, the constitution and bill of rights are no longer taught. What is taught is victimhood and self-pity. I have been shocked to see what hangs on the walls of some inner-city schools. A society gets what it tolerates. -continued

-continued- I read about a bunch of punk kids who did a dollar store smash-and-grab to steal junk food. I asked my husband what would have happened to kids like that back when he was growing up. He responded that they would have been found floating in a lake somewhere, because there was no anonymity in a small rural town. A small crossroads store was a family's means of survival and such things were considered a crime against the entire community. There was little hope of redeeming kids that old who behaved like that. However, things like that did not happen because crime was not out of control to the extent we see today. Then, he reminded me of his father telling how it was during The Great Depression, when people really were poor and hungry.

Yet, they did not steal. Rural farmers would cut the throat of real calves and get them. They would tie them inside a burlap sack and include their name and address so the buyer would know where to send the check for payment. Carcasses were loaded onto an open box car and sent to the city. My father in law received full payment for one very calf and none were ever stolen. My mother told of todays coming thru and how her mother would always make them something to eat. In exchange, they would do some chores and sleep in the barn. At least on the farm, they always had food, but at one point a neighbor paid the taxes so the family would not lose the farm. -continued

-continued- There was not the sense of entitlement we see in certain segments of society today. I recall being told things like, "We can't afford that!" if I ever dared ask for something. Or, "If you want it, go get a job and earn the money to pay for it." We mowed lawns, raked leaves and shoveled snow for money before we were old enough to do much else. We would ask on a paper route since we were never the age to get our own routes. Money was never dropped off at 4 a.m. We sold homemade craft items door-to-door.

Later, both me and my brother took babysitting jobs. Any kind of work that was available. I got a work permit before I was 16 years old so I could work as a cashier and waitress. Unfortunately, these were not the days of equal opportunity and jobs for women did not pay well in the bible belt. Something else I recall at mealtime if we said we did not like a food, no alternative was offered. "You'll be hungry by suppertime." We bowed our heads and were grateful to just have food on the table. As bad as it sounds nowadays, such might be a can of Campbell's soup split 4 ways and cereal sticks from our tiny garden.

My father had grown up with little to eat except oatmeal over and over--without milk or sugar. Poverty is no excuse for many of the bad behaviors we are seeing. I think a lot is due to the lack of a father's strong influence in the home raising children. -But parents must work together with common goals. They must be involved in their children's lives. A child can be trained, when young, in the way he should go.

The bad for power makes monsters degraded or angels when people live in an environment where ethical and moral principles are banished. "Power tends to corrupt, absolute power corrupts absolutely. Power when exercised without authority or even more so when it exceeds the boundary or sanctity of dominance without authority. If we combine these forms of abuse, social, spiritual, emotional, financial, etc., and we make a list of the possible damages, we will notice that many of the ills and human sufferings are due to the abuse of power.When power stops using the means to propagate the survival of its society, it becomes to a domination of some over others and denies them vital rights, it has then become the ruins of power, power has been corrupted.

Power resides and is generated in the people; however the power, or the power held by the representatives can be carried out in two ways, one is by listening to the will of the people who elected them, fulfilling their original work, that is, obeying and making ethical and moral principles endure and setting an example to a society and another is using that power for a purpose that was not planned by the people, for the representative's own purposes, that is, commanding, interpreting their own interests, making power corrupt, losing its essence, degenerating.

There are many ways in which the power vested in the legislators is corrupted, a clear example is the occasions in which the legal norm is made thinking of the interests of politically or economically powerful groups, lobbies, groups that finance or politically support the legislator in question, when the legislator votes in the direction that his party indicates without even reasoning the feelings of the population that is represented. They are designed taking into account political commitments and leaving aside the needs of a people and a nation's freedom. Unfortunately this is happening in the US and around the world.

The power of right-wing governments is greater because it is supported by multinationals and pressure groups. The left tends to apply more supportive measures that are badly seen and end in failure. As long as we have the lobbies there will be corruption The rules of the game have not changed much, in fact they have been strengthened. influence so that laws that benefit those in power are passed. For this reason, any interest group seems to live those who get "results". People who spend their lives seeking political rent represent a huge opportunity cost. The most important lobbies correspond to influential economic sectors. The military lobby, for example, is very powerful in the United States, where the presence of this powerful industry has a geopolitical influence on the international decisions of the leading power.

The energy lobby: energy companies have great power. Oil companies have traditionally been among the largest companies in the world, and even now they retain some power, amid the debate on the energy transition that is taking place worldwide. We know a lot about the health/pharmaceutical lobby: one of the items with the highest spending in any public budget is health and it is where corruption is rampant with transfers of large sums of money as we are seeing with "vaccines" in the decisions of the mandates and recommendations and as has been seen in many decades with drugs and all kinds of medicines while alternative medicines were extorted by the Rockefeller school.

Big tech companies contribute to and drive the advancement of society, with huge amounts of money to invest and handling billions of pieces of data. We are seeing how they pose tremendous damage with their interventions, which most of the time sabotage the market and competition, it also means giving up a productive contribution to the material progress of society. The lobbies try to influence governments to change the laws to their favor, and many times their work consists not so much in pressuring directly but in generating a state of opinion in society that causes the political authorities to be prone to what they they look for in short, the function of these lobbies, their business, is to convince those below to give the money to those above.

It is clear that the way corporations influence our US government is having a terrible effect on our health and the health of plants and animals. The sad reality is that we are distracted by the media influenced by their patrons to keep us focused on the wrong issues. For the vast majority of humans it is clear that environmental toxins emanating from distributed products and point sources are a major threat to human well-being and biodiversity on planet earth, yet they receive only a tiny percentage of coverage from the media. The billions set on all fronts commandeered by big capital. Now the Great Reset is a source of great resources to achieve the purposes of the deep state.

good questions. The answer is not simple, as noted by author Whitley Webb. I would say there has always been evil. we Americans have been introduced to this in small bits, as to make the horrific seem normal. to a good degree, they have made progress. there was always evil and still it remains with more supporters. i believe this "great reset" is merely a harbinger to people getting ready for the destruction caused by these satanists. Most of what Whitley Webb has written about has been aired, by mainstream, honest markets, etc. this seems to be the WHOLE story. instead of the tidbits, spoon fed. More will be revealed, as more information is exposed. Thanks for your question. I'm also considering Twitter. He is now exposing the corruption in the ffd, cia, dod, etc. It is disgusting and they r all breaking the law, and attempting to shred our constitution. These agencies have the most power in the USA and worldwide. Once the sun has shined on this corruption, it will b identified.

Just like we have always heard about unexplained, poverty stricken, 3rd world countries where 70% of children r IMMOG, we are now becoming a third world planet...of 9 billion!!! Planet Earth is becoming a powder keg. Collectively, we support all these corporate, toxic food, agricultural, and pharma providers who's only goal is to keep the world well supplied with NON-organic products with great profit...at our expense!!!

Let's aim at quality over quantity; so evil tyrant wannabes like Gates, Schwab, Fauci etc. don't do this for us. Japan and Russia inadvertently, without government coercion, are solving the people's own choice(s), have substantially reduced their populations pikleverschueren and Beatrice, at the moment we are being ruled by the global elite. It's the world they created and now control. And to suggest they are powered by evil, even other worldly forces would be correct. The good news is we are also in an Age of Enlightenment. All the events that are unfolding now is, believe it or not, evidence of their evil reign coming to an end. Beatrice, I love Lisa!

PMc, it's called survival of the fittest. You are either physically or mentally superior, or a little of both, to your enemies. Otherwise you suffer. It's the laws of the land. Buddhism was all about peace and tranquility and love. It didn't stop Japan from invading Korea in the 1300's. From that time until WW2, Japan continued to rule Korea. Through WWI, the USA freed S.Korea.

It's a fallen world which had moved away from God. The first sin was committed in the Garden and it's been a free fall ever since. So much evil. We need to pray that God will remove all this darkness and come in power. We need to remember that in the end, God is in control over all.

Where today's story ends is where Starlink and 5G picks up. Everything from your phone, to your car, to your watch will be connected via 5G satellite. This is Elon Musks playground. This also has everything to do with the Dems push for electrifying everything and switching to do with climate change. By making the switch to 100% electric, they will have complete control over everyone. The future 5.0 plan is to have all electric cars with 5G connectivity and they will be able to track everyone. The problem is older cars that people are currently buying up and rebuilding/modifying to be free of any high tech electrification or connections to things like 5G or Satellite Internet.

Many people are doing this for very reason of avoiding being tracked. Hans RO FDA the Dems already are running interference on that.They are in process of making it illegal to take a 40 year old 1983 Mazda RX7 or Nissan 280Z and dropping a more modern Chevy LS V8 engine or AWY engine other than the factory original. They are doing this under the disguise of CLIMATE CHANGE! Never mind the fact that in the entire 2018 S.Dk. LS V8 set of 4 Cylinder Pollutes less than a 1 lb. Sub Rotary engine in

Page 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 a 1982 Mazda!

They don't want anyone taking an old car and modernizing it to a point where it not only DUTRUN the law, the law can't shut it off via a 5G satellite connection. So under the disguise of "Climate Change" the Dems are pushing legislation through that will make it illegal to perform engine swaps in anything except race cars that will never be registered to be driven on a taxpayer's highway. This will be easily implemented via the CLIMATE MAFIA, AKA, The EPA!

Jimmy if folks think 5G is bad they haven't seen 6G yet.... China launched their 6G satellite right after the heist in November 6th 2020. From what I gathered 5G will be able to control mac and machine.. Especially if man has ' something'within that resembles machine... If people thinks things are bad NOW, well I can assure, we haven't seen nothin yet... It's going to get much more worse before it gets better...Mankind by itself does not possess the means to eradicate this evil...

When Investigative journalist Whitney Webb says: "There's mainstream media articles from 2001 saying that Jeffrey Epstein made all his money from his business connections — to three men — and those three men are Leslie Wexner [former owner of Victoria's Secret], Donald Trump and the third person is Bill Gates." What information does she declare about Trump? Just because of warp speed and not firing dr. fraud? Regarding warp speed....NO ONE was going to get out of that unhurt either physically or emotionally.... Regarding the firing of fraud... we really aren't exposed to the plan . If there is one....same with jeff sessions, mike flynn, etc. just like we aren't 100% sure of elon musk. But to put Trump in the same sentence as epstein,gates and the owner of victoria secrets? Come on Whitney, please reveal some info...

If nothing else, there is irrefutable proof that it's not about the party but the person. Gates, Clinton, Trump, very likely Biden, Kushner, Barr, Dershowitz, Woody Allen, Weinstein, Spacey et al span the political spectrum, and yet they all have deep ties to Epstein. I've read that Richard Branson does as well.

Yes, Sarah, we know that due to his status as a billionaire, he attracted the attention of many elites, including Prince Andrew of England and former President Bill Clinton. We know that his 'fixer,' Ghislaine Maxwell, who is currently serving decades in prison for her role in facilitating Epstein's sexual desires, has not spoken publicly about her 'clients'. And we also know that many of Epstein's secrets followed him to the grave. But we, too, thanks to United States District Judge for the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, George HW Bush appointee Loretta Preska, we may know a lot more about who frequented the "island Epstein's Fun", who some of his other major clients were, and the extent to which Clinton, who traveled extensively with Epstein and was often photographed with him, was really in on the whole scheme.

Among those whose names are mentioned in the documents is a British woman, a former personal assistant to Ghislaine Maxwell, who was accused of participating in sex trafficking of minors. The documents are part of a libel case brought against Maxwell by accuser Virginia Roberts Giuffre in 2016 that was later settled.

The trove of material has been released on a rolling basis after the first set arrived in 2019, two days before Epstein committed suicide, after numerous requests from media organizations. A total of 16 non-partisan opposed making the files public and the first group of eight have already been dealt with by the federal court in New York. The last lot was related to the remaining eight, called DO 12, 28, 97, 107, 146, 147, 171 and 183.

Attorney Spencer Kuvin, who represented nine of Jeffrey Epstein's accusers, recently notified former President Bill Clinton and other Epstein associates that they were still in danger of exposure for their alleged criminal actions in dealing with deceased convicted sex trafficker Epstein. . Ghislaine Maxwell, who was recently convicted of crimes associated with Epstein, has until June 2023 to cooperate with prosecutors, possibly coming up with more names. Maxwell, 60, was sentenced to 20 years in prison in December 2021.

I am a true Trump fan. Even if you can't stand the man, tell me exactly what policies did he implement that you disagree with?

Right off the top of my head, he signed "Operation Warp Speed" and did not fire Fauci when he had the opportunity to do so. He also was a long time associate of Epstein, which to me, says it all.

Gut, I'm often shocked when I learn of any politician doing the right thing--particularly when it means exposing ex-presidents and members of the protected Congress. The idea that an appointee of the first Bush authorizing this is incredible. The web is, as you say, much deeper than we know. For crimes against humanity, no punishment seems worthy of these evil people.

Har1272, thanks. Yes, Presidents Prime Minister, CEO, celebrity, etc., if they were associated with known sex trafficker Epstein, nothing will surprise me about their conduct and morals. That so many of these global elite have gotten away with pedophilia, is beyond evil.

P.O.Stuart, "Codevard Barbados" volume 1 and 2. You will find these books revealing more historical truth about power, politics and the global cabal than you can imagine, all footnoted. Here you will find the source, and it's continuation, of the evil from it's inception to the modern day. Not the easiest nor cheapest books to find but full of the info not found elsewhere.

For anyone in the UK who is interested this link will give details of an event in Oxford being organised to inform the people who live there about the 15 minute City proposals. I see proposals that are apparently the Council have said that they have residents are against it but they are doing it anyway. Reminds me of the phrase "to be the master, one first must pretend to be the servant".

Thanks Beatrice for a dose of reality. Today's article is about links with organised crime, including the mafia, child trafficking, blackmail etc. What information certainly but I don't see that the criminals outside government are more or less guilty than the criminal governments themselves, who have usurped their position of authority, betrayed the electorate who fund their salaries by representing an unelected body of globalist psychopaths. Transfer of power without consent goes by the name of treason. "To be the master, you must first pretend to be the servant".

The double irony is that these criminals ARE our servants, put there by our taxes and voting choices but act as though we have no rights and need not be consulted. Oxford is not the only UK "Smart" city with already advanced plans for 15 minute zones. We learned the hard way that "Smart" anything means tracking device or in this case 15 minute lockup up of residents into predetermined zones. Brighton and Edinburgh have had three years of global swarming and city gridlock. The latter has now issued its official "business plan" - a turgid meaningless diatribe straight out of the WEF playbook, which claims previous "consultation" with the taxpayers, 40% of course were distracted by fear mongering about viruses at the time.

A more likely scenario is that we are "heading down the slippery slope towards climate lockdowns, where town residents will be controlled like prisoners, because SMART equals PRISON. But of course, it's all about saving the planet, isn't it"

All this evil power emanates from ROME. It has for centuries and history holds the story as does the bible. The evil ones have even lied to make people believe the evil one is far into the future but he has been deceiving people since the first pope was put into power in 606. He created the apostate church of Rome and became the head of the Holy Roman Empire, resurrecting the conquered Roman Empire. SO, HERE WE ARE, UNDER THE RULE OF ROME as it seeks to take over the whole world and few knowing this is antichrist/beast power. Even among the whole global cabal. CHRISTIANS USED to know this as it was exposed in the Protestant Reformation, but now lies have taken hold and people are not aware of past knowledge.

That's what I was thinking. Then again, they maybe "sandbagging". By that I mean they may be withholding that information for when Trump runs for President again. This will be necessary for the Democrats if Joe/Kamala are running again.

This is one tentacle that tracks back to the committee of 300 as covered by Infowars. Within it the handful of families that own the remote control banks. Above them that other wealthy master mentioned in the bible (from 'he/she/it) is the primary antagonist.

In American politics, there are two types of people; those who want to control others and those who just want to be left alone. How you vote will make the difference.

The ultimate design flaw is those that want to be left alone do not wish to be in control. Take even the tiniest community. Let's say a homeowners association, a condo board of directors. The people in power and those desiring power and control are the ones who should never be in power or control. Look at the person who is in charge of security. They should be the last one to be in that position. The people best suited for any authority are not in the position of any authority.

Politicians who have power have two experts to attend to: gain more power and above all not lose it. In this way the lobbies decide, especially the pharmaceutical and the military, when the ethical and moral duty is absent.

This supplies a missing link for me. I was aware of the allegations of the cia working with the mob to kill Kennedy. I believed it, but didn't understand it well. Now I can see the symbiosis more clearly. It has been said often that we had to go through our current trial in order to see how bad it really is. That's another thing I believed, but having been politically aware since the 1960s, I thought I pretty much knew how bad it is. How wrong I was. I had no idea how deep the corruption goes in this nation, and how in many ways we have been a force for evil in the world.

We have been lied to, and lied to again. And now the corporate media doesn't even pretend to be unbiased. As Isaiah wrote some 2500 years ago, "Justice is turned back, and righteousness stands far off. For truth has stumbled in the public square, and honesty cannot enter." Isa 59:14. This hasn't changed, even in the greatest country on earth, and won't change until men change. And that won't happen until the Lord returns.

We need to start getting the HISTORY CORRECT. There is NOT a 'Jewish MafIa' they are, in FACT, called the KHAZARIAN MAFIA.....and they are NOT Jewish! A few thousand years ago, the Khazarians, in and around the area of the Ukraine, went around raping/robbing/killing/looting, committing all sorts of vile crimes. And so that they (Khazarians) would NOT get the blame for these crimes, they started to call themselves 'Jewish'. The Khazarians then became known as 'NAME STEALERS' (for stealing the Jewish name). To this very day.....nothing has changed.....the Khazarians are committing crimes against the whole world, and the Jews are getting the blame.

Only today, the JNON (Jew) Khazarians hide behind 'anti-semetism' when the finger gets pointed towards them. Again, these are NOT JEWS, but Jews get the blame. If we start calling them CRIMINALS 'WHO' they actually ARE, instead of 'jew bashing' they would have their POWER. These CRIMINALS are 'NAME STEALING KHAZARIANS'. CALL THEM WHAT/WHO THEY ARE! Ask yourself this question: WHY would Israel be supporting the Ukrainian  ANSWER: Because the State of Israel is NOT JEWISH.....they ARE KHAZARIANS! The SAME Khazarians now running Ukraine!

Do not think for a second that Epstein was killed. They purposely called it a suicide KNOWING that many would cling to and spread the story about how he was killed. When in fact, they walked him out at night and transported him to a place where he is currently living large. My guess would be either South America (as that is where THEY like to hide and reward their puppets, or Israel due to Epstein's connections there.

Scary stuff. I agree with Webb,all we can do is be the best we can be and support accountability. My faith is in the God of the Bible, and I hold myself accountable to Him. And I prefer to keep a low profile trying to influence as best I can. Web's book educates well and helps discern realities that our world contains.

I've read most of the comments and I haven't seen any mention of control of our election process. Is that happening or is it just the weak and ridiculous election laws that many states have that are inviting fraud and corruption? Honest and fair elections are our only hope to stop the evil.

What bothers me with the descriptions given in the Bible is we are basically a copy in the image of the angels of the Bible. Are they also sinners? When Noah and family built and went into the Ark, was the flood a result of those angels trying to cover up the mess they made of the humans of the time? The humans seem to have been contaminated by these same Angels mixing with females of our species. The result possibly being the giants. Our species has 46 chromosomes. The ape family with similar blood types has 48. Two chromosomes appear to be double the size of the rest. That spells possible genetic manipulation sometime in the past. The originals had an enormous lifespan according to Genesis. That lifespan could be 900 plus years. Now the lifespan is likely for all of us under 120 years with few exceptions.

All throughout known history, our control over our desires has not been very good. If known history is correct, then we were designed to do the labor of the world while the angel group controlled mankind. That implies also that there may be many Earths controlled by an angel civilization. Are they in control of their sin nature? The descriptions I have say these angels had immortality. Where are they today? Our highest Angelic do not even begin to have a similar IQ to the group in history. Are there other Epstein type people out there doing something similar to what is exposed? I think that is very likely. The key being to keep it all under cover and hidden.

It is a very interesting topic. There are a lot of theories floating around all of this and all f them come back to the FLOOD! One theory I read mentioned the giants. They were the result of the angels having intercourse with humans. The offspring were giants. It's all very fascinating and we will probably never know because all evidence of these prehistoric times were destroyed in the flood.

With my primitive understanding...you are were made in the image and likeness of God...What needs to be understood is that there are good angels that supports God and there are those that rebelled against God and fell following Lucifer...The flood happened because of the widespread evil that had plagued and corrupted mankind...Until the "beast" is chopped off, this evil will continue to rule and destroy...This is beyond mankind's pay grade, only God can eradicate this filth from the earth...Until then keep the faith, and never lose hope.

It is all about people in power purchasing what they want. In this case, they want attractive women to become their mates. The cost of which is they no longer have any integrity in the positions of power that they have earned. In the Bible it states all people have sinned one way or another. That appears to be by design. So a group of very powerful people using the services of the Mafia to get what they want is only one step away. This country like many others has a long history of sin. The entire financial aspect of the Revolutionary War was financed by a family of smugglers. One brother had over 30 ships smuggling goods into the 13 colonies.

The other was a very brilliant lawyer. So implicating well known figures in our recent history comes as no real surprise. Ultimately they all die. Usually by natural causes. George is those they are blackmailing. I find it very suspicious that we see that war. Because the general involved on the British side had a very good reputation in a war in India. Yet he often sat his officers down for a cup of tea on battlefields here. Rather than collapse General Washington. The falling of many famous men often times was connected to slavery and sex. The Godfather books describe in fiction what was possibly reality. When in our weaknesses, people get in real trouble, for a price those folks ought to grow.

Epstein trained under aged women to give those in power the women that they desired. I suggest that giving them education, giving them the sophistication and class, made those same women good mates that often married those they had relations with. The Mafia often accommodated people's desires for a price. In an earlier time, this also occurred. I can name famous people in the time of the Revolutionary War that exploited things. Those that do not learn from history are doomed to repeat history. The men pictured all have something to hide.

A "LEAK" TOWARD HUMANITY'S DESTRUCTION — BY WHITNEY WEBB "The US President's top medical adviser, Anthony Fauci, was forced to release his March and April 2020 emails and correspondence at the request of the Washington Post... Released emails reveal what appears to be a conspiracy by some of the leading medical authorities in the US to falsely claim that COVID-19 could only have been zoonotic in origin, despite indications to the contrary. The emails were largely redacted as they usually are, supposedly to protect the information of the people involved, but the "[redacted]" redactions also protect much of Jeremy Farrar's input into these discussions.

Chris Martenson, an economic researcher and post-doctoral student in neurotoxicology and founder of Peak Prosperity, has made some insightful comments on the matter... Jeremy Farrar has been offered position three times and was forced due to the head of a "charitable trust"... Martenson went on to ask why the Wellcome Trust was involved in these high-level discussions. uk.news.yahoo.com/leak-a-leap-toward-humanity-s-destruction-by-whitney-webb...

It's always about power. Where there is power, there is also money. The reverse is not always true; there are plenty of people with money who have no real power. Perhaps the most interesting takeaway from things like Webb's book and the work of others is the revelation that the West, US included, is filled with characters who are only marginally less bad than some of history's worst actors. But govt may not have engineered the killing of tens of millions of its own people like Socrates did or Mao's China did, but our govt has had plenty of lullies involved in the Covid and vax business. It has folks who will be part of the next pandemic. It has people who are willing to harm others through laws and regulations on energy usage and the economy.

People are being "farmed", in so many ways, as "profit units". Their worth is calculated in how much debt can be sold about each individual... how many working years they can contribute and pay taxes before the cost of maintaining them becomes a liability... how submissive they are to mandates and control... how little they will accept living on (limited food, housing, fuel use, etc.)...

In today's society people are an easy breeding ground for installing the corruption of power. Despotic leaders can only stay in power by hiding the truth of what they are doing from the people they rule. There can be no meaningful democracy if there is only one centrally managed and tyrannically controlled source of information. If we combine this propaganda with the laws of ethical and moral values of a decadent society, humanity is an easy prey to the corruption of power. Lord Acton said: 'Power tends to corrupt, absolute power corrupts absolutely. It is the power that is exercised with dominion without authority. If we combine these forms of abuse, social, spiritual, emotional, financial, etc., and we make a list of the possible abusers, we will notice that many of the life and human sufferings are due to the abuse of power.The current reality is that abuse of power occurs or can occur in any field, political, economic, media, etc. Although these forms of abuse can occur independently, we also find them combined with a boosting effect, as happens when political and economic power or economic and media power are integrated. The greater the accumulated power, the greater the risk of imbalance in the relationship process. If we analyze who are more likely to be victims of abuse, it can be concluded that this derives from their weakness.

Thus, the most prone are children, the elderly, the sick, prisoners, women, employees, the poor and, in general, the most ignorant, unconscious or dispossessed. According to some investigations, the most abusive seem to be politicians, military and police, with emphasis on politicians, who have the power to influence or determine the approval or repeal of laws, initiation or cessation of war actions, armed forces military and police, and in the management of large public resources for the collection of taxes and other modalities. The current media propaganda run by the globalist elites is giving abuse in all walks of life.

It's very tempting to see no light in the darkness as described in the story given in the article above. However remember that relative few people are rotten/psychopaths compared to the number of good regular folks. We have, as Whitney remarks, to organise locally and take our power back. And we have to have the courage to say NO regardless of the consequences but solely because it is the only choice we can make to live in peace with ourselves

I agree this is a good idea but..... I regularly read the postings of someone in the USA who is very unhappy with events. In his town he advertised a meeting to talk over what should be done. From memory I believe about 100 or so men turned up (mostly men anyway) and when the meeting closed they made a date for the following week. At that meeting there were far fewer people and after about 3 weeks they were down to a handful. Lethargy and let someone else do it seems the order of the day. I hope I'm wrong.

And the only reason they have blackmail potential on almost everyone is per the statutory rape laws that define a 17-year-old girl with big bosom a child whereas 200 years ago, she have been a matron with 4 kids. The only way to short-circuit their hold over politics is immunity for statutory rape of anyone with functional sexual organs.

As above, so below. As outside so inside. There but for fortune go you and I. The blame game is virtue signaling. Everyone has shadow sides that need facing and healing. The attitude that it was better before is incorrect. Some things may have been better for some people. Many leaders and government and corporate employees have been bribed or threatened around the world. It is one thing to be informed of goings on. It is another to focus on blaming. Energy flows where attention goes. The tendency on this forum is to blame Dems more than the GOP. This reflects bias and a lack of understanding. Blessings!

Everybody is to blame, including myself. And BTW, everyone is toxic. I prefer and favor my kids and grandkids and my husband over others. That is where loss begins. And it is very big. I am sorry, but if someone punched my grandkid in the mouth, I would definitely prefer my grandkid over the mouth puncher. Your blame postulation is naive and foolish.

This article is not worthy of the publishing. Hearsay accusations have been labeled at ethnic groups for ever. Tell a line with some truth and add logical fallacy and you make a compelling story for those who only read head lines. Yes we all know hollywoods characterization of the Mob. Thankfully for the movie the Godfather, Meyer Lansky a Jewish mobster is a house hold name. Yes Saul Alinsky studied the mob and Hillary Clinton study under Alinsky. But where are the facts to tie the government corruption on the feet of these so called crime organizations. Let's be real. The five honored families that ruled America in the 19th century, Vanderbilt, Carnegie, Rockefeller, Morgan, Ford did their bribing through their own brand of power.

Using the law against the little man. But it is and always has been our US government that has operated with impunity. To suggest that organized crime is responsible for the corruption of our government is naive. Power corrupts and ever since the Constitution those in government have been seeking to shed the Constitution in order to fully enslave us once again. The sad news is they have done it. You live on a tax farm and sole purpose is to generate money for the government to fleece. Reality you pay for what you already own, for what rent you use or purchase. And that's not enough. They want to tax you to breathe all in the name of saving the planet from climate change.

The very best head of the global cabal is what runs everything, the mobs, the gov'ts, etc.... all of it. It is the power behind all of it. It is power, spiritual and temporal, that has existed for centuries.

The two synagogues of Satan... go figure. And the UN was also involved in this, up to their proud, deceitful & sorcerous necks. Their goal to disarm any meaningful & knowledgeable resistance, all part of SPLINTER'S 5 tier scenarios, working with men praying God, of the spirit of antichrist. The sleight of men & cunning craftiness by which they seek to deceive, philosophy & tradition taking its captives into bondage unto death. There sin, is to deny sin, encourage sin, then exploit the suffering & play 'god' & hero, savior... the dialectic working by dueling self-righteousness & without the wisdom or righteousness of God of the Godhead, the transcendent, personal & true who faithfully warns & frees indeed.

She's unreformable, & protest runs off her back like water off of a duck. the only remedy is to come out of her that one not partake of her sins & receive of her plagues. It's the antichrist way of this world coming to its shortlived zenith, claiming to move onwards & upwards while falling back to the womb & extinct, gathered to the destruction coming. Weddings & false shepherds come to lie, to rob & to kill; entrancing their darkness, the deceiving & being deceived thinking themselves wise, escaping truth & life. Nothing new under the sun, & all foretold... along with its end.

And except those days should be shortened, there should be no flesh saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. For what can war but end, when signed falls, due to evident truth, covenants & lies & the screen-veil word of God, the King James Bible of the pure stream out of Antioch, the Masoretic Hebrew & Received Greek unadulterated by craft of men & devils out of Alexandria? Accepted no counterfeits or substitutes are perverted of deceived & unfaithful, coveted& monk women of Craft smiling in MYSTERY whose ways are unbeguiled& unfaithful, that you can know them not. Thanks Jimmy Dore and Whitney Webb for this information. I would add another link to a movie titled "On The Beach", 1959 with Gregory Peck and Ava Gardner. Bonnie Dobson's song "Morning Dew" was written in 1961 after watching the movie. Her song is about a conversation between the only two people still alive after an atomic event. www.youtube.com/watch

This song should be required with the movie linked above for everyone on this planet. Fyfe & Zebrosky and the cabal of psychopaths should be forced to watch several times. Morning Dew with Bonnie Dobson and Stephen Stills www.youtube.com/watch What Is The Meaning Behind The Song Morning Dew? The song is a dialogue between the last man and woman left alive following an apocalyptic catastrophe. Dobson stated that the inspiration for "Morning Dew" was the film On the Beach, which is about survivors of virtual global annihilation by nuclear holocaust. Wake up people. grulla - thanks for the link. Great article. Hope people collect and connect the dots and use their CIA-Thinker filter. IMHO the most important question is "who wants to be the last Ukrainian soldier to die for a war that can't be won" One doesn't fight a war for their country, they fight a war for their government. Maybe the Ukrainian soldier will figure out the government they are fighting for is the U.S. O'Biden administration (and their puppet masters). In Vietnam, the American combat soldier figured this out leading to the revolt of the combat troops and "fragging." THE HARD TRUTH ABOUT FRAGGING - Unprecedented declines in morale and discipline among troops in Vietnam spawned fragging a phenomenon forever tied to the Vietnam War in which the M26, M51 or M67 fragmentation grenade was used to kill a superior officer often ending in court-martial

The same powers that commanded the nuclear "tests" at Bikini and other SW Pacific locations are still pulling the war machine levers today. The big difference today is that we understand the once clandestine power structure much better now thanks to maligned investigative researchers past and present like Gary Allen, Gary Webb, William Cooper, Patrick Wood, G Edward Griffin, etc. and especially Whitney Webb. The power of a lone voice is minimal. But the power of unwavering voices like the Ickes and Mercolas in the world can be The Butterfly Effect that can generate a typhoon of change. And that lone voice? The more we join on a global scale with positive heart/mind energized focus and intent with like other lone voices, the greater our amplified spiritual strength to overcome the would-be destructive forces in the world (The Isaiah Effect). Don't let the sorrow corrupt us. Control our minds and we control the universe.

Thanks epi-cure. You're spot on. Voices multiply, messages multiply. I am amazed at the number of people in this small eclectic village that take my gift of the pocket Constitution and mention support for those of us that still get off our butts and out in the street with signs.

Webb has got her facts wrong about Dewey, Dewey a Republican, ran against Truman and famously lost. No one expected Truman to win. Dewey helped Eisenhower get nominated for the presidency in 1952. Ike's Democratic opponent in 1952 and 1956 was Adlai Stevenson.

HELLO in Belgium. Humans are born with a sin nature and sin has corrupted the entire world/creation. THAT IS THE TRUTH OF THE STORY GIVEN IN THE BIBLE. SIN is more evil and wicked than man realizes. He cannot even realize this without the intervention of God Almighty. The whole creation groans as the result of sin but God sent his son, Jesus, to bring victory over sin because man, of himself, being sinful, cannot, nor will not, be able to rid himself of the sin nature he was born with as the result of the original fall of man. "for the wages of sin is death". Jesus paid this debt for man/sin, for those who believe in Him and follow HIM.

Sin is so bad that the entire world was flooded and all people were drowned except for the 8 people God saved...because every thought of man was evil and wicked. Noah preached to the people but no one believed him...for 120 years. Only God Himself will change this world and destroy the evil in it by changing men's hearts [through the gospel] from sin and death to believing in God of the holy Bible. GOD is sovereign over all his creation, meaning all is in His control. "Man does not live by bread a lone but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God."

Well. BillandLaurens, since your comment is at the bottom, people must be pretty uncomfortable with the truth. I will add to their discomfort. Now hear this! Everyone always acts in their own best interest 100% of the time. No exceptions. That is the result of sin nature. People that believe that "people are basically good" are under a great deception. Everyone needs to stop using man's wisdom and looking to man for a savior.

The cabal has taken over so they have no fear of any reprisal from any authority. In 2017, POPE FRANCIS said ,'the Reformation is over.' This was the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. That was the war [the Counter Reformation] that has been waged from 1540 til now. The 'seat' of power and authority is the papacy and is powered by the dragon/Satan. Revelation 13. There are countless details which are interesting and true, BUT it is more important to see the scope/overview of history applied to the prophetic books of the bible to see what really matters , what is significant to more history and explain the prophecies.

The biblical book of Revelation is written in allegorical language in order to paint a word picture which explains far more than a plethora of simple words can possibly explain. And one must grasp the scope of the bible in order to understand it. It is a brilliant book ...the prophetic history of the Church of which Jesus Christ is head. It has been maligned and lied about for centuries but also it has been studied and taught rightly as well by solid reformed teachers.

Great work but there are some slips of omission. She doesn't mention that Cohn and Wexner, well at least Wexner, are considered MEGA. Wealthy Jews with ties to Mossad and dual citizenship with Israel. She doesn't mention that Microsoft and Intel are now run out of Israel and Netanyahu believes that Israel will in the future, if not already, control all cyberspace and security.

Remember that Jesus commanded that we go forth and proclaim the Gospel, not keep a low profile. It will be difficult, and he promises that we WILL be persecuted for it - as we are already seeing the signs of this. But it is what the Lord asks of us. We must all bear our cross. Mark 8:34 And calling the crowd to him with his disciples, he said to them, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. Luke 14:27 Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. - John 5:24 Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. Galatians 2:20 I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. 2 Corinthians 1:9 Indeed, we felt that we had received the sentence of death. But that was to make us rely not on ourselves but on God who raises the dead.
