- › It's crucial to push back against all efforts to implement social segregation of unvaccinated individuals. You do this with peaceful civil disobedience, and insisting on not being discriminated against

In this interview, CJ Hopkins, an American playwright, novelist and columnist who currently resides in Berlin, Germany, discusses the implementation of the globalist plan for a new normal, also known as the Great Reset. The first year or two of Phase 1, Hopkins describes as the “shock-and-awe” phase.

“It's pretty classic,” he says. “It's the hysteria that was rolled out right at the beginning of [the COVID-19 pandemic]. We had the fake pictures of people dropping dead in the streets in China, and they were advertising a 3.4% death rate. Hundreds of millions of people were going to die.

States of emergency were declared. I covered all of this with citations in my early columns. Basically, a police state was rolled out and everyone was locked down. Here in Europe, the police were arresting people for being outside without permission. Neighbors started reporting their neighbors for going outdoors without a mask or beyond curfew.

That was pretty much the whole first year. This was really shock and awe. It feels like now we're moving into Phase 2 with the rollout of a social segregation system and vaccine passes. In a lot of ways, I feel like Phase 2 is going to be more insidious than Phase 1 was.”

What's in Store for Phase 2?

While hesitant to predict what's to come, Hopkins fears some version of the intended social segregation system will be implemented despite public pushback. “That really concerns me,” he says. Even partial implementation can be enough to get the proverbial foot in the door, so to speak, to allow a fuller implementation to occur later on.

In the U.S., resistance by certain states is encouraging. So far, 14 states have implemented laws banning the requirement of vaccine passports to prevent a two-tier society from forming. In Europe, however, due to the smaller sizes of each country, it's easier to create the ideological uniformity required to impose these systems, so what happens there remains to be seen. When asked how he's structuring his resistance to the plan for global tyranny, Hopkins replies:

"The main way is through my 'Consent Factory' columns. My essays. And through the 'Consent Factory' on social media. I try to whip up as much resistance and create as much awareness as I can and urge people to spread that and do the same. That's what I do. My medium is words.

On a personal level, I think it's really important not to cooperate with the system. For example, in Germany, they're rolling out a segregation system so that if I want to go to a restaurant, a café, a nonessential store or attend the theater, I need to present either a proof of vaccination or a negative test within 24 hours to enter these establishments.

I think it's really important for those of us who are pushing back against this, to not play along. I'm going to try to go to the restaurants. I'm going to try to enter the stores.

And I want to make the people who have been made responsible for the system, I want to make them eject me, and I want to politely but loudly make it clear: 'You're ejecting me from your establishment because I'm not conforming to this insane ideological program.' Hopefully, if a lot of people do this, enough social friction can be created and build resistance to it."

Coerced Compliance Is Not a Return of Freedom

In the U.S., the lifting of mask mandates for vaccinated individuals only appears to be part of the more insidious style we can expect in Phase 2. In essence, it's just another strategy to coerce compliance with vaccination. "Get the vaccine and you can have your freedom; you can go back to normal," is the idea here.

But it's a false freedom. Being coerced to comply with the demand to be a guinea pig for an experimental gene therapy in order to "regain" basic human freedom is hardly freedom.

"This is what I mean by I think Phase 2 is going to be more insidious than Phase 1, because that's exactly right. We're getting this carrot-and-stick stuff," Hopkins says. "Joe Biden and Hillary Clinton came out and tweeted, 'Get vaccinated or wear a mask.' That's it. These are the choices ...

My sense is the mask regulations will probably be the last thing to go here in Germany. Clearly, the masks, I think, were the primary means of generating the appearance of an apocalyptic plague that is threatening the very fabric of society. When people take off their masks, the illusion will just evaporate."

Suffocating Censorship Abounds

As in the U.S., Germany and virtually all other countries are experiencing severe censorship of anything COVID-19 related. Hopkins describes the situation as "suffocating," saying "it's been one of the most impressive and frightening experiences that I can remember."

Very quickly, the German media, government and entertainment industry started marching in lockstep. Gleichschaltung is a German word that harkens back to the Nazi regime. Gleich means "the same" and schaltung means "to switch."

"What it means is basically synchronizing all aspects of culture, messaging and ideology in the society to make everything absolutely uniform and to eliminate all dissent,” Hopkins explains. “Of course, this is what the Nazis did, and this is exactly what I have witnessed here.

It happened almost instantly, in the spring of 2020. And it has been absolutely suffocating. Anyone protesting, questioning or challenging the official narrative has been demonized as a far-right conspiracy theorist, an anti-Semitic extremist. It's been really intense.”

How Did We Get Here?

For many, myself included, the current reality is beyond surreal. It's like living in a nightmare, hoping to wake up at any moment. How did we get here? Hopkins offers his personal take on the situation:

“I started writing political satire and commentary back in 2016. I did that because I got interested in the Donald Trump phenomenon. I'm not a fan of Donald Trump personally, but something new was happening and it caught my attention.

What I covered all during the Trump years was this unauthorized president got elected and it felt to me like this was part of a broader populist pushback against whatever you want to call it – global capitalist ideology is what I call it – and what we've been living with for the last 30 years since the fall of the Soviet Union ...

Suddenly around 2016, there was Brexit and Trump and various reactionary populist movements rising up in Europe. It interested me. Here's some resistance against the new ideology.

What I watched, what I described in my columns and in my books, was the system, the entire global system, and this is where it gets too simplistic to talk about because it's not a bunch of capitalists sitting in a room, scheming and plotting all this out. It's the system reacting to this insurgency, to this sort of populist rebellion inside of it.

And what they did is very clear. They made an example of Trump. They demonized him. They demonized everybody who put him in office. Really polarized society so that you were either a good Democrat or you were a white supremacist, racist, neo-Nazi monster. They did this for four years solid and, of course, it all culminated in 2020 when they removed Trump from office and then had the big spectacle of 'restoring normality.'

I can't help but see the rollout of the 'new normal' and this whole narrative, this introduction, of what I see as a more totalitarian version of global capitalist society. I see this in that same context.

A point that I always make about this is the lockdowns were the big thing in the beginning, right? And for most of the last year. Where does the concept of lockdown come from? Well, it comes from prisons. And when do you lock the prisoners down? You lock them down when they're rebelling, when they're rioting.

And you do it to remind them, 'Hey, you're in prison, and we can lock you down and impose any type of measures on you that we want, any time we want, until you start toeing the line.' I cannot help but see what we've been through during this past year as part of that lesson that the ruling establishment, the system itself, is teaching us ...

There's a book that I recommend to everyone – especially to true believers if any of them are watching and they still have just a little bit of an open mind – by Milton Mayer, called ‘They Thought They Were Free.’ He was here in Germany in the 1930s as the Nazis came to power, as this ideological synchronization was rolled out. And what he describes mirrors almost exactly what we've been experiencing.

The context is completely different. It's not a political ideology that's being rolled out [now]. But just the introduction of this official narrative, this official ideology, and the coercion and implementation of police measures and the abrogation of the constitution [is the same as back then].

And people's reactions to it and nonreactions to it. How it was all implemented step by step by step, the old ‘how to boil a frog’ thing. If you read that and compare it to what we've been through for the last year, it's just horrifying.”

What Can We Do?

The book, “They Thought They Were Free,” is available as a free PDF download here. Now, if what we’re experiencing is subjugation training, how can we most effectively resist it? Certainly, we need to spread the word and collaborate with friends and neighbors, because if they’re listening to the mainstream media, they’re not getting this at all.

To me, one of the most frightening parts of this are the attempts to coerce people into getting vaccinated with an experimental gene therapy. What’s happening is absolute 100% illegal and a clear violation of the Nuremberg Code, because the only way you can give informed consent to anything is to have both sides of the story.

But they are only presenting one side. Anything that opposes their narrative is immediately censored. People with any kind of following on social media are simply deplatformed. As a result, people have no idea what they're getting themselves into.

Clearly, we have to realize that this is a long-term game. The globalists, the technocratic elite who are running this nightmare simulation, have been organizing and planning its execution for decades. They're not flying by the seat of their pants. They have a long-term game plan, and we need to establish one too, even if, for the moment, we're lagging behind.

"I think you're absolutely right and this is why I brought up that term, Gleichschaltung, this synchronization," Hopkins says. "It's very clear to me, to you, to those of us who have been paying attention, the intensity of the effort to silence discussion. To silence dissent. To silence questioning.

To present this uniform ideological narrative ... and there's no room in it for questioning, for argument, for a discussion. If you question it, you are absolutely demonized. It makes it really difficult to communicate. I'm a satirist, so I think I kind of slip through the lines because maybe the censors don't know if I'm serious or not.

It's more difficult for people who are just trying to present facts and information because they're getting completely shut out. I think we have to continue to try to do it no matter what. I think it's important to repeatedly present the facts.

To repeatedly point out what happened at the beginning of this – All the propaganda. All the false information. Where [the virus] came from. The models. The way the PCR tests were used to generate the appearance that suddenly, perfectly healthy people became medical cases."

How a Real-World Pandemic Simulation Was Created

That last point is an important one. We now know, rather unequivocally, that we did not have a lethal pandemic as much as we had a casedemic, meaning a pandemic of false positive tests.

The vast majority were perfectly healthy, but because the PCR tests were run at a ridiculously and indefensibly high cycle threshold (CT), they picked up dead fragments of the virus, resulting in false positives. Medicine as we know it was suddenly turned on its head, and these healthy individuals were deemed “sick” based on flawed testing and nothing else.

“ The official narrative violates just about everything we know about medicine and science. And they did it simply by redefining terms. ”

Once actual death counts dropped, mainstream media reverted from flashing death statistics to “case” statistics, thereby making it appear as though the pandemic was raging, even as hospitals remained empty of COVID-19 patients.

“It’s so frustrating because you can’t get this through to people who are true believers,” Hopkins says. “First of all, the test was never meant to be diagnostic of illness. But the fact that you could turn this test up to 40, 50 cycles, and suddenly people who were perfectly healthy, with no symptoms of illness whatsoever, became medical cases.

The next step, of course, was to use that to inflate the deaths. Then people who were dying in hospitals, they didn’t have to be dying of [some other] illness anymore. If they were tested and the PCR test showed they had been infected, then they were COVID deaths. And then those statistics were exploded. They basically redefined traditional established scientific and medical knowledge.”

That too is a key point. The official narrative violates just about everything we know about medicine and science. And they did it simply by redefining terms. The World Health Organization redefined the word “pandemic.” The medical term “case” was redefined, as was the definition of a “COVID death.” They’ve redefined the term “herd immunity” and even the term “anti-vaxxer.”

According to Merriam-Webster, an “anti-vaxxer” is now anyone who opposes vaccination or simply disagrees with vaccine mandates. Based on this loosened definition, an estimated 79% of Americans are now anti-vaxxers.¹ Most recently, they redefined what a “breakthrough case” is among the vaccinated.

It’s All About Manipulating Statistics

Those who define the terms control the narrative. Simply by redefining what constitutes illness, they’re able to dial the pandemic up and down at will. On the day President Biden was inaugurated, the pandemic was dialed back by the WHO simply lowering the recommended CT. By then, the vaccination program had begun, and to make the vaccines appear effective, the caseload needed to decline.

Unfortunately, breakthrough cases started appearing, meaning fully vaccinated individuals were being hospitalized for COVID-19. So, the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention changed the definition of a breakthrough case and lowered the recommended CT when testing fully vaccinated individuals.²

The CDC no longer records mild or asymptomatic infections in vaccinated individuals as “COVID cases.” The only cases that now count as COVID cases – if the patient has been vaccinated against COVID-19 – are those that result in hospitalization or death.^{3,4} And, like magic, the vaccine effectiveness got a boost. Breakthrough cases dropped by several thousand overnight, from 10,262 (as of April 30, 2021)⁵ to 3,016⁶ (as of June 1, 2021).

Meanwhile, if you're unvaccinated and come down with a mild case, or if you test positive at a higher CT and have no symptoms, you still count as a COVID case. So, we now have this remarkably unscientific and illogical situation where testing rules and definitions of illness vary depending on whether the patient is vaccinated or unvaccinated!

There's only one reason for doing something as unprecedented as this, and that is to manipulate statistics. This allows the CDC to inflate the caseload among unvaccinated people and minimize breakthrough cases among the vaccinated. The end result is that unvaccinated people will appear more prone to infection, even though they're not, and the vaccines will appear far more protective than they actually are.

"The reason it is so difficult to resist is [because] this simulation has been created through all of these means that we're talking about, and the people who believe in this simulation – I've likened them to cult members – there's no shaking their belief in this," Hopkins says.

"I think it's important, nonetheless, to keep confronting them and presenting these facts to everybody. The other [strategy] is on a personal level, just as I was saying before.

I think it's crucial that those of us who are not true believers in this new ideology continue to try to live according to reality, and refuse to reify it, refuse to behave according to these rules that are being imposed.

Fundamentally, the idea that anything about this virus requires a radical restructuring of society where I have to present my medical papers to get a cup of coffee is insane. It's literally insane. And it's important that those of us who continue to have a grip on reality treat it as insane, and not treat it as legitimate at all ..."

More Information

To read more of what Hopkins has to say, please visit his website, cjhopkins.com, or blog, consentfactory.org. He also has a Substack and Patreon account where you can find his work.

In closing, I believe a major part of the solution is to develop alternative distribution networks that are censorship resistant. Ultimately, we need a decentralized Internet. That's currently in the works, but full implementation of it is bound to take years. In the meantime, we have to perfect online "guerilla tactics" to get around the censorship and form collaborative networks. We also need to engage in peaceful civil disobedience in our day-to-day lives. As noted by Hopkins:

"Until we get there, it's crucial to continue to use whatever means. People are trying to avoid Facebook censors by playing with the fonts and the pictures and what have you. It's another thing that people can study – in totalitarian societies, people adapted.

Everyone knew that the official sources were just pumping out propaganda, so, they learned how to speak and read between the lines. It might become more and more necessary to find ways to not say directly what you're saying, but rather point to it so that it can lead other people to where you're going. So, use whatever means are still available to get the facts, to get reality, out there.

Secondly, and I think just as important, back to my point about how we live our everyday lives. Go back to that restaurant where I have to show my vaccine pass or my test to sit down and get a cup of coffee. I have choices. I could choose to stay home. I could choose to get a counterfeit vax pass.

Neither one of those to me are the right choices because the choice is to go and demand that people treat me according to reality and not treat me according to the rules of their new ideology. Create that friction ... I have no hostility to the server, but I want to make that server uncomfortable with what he or she is doing.

I want to make the other people who are sitting in the restaurant uncomfortable watching me be ejected, watching me be segregated because I don't conform to this ideology. Maybe they all go home and sleep soundly. Maybe two of them are haunted by that moment.

Maybe they see another moment like that in another café the next day. Or at the cinema that night when they go out. The more moments they see of people standing up and saying, 'This is insane and it is wrong and I'm not going to cooperate with it' – all these little moments of friction, they can build and create the resistance that we need."

this reminds me of Rudyard Kipling's poem "IF" - which I had to write out over and over again after school in the Detention Room as punishment for "obedience" problems -

"If you can keep your head when all about you / Are losing theirs and blaming it on you, / If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you, / But make allowance for their doubting too; / If you can wait and not be tired by waiting, / Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,

Or being hated, don't give way to hating, / And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise: / If you can dream—and not make dreams your master; / If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim; / If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster / And treat those two impostors just the same; / If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken / Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,

Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken, / And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools: / If you can make one heap of all your winnings / And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss, / And lose, and start again at your beginnings

And never breathe a word about your loss; / If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew / To serve your turn long after they are gone, / And so hold on when there is nothing in you / Except the Will which says to them: 'Hold on! / If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue, / Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch, / If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you, / If all men count with you, but none too much; / If you can fill the unforgiving minute / With sixty seconds' worth of distance run, / Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it, / And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

Thank you Stanley, for this & all your commentary. It is quite difficult to go against the majority, corruption or even family & friends, which most on this forum are doing daily....sometimes its just nice to hear a poem that sums up the valor in such a struggle.

LOL, Stanley! A shared youth of questioning it seems....but Kipling missed the fear of God & faith in the only Son of man to truly fulfill those things & lowered his definition of truth, man & victory to his loss. He knowingly took the way of Lucifer-Satan & Isaiah 14 KJB & turned his back on the whole of humbling truth pointing men to repentance & God, to true victory overcoming in every circumstance, losing the fear of death due to receiving a share in the Son's inheritance & the seal & earnest of it through faith & the new birth of God's power, not 'Man's.....the one immediately seized, one-eyed faith, and the vain bondage works of a self-made salvation, turning away from the strait gate, deceiving & robbing his own soul, & any who stop at that 'prize'.

Catharsis & experience are subtle counterfeits of Mystery ending at the grave, & those who do not look in the mirror of God's word to realize their own sin & lack, falling short of the glory & holiness of God, do not understand either themselves or the true gravity of the trials we face & their purpose in the good will of God which Lucifer-Satan would turn to evil & destruction through pride & selective, one-eyed, hypocritical sight claiming a perfection it does not have. 2020 indeed.

Kipling's art turned men back on themselves & to Man, not to God, proving itself to be Balaamite at best, limited & unable to transcend the grave or to point men to what can & will. It has a beauty & it stirs, but it fails to obtain or pass on what God preserved in the Psalms of David & the full counsel of God's word, & your instructors failed you in not urging you to lift your eyes beyond, at least as far as the grave & death that comes to all, & beyond to realize our common need of God & his salvation which no man or craft of men & devils can earn or reinvent as mere finite & fallen creatures. The prize of the culminating union of Man & Mystery Babylon the Great fast approaches for many. It doesn't have to be that way.

Stanley...You? Obedience problems? Never. I don't believe that.....My trips to Mother Superior were always fun especially when she took out her paddle with holes in it - you know, aerodynamically designed to get the maximum swinging power, the best "angle of attack" without the problem of drag. Of course, the beads of sweat pouring down my face when I got home and explain myself were just as welcoming. Ah.....those were the days. For what it's worth:

“Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence. Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education will not; the world is full of educated failures. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.” ~ Calvin Coolidge

Excellent Stan. Thank you! That's a very appropriate poem for these precarious times. So many people are unnerved and frightened by the villainous propaganda that assails them every day from virtually every source. They think the reign of psychological terror will end when they are vaccinated. But it won't end until the ghouls behind this vile agenda are removed and exposed for what they are.

Meanwhile here is some good advice from Eleanor Roosevelt: ""You gain strength, courage, and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You are able to say to yourself, 'I lived through this horror. I can take the next thing that comes along...""

Are you saying, our dearest Stan, //you were once a naughty lad, //to get detention, in my day, //meant you'd been REALLY bad. //So it makes me smile to think that now //again we won't follow their rules //won't have the jabs, won't wear the masks //for we are nobody's fools. //Won't roll up our sleeves to save our lives //for we know that none of it's true //The propaganda they all spout //will never kid me or you. //So we'll end up in detention //told to write out what they decree //but when they are punished for all of their crimes //you & I will still be free !

A more appropriate end line is that you'll be a god or a saint, but it's certainly what to aim for to be the best man - or woman - we can. Keeping our minds, hearts, and souls together while the norm is their forfeiture is a great start.

The article asks: How did we get here? Cell phones & Flu shots opened the door, in my opinion.

- Cell Phones have changed the way humans interact with one another as social beings, & tear the fabric of the family, & deplete a sense of wonder & patience: now everything at your fingertips, no looking up or looking others in the eyes, families can't even eat dinner, watch a movie together without the beeping, distraction nearby. The cell phone is a great intruder of our freedom & autonomy, and the globalists want it this way, to see us all "hooked" up to THEIR grid of eventual control. They got society addicted with it all - time to go in for the kill with 5G & use this technology for the next level as a control lever. The Cell phones were just the warm up to get everyone wired & "socially distanced"---a zombie like culture.

-Flu Shots. This was the other warm up that was pounded over & over everywhere you went, billboards, banners strung across supermarkets "Get Your Flu Shot Here", sides of busses, Schools & Universities, doctors offices...a never ending propaganda that society couldn't survive without this yearly vaccine.

The same institutions promoting the drum beat of the flu vaccine seemingly did so because they "cared" so much about all of us. Hmmm. People felt so loved & cared for they apparently forgot to eat right & exercise, cause if they had, they would never have needed the Flu shot to begin with. That MENTALITY is what got us to where we are now, people not trusting & even understanding their own bodies, immune system, & taking personal responsibility . People convinced themselves that a Pharmaceutical Company honors & cares more about them than they care about themselves. Lazy society.

Now, the power axis of High Tech & Pharma are collaborating with governments worldwide amidst a blind public still thinking strangers want the best for them & their family. To take so lightly what one allows injected in your own body is asking for tyranny.

Right on @shannonaz. People are literally glued to their phones while sitting or standing, or even walking. It's terrifying to witness. I decided twelve years ago to not use a so-called "Smartphone". It was simply not worth it in terms of worse health, and the stress it causes, having to constantly keep the battery charged, and the perpetual interruptions from the "bleeps!" and "dings!" to get your attention.

I would say all vaccines and don't limit it to the flu shot. You are correct about cell phones. Also read Bobby Kennedy Jr's new book coming out early September for the true story about Fauci. I have known he was bad for many years but I didn't realize how far it stretched. The Real Anthony Fauci: Bill Gates, Big Pharma, and the Global War on Democracy and Public Health by Robert F.

Agree completely with all you have said. I'm glad I'm old enough to remember only wired phones even when I was young being on a party line which just was several people sharing a single line. Remembering that you can live well without being connected, tethered to something 24/7 and absurd "importance" of it all. No question regarding flu shots and for most the unquestioning need because everyone else is doing it, got to be protected against the "other".

I'll go one step backward and say it began with the Sony Walkman. It was the first isolation device. Timothy Leary said "Turn on, tune in, drop out." Plug in your headphones, turn on your device, listen to music and drop out of society into your own little world - isolate yourself. Most of us were vaccinated by our parents who trusted government and the doctors; never questioning these "authorities". Therein lies the problem. We have been taught never to question authority. Beginning in our infancy and all the way into adulthood, we have been told not to. In our family, our schools and our choice of religion, we are not allowed to question authority. It is seen as blasphemous. We've been brainwashed to ASSUME "authority" KNOWS what is right FOR US; has OUR best interest at heart. Time again, as seen in the past 1 1/2 year, it is all a lie. Those in authority DO NOT have OUR best interests - ONLY THEIRS! It is always tied to power, control and money. NO AMOUNT OF RATIONAL DEBATE OR CONVERSATION will change their perspective. No negotiations, no discussion; no amount of intellectualism will alter their agenda. Even if they agreed, they are lying as "they" are hell bent (literally) on destroying what remains on earth of freedom and life for the sake of their never quenching thirst for power. They have been promised things from the nameless one and are his puppets. Most docs listen to sales persons representing a business for profits. Never is there mentioned "adverse reactions" aside from the slight pain at the site of the jab; maybe a fever but that is "normal". Medical schools NEVER teach associations between shots and severe reactions. As many have learned this past year, doctors rarely report severe adverse reactions to "authorities". If we are to rise up, it should be against "authority". I sometimes watch the local news for weather; it boldly says on screen "Weather Authority" & goes to the "Traffic Authority". Subtle brainwashing at work.

Yes, 333mary, I couldn't find it either. I wrote to change.org and they couldn't find it either. This was their lame response: "Thank you for contacting the Change.org Help Center. I would like to thank you for your patience and understanding on this matter. Let me tell you that we as Change.org we don't deny the publishing of petitions to anyone, we are an open platform that works for good causes and provide the best option to make petitions a reality. We only delete or close petitions if the petition started wanted or if the petition is violating community guidelines, in this case, I cannot find the exact petition that you are mentioning; in order to find the petition I need at least the exact title or URL, I hope you understand the situation on this matter." Absolutely right, Shannonaz. Electronic media in general for that matter, although you are quite right that cell phones are by far the worst since people always have them with them, and therefore never stop using them.

The irrational narrative on vaccination that goes back quite a few years already had the public primed for this. The majority of the stupid public can't fathom having any objection, whatsoever, to any recommended vaccine. No matter the circumstances or evidence. Vaccines are as intrinsically good and wholesome to them as truth, justice, and freedom used to be. Their dark side has done its job well. But then it was easy, wasn't it? They know exactly how stupid, weak, and pathetic most people are.

Shannonaz...You are 100% correct! My eldest sister was hesitant even having a personal computer b/c of "big brother" and losing personal freedom...The flu shot has been a huge scam and the majority of doctors should be ashamed of themselves for pushing them as heavily as they have been. They should have been promoting immune-boosting strategies, but unfortunately, most ppl trust the doctors. I remember a previous allergist shaming me and yelling at me for not having my son get the flu shot while my son had h1n1. I was appalled and told him that we have a God-given immune system that is meant to fight off infections. What a jerk! We have a better allergist now. Needless to say, my son fully recovered. What a crazy backwards world we live in. God help us.

And a not so widely known fun fact is that deaths attributed to flu and pneumonia (which are lumped together in US stats) have INCREASED concurrently with increased flu shot "coverage". We are seeing the same with overall death rates and COVID jabs, with many times higher death rates just following the jabs. Try as the might, there's no way to categorize around overall death rates.

Phones actually appear to be, themselves, biological weapons. They do not appear to affect the very strong minded, but most people are completely captured by them and I noticed this some years ago. There are certain stupid things that almost all phone users do: The one that is my biggest pet peeve is when they wait until the light turns green, then, they pull out their gadget and start texting or whatever and as soon as they get to the curve, it goes back in their pockets! Excuse me? And don't get my started with those iFools and yes, I'm talking about iPhone owners. They're the worse. They are the ones who do this. I've never actually seen this happen with an android user. They will break their neck, anything have ten bags, stuff., but they are NOT putting down that phone. It's like a bad science fiction movie.

It's hard to know what to believe in any these pandemic policies. It can seem as if governments, pharma, and the media are simply lying 100% of the time. I wanted to know if there was any detectable truth in any of their messaging, particularly since so many people seemed to be convinced enough to be entirely obedient to all directives, no matter how seemingly irrational; I had to at least consider that maybe they were seeing something I was missing.

Since PCR testing has been the driver of these policies, I decided to go to my local hardware store to buy a PCR machine. They were all sold out, but a new item had just hit the shelves, PCR goggles. I bought a pair and went home to watch the news on television. I programmed my new goggles to detect the truth by inputting data samples that were irrefutably true: $2 + 2 = 4$; Alaska is north of Tierra del Fuego, and; fauci is a slippery weasel.

I set the cycle threshold (or "CT value") of my PCR goggles to 25 and watched 3 hours of CNN but didn't detect one strand of truth in any of it; so I turned it up to 30... no luck. 35, nope; 40, nope; 45... nothing, even after 12 hours of binge watching. Finally, I cranked it up to full power, 60 CT, a level at which, according to the manual, you would be able to detect genuine compassion for humanity from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. That's powerful. I watched a bit more news and there it was, at the top of the hour, a positive reading on some passing quip about the color of a news anchor's tie. It was true! The tie really was red. My faith restored, I can now confidently say that they haven't been lying to us all along... at least not 100% of the time. It now seems fairly safe to conclude that covid is an existential threat to life on earth, only an experimental injection will save us, censorship and propaganda are good, vaccine passports would be wonderful, and—just to be on the safe side—it would be prudent to wear a mask for the rest of your life.

Wait, I just came up with idea, we should get 2 shots of this vaccine, just to be on the safe side and then get it every year after that, wait! just put it in the water, that fluoride stuff worked like magic, strewth add a bit of mercury in there, that stuff sticks around in your system for a while, which would keep the vaccine working longer menbrad - doctors wear masks for professional reasons when engaging in professional duties like surgical operations to prevent the spread of bacteria which are much larger than the virus - furthermore, hospitals where these masks are worn are responsible for the spread of many septic infective varieties so your attempt at debunking Darzoum is pathetic and MEANINGLESS

hi Darzoum - yes, the world as we know it is beyond recognition - the "official" version is nothing more than BLIND FAITH - but this surge of Faith is not part of the Western Philosophical Tradition

but instead focuses on the IDOLIZATION of a particular FALSE PROPHET - of course I refer to the alliance between the Snake and Zombie Culture - this is the TRUE state of our Planet and how our Planet conducts its affairs - traditionally an ethical system was built up in a civilization referred to as Judeo-Christian but now after dancing around the "FOOL'S GOLDEN CALF" that the Snake has engineered for human society like the Theater of constant hand washing mania/ masked faces in order to deny human identity/ segregated apartheid distancing of individual units in society/ and the Lockdown engineered to destroy self reliance and create social dependency for Big Brother's ultimate ascendancy - all this is accepted and as the article uses the term "Gleichschaltung" which I always translated as "uniformity" - Zombie Culture is the consolidation of "UNIFORMITY" by the neo-Nazi ideologues that repeat and reinforce the CONFORMITY that describes exactly what ZOMBIE CULTURE defines

This is the best comment!!!!!! How fantastically describin the absurdity of the situation! Really made me laugh out loud!!! It is Hilaryous actually the whole situation..

Here in Belgium the media is now demonizing people who link a certain heart failure to the vaccine... and the sheep have become monsters following their great leader, shouting this man (who only made a link to an almost death and the vaccine, and that the experiment should stop) shouting he should be 'deported'....

But we Are Born Free dear dr. Mercola and We Will Win this!!!!!!!!!! We came here to shine a light on this darkness, to shine a light on the devil (which he doesn't like ofcourse) and we agreed it wouldn't be easy... but every single exposure is important! Just reading your information, seeing all these fantastic interviews and reading these great comments, gives enormous strength to go on and it's so good to see to see there are other people who see through the lies.. cus we don't see them in real life! Hahahahaha... no, not true, we know 3 people now who also are wise enough to not jump in line to get some poison and nanotechnology in their veins!

But just in case I stay away now from the vaksienaatedd cus probably they will be the

I'm not so sure about your reply to mehbrad, Stanley. Depends on the doctor. A friend told me of her local GP's home visit to persuade her to take a test for a potential problem. He arrived at her door with mask on, plastic apron in the process of being put on, and surgical gloved hands at the ready. All that was missing was the hypodermic syringe. She found his behaviour intimidating, unnecessarily threatening and intends to complain formally to the NHS. Seems like the fear tactic is being taken to extremes at every level of the orthodox medical community.

Thanks for echoing the ideas contained in my post of June 7th which suggests that in the the official narrative - one of the 'high priests' of the COVID-19 litany is Dr. Fauci, and that the narrative has now attained the status of a religion or faith - defined as "a belief worthy of special reverence", often with rituals, such as mask wearing and hand washing - no scientific proof of effectiveness required as they are symbols of conformity, much like a badge worn on your lapel. "In satanic ritual, mask wearing is a symbol of depersonalisation, a gesture of submission and denial of individuality and humanity." Ostracising non conformists, labelling them as a danger to society, illegally denying them entry to civic amenities without vaccination certification (Ausweis bitte!) and the final depopulation solution - all straight out of the Na-zi rule book - in this case killing or maiming them with experimental injections rather than gas ovens. Certificate Of Vaccine

Identity (COVID).

Great way to make a point Darzuom.

Rich people plan for decades & the poor plan for Saturday night. If we follow Foxey Falsie we all live our lives like a bubble boy. The whole point of Doctors scrubbing down, wearing mask & gloves for one thing, hospitals are concentrated pools of various infectious agents. It was a long hard battle to get the official authorities of the time to accept the need for such. The primary need was in response specifically to surgical procedure's infectious and foreign materials brought in to the internal body. Materials needing to be outside the body. A reason one size does not fit all when it comes to vaccines, they can be a direct deposit of foreign materials bypassing our immune systems. With antibiotics being a miracle healer for bacteria finding it's way past our immune system, the public began its journey into germ-a-phobia. It's been well established for some time now, all the anti-bacteria - virus soaps in use by the general public actually increase one's chances of getting sick. Emergency Room, Surgical Room protocol have no place in our homes or dinner tables. Interaction with Life, with various types of Life increase and enhance our immune systems. Not short circuiting, cripple or in some cases outright destroy them.

Simple sanitary long practiced protocols will usually suffice in the home settings.

@ mehbrad - no, real doctors haven't been wearing masks "for the rest of their lives", only surgeons wear them in the operating theatre/room - and it is to protect the patient they will be operating on, not themselves! There is a potentially significant event here in the UK regarding vaccines. The MHRA (Medicines and Healthcare Regulatory Agency) recently gave the go-ahead for vaccinating children. Enter Dr Tess Lawrie, Director of the Evidence-based Medicine Consultancy Ltd who has investigated the data. She has written an eleven page letter to the MHRA exposing the deaths and injuries the vaccines are causing and urging them to STOP THE ROLL-OUT OF THE VACCINE.. . When you consider that the MRHA was given £980,000 by Bill Gates, depopulation emperor - their credibility as a reliable source of "health governance" is toast. Their Yellow Card Adverse Event's Reporting Scheme has been hidden away out of sight making Informed Consent impossible. This means that the amount of injuries reported (disturbing enough) are only a very small percentage of the true number. Here is Dr Lawrie's letter: ukfreedomproject.org/wp-content/downloads/Urgent%20Preliminary%20Repor..

Anyone who has children should be sent this short video of Sucharit Bhakdi, Prof Emeritus of Microbiology & Immunology & Germany's most cited research scientist who warns: "DON'T VACCINATE THE CHILDREN!!!" He explains the dangers in two minutes. This man knows far more than the incompetent complicit scoundrels who spout Big Pharma Medical Terrorism on the TV:

www.ukcolumn.org/article/brian-gerrishs-testimony-to-reiner-fullmich-o..

And many people find it helpful to listen to Dr Reiner Fuellmich's latest information.

- Here's a recent interview on the Trueman Show on the road in Germany. it appears like its in Dutch, but of course in English with Dutch subtitles: www.bitchute.com/.../QLFDILqh4pPM - WE (the collective) have a sovereign debt issue, especially noxious thefts occurring in the UK and EU - listen closely to what he now thinks about this virus focus, vs what may be occurring in banking and finance. The way he suggests getting out is outlined as moving to regional governance vs the current global design. Reiner goes further than most of his earlier interviews, and near the end, he corrects some of the false or faked stories about his group and their current legal work.

Jennycat. Doctors have learned a lot more now than when these shots first rolled-out. Hopefully your sister will be ok, eventually.

Where I live, in a state with a Dem Gov, the mask mandate was lifted when the CDC lifted it for vaccinated individuals. I see very few people wearing masks now, and I doubt that they have all been vaccinated. People are just done with the masks. So far, none of the stores have even asked if you have been vaccinated, and I'm hoping they are not going to go for the passports. If they do, we will have to fight harder.

`This is not true in California. Masks are everywhere. I still see some driving alone with masks on. People are definitely not done with masks here. Not outside, not inside, not anywhere. Yes, to eat they take off the masks. The lack of logic that if they get up they have to put a mask on is ignored as if the virus knows when you are sitting or standing. I thought for sure I would see fewer masks on people outside but not so. Even the kids as young as 3 are still wearing masks. It is very sad to be witness to this.

There is definitely no 'wool' covering this man's eyes! I'm surprised that he is the first person (that I know of) who has even mentioned this fact: "Where does the concept of lockdown come from? Well, it comes from prisons. And when do you lock the prisoners down? You lock them down when they're rebelling, when they're rioting.

And you do it to remind them, 'Hey, you're in prison, and we can lock you down and impose any type of measures on you that we want, any time we want, until you start toeing the line.' I cannot help but see what we've been through during this past year as part of that lesson that the ruling establishment, the system itself, is teaching us ..."

The worst part of all this; is the global destruction of the lives of countless children, forced to wear a muzzle and avoid other human beings - at the very least...and now; the evil criminals are injecting younger and younger children with the nanobot shots! How can anyone NOT see this insanity as Crimes Against Humanity?! The world we used to live in, is no more; and yet, hundreds of millions still don't see the existential Threat to Humanity! I am fed up with those who claim to dislike Trump personally but applauded his policies. Trump did not need the Presidency so he could become wealthy like other Presidents especially Obama. Donald Trump is America and we need only step back to the days of WWII when Americans spoke their mind and supported our founders and the Constitution. As for the present situation we are facing the Democrats have been planning the Hitler like takeover of the USA even before WWII. I do not have the solution to the current situation however it is going to become the war we thought would never happen. Biden is nothing more than a stooge for the Global elitist filth who want us all dead and the 'Vaccine' is their method of elimination. So the question is what do we do to gain back our freedoms? Oh, you think we are free! Think again!

I have heard that President Trump had to get the vaccines out to end the pandemic and their plan to have this lockdown/control go on for years. I don't know if that is true or not. That he keeps promoting them is a head scratcher, unless he thinks it will keep many from getting it like it stopped so many with regards to HCQ. My thought is that if these spike proteins transfer to the unvaccinated, wouldn't those who are pushing these shots have to have some type of antidote to protect themselves? Surely someone will figure that out. I am with a family member often who has taken the Pfizer shots. I just give it to God to protect us both.

I've stood up from the beginning unmasked, out roaming and traveling during all lockdowns and I've been treated brutally. None of my family and most of my friends no longer speak to me. I've been forced to quit working because I refuse to work masked. Believe me, every single day I defy the mandates that haven't been lifted here in Oregon. Some have been lifted for those showing proof of vaccination. If someone asks me if I've been vaccinated I ask if they have herpes. That usually shuts them down. If things don't change by fall I'm leaving this horrid state. Always hated Oregon and only moved here for cleaner, coastal air and the fact their normally backwards government had the foresight to keep all the beaches public. Otherwise it's an environmental nightmare with a population of zombie sheep with their masks on 24/7. Or you can join the gun toting, kill everything, flag flying patriots. "Let's get our guns and go kill some bears cuz they're threatening our chickens." I'm standing up, but what a nightmare this is. Try to talk to people and they're so all in with the narrative that there's zero chance of breaking through. Talked to a neighbor today. Had her second shot and is reacting badly. Her naturopath told her to get it despite saying she'd already had the virus. Neighbor still justifies her decision because she's protected. She had zero working knowledge of the vaccines. Just listened to the authority. Now her health is probably ruined for good. Bleh.

I find it horrific and unbelievable that a so-called "naturopath" would tell anyone to get the shot. That goes against everything they are taught. However, that this took place in Oregon is less surprising. As for the "patriot's" side, while many talk that way, after a year of violence, rioting, burning and destruction of businesses, I can't say as I blame them. What should have been done by any true American protecting "authority" and failed miserably is now in the hands of its citizens.

@Lakhana13: I too find it shocking that a naturopath would suggest getting the vax. I had been working with one re: my daughter and when this covid nonsense first began, I asked her for a medical exemption for my child (something I had been fighting for for 11 years). This doctor knew 100% of my daughter's history/the medical issues she had been having. When I called to request this, the following things happened:

- 1) I was immediately told that my phone conversation was being recorded.
- 2) That the doctor wouldn't provide a medical exemption as my daughter was not a patient of hers (for the sole reason that she hadn't been seen that year ... it was about 400 days since the last visit but since it didn't fall within 1 year/365 days, we were put on "inactive" status).
- 3) I kept pushing and the final answer from this practitioner was for my daughter to get the vaccine, THEN if she had a reaction, the doctor would write the exemption.

What if she died, then what? What if she developed some terrible neurological side effects? And what guarantee did I have that the doctor would follow thru on her promise to then write an exemption. The stupidity is beyond ridiculous.

BiomedMom1..OMG I am shocked even more by your post.....I do not grasp how a naturopath would/could do this. Are they being threatened to comply? It doesn't make sense to me. As a practitioner, those few I've seen, I have made it a point to try and educate them why NOT to take the shot. I send them videos, websites and clinical studies. Fortunately, most of them do understand and have live, critically thinking brain cells left. Sadly, my own sister took the shot months ago. I am still waiting to see what happens. So far so good but I cringe sometimes when the phone rings and it's her. I cannot tell her all that may happen because of the shot. I can only wait and try helping should problems arise.

Hi jca652041, I needed a laugh today, especially after reading this article about satire. Those of us who have wandered off to the woods rather than join the herd to be branded hopefully will get through this mess of a pandemic. I am hoping that COVID-19 goes the way of H1N1, SARS & MERS. There will be another pandemic but I hope it will be after my lifetime.

Like you, I have resisted the jab, but I haven't been quick to ask someone who questions me about my vaccinated state if he/she has herpes. You sound like a spitfire. I live in western North Carolina & almost no one wears a mask now. Also, since all the people who want to be vaccinated are likely vaccinated, no one talks about it anymore. I was the only one in my exercise class who didn't raise her hand when someone asked for a show of hands about vaccination. That person who asked for a show of hands is a perfect example of Gleichschaltung. If someone asked, I said I was working on keeping my immune system revved up. I am so sorry you had to quit your job. I didn't know Oregon was so restrictive. Since it's summer, COVID will drop & I am hoping the mainstream media can find something else to talk about. The truth about the lab origin of SARS-COV-2, PCR testing, the inability of asymptomatic people to spread the virus & mask ineffectiveness needs to be told, however. I am indebted to Dr. Mercola for these posts & helping to shine a light into this dark corner of COVID.

Thanks for making me laugh.

If there were at any time in history, to use it, it is now. It is not ours to initiate the first blow, but it is ours to defend our Life, Liberty and Pursuit of Happiness at any given second. Yet, it is a fault of ours not to have an organization prepared and willing to "spread-the-word" like Paul Revere's Midnight Ride. Yes, same occurred in 2008, when a lot of houses went into foreclosure, banks did not want them back in volume. Housing developers swept in to stake their claims, and were outbidding potential homeowners to obtain a block of properties (not nec a city block). Major western cities where the majority of crazy mortgages were granted without proof or evidence of ability to pay it back, were ones hit the hardest at that time. Now is basically along the lines that CA Fitts has predicted. The wealthy and the banks will take advantage of suffering middle class.

This corporate takeover of America has been going on for decades. It's was hard for me to grok why more doctors and medical professionals are not speaking out about the lies and un-scientific "facts" being spewed by mainstream media about the nature of the fake pandemic! Then I happened to watch the movie, "Dark Waters" about DuPont Chemical Corp poisoning the land and people in a town in West Virginia as they rolled out their...'Better Living Through Chemistry'... brand which brought Teflon and hundreds of other toxic chemicals (grandfathered in) into our homes and lives. And then , lo and behold, enter a widespread cancer epidemic. And don't you know that Dupont's cousin corporation, Big Pharma, brings us, wait for it, Chemotherapy.

So now, there's plastic in everything, including our food. Of course, we get cancer. We're eating, breathing and bathing in toxic chemicals. We have the Chemical Corps and Big Pharma creating the cancer protocols. DuPont creating the diagnostic films for imaging and other garbage. Big Pharma controlling the narrative in Medical Schools, brainwashing the young doctors and nurses who only have Pharmacology and Surgery as their skillset. So Chemo is the next and only logical step.

Mix that in with most people's inability to question authority (How could these Medical students ever think to question their professors? How could Big Pharma ever be corrupt? How can we not trust our elected officials and the government? Unheard of. This is America?) And there you have it...a completely instinct injured medical system. That's why I see doctors and nurses in my own community, wearing masks and taking the shot, they can't think for themselves and they're frightened like the rest of the sheep. Our democracy is dead. The world is never going back to the way it was. Most of our elected officials are bought and paid for by Big Pharma, Big Tech and/or the cabal of Technocrat Billionaires insinuating & manipulating the agenda.

Reiner Fuellmich (sp?) speaking to a Dutch interviewer said that eighty percent of a population are generally complacent and compliant. It is the twenty percent that have to change the tide against the tiny percent that are leveraging power over the whole. So that twenty percent is quite a lot of people in relation to the enacting rulers. At a personal level that means four fifths of those in our orbit are hypnotized, and close minded. That is a lot of people to feel estranged from.

Aside from yourself, Dr. Mercola, there are good and bad doctors as we see now. The good one are speaking up and the bad ones are too worried about protecting their careers. Those bad doctors are stuck in a bad place with their debt, and licenses on the line and they further made bad decisions without recalling their oaths to do "no harm". These bad doctors are victims of the system most likely but nonetheless they did not follow the oath and in fact they caused great harm to their patients and humanity. I still detest the term "vaccine" to describe this Mrna poison shot. I have no mercy for these bad doctors, now or ever. This genocide has become a matter of survival for humanity and no quarter shall be given for the participants.

God does not create class. We are all born in the same class, first class, even the poorest person, even those born blind, deaf, or without a limb are born in first class. First Class people: Free, able to think for themselves, to choose for themselves. Able to fight for their rights and freedoms. Proud to see and be seen, to listen and to be heard. Able to see, hear and fight evils when they emerge.

Second Class people: imprisoned, locked down, masked. Unable to think for themselves. Unable to choose. Vaccinated.

Second Class people are created by bureaucracies consisting of small and large communities of oppression - often consisting of unwitting individuals.

We must stand up and fight against the big corporations and the medical establishment because they are trying to take away our rights and freedoms. The wearing of masks and the coercion to force us to get vaccinated is not only a violation of our human rights but our very rights to exist since they are both unhealthy practices. For those who follow the Bible, Deuteronomy tells us "thou shalt not cut the skin." Our freedom to follow our religion is thus being compromised by vaccination.

This so called vaccine has nothing to do with the virus. It has No virus in it. It is to do with altering the immune system. The problem with that is that there is no way of knowing how your body will react to any other illness. So your immune system comes across a few lurking cancer cells. It may have NO IDEA, what to do with them.

The vaccine kills some soon after being given, my brother being one of them, but it may kill many others down the line.

What I have observed over several years is how True Americans, the "conservative" type have/are not organizer at all. We find ourselves with our pants down while the Marxist/democrats have been extremely well organized even longer. What "conservative-republicans" (real ones that is) have assumed has led to this. That assumption was basically, everything was fine and no, there are no communists lurking in politics or any other business. The scenario we find ourselves in did not just happen overnight. It has been brilliantly planned FOR DECADES! DECADES while we worked, prayed, and occasionally spoke out. And the elected, criminal, lawyer/politicians of BOTH parties laughed at our ignorance all the while moving the line one step further without anyone noticing. Some did and were ridiculed in the media. We are the ones scrambling to figure out what to do now and still are unorganized. In MI, there are fractured groups going after different aspects of the collapse and have yet to recognize each other and merge. And all the while the Kenyan-born PIMP and his minions keep hacking away at our country's foundation enjoying every minute of it.

I am among a few in MI trying to educate others but not enough are waking up I am afraid. They do not seem to be able to make the connections between the plandemic and the "social activist's" rioting.

You made a good point - this has been planned for a long time. We have been lulled into a false sense of security by all of our institutions for generations.

There is a book called 'The Most Dangerous Superstition' by Larkin Rose that describes how this gradual consolidation of power is managed - it's an inevitable result of our belief in 'Authority'. Authority will continue to encroach upon our rights as long as we give it legitimacy. For a larger perspective on our situation and an unexpected solution, it's worth checking out.

Understand the frustration, & surely we're living in a time when all men do what is right in their own eyes& there isn't yet that king deserved& given accordingly before the true& merciful comes, but this isn't an Ehud & Eglon styled issue; or even a David & Goliath: take out a leader, the head, & the thing collapses. This is a web & a thing with many heads.

And this isn't the young, bold, as yet uncompromised David we're dealing w/ in this nation or the other free nations of the world: it's post-Bathsheba& Uriah affair; post-ignoring Amnon's sin, & w/the paralysis of guilty conscience & being implicated in the thing hindering as Ahithophel's & Absalom's bitterness grew into conspiracy & rebellion. Pick a sinless, righteous side? This is the truth & reality, the tragedy, of the fallen human condition requiring real, righteous, sighted faith & the application of the sword that cuts both ways we're looking at.

It appears the time of judgment& consequence is upon us, but where are the wise King David's& men after God's own heart? Those who know the word like the back of their own hand, even as it clasps either sword or psaltery? And when the sword & instrument is of God,& not just the bloodlust sword of the world& its power, & the viols of Lucifer-Satan luring men to destruction, another lie& plot of Ahab& Jezebel seeking first to buy out Naboth's fidelity to God& his word to obtain his blessing; then, failing, creating a false narrative& lie of Naboth's supposed blasphemy so the people take him out& stone him, to obtain his vineyard illegitimately, going on as tho nothing happened w/ both waving arms& mobilizing legs yet intact& carrying them wherever they desired to go. right-left

But judgment came, & judgment will come. David's, Ahab's & Jezebel's judgments were separate & tailored to both their sins, & their whole-hearted, divided, or utterly absent faith in God's truth. Men will receive their false reward won by their own cunning & cleverness, a lie, first.

The percentage of the population against the Brits in the 1st American Revolution (my apologies to the brave Brits here) was somewhere between 3 -5 %. That's all it took to defeat King George. What I would like to know is WHERE are the supposed 76 - 80,000,000 Trump voters in all this? Even at just 5% of the American population, it would be a mere 35,000,000 Americans. So where are they?

A few percent will do. One organization that is doing what it takes is CSPOA, Constitutional Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association, led by former sheriff Richard Mack. There is one led by Catherine Austin Fitts. Mercola is another. Lindell is another. There is Brighteon, Rumble, MeWe, Gab, BitChute and others. The Healthy American, website led by Pastor's wife, Peggy Hall (in Orange County California, she goes unmasked and helps others do the same). Sadly, I suspect the majority will never wake up. They will be dead from the vaccine. Survivors will investigate all vaccines, and the truth will end that practice.

A big problem is figuring out what to do. This is not a typical war. People talk about getting guns and watering the tree of freedom, blah, blah...but WHAT do they intend to shoot? So far this has not been fought with guns, so it's stupid to think our guns can save us. They are attacking us on so many levels. Cutting us off on various levels of the hierarchy of needs. By reducing us to dependency they can swoop in and enslave us. We need to figure out how to meet our own needs. Form islands of sanity and prepare to be cut off.

Lockdown was a form of siege. They have other ways to pull similar tricks in the future. A major problem is 18th century America could care for herself without shipping things in from England. It was a Declaration of Independence. Are we self sufficient enough to declare our independence and cut off the institutions forcing this on us?

Madfusco reply, all through history people rely on leaders when we do not need them. All through history the majority wins. look at religions as example there is always tick for tack moves because the population is always divided weather by religions, or politics or vaccine believers to non vaccine believers. when populations are divided on issues of life then its always will be they make move we make move but nothing ever changes for the better. There needs to be a common awareness or else its all just fighting all the time between the beliefs and ours(which is more logical)...

. Here is a question, a fundamental question: is life a torture? It is, as it is; and man has lived in this torture centuries upon centuries, from ancient history to the present day, in agony, in despair, in sorrow; and he doesn't find a way out of it.

Therefore he invents gods, churches, all the rituals, and all that nonsense, or he escapes in different ways. What we are trying to do, during all these discussions and talks here, is to see if we cannot radically bring about a transformation of the mind, not accept things as they are, nor revolt against them.

Revolt doesn't answer a thing. You must understand it, go into it, examine it, give your heart and your mind, with everything that you have, to find out a way of living differently. That depends on you, and not on someone else, because in this there is no teacher, no pupil; there is no leader; there is no guru; there is no Master, no Saviour. You yourself are the teacher and the pupil; you are the Master; you are the guru; you are the leader; you are everything. And to understand is to transform what is.

I think that will be enough, won't it?" — Jiddu Krishnamurti

As the planet tried to virtualize everything, I've de-virtualized, except for platforms like this. But I don't think the proper way to enlighten people is always to confront them on the whole thing, but to dole out the most easily digestible and tastiest tidbits of the lowest-hanging fruit from a sympathetic angle, to open the door for people to recognize this lunacy for it is of their own accord. It may be easier to fool people than convince them they've been fooled, but it can be done if they simply realize they've been lied to. "Corporations never lie to us, do they?"

The internet has been a far more effective tool for misinformation than information. But cracks are forming, such as the Fauci emails and more and more prominent and very mainstream doctors and researchers issuing dire warnings against the jabs. And these will increase, and in concert with people's personal experiences, the truth will gain momentum.

When confronting people who are "just following orders" as described about 48 minutes into the video, it is most important for US to be the cool-headed ones, and let THEM be the hysterical ones. Always act from a position of strength, for we truly ARE in the position of strength, but so many simply don't know it - yet. When I've been in line I've been often making small talk about how silly the whole thing is, and have found a surprising percentage of people who agree. Sometimes it just takes one person to point out the emperor is wearing nothing.

In an ironic vein, this lunacy about getting jabbed or wearing a mask has led me to re-think people wearing masks. It can now be regarded as a badge of honor of sorts, like rappers embracing the n-word. Say it aloud, I'm unjabbed and I'm proud!

I am in total shock at my age that the World has come to this. I used to teach and saw stupid coming. I have had several careers and saw stupid coming. I watched people have kids and although they did what parents were supposed to do I saw stupid coming. I notice people talking loud and dangerous and it sounds like they will convince many and did, and now we have stupid in the White House. I now pin my hopes on checking the facts and for that I thank you for providing them, however stupid doesnt like that. I wait for the Nuremberg trials to shine the light on stupid, however during this time stupid says wear a mask, get a vax, stay in step. When stupid is found guilty at Nuremberg how many of them will be sentenced ? This is a trial run for stupid and stupid will not give up. That is my fear. However, stupid being stupid will always be outsmarted and this is what I am looking for. To all the smart people, the ones that still read, the ones that still debate instead of being beat down, thank you for not being stupid!

In Houston, Texas the nurses, techs and doctors at Methodist Hospital are refusing the Covid jab - you can go to <https://gofund.me/06fcefdb> to help them. This could be our best chance at getting the passport dumped. Wait a minute - they are pressuring them in Texas? It looks like we are being forced into a civil war. What they are trying to do is illegal and immoral. It's evil! Fighting it is a cause worth dying for. We owe it to future generations to leave to them a world worth living in. Yeah, I will fight to my death if that is what it takes. Without freedom and liberty, without accountability and compassion, we have NOTHING!

Learning to position oneself legally is absolutely essential. The law all across the world is based on biblical principles and by using their own laws against these people have been able to put a dent in the plans. Find Alfonse Faggiolo (iamhassentmetoyou.com) who had been using affidavits to great success and telegram group (of his name) with a quickly growing group of people all over the world (7600 ppl) who are helping each other with their legal issues. Randy Kelton (ruleoflawradio.com) who quietly got a criminal complaint entered against Gov Abbott of Texas, which coincidentally followed with Abbott dropping allrestrictions in Texas and then 20 other states followed (you can find his 153 pg complaint on his site, it could be edited for use in other locations) as well as using Bar grievances against attorneys and judicial complaints against judges which can be powerful as these positions rely on insurance to continue in their jobs, Steve Emerson (Florida, not sure about a site) has had a lot of success helping ppl sue people in the system), Peggy Hall (thehealthyamerican.com), lots of goods information and documents that can be used to not be coerced in illegally "mandates."

Yesterday I did just what CJ Hopkins said. I did not pull up my mask when I was grocery shopping in Greece, and the cashier asked me to pull it up. It created a big stir with everyone in line, the cashiers, the customers. I kept repeating that I as a human being have the right to breathe. I said, "It's now over a year and half and it makes no sense to not allow us as human beings to breathe naturally." People were paying attention. I got push back that I should follow the rule, someone asked me to step away from them, but it felt good, in a kind of awakening feeling. A small protest... just a drop in the bucket but some attention on the insane rules that are still being mandated.

The discussion of trusting authority has brought up a traumatic incident, for me. When I was three years old, my father was pulled over for a motor vehicle violation, not speeding - it was on a street just around the corner from where we lived. Well, the policeman decided to arrest him, and when he put the handcuffs on him, I started to cry and begged him not to take him away - I became hysterical, but to no avail. He took him away in the handcuffs - and I was inconsolable, as we walked home, my mother, two brothers and I. Not long after this, I went out one day looking for him. I walked to where I could see the place it happened. It wasn't far from the school where my older brother was going to kindergarten. I walked onto the lawn, and fell asleep. The next thing I knew a young policeman was tapping me, asking me if I was alright. I said yes, He asked me if I was lost, and I said no because I lived just around the corner. He drove me around the corner, and he parked a few houses back from where I lived. I told him about what had happened to my Father, and that I wanted to go to the police station to see him. He said he didn't think he would still be there, now. Then I saw my Mother coming up the street. I was still determined to find my Father, so I didn't want to get out of the patrol car, only when my Mother started to cry, I went with her. I didn't remember this until I started having flashbacks, in my dreams as an adult, and I asked my mother if the incident happened, and she said yes, you were hysterical. The ramifications of authorities. I'm not anti- police, I actually support them, but I have had many questions, regarding civil liberties, and human rights. Because we have camaraderie here, I'm able to share this.

I usually travel light, but on my first road trip in 2 years I decided to welcome back small businesses by spending a bit. Bisbee, AZ was still, strangely, masking up in many places. My sister knew a cafe/gift shop/grocery place she wanted to order pizza. Signs on the doors demanded masks which even in New Mexico the Covidiot's weren't enforcing. She masklessly ordered with no issues while I attempted to purchase a small $20.00 item. The cashier bristled, asking where my mask was. I told her I don't mask. She wagged a box of China made surgical masks at me with a smug smile. I set my item down quietly saying " you must not need my business" much to her shock. My sister was instructed to pay that same cashier as they started cooking her pizza. I saw her money was taken with no mask issues, so I rejoined her, saying " The CDC..." " We don't adhere to the CDC, she interrupted. " This is our hooooome. We require you to wear a mask". She didn't realize my sister and I were together, and discriminated against me but not her. I asked if she also required crutches or wheelchairs to be served. She ordered me to leave the premises, slammed my sister's pizza down and snarled she wouldn't be welcome back in the future. I embarrassed my sister, but had to explain just because I'm not gay or " of color" I was still discriminated against while she wasn't, and it was just as wrong. Sis vaguely agreed, but I suspect she still thought I was just being a jerk...

So many masochistic fools enjoy this hell-on-earth dystopia. Too bad we can't hog tie every one of the idiots and hand them over to the NWO to have their way with.

I avoid them as much as possible. No need to segregate me. The mask zealots, snitches, and "Karens" should be regarded as Klaus Schwab's foot soldiers. This dystopia is only possible thanks to the Judas next door. Unlike the Holocaust there is no "blue eyed" race to benefit. We're all "Jews." Not the mass majority. Only a little over half. There are pockets of sanity. I will spend this summer trying to wake up the fellow freedom lovers who just haven't figured out what's going on yet. There are people not worth bothering with though. Not just wearers of the mask but lovers of it. Not just essential for a sense of security but how they identify. They brag about shunning others (Lockdowns) and not only boast about their "vaccine" card but shame you for not. What can you do with these pieces of work?

I left Facebook willingly. Only went to "jail" one time for quoting someone else who had issued a death threat on my people. That was called "hate speech" for me. But not the woman who originated the threat.

here in Melbourne Australia their NLP is working....So many people are running to get the jab after, yet another lockdown. Its bizarre. I am sure the latest so called outbreak, cluster, was a ploy to drive people by fear to get the jab. We are still not allowed to go past 28 ks!! How insane. And masks are mandated to be worn inside and outside, please!!! So people are muzzling up!! Not me! Here people are still believing in all the BS re the deaths. I am still unsure what the truth is re this. They are now saying to people they need to tell those who, for example, maybe at a supermarket and show signs of sniffle they should say to them to go get a test. And this other one 'we won't be safe until we are all safe' re getting the vaccine. In this state of Melbourne well its communist Melbourne, Victoria. I know quite a few people don't buy the BS. I sure as hell don't. I am unwell, with a nasty lung disease, I am old, but there is no way I would get that jab. According to MSM we have only had two deaths here from the AstraZeneca jab. I wonder how true this is!!!

Hi Julia, Here in WA a few weeks ago we also had a one week lockdown and mandatory masks. I asked a number of my clients an "indirect" question... "What % of the population do you think are wearing masks, not because they think they should, but so others wont confront them." They all said in the region of 90% . This is how we manipulate ourselves.

Lakhana, you are so right about people being quiet about these immoral masks. I wore one for a few days in August 2020, but by September I had found out that masks, 6 foot distancing and handwashing are part of Satanic initiation ceremonies. I absolutely will not wear one now, except if I should visit certain fanatic family members. I have a medical condition that let me say "I cannot wear a mask safely," and people respected that. But I never regarded as enuf just to avoid suffocating myself. Every time I saw another unmasked face, I thanked them for showing their God-given face.

Esther, I just found that out too. Force us to practice Satanic ceremonies and ban church gatherings. Forsaking the Assembly has become permanent in many places. Things are back to a temporary normal in my rural county in a red state. I'm going to have a series of "Truth Parties" at a local diner that stayed open. About 10 dinners with 8 guests around a table. I'll arrange a power point on my laptop and hand out some leaflets. And homemade quinine. If each shares the leaflets with 3-5 others, pretty soon 300 will have woken up. We can figure out ways to work together. What lockdown was meant to prevent. I also plan on sharing how to implement this over Brighteon.

If there is a two tier society I want to be on the outside. My guess is those people won't be masked and "socially" distanced since they're already lepers. I want no part of the oligarchy's New Abnormal. If anyone escapes the impending slavery it will be little pockets of us Savages breaking away. Brave New World style. Let the masochistic morons spend their wretched "lives" in efficiency apartments, seldom allowed to leave, tracked and traced everywhere, with masks resembling feed bags for the cattle they so longed to become. Hoping to find a community and self sustain with help from a few others. This whole thing is turning me into a misanthrope. Maybe it's just that the new breed of homo sapiens have gone full Eloi. There's nothing to do but let the Morlocks have them.

mnpearl... Likewise. We had some terrible mandate enforcement in this Democrat state. Heavy fines for minor mask infractions.

There is something new in the wind. Sudden change. I went to town today and noticed very few people wearing masks. Earlier, I did the minimum possible since I could not afford fines and did not want to draw attention to myself. Ridiculous. I wore the face shield. However, between my glasses and naturally curly hair, it would ride up and often ended up more like a visor than a shield. No matter. No one cared as long as I went thru the motions of complying. People are fed up. If anyone comments, I will ask them if they are inquiring about my medical records--because, by law, this is a violation of my privacy that can be prosecuted. Personally, I don't believe most people give a rip. We have heard the dire statistics, but not seen the bodies piled high on street corners if that were the honest truth. We know the data we are given is unreliable in every way, from the tests to the case numbers. People are starting to question things--esp. when they know more people dying of the jab than covid. Flip-Flop- Fauci cried wolf once too often and has lost his credibility. I do not believe enlightened people will return to the days of yore. The sheeple will be cowering in the face of the pushback.

The present political administration has little power. The greater threat to liberty is that tyrants come forward to fill the void. Much will depend on where the loyalty of troops and (constitutional) sheriffs lie. Today, I have hope. My thoughts are the same as when I was diagnosed with advanced cancer. I had no fear of dying because I expected to survive, recover and overcome. The question in the forefront of my mind was, "How much hell will I need to go thru before that happens?" A wise doctor told me that survivors are easy to recognize because they are hard-wired differently from the get-go. Learn to identify survivors.

What so many right wing Americans can't grasp. Who are they proposing to shoot? The local police? The snitch next door? You can't morally run around shooting people just for being jerks. The positive side? This current system won't last long. It isn't meant to. The real challenge is keeping order and structure amid the orchestrated chaos.

Actions points if spread too far apart may not lead the observer to connect the dots or to believe that their is something there of importance as I suspect media stories without follow up leave the TV viewer believing less than more that it is significant.

Maximum censorship and purging, heavy pressure to be vaccinated, and other measures by which powerful entities overplay their hand are now, in my view, HIGHLY DESIRABLE, as they furnish the perfect environment for the speedy development of Web 3.0 and of early movements toward the network state, phenomena that may restore freedom, property, reliable contracts, free speech, exchange, low time preferences, and the process of civilization. Some years of misery can help to support a beautiful future. I may be overly optimistic, but I am very much enjoying present circumstances, as, for the first time in decades, I have hope for the future.

HIPAA regulations are all about the privacy of your medical information and the security of your information. Immunized or not, you do not have to tell anyone your private medical information. However, note that HIPAA regulations only apply to medical organizations. A commercial business or your employer can ask if you have been vaccinated. But, you do not have to answer. If they ask why you are not vaccinated, they are treading on thin ice. If you feel compelled to answer such a question, they may be forcing you to unwillingly disclose a disability and this could get them into discrimination trouble.

I guess it's better late than never, but as a lifelong leftist, this guy was for decades aiding and abetting, or at least not opposing, the globalists' Cultural Marxism that carries a big part of the blame for the sh.thole our world has become in the last 50 years. Legions of useful idiots (how true) have contributed to that decline, including, sadly, people from my own family. They believed - uncritically - all the garbage that was pouring out of the idiot box, imagining they were modern and progressive... while looking down on more reasonable people as old-fashioned, reactionaries and other epithets the Marxists were hanging on them. And the globalists were salivating behind the scenes. That it takes massive depopulation in actual progress to wake them up from their leftist stupor proves just how died-in-the-wool they were/are. Elsewhere it's reported that 90% of Democrats are planning to have the injection, while only 50% of Republicans. Karma? Everybody, particularly leftists, that come to their senses should be at the forefront in the fight against the globalists. They now know the difference between good and evil.

I usually don't comment when there have already been so many, but this issue has been the focus of my work.

"Where does the concept of lockdown come from? Prison." One of the most deeply-held secrets of this planet is that it IS a prison. You will not find this data unless you go way out on the "fringes" of serious thought. L. Ron Hubbard, Courtney Brown; people like that. You won't even find this data in the "New Age" channeled data, which is quite voluminous. It is not a prison for bodies; it is a prison for spiritual beings.

Remnants of the power group that installed the control system here still exist. They have seen the people of this planet rise out of their last cataclysm (approx. 12,000 years ago) and reestablish here a post-industrial civilization capable of space travel and deep levels of self-awareness. This level of development here is very threatening to the "prison wardens." They are now desperate to find some way to keep us under control even as we discover ways to avoid their control forever. This is the actual big picture as I see it. No recent social events of a calamitous nature have NOT involved external influence. External to this planet.

The issues and observations of people who see the obvious push towards a loss of freedom are astute and well-taken. But all that can be generated from this alone is a sort of crude social/political resistance. We need much better than that to actually succeed. We need the ability to be genuinely spiritually free. This is a new look for all but a few commentators. I hope that more will at least start talking about it.

Posted On 06/13/2021

RCaugh

Unfortunately, the voices of the resistance grow weaker and weaker so that there simply is no venue for us to gather in strength and numbers to matter. At this point, all I'm hoping for is the ability to be left alone to choose not to take the experimental drug. Convincing others even just to wait on the drug doesn't work anymore, most I know have succumbed and survived, so just think I'm a nut case.

Posted On 06/13/2021

RCough - that's their plan, they can't kill too many people at once (for now) -- the majority received watered down "vaccine" or pure saline. We appear nut cases without credibility anymore, the injected feel good and are absolutely confident to run again for the next shots and busters, one of which may be the fatal.

Explain to them, they are now self-enrolled in the slave herd and will participate in never ending Russian rulettes (no Russians involved, though!).

A lot of people did die. But out of 7,700,000,000 only 1,000,000 is pretty small. NOT the Spanish flu. More like the Hong Kong Flu that happened while the youngsters went to Woodstock.

The lockdown and masks do not work. Compare New York to North Dakota. Or California to Florida.

There were sane, sensible ways this could have been dealt with. Focus on protecting those in nursing homes and retirement centers where most of the deaths occurred, encourage the elderly to stay home and let the rest build herd immunity. It would have ended by fall of 2020.

Ventilation, Vitamin D3, lose weight if obese, if sick self quarantine and avoid the ER with Invermectin, HQ, zinc. Use the hydrogen peroxide nebulizer treatments Dr. Mercola has recommended.

Shannonaz, I think that any workers required by their place of employment to get vaccinated, should be insured BY THE EMPLOYER to cover any life-long lost wages and medical care due to harm by the vaccine. They should also be compensated for pain and suffering. Employees should not be forced to take on a risk that could cost them their health, ability to support themselves, pain and suffering, and even their lives, in order to keep their jobs. I hope to see any employee who was forced by their employer to be vaccinated, and was then harmed by that vaccine, to successfully sue their employer for damages. Unfortunately this will not restore their health, but at least this will offer some compensation, and hopefully discourage these employers from continuing to require vaccines.

Good luck getting Germans to rebel. Historically they have always been sheep.

Are not the German people critical thinkers or have they lost this crucial function too?

Interesting re US as opposed to Europe. I'm in the UK, have never worn a mask, to start with had a thing saying exempt, I wrote it. Now I don't bother with it nor dose my husband, children, or grandchildren. No one ever says anything. I don't think they will ultimately get round to the vaccine passport. How can they check. I have no smart phone so cannot do it digitally, many others don't either. Today I spoke to a Lithuanian at a "stand in the Park" demo. Lithuania have just cancelled their vaccine passport so has Israel, it just didn't work. Businesses were not going to turn away customers because they hadn't got it. Some European Countries are back to normal, a friend went to Gibraltar last week to visit relations. She told me all was normal, went clubbing Saturday night then to the Casino. No distancing, no masks. The UK seems to be the most pathetic of all, just some of us rebelling, but not enough. Jennifer

Probably the most important article to date on mercola.com and goes some way to explaining the Trump phenomenon. "Suddenly around 2016, there was Brexit and Trump and various reactionary populist movements rising up in Europe.....I can't help but see the rollout of the 'new normal' and this whole narrative.....as a more totalitarian version of global capitalist society." The Boris Broadcasting Corporation did an effective hatchet job on Trump - not too difficult bearing in mind Trump's lack of linguistic skills and odd appearance. But, love him or loathe him and assuming his election was not rigged, it seemed to reflect a spontaneous rejection by the U.S.electorate of the politically correct narrative.

Brexit is trickier to analyse, as it was the Tory party who took us both into the European Union and out of it but endless, superfluous bureaucratic EU diktats helped cement the Brexit following - little point in exchanging the excesses of Wastemonster for those of Brussels. The big surprise was having elected the mainly pro Brexit party, its leaders turned out to be neither pro- nor anti- Brexit but just a kabal of globalist fellow travellers, agenda hidden in plain sight, proving once and for all that party politics are a side show, the old colonial trick of divide and conquer a distraction from the main agenda. Remember 'Tory Blair' was not a misprint of his first name but a comment on his politics.

"The main enemy is humanity itself" from the bio of Klaus Schwab, link provided by Panamadana (comments page 10th June). Thanks, Panamadana, for that very revealing link: unlimitedhangout.com/2021/02/investigative-reports/schwab-family-value.. Once a Na-zi, always a Na-zi. That particular leopard does not change its spots. Call it what you want - the new world order, the swamp, the Great Reset, the World Economic Forum, Agenda 21, The Fourth Industrial Revolution, The Bilderberg Foundation, the BMGF, The Club of Rome, the Trilateral Commission, "Build Back Better" or read the Schwab bio plus the Amazon reviews of his scribblings. Why was he not arrested after submitting the proof to his publisher of his homicidal plans? Is it now acceptable to advertise your crimes before committing them? First create a problem, add in some fear and hysteria, offer only one solution, the sheople will not only accept it, be thankful for it but will worship you as their saviour. The fulfilment of the Na-zi dream is not too far away. unlimitedhangout.com/2021/02/investigative-reports/schwab-family-value..

No, the Conservatives took us into "The Common Market" that bore practically no resemblance to the EU. It was just about creating a level playing field for trade. That is why it was called The Common Market!!!! It never even did that. Then it was not about a Federal Europe with laws made by unelected Commissioners or total loss of Sovereignty.

Thank goodness we got our lives back, (well except for the evil lies about the FLU which will ultimately wreck the world except for the Elite billionaires who want most of us dead and the few left slaves). Still I'd rather risk it all outside the EU!

Hmm! Milton Mayer, another native Chicagoan, an ever skeptical and sarcastic brood. Must be something in the water. Tiresome and historical inaccurate to hear this harping on the  as the fulminators of all evil because the roots of their fulminations in part began with Woodrow Wilson and The Committee on Public Information [see George Creel, How We Advertised America] that employed such later "influencers" as Ernest Bernays and Walter Lippman. The rise and enthronement of social sciences and psychology, as in the earlier French sociologists, together with mass printing and the mass distribution of its products, led to where we is today. A long, winding, torturous road, on a never completed journey. Oh yea, Wilson's presidency ended badly with the suspicion that Edith, wife #2, was the power behind the throne. A little more than a century later looks like history is rhyming with Biden and his #2.

They even tried to shout Mercola down with threats even the Text book you have supposed to have 'learned from'....are all printed and EDITED by the same slime that edits everything they don't want the average person to KNOW..or question.....simply put all you KNOW is what someone or thing TOLD you to know...

And reading some 'newspaper or magazine" is NOT KNOWING....only what some assumed 'Journalist' wants YOU to know...and since you wasn't there to see and witness the event or scientific occurrence.....all you know is what some one ASSUMED to Know or was told to print or say.....

Receive the truth in this....but most certainly not the 'white' hat/'black' hat, 'white' Pope/'black' Pope assumptions woven in & throughout this man's interpretation of both the problem and his solution to it.

Men aren't looking high enough & making idols of mere men only leads to the antichrist solution & delusion & kingdom...the very problem they seek to escape. Turning from this fallen & insufficient man & system to that heading another arm of the same system winking at & denying the whole truth, & not permitting it to be spoken as 'divisive'.....is ultimately self-defeating not only in the temporal, but also in the eternal. Trump is part of the world's system, & with other elites left & right, bows to & serves the antichrist placeholder & its Babylonian system drawing all in to serve its ends & spirit. More vain Genesis 11, 2 Corinthians 11, John 3:1-21 trans-formation & craft: and not that true also presented in John 3:1-21 (God's word accomplishing what its sent for), and Romans 12, 1&2 Peter, 1-3 John & Jude KJB. Also Acts 20 & Revelation 2&3; Zechariah & Hebrews.

Firstly, I do not see a difference between a vaccination card, a passport, and a driving license. All of which show some kind of proof. Getting a Flu shot carries a "card" of sorts as it is documented. Parents must show proof of vaccination for their children in order to prevent the spread of disease within the classroom. Secondly, I think we need to be very careful in suggesting that we are using Nazi era tactics without sufficient proof. This just creates dissonance, fear and anger that may not be merited.

A drivers license and passport are not injected into human tissue and do you truly believe once such a card or passport was put into place sheep would not be able to escape annual mandatory injections for whatever big pharma believes you need? Just how trusting and of critical thought are you?
