The Truth "Behind" The Charlie Hebdo Solidarity Photo-Op

Submitted by Tyler Durden on 01/17/2015 23:45 -0500

Barack Obama Middle East New Normal Reality Turkey Ukraine

Once again the mainstream media peddled the spoon-fed propaganda that world leaders "led the march" to honor the victims of the Paris shootings last week. Glorious photo-ops of Merkel, Hollande, Poroshenko, David Cameron (oh, and not Barack Obama) were smeared across front pages hailing the "unity in outrage." However, as appears to be the case in so many 'events' in the new normal managed thinking in which we live, The Independent reports, French TV has exposed the reality of the 'photo-op' seen-around-the-world: the dignitaries were not in fact "at" the Paris rallies but had the photo taken on an empty guarded side street...

As The Independent reports,

A different perspective on the leader's portion of the march has emerged in the form of a wide shot displayed on French TV news reports.

It shows that the front line of leaders was followed by just over a dozen rows other dignitaries and officials - after which there was a large security presence maintaining a significant gap with the throngs of other marchers.

The measure was presumably taken for security reasons - but political commentators have suggested that it raises doubts as to whether the leaders were really part of the march at all.

The FT's Middle East correspondent Borzou Daragahi commented: "Seems world leaders didn't "lead" Charlie Hebdo marchers in Paris but conducted photo op on empty, guarded street."

Perhaps even more ironically, nine of those countries represented in the march are in the final third of the World Press Freedom Index, compiled annually by Reporters Without Borders.

Algeria (121) – Represented by foreign Ramtane Lamamra

Mali (122) – Represented by president Ibrahim Boubacar Keita

Ukraine (127) – Represented by president Petro Porochenko

Tunisia (133) – Represented by prime minister Mehdi Jomaa

Palestinian Authority (138) – Represented by president Mahmoud Abbas

Jordan (141) – Represented by King Abdullah II and Queen Rania

Russia (148) – Represented by foreign minister Sergei Lavrov

Turkey (154) – Represented by prime minister Ahmet Davutoglu

Bahrain (163) – Represented by foreign minister Sheikh Khaled bin Ahmed Al Khalifa and Prince Abdullah Bin Hamad al-Khalifa

Fun Facts

14 Play Israeli Youths'
0 Hilarious New "Push
the Bibi" Video Game!

In the age of the political gaffe, how could Israeli PM Bibi Netanyahu's now-notorious push to the front of the memorial march in Paris last week not turn heads? Fellow Israelis did a collective facepalm and chided him for presenting "the pushy Israeli, the impolite Israeli" to the world during a moment of global mourning for the Charlie Hebdo cartoonists and hostages killed in Paris.

But few went as far as the as-yet-unnamed young creators of "Push the Bibi," a fun-poking arcade-style game that lets you navigate the Prime Minister to the front of the march.

0 How about psy op?

How about total utter staged propaganda ploy, seizing the moment for political purposes? Suddenly everyone agrees, miraculously, on something. Anybody see a problem with this? All national agendas, suddenly aligning? A total coincidence?

"Terror attacks", the key word to trigger sympathy, exasperate and plug outrage 24/7 among the sheeple, who have nothing better to do with their time, and no ideas on their own. Hey, look at these blurry photos of men with beard and shaky videos of beheadings, isn't this an outrage, so now everybody, listen up and respect your leaders! Fear and hysteria, rile them up! Excite them to the point of loss of logic. Create unity and then ban encryption and any private conversations once and for all! Because your leaders said so. Just keep voting, as if it helped. BAAAAH!

But gosh, if someone dared to draw a synagogue caricature to ridicule j-s, then there is no free free speech for you, because that its "hate speech" by law in multiple countries and is banned. Kind of like ridiculing Da King in Thailand. Oh, and feel free to draw islamic things, and enjoy those derogatory cartoons, while chewing on those baguettes, judging people you never met, among who you have no friends and have never met anyone in person, but do not never ever ever dare to draw anything remotely similar to the from the h-l-c--st because then you go to jail, expedited process without fair trial. And do not ever, ever, talk about the h-l-c--st when asking a question, do not even think about it. An open society is a society that pounds Islam to the point of total ridicule, period full stop. There is no honor, respect and tolerance for islam, because dishonor, disrespect and intolerance towards Islam is necessary to build a George Soros-style open society with free hate speech. Because this is France.

Why can't people see the total in your face lack of logic in the argument and keep holding up their pathetic looking Charlie banners to please the government and play along the mainstream narrative? How about free speech for everybody, can you handle that, Charlie? If you are in trouble, just ask Yellen for more money, I heard she has some and NY Times will print a nice story for you. Thanks in advance!

No, they were probably 'Muslims'... despite robbery being expressly forbidden in the Koran.

Just as 3/4 of US citizens say they are Christians.

Looking at people's behaviours, it's clear the vast majority are Muslim/Christian in name only.

But if you want to hate all Muslims because a few of them harmed you (unIslamically) presumably you hate all Christians/Jews/Atheists for injuries received from Christians/Jews/Atheists in the past? Is there anyone you don't hate?

I have seen a number of cartoons this Zionist magazine publishes, firstly they are not funny, not well drawn, childish, and totally committed to the Neoconservative world propaganda war on the populations of France. Wanna know the people, government wants you to hate? Read this pathetic magazine, written by it's former baby boomer university student protestors. Liberal bastions of political correctness and deeply rooted in Zionism. No room for any anti Israeli talk inside the offices, because they are too busy writing cartoons to further the CIA's latest enemies list.

Off course these fake liberals are deeply supportive of Israel and Ukraine's Kiev Fascist Junta. Who ever the Washington Zionist dictatorship tells them to smear, they smear. Doing the occasions cartoon designed to make them look unbiased in their humor. Besides, these fuckers are nto at all funny.

If the "Je suis Charlie" crowd is to be believed, my right to draw a cartoon portraying the Virgin Mary as a street whore and her son Jesus pimping her, is of paramount importance, no matter how offensive other people find it. However, it is not important to be able to:

- (i) have a public discussion of the implausibilities of the official story of 9/11
- (ii) have intellectually honest discussion of the events of WW2, in particularly the atrocities in which Jews were the victims, i.e. the "Holocaust".
- (iii) even mention the power or organized world Jewry (and I mean, even mention it without bothering to say whether you think it is a good or bad thing, it is simply taboo to mention it.)
- (iv) have serious discussion of issues like gender, ethnicity, race outside the imposed straightjacket of "political correctness".

Why are the above topics of discussion taboo? Apparently, it is because such speech offends people. It is hurtful to them!!!???

*This is a bizarre paradox and it baffled me for the longest while. Finally, I did resolve the conundrum. Apparently, in France, and in the West generally, unrestricted free speech is only important in the case of people, who, like the ageing hipster cartoonists of Charlie Hebdo, actually have nothing to say!

The government bought off press violates the 1st Amendment in so many ways.

OMG, you can't even defend The Ohio State Football team in the land because the SEC and ESPN have gone full throttle to the 9th element in the depths of Hades.

Well it kind of got that bad.

But anyways---this country defending the 1st Amendment elsewhere for provokative comics would censor our discussion on the real estate ponzi scheme all over the internet before the subprime collapse.

Me personally, I've been censored by Facebook (a government arm- again violating the 1st Amendment). And they want us to think that they care about it?

The answer to your "taboo questions" and prohibition from nondiscussion is simple.... clearly the government wants no free speech for the people, so they orchastrate all kinds of scenarios whose genesis is "out-lawing" the "most offensive" topics/discussion first then use those as a springboard to add others over the course of time until free speech is totally and systematically eradicated. That's my observation anyway.

Probably very few Western people knew these ladies before but they were a part of a wider circle of activists aka "Group Voina" who formerly had published other performances such as group sex in a Museum, inserting a frozen chicken into the place where women give birth, etc.

There was also such an artistic performance by one of killed CH cartoonists:

Boko Haram is a black, localized militant group that has displaced around 650,000 people within Nigeria and forced hundreds of thousands to flee the country similar to the Zionists, who removed some 700,000 Palestinians from Palestine when they occupied their homeland in 1948, bombing and killing thousands of others.

Here's Justin Raimondo of Anti-war.com on Hillary Clinton, Boko Haram, and the Meaningless Politics of the US Terrorist List:

"A political sideshow to the escalating focus on the Nigerian militant group Boko Haram is what it means for Hillary Clinton's presidential prospects. Boko Haram was not officially designated a terrorist group until Clinton stepped down and John Kerry became Secretary of State (June 2012). This, Republicans tell us, reveals she is weak on terrorism and doesn't have the leadership or foresight to keep the country safe as president.

"To try and make a substantive political point on the basis of the farcical and arbitrary State Department terrorist list is laughable. The "official list" is so fickle and ludicrous as to be useless in any serious political discussion except to demonstrate how illegitimate it is.

"As I wrote last month:

"The government puts individuals or groups on and takes them off according to its interests at the time: Nelson Mandela was on it before he became admired by the world as a man of peace, Saddam Hussein was on it until the U.S. decided it wanted to support him militarily against Iran in the 1980s, the Iranian group MEK was on it until 2012 when the U.S. decided having an Iranian dissident group off the terrorist list could be in its benefit, etc.

"And of course, any militant groups that the U.S. wants to aid with money and weapons can't be on the terrorist list, even if they conduct terrorist operations.

if you were told this event was taking place, and you knew it was just a "Potemkin Village" photo op, would you really want to see money spent and schedules thrown about six ways from Sunday just to have the US President or some other high-ranking US official there... only to be exposed later as participating in what's being painted as some made-up sham of support?

there is no easy answer to that question because you can't make everyone happy, but I think in light of this new information the right call was made...

depends on who defines "free". A prison guard might suggest that you are "free" to wander about the yard for an hour. A good judge of freedom might be the percentage of people residing outside of prison walls. Of course governments can always find ways of fudging the numbers, like the UK did with emergency room wait times by simply keeping everyone in the ambulances. One way government could get prison populations down would be a more "liberal" use of the death penalty. Rather than freedom, a prison non-participation rate.

Ultimately everyone wants freedom until it comes time to pay for it. As much as we would like to think our constitution "entitles" us to freedom, it simply gives us the basic tools to fight to keep it, tools deemed too laborious, confrontational, to be considered proper. The shortest, easiest path usually leads to hell and we are well on our way on it.

interesting observation I've made.

I've been battling a particularly nasty case of the flu. I missed the entire Charlie Hebdo saga. The entire narrative cycle. Was out totally.

I've notice that this put me at an advantage, as the story relies on a time line unfolding of the narrative to get any traction, even in the most empty of minds.
Being out and viewing it, working backwards is as shocking as it is laughable.

A side note. I like a good dig on the Frogs as anyone outside that glorious land. Take the piss and whatnot.
However, I certainly gave them much, more credit than this in my heart of hearts. Most of the shit we give them is baseless and sophomoric, no matter how fun.
I thought they were much smarter than this. I though only

Anybody who thinks that the elites will actually engage in a crowd of thousands of relatively uncontrolled common folk is out of their mind. There are in fact enough people out here who are waking up that it is way too late (read "physically dangerous") for them actually to attempt to connect to the people they "represent". This is a perfect representation of the reality of our world. They are inside the circle, and everyone else is outside. 1984.

He could have gone and been safe in this controlled and protected environment.

- To the people of the West. Are these alleged Leaders capable or able of defending their citizens against Islam, now that they Islam has declared war against the West?

- All Western Press has been captured by Globalist propagandists. They will not speak truth unless ordered to do so. Why was this wide shot of the march not published as it happened?

- ALL Western Leaders live in fear of the Muslim populations in their countries. They will not fix the problem. It will be ultimately left to the average citizen to protect himself.

There are few if any Islamic countries full of Muslims, willing to renounce the essence of what Islam is, which is a never ending entity with perpetual prostelization and conquest of the unbelievers as one of its core tenets. We are in a resist of convert situation. Disbelieve this at your own and your peril.

I merely point you to world history on Islam from its inception to the present. There is ample proof of its inability for reform, compromise or even its inability for reason and objectivity. Those do not exist.

It is a de cease of total submission to its will – or else. There is no middle ground for Islam. There never has been for over a millenia.

sentence but not the second, simply because there is too much evidence to prove we are passive unless engineered - eg riots are provoked and given a chance to ferment. We may protest but rarely do we desire harm...the so called elites are merely avoiding talking to regular folks who will ask the hard questions in public, demand an answer and object to the answers given. Its ivory tower protection, controlled media protection.....its less dangerous if a political rep regularly presents one self for Q&A but they choose to evade constituents & make TERROR the reason for avoiding the citizens they apparently serve long before terror became an issue. Guess its cause they're inside the circle you clearly articulate so why do they give a toot they will do just fine.

The folks here at ZH know what real freedom of expression means...and the consequences for said expression I might add.

How odd there must be laws concerning these matters.

primarily Jews and their supporters that were attacked, it would seem odd that Israel would not be represented. It does not seem odd however, that the French didn't want Bibi there as their primary concern is still to not offend Muslims and given the Jews are leaving France this would be a big win for France and the Muslims. They both have considerable anti Jew history between them. During WWII they would have likely been allies.

He appeals to them to leave France and go to Israel, a country surrounded by hostile Muslims and 7000 went last year - for how long we do not know.....out of 500,000 - it is the same appeal Sharon made in 2004. 3 Exactly! We wouldn't want anyone inflaming matters, hurting the poor little sensitive Muslims who were forcibly moved to France against their will, leaving their religion and culture behind. Like in America where we must press 2 for English because the more culturally diverse refuse to learn to speak English. For the French it is working out beautifully. They can finally export the remaining Jews while removing the few "collective" rights the French have left. Your hatred for Jews blinds you to the bigger picture. Neither Jews or Muslims will gain from this. Maybe that's not a bad thing but to act like its not happening only strengthen the hand of those who will eventually deal with us.

-1 There you go again.

Conflating Jews and Israelis, are we? Ick.

It is Israel's aggression and expansion that have made the Jews so hated by the European and Muslim worlds.

And Israel's terrorist Prime Minister, Bibi Netanyahu, follows in the footsteps of Israel's other terrorist Prime Ministers, Yitzhak Shamir and Menachem Begin.

"Begin as well as Shamir (who led the Stern terror gang) joined forces to wage a wave of terror against British and the Palestinian people during WW II. Both Begin and Shamir were wanted by the British as terrorists for war crimes against the Palestinian people."

The anti-Semitism in Europe is a function of the Jewish support for Israel's horrific reaction to everything the occupied Arabs do to remove the Israeli yoke.

The very same things the pre 1948 Zionist/Jews did to the Arabs and British in order to get their United Nations' sanctioned independence in '48.

0 And what was it that 0 justified the Jewish expulsion prior to 1948? You can't just pick YOUR time line to make judgements. Like it or not, the Jews feel every bit as justified to their agenda as the Muslims or even you for that matter. Its not evil to pursue your own agenda. Its nature. We cannot change history, we can only react to it, hopefully intelligently rather than emotionally. If you want to be understanding of the Muslim perspective, you might want to do the same for others. Yes, there are those of ALL cultures and religions using past injustices to rally support for extremist actions.

It would seem that it is the Muslims that are having a hard time distinguishing between the state of Israel and the Jews, as the Muslims are attacking Jews, not Israel. Like it or not, if Jews are leaving France to immigrate to Israel, if those killed in these attacks are being buried in Israel because of fear of desecration, then obviously the Jews themselves are identifying with Israel. So don't play semantics. We know exactly who we are talking about and we know Israel IS the defacto representative of The Jews. To pretend you can effectively separate the two is silly, even though technically you might be correct. Its a distinction without a difference for the vast majority of the world.

5 How
-18 much did the federal govt pay you to post this disinfo? Talk about the truth or get guillotined.

From the dawn of Hall's career in the early 1920s until his death in 1990, the Los Angeles teacher wrote about America's "secret destiny." The United States, in Hall's view, was a society that had been planned and founded by secret esoteric orders to spread enlightenment and liberty to the world.

"The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the "agentur" of the "Illuminati" between the political Zionists and the leaders of Islamic World. The war must be conducted in such a way that Islam (the Moslem Arabic World) and political Zionism (the State of Israel) mutually destroy each other. Meanwhile the other nations, once more divided on this issue will be constrained to fight to the point of complete physical, moral, spiritual and economical exhaustion...We shall unleash the Nihilists and the atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil.

Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass or direction, anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view. This manifestation will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time." 4

2° There was a space left. And then the official bunch of world's "dirty dozen" marched in unison.

Access to Boulevard Voltaire leading from Place de la REPublique to Place de la Nation, was allowed to the officials arriving by bus from Elysees Palace at Place LEon Blum. So the busses dropped them off via a side street at the Leon Blum crossing on Blvd. Voltaire, some 400 yards down from the Place Republique.

This way the officials walked for a quarter of a mile on the Official route but were cordoned off from the subsequent marchers who would follow in their hundreds of thousands (millions?) later on during the day, once the officials had been whisked off.

4 I love French 20:18 | 5675144

0 culture. Those people have awesome tactics to assert democratic control you haven't imagined yet. Italians are pretty incredible too.

I'd hate to see the fine values of these cultures go extinct. The French language is the language of diplomacy for a reason.

I have tangled with French swindlers, but I have also tangled, in order of magnitude of losses, Jewish, Italian, German, English, French, Irish and African swindlers. Not one Muslim. I haven't done much business with muslims but they all honored their contracts to the letter. I liked the Afghani and Indian muslims best. By my values, the Iraqi men I dealt with over several years and alliances, all had major issues about sex. The east med muslims all treated women as goyim. In my experience jews are most likely to try to rip me off, because I'm not a jew, amount of value at stake isn't at all relevant. I lost money to jews 3 times before i refused to do business with them ever, specifically because they are jews. I lost to English well over 20 times. But the betrayal of those few jews cost me at least 10x more than all the English combined, endangered my life. The English raked me over the coals, but they weren't about to kill their flock.

I was young then.

Counting incidents, hands down English crooks are my noids. Not because they are badass, but because I'm celt - easy prey for Anglo villains. Same reason jews are most often exploited by jews, blacks by blacks, Catholics by the Pope, etc. State education only makes it worse.

Religion is the biggest scam on the planet. The humanitarian accomplishments it lays claim to would have been done anyway, and more if it wasn't in the way. Take this:

I started out an orphan, in a Catholic orphanage. I saw child molesters in frock when I was 3. You will never, ever imagine what its like to be that vulnerable. If you could, you'd see what I see: demented adult children, everywhere. I survived that holocaust. Many did not. In this life I witnessed that. I wish I didn't. That was my childhood in the First world. That horror is not worse in the 3rd worlds because at least until the generation of swine they didn't have extremely wealthy people around them to make them realize their extreme hardships. I Do.

Having "made it", having clawed my way to the top 1%, honestly, I try to help other survivors of this weird, unpredictable experience called Life, that you take for granted. That can end any minute. There is no continuity. You think there is: you're wrong.

I know, I'm the common factor in the equation. I must be prejudiced. And so are you all.

I trust 2 people with my life. Rich or poor, thats excellent. 2 more than you. Both are christian. One is devoutly Catholic. Other than my grandmother she has the finest judgement of any woman I have known. I look after her: she looked after me. I met her late in life, this isn't the textbook maternal bond.

I traced my family. I know who killed my father, and why. I knew my grandmother. She was awesome. She was a hardass. She called politicians rats. So do I, for the same reasons.

When you get old, in western culture, thats all there is. We westerners are generous when we are flush because we know, Nothing Lasts. Except for the Generation of Swine, we know our good fortune is temporary, so we shared our wealth, hoping others will help us when we were down on our luck. its generational. Its instinct.

So as you witness today, some seeds we fertilized without first discriminating their ethics are killing us. This is why all socialists are wrong. Only an individual will change the world. My judgement is supreme.

Help you? First you must convince me. Why should I save you from your fate? Every rich person I know would invest in a good thing. Not one will throw money at a bad deal. So, by this apparent fact, coercive government programs are sinkers.

If you want me to invest myself in you, so far utterly worthless to me humanity, sell me. What have you got worth my time?

and so deeply held that our "free press," while independent of the government because it is privately owned, functions nevertheless as official regime media.

The shameful coverage of the MH 17 story is a case in point -- our media dropped the story once sanctions were in place, and once the evidence began to suggest that the pro-Russian insurgents were not at fault. Similarly shameful: our media's incessant contention that it was Russia that destabilized Ukraine; that Russia up and invaded Georgia unprovoked; their failure to question our government's presumed opposition to radical Islam even as both parties supported the overthrow of secular Moslem governments in Iraq, Egypt, Libya and Syria.

One could go on and on. There is a long laundry list of Washington contradictions and double standards that our media -- if we had a "satisfactory" degree of press freedom -- would be doggedly investigating and bringing to light. But they do nothing of the kind. They look the other way.

FKN SHOW - With Deek Jackson 01 15 15

That video by Deek Jackson repeats the video of The Charlie Hebdo Solidarity Photo-Op, which was staged PROPAGANDA. At about the 13:40 mark, to the end, the lyrics of "The Freedumb Song" are superimposed on the Charlie Hebdo Solidarity Photo-Op video ... I also do not regard it as superficial co-incidence that, around about the 4 minute mark of that Jackson video, he switches gears from saying:

"It's not murder. It's, ah, national security. Yeah, let's national security those niggers to death. Then, we'll national security some fucking hippies to death."

I REPEAT:

Hippies were voluntary coloured people.

The standard culture connotations were

"Crazy Nigga" <=> "Radical Marijuana"

Tell somebody who gives a shit, they're all a bunch of buffoons, baboons in the jungle wreaking havoc and screaming like raped apes.

The march of slaves begins with the best slaves doing the job they're supposed to do, be a slave. When it hits the airwaves, it proves beyond all doubt that they are slaves.

Just a bunch of dumb enslaved niggers making it look like they're in control, the kooks are out in full force.

People of dontesk doesn't want those Putin regime goons invading their region. Because they loot, kill, use civilians as human shield. They are no protectors, they are invading force that used people in that region. And there are no Ukranian sodiers that want to kill people in Donetsk - that is only Putin regime propoganda lies. And you are a fool if you believe those lies and a criminal fool if you spread them as a troll.

These are people of that region:

Judging by the huge upswing in Hebdo sales, maybe this type of false flag is the answer to CNBCs ratings.
