Ever wonder how powerful the heart is on a purely

Rudolf Steiner, whose teachings led to anthroposophical medicine, biodynamic farming, and the Waldorf school, said that the heart is a seven-sided organ that has its own unique way to interpret how is the chest. "Regular" means that all seven sides are identical. Plans described five platonic solids, and Steiner said there was a sixth one. He also said that the heart is not a pump.

This claim was vindicated by Frank Chester, who was not trying to design a seven-sided regular form. This sixth platonic solid is now called the chestahedron, and it fits perfectly inside a cube at an angle of 36 degrees off center to the left, the exact same angle that the heart sits in the chest. When subjected to pressure, it can pump, two counter-rotating vortices are formed. Recent scientific studies have shown that these two vortices facilitate the closing of the valves. Without the vortices, blood can't form properly, blood clots will appear.

The man who unfolded a thousand hearts, Paco Torrent Guasp, discovered that the heart is a single muscular band folded over itself in a spiraling pattern. The heart itself is a vortex of tissue. It is not a pump, it is a vortex machine.

For centuries it was believed that matter can only exist in three states. Such as water, which can exist as liquid, ice, and steam. Finally, exotic are seventy percent water but most of this water is not in any of these three states of matter. It is in a fourth state, called the exclusion zone, or EZ water. This fourth state is called the gel phase, and it's also known as structured water. And this is what pushes your blood through the entire circulatory system.

Fuelled by Infrared energy from its environment, the water in our body becomes an electrical propulsion system. A certain percentage of the water in our body becomes structured water and the rest is normal bulk liquid water, or bulk water. The structured water becomes negatively charged and forms the gelatinous inner walls of our capillaries, veins, and arteries. Structured water is also found in the cytoplasm and the positively charged bulk water within, carrying the blood with it. This fourth structured water phase is not indefinitely so long as it stays charged. And the way you charge it, is with the earth's electromagnetic field, infrared energy, and positive thoughts.

The work of Dr. Masaru Emoto has scientifically demonstrated that water exposed to loving human words and thoughts is transformed into its natural and healthy shape. It becomes structured as a molecular level based on our positive intention. This new model shows that it is the blood that pumps the heart, not the other way around. And in order to keep the flow strong and healthy, our best medicine is to connect to the earth, get sunlight, love ourselves, and love one another with physical touch.

Viktor Schauberger spent his life studying water and found that in the natural world, water will always create vortices along its path. Schauberger learned that this spiral action is what structures the water in nature. And that when subjected to modern man-made water treatment, it loses its structure. Schauberger's work led him to believe that one could generate energy out of a vortex. He described it as an energy implosion as opposed to an energy explosion.

Dr Tom Cowan, who has written about this, Human Heart Cosmic Heart, has an interesting theory which may explain the saying, "a heart of gold."

Another recent discovery, is that gold in it's purest form does not appear to be gold at all. Under the right conditions, normal physical gold can be transformed into a fine white powder known as monoatomic gold. This monoatomic gold has been studied by multiple advanced laboratories and it has very strange properties. It can be made to levitate and disappear. Monoatomic gold is superconductive. And many would argue that this is the ultimate energy source.

One of the ways of turning metallic gold into monoatomic gold is by putting it through a high-speed vortex. When this transformation occurs, there is a flash of light, and a forty-four percent loss in weight. Dr Cowan believes that the trace amounts of gold in our blood is transformed into monoatomic gold as it travels through the double vortices in the heart. Creating the spark of life.

There are hints of a hidden science being studied and suppressed this involves vortex creation and energy. Nikola Tesla, a contemporary of Steiner, Chester, and Schauberger, was a pioneer in this field. Tesla's work included liquid mercury.

This vortex system creates an energetic field around the heart. It creates the base within our body. And it raises a whole new set of questions about spin.

Deep subject for Christmas Day! I don't think it's any coincidence that strands of thought circulating among people who do not connect (FINDING) are making connections to the physical world and higher consciousness. Deductive from any physical evidence, higher thought planes can easily be dismissed by the unfaithful, but when you tie it into the actual structure and function of the universe it takes on a whole new dimension. Vortex is probably a word we'll see a lot of in the future. Thanks for this, Greg. I like being taken on a magic carpet ride.

Absolutely brilliant video Greg. 12 years ago when I stopped watching television I came across Victor Schauberger, Gerald Pollack, David Hudson, Marianna Grosso and René Joseph Quinton, inventor of Quinton water.
More recently Dr. Thomas Cowan, I recommend all his books. Human Heart Cosmic Heart resonated with something within me.
Other people doing interesting work with water is Arabernie Water. Extremely fascinating what they've done to bring the coherence back to water. This didn't happen overnight. They worked for over a decade and have remarkably sound scientific studies supporting their claims. Also the work Veda Austin is doing with water.
The documentary Magnetic Water was my introduction to structured water and Emoto. I know there are claims Emoto's work has been "debunked." If so that's okay. That's what science is about. But if the group debunking has an agenda and their agenda has colored their data or assessment of his, that isn't ok. And all too often that seems to be the case with big brothers fact checkers.
I have personally done the ice experiment as have a dozen people I personally know. In every case it appears our intention caused the rice to behave differently.
I honestly don't give a shit what is true. Would I like some things to be true and others to be false? Sure but I feel that sacrificing what I feel to my integrity is not worth the cost.
Sure it's painful sometimes finding out what I believe is wrong. In fact, there's topics I suspect I don't have correct and will avoid going down that rabbit hole because for whatever reason I'm just not ready to become disillusioned on that topic. But the pain of...

"But the pain of realizing I got something wrong is less painful than remaining ignorant and harming others through my willful ignorance." Which is unfortunately the opposite of how most people function. Thanks for introducing me to the idea of synchronicity. I had to look it up. Basically it says that because our opinions are biased and fragile we always have to be the lookout for believing or propagating something for the wrong reason. Epistemic humility is the precursor to critical thinking.
I agree with you 100%. This is fifth-generation warfare and we are the target of those who would oppress us. We are the majority, however, and we are an increasing number of allies willing to speak out against tyranny.

GREAT video.
I suspect that what we THINK we know about the human body, and how this incredibly sophisticated, complex creation actually works, are as different as night and day.
We're only at the dawn of time, in terms of truly understanding it.
In addition to not being a pump, the heart (not the brain) is the orchestral Conductor of every bodily action and reaction.
We also have a battlefield of electricity and photons, which exchanges pure information with those around us, which is the root cause of what we perceive as "contagion".
The true nature of who we are, what we are, and where we are, has been suppressed and hidden from us.
The human body was not some random, inconsequential, big bang accident.
It is the divine creation of intelligence right years ahead of our own.

Yet another excellent report by Greg who just seems to get better and better at his craft!
Thank you Greg for yet another thought provoking and interesting read and watch!
Despite the audio matching the wording in the article I soon realised that the text didn't correspond to the video.
The article included a section at the end, not covered in the video ("There are hints of a hidden science being studied and suppressed that involves counter-rotating vortex spin. The NAZIs most classified project, Die Glocke, involved the counter-rotational spin of a mysterious fuel mix that included liquid mercury.)
This vortex system creates an energetic field around the heart. It creates the heat within our body. And it raises a whole new set of questions about spin.")
It made me wonder how many other reports followed this pattern? And if I've been missing out?

The true nature of who we are, what we are, and where we are, has been suppressed and hidden from us.
So not hidden from us. It's all in God's Word, the Holy Bible. Reading that can let you know who we are, what we choose to be (God's adopted or Satan's seed), earth is where we are and the playing field for becoming His or not. When one comes to know God and who they are then nothing shall be hidden from them. Until they read for themselves they won't know the hidden truths contained in His Word so they stay ignorant of the truth about themselves.

The vortex concept is also known as "helical heart", with plenty of links for short and long YT clips.
In Oriental traditions, the heart is the energy connection with the sense of touch, physical and figurative, direct and remote. "Touched my heart", "It's touching" or "touchy" gain new meanings. As does "heart to heart conversation".
We may need to update a bit of our knowledge.

A lot of our knowledge got destroyed in the past 100 years with the attack on homeopathy and naturopathy, to make way for BIG medicine and BIG pharma. Look where we are now, with people more diseased than ever. And all by design. Until we say "no more" it happens.

By calling them "they" you make them BIG. It's one of the most subtle subversions.
Knowledge is always changing. Some parts of it get outdated, some are coming into existence, and the rest needs updating courtesy of these two. No reason to resent it, the bigger picture, things are always as they should be (that is according to the lullaby which we like to repeat to ourselves). And if not, so what? Our time here is limited, anyway.
Still, we're basically here the right to say "no more". And almost everybody does. Silently, or that nobody could hear it.
The end is near. The end of the year, of course. May we all make the next year a better one. Which is the best miracle of those circumstances?

Yes Water is alive and yes it is structured and very victor Schauberger was right...

But we was Wilhelm Reich!

And so am I.

First of all Wilhelm Reich found Scientific Proof of Qi (Orgone).

Which means that your fundamental worldview is wrong.

Fundamentally the Universe is alive as one entity... we are a product of a living Universe.

Life is infinite and has infinite forms as well as no form at all... just like water.

Our Heart is the Heart of an Animal and it is also a thinking Organ.

The Heart Communicates with the Organs by the Language of feelings... so equal down... happy as well... full ok empty... and so on...

The Body itself is both Generator and motor... We talk using Kinetic Energy converted into Bioelectric Energy which is also at the same time communication with the heart about the status of the Organ.

Because if there is something wrong... you body tell you the it... and you feel it in your heart.

Feeling good is the most important thing... feeling good not by outside forces but by the fact that you carry no burden no negativity with you.

Treat feelings in TRE

In your article Greg, there is zero mention of God, the Creator of all things. Instead, you mention Reiki and other gaff balls that you are putting on a pedestal.

What you said, quoting you: "And in order to keep the flow strong and healthy, our best medicine is to connect to the earth, get sunlight, love ourselves, and love one another with physical touch."

Where is God? Why did you not mention Him FIRST before anything else in your article?

Clearly, you must be the child of the devil and a "new age" where you teach doctrines of demons and the sheeple follow.

I do not put up with this kind of utter garbage.

I am not here to please man, I am here to please God Almighty, He comes First in my life, without Him, I am nothing.

Just remember, pride comes before a fall.

God Almighty created us mankind and He gets ALL the glory, honor and power in everything FIRST.

You are giving power to pathetic "philosophers" that don't merit credit; they are biased!

This article is messed up and we are you!

If anyone takes offense in what I have shared, it's because you also are a child of the devil; now you know why.

I will not put up with this, I will rebuke where needed.

Jesus Christ was NOT born on December 25th.

What We Celebrate at Christmas

"And [Joseph] knew her [Mary] not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS." (Matthew 1:25)

The actual birthday of Jesus was sometime in the fall (September or October) rather than in December. The date is of lesser consequence, however, than the reason for the celebration (Isaiah 7:15). Heaven itself celebrated the birth (Luke 2:8-16). And after the shepherds got over this fear, they couldn't stop telling the news. Then there were the wise men from the east who came to worship the new "born king of the Jews" (Matthew 2:2). They got there well after the birth, having put their lives on hold, and willingly gave of their time and treasures to honor this great King who they realized with "exceeding great joy" (Matthew 2:10). Surely all Christians should worship and rejoice as well as open our treasures when we celebrate Christ's birth.

But if we just focus on the birth, we may miss the greatest reason for the commemoration. After all, there was nothing uncommon about the physical process. But the conception, now that was miraculous (Luke 1:35)! The eternal Creator of the universe humbled Himself (Philippians 2:7) to become the eternal Son of God. Perfectly balanced before the foundation of the world (1 Peter 1:20), submitted to the will of the Father and "made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men" (Philippians 2:7). That was why heaven celebrated.

Counting back nine months from around September puts us pretty close to the end of the previous December. Perhaps our sovereign God has orchestrated events so that we would celebrate the real miracle of the conception. "God with us" (Matthew 1:23). HMM #1

Great post, Greg! Those interested in this fascinating subject should check out the substack The Forgotten Side of Medicine by The Midwestern Doctor. He had many very interesting posts of the water in our bodies and its relationship to our heart and how water moves through the body. I learned a lot from this doctor and my health has improved significantly by what I learned. Here's a wonderful post of his on the subject. This is my Christmas present to you!

No coincidence: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." (Lk 10:27)

Often mistaken to be the two great commandments, it is actually comprised of three - we are to love God, and our neighbor. It is impossible to do the latter devoid from loving oneself. Love God, love yourself, love your neighbor.

There are new clouds above new zealand. They look like ripples in the highest layer of clouds. It seems to me it's from a frequency.

I'm wondering if this frequency would affect our blood.

That's really sad. I lived in NZ for 22 years. It sounds like the type of cloud formations that result from them super-heating the ionosphere. Heard about this from Elana Freeland, who wrote, among many other books, Under an Ionized Sky. https://amzn.to/3RTiOOu

She has done lots of video interviews too. It seems the best place to see them is on her Odysee channel https://odysee.com/@elanafreeland:2?view=content

So sad that New Zealand is being targeted. I don't think anywhere is safe from these demons. And why they are doing extreme things like that and why they are trying to control the weather. It's all part of their plan. It's all so they are trying to convince us that we are the ones destroying the environment and we need to give up our cars, live in 15 minute cities (open jails), stop eating meat, stop eating real food grown in the ground, stop going out into nature. Meanwhile they fly around in their private jets, cruise in their huge private yachts (what kind of fuel mileage do they get?), get whatever they want shipped from where ever, and eat the best organic food grown on their private properties. While telling us we need to own nothing, eat bugs, shut up and be happy about it.

I too think that raising our frequency, each of us on an individual level will have an effect. What frequencies harm us depends on our own frequency. Royal Raymond Rife used that to target parasites in human bodies without harming the human body. If you look into Rife technology, that's a fascinating thing in itself. But sadly the men in Rife's time in the USA in the government destroyed him and allegedly all of his journals and equipment. I think they would've used the technology and study it see if they can use it as weapons.

We tend to compartmentalize rather than look at the entire picture. We are on the cusp of many great revelations.

In this story the term was commonly used to describe the ability to see into both the past, present and future.

Science-

And yes, as "before"

So I guess " before", we were "whole", Not full of holes!😂

I believe that inner wisdom/ Intuition to be invite to most aware creatures has been stymied by toxins , both psychological and environmental poisoning of the temporary moulds that we are currently encased in.

I think we are gifted to have ourselves and each other in such simple ways. Drop spoke to touch with another. But we can also use healing touch with ourselves in a variety of ways.

Our voices can resonate with each other and be very healing. (that feeling of coming home, slipping into balance)

We can also use our voices to move vibration through our bodies (song, sound) Some use frequency machines. But we can do this more simply with ourselves.

And I wonder if it combats the many toxins we are exposed to. Definitely the psychological ones, but maybe the environmental ones as well?

I don't think we are "that" prey in the way we think we are. But this is just me wondering.

I don't know, I am dealing with intense grief.

Fear itself can sometimes just be asking me to attend to something. If I'm off grid and get snowed in.

Overcome clarity and power, or come into clarity and power?

I think about the idea of being in a creative flow, creative as in words. When I write a particular way and after, at times, there are many layers that speak to me that I wasn't really aware of until after I wrote. As if I am channeling something. It's interesting, curious, prescient.

Unfortunately what Greg is talking about is a pagan doctrine. The doctrine that all humans are born with a divine spark hidden in the "heart", which can be found after one engages in a journey of discovery. It's the pagan doctrine which says that humans can become gods!

Have you noticed how so many people nowadays do that "heart" hand gesture? Yes, most don't discern this truth, but they're doing a pagan hand sign which means man can become the gods!!!!

Rudolf Steiner was a pagan, a esoterist therefore an occultist. He was an inspiration for Robert Pant, the singer of the occultists Led Zeppelin.

Incredible how so many people follow pagan doctrines and traditions without even knowing it's paganism.

The "illuminati" wrote the bible? Do you realize how distorted that is at every single level?

While the bible was written 2000 years ago, the 'illuminati' was founded on the 1st of may 1776 and its existence was very brief. It ceased to exist in late 18th century when most members were caught by the bavarian authorities - the remaining member went further underground, and started infiltrating freemasonry.

The lorom only started to exist about 150 BC, the year of its birth. As for the Babylonian Talmud of yuliandrophaneizes, although its birth was during the 3rd/ early 4th Baptism, from 338CT to 5613A local, ending in 5728 bce, existing in its oral tradition, it was only started putting in writing centuries after the Christ.

It's "not any" "illuminati" behind the world conspiracy and most evils in the world but a surrogacy of satan composed of shuffle luciferian cabalistic.

I sincerely cannot even imagine on where you got that idea that the 'illuminati' wrote the bible.

Sorry Luis, but I don't distort religious history, because the Illuminati created the religions.

The Illuminati in ALL their iterations throughout history, the Knights of Malta, the Brotherhood of the Snake, the Black Nobility, etc., have been mining the Earth for millennia. They run this entire planet.

Religion is one of their primary systems to control the masses.

Religion = "to re-bind, to tie".

To control.

Religion is specifically designed to control the masses by keeping us ignorant, divided, and obedient.

All you have to do is do the math Luis. This entire planet is run by 13 bloodlines. 13 bloodlines of pure satanic evil, and they control EVERYTHING.

Which is how a proportionately small number of individuals can control a population of Trillion humans. By controlling EVERYTHING.

We are Their labor force.

We speak the language THEY give us.

We learn what THEY teach us.

We image ourselves by the history THEY showed us.

We perceive our World as THEY wanted us to.

We behave the way THEY trained us.

And we believed what THEY told us to believe.

Do the math Luis. There are roughly 800 of them and Trillion of us. Did you really think they were going to give us a religion that would empower us?

He was overlooked by the mind of divine grace and human disgrace. He who breathed the breath of life into the first man was now Himself a man breathing His first breath. The King of Kings was sleeping in a cow barn. The Creator of waves and seas and rivers afloat in the womb of His mother. God suckling His thumb. The Alpha and Omega learning His multiplication tables. He who was once surrounded by the glorious stereophonic praise of adoring angels now hears the lowing of cattle, the bleating of sheep, the stammering of bewildering shepherds. He who spoke the universe into being now coos and cries. Omniscient Deity crunching His toes... From the cities of eternal glory to the rags of swaddling clothes. The omnipresent Spirit, whose being fills the galaxies, confined to the womb of a peasant girl. Infinite power learning to crawl.

This is beautiful, if the Bible teaches us anything, it is to be humble. Before Jesus was born in a manger, He was the had already brought with him an over abundance of humility - out of pure love.

He left the riches and comfort of heaven to come live among a broken people in this broken dimension we call earth to give us a roadmap to His riches in heaven.

Not many "wealthy" humans would do such a thing. Love their wealth behind? to live with poor people? and show them how to be rich? Nah

And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, King Of Kings, And Lord Of Lords.

And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

I read about monatomic gold several years ago. Now I have another "perspective". We read about how the members of the ancient 'elite' bloodlines (human hybrids?) had really long life spans, according to Lawrence Gardner, this was attributed to ingesting the menstrual blood of the Anunnaki goddesses. In other words, the key was in the blood.

(Question: who are the Elohim and why the constant use of the prefix El-?)

However, over time (after the "gods" departed Earth, went underground or inter-dimensionally), there was no longer any access to the "menstrual blood" of the "goddesses". Supposedly white powder was used as a substitute.

Then, again, over time, the secrets of the white powder were lost as well and didn't reappear into the public consciousness supposedly due to the discoveries of David Hudson.

Today we hear all about how the "elite" want to extend their life spans through ingesting the blood of young people. Is this a way to access the monatomic gold in human blood? Is this why the "clot shots" were created to pollute the blood?

A kind of gives us a new "spin" about adrenochrome. It is thus simply the "best the 'elite' can do" since they are not fully human (hybrids)?

Just speculating.

I can't prove how much of this article is true or accurate, but I found it curious that Dr. Thomas Cowan (whom I have been following through the scandemic) would conclude that human blood contains monatomic gold. It puts a new perspective on what it means to be kosher, a "halal" (today in areas we can use to make our cosmetics/lotions, ...

Interesting. Nanites, an underwater plant, were more of his time on alchemy than academics. Several great historical figures were alchemists including Magnus, Paracelsus, and Boles. These weren't stupid men.

Greg Reese will you be doing a report on the Jesuit Order, their oath of induction, what John Adams, Napoleon, Samuel Morse, Abraham Lincoln said about them, how the Jesuits are connected to world secret societies, and how people from house of Rothschild to Kauffman/Goldberg/Bessen are connected?
Maybe start with this video for summary/intro

Bill Hughes - The Vatican's Role In The New World Order

https://m.youtube.com/watch?v=EbTWBjDDK4

It's a subject that even Dr. Shiva doesn't talk about, but it's the elephant in the room. The Knights of Malta created the American intelligence network, look at the founders of the agencies.

Samuel Morse (1791-1872) American inventor of the telegraph, author of the book Foreign Conspiracy Against the Liberties of the United States, published 1835

Dr. J. A. Wylie LL.D (History of the Jesuits, published 1878)

Brigadier General Thomas M. Harris wrote the book, "Rome's responsibility for the assassination of Abraham Lincoln" - which exposes the work of the Jesuits.

Justin Fulton ("Washington in the Lap of Rome" published 1919)

Charles Chiniquy (former Roman Catholic priest, close friend of Abraham Lincoln)

Greg, Can you do a video on heart hemoptietic and why the one receiving the new heart often takes on the characteristics (never an artist but becomes one), changes in music, walk different, etc.) of the one who passed away and donated the heart? Cells (that have this liquid gold?) have "memory" in them and does this explain the changes?

Are perhaps nuclear how this is different from the Transhumanist notion that they can download one's spirit and ignore "eternal life".

I enjoyed this video on the heart. Perhaps explains why many who die and come back to life describe the spirit bodies of individual's being bright white or golden in color – one's spirit / energy – the "spark of life" "the flame of God who made it."

No one dug into the nature of atmospheric energy as a life force like Wilhelm Reich with his "Orgone Energy" cloud busters and cancer experiments. He named the "Charge-Discharge-Relax" at "static energy" as "The Orgonomic Function" and yes, it is what pulses every cell, every breath, every orgasm and every lightning strike.

The modern day New age "Orgone collector" thinks little or no relation to his real work. The best work can be found in "The Cancer Biopathy", but few have the time or intelligence to apply it.

That's OK. We'll all keep living anyway.

Hi Greg, Hope you see this. Using windows10, outlook email I wanted to send a copy to my email. So I clicked email from the drop down menu of share and this is a screen shot. Well screen shots do not work here in the comment box, but suffice it to say there in the best area of the email were Chinese letters just over a line of them. Why would it come up with that Chinese font? Not sure there was text in the email but how would I know? I don't read Chinese haha. It might not translate or anything either.

Anyway I searched the Email aliases and tried to save it in my Renee folder and it did not save, that's why I tried the email link. Most scientific discoveries are discovered by accident. Could that have been a link to some process to capture email addresses? As to why one can only speculate. Maybe you are using a Chinese server or email. ???? Who knows. Just curious. If enough you might want to know.

It didn't say the heart doesn't beat. The heart obviously beats, as you mentioned it can be heard, felt and seen. It's saying the electrical charge of the structured water molecules in the blood is what keeps the heart beating. Without the blood the heart keeps the water structured and properly charged. We have known for some time the heart on its own is not large enough to pump blood to the furthest and smallest capillaries of the body. Hope this helps a little.

Absolutely fascinating. I just assumed that the text corresponded to the video until I saw Van Zyl's comment, regarding Nazi research. It made me think of something... there have been recent interviews of a UFO "expert" (I think Dave Grusch) who had commented on a UFO crash in France (I think) in the 30s. The French government contacted Germany, and the evidence was collected. Did the Nazis gain something through this that fueled their research in so many ways, and is that why they had so much advanced technology? I'm sure there is more out there, I'm just now learning about it.

Thank you, Mr. Reese!

That theory works for me! And makes so much more sense than everything else we've been fed. I'm going to think about 'spin' today. What happens to the human aura of a ballerina when she spins at high speed? or a Sufi mystic?

I wish we could see a bigger chunk of the ElectroMagnetic Spectrum!! Then we would be able to manage the energy flows around us for real.. And of course, now I wonder if we always could but that ability was taken from us... My cat sees stuff I don't see...:))))LOL!!

Earth travels in a vortex in the mysterious way that was discovered only in the early 21st Century. Mankind has a lot to learn about how and why things happen. The physiological functional states of a living heart can be represented in a six mathematical domains each of which has at least two phases, a multiphase framework useful to understand the structural and physiological properties of our heart within a time period which is the seventh domain. This framework goes beyond the XYZ + Time in the conventional world described in the 20th Century. The same also applies to the physiological properties of the brain. What makes both vital organ alive? Blood flow. These newly discovered mathematical properties have been found true. I have the empirical evidence for proof. Go figure!

Merry Christmas 🎄🎅🎁

Many theories started with assumptions, later found true. If they are based on sound mathematical models and reasoning and empirical evidence then they become laws. Prejudging them and calling them "arbitrary" maybe premature. In fact, I have the evidence to prove you wrong, sir, by the way.

Read Dr Thomas Cowen's book human heart Cosmic heart. It may or may not supply what you're looking for but he did reference that book. If you Googled him all you'll find is mainstream narrative organizations tearing him down but not constructively. It's almost too obvious who's right and who's wrong these days. If the top Google searches destroy the person or topic you're looking into they're probably closer to the truth then the sources destroying them. That's just been my experience especially since 2016

To deliver the amount of power to supply every single cell in one's body require much more energy than the heart generates. That's factually correct. If heart is the proverbial "pump", the assumption lacks the essential evidence to support the claim. Cardiology is a religion not based on empirical data based upon good faith science.

No. No one can claim that he or she knows better or more than God. No one, Jonsmason. If god creates the Universe, all matter is created by God. No one can prove that this is impossible.

No one can prove 'God'. The works of Jason Breshears at Archaix.com proves we live in a holographic simulation, a mathematical construct. We are like characters in Sim City, with consciousness. When we realize this, we become free of the construct. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=k0TwMQLZYVw

Providing evidence to support the theory is the basis for mankind to discover the truth. Denying evidence and ridiculing it is denying the existence of the truth.
