In this time of extreme censorship and suppression of scientific debate, The Awareness Foundation COVID-19 Roundtable, hosted by Katherine Macbean of the Awareness Foundation, is a sign of wakefulness and hope. It includes honest opinions and expertise from 14 high-profile doctors, including myself, with a focus on the potential dangers being posed by the experimental mass COVID-19 vaccination campaign.

Each has faced censorship when speaking out, and though there are some differing viewpoints, all agree that there's enough evidence to halt the global COVID-19 vaccination campaign, either for everyone or — particularly — for those to whom the vaccines pose the greatest risks with little to no benefit. This includes children and young people, pregnant women and those who have already recovered from COVID-19.

I highly recommend setting aside two hours to watch this roundtable discussion in full — it's a rarity in the present day to hear such candor and open debate. However, I've also compiled some of the highlights below, which include warnings about the dangers these experimental vaccines may pose to society.

A Tsunami of Chronic Disease and Death

Will COVID-19 vaccines cause a coming tsunami of hospitalization and deaths, along with debilitating chronic disease? One expert on the panel, Dr. Peter McCullough, an internist, cardiologist, epidemiologist and full professor of medicine at Texas A&M College of Medicine in Dallas with a master's degree in public health, said he's focused more on the short-term adverse effects from the shot. These nonfatal injuries fall into four major categories:

- 1. Neurologic
- 2. Immunologic
- 3. Hematologic
- 4. Cardiac

"What I'm seeing is just the late emergence of various neurologic syndromes. And it probably depends on where the seeding occurs of, uh, of, you know, the uptake of the genetic material in the brain or support cells in the brain, but there's a whole variety of cerebral, cerebellar, even peripheral nervous system abnormalities," McCullough said, adding:²

"I've seen it in my clinic and they seem to be emerging three, four or five, six months later after vaccination ... So I'm getting increasingly alarmed here that this is not just a simple one- or two-day problem. And so there's great concern, particularly in younger kids that over a course of three or six or nine months, they'll end up with heart failure or cardiac death.

... What I see is, potentially from these signals, not mass death, but just a large number of Americans and people around the world with a new chronic disease of some sort of neurodegenerative disease or cardiac disease. The patients that I'm aware of, these problems seem to be quite disabling."

Another panel member, Dr. Vladimir Zelenko, who has treated thousands of COVID-19 patients using hydroxychloroquine (HCQ), azithromycin and zinc sulfate,³ with great success, has a different take. He believes there is a very distinct possibility that everyone who receives the COVID jab may die from complications in the next two to three years:⁴

"I'm just going to give you the perspective of a clinician who deals with people that are dying ... 4 million dead people can testify to the unique clinical syndrome to put them there. Basically, a natural animal virus was changed to infect humans, and then its lethality was augmented to cause blood clots and lung damage.

And in concept here, we're dealing with a Hitler/Stalin type of mentality with weapons of mass destruction and the way to win this war — and it's very winnable — is in the following manner. It's a narrative war. So we need to spread the following two ideas ... Don't give into the fear and choose to destroy yourself, No. 1. No. 2, treat your problem early. If these two ideas could penetrate the fixed calls of humanity, then it's really the end of this crisis."

Dr. Tess Lawrie, whose company The Evidence-Based Medicine Consultancy has worked with the World Health Organization, agreed that the vaccines are unsafe for children and adults alike:5

"They're actually not safe for anybody, and it's clear. The databases are screaming. The databases are early warning systems, and the databases around the world are screaming that we are facing a tsunami of chronic disease."

Inflammatory Disorders, Cancer Markers on the Rise

Dr. Richard Urso, an ophthalmologist in Houston, Texas, is also concerned:6

"Early on, we were seeing things, mostly thrombotic, but later, as we get into two and three months [after vaccination], we're seeing a lot of inflammatory issues. I've had a host of people with inflammatory ocular disorders, as well as having orbital inflammatory diseases.

I typically don't see this rash number of people. For people who don't know, my clinical practice is probably one of the largest in the United States, if not the largest, and we get a tremendous number, in volume, of patients who come through our office. And I'm seeing late inflammatory disease, and it responds quite well to inflammatory medicines."

Some have brushed off the notion that the virus could be a bioweapon because it didn't cause sudden, mass deaths. But this is a misconception. A successful bioweapon can be something that causes long-term, progressive, chronic-type diseases, noted Dr. Richard Fleming, a physicist, nuclear cardiologist and attorney.

In 1994, Fleming introduced the theory of inflammation and vascular disease, which explains why these inflammable thrombotic diseases, and the causes, including viruses like SARS-CoV-2, produce disease states like COVID-19.

"As I laid out in the theory in 1994," Fleming said, "you're going to see an inflammable thrombotic response. That's the primary thing that people are noticing, be that heart disease or retinol disease." The other factor is a prion component of this virus, "which is also a chronic smoldering disease." Fleming noted:⁷

"If you're going to actually develop something that's going to have a massive effect on your 'enemy,' your goal isn't to kill the enemy any more than it was the goal of the United States in Vietnam to kill the enemy.

The goal was to maim the enemy so that more of the enemy would be taken off the field. What we've seen is something that's been implemented that is an ideal by a weapon designed to demoralize and to feed people the enemy, and to cause a slow smoldering process."

Fleming cited data from Pfizer that showed in the 12 to 14 days following the second injection of the Pfizer mRNA vaccine, elderly individuals had a 2.6-fold increase in symptoms of Alzheimer's disease. "This is an inflammable thrombotic process affecting every organ system and prion diseases that not only affect the brain, but also affect the heart and other vital organs of the body."

Dr. Ryan Cole, a Mayo Clinic-trained, triple-boarded pathologist, also said that he's seeing potential cancer-causing changes, including decreases in receptors that keep cancer in check, and other adverse events post-vaccine:9

"I'm seeing countless adverse reactions ... it's really post-vaccine immunodeficiency syndrome ... I'm seeing a marked increase in herpetic family viruses, human papilloma viruses in the post-vaccinated. I'm seeing a marked uptick in a laboratory setting from what I see year over year of an increase of usually quiescent diseases.

In addition to that — and correlation is not causation — but in the last six months I have seen — you know, I read a fair amount of women's health biopsies — about a 10- to 20-fold increase of uterine cancer compared to what I see on an annual basis. Now we know that the CD8 cells are one of our T-cells to keep our cancers in check.

I am seeing early signals ... what I'm seeing is an early signal in the laboratory setting that post-vaccinated patients are having diseases that we normally don't see at rates that are already early considerably alarming."

Do the Vaccinated Pose a Risk to the Unvaccinated?

Sherri Tenpenny has heard thousands of anecdotal reports that something is being transmitted from the vaccinated to the unvaccinated:¹⁰

"We're injecting a synthetically made messenger RNA and strips of synthetically made double-stranded DNA by different mechanisms, and if that transmission goes to the other person, they don't get COVID, they don't get COVID symptoms that we typically recognize as COVID. They get bleeding, they get blood clots, they get headaches, they get heart disease, they get all of these different things."

Dr. Robert Malone, the inventor of the mRNA and DNA vaccine core platform technology,¹¹ doesn't agree that anything is being "passed" from vaccinated people to others, adding that while it may be possible for mRNA to be shed through breast milk to nursing infants, possibly causing gastrointestinal symptoms, anything else is just speculation.

Others suggest it could be more of a hormonal or pheromonal issue than some type of "shedding," which may help explain why women are also reporting abnormalities with their menstrual cycles following vaccination. Dr. Lee Merritt, an orthopedic and spinal surgeon, brought up a 2015 report by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, which looked at "shedding" in mRNA vaccines, which they call gene therapies. ¹² She explained: ¹³

"They talk about, they're very concerned about the shedding — and they do call it shedding, whether that's technically correct ... And they tell you in this thing who to protect, they tell you to protect neonates, immunocompromised people and elderly with bad immune systems.

They also say, we don't know what's being shed. They say it could be genetic material. It could be activated viruses and it could be a recombinant product. This is what's in the FDA data."

Immediately Halt the Vaccine Program

All of the experts agreed that evidence suggests the mass COVID-19 vaccination program should be halted. "There is enough evidence now just from the European Medicines Agency alone, 1.7 million in reported adverse events and 17,000 deaths that the four clinical trials should be stopped," said Dolores Cahill, a professor at the school of medicine at the University College Dublin.

"They are detailed in the classifications, cardiac related immune, uh neuropathological and fertility associated.

So I think we all have duties as doctors and scientists to say, if something is causing more harm than good, which this clearly is, we should, I think, unify and called for a stop to the clinical trials worldwide, and also that any individual prime ministers and regulators that continue the trial would have to be liable for any adverse events."

Malone believes that the vaccines have merit for certain populations, namely the elderly, but is advocating for prohibition on vaccination for infants and newborns, through young adults up to ages 30 to 35. "And specifically," he said, "I'm trying to stop this crazy effort to force universities and schools to have universal vaccination." In addition, he added:

"We can argue about risk-benefit for elderly, but the risk-benefit ratio for newborns through young adults is explicitly clear. It is upside down. It's not subtle there. You're going to kill more. And, and personally, I also feel that we can dig in really hard on the reproductive health in pregnancy, in women, that there just aren't data to support the use of this product because of the potential female reproductive health consequences."

Dr. Urso added the other significant population that has far more to risk than gain from vaccination: the COVID-recovered. "The immune status should be more important than the vaccination status," he said.

"So I think there's three groups that are easily winnable arguments [to avoid vaccination]: pregnant women, the young and ... the COVID recovered ... I mean, that's a, that's a lousy thing to do to get all these people that are COVID recovered, good immune status and give them a vaccination for something they don't need."

How to End Fear and Optimize Your Immune System

The roundtable participants are planning to continue their discussion offline to formally request an end to mass COVID-19 vaccination for the mentioned groups as well as create a statement to end government interference with the practice of medicine. Many physicians have had their hands tied when it comes to prescribing early treatments for COVID-19, like ivermectin. As Fleming noted:

"... The reason why people die with COVID is because they're not receiving treatment, so I would argue that we need to make certain that people, the physicians, are allowed to treat without government interference and that we put a hold on the dissemination of the vaccines at this point in time, until we can further investigate them safely."

Dr. Sam White, whose reputation has been under attack since he released a video on social media detailing his concerns about the suppression of the science around therapeutics in the U.K., added:

"We could end the fear overnight by allowing access to therapeutics and changing the mainstream media narrative that there's no need for masks.

There's no need for lock downs. This is more treatable than flu, as far as I'm concerned, we're just not allowed to do any treatment. If the public knew that it changes the narrative overnight."

While we work on changing the narrative, or at least opening up discussions of science outside of the narrative, it's always a good idea to optimize your immune system.

Toward this end, I recommend optimizing your vitamin D levels to 60 to 80 nanograms per milliliter and improving your metabolic flexibility so your body can seamlessly transition between burning fats and glucose as your primary fuel. One way to do this is to condense your eating window to about six to eight hours a day.

Even without changing your calories, this can make a profound difference, but from a perspective of choosing the right foods, one of the most important strategies that I've learned over my four decades of studying this is to avoid processed foods, nearly all of which are loaded with vegetable, or seed, oils.

These oils have a high content of linoleic acid, which contributes to mitochondrial instability and increases susceptibility to oxidative stress. This, in turn, increases immune dysfunction and mitochondrial dysfunction. These are simple strategies I recommend, as they're useful to improve your overall health and resiliency to fight any infection.

As mentioned, I highly recommend listening to the discussion in full to get all of the details that weren't included here. At the next meeting, the group plans to discuss how to move forward to challenge the narrative in greater detail, including fighting back against the organizations, such as the Wellcome Trust and the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, that are heavily investing in this.

Dr.Steven

This video/article provides "the science" that corporate media and big tech suppress but needs to be heard and heeded immediately to stop this tyranny and needless suffering. Thank you Dr. Mercola and participants. That Dr. Mercola and other sites presenting truth about this virus "situation" are targeted by the (Marxist) Biden Administration and NY Times speaks to the nefarious global actors driving this massive human suffering and our call to organize, speak out, and reclaim our freedom before it's too late. Contact your representatives at all levels. Challenge mandates. Share this info with your acquaintances (and be ready for pushback). Right now, Biden is floating the idea of "interstate" passports" while more cities impose mandates and colleges and businesses fall in line--all based on the true "misinformation" being promoted by our governments and corrupt media. The question is, will people begin to wake up and fight for their freedom or continue to submit? If not, we have an endless stream of "variants" and "boosters," mandates and tyranny, suffering and death. Note that the CDC even has a plan for "shielding," i.e. internment camps.

I continue to urge my college to not join the "mandate" bandwagon and share information to counter the CDC propaganda. The mass protests in Europe provide a model we need to emulate in America.

Thanks Dr. Mercola; keep fighting.

Yes, Dr. Steve, The Awareness Foundation COVID-19 Roundtable is a hope to convince humanity that the COVID vaccine is a terrorist weapon created to cause disease and death, a planned genocide.

At this table, very important points are being established that clarify the distance between the defenders of true science, such as Dr. Mercola and the sociopaths CDC / NIH / WHO / Gates / Rockefeller, Fauci, etc., and the media such as the CNN defending these defectors of the truth, who are orchestrating this disaster or using it cunningly and profitably, so that all your cronies on War Street, Big Pharma / Big Bank Corporate, etc., enrich yourself with the corruption of government institutions and their pro-corporate agenda.

Immunity comes from lifestyle, from naturally nurturing your own system... not from pharmaceuticals and vaccines. All previous human societies would have disappeared from Earth if humans weren't internally equipped with an overwhelmingly powerful immune system ... than the highly infectious, lab-produced coronavirus / with a much greater gain of function that's actually a weapon It will infect most societies with less risk than those caused by this experimental genetic weapon, misnamed vaccine, and will produce collective immunity. life.

Professor Dolores J. Cahill, Ph.D., molecular biologist and immunologist, declares to CHD, one of the speakers at the Awareness Foundation table, "expects to see successive waves of adverse reactions to experimental injections of messenger RNA (mRNA) ranging from anaphylaxis and other allergic responses to autoimmunity, sepsis and organ failure."

Considering that children are at extremely low risk for COVID-19, vaccination offers them much more risk than benefit, and parents may be understandably reluctant to volunteer their children for this experimental and unlicensed gene therapy.

"As early as last April, when almost nothing was known about the epidemiology of COVID and candidate vaccines had only just begun to be studied, Bill Gates set the stage for the pediatric push, declaring that the ultimate goal is to make COVID-19 vaccines be part of the routine newborn vaccination schedule.

COVID-19 injections contain synthetic RNA fragments encapsulated in a nanolipid-bearing compound, the sole purpose of which is to decrease the clinical symptoms associated with the S-1 spike protein, not the actual virus.

They do not actually impart immunity or inhibit the transmissibility of the disease. In other words, they are not designed to prevent you from getting SARS-CoV-2; the symptoms of the infection are only supposed to decrease if you get infected or when you get infected.

Europe has staged many protests and is fighting however what's happening in France despite all that is discouraging.

How do we fight and gain any traction?

Fully agree not to stay complacent though the fear and suppression is so strong.

I'm in NJ and the governor is shaming those unvaccinated and creating hate towards us. The recent masks for school mandate have compelled me to home school my junior next year. Her first two years of high school have been a restricted and miserable business; socially for sure, academically the teachers are really taxed with challenges too lengthy to go into here.

The voice of liberal radicals choke any rational speak,; to write to Murphy would bring no wakefulness. So what do we do?

Hi GUII. Just a question if you please. When the vaccines start demonstrating their long term negative effects, from my understanding by upsetting peoples DNA with all sorts of probable health and behavioral changes, will those who stupidly had the jabs, be able to clean their mitochondria out by activating autophogy?

I will sincerely appreciate your answer. Of course I have stupid friends and family.

I have a feeling that when the bad side effects of these vaccines become pronounced, it could very well mean the end of allopathic medicine, faith in it, as we experience it now? Just an after thought.

I agree Dr. Steven. This message/information/data needs to be heard and understood. How to be heard right now seems to be the big stumbling block. I sincerely pray that this group has the way and the means to do this.

LymeInNJ, I have had chronic Lyme for decades, just (finally diagnosed eleven years ago). I have had a very long struggle with this bio weapon (Lyme). There is no one that denies that it is a bio weapon, but very little public discussion is ever allowed within the controlled mainstream media. There is also no competent testing or treatment and so far nothing that is available to treat it is allowed by the insurance companies, so people who cannot afford to pay for their treatment are greatly impaired life or live a shortened life-span.

I am not about to take any risks that would cause me to suffer the effects of a second bio weapon!! There (according to the CDC, who state they believe it is highly under-reported) there are 500,000 new Lyme cases reported annually in the US alone, yet very little discussion is out where the general public are made aware of it. Tics are only one of many ways to contract the infection as well. I have no proof, but symptoms flared up for me following a blood transfusion. To my best knowledge, the blood supply in this country is still not being tested for Lyme bacteria, and independent random testing of blood in the blood banks showed that 40% of the samples contained Lyme bacteria. This bio weapon has been allowed to flourish and spread unchecked for decades. They learned from the experience with the bio weapon AIDS how to handle the fallout. The next one (Lyme) is hidden in plain sight. Think about how this one is being handled. More experience and more money this time.

Yikes! I went on a rant. Apologies.

I feel a bit doubtful that this message will touch and resonate with those who already aren't singing in this choir, but I surely hope that the truth will be revealed to all, sooner rather than later.

Thanks for the article Doctor Mercola. Consensus seems to be that this 'vaccine' should not be given to people of a certain age, if at all, but might be beneficial for the elderly. If this 'vaccine' has been shown to increase the onset of Alzheimer's and, in younger people at least, has caused blood clots and other blood related problems, I can't really see how it benefits the elderly who often have much more trouble with their circulation. I would say it is not good for anyone and should be halted. I myself have never had a flu vaccine and rarely have had what I'd call bad flu. About once I remember in Melbourne, 30 years ago, where I was in bed for a week with what was called bronchial flu. I have had friends who got the ordinary flu vaccine and were promptly ill afterwards. The whole thing seems to be about money and not about disease control and needs a complete overhaul.

Hi sva, In nursing homes, the elderly continue to die from the synergistic effect between the vaccine and previous pathologies. What one of The Awareness Foundation's COVID-19 roundtable speakers, Dolores Cahill, Professor of Translational Research and Molecular Genetics, School of Medicine, University College Dublin, Chair of the Irish Freedom Party, at RENSE.com, predicts a imminent mass death by RNA vaccines.

"Among people over 80, maybe about 2.5% will experience severe side effects, adverse events where people cannot work or live life normally. Then with the 2nd vaccination it could be 1 in 10 or ten percent. For the over 80-year-olds, I would think that 80% of them would have life-limiting reactions or die when they come across the messenger RNA again."

The prediction is coming true

My thoughts exactly! How can this jab be safe for ANY group?!

It's not safe for anyone!

It frustrates me to hear certain doctors speaking out against this poison, only to add that "certain groups should receive it"???

This makes ZERO sense and actually discredits, in my mind, anyone recommending this!

I totally agree with you. These jabs are nothing but gene therapy, a bio-weapon. These should NOT be used on anyone! I know someone who got a blood clot after getting the Pfizer jab. He totally attributes the clot to the jab. Why in the world would anyone think that these jabs are good for the elderly? One of my elderly neighbors got the jab; and is acting stranger than he usually does. Another 80 yr old neighbor of mine had an unexplainable rash form months after she got the jab. But of course she doesn't want to say that it was because of the jab. She's a Dem sheep. It is all about money and the de-population of the planet by Bill Gates and the rest of the c a b a l.

Cabochon

"...the experts agreed that evidence suggests the mass COVID-19 vaccination program should be halted". It cheers the soul to hear this from such authoritative voices. But their next step is unclear. To whom will they apply for halting the programme? There is a puppet government in power in the US. World governments are willing recruits into a Schwab style new world order. The judiciary are corrupt. The police are failing in their duty to act upon evidence of intent to harm.

namastepublishing.co.uk/uk-lawyer-anna-de-buisseret-serves-notice-of-c.. The mainstream media were bought over long ago and the underground media censored. Health organisations and the WHO have been infiltrated by power seekers through corporate "philanthropy" aka tax evasion. Most medics follow orders, harming their patients, oblivious to the fact that those who applied experimental medical injections without informed consent were hung after the Nuremberg trials. Dr McCullough's interview with Sherri Tenpenny (10th August) revealed his humanity. But there are limits to official euphemisms for murder. Orwell warned in 'Politics and the English Language' about "obfuscatory language designed to make lies truthful and murder respectable".

Meanwhile the bulk of the population seem in thrall to their TV, brainwashed, unwilling to examine the official narrative for truth. After the NYT Mercola attack I mentioned to other mercola readers that Stockholm syndrome might be at play here. Being comfortable with the enemy because certainty is preferable to uncertainty is a phenomenon which may explain public acceptance of the narrative. The syndrome can affect even the highly educated, held "captive" during the false pandemic, which could explain their sheep-like belief in mainstream media reports and compliance to nonsensical official diktats. Lies don't matter as long as they make people feel feel secure.

Good points, Cabochon. The lawyer Anna Buisseret is denouncing, with good reason, that we are in a biological war that will only bring disease and death, as Dr. Peter McCullough, belonging to The Awareness Foundation COVID-19 Roundtable, who is a cardiologist, epidemiologist and full professor of Medicine at the Texas A&M College of Medicine in Dallas a master's degree in public health comments on this report by Dr. Mercola.

Dr. McCullough states: "Here in the United States, we have 100 million people vaccinated (with COVID-19 bioweapons injections so far). This is by far the most deadly and toxic biological agent ever injected into a human body in American history."

www.globalresearch.ca/renowned-texas-professor-doctor-covid-19-shots-b..

To Health Impact News readers who have been following the topic of vaccines for years, and following holistic physicians who have been warning about the dangers of vaccines in general, and the eugenic plans of globalists in deploying the COVID-19 biological weapons in particular, there is probably no new information in this interview with Dr. McCullough.

www.globalresearch.ca/renowned-texas-professor-doctor-covid-19-shots-b..

As Dr Mercola has reported, these COVID vaccines are not vaccines, but gene-modifying interventions. The anti-COVID vaccines only have authorization status for emergency use, they are experimental products, not to be marketed. The fundamental bioethical principles that are applied include three key components: 1. Bioethics is written in federal law: as a participant in an experimental trial. 2. The risks of adverse events must be communicated with absolute clarity and transparency. 3. Experimental products must be accepted completely voluntarily and without coercion. As Malone stated: "I consider that all these public messages with which we are bombarded, constitute an act of coercion."

We are facing a tyranny imposed by an oligarchy that relies on a devastating technocracy to fulfill the Great Reset mandates. The sociopaths CDC / NIH / WHO / Gates / Rockefeller, Fauci, etc., and media outlets like CNN defending these defectors of the truth, who are orchestrating this disaster or using it in a cunning and profitable way, so that all their cronies on War Street, Big Pharma / Big Bank Corporate, etc., enrich yourself with the corruption of government institutions and their pro-corporate agenda.

All of these draconian measures have served as social engineering tools for people to get used to having "experts" and government officials to tell them what to do. It could be argued that all of humanity has been slowly tortured with a phony pandemic that has led to a staggering number of suicides and increased rates of substance abuse. The masses have been subjected to classical conditioning like Pavlov's dogs. During this "plandemic," most people have been trained to rely on authorities to tell them when they can go to work, visit loved ones, travel, go to church, hug someone, or even shake hands. .

Yes, Cabuchon, there is a disease that is much worse than any coronavirus. It's called "Stockholm Syndrome" and it infects those who are too ignorant, trusting, and fearful to question those in authority and hold them accountable. Infected people take in every word that people like Dr. Anthony Fauci say, no matter how many times you've contradicted yourself or even been caught lying.

Dr. Mercola, why, when you are targeted by "the powers that be" don't you retaliate with a proposal to have a public, widely televised debate with those who are opposing you, have a panel, perhaps you and the high profile doctors mentioned in this article, openly debate this issue and if they refuse to even allow a debate then that will in and of itself be damaging to their case. Please just do this. Let's at least try to start the conversation openly.

I watch Tucker Carlton and Fox News channel. They have tried this tactic and No One will come on. They simply won't engage (because they know we are speaking truth?)

They have dialectically disarmed & fixed honest debate in the mainstream, & it's been decades, even a century & a half or more in the making. The reason this collaboration & discussion was such a breath of fresh air is that the contributors were open & not simply mouthing the permissible talking points. I would love to see something such as you propose, but after decades of pushing for it, trying to contribute to it, and warning.....& not alone, it's only gotten worse & not better as power consolidated & centralized exponentially, & dependence & control with it, to where we are today. God is actively countering those who deny truth selectively, & until such time as his will, truth & righteous laweven evident truth in the Creation as a minimum....is considered & permitted into the 'conversation', nothing ultimately good will result from all the efforts & resistance.

Inflammation, eh? That means oxidative stress. That means cell molecules are being burned/torn apart/disabled....all due to lack of electrons and correct operating voltage and a charge terrain that neither protects the molecules of life, supplies energy to cells or promotes normal function.

All chronic disease is inflammation... an "-itis." Either something pissed-off the immune system to oxidize/burn invaders causing collateral systemic damage.....Or faulty metabolism failed to generate enough ATP electrons...Or metal/toxin burdens stole electrons...Or acidic emotional states stole electrons and oxygen as well.

Maybe language is the source of confusion creating a Babel of words and thoughts... home for liars, complicators and fraudsters. Got a weak car battery? Alternator? Short? Hard to start? Accessories don't function? Ignore that and go to the car hospital via car ambulance...Get it?

Maintenance/prevention.

Get a jump start, load up on antioxidant electrons, Vitamin C and the rest, polyphenols, mineral electrolytes and cofactors...Adjust choke to prevent too much fuel to oxygen; low glycemic intermittent eating...Change oil, PUFA to Saturated fats to restore membranes.....Clean cooling, fuel, air systems...Don't be scared/drive with confidence....Ah, but you never got an owner's manual for your body? Maybe you listened to fifty different gas station attendants and jack-leg mechanics? You spent a fortune trying to fix that wreck of yours?

This is not rocket science, just a word game; www.forbiddenhealingforum.com/forum-comments

All good advice, Randall. Above all, let's take care of the intestine. Loss of gut microbes and the integrity of the gut barrier can activate innate and adaptive immunity and lead to systemic inflammation. Taken together, a combined gastrointestinal symptom can potentially initiate systemic inflammation that can create even more damage than SARS-CoV-2 itself.

Consideration of the dietary and nutritional components, factors during viral infection, of Covid can serve to strengthen the immune system and the gut microbiome for infection prevention, and a meaningful and balanced basis for an immune response. The intake of a sufficient amount of protein is crucial for the production of antibodies. Also, a low level of vitamin A, D, or zinc has been associated with an increased risk of infection. Branched chain amino acids can maintain the hairy morphology of the intestines and increase the levels of intestinal immunoglobulins, thus improving the intestinal barrier. High-quality protein is an essential component of an anti-inflammatory diet.

Nutritional dietary components that are known to exert anti-inflammatory and antioxidant properties include omega-3 fatty acids with high anti-inflammatory and antioxidant capacity, including vitamin C, D, and E, and phytochemicals such as carotenoids and polyphenols that are widely present in plant-based foods. Omega-3 fatty acids (fish and krill oil) have the strongest anti-inflammatory ability. Several of these components can interact with cellular signaling components related to anti-inflammatory and antioxidant effects. An optimal state of adequate nutrients to be able to reduce inflammation and oxidative stress, thus strengthening the immune and intestinal system to protect us from the severity of COVID-19.

Community-based microbial source tracking methods, such as FEAST, could successfully track COVID-19 patients with better than 96% accuracy. Microbe source tracking methods could allow rapid and accurate identification of COVID-19 patients based purely on the non-invasive approach using gut microbiota.

A DIET LACKING IN TRYPTOPHAN ALTERS GUT MICROBIOTA, INCREASES INFLAMMATION

With age, a diet lacking in the essential amino acid tryptophan — which has a key role in our mood, energy level, and immune response — makes the gut microbiome less protective and increases inflammation body-wide, investigators report.

"We think the microbiome plays an important role in the aging process and we think one of those players in the aging is tryptophan, which produces metabolites that affect every organ function," says Dr. Carlos M. Isales, co-director of the MCG Center for Healthy Aging and chief of the MCG Division of Endocrinology, Diabetes and Metabolism. "We also have evidence that the composition of the bacteria that utilize tryptophan changes so even if you eat more tryptophan, you may not use it correctly," he says.

Those ravages can include a reduced sense of smell, taste and appetite, and related dietary changes like inadequate or poor nutrition. Also, stem cells throughout the body, which are designed to keep us functioning at a premium by repairing or replacing dysfunctional cells, become less functional because of the cumulative effect of toxins we are exposed to. In a bit of a vicious cycle, our body systems become less efficient, most of us lose lean muscle mass and gain fat, which produces inflammatory molecules, and our weight shifts around so we store more of that fat in and around our abdominal area where it tends to be the most inflammatory and lethal. Fat is also less efficient than lean muscle at burning calories so our metabolism slows, which should in theory slow aging, but in the face of other changes mostly cannot.

As Dr. Mercola also reported magnesium with vitamin D and K2, a good remedy to defeat the pathologies that increase deaths and serious symptoms of Covid:

BOOSTING MAGNESIUM LEVELS FOUND TO HELP REVERSE CONDITIONS LIKE DIABETES AND HEART DISEASE. Low magnesium levels have been linked to high blood pressure and a high risk of stroke and heart disease. A study by researchers from the Erasmus University Medical Center Rotterdam in the Netherlands also revealed that magnesium deficiency can increase a person's risk of dying due to coronary heart disease (CHD) and sudden cardiac arrest. Meanwhile, even a small increase in one's magnesium levels could lower this risk.

Magnesium is required for both glucose utilization and insulin signaling. This is why metabolic alterations in cellular magnesium can lead to insulin resistance which, in turn, contributes to the onset of Type 2 diabetes.

In addition, a recent study published in Diabetes Research and Clinical Practice found that low serum magnesium is linked to diabetes and high blood pressure. Both these conditions can severely increase your risk of developing heart disease.

I couldn't agree more, I have said this is a deadly word game from the very beginning. "Vaccine" that isn't really a vaccine but closer to over the counter symptom reducer. CDC has "renamed" covid into its new category now titled "PIC".... pneumonia, influenza, and covid. No wonder the "case numbers" are also lies. And I have more. It is stunning to me that people still believe this "caretakers" narrative.

In the official narrative one firewall after another just keeps collapsing as we have seen; Wuhan, nothing to see here, just move along. Oh, well, there just happens to be a lot of evidence to support a virus escape, intentional or not, but let's keep attacking those who bring it up. Heart problems and attacks, nothing to see here move along. Oh well, maybe we'll have to check into this a little deeper because of too much blowback from the public. Fertility problems, nothing to see here, move along. Sigh. Oh well, when so many young women are having problems with their cycles, maybe we better look into this and with any luck we can find something else to blame it on. Get your jab so we can reach herd immunity, no talking in line, just do it. Well, so there are enough cases showing no immunity & with it a passing on of the bug, possibly other complications, gee whiz, our bad, but by all means get the jab.

So we got a few details wrong with our perfectly safe project here. After all it's an experimental, non-experimental jab. How are we supposed to know about long term affects when it's been tested and not yet thoroughly tested? Just get the damn JAB, Dammit! Trust Us.

Yes, Just, the great firewall must be food and healthy lifestyles, to achieve an immune system capable of achieving the lasting herd immunity that can be achieved through infection and recovery and not with vaccines that only manage to create viruses Multi-resistant as is happening with the antibiotic epidemic, creating multi-resistant bacteria that will be the great plague of the next few years. Viruses and bacteria will be the cause of serious diseases and transgenic genes paving the way for transhumanism. Achieving herd immunity through infection depends on a sufficient number of people becoming infected with and recovering from the disease, during which time they develop antibodies against future infections.

Vaccine-acquired immunity is not the same as naturally-acquired immunity. That has been the problem from the beginning with the creation of these vaccines. They have never understood how to make vaccines exactly mimic naturally acquired immunity-

We have to overcome the fear of this false pandemic that is supported by the lies and deception of those who want the Great Reboot, They are the destroyers of humanity, they are the creators of an empire of power that want to enslave humanity. They want to continue their revolution to satisfy their sick mind full of diabolical needs. DR. RICHARD FLEMING WARNS THAT FAUCI, NIH HAVE ALREADY DEVELOPED THE NEXT BIOWEAPON THAT WILL BE RELEASED WITH HIV-SIMILAR CAPABILITIES THAT SUPPRESS HUMAN IMMUNITY

As reported by Dr. Mercola, Dr. Fleming is also concerned about how the virus continues to mutate due to mass vaccination. The virus definitely came from a laboratory, Fleming says, and is now mutating and spreading new variants due to vaccines, much like antibiotics convert the bacteria they are supposed to fight to turn into "superbugs," some of the which are much more lethal. . of what they started out as.

Fauci, Peter Daszak of the EcoHealth Alliance and others from Fort Detrick in Maryland and the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, participated in the design of the virus.

"To make matters worse, Fleming says that Fauci and his friends are already working on the next bioweapon that will contain stronger HIV-like properties designed to suppress human immunity. While the immune system can fight the Wuhan coronavirus (Covid-19), its next iteration will be designed to circumvent the body's natural defenses."

Guillermou, I have family all over the country (US) and many are afraid of the Delta variant, but so far, no one has had it and they don't know anyone who has been diagnosed with it. I attached the article because he's a fun little read. Even though we haven't isolated it with Koch's Postulates, something is clearly going around - but when you add in ventilators, black fungus, the quad flu shot, maybe the flu shot in general, I mean, as with Polio, 90% of the population didn't even know they had it. Mix in the tanking of our immune systems, and you come up with mass murder of the elderly. Now you look at parents dragging their children in for flu shots - I still think we need more research on THAT connection!

Great! Let's continue to send out and disseminate worldwide these sane and and positive suggestions. Joe, please keep trusting as i do that the universal intelligence is supporting you. Clearly one obvious issue is the fear of death and facing that. The only real way i know of to overcome the fear of death is to know that within oneself which never dies. It is NOT enough just to believe, one has to experience that deathless presence before the body dies. This happens through meditation. Tremendous light is showering on this planet inviting the dropping of the past, and a rebirth at this time. When this happens individually and collectively, the old mental patters resist and they resist mainly through fanatic control, which is exactly what is happening. Letting go of the old is needed and not control, whether according to Gates or anyone else including myself. Identification with group belief and mindsets is the problem and the solution is the recognition that each individual is unique. And each unique individual's freedom to trust and follow his unique intelligence is so precious now. So obviously, mandating vaccines goes against this universal law of intelligence. It is plain stupidity based in the fear of death.

Yes, Siriusbe1, the meditation is a good therapy to face the fear that false information about COVID is printing in people's minds. Dr. Mercola's articles inform us that we must reject vaccines and follow preventive therapy with a healthy diet and healthy lifestyles, helping to overcome fear. Mindfulness has become popular as a good tool to learn to manage emotions such as stress, depression, anxiety, among others. This is because it is a discipline that suggests us to be aware of the present moment, avoiding judgments about past events or anxiety about the future.

Meditation helps us change our perspective on life and teaches us to fully live in the present. It is a good therapy to achieve more control not only over fear, but also over anxiety and other emotions that derive from the fear of dying.

Learning to be aware that death can help us enjoy life more, since we will control that fear and demolish that need to be in control of everything. Learning to relax, breathe deeply and be aware of emotions without letting them affect us is decisive to control those feelings and prevent them from becoming a limitation in our lives. Very strainge this dr Fleming. A Canadian court judge recently acknowledged virus was never isolated. CDC could not provide proof of that. Yet this man has many proofs of isolates. Mike Adams could not buy one for his lab, but only found vials of snot mixed with animal . And why is this man contiunuously making the Devil sign with his hand in my face and other Illuminati handsigns. Why are autopsies forbidden in many countries or fail to come up with these virus Fleming isolated. Why did many used PCR tests testing positive only show Flu A or B and why do illegal autopsies or german autopsies fail to come up with anything abnormal but rather mostly Flu that miraculously disappeared. The same for Italian research a lot was found but no Sars Cov 2. Wuhan claimed in the beginning that due to different climates it could not be the same virus. Italy claimed in the beginning it was a different virus than the one in Wuhan. What i observed from the beginning is heavy Chemtrailing and the numbers of patients in the Netherlands going up and down with the amount of Chemtrailing. And then there is the Rockefeller Scenario for the future. A call for Eugenics, Worldpopulationreduction. Even MSM writes about that but does not mention deaths from and after the vaccinations. MSM promotes daily deaths from people through Covid refusing the Vaccination. No proof needed, no autopsie whether these people indeed died from a specific virus, that is isolated and worldwide the same. Fleming throws out a paper mentioned by another expert. Arrogantly and unpleasantly. What are the men's credentials besides professionally? If no virus is isolated, if there is no Covid 19 then all supplements and medications that could cure are pure nonsense. The virus produces proteins that knockdown two major pillars of the innate immune system, interferon and selenoproteins. Selenoprotein knockdown impairs antioxidant capacity and hemostasis (anticoagulation and clotting). The virus also damages RBC structure, which combined with loss of antioxidant capacity, impairs management of oxygen, carbon dioxide, and nitric oxide throughout the body. - (1.) These are not vaccines.
- (2.) These are not "genetic therapy"; these are genetic manipulation used in a bioweapon.
- (3.) Herd immunity is a myth; one of the several hundred medical myths that tend to go obsolete every few years. I have seen it happening in the last 50 years.

- (4.) These are not experimental injections; they have been obviously developed after 911 and the outcome (genocide) is well-known even for those who can read and think a little.
- (5.) The lockdowns and the insane payouts, from the very beginning, obviously targeted small and medium-sized businesses. After their destruction, work and goods will be available only through multinational corporations that can, and will, mandate whatever they want to. It's happening.
- (6.) It is also misleading to focus on miracle medications for what is, in fact, graphene oxide, 5G, and military radar poisoning.
- (7.) The Miracle cures, in the long run, are just as effective as peeing on a house fire.
- (8.) #6 and #7 also give false hope and fake empowerment against this combination of weapons, thus soothing a population that otherwise might revolt.
- (9) There is no virus; no virus has EVER been isolated!

The list goes on, everyone is welcome to contribute.

Hi Astonished. Regarding point 6:

We are seeing how all environmental toxins, those that enter the diet, as well as manipulations of biology, such as vaccines and prions, in humans and animals are an attack on health and biodiversity.

Glyphosate and other toxins accumulate in the body creating immunosuppressed people where the Covid-19 virus or any virus can mutate, and we are seeing, from the reports of Dr. Mercola sharing analysis with scientists, that they are not subject to the manipulations of corrupt elites, defending true science, how vaccines favor this process.

When a virus enters an immunosuppressed body, due to the accumulation of glyphosate and other pollutants, energy-producing cells called mitochondria cannot produce their main energy ingredient called ATP. ATP helps remove the virus from our cells. Glyphosate interferes with the ATP energy process of our body cells. If cells cannot make ATP, the immune system has a hard time clearing the virus.

The dangers of vaccines and other manipulations of biology in humans were reported by Dr, Mercola: Seneff cites a story from a cancer patient in the UK who was treated for severe COVID-19. The antibody cocktails they gave him didn't work and, after his death, they concluded that the predominant SARS-CoV-2 variant in his body had a dozen different mutations in the spike protein.

"I think vaccines are doing the same thing," Seneff says, adding that among immunosuppressed people, only 17% of vaccinated people actually produce antibodies. Antibodies may not work because your immune function is low, allowing the virus to develop resistance and mutate.

Arthur Firstenberg has stated that every time mankind launched out a new electric device or radiation technology, a pandemic ensued. He also stated that every time the sun had a major flare-up, a pandemic came about. So, you may be right; there is NO virus. The radiation is killing the us, the whole planet. The Internet of Things is going to do the world in. All wireless needs to be stopped before we are all dead. I've been repetitive here, but we are in a dire situation if things don't get turned around. Read Mr. Firstenberg's book "The Invisible Rainbow, A History of Electricity and Life." Very informative and eye-opening; but be ready you may get very angry after you find out what's really going on.

As I said, the last stance for the ordinary people was last August with the muzzle.

At this point, the only chance I can give our cause is that the influential (not necessarily "powerful") idiots realize that they are also lining up at the slaughterhouse.

Sars2 is an in silico invention, it's not a live virus. Never has been a live virus. People got colds and flu as the CDC finally admitted in July when they finally revoked the fake tests.

It's what is in the dreadful jabs that is killing and maiming millions around the world and I want to know why this carnage continues when the last corona flu vaccine was withdrawn after a mere 25 global deaths

Yup, it exists only in computer simulations and on TV! :D

Even flu symptoms seem to come from radiation exposure, which can be followed back to the Black Plague, when solar flares caused the same symptoms!

Please can you ensure Australia gets this paper on halting the experimental jabs? We need help down here. Our so called leaders are behaving atrociously with power going to their heads. Some of our political people have called for Ivermectin to be made available. It is appalling. Any help down here would be gratefully received. Thank you for all your great work, all of these doctors. This was a good and informative discussion. Here they are close to mandating, close to giving to kids, close to having jab passports. It is all off the chart madness. They have forced the aged care workers to have the jab. I believe the police have been given a choice. But here our mainstream media is so collusive and not disclosing any truths. Its mental.

Not sure who should receive it, Julia. I assume the Australian government, judiciary, medical authorities, media etc are ok with receiving the article and will act upon it to halt the programme. If you have any contacts who would be able to use it to make the change, best copy and send it to them. It could be printed out and distributed at protest marches or included in petitions. Another tactic is to buy multiple copies of Dr Mercola's book "The Truth about Covid-19" and give them away free, send one to you local MP and anyone else who might act upon the information.

Too many foreign mercenaries? I am expecting those to show up here in rural KY one of these days, attired as National Guard, but unable to speak a word of English. The invaders hate our guts.

And remember, the symptoms are real, caused mostly by 5G, military-grade radars (dating back to HAARP in 1961), and chemtrails (spreading graphene oxide all over the place).

We have to fight the whole thing; as I noted last August, that was the last line, when people accepted the muzzle that should have never been worn...

This time, the only chance is that influential useful idiots realize that they are going to be exterminated as well. Compliance is NOT going to save them.

They talk about single events being anecdotal but, eventually, if you have enough anecdotes it becomes data!

'Malone believes that the vaccines have merit for certain populations, namely the elderly, . . . "

Well, since no phase 1 or 2 testing never took place with the elderly before they were the first ones shot up with the jabs in a worldwide phase 3 experimental inoculation program, with it's adverse affects, I strongly object to his nonsense in this regard.

Also, Malone again mistakenly asserts, "Dr. Robert Malone, the inventor of the mRNA and DNA vaccine core platform technology,11 doesn't agree that anything is being "passed" from vaccinated people to others, adding that while it may be possible for mRNA to be shed through breast milk to nursing infants, possibly causing gastrointestinal symptoms, anything else is just speculation."

Obviously, Dr. Malone doesn't understand simple physics 101 in which the potential for everything giving off energy affects everything else around it; that includes humans, animals, plantlife, etc and everything injected and ingested into the body. The man is a fool, one of many, unfortunately.

I noticed that also, Dr Malone was a bit reluctant to say stop the vaccines now. Probably due to his involvement in the inventing of the technology.

However the evidence is overwhelming. How politicians and governments can allow this to continue just proves how corrupt the leaders of this world are.

I think Dr Mercola published a list of action from the FrontLine doctors (sorry if this is the wrong name). There he published the protocols recommended for preventative measures as well as those recently being infected. In one of those was a list of doctors around the world who would help supply Ivermectin. There was one doctor in Thailand that was mentioned (I'm a European woman living in Thailand). By mistake, I deleted this newsletter. Does anyone here have this list of doctors. I would be so very grateful if you could respond to this, I'll save this email. I don't want to publish my email address in case of bad actors. Thanks in advance.

The fact that some self-claimed experts still insist (against proven facts) that COVID was not developed in a lab and subsequently escaped, shows their hidden bias in favour of selling more vaccines. Besides, the commonly listed anti-vaxxer arguments are made ridiculous by journalistic tricks. They just ignore the many-many successful treatments by physicians who use cheaper and readily available remedies than the presently existing "vaccines" (e.g. genetic experiments).

Well, as per usual, I seem to have a huge window into the 'other' side. Fraught with fraud and feeling stupidly defenseless as I'm being told Dr. McCullough was fired from Baylor - I was sideswiped with that news because I stay far away from mainstream news (for obvious reasons) ... Didn't they do the same to discredit Ms. Mikovits? And dropped Dr. Malone!

It's beyond me how someone can be so easily manipulated. I ALWAYS listen first and discern whether I am hearing the truth or not. It took so long for me to double and triple check what Dr. Mercola was saying before I didn't feel like I needed to anymore. Now I go to the links or names mentioned, etc., for extra information.

So many in my circle are saying, "See? I'm fine!" And I end up in the argument, "You don't know that yet, do you think you would know in just 2, 3 or 4 months? WE DON'T KNOW ANYTHING AND WE WON'T for at least 48 months! We don't know the LONG TERM EFFECTS!

I got the 48 month mark from Dr. Tenpenny and now I have to find back up on it because, again, I was challenged by an avid news listener - "Where did you get that number?"

I said - well, all vaccine trials usually have a 1 to 2 year mark before they start pushing them on more humans (if the death rate is favorable of course). I thought it was common knowledge.

www.historyofvaccines.org/content/articles/vaccine-development-testing..

While having a pretty intense discussion, a second lone voice in the group tried to them small facts, but each one they batted out with their own negative experiences. A principal had no antibodies after 3 weeks or 3 months (idk) when she was tested for them. I said, "Then the PCR test probably wasn't accurate." They challenged back with, "After 4 tests to verify she had covid?"

Yup, didn't know what to say about that!

All I know is that everyone in MY circle who has had covid still has antibodies. I don't know what to make of her friend the principal.

Posted On 08/15/2021

Then she brought up, "We don't know who's going to die from covid."

So of course I challenged, "We don't know who is going to die from the vaccine."

She had the numbers - why she thinks it's okay for even one death is completely beyond me! She's comparing numbers and throwing around information she's been fed - people who have had covid now have heart problems! Me: "I have two relatives now with heart problems due to the vaccine!"

This is a conversation in Atlanta (a current hot spot) with an amazing woman who has been fighting cancer for 19 years. She's has to have a double mastectomy next month and a lumpectomy: (and is waiting for the 3rd booster - because she's back on lockdown and we were all "outside" in the 100 degree sun sweltering because we needed to social distance the 7 of us.

She was listing all the meds she's on, so why is she still here if the shot is deadly?

Why am I saying all this? Because the only hope she has is tied up in the vaccine that I'm afraid is going to kill her. She thinks someone will kill her by giving her covid.

Stalemate.

So, we'll see her a couple weeks after her 3rd dose. Magically, she won't have to be on lockdown, but they'll keep her in a mask and a limit to 15 minutes in a store. (eye roll) ... but she will be able to eat in a restaurant again. She won't go outside, the said mask up outside and it's too hot!

Yesterday she was so happy being in the sun - I said, 20 minutes a day girl, you need your vitamin

D ... of course no supplements for her, she takes a basket of meds and there's contraindications on everything.

It was a sucky day.

But I did confirm my suspicions - Her 80 yo man friend who died at Emory (in excellent health) - DID receive his flu shot each year.

My 80 year old man friend who is diabetic and learned he has the antibodies when they drew his blood for surgery against cancer - has the antibodies - HAS ANTIBODIES but had no covid symptoms

What concerns me in this is that even these "experts" still advocate the vaccines for the elderly or immune compromised. These shots aren't safe for ANY demographic!!! Hasn't this already been more than proven? The shots are useless and completely unnecessary. And though I was on the fence about the whole shedding fear, now I think there's something to it. For 2 weeks I took care of a freshly vaccinated friend who was recovering from a surgery. I had to help with clothing and other close proximity issues. At the 1.5 week mark my whole upper left side erupted in shingles. I've had infrequent tiny, quarter size outbreaks all my life, but never anything like this. Then I got a significant cold. Wasn't flu. I have lung disease so this hit me hard. Honestly, I won't share living quarters with anyone vaccinated again.

I'm so tired of people that have not checked any evidence saying that those of us who are avoiding the stupid shot are just listening to social media and ignoring the science and doctors! You can't tell them anything - I've had people watch videos (most just won't even watch them) and then simply state that they don't really trust either side so they will get the shot! I am almost 72 and my husband is already and does have several conditions - but we have good immune systems, take recommended supplements and we have ivermectin, peroxide and a nebulizer, a sauna and a hyperbaric oxygen chamber so we will treat ourselves if we were to get it. We also have a doctor who doesn't believe in the shots either and he can help us if necessary. It is just getting very hard to deal with the other side and we are in fear of being forced! At any rate, even though we are "elderly" I still see no reason to have this shot. My vitamin d levels are kept high and I've had one minor thing with a fever in 5 1/2 years - it was at the end of the year and was no big deal - who knows - maybe it was covid but I didn't get the test because it's too inaccurate to rely on. I just wish I knew a magical answer to those that think we are crazy!

Oh my God this is like Jonestown meets The Andromeda Strain, we need you guys so bad! I work as a massage therapist and I have seen so many different biological reactions in people who have taken the "vaccine". I can only do so many massages per week so my clientele isn't huge but two people from totally different backgrounds got shingles after getting the shot, and I feel like everybody has had some sort of adverse reaction. About a month ago a client came back from a vacation who was vaccinated and after getting a 2-hour massage the next day came down with covid, so I had been exposed obviously. Like a good citizen I shut down my practice for a week. But all I really felt was minor irritation in the lungs for a few days. Use of an infrared sauna and natural remedies knocked it out of the park and on the third day I felt stronger than ever!

The effort to force the jab on the US military has already caused reflexive action, as General Berger has stated "Marines question things, don't take being told how things are", and as prior, I believe there will be no substantial change for the Corps, and probably the other services, although I'm only well familiar with Marines.

Far too many veterans suffer from immune disorders, from at least one and probably more of the "experimental vaccines" we got going to the Gulf, and later, I fully expect such to continue to expand, and grow as pathogens mutate, moving through a much larger population.

I've decided this is far enough, we either end the whole thing, or we will never have the opportunity at this cost, again. I've confronted my own neurologist and hospital admin, over the mask, the open lies of government, and the responsibility of every doctor to "question authority", not follow political planning, and excoriated him for failing to read the "other side of the data". I was read policy, told they would stand, I got the "mask policy statement" I'd requested for months, this week, and won't be getting treatment for my "Gulf war syndrome", multiple sclerosis, of 30 years, 28 years of gene therapy treatment, the last, monoclonal antibodies infused every month, until last December, when my risk factor had risen, and they changed me to six week intervals. I have to leave it at sometime, many have died on it, I chose to end it, and end the hospital's receipt of six or seven grand. I have to be clear of "anti-bodies" before any other treatment, let them find another source of income. My doctor, the hospital, could have looked past the political statements, but didn't.

I was at Walmart the other day and decided to ask for a vaccine disclosure. I wanted to compare it against the one I picked up at Publix a month or so ago. Walmart gives out the Mederna version. I was SHOCKED that their "disclosure" was merely a "release of liability" for Walmart! There was no mention the shot was "experimental" or that it was NOT approved by the FDA, nor that one might have SERIOUS side-effects, or even DEATH! I'm shocked no one has sued Walmart because there's no disclosure as required BY LAW! I asked the pharmacist why it didn't mention about the FDA non-approval and her answer was "it's been approved for emergency use". Anyone not familiar with what's going on would be TOTALLY misled by that statement.

My aunt died from a massive heart attack one week after getting her second shot. My uncle had a stroke shortly after receiving his second dose and is now practically an invalid. This is a man who golfed a few times a week and was very active. Both in their 70's. When I see all the obituaries, all I can think is, "did they get that shot?". The separation between us and them has all ready started with the shaming and division between vaccinated and non-vaccinated. Prior to COVID, I was in the military and had every vaccine from Cholera to Typhoid with no ill effects. However, COVID has made me re-think vaccinations and after doing research, I will no longer get the annual flu vaccine and as long as I can hold out, my family and I will not receive the poisonous COVID shot. I've tried to warn people against the shot, but the majority think I'm a "conspiracy theorist" and say the government wouldn't give them something that was harmful.

Vaccines against Cholera and Typhoid are true vaccines in that they make one immune from them. They underwent toxicology analysis and testing on both anomals and humans for more than 10 years before being approved.

The flue "vaccine" is not a true vaccine because it does not make one immune. It just reduces the symptoms of the flu. It was under testing and development for over 10 years before being approved. Its effectiveness averages about 50%, which means that if you get it, it might not reduce your symptoms at all. I have never bothered with it, and I'm in my early 60s. I rely on my immune system alone.

"I've tried to warn people against the shot, but the majority think I'm a "conspiracy theorist" and say the government wouldn't give them something that was harmful."

Same here. My ladyfriend's brother (late 60s) swallowed the propaganda that the CDC circulated at the beginning of this government-induced COVID craziness that asymptomatic (healthy) people are spreading SARS-COV-2, so he wants everyone to keep their distance from him. I explained that the risk of infection from an asymptomatic person is 0.3%, statistically about the same as chance, but he is willfully incorrigible.

I told him that I refuse to receive any so-called "vaccine", and he replied, "Wouldn't it be easier just to get it?"

I replied no, what would be easier is for people to be left the hell alone and free--as they have the right to be--to go about their daily lives as they were before this government-induced COVID hysteria; to breathe freely without any obstruction over their faces; to manage and protect their own health as they prefer, and to freely interact with others according to thier own personal level of risk tolerance.

He waved me off and walked silently away.

I urged him not to get the jab. He replied that he already had. I told him that he will regret it.

Very impressive discussion! Strangely enough the entire time Dr. Malone, for whatever reason he has, was counterbalancing any momentum to move fwd with the discussion of the adverse reactions and their cause/treatments. My personal wish is that these and all medical doctors/scientists worldwide who are interested in saving lives, coordinate medical protocols to treat already vaccinated and unvaccinated, with or without governmental approval. And of course immediately stop all mandates: masks, testing, lockdowns, jabs! Also very interesting is the "vaccine" ingredients Graphene-Oxide (in high amts) that has also been found in the Test-Swabs and the Masks. Imagine we have been inhaling this the entire time, every test swab has contacted the mucosal membrane at the back of your nasal passage and this toxin has been proven hazardous to your health. The massive areas of actual crimes committed against our humanity are endless. To even say, please stop vaccinating people under the age of 35 is preposterous. Understandable is the fact that we just want to stop this genocide any way we can. Who has a Crystal Ball to see how we should move fwd? Who knows what strategy to use, to make things happen as quickly as possible? Every single day thousands of people are putting their lives and the lives of their loved ones at risk, trusting their gov-officials. Talking with my neighbor, it sums up what most people believe "Vaccines are good. They have always been good. They protect us from spreading disease" And now? It will take all governments to unify, admit these mRNA shots are more dangerous than good. Will this come to pass? Your guess is as good as mine.

Rakaiaawa

These Drs seem very knowledgeable and would be great if they could focus on an antidote to those who have already taken the vaccine. There are various reason why people have taken the vaccine. So maybe less time frightening those who have been coerced into taking it. Maybe excessive Vit D3 for example....... I don't know but I'm sure these clever souls will work it out for the rest of mankind.

The monsters are now using smart propaganda; confusion created by controlled opposition and trolls faking to be with the people.

You can recognize them by noticing that

- 1. they feign accepting certain premises that are true;
- 2. they use the monsters' terminology (virus, vaccine, mask etc.);
- 3. eventually, they spread disinformation (e.g. "I know someone, who died of CV" or "CV is real")

Sadly, in my experience, even independent, smart, and well-meaning people tend to be stuck between the truth and the lies...

The theory of viral infection has never been proven. In 1918, they desperately tried to infect volunteers with "the flu" to no avail. NO virus has EVER been isolated; the public and many good doctors are falling victim to the false "medical" science, simply because the Rockefellers have owned "medical" training since the early 1920s.

As long as we don't know what to cure, how can we come up with remedies? Isn't it possible that the shots are far from experimental; the monsters must have been developing and testing them probably since 2001; they know EXACTLY what to expect.

For 5G and military-grade radars, iodine seems like a good idea. Sunshine, good fats have been a commonplace for a decade. Sauna and hot baths detoxify, which has nothing to do with the current poisoning, but the poisons all add up and make people sick after the personal threshold is surpassed.

Even Mercola, who is selling supplements, honestly emphasizes that getting your nutrients from natural foods is the best. Frankly, I don't believe in pills and I think the value of supplements are way overstated these days. Best to eat very little and eat what your ancestors have been eating for several hundred years, because your inherited metabolism is prepared for your diet.

cat6071: whatever supplements the body can utilize, depends on the stuff you take with them; Mercola has plenty of literature about that, although I'm not sure if anything is available anymore.

Plain sodium bicarbonate works well for heartburn, as long as there is no high blood pressure. It also alkalizes the body, which is good for a large number of things. Established meds are poison.

In Missouri I'm receiving many emails from people who's loved ones, young adults and older, are in hospital and the hospital refuses to treat them with anything other than vents and remdesivir. There are indications they're not really covid cases but rather asthma, pneumonia, some respiratory problem. Families are specifically asking for ivermectin, hydroxychloroquine, Math+ protocol but hospitals are refusing. They're intimidating the families, refusing to transfer and these patients are dying. In one instance a family got a right to try letter from an AAPS attorney for ivermectin. The hospital allowed it but at less than the dosage prescribed. Even so, the man's oxygen levels improved and he was getting better. Then the hospital refused to continue the ivermectin and said his only choice was the vent. He said goodbye to his family prior to being sedated and intubated. People are afraid and manipulated to believe they have no choice. This is murder and it's happening around the country. Let's each of us get the word out about early treatment options. We must stop these hospitals.

One went into the hospital on Friday. I do not the effect was diminished by the people in the middle who had to support the virus narrative. They can't take a thing that they think is hurting people, re-grow it in a test tube and then infect somebody else with it to prove that it's indeed real and virulent. Too 18th century for them.

Apparently logic has been out of fashion for a long time in virology. Better to have it be something that only virologists can understand.

This is spite of what the famous actor, Einstein, who masqueraded as a scientist said that if you can't explain it simply then you don't understand it well enough.

And why should I believe without proof that virologists as a group can't be all fooling themselves? I see that the public as a group is all fooling themselves, virologists are part of the public.

People believe that a building collapse can proceed at the acceleration due to gravity and yet still find enough energy to transform tons of cement into a fine powder piled more than a cm high and extending 5 km out to the empire state building.

That was corrected. Dr. Malone is not the inventor of mRNA vaccine. He was the inventor of the "technology" of it.

Thanks again to the bravery and consistency of Dr. Mercola's online information and blogs. It is a time when every thing is tuned upside down. What is true is dismissed, removed and villianized and what is false is fed to the masses as a promise that this is the only way to solve the (so called) Corona epidemic. More deaths from this mRNA

(not a vaccine) than any vaccine in the past...And we are not done yet! It is time to "get up, stand up, stand up for your rights! to quote Bob.

Could someone write an article for those of us that (very reluctantly) got the vaccine and are now being made to feel like we're going to die from it? There is a group of people that got vaccinated despite being against the concept. In my case, there were stories of certain states or airports that were going to force a 2 week quarantine before letting you fly home if you were not vaccinated. I sometimes travel for work and that was not going to be feasible. So I got the Phizer x2 in May despite being anti-vaccine. Just thought it would make life and work easier. Now all these articles make me feel like I'm going to die from the vaccine. What can those of us in this group do? In my case, I am 50, right in between this "young" and "elderly" category.

I commented back in late April or May that my beloved Mother (survived Covid early on in March 2020, was hospitalized for oxygen but not ventilated) died of heart failure within 3 weeks of receiving the Pfizer jab. Exactly 6 later, my darling health Mother in law, also survived Covid with barely perceptible symptoms, died of a sudden stroke, 3 weeks after Pfizer jab. When the jabs were approved for his age group (60+) my only sibling brother RUSHED out to get it and begged me to do the same. I, in turn pleaded with him not to do it. He got the jab in May. Yesterday he called me....he is very, very ill with freakin' Covid and his wife is POSITIVE too! He was actually considering suggesting that I would be unable to be around his grandchildren until I got the jab, and currently, I am just fine while HE is sick and contagious. They keep force feeding us this narrative that these "deviations" are exceedingly rare, yet in my tiny family, we have been devastated repeatedly. NOT RARE! I absolutely believe the jab is causing Delta and is responsible for the DEATHS and illnesses of my loved ones.

We are witnessing our elderly relatives deaths, in fast forward. My husband's Aunt, 81, had something going on about Christmas and her leg edema worsened. Perhaps a mini stroke. Got the jab end of Jan and Feb without consulting doctor. By mid April she was using a walker with significant left side weakness. Didn't respond to stroke therapy. Diagnosed with ALS late April- dead 2 weeks ago. My mom, 90, had mild COVID early March 2020(got it from us, we were on a very sick cruise out of Baltimore during Feb), she had mild forgetfulness, got the jab early March and April(against my recommendation, my husband is a cell biologist and had seen the data from the university. Mom was a total whiffle ball by early May. I had to bring her here for a while. During July she rapidly went back to pre COVID forgetfulness. Took her home. This past Friday, she is nearly out of it, extreme dementia, can't process questions or hold a conversation.. I had an intelligent conversation on Thursday AM, got her grocery list from her. NO idea what I'll find today. We had COVID early and did not get the jab-I am a vector borne disease survivor(Lyme, mycoplasma etc) and not a good candidate for the jab in any case. I've been on C, D Zinc and NAC for years. We had no idea our retirement job would be surviving and instructing young people who have not gotten the jab how to live going forward. We have in person conversations with kids daily.

Good discussion which highlights the personalities involved and how they decide what is the problem at hand and how much of it can be made an impact on. Cut the elephant up into bit size chunks. Small wins is smart as it will tell you a lot more about your adversary. What can you win on right now without much debate or is easy to prove with current data. Dr Cole, Flemming and Malone seemed to get on quite well with Malone having important insight into the FDA and CDC's thinking and mentality. That is important as the FDA and CDC are still people who think a certain way and if understood can be invaluable. What part of the elephant do you want to tackle. I would suggest breaking them up into 2 groups based on who you are trying to influence.(1) Govt and it's health dept (2) CDC and FDA. The Govt needs a way out of this health mess but is afraid to make a political mistake that could affect their future elections. Perhaps both parties agreeing before hand for the sake of restoring health, economy, democracy and our way of life. So what can you tell them about the virus and current health strategies so far. Will they work why not and why are they FUTILE. What will work and lead them back to re-establishing our way of life and not the new-normal which I suspect people will not accept as they are not free but labelled. Govt may know this already but they may need a way out from the logic presented by the technocrats. It is easy to prove that the pandemic is futile to attempt to eradicate. So is the seasonal flu. It is easy to prove the true covid death numbers and the faulty testing. Perspective is everything to govt. We do not destroy our economy for a bad flu. Not even for heart disease or cancer so why then? A plan to deal with Govt will be different to how you deal with the the CDC and FDA. What is their language and what is their currency? Law suits for creating hysteria perhaps? CDC/FDA will bog you down in the science as a strategy some areas they can not.

VERY appreciative of that conversation. Settled a few questions while admittedly raising a few new ones, but helpful for formulating a response.

One thing I would note is that the narrative& rationale for resistance being discussed does fall short of whole& absolute truth,& the God of truth upholding that& evidenced by it, being centered in man alone by the majority of those involved. Even w/ the wealth of knowledge& value of their contribution: that's a problem hindering an outcome of blessing or stay of judgment on the part of the God of truth that all real& objective, verifiable science is dependent upon rather than continued consequential judgment.

There is a reason Christ became the lightning rod drawing the ire of all about him, even as He was the solution needed of the same& the one evidenced by the scripture of those condemning him& the truth witnessed even of the contributing Gentiles claiming to love& pursue knowledge, or 'science',who carried out the sentence. This is also why Bible believing Christians are always found out w/ the minorities, the Jews& mixed bag of extremists& cults: because there is no unreserved unity possible w/ the Gentile beast system of impositional fornicating State& religious craft united. Not even if their consensus falsely cloaks itself as 'irreligious' or impossibly neutral, men being spiritual& soulish by nature,& all knowledge filtered through that. We still resist unrighteousness.

Everyone benefits when the contribution of all is sought& considered out in the open& freely. Whether acknowledged or not(& it is not from either those who trace their roots to the pagans or to the corruption of Rome in corruption& contradiction to Christ& the scriptures), that the historically unmatched liberty of the American people sprang, but from the biblical truth& realism that were expressed& protected by the Bill of Rights in the US Constitution. Uncomfortable& messy for a reason, hated by all tyrants& the spirit behind them.

Very disappointing how the first minutes of discussion were an attempt to dispel the "dangerous myth" that covid-19 has never been isolated as a public contagion.

Mr. Fleming begins by chastising those with differing opinions in an attempt to cast their views as dangerous, ignorant and uneducated, which are the exact tactics being used by the mass media. He goes on to state how his unnamed website proves his claims and that all detractors are referring to the methods of isolating bacteria, not viral samples. He then subtly implies that those who doubt his opinions are living in the 19th century and also believe that viruses do not exist. Mr. Malone then chimes in to support this view. Coincidentally, vaccine creation and viral isolation are their livelihoods and if sars-cov-2 (covid-19) is proven to not exist as a public contagion, they would almost certainly face professional ridicule and financial loss. I would be very interested to view the factual information behind their claims to compare it to the factual information provided by those with differing opinions, though they failed to provide any links to their websites.

As if to directly counter their assertions, Dr. Yan then goes on to state how challenging it is to extract a coronavirus sample from a human body, claiming that it must be done at a "peak time", seeming to suggest that theoretically asymptomatic individuals may never "test" positive. This seems to dispel Mr. Fleming's assertions that samples of "covid-19" were overabundant and easy to come by.

There were some very good professionals in this video with excellent opinions about what we are facing today, unfortunately their contributions were overshadowed by those who seemed unwilling to explore differing, "dangerous" opinions.

I notice pheremonal complications mentioned (possibly from 'shedding' from the vaxxed to the unvaxxed)---could this maybe co-relate to the loss of the ability to 'smell'? I think it might.

Recent reading has brought to light (for me) that the loss or change in the accuracy of 'smell' too, could be related to auto-immune function.

Seems to me that this so-called 'vaccine' is messing with our immune systems---and NOW they want to jab those that they KNOW have a COMPROMISED IMMUNE SYSTEM?!?!?

It was an existential decision from the beginning: Do you want to live in a world like this, even if this was the Black Plague?

By March, 2020, the hoax was clear. However, the multiple forms of poisoning the population produced symptoms (think of 5G, chemtrails, and military-grade radars for which you cannot even buy an instrument to measure the radiation).

When you check SAERS, most of the deceased had "preexisting conditions" by the time of their untimely departure. (Well, lots of entries simply disappear from SAERS, too.) I am wondering how many of these preexisting conditions were due to the general poisoning of the population... Moreover, people die or suffer irreversible damages from the same batches.

If you know what you want and it's greater than mere survival, you cannot be intimidated or confused, because you keep your eyes on the target.

Thank you, your mention of the Black Plague caught my eye and I did a search to see if it was the plague I had read about in John Heinermans book on Garlic, it is the same. In the results of the search another item caught my eye, a report on shedding, ... hum, so I read it also.

medical x press. com/news/2021-08-disease-ecologists-document-person-to-p..

The item I have lived by for many years after reading Heinerman's book, is garlic, raw and offensive to those who do not partake. The tie to the plague was a note of 3 or 4 men who were caught looting the remains of dead bodies. There of course was a curiosity as to why they did not get the plague. Upon examining their belongings, it was noted they each had bulbs of garlic in their pocket. Cooking diminishes or destroys the benefit.

Mother Earth has given us so much to benefit our health, thanks again. Oh, that link is a study that confirmed the "art?" of shedding. It was confirmed with bacteria, not virus; but shedding seems to be more than a myth.

Interesting thing about the Black Plague, researchers don't believe that it was actually that deadly to the healthy. The problem was that Europe was going through a famine at the time of the plague and most of the population was starving and therefore very vulnerable to disease.

ghfinn: Hungarian knights went to Naples in 1382, while the Black Plague was raging. None of them got sick, possibly because they were wearing a metallic body armor or, possibly, because they were chewing on garlic like US soldiers on bubble gum in WW2 movies!:)

I would say, it's both.

This winter, we will probably need aluminum foil for bundling up, unless we want to board FEMA buses to the "green zones"!

Cooking definitely destroys the benefits, but mild simmering might make it available for those who otherwise couldn't stomach it!

N52 magnets also seem to be working. Keeping a dog, a cat, or possibly anything else around might also protect you to a certain extent.

These days, we have to keep all the Mercola links in order to be able to get back to them and/or communicate on the new site.

Based on military research around the world in the last 50 years or more, the most likely real poison against the population will be weaponized smallpox bacteria. As opposed to the non-existent viral infections, they work!

Cheers!

Jackaroni: at the times, it looks like solar flares cause immune deficiency. The same happened all the time in history and records seem to prove it.

There were two types of the plague: bubonic, which probably killed "only" 30% of the population and the plague of the lung, which was a lot deadlier.

The history of the Plague ran for several hundred years (apparently, depending on solar flare activity).

As far as famine played a part in the 1300s, it's possible; way too many peasants/serfs died in the 1200s, so labor costs had gone up. It was easy for the nobility to find laborers as long as they were willing/able to pay for them. However, fertile grounds were around without owners and animals were readily available to breed.

Astonished,

I have heard government employees in the House and Senate seriously claim that COVID is as deadly as plague, more deadly than any cancer, and that humans do not have an immune system. When challenged about their claim about the immune system, they backpedaled and acknowledged that humans have one, but it is so weak against SARS-COV-2 that wearing a mask and getting vaccinated are necessary for true protection.

The symptoms and the fake test are used for for diagnoses, but the symptoms indicate radiation disease (5G and military-grade radars; we are being microwaved alive) and the impact of graphene oxide from the chemtrails and the jabbed.

The muzzle, the "test," and the Kill Shots all contain graphene oxide that can turn you into a remote-controlled person in a jiffy.

The miracle cures are probably as effective as peeing on a house fire.

We are being microwaved alive. Add the spike proteins shed by the injected, and you get the full picture.

Radiation by 5G and military-grade radars cause insomnia, increased body heat, hardness of breathing, rapid and irregular heartbeat, and coughs. Sounds familiar? These are the so-called "COVID symptoms."

Lung and heart tissues will never regenerate, even if one stops the current inflammation. OCPD, emphysema, and heart failure are not curable.

You cannot fight something with nothing. And fighting with a fog bank that impedes your progress is ineffective and pointless (like all the complaining in these forums). We need to use a different tactic.

There would be no call for mandates or repressive measures if people (vaccinated or unvaccinated) took better care of themselves and did not get sick. People with depleted immune systems need nutrients just like a car that runs out of gas. Here in Arizona people get seriously dehydrated during the hot summer. The authorities here recommend "drinking plenty of water". Water is not a DRUG and therefore, according to FDA rules, cannot "diagnose, treat, cure or prevent" a serious dis-ease like dehydration. But it is still recommended by the authorities. If they can recommend that, then they can also recommend nutrients need by a depleted immune system. These are not drugs either and cannot "cure" any disease in accordance with the games the FDA is playing with its special reserved words. They will just make people normal.

If LOCAL governments would ACT, we could be done with this pandemic in a month or two. But people need help in finding the right information because of all the censorship and ridicule. (All the observing, complaining, griping, accusing, and concluding on these forums is useless. We need ACTION.)

Note the ancient sayings that "the wisdom of the world is foolishness with God" and God will "set aside the wisdom of the wise man". This "setting aside" is an "obviation". It is solving the problem without dealing with it directly. If you get tangled up in the problem, you will lose with these idiots. They are beyond reason. Instead, BYPASS THEM. Use obviation as your problem solving tool.

Be clear that this "maintenance of normal health" is NOT a "cure " or "prevention" for COVID19....

Normal health PRECEDES anything to do with COVID19 and therefore cannot be a "treatment" or a "cure" for it. It is an obviation that does not deal with COVID19.

It prevents it. As it also prevents the flu and the common cold and likely many other things. I'm talking specifically about Vitamin D, as does Dr. Mercola. I've seen studies for at least a decade on what Vitamin D can do and the data is being horribly suppressed. Help get the word out. BrianFraser,

You averred, "There would be no call for mandates or repressive measures if people (vaccinated or unvaccinated) took better care of themselves and did not get sick."

Government operators have no legitimate business imposing mandates or repressive measures in the first place, regardless of whether people take better care of themselves or not.

People are not government's property; they are not government's stockyard animals; they are not government's slaves.

"Glorious Revolution"). They gained full control in the US, when the gold standard was wiped out in 1971.

The rest is history.

Part 2.

Preface: Please continue reading past the first part I present that will seem irrelevant because I will make a profound connection.

How to catch feral hogs:

- 1. Pour a pile of corn onto the ground in the same place every evening and eventually the elusive and easily spooked feral hogs will learn they can feed on it unthreatened and undisturbed every night even knowing farmers or ranchers protecting their crops from devastation have at other times tried to shoot them by seeing some from their sounders drop dead at the sound of gunshot.
- 2. After they become complacent, build a length of fencing along one side of the feed. When they first see that, they will be spooked. Perhaps after a few days one of the brave, or more likely less wise to realities among them, will feed on the corn while the hungry sounder watches.

- 3. Eventually, the entire sounder of feral hogs will feed on the pile of corn again and soon after they will become complacent again.
- 4. Add another side in an L shape and continue the process.
- 5. Continue to add sides of lengths of fencing until you have an open enclosure.
- 6. Add an open gate. The feral hogs will eventually walk in on their own accord and eventually become less watchful.
- 7. With near invisible fishing line, pull the gate closed for it to latch.
- 8. The feral hogs are now all contained beyond escape and have no power to resist whatever is their fate.

Stupid hogs! They were smart enough to be elusive, feed at night and live, yet they became complacent and now pork chops.

Part 3.

How to selectively reduce the world population to less than 500 million that will best serve their elitist Luciferian globalist masters:

- 1. Fund biological warfare development with a cute name such as "gain of function" with the story of being prepared for dangerous pathogens, pandemic and biological warfare because government is altruistic.
- 2. Be philanthropic and see most buy the story, but some won't.
- 3. Hide participants in plain sight with them announcing what they are doing along with their stories and even collect donations.

- 4. There will be some microbiologists who become wise to the nefarious purposes of what they have been given to develop and they will become whistle blowers. Kill them all! In statistically highly improbable deaths of microbiologists that are deemed freak accidents. Even still, some will still find a way to reveal the evil.
- 5. Starting long before, there have been psychological operations used against the people to trigger an incredulity response upon hearing the words "conspiracy theory."
- 6. Combine that with other results of psychological operations for induced fear of being called a name for profound synergistic effect to shut down truth.
- 7. There will be some few wise and cautious people who care not about being called a name, but they will be too few and their voices won't gain traction as they are deemed kooks, so censor them.
- 8. There will be those very few resisting being censored by having their own technological advantages and guts, so threaten and isolate them.
- 9. Learn that many healthy living crazed kooks have such excellent immune systems that they are not vulnerable to the hastily developed weaponized virus that hasn't lived up to diabolical desires.
- 10. Have a backup plan of a weaponized "emergency use authorization" genetic experiment.

Part 4.

- 11. While some wise among the trusting question that because there hasn't been time to know long term unintended consequences they assume good intentions. Negate their claims by claiming vaccine development was ongoing long before the virus was purposely, no accidently released.
- 12. Still, there will be some few among the wise that know not to be trusting, understand the nature of evil, know that evil exists and calls attention to that with their own websites. Threaten to kill them and their family. Make deals that they must remove their archives after 48 hours. Allow them to continue with reduced effectiveness and increasing obscurity.

- 13. Though there actually was development time by starting before the virus was known to know the true long term effectiveness of the so called "vaccine" is that everyone dies don't let on what is really meant by safe and effective. It is safe for those not selected to die and effective in causing death to all receiving it.
- 14. Cancel all plans to systematically disarm the civilian population because that won't work well due to the danger of that and with some becoming wise to what is happening since mostly all gun owners will be killed in a time delayed manor by the "vaccine" except for a few wise ones. This is what was meant by "Safe" since otherwise gun owners would defend themselves.
- 15. Be sure some Sheeple that will make desirable servants get placebos instead of what is erroneously called a vaccine.
- 16. Wow! People are more difficult than feral hogs, so it took more steps, but claim such complexity means whistle blowers are not just conspiracy theorists, but impossibly unrealistic. Besides, they can be killed later by useless idiots.

Astonished,

You said, "In Britain, the Rockefellers took over the power over the money trail already in 1815."

I think you mean the Rothschilds.
