There may be a new kind of subscription service industry springing up. Google etc. needs to be Me Belled.

Google was initially a honey trap...as in Fabebook (a surveillance system).
Google quickly got rid of their founding search engine "Do NO Evil"...
I guess now they declaring what they really are - DOING EVIL.
Use BRAVE or Tandem (Russian) search engine - I use Brave but some say Yandex gives them everything without censorship. I still a bit Leery of Russian malware.

I am not reading Russian propaganda so that is not my concern, but I understand from your perspective, and it's good you are aware of that issue
- but for me I just want a search engine to not be a SEARCH FILTER, but merely a SEARCH ENGINE -
One that will find websites, that aren't necessarily part of the "globalist" "Uniate) approved reading list."

Fitting in reality with their insistent efforts to "save" the environment, Microsoft will recommission the half of three mile island that didn't melt down and exclusively use the power generated to power AI. Environmentalists can't guess as to what the AI mission will be?
Redistributive excess wealth to benefit humanity? Oh perhaps you missed their new definition of humanity. Hint, as suspected Palestinians are not human. But it's a long list of those deleted, so not to worry, the new humanity will benefit by lots more mayhem and gore.

Unfortunately they do, but they're called "camps". Quarantine camps, reeducation camps, that have been built very quietly in every state. Canada. Worldwide. Their hopes are people in the Ukraine application before they're released. That's key. They need a much smaller population to be able to control. However, with the coming social credit scoring, wealth distribution to "level the playing field", food scarcity, we turn on each other. If you're "naughty " on social media, it'll affect not only you, but anyone associated with you. The coming CBDC is a ploy for ultimate control. We're in very big trouble. Most will be blindsided. This escalating has for deeper implications than the obvious.

In the states, those were originally billed to be for ICE dealing with illegals, but it didn't take long before they were threatening patients with them. BCX-64 internment camps a A.K.A. FEMA camps and stacks of coffins, mobilizers guillotines, and all the rest. Updated for Halliburton, relying on no-bid contracts for $300M in 2004 or so, if memory serves (Cheney!). It's digital bookburning.
I'm struggling to find many older propaganda and Yarnstock books myself on line.
I don't bother with Datum Google DO EVIL, or Duck Duck NO
I use BRAVE however it is still a slog but I am VERY persistent and find what I want even if it takes reading PAGES of hits.
Even archive.org which is where I often find what I need, was hit recently with a major hack that took them off line, and now they have to reindex...
I highly recommend printing hard copies of what is nb for you to read or keep, or downloading onto external drives for good measure.
Also old books you can buy to build your own home library before these books no longer exist online...

https://archive.today is another very good archive site. Better even in some ways. The ownership of archive.org (the wayback machine) has some shady connections to old world money and creepy "bloodlines". I'm not saying it is all that they would collaborate with the satanic elite.
This cabal won't stop until they have to. Just wait until people are shocked by gmail deleting their old "wrong think" emails. Probably sooner than you think...

I see no indication of who owns or controls archive.today. Of course archive.org has some creepy connections, as that's where the money is. But it's transparent what they do, and they provide a useful service (even though it's possible for website owners to request, and presumably obtain, removal of their pages (https://help.archive.org/help/how-do-i-request-to-remove-something-from-archive-org-2)).

I don't dislike archive.org. Not at all. I think it's great. Awesome site. VERY handy. The search feature is robust especially the ability to search a range of dates. You can use wildcards. Plus they often properly archive entire videos.
I guess I am suspicious as to how transparent they actually are in reality. They may claim to be transparent in their TOS, but I have read several stories from people over the years claiming otherwise.
These stories of cancellation or disappearance all seem to be about people in the Liber ate Libre circles. The "Invisibles" as I call them. The BIG$$$ creepy bloodline families. Those behind the small money Soros types. The hidden hand that will never allow itself to be revealed. The types that funded the people who funded Epstein and Diddy.
I have also read about certain subjects being scrubbed over the years. Related to SRA, cults and the worst types of child abuse/trafficking/torture. Years ago I read a few testimonies from some victims who claimed evidence of their abuse was removed from archive, completely wiped. There was also an interview which was convincing, to me at least.
I could be wrong. I'm a cynical grouch, haha
No idea who runs archive.today they certainly could get scrubbed or manipulated one day also.
Personally I think sites that archive are being "modified" now because they were probably starting to be effectively indexed (which is called DDoS attacks by private party's) and the cult doesn't want to lose their control of history. Their skill in rewriting history is at risk if there is a perpetual archive constantly contradicting the current lie of the month. I think they are installing a framework to rewrite archive pages as their needs change, much like wikipedia is constantly

Re: "...the only source on the entire World Wide Web that mirrors content in real time has been disabled. For the first time since the invention of the web browser itself, researchers have been robbed of the ability to compare past with future content, an action that is a staple of researchers looking into government and corporate actions".
So who actually did this? I mean who actually did it, the specific perpetrators, their names? Can this be ascertained?
This is the sort of information we need to track down. Real people undertake these actions. By doing so they are denying people in transactions vital information upon which to make an informed decision about their vote in elections.
The legitimacy of elections is in question now, with bad actors interfering with the electoral process by inhibiting access to important information.
We must identify the specific people who are interfering with information, bring them to account.

And yet more and more people buy into this digital crap-of-a-world to be controlled, manipulated and then finally destroyed, literally. All of these major digital/internet companies are control machines as well as spy machines and data collectors. ALL digital devices gather info unless you do not use them or use some that don't spy on you.
Why?! The ultimate reason can be for none other than creating a personalized society and social system. You play nice with the bankers and they murder you with big pharma mRNA poisons and other drugs. You will need ALL demanded vaccines if you want to play nice. And they will murder you in the name of gates, Bill the WEF's depopulation agenda.

Go against the tyrants and they murder you faster by denying you money, food, medical care and other necessities. You are going to be murdered either way you play. The solution right now is to exit the surveillance bio-dome as much as possible and participate as much/connect with apple, Microsoft, Facebook and the goog as you can. Say no to digital ID's, CBDCs and all vaccines of any kind.

Imho, they're putting the final plans of the "great reset" into play. Hi-story has other episodes of resets. The United States has been down this road before; in the late 1800's/early 1900's to be precise. There were magnificent buildings that were showcased during the world fairs back then which were lit up like Times Square before they even had electricity on a large scale. During that time, people were moved around like cattle. There were orphan trains, incubator babies for sale and other eye events. This is reset 2.0 and it's very convenient for their twisted plans that the internet archive is suddenly "disabled." Something big is about to happen and 90% of the population is going to be in for a rude awakening or will be completely blindsided. Stay prayed up bec whatever it is, is biblical in magnitude. 🙏🙏🙏

Not surprising that a device as powerful as the internet has become a tool for government malfeasance. Believe half of what you see in a video and none of what you hear tweeted on the web. Unfortunately the internet is the new TV. Maybe this will encourage more personal social networking and face to face (not face-time) interaction. How ironic is it that a technology which could put the world's information in the palm of your hand would lead to the degradation of human intellect and spirit?

CIo replied to your comment

You may also want to look at the work of Mark Passio, a former satanist who left the church of satan and started informing people of what they do. There's Ronald Bernard https://lightmynetwork.com/2020/09/30/from-illuminati-banker-to-heroic-whistleblower-ronald-bernard-satanic-ritual-abuse-adrenochrome/

The above comment was CIo's. I had forgotten about Ron Bernard for years now. He mentions some very interesting things to both inform researchers. He's an obviously honest man, who experienced things which VERY few have had access to. So, I would recommend everyone take the time to watch them and learn from an insider who has turned informant for the wickedness he saw and took partial part in. This way, the propaganda will be seen as it is, and the planned "control" measures will never be a surprise to learn of. We as people can do nothing to halt the steam-roller which has been fueled and set up to do its work. Prayer and the spreading of Truth so others can be equally educated will do no harm to anyone, but it mustn't be misunderstood to be a social tactic. The "elite" have fostered this satanic structure according to his blue-print, some well-knowing, others not so much. God COULD clean up the mess instantly, but is allowing time to disclose the works of the devil which will exemplify it for what it is. But it WILL all come to its end finally, and the outcome will be glorious. We have His Word on that!

His story is horrifying and it's not the first time a whistleblower has exposed this - in other words, there seems to be a pattern with these Luciferian people regarding children.

Someone high up in CLUB OF ROME exposed pedophilia on video interview with top German lawyer Reiner FUELLMICH recently - https://rumble.com/v3p3h9-un-whistleblower-slls-georgeous.html

They are REALLY going after Reiner too. They nabbed him in Mexico and took him to Germany where he is now locked up for almost a year for a minor civil financial dispute.

Where did you ever hear of a guy spending that much money and resources over a civilian matter. He touched their big bullion of justice for the people.

He was also threatening Gov leaders with Nuremberg 2 trial for democide COVID mass murders...

Germany is also going after GAB (free speech Christian platform) this week.

They are trying to make them censor their platform.

and GAB CEO Andrew Torba, is fighting it - he sent an email this week explaining and showing the court papers and how DOJ is not protecting his America speech-rights. He was also asking for contributions to fight these legal battles abroad.

It's LARTers...

ARF,

I watched that linked vid. Thanks. Certainly the banksters are at their controls, causing financial ruin to entire countries. Ron Bernard pointed out how they achieved what they're here. It's like rip of some Hollywood movie! I've known this for quite some time now, and since discussing a lot of these types of secret "societies" and "NGO's", assembling many of the puzzle pieces handed me by some in the GOA church, it became a clearer picture to view. In our denomination at present, the leadership has settled and held up to scrutiny, and passed every test. She stated clearly that behind these "secret societies" was a Satanic Overseer in the form of the Pagan, Catholic system of religion. There was a time when I was given a link to a couple of vids in which the interviewee was "inside" and came out to expose the deep, dark corruption, and worse, the religious rites and horrible things like child sacrifice, which I think was the point at which it tripped the scales for the man. I wish I could remember his name - I will come to me and I'll forward.

Anyway, what I always notice when watching vids like the one you sent, that there is no definite "link" to the source of the devil. It might be mentioned in a passing statement, but there is not the expected definite spiritual connection to him, nor is the Romish Church implicated at all. She should be. She is the right arm of the devil, "The Mother of Harlots."

And we don't know the half of it!

In Christ,

Satan is the commander for most of the evil in the world, but he's fooled many into believing he doesn't exist.

Sadly there are also evil men who will do evil even knowing Yeshua is King of Kings...

Yahweh (God) does give us the gift of free will to love him and others - or not.

Many actively worship satan in these organizations U.N. HRT etc - especially at the top leadership level.

The Catholic Church even named their expensive observatory after him!...

I'm sure he appreciated the "honor".

I am an EX catholic. The Holy Spirit opened my eyes even as a child.I knew something was amiss with goddess Mary being elevated ABOVE God, and all the idols around us, the repetitive prayers (rosary) which Jesus instructed us not to practice.

Dear Brother ARF,

So, my work here is mostly done! Glad you have "come out of her" and are liberated now from the spell of that religious organization. The prophet has made it clear that the mesmerizing effects of the "mother church" is no joke. So, thankfully you have escaped! Thank the Lord for that intervention-!

I'm not as smart. I learned the facts about the mother church through reading and info handed down from the GOA church. The strange acts with children, their being sacrificed/eaten, and the cover-up attempts did catch my attention, and prompted doubt as to her "Christian" claims. Once alerted and more focused, the investigation produced a ton of support for God's directive, "Come out of her my people, lest ye share in her punishment." (paraphrased)

It was quite a while ago when I had watched a few vids but forgot the main guy's name. Suddenly, it came to me (providentially, I'm sure) the person's name is Rodger Momeau. In a session recorded at my home church many years ago, he was interviewed by Pastor Doug Barfield. The man is difficult to understand by way of his accent, but one can get the gist of the matter. There is another vid which is a re-enactment of his coming out of Satanism into the light, where his story is laid out more clearly. It's quite interesting and educational as to how Satan is able to manipulate things, like how we saw an experience of Roger's.

You asked me about "Hell" and the verses that support the doctrine which specifies it being eventually extinguished. May I recommend watching this informative vid by Doug Bachelor: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vcwQ_LaRvDI.

There are scads more of the same and likely other verses which allude to the facts of the annihilation doctrine. It's important to get this straight so as to not misalign God's Character which is perfect and just.

Here's just what popped up after the first one. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1kuDtqGNoO8

If you have a copy of that issue, keep it somewhere safe. Why? See for yourself. Try a web search for that event. That aspect of the crash has been eliminated...and another "narrative" has been substituted.

People are too dependent on the internet and need to wake up for the powers that be only want you to know what "they" deem necessary for consumption. You can survive without them. We did for centuries.

We're much too dependent on banks, big oil, corporate media, big money stockfix, big ag, big pharma, pedo-corporate "entertainment" and a whole host of other evils as well.

I do not claim to have an answer.

It's OK, we've downloaded (and PRINTED) enough incriminating evidence to put them on trial and, when found guilty of Premeditated Mass-Murder, the perpetrators will be given the death sentence!

Unjabbed Mick (UK) Fighting to make Big Pharma accept LIABILITY for their deadly but highly profitable, depopulating injections they call 'vaccines'.

Agree you stance on 'If we do nothing' but not the 'Praying' bit. That's just a form of dressed up 'hope' in my world. Thanks! Unjabbed Mick (UK).

I don't have Katherine Watt's original link on how she prints and stores her internet work. This will help see what she does: https://archives.libraries.psu.edu/repositories/3/resources/10908

Although I just found her Substack: https://bailiwicknews.substack.com/p/trying-to-figure-out-how-to-make?utm_source=substack&publication_id=37889&post_id=110453870&isFreemail=true&utm_medium=email&triedRedirect=true

We've been driven backwards into the analog and printed-word-on-paper age for purposes of retaining information. As long as there's a devil around to trip up mankind, their intelligence will be first useful, then anathema, as he works his evil.

Absolutely they are and it pisses me off. All the alternative health cures and remedies websites I usually go to when in need have been scrubbed. Nothing but 404 messages everywhere I go.

Well Meryl, this started LONG BEFORE the covcircus was launched for people like me who are "targeted individuals", but no one would listen or care for us before 2020

It is a fact that they always had a lot of money to cancel people like me because guess what ? all their operations are paid by our taxes, so they have unlimited budget.

I had a website that I started in 2004 and it was abruptely put down for no reason except to "cancel me" in 2016, if i remember well the dates: I still have some of the documentation I had produced and several screen shots so I can proove I had the web site, the date of opening and the date of "closure"...

I tried to find it to the wayback machine and GUESS WHAT: they have deleted ALL the pages that once were on the wayback machine... SO if you want to keep something, do not count on the wayback machine: it is "cleaned" of whatever they don't want when thet decide it should disappear... (YES: they have money for that: for don't tell me it done by a volonteer: they have to pay someone for "cleaning"... and guess what: we are paying for that... through "special project" handled by our gov&lie, paid by our taxes)

What was my content? there were several sections, one of them was to advertise my PhD thesis, for I was told by some top adm. at my faculty that "I will never have a teaching or research position, that "HE" will make sure it won't happen": this happened in the "nice Quebec/Canada" where they are very serious to counter all form of discrimination, if and only if you one of their selected groups...

otherwise, you will be denied judicial help...

THE ONLY differences with whatever is happening at the present time is that NOW it is an opened game: NOBODY can pretend that it is not happening. I don't want to be cynical but for a person like me, it is one of the good "WIN" brought by the Covcircus. People who have double standards are also exposed... all of us need to practice consistancy.

Great article. Thanks for posting. I had forgotten how good of an outlet Brownstone is. They need reading. I think that people should re-consider an all-digital world in the face of efforts like this. They should reconsider the power of the printed word, and handwritten letters and articles. Books serve as a chronicle and a mirror to what is on computers, better than a website can.

There are a few other archive services out there but I'm not sure how good they are compared to archive.org.

Also we can't be sure that the people who work at archive.org won't be compromised and eventually censor from within.

This includes inconvenient downloads disappearing from your personal hard drive. Happens every day. I was making screenshots like crazy of J6 Capitol Police atrocities, in addition to video of provocative brutality, the video deleted included a lengthy video of DC police launching flash bang grenades into a peaceful crowd of seniors with Trump signs. Don't underestimate their reach. Your phone internet connection goes through Federal LEO servers by default, and your Android and iPhones have Federal LEO back doors.

"The Internet was founded to be free and democratic." A lovely thought but not entirely true. The US Military Industrial Complex's involvement is documented. It now seems that the internet was just a new drug to get everyone 'hooked' on and to later exert control over. Like the drug pusher that gives free samples, I remember when the internet was "Free": all one needed was a phone connection. Anyone remember NetZero?

A VERY interesting interview with successful well known German lawyer who was calling for Nuremberg 2 trials.... https://rumble.com/v3jc6h8-un-whistleblower-clin-georgescu.html

At 16 mins explanation of Young Global Leaders WEF program (indoctrination into the global cartel gang) - PS Gavin Newsom (CA Gov), Trudeau and many other (Musk too I believe) went through this "program". And Claus (WEF) proudly boasted he is so proud they've infiltrated governments

This guy states these people who go through this program work for WEF and their networks not "the people" of the nation they are supposed to represent.

Also listen to what he says at min 28 about the 2016 year plan for the PLANdemic...that didn't go according to their plan because of Trumps win...so they had to move their Agenda 21 timeline to year 2030...
