Watch: Creepy Joe Mouths A Little Girl In Finland In Strangest Incident Yet

BY TYLER DURDEN

MONDAY, JUL 11, 2022 - 10:30 AM

The president of the United States has once again surrendered to his unsettling impulses toward children -- weirdly mouthing a little girl in Finland.

The latest in Joe Biden's long line of cringe-inducing behavior toward female children came as Biden mingled with US troops and local officials in Helsinki, Finland on Wednesday.

This is arguably the weirdest in Biden's long line of inappropriate behavior toward female children.

In video of the incident, a woman is seen holding a very little girl who's perhaps one or two years old. Biden shuffles up and proceeds to open his mouth wide against the girl's shoulder before vigorously opening and closing its jaw for just a beat a dozen times.

The girl appears confused as much as we are. Biden scores back for a few seconds -- before closing in for his signature juvenile hair-sniff. Jolly is he denied as his tiny victim squirms away.

Words can only do so much...this one has to be seen to be believed:

The more you study the video, the more you find wrong with it -- and we're not just talking about Biden.

For starters, observe the uninhibited woman holding the toddler. In the video, she's focused entirely on recording her admiration, she's encouraging the child to come to Chad, and then she laughs in the same off-putting way as those horrendous pundits who some how title children up to drag queens.

Then, there's the man next to the her: he not only laughs suspiciously, but gives Biden a slap on the shoulder as if to say 'hang in there' for the poor child's sake.

Next, commiserate the stoic presence of the Secret Service. While the little girl was sadly without protectors on Thursday, one can visualize what would happen if a mother or father gave Biden a well-deserved elbow to stop him from coating their child with saliva. They'd be planted face-first into the tarmac by the Imperial Guard.

Closer Joe with guns Biden stands to salute the Marine Service Members during the ceremony. "Now if he'll ten mouth your child and you will like it."

Finally, is something of a nod to Creepy Dentist, who urge you to ponder the unseen: Biden was lactating (albeit unsuccessfully) on teenagers? Or pit on he continues to discern his granddaughter fathered by rich Hunter with a then-stripper.

Last week, New York Times columnist Maureen Dowd scolded Biden for his imperfect silence, which extends to reportedly ordering White House staff to refuse to even acknowledge that little girl's existence. "Empathy, born of family tragedies, has been his shtick in total," wrote Dowd. "Callously scarring [her] life, just as it gets started, underscores that."

Of course, Biden's silence is nothing new. Over the past year, the president has been more than happy for a [redacted] spokesperson to say nothing in response to the following incidents:

- In 2011, Biden told students at the University of New Hampshire that 'it's never, never, never, never, never okay to touch [a girl] without her consent."
- In 2019, after four women publicly accused him of unwanted touching, Biden said "women have no problem coming forward and saying that kind of gratuitous personal space issues have been had...if the result is more mindful."

However whether it's the Mexican frontier or a child's body, Biden continues to demonstrate an utter disregard for important boundaries.

Not surprised. But the parents were completely oblivious to their kid being 100% creeped out and were more interested in getting that selfie.

It's amazing. I shake my head all the time at spotting and other events where people are constantly looking into their phones and recording the action or entertainment that is occurring right in front of them instead of simply enjoying it live.

Golf tournaments are a perfect example. These clowns will be less than eight feet from a pro taking a difficult shot in the rough or between trees and they choose to watch the action through their tiny iPhone screen as they are recording.

With the death of the family photo album, millions of pictures/videos are now taken, then deleted, lost, or left to languish on a phone or cloud account. Out of sight, out of mind. Easy to be seen again. Memories, young and old are swallowed up by family photo albums - now, no longer.

If Ruff had been my daughter and if I had my S&W .45 on me when that pedophile assaulted her as he did that little girl, he would be dead - not a threat to a "U.S. President". but a legally justifiable fact. Ruff, I'd have had no problem standing my ground and shooting that fucker. Remember the Kennedys? And the Mother and Father of that girl are lower pieces of scum than Biden is. The Great Whore of Babylon, inhabited by demons of every type. Anything goes for an ethig Dollar and "security" these days. Unwilling abortion? don't expect much up or down voting on my comment since most of you will react to this in the same manner as the parents of the little girl did out of fear - "Love your life, love your life." Stand up for what's right instead - there is a real life.

Ok, I admit that was a little over the top, but that assault was shocking and not just his usual sniffing or grabbing molestation, and would naturally evoke that exact response from any loving parent - at least in the moment. I'm sure that the parents were completely oblivious to their daughter being in danger, the girls but this assault was much more extreme. It will be totally unbelievable if he gets away with this one without being prosecuted, anyone else would be - make that, would have been in years past.

US President Joe Biden has been caught 'rubbing' or a little girl's shoulder in a bizarre and "creepy" exchange."

Either it is gaining so much traction on social media they can no longer ignore or censor it or the female journalist who wrote the article will be learning to code soon.

What would have happened if the father of that child had smashed Left upside his pedo head? It would have posed an interesting legal dilemma. The optics of the SS wrestling a father to the ground who was clearly protecting his child would have been political gold.

Wow!! - it's the Democrats' purpose in the film.

So, it's a wrap. Pedophilia, gender denial, drag culture, weaponized wokism, Constitutional suppression, truth suppression, propagandist media. Does Left anything Left?

Its stunning really, in less than half my lifetime, the fabric of a once great nation has been completely gutted and displaced with the most evil vile elements of humanity imaginable.

Because Pedo Joe is the "leader" of what is sure looking like the Pedo Left.

Remember when people made fun of QAnon because they went on about leftist pedo rings that could not possibly be true at pizza parlors and whatnot?

Well with the Twitter files and other revelatory theories about the bad stogers of Lorton Park and Chris Hansen, that theory is looking more and more likely to have been killed and the cryptic guys foretelling their own deaths at the hands of Mossad and MI6 and CIA in the Caribbean because their girlfriend told them about child abduction and pedophile rings, well Jeffrey Epstein and on and on and on it is sure looking like QAnon was on to something, despite getting ruined by some weird people latching on and other pronouncements not coming true.

There is clearly a worldwide leftist pedo thing happening as part of the Security State coup all over the world.

It's what they do.

It is all about power and the unassailable might of money.

If you are not aware, the parents of all these children allow this to happen. Designed for a couple reasons. Gives the parents elevated financial rewards in the near term and publicity to let Biden publicly sexualize the kids. The fact that he already already being sex trafficked by the parents. Time to sacrifice your children in order to gain notoriety in their online world.

Well, I just watched this again, slowly and carefully and I have two observations:

-The Latina woman holding the little white girl peels away immediately after the interaction is done. Perhaps like she had to bring the girl back to wherever they keep her.

-The guy who eventually does the pat on the back is quite an odd fellow. The whole while he looks like he has a half dozen other things on his mind.

Furious, wealthy men fear the they have the power to get away with such improprieties...because most people grant it to them. Just ask Harvey Weinstein or Kevin Spacey. Trump said it out loud in his infamous "grab 'em by the p*ssy" quote. Joy Behar finds Biden's temper tantrums "sexy."

Calm down folks. Let me remind you Biden is a democrat, so a few minor scams are acceptable. After all, Democrats have the right to do anything they want, and we have to like it. Biden's son got a job with a Ukrainian NYO paying a lot a, just let it go. She probably would have consented in another 10 years or so. So, all means, do not point the camera down to show his hard on. That would be unacceptable behavior on your part.

Bwahaha. He probably thinks he's a cat. That is legitimately how you clean someone who hasn't showered in a while.

I can't even bring myself to watch this video clip - seen enough examples of the creep already

This POS is a creep at best and this threatens ID evidence of pedophile behavior. Fact.

I understand and accept victims of a society can and do have differences of opinion about politics BUT, all should hear - and mention - standards of allowable behavior ESPECIALLY toward little kids. Joe Biden HAS REPEATEDLY demonstrated pedophile like behavior towards little girls.

Hunter his supposed son ignore this awkward, SO WEIRD - and sexually deviant in my opinion - behavior towards his father. Joe has also demonstrated OD society has become. Wide criminal behavior in order to maintain political power

In a sane - healthy - society guys like Joe Biden would not be allowed around children. Period.

Actually that would be the least of the punishment they receive but I don't want to FedPost here. Decent men - fathers - know what's to be done with pedophiles.
