The COVID-19 pandemic is being used to facilitate the efforts of a select few to create a one-world government with power concentrated in the hands of an elitist group of billionaires.

In March 2020, the United Nations New World Order (UNNWO) announced their annual International Day of Happiness global campaign, along with a call for solidarity and unity in the global fight against COVID-19.¹ The campaign theme, according to UNNWO, was:²

"... a call on all 7.8 billion members of the global human family, and all 206 nations and territories of planet earth, to unite in solidarity, and steadfast resolve, in fighting back against the COVID 19 Coronavirus ..."

While the UNNWO sustainability goals, such as addressing poverty, hunger, polluted waterways, and more, sound admirable,³ they rely on one-world government manipulations such as media censorship, mass surveillance of citizens and total governmental control of your health care decisions, as I will explain in detail in this article.

One clear example of the dangers of one-world initiatives is the World Health Organization's Immunization Agenda 2030, in which the aim is to vaccinate everyone across the globe.⁴

Bill Gates of the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, a big WHO funder, has stated he intends to vaccinate the global population against COVID-19,⁵ and then track and monitor each person through digital surveillance.⁶ The Rockefeller Foundation also supports mass-tracking of the citizenry – all under the guise of "public health."⁷ The reasoning for this is to stop the pandemic.

But, will a gigantic global disease surveillance system created under the pretext of COVID-19 be dismantled once the pandemic is declared over? Or, will it simply morph into other surveillance functions also presented as mechanisms to protect the "public health?"

Vaccine Mania Has Gripped the Nation

As the COVID-19 pandemic passed its six-month mark and the number of reported cases in some countries and states rose, the focus on a vaccine intensified, with numerous vaccine makers vying to be first with results.

That distinction came in mid-July, when the initial results from a clinical trial of a vaccine candidate developed by Moderna, sponsored by the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases, received a positive write-up in The New England Journal of Medicine (NEJM)⁸ and pleased Wall Street.⁹

What's interesting is that Moderna has "never produced an approved vaccine or run a large trial," according to Stat News. Yet, it seized the COVID-19 opportunity¹⁰ and forged ahead. When you think about it, though, the exuberance over the vaccine candidate is irrational.

First, as with all vaccines, adverse effects can and will sometimes occur. Even fiercely pro-vaccine advocates have expressed concerns about possible adverse effects of a hurried-up COVID-19 vaccine.

From Bill Gates¹¹ (more on that later in this article) to Merck CEO Kenneth Frazier,¹² to rotavirus vaccine inventor Dr. Paul Offit¹³ — who once held the Merck-endowed chair in vaccinology¹⁴ at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia — high-profile individuals are talking about it.

Offit expressed reservations about how fast the vaccine companies were pushing development of the vaccine, and warned of possible safety and efficacy problems that could occur from giving it to thousands of people "without a large safety and efficacy trial."

Frazier had similar concerns, with a more strongly-worded comment: "If you're going to use a vaccine on billions of people, you better know what that vaccine does." Along that same line of thinking is the concern – as with all vaccines – that the immunity and/or duration is not assured because the "immunity" is not naturally acquired.

Another concern is that contact tracing and computer apps to determine the whereabouts and contacts of a person who may have been exposed are much too aggressive. For example, even if someone has no symptoms of COVID-19, governments, whether local or national, will have the ability to quarantine a person against their will, according to a YouTuber who recounts her contact tracing training in a video.¹⁵

Moreover, according to top legal scholar Alan Dershowitz,¹⁶ a 115-year-old U.S. Supreme Court ruling allows authorities to legally inoculate someone with a vaccine against their will for the purpose of safeguarding public health. On the other hand, they cannot do so if the vaccine is intended only to protect a person's personal health, he says.

While other legal scholars debate just how far the federal government can go with this,¹⁷ such threats to your rights and health continue to grow. And, certain media groups, who should be supporters of free speech, are leading the charge to take away your free speech rights. Standing at the forefront, the liberal "fact-checking" group Media Matters is trying to discredit vaccine safety groups who they believe could stand in the way of worldwide vaccination.¹⁸

Media Matters Pushes Censorship of Vaccine Safety Groups

A smear piece from Media Matters, titled "The Most Notorious Anti-Vax Groups Use Facebook to Lay the Groundwork Against the Novel Coronavirus Vaccine,"¹⁹ lays the groundwork for discrediting the National Vaccine Information Center (NVIC), Children's Health Defense and Informed Consent Action Network. The article begins by casting such groups as a threat during COVID-19:²⁰

"As novel coronavirus cases spike in the U.S. and numerous efforts are underway to develop a vaccine, the most prominent U.S. anti-vaccination organizations are using Facebook and other social media platforms to poison the well against a potential vaccine."

Media Matters is angry that Facebook allows the groups' social media communications to appear educational rather than branding them as "vaccine misinformation." This is especially important, writes Media Matters, because support for vaccination among the general public is falling:²¹

"Support in the U.S. for vaccination generally has been on a downward trend for the past two decades. A January 2020 poll released by Gallup found that 84% of Americans believe it is 'important' to vaccinate children, down from 94% in 2001.

The poll found that support for vaccination has declined 'among almost all subgroups of the U.S. public.' Gallup attributed the decline in support for vaccination to the spread of false information about vaccines, in particular the debunked link between vaccines and autism."

Vaccination Is Becoming a Hard Sell

Media Matters cites a 2014 study published in the journal *Pediatrics*²² that identified four ways in which the desirability of vaccination is promoted and how none of the messages is working. The four attempts to "reduce vaccine misperceptions and increase vaccination rates for measles-mumps-rubella (MMR)" were listed by the journal as:²³

- Information explaining the lack of evidence that MMR causes autism from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
- Textual information about the dangers of the diseases prevented by MMR from the Vaccine Information Statement
- Images of children who have diseases prevented by the MMR vaccine
- A dramatic narrative about an infant who almost died of measles from a Centers for Disease Control and Prevention fact sheet

However, the messages are not working and possibly even backfiring, says Media Matters.²⁴ [And] "... attempts to 'correct false claims about vaccines may be especially likely to be counterproductive.'"

The messages likely backfire because Big Pharma and its buddy, Big Biotech, suffer from a credibility problem — in the case of Big Pharma, from the many medications it has withdrawn after assuring the public they were safe.²⁵ Moreover, "anti-vaccination content" — as Media Matters calls it — may be more compelling than messages designed to sell vaccination:²⁶

"Another negative factor in play at Facebook and other social media outlets is that research suggests that anti-vaccination content tends to be more popular than pro-vaccine content and anti-vaccine messages ..."

The messages are also likely ringing stronger with younger people who tend to be the biggest users of social media, Media Matters admits:²⁷

"According to a report from Center for Countering Digital Hate ... Americans who 'use social media more than traditional media to access news and updates about Covid' say that they will get vaccinated against coronavirus at a rate 10 points lower compared to those who primarily consume traditional media."

Media Matters Has a Huge Influence on Mainstream Media

Media Matters' initial $2 million in funding came from wealthy progressives via the Tides Foundation,²⁸ with additional funding from MoveOn.org and the New Democrat Network, according to National Review.²⁹ In 2010, George Soros, one of the richest people in the world, gave the group $1 million, according to The New York Times.³⁰

The self-proclaimed "fact checking group," founded by conservative-turned-progressive David Brock,³¹ states that its mission is to counteract conservative media, and it has been very successful. According to the Daily Caller:³²

"The group scored its first significant public coup in 2007 with the firing of host Don Imus from MSNBC. Just before Easter that year, a Media Matters employee recorded Imus's now-famous attack on the Rutgers women's basketball team, and immediately recognized its inflammatory potential.

The organization swung into action, notifying organizations like the NAACP, the National Association of Black Journalists, and Al Sharpton's National Action Network, all of which joined the fight ... By the end of the week, Imus was fired."

Media Matters then enlisted the National Hispanic Media Coalition, League of United Latin American Citizens and similar groups to pressure CNN advertisers to oust anchor Lou Dobbs from CNN for alleged racist comments.³³ In November 2009, Dobbs left CNN, and the Daily Caller quotes a Media Matters staffer who said, "We got him fired."³⁴

Media Matters also launched what they dubbed a "campaign to expose Glenn Beck's racist rhetoric in an effort to educate advertisers about the practices on his show." The campaign facilitated his departure from Fox News.³⁵

Media Matters is also able to place their biased stories in mainstream outlets as real news. According to the Daily Caller, sources from the organization bragged about planting stories in The Washington Post, San Francisco Chronicle, Los Angeles Times and on blogs such as the Daily Kos, Salon and HuffPost. They also reported a warm reception at The New York Times:³⁶

"Jim Rainey at the LA Times took a lot of our stuff," the staffer continued. "So did Joe Garofoli at the San Francisco Chronicle. We've pushed stories to Eugene Robinson and E.J. Dionne [at the Washington Post]. Brian Stelter at the New York Times was helpful.

Ben Smith [formerly of Politico, now at BuzzFeed.com] will take stories and write what you want him to write," explained the former employee, whose account was confirmed by other sources. Staffers at Media Matters "knew they could dump stuff to Ben Smith, they knew they could dump it at Plum Line [Greg Sargent's Washington Post blog], so that's where they sent it."

As described by Sharyl Attkisson, the impact of Media Matters is of concern to everyone:³⁷

"The problem is, too many news organizations and even journalism groups such as Poynter use Media Matters and their affiliates as if they are legitimate news sources. They are either unforgivably ignorant of Media Matters' slants – or choose to keep readers in the dark because they agree with the slant.

One major interest Media Matters and its affiliates have served over the years is that of the pharmaceutical industry. They often smear scientists and journalists who report on prescription drug and vaccine safety issues, falsely labelling them as 'anti-vaccine.' Of course, that's like saying that because I broke news about problems with Firestone tires, I am 'anti-tire,' or because I have exposed fraud within charities, I am 'anti-charity.' Silly."

COVID-19 and Vaccines Are a Pathway to Billionairehood

Forbes compiled a list of 10 health care billionaires who have profited since COVID-19 was declared a global pandemic. Topping the list was Stéphane Bancel, CEO of Moderna, whose vaccine candidate trial results were published by NEJM.³⁸ According to Forbes:³⁹

"When the WHO declared a pandemic, Bancel's estimated net worth was some $720 million. Since then, Moderna's stock has rallied more than 103%, lifting his fortune to an estimated $1.5 billion. A French citizen, Bancel first joined the billionaire ranks on April 2, when Moderna's stock rose on the news that the firm was planning to begin phase two trials of its vaccine."

Bancel is far from the only person who has become a "biotech billionaire" thanks to the lucrative development of COVID-19 vaccines, treatments and diagnostic tools solicited by governments and funded by taxpayers. Others include:⁴⁰

- 1. Gustavo Denegri — With a net worth of $4.5 billion, Denegri has a 45% stake in the Italian biotech company DiaSorin.
- 2. Seo Jung-Jin — With a net worth of $8.4 billion, Jung-Jin co-founded Celltrion, a biopharma company in Seoul.

3. Alain Mérieux – With a net worth of $7.6 billion, Mérieux's grandfather founded BioMérieux, a French multinational biotech company.
4. Maja Oeri – With a net worth of $3.2 billion, Oeri is a descendent of Fritz Hoffmann-La Roche, the founder of pharmaceutical giant Roche and owns about 5% of Roche's shares.
5. Leonard Schleifer – With a net worth of $2.2 billion, Schleifer's wealth is attributed to Regeneron Pharmaceuticals, which he co-founded.
6. George Yancopoulos – With a net worth of $1.2 billion, Yancopoulos is Regeneron's chief scientific officer.
7. and 8. Thomas and Andreas Struengmann – With a net worth of $6.9 billion, the Struengmann twins sold their generic drug company Hexal to Novartis in 2005 and have other biotech investments.
9. Li Xiting – With a net worth of $12.6 billion, Xiting cofounded Mindray Medical International, China's largest medical equipment producer.

Pandemic Profiteering Has Increased the Wealth Gap

The U.S. has been noteworthy for its extreme wealth and income inequality, and the richest have become even richer from pandemic profiteering, according to the Institute for Policy Studies:⁴¹

"Between January 1, 2020 and April 10, 2020, 34 of the nation's wealthiest 170 billionaires saw their wealth increase by tens of millions of dollars. Eight have seen their net worth surge by over $1 billion.

As of April 15, Jeff Bezos's [Amazon's founder] fortune had increased by an estimated $25 billion since January 1, 2020. This unprecedented wealth surge is larger than the Gross Domestic Product of Honduras, $23.9 billion in 2018."

The wealth of the world's top five billionaires — Jeff Bezos, Bill Gates, Mark Zuckerberg, Warren Buffett and Larry Ellison — increased twice as much as the federal government paid in stimulus checks to more than 150 million Americans.⁴²

And as mentioned earlier, and noted by Barbara Loe Fisher, co-founder and president of the NVIC,⁴³ Moderna's stock price ballooned when it announced that its messenger RNA vaccine was ready for clinical trials,⁴⁴ and the company's CEO became "a new billionaire overnight."

Questions About the Moderna Vaccine

Authors of The New England Journal of Medicine article, cited earlier, wrote that the Moderna vaccine candidate, named mRNA-1273, "induced anti-SARS-CoV-2 immune responses in all participants, and no trial-limiting safety concerns were identified." The study team did note, however, "Solicited adverse events that occurred in more than half the participants included fatigue, chills, headache, myalgia, and pain at the injection site."⁴⁵

But, according to Just The News, adverse effects were not always that minor, especially after a second injection:⁴⁶

"Notably, every participant in the two larger-dose groups reported adverse reactions after their second injections. One study participant in the smallest-dose group, meanwhile, was removed due to having developed hives after the first round of injections."

In addition to adverse effects, scientists are questioning how long immunity against the coronavirus, suggested by the presence of antibodies, will last.

According to Zero Hedge, immunity durability may be so short-lived, a COVID-19 vaccine "might need to be administered every year to offer a reliable level of protection."⁴⁷ That will certainly be a windfall for the biotech billionaires. Zero Hedge writes:⁴⁸

"[A] study produced by researchers at King's College London is showing recovered patients' antibodies declined significantly within months of infection, raising the critical question of whether a vaccine could ever provide lasting protection.

Moderna's vaccine candidate has shown the capacity to produce antibodies in test subjects, but it's still unclear exactly how much protection this might provide.

University of Nottingham Emeritus Professor in Immunology Herb Sewell, who consulted on the study, said it appeared to show that antibodies to the virus disappeared more quickly than antibodies for MERS and other coronaviruses ...

Several high profile studies have raised doubts about whether these antibodies are permanent, or effective, or not."

Finally, the adverse effects of vaccines in general are so well known, even Bill Gates — who is arguably the world's most passionate vaccine advocate — admits that as many as 700,000 could become victims of adverse reactions to the COVID-19 vaccine. According to the German website Ken FM, in an interview with CNBC Gates said:⁴⁹

"... if we have ... one in ten thousand side effects ... that's, you know, way more – 700,000 ... people who will suffer from that. So, really understanding the safety at gigantic scale across all age ranges – you know – pregnant, male, female, undernourished and existing comorbidities, it's very, very hard ...

... that actual decision of, OK, let's go and give this vaccine to the entire world, governments will have to be involved because there will be some risk and indemnification needed before that can be decided on."

Since that interview, several bloggers and media watchers have twisted Gates' words as deaths, which has triggered another media "fact-checker," APF Fact Check,⁵⁰ to call them out for it. So, if you do share this information, please note it's side effects – which can include deaths, but also anything from a light fever to a very serious, but not life-threatening event – that Gates specifically mentioned.

The Empire of Billionaires Is a Threat to Public Safety

In summary, as biotech billionaires rush in to profit from the COVID-19 pandemic, your privacy rights are being violated through tracking and contact tracing, and your right to refuse a vaccine may be in jeopardy if it is deemed for the public good. At the same time the very media that should be promoting your right to free speech and to question government's decisions for your body is advocating for having those rights taken away.

Through the pursuit of an artificial vaccine, natural immunity to viruses like COVID-19 will not occur and future pandemics are assured. But that means mass vaccination will have to be repeated over and over again, which is good news for the pandemic profiteers. But is it good for you?

Darzoum

Alan Dershowitz has said the state has the right to forcibly plunge the vaccine needle into the arm of the unwilling. How much of his certainty stems from a nonexistent ideal, a picture absent the corruptions and controversies surrounding vaccination? In a recent debate with RFK Jr, he concedes that certain standards must be met, but has so far seemed little informed or concerned about the actual problems in vaccine safety. This is no minor point. Such questions are not merely inconvenient anomalies sully the purity of hypothetical legal arguments; they are systemic.

So let's do a little "thought experiment," based on a scenario that more than satisfies the conditions Dershowitz apparently presumes as given. Let's imagine a vaccine that is absolutely 100% safe & effective, that pharmaceutical corporations are completely moral, with the health and safety of their customers as their paramount concern, and that regulatory agencies, politicians and media are working from a standpoint of perfect, impartial rectitude, devoid of posturing, conflicts of interest or hidden agendas. I know... that's a lot to ask of imagination, but try. With these conditions met, should we now mandate vaccines? No, but at that point, why would you have to? There would be no shortage of willing customers and mandates would become irrelevant.

Does this not also reveal the conditions under which mandates do become necessary? Yes, the present conditions: untested, ineffective and potentially risky vaccines; immoral vaccine makers, all convicted felons; paid-off politicians, regulatory agencies and mainstream media. Under those conditions, mandates—the forceful removal of freedom of choice—become necessary to compel anyone even partially awake, presenting us with a thinly-veiled totalitarianism instated by a unique form of terrorism, the fear of a virus. The plunging needle is then to protect the power and profits of elites, and has very little to do with protecting public health.

The flu shot is supposed to be safe, but I will never get one again. Haven't had one in 20 years. I dont get viruses. I dont trust the shot either and I sure as hell will not be getting this new vaccine for this new sars-like virus. They can just try to find me if they mandate these injections. Who knows what the effects on your body will be down the road. Or who knows what the ingredients in the injection has that might cause bodily harm. I just do not trust Pharmaceuticals anymore. I have clients who are older and get the shot to prevent the flu but either get the flu anyway or get some kind of sickness that is like a mild flu that keeps them bed ridden for a few days. Nuts!!

Curious how the figure Gates picks as a necessary sacrifice, is actually what the disease caused this time? Maybe he's scheming to claim that our covid deaths were minimized by the lockdown, so we should sacrifice the next 700,000 'side effect' deaths as a price to avoid lockdowns? Well that physicist Denis Rancourt's study that reviews epidemiologic science with the astounding conclusions that

a) the spread of the yearly winter epidemics is totally predicted by the weather's ABSOLUTE HUMIDITY which seriously declines in winter and the mechanics of aerosolized viral particles wafting in the air and not settling out like in summer when humidity is high, is how the virus gets into our lungs for serious infections Which raises the idea that HUMIDIFIERS IN WINTER would seriously reduce the spread. Also the USE OF NETIPOTS [?Dr Hannas ergonomic version] would limit the invasion of viral infection to nasal / sniffles only

b) the severity of cases Rancourt assigns to health of the population which is something we in the alt-med supporting media online here have tried to spread improvements, like the vitamin D, vitamin C, etc. That message has resulted in the adoption of much of those nutrients at therapeutic doses in this covid battle.. witnessing the store shelves for such nutrients, including zinc, magnesium etc SO WHY NOT FIGURE WE CAN COPE WITH THE FUTURE COVIDS as well as the FUTURE FLUs c) Rancourt highlights the epidemiology in the weekly death tolls from all-causes [avoids misdiagnoses distortions] to show the EXTREME SYNCHRONICITY of the eruption of deaths IMMEDIATELY at locations CONTINENTS APART, with the ANNOUNCEMENT OF OFFICIAL PANDEMIC. Also pointing out the strange INITIAL SPIKE's shape and it's likely relationship to the genociding of the nursing home residents, demanding investigation but without saying how that genocide was accomplished: 100% FLU VAXXING NURSING HOME RESIDENTS?!

dectiri, not everywhere in the world has winters with low humidity. I live in a country that, apart from the tropical north, has hot dry summers and winter rains. We have pretty well beaten Covid in my state, with fast and early response, but one state has an outbreak. This virus has no respect for climate.

Brilliant post Darzoum. There are many life-saving options that will make dodgy vaccines completely unnecessary. If Dr Fauci had told the truth about inexpensive Hydroxychloroquine it could have saved thousands of lives with early use. The Big Pharma profiteering $$ hate it. Ah, but note the context of Dershowitz's observation: the precedent being that the government has the authority to force people to be vaccinated IF a vaccine is safe and effective. But the ruling that shielded manufacturers from liability in the US for recommended vaccines in the 1980s was based on the premise that vaccines are unavoidably UNSafe. Therefore, according to the law, pharma can't have it both ways, and US citizens either have free choice OR vaccine manufacturers have liability for what is forced upon people. So which is it? Unavoidably unsafe with manufacturers protected from liability and no right to compel people to take their poisons, OR compulsion with liability? Which would you prefer if you were a vaccine manufacturer?

Darzoum; Just as the likes of Monsanto genetically altered plants and took out a patent on them, which then gave them "Intellectual Property Rights" - ownership of those plants; are they not now intending to do the same with humans, with their gene altering mRNA vaccines? Once they've altered the DNA of humanity and gain Intellectual Property Rights through their "patented" process - would they not then, essentially "own" our bodies and have the "power" to 'invade' our bodies in whatever way they choose? With this in mind; think about the push for Transhumanism (covertly, of course). The crazy loons are doing their best to re-invent humanity! Humanity/cyborg (whatever) 2.0!

P.S. No replies on this post yet. If any of you believe that "Transhumanism" is a "conspiracy theory" - you haven't done your homework!

Might this test pose some solutions to the mandates, the contact tracers, etc? Dr Mercola, what is your opinion about this test? Effective? Has it been around long enough to know? The Harvard doc here says it is 94% effective, can be done at home by licking test paper (no jabs, no blood, no pain) and results can be seen in ten minutes. He says that this can help kids go back to school, avert the contact tracers, etc.....and in short, help to mitigate the NWO though he does not come out and say that. www.youtube.com/watch My question is, if the test is as penultimately sensitive as stated, then might people friek out unnecessarily if they test positive? If yes, at least it would be their own choice to self quarantine, instead of government forced.

Goldengirl, I know so many people who have been vaccinated for various reasons. In most cases, it's usually for the flu. But I know others who have been sweet talked into measles and shingles vaccines, as well. Two people I know who got the shingles vaccine got a return bout of shingles. Then i know even more who got the flu shot who either got the flu, or ended up very sick claiming, "I'll never get it again". In all cases where the disease or sickness came about after getting the vaccine, the doctors all made a similar type claim: "If you didn't receive this vaccine, your illness would have lasted twice as long." Good liars don't quit. They just lie, lie, lie!

Thanks NewlandsWanderer... that's an amazing graph in the link you provide, a picture of a real "inconvenient truth"; but Fauci, all of the sudden, thinks a double-blind placebo test would be a good idea.... just not for vaccines but hydroxychloroquine. Dr. Mercola has been postulating that quercetin could be an even better option than hydroxychloroquine. The suppression of such information reprehensible, if not criminal, but it at least exposes who we're dealing with.

balhawk, your reasoning is top-notch. Yes, Dershowitz throws in his obligatory "IF" concerning vaccine safety, but that's a very big "if" he's talking about... so big that if he really took it to heart, he wouldn't so readily use such vehemence in talking about governments plunging vaccines into unwilling citizens. And as you point out, "unavoidably unsafe" means that "if" never goes away.

Randy, it may sound far fetched that humans could ever be patented, but as you point out, the precedent of patenting lifeforms has already been set. Transhumanism is a very real idea and it is already making deep encroachments. It has some of its foundational rationale from the likes of B.F. Skinner and Ray Kurzweil, but its real foundation is rooted in complete ignorance of what a human being is, and the vast potential for much greater embodied within each of us. That is why I reject such terminology and the underlying idea of "artificial intelligence." Do we need artificial "intelligence" when our own real intelligence awaits full realization? In general, I think humans are too enamored with technology and too easily seduced with promises of conveniences. That's how they first gets their hooks in us! Those initial, innocent-seeming impulses can lead all the way to transhumanism if we are not careful. So the priority has to be our awakening first, technological innovation second. We have to acknowledge that we leave an opening for these things to sneak in.

In the final analysis, how many technological "advancements" pass this litmus test: do they make us stronger or develop our latent capacities? Do they make us more conscious? Awake? Alive? Do they enhance what is beautiful and true within us? Or do they mostly support sleep, allowing us to check out while some device handles our challenges? If your bottom line is a lazier, less competent but more distracted and dependent version of yourself, made ever more predictable through the conditioning of standardized, preset options, is that the price you consciously agreed upon for the short-term gain? An improvement of circumstance is not self improvement. Why have we not yet figured out that struggle combined with the right attitude equates to accelerated growth opportunity and empowerment, and that that Self-awakening is actually more important than getting this or that task painlessly behind us?

I'm 100% with you NewlandsWanderer. The whole scam depends on overwhelming complicity.

Anything less would tax the enforcement resources beyond their capacity. Perhaps awareness of this is why Gates, of all people, is sounding the alarm. He doesn't want the Emperor's suit to be exposed for what it isn't as the vaccine fails on an epic scale. The more clever approach was to let people alone, and simply ignore the minority who don't go along, while the majority of believers continue to go along willingly, even eagerly. I've been puzzled all along how supposed "geniuses" could be so bad at chess, so to speak.

A) We have to sue and prosecute the ringleaders. B) Enlist underground journalists to jointly, on pre arranged dates, expose certain themes jointly, asking bloggers for their help. One source did this, teaming up with others, in an effort to expose Bill Gates and his agenda. We can ask other underground sources to jointly do the same. C) Write to attorneys, grassroots, organize petitions even if they don't work, but do accomplish the goal of breaking through the media blackout, aha. D) Particularly enlist college newsletter editors, who are passionate, vocal, wake up their parents' cross sector as well as their peers. Who says that they are not active now by remote? Our silence is our complicity. Dynamo, let's go! We can't just let certain things stand. We can't win? They are legally immune/powerful? I get so tired of that ruse. Good lawyers have ways around legal immunity, invoking other legal bases for prosecution/litigation, in court. How else did the legally immune Monsanto fall down....again and again? Come on.

Newlands, good link regarding the Gates interview. He's really doing a lot of "uhs, oohs, and ahs" trying to BS his way through the interview. You also mentioned exposing the psychopaths. Robert Kennedy did a good job of exposing Big Pharma's psychopathic corruption, in his recent debate with Allen (I don't know anything about Epstein and his crimes) Dershowitz. Allen Dershowitz tried to trip Kennedy up a few times but Kennedy is really well prepared to debate this topic. Why isn't he (Kennedy) speaking to Congress about all of the corruption that Big Pharma is guilty of? <https://youtu.be/IfnJi7yLKgE> Randy, you're right. Keep the conversation going with others. Share videos like the Jeremy Elliot video. It's short. Most people don't seem to mind watching short videos. It's a powerful 5 minutes that should leave a lot of people thinking.

In 1950 communism was rampant across the land. Lennons idea of a top-down, centralized control of society became the defacto business model for most corporations and especially in Hollywood where it's still the primary model to this day. If your film project didn't conform to the communistic social order being promoted by Hollywood, it didn't get made. This is why independent film makers began looking for outside sources to fund their projects. Viola! The Indie film movement was born just a few decades ago. The Hollywood actor R. Reagan further cemented this program by busting unions - can't have democratically elected union representatives within a communistic corporation. All of this stems from the antiquated belief that there are only a few people in the world capable of running large segments of the economy (the billionaires), and that they should be the only ones allowed to do so. Trump is of this belief and the fact that he gave a gargantuan tax break to the wealthy is proof. That money was supposedly to be used to encourage investment in the US and create new jobs, none of which happened. Instead, like Reagan's tax breaks, the money was either sent to tax free havens or used to move industries to low wage countries. The Lennonesc stifling of freedoms and the concentration of wealth to the elites is what is now taking place at an accelerated rate with the billionaire class trying to impose their neocommie social order. It is in short, a coup de grace by the billionaire class.

Rappaport today; "TWO: TROUBLE IN VACCINE PARADISE Aside from the actual fact that vaccines are dangerous and ineffective---which I've been proving for the past 30 years---the mainstream COVID vaccine narrative is breaking down. Badly. Headline, San Francisco Chronicle, July 17: "With coronavirus antibodies fading fast, vaccine hopes fade, too". "Disturbing new revelations that permanent immunity to the coronavirus may not be possible have jeopardized vaccine development and reinforced a decision by scientists at UCSF and affiliated laboratories to focus exclusively on treatments."

"Several recent studies conducted around the world indicate that the human body does not retain the antibodies that build up during infections, meaning there may be no lasting immunity to COVID-19 after people recover." It has been 4 mos since I had a nasty virus. A Sars/Cov2 antibody test came out "negative/or too few antibodies to detect" ..."not for diagnostic purposes." Will this be grounds for a vaxx or repeated vaxx? Anyone think the media-made political drama is real??? CLUE; It's just a mass delusion to make you believe this is a democracy and you have a choice. The essential point about the vaccine agenda is that we do not need vaccines. They have never been successful against corona viruses, and yet government's in collusion with Bill Gates have spent billions of pounds on them. And those who are advising the governments and pushing these vaccines - Big Pharma $$ scientists/Gates - are the very people who will financially benefit. Gates has publicly said there will be a twenty to one profit from this investment. His concern for public health is ZERO. . Offering to vaccinate everyone on the planet to add to his billions, and never mind the side effects. Oh yes - and you won't be able to travel or renew your driving licence unless you have had your vaccine....

And these same people who are pushing the vaccine agenda are trampling on any drug or natural protocol that threatens to derail their criminal agenda. Apart from the natural protocols that Dr Mercola advises, including vitamin D, A, C, zinc and Quercetin, medical doctors are standing up against this medical terrorism. Last night a group were calling out the authorities for their failure to use life-saving drugs - but most of this interview has been taken down by Facebook - run by Mark Zuckerberg - friend of Bill Gates. And here is Mr Gates explaining about his vaccine, which will alter your DNA. He's already been involved in doctoring food through GM foods and investing in making artificial mothers milk - and now he wants to make an artificial YOU. So the masks will stay until the vaccines are ready - even though the actual virus does not seem to have been isolated purified and passed Koch's postulates. Could the virus really be influenza?, Add to this pneumonia, dying of other diseases - but all being reported as Covid. And is Covid really an umbrella for all kinds of diseases, many brought on by lock-down distress and media fear-mongering? And under that dark umbrella of "Covid" the Trojan Horse appears filled with Gates sponsored hypodermic wielding "health" officials - ready to "save" the world from a virus that rarely kills anyone with a healthy immune system: So here is the man himself trying to sell his DNA altering vaccine:

Yes, there's a lot of double-speak being reported every day. The CDC was formed in 1946 or thereabouts, initially to handle malaria outbreaks in the southern US. Do you suppose they did NOT know about hydroxychloroquine, an early drug developed to control malaria? Frankly wish these guys would stick their feet in their mouths so obviously that the world can see their ruse. The CDC foundation is totally corporate controlled, corrupting any impartiality in the agency and most likely the driving force behind vaccinating everyone, whereas only 5% of the population is even susceptible. Good news is overt vaccine trial failures will eventually come into the light of day, some sooner than later!

@Goldengirl713 Seems like a bit of research would help one understand why it's important to be concerned about the gap between the small percentage of extremely wealthy people and the vast majority. A 2018 Oxfam analysis found that the world's 42 richest people hold as much wealth as the poorest 3.7 billion people combined. These rich folks do not contribute to causes out of altruism. Start with the Gates Foundation their intentions may seem fine from a mainstream media point of view but with a little digging the ugly evil underbelly can be found out. I agree that all their wealth may not bring them happiness but it seems they have a thirst for power and control which is why many are concerned about their agendas and consider them to be psychopaths.

The countless mind-blowing similarities between ESSENTIAL HUMAN PROTEINS, viral proteins AND the official NIH stored sequence of covid-19 spike protein, the future vaccine for billions, means something.. Imagine antibodies (vaccines suppose to o that yes?) to the essential ACE2 receptor or the furin site within your own body after receiving a vaccine which encodes these sequencies!!! Or imagine you get that vaccine and start producing antibodies to all these other pieces of your own human proteins, including the reproductive ones..

Amino acids are represented by 22 letters, similar to a language. There is a deep uniqueness of every protein sequence, which for example in case of GCPR* proteins is characterized by just one 3-letter code motif Asp-Arg-Tyr (DRY), a signalling motif which classifies all the proteins having it to that ONE family. Or take an example of Glutathione: Glu-Cys-Gly (ECG), or L-Carnosine:beta-Ala-His, or angiotensin II in form of only 8 amino acids DRVYIHPF, etc., etc. Or take the 'RGD' motif present on the covid spike protein which is known to bind to cells, to synthetic materials. Or the other motifs within covid genome which bind metals...

In analogy think of meaning of certain words: war, hate or love!!! Each is UNIQUE, and so is every single amino acid within our temple, called HUMAN BODY. Thus not for nothing Gates carries the patent for his final weapon: the non-lethal COVID-19 virus, encoding many pieces similar to all sorts of human bodies, with the complete sequence only present in NIH genome data bank NC_045512.2 (not one 'experimental' covid virus can be proofed via RT_PCR which can only look for chunks of genes, then put them together by computer algorithms), and the lethal covid-19 vaccines, assembled exactly from those artificial sequences stored in genome banks). *GCPR topic won Nobel prize in 2012.

Hi Chris a very in-depth post. Thanks. Three questions> What effect will the Covid vaccine have on our bodies? What will the side effects potentially be?. Finally, there is a lot of confusion about what this corona virus actually is, especially as many people are dying with covid in their bodies but NOT dying FROM covid.. So, has it been isolated, purified and passed Koch's postulates?

We have already gotten this virus. Twice. The second time was following a deliberate exposure to test our presumed immunity. My 3.5 year old son was largely asymptomatic the second time. Had I not really been paying attention I probably wouldn't have noticed. I got sick a second time. It was similar but different with less pain and fatigue but a slightly higher low grade temp that stayed higher much longer. We're as immune as we're gonna get. We will be hiding from any vaccine mandates. Fortunately he's healthy and doesn't need anything and I've learned to manage my health so I can hold my own too without prescription medication. What you described above is terrifying. Hopefully they'll come up with blood tests to prove immunity so we're exempt.

My best guess is that I had it for 4 months, it dwindled off in the last month or so, but the last I knew of it was a cough which felt very congested and sounded like a man's cough (and I am a girl). How people can put the pursuit of money before anything else? It shows they are totally limited thinkers. They are not as successful or as smart, as they think they are. I've observed that some of the ultra wealthy have had very sorry endings. They have no comprehension that their focus on wealth will limit the time spent on gaining knowledge, which is more important than wealth. We are given the opportunity of life in order to learn and to elevate our souls. Years ago, I met an older gentleman in Norwalk, Connecticut, who had written a paper on the only way we can travel from one planetary system to another. It was by raising our consciousness and living up to our highest potential. This is the only way we can get off this planet. It gave me food for thought. Then I came across the words, that Carl Sagan said before his death. He said that he hoped he would wind up on a more civilized planet next time. I honestly feel the same way, too.

Only those out of touch with Spirit are capable of evil to this extent, living and living for more and more wealth, wealth, wealth. It seems that it is all that matters to them . Life has so much more depth than that, they are living a truly empty existence, rich in purse, and purely impoverished in soul.

"Day of Happiness"? That has Orwell written all over it! I would like to correct this paragraph: "As novel coronavirus cases ALLEGEDLY spike in the U.S. and numerous efforts are underway to develop a vaccine, the most prominent U.S. anti-vaccination organizations are using Facebook and other social media platforms to poison the well against a potential vaccine."

As this article merely confirms much of what I've been stating all along; perhaps people will pay at least a little attention to what I've been saying. Number 1 - this is not and never has been about a "virus". How much Medical Tyranny has to come down on people's heads, before they see it? Number 2 - these "measures" are never going to go away. Plans for Agenda 21 and the NWO are well underway. There is no doubt in my mind that at some point in the not-too-distant future, the vaccines (especially these ones) will be forced upon humanity! As far as the oligarchs becoming richer and richer; it's not only the vaccines they're making money on. What about the hundreds of millions of masks, face shields, plexiglass barriers, signs, advertising for covid...boatloads of money being made here! We are already in the Brave New World and as long as the zombie masses continue to slumber, there will be little resistance to the growing tyranny!

"as long as the zombie masses continue to slumber, there will be little resistance to the growing tyranny..."

Randy, yes, that's why we have to keep speaking out. The way I see it, the agenda of the pharma drug cartels is only the tip of a spear that allows the penetration of these other tyrannies that you cite... or at least one of the main tips. The reason that can be the spear tip to gain entry is because it's wielded in the name of humanitarianism... helping people, altruism etc.--people let their guards down. So even though we might focus on "health matters" here, it should be with knowledge of the rest of the spear! I think you're right that this is not ultimately about a virus, but as long as that narrative holds sway over the majority of people, they will continue to give their consent and drag everyone and everything down with their ignorance. Therefore, addressing the fallacies in this fake pharma/virus/vaccine narrative could have the effect of breaking the tip of the spear... really, breaking a spell or hypnosis. It then becomes very important to dispel these lies with the facts, with much more far-reaching consequences than just the particular health issue at hand.

If people in the USA get away with no masks and protesting and more I am sure they will not be successful in forcing a vaccine that is not 100% effective (because no vaccine is 100% effective) and anti-vaxers are as such because they have proof of the damage vaccines do especially because of the toxic chemical adjuvants. Also like any flu and virus they mutate, and every year there is a different vaccine. People especially older people can get very sick and die from these vaccines. Babies die too, these things need to be considered. I have a religious exemption, we absolutely forbid vaccines, as I think only a few other religions do, so no-one is forcing that on me and I live in British Columbia and we honor religious exemptions here. One thing that has become clear through this "pandemic" or more like plandemic is the global nature of the tactics used and the control measures implemented. Any country who didn't comply such as Sweeden is under a constant barrage from the media even though their figures are normal. The globalists like the Chinese model of government and want to introduce it world wide and they fully intend to succeed. They own the media and most of academia globally and most of these people are Marxists and all of them are globalists. You will have to fight like everyone else to maintain your exemption. In their book no one is exempt and they will try to impose this.

An interesting anomaly in the stats for mortality during the lockdown was the significant drop in deaths in young people especially under 2. The reason for this was that they couldn't get their vaccination shots during lockdown but of course the media won't touch this with the exception of UKcolumn.org who exposed this. Good luck with your fight.

And the politicians or states don't even go by the Constitution for the most part. And some entities will say the Constitution was written by slave owners and racist so it needs to be shredded up. But most of them that say that didn't even actually read the Constitution. It really is a sad state of affairs in America. There are still a few left that want the Republic to survive. So on a good note it only takes a few to change the many.

The Jew, Alan Dershowitz, he who kept his knickers on while he got a massage in Jeffery Epstein's Lolita House, says the government has a RIGHT to force you to take the vaccine, because of the danger of the virus. Alarm bells went off when I heard that and thought about Nazi Germany and their fear of the Jewish virus infecting their Aryan people. "But you MUST go into the Gas Chamber because it's the law and it will prevent the spread of the Jewish virus." "The Jew is a planetary bacillus." Mein Kampf I wonder what Dershowitz would say to the Nazi pushing HIM into the Gas Chamber? Attorney Alan Dershowitz says the Constitution gives state governments the power to vaccinate people in order to prevent the spread of a contagious disease. The Harvard Law School emeritus professor made the legal case during a web-based show, "Crowdsource the Truth" that was live on Facebook on Saturday.

"Let me put it very clearly, you have no constitutional right to endanger the public and spread the disease, even if you disagree. You have no right not to be vaccinated, you have no right not to wear a mask, you have no right to open up your business," he said. The show's interviewer Jason Goodman asked his guest if the government rules "you have to be vaccinated, we have to be vaccinated." Dershowitz's answer, "Absolutely." "And if you refuse to be vaccinated, the state has the power to literally take you to a doctor's office and plunge a needle into your arm," he added. Dershowitz explained that a person can refuse medical treatment if the disease they are infected with isn't contagious. "But you have no right to refuse to be vaccinated against a contagious disease," he said. "Public health, the police power of the Constitution gives the state the power to compel that. And there are cases in the United States Supreme Court." "Judenscheisse" was a term  used. "The Jew is a planetary bacillus." Mein Kampf

Right on, Mehlinda, in that they won't be able to force any vaccine on us IF enough refuse. As for our much battered and beaten Constitution, the Soviet Union reportedly had a constitution that read very nice, too; but a Constitution is only as good as it is followed. We must bear in mind - nay, EMPHASIZE - the context of Dershowitz's observation: the precedent being that the government can force people to be vaccinated IF a vaccine is safe and effective. But another ruling that shielded manufacturers from liability in the US for recommended vaccines was based on the premise that vaccines are unavoidably UNSafe. Therefore, according to the law, US citizens either have free choice OR vaccine manufacturers have liability for what is forced upon people. We must hammer this home.

Submit to MEDICAL RAPE or be unable to earn a living and participate in society is not a choice! Let's take the gloves off and call the spade by its name. It's about time the indoctrinated cultists are made to acknowledge what they are endorsing. Agreeing to the ideal that forcing medical procedures onto unwilling people is right and just is saying that you agree with medical RAPE.

You can have my vaccine because I will not get one. I work very hard to maintain a strong immune system. I likely have been exposed often at work but that nasty bug doesn't have a chance of getting into my body. It also helps that I don't have any chronic diseases and for an old fart of 72, my brain and body seem to work just fine.

Gates said 700,000 people would experience side effects up to and including death. He also said mutiple vaccinations would be needed. At least two and perhaps four a year. Doing the math we get 1,400,000 to 2,800,000 million each year as the virus mutates.

It's a slippery slope, for sure. Yesterday, Moderna's Phase III Trial was announced to begin. When Dr. Fauci was asked about Moderna's COVID-19 vaccine candidate, he replied, that he is "cautiously optimistic" and mentioned the small trial group size, more than once. He also stated, that they do not know, if it even works or not! With those less-than-encouraging words, would you pick their vaccine?

Not me. Quite a while back, I posted about Novavax, a biotech firm, who believes they have the answer in regard to safety and efficacy with their already proven vaccine platform.

This is a company which has been very quiet, while making major inroads to be capable of ramping up millions of doses of their vaccine for U.S. and worldwide distribution. When I posted this information, I immediately received a childish and extremely vulgar email through Mercola.com demanding I leave the message board. It left me wondering, if it was simply from some immature poster or a staff member, as I have no way of knowing. Dr. Mercola does not strike me as one who would be pro-censorship. So, I shall repeat my own sentiment. As an investor, I own stock in only one company, Novavax, and this has been for years.

When there is a choice, Novavax's vaccine will be the only one acceptable to me. Around August 3rd, 2020, Novavax will announce their Phase I Trial data, which, given their greatly successful animal study data, is expected to be much better than any other in comparison. That's a strong statement backed up by President Trump's trip to the manufacturing facility for Novavax's vaccine candidate, yesterday, CEPI's largest funding award, BARDA's $1.6 Billion funding, and a large contract award from the Department of Defense. Check it out to confirm this information. The article named investors, who are making tons of money. But what I did not see was a list of names of those who LOST a ton of money, because the biotech sector is the riskiest gamble in the stock market.

Better to go down fighting than to let them murder you with these shots. There was an RN who posted on another site a while ago. She said she had been working at a few different nursing homes just before the outbreak. She said that the nursing home residents (and I am assuming some staff) were given a "special" vaccine. I would bet that the vaccine was largely responsible, in one way or another, for causing so many of the deaths. This is phase one of their extermination plans. The elderly and sick, including those with comorbidities die first.

Thank you everyone for your answer and Thank you Dr. Mercola for this post. Yes its funny that I know more about the constitution and about being patriotic (I Love your Country) in Canada our charter of rights are different, and every province is different as to how you deal with vaccines. Luckily in BC you can have religious exemptions (since 1976)thats how I got my kids through school without being vaccinated. We also have a law in Canada against religious bigotry. So Sikhs can wear turbans and Muslim women veils, and imposing on your religious freedoms is unlawful, Many have fought through the human right commission. Also, vaccine issues have been brought to court everywhere and billions of dollars paid out to vaccine-injured (causing death also) children and adults alike. There will never be a one-world government, the people will fight with all their might, and that's why the 2nd amendment is so beautiful and was out in place in case foreign or domestic invaders tried as now to take over, good luck with that, it won't happen, the people will fight to the death for their freedom!

Let us make this clear: Dershowitz cited the precedent that allows the government to vaccinate people against their will IF the vaccine is SAFE and EFFECTIVE. But the ruling that freed vaccine manufacturers from liability for recommended vaccines in the US was based on the premise that vaccines are UNAVOIDABLY UNSAFE. So, what will it be, FDA and CDC, freedom of choice or restoration of liability?

I used to take them and was sick all the time from whatever I caught. But that was 20 years ago. Two glasses of water every morning with a piece of fruit and skip one of the three meals a day, doesn't matter which one. Pharma is the accepted heroin of society; it keeps people dependent and sick. Problem with the ultra rich is that their wealth is going to their heads; they lose touch with reality and develop megalomaniac ideas. Gates wants to reduce world population and wants to get everybody healthy by vaccines. Maybe he should learn something about natural selection. So it continues to be in plain sight and obvious. The whole scheme does don't stand up to educated scrutiny. Bill is in many ways like Trump neither one of them are geniuses, both, like excited children have to make comments to show what they know even if it exposes the plot. If you had followed Bill for years you would have seen his resemblance to the wizard of OZ. all smoke and mirrors. Microsoft wasn't really his baby. Paul and IBM provided that plan. He has no degree in anything, especially medicine. That, I think is why he appointed a TECH company going into bankruptcy as his go-to vaccine maker. The video is pretty good, pointing out the special language and social engineering I previously posted about. I don't agree with his attitude about birth control. It is not baby-killing, but abortion will not be going away because fetal cells and fetal stem cells are a major market. Those vaccines they are pushing have fetal cells after all. As previously said by people with more degrees and education than me ' how did we survive for 100 years before vaccines were created '? Many questions are answered by using just that type of creative thinking.

Why 2030? Has anyone thought about this? At the age of 30, 2000 years ago, Jesus began to preach to people, that is, in the year 30. In the times we live in now, Christ's energy aligns with the planetary field. There will be 3 years in which Christ will be present in the consciousness of people much more than before, which is called the awakening to Christ consciousness, the Second Coming. These antichrist forces are trying to pull back human consciousness to prevent this planetary event, as Rudolf Steiner said in 1917:

"I have told you that the spirits of darkness are going to inspire their human hosts, in whom they will be dwelling, to find a vaccine that will drive all inclination towards spirituality out of people's souls when they are still very young, and this will happen in a roundabout way through the living body. Today, bodies are vaccinated against one thing and another; in future, children will be vaccinated with a substance which it will certainly be possible to produce, and this will make them immune, so that they do not develop foolish inclinations connected with spiritual life"...

"The whole trend goes in a direction where a way will finally be found to vaccinate bodies so that these bodies will not allow the inclination towards spiritual ideas to develop and all their lives people will believe only in the physical world they perceive with the senses."... "The first step must be to throw people's views into confusion, turning their concepts and ideas inside out."... "The soul will be made non-existent with the aid of a drug. Taking a 'sound point of view', people will invent a vaccine to influence the organism as early as possible, preferably as soon as it is born, so that this human body never even gets the idea that there is a soul and a spirit." The next ten years are when the 'beast' will show its face more aggressively against humanity more than ever. The question arises is: The Second Coming or second Crucifixion?

Is it any wonder why anyone would distrust a vaccine that got pushed through in less than a year?? You don't have to be an antivaccinator to feel timid about rushing to the shot nurse to get this coronavirus vaccine. If you know that the #1 cause of the cytokine storm that shuts the lungs down is basically insulin resistance you can do something about it right NOW! Most people who have been on this forum for any length of time know all about Intermittent Fasting, Low Carb/Keto, not eating before bed time (at least 3 hours), HIIT (High Intensity Interval Training), and Sleep. Then there's Vit-D. Increasing dietary fat and sunlight will help in that department. What never gets mentioned about Vit-D is INSULIN RESISTANCE. The PHD I know that researched this for 15+ years says everyone that is insulin resistant is low in Vit-D. This is because Vit-D is stored in your fat cells. So the Vit-D is there, but it can't get into the blood stream. This is done with I.F. and HIIT. If there is anyone on this forum who is getting their Vit-D levels checked I challenge you to try this. At least 2 days a week combine HIIT with IF. I like doing extreme IF with HIIT at least 1 day a week. I will eat my last meal at 11am Friday. Then I'll get up Saturday morning and drink water. By 8am Sat I will do 30 minutes of HIIT where I never let my heart rate drop below 140 bpm. Then I eat lunch around noon and it is ZERO Carbs! I eat my first carbohydrate Sunday Afternoon! This forces your pancreas to release a hormone called glucagon. It does the opposite of insulin. It forces stored triglycerides to be released from fat cells and converted back into glycogen (form of blood sugar). When this happens your Vit-D levels go up. Most experts agree that 20 to 30ng/ml of vit-d in your blood is normal/OK. Some believe 50 is better. Mine averages the upper 80's. You can actually use a glucose meter and know exactly when glucagon is released. Your blood sugar will go up temporarily!!

The blood sugar increase is temporary and it will fluctuate dramatically. It can range anywhere from 80 to 120 while you're in this metabolic state. If you are getting your glucose checked at a clinic they might freak out. If this is your first time trying this and you feel like panicking just eat something sweet. Immediately, your pancreas will cease all glucagon production and it will secrete insulin. Your blood sugar will drop to levels lower than you have ever seen (low 70's). This means you temporarily increased your insulin sensitivity!! Hip Hip Hurray!! Do this every week for 6 weeks and you will be amazed at how great you feel and you will sleep better at night. Sleeping better at night improves this insulin response even more (snow ball effect). When you go in to get your next Vit-D test you will blow your doctor's mind especially when you tell him you did it without supplements. To enhance this even further try consuming more fat. Fat is the only source of calories your body consumes that requires no insulin which makes FAT the perfect calorie source during this Covid-19 Pandemic!

True enough Gates has made a gazillion dollars. Also true is that he and his family are perhaps the most generous group in the world. I think his motive is altruistic. He doesn't need another business empire. Of course, whether the vaccine is efficacious is another matter and the public health vs individual freedoms/responsibility yet another. Maybe this is the point in our 'evolution' where we necessarily begin to self destruct.

Because there is nothing altruistic about the Monsanto, drug supporting agenda of the Gates. The evil smirk should make that very clear to you. If not, how about his not providing food, sanitation, and clean water to his vaccine candidates. That should have been the first move if he truly planned to be altruistic. but, supporting big polluters and buying stock was his first priority.

ABOUT COVID-19 VACCINES and their related patents: Dr. Baric Ralph (in addition to others) filed for a patent for 76% of the Covid-19 SPIKE protein already in 2015! Like the NovaVAX, his 2018 finally published patent 9,884,895 (AVY23063.1 in NIH data base) titled: "Methods and compositions for chimeric coronavirus spike proteins" was already very similar to his current MODERNA mRNA vaccine, with the 4 out of 5 amino acids binding to the ACE2 receptor, ready to go begin of 2018!! It didn't have the complete furin cleavage site yet, though....

Searches for many different proteins within the covid genome, in particular the spike protein, which will be in most all of the vaccines, point to many things. For example, search for covid spike similarities with the nagalase, present in so many autistic children (related to MMR vaccine and the extremely healing GcMAF protein, fact for which Dr. Bradstreet lost his live) gives quite astonishing result (Query=covid spike YP_009724392.1, Sbjct=nagalase) using BLAST PHI (NIH bioinformatics tool):

At no point has Bill Gates said he wants to track vaccinated people or Covid + people. Recheck your references. He says the government should to find out where the contagion is. At least get the simple things right.

I think you should first apply your advice to yourself and then get the "simple things right" - Gates is advocating Gestapo tattoos and immunity passports based upon digitalized information

Thank you Dr. Mercola for this article. One more thing--why did coins disappear suddenly? My husband says our grocery store does not accept cash because of coin shortage. Making us use plastic--is that another tracking device? Of course it is. If we don't stand up to this madness we are doomed. Those who only watch mainstream news probably don't even know who George Soros is. Really sad. We are on a slippery slope and we must wake up and stand up for FREEDOM AND JUSTICE. Especially freedom of speech.

This article makes me think that Americans are nuts. You have started wars all around the globe, led the way in habitat destruction and global heating as well as driving social inequality up and up at home and abroad. Freedom to destroy, freedom to pollute, and now this article which to me is infantile in its analysis of a pandemic so fostered by American Agribusiness leading to the worst food ever known to mankind. I have to stop listening when the speaker asks why we are not wearing masks against TB. You lot voted in Trump too!!!! I'm afraid the USA in its eternal quest for "freedom" is the world leader in destruction. Let's get real, the USA is about billionaires, always has been.

There is reason to be worried. Not because of Bill Gates and his billionaire friends, but rather due to the would-be billionaire who is the commander in chief of the country. The man who holds the nuclear codes. His childish pride when he told Chris Wallace that he aced the MOCA test (a dementia test) was scary. And how he proudly recited the words "Person, Female, Male, Camera, TV" was even scarier.

What is this negative thinking about billionaires? Who cares if there are people who become very wealthy. Do you realize that most of them are able to donate a lot of money to good causes. They need the tax break. I have no problem with rich people. I am fine not being rich and I am comfortable without having loads of money. Money does not bring you happiness unless you are made happy in giving a lot of it away.

I see parallels between the approaches to COVID-19 and global warming. With both issues the US is about as back*ssward as it can get. Current admin is representative of the problems...anti-science and all about corporate power and profit...conspiracy theories and just plain dumbness. The appeal to those of a lower level of comprehension. I think the US is now about the greatest threat to world peace and stability. The rest of the world can see the facts and stats on COVID-19...and despite the dumb declarations of being on top of it...it sure don't look that way!

What scares me is that enough people voted for it...to make it a reality in the first place. The real squeaky part will be getting past the current admin if enough voters wake up to do it...anything to hold on to power?? War...martial law? As far as global warming...as far as I'm concerned it is a fact...but unlike COVID-19 the issue isn't one simple virus...it is a complex problem with one simple factor feeding it...humans. Humans tend to be resistant to taking responsibility for themselves? But there is the brick wall up ahead...COVID-19 will seem like a walk in the park in comparison...

Colinbannon. Do you think Hillary would have been any better? And all Americans don't believe in the Military Industrial Complex. They pulled a fast one on us on 911 just like they are pulling a fast one on us now with the Covid. Many Americans have been waking up to the problems. And who the controllers are and the controllers aren't Americans. Most of the American politicians are just the pawns and useless idiots and yes men who are blackmailed into submission. We have to look to see who the ones behind the curtain really are. Many of us are getting a grasp of it.

Goldengirl, that sort of money gives people enormous power, which they don't always use for good.

Goldengirl - how very provocative of you - endorsing the robber barons of our time with the type of gloss that the Mainstream Media is always trotting out - 50% of their tax evasion trusts is taxpayer money - the taxpayer is being used to glamorize their trust requirements to distribute the wealth charitably - this is not the case as Gates uses his trust to leverage more personal wealth - WAKE UP

If you watch the actual video of Gates talking, he did NOT state unconditionally that 700,000 will die from the vaccine. He simply was commenting on how long it takes to do all the testing to make sure it is safe.. He was giving an example of what would happen IF 1 in 10,000 had a bad reaction.. simple math on global population would give 700,000.. clearly pointing out that waiting longer for a vaccine in order to complete better safety testing is obviously needed and people will have to set their expectations accordingly.. I'm getting very disappointed in Mercola's sensational and misleading headlines which clearly take things out of context.. People, start reading the references provided and you will see that his reviews often twist, if not completely misrepresent, what is actually being said. He counts on people not being smart enough to figure this out and that you will believe everything he says word for word without checking.. I'm not saying that everything he says is wrong, just that you have to be very careful about allowing yourself to be sucked into sensationalism meant to manipulate you..

JDG, If you reread Dr. M's article, as I just did twice you will see that he "did NOT state unconditionally that 700,000 will die from the vaccine". was said by Bill. Bill is tricky though because he likes to use the universal "we" we must, we will have,, etc.

I truly enjoy your articles and especially the comments from other members. And at the same time I would appreciate if you didn't end an interesting article with your advertising. Let the article stand by itself and speak for itself. Then let the user decide if they want more info and or even one or some of your products. Otherwise it seems to me it's just an entry way for you to advertise your business and products.

What's so bad with Mercola advertising his products the way he does? He provides a lot of useful information most times and this is one of his multiple ways of making money. Mercola is a businessman and runs a profitable business and not a charity. If he didn't sell his products here this site wouldn't exist. I hope he makes as much money as possible and uses whatever marketing tactics he has to in order to make his money and increase his wealth.

Mercola105, I'm one of the most outspoken members on this forum. My BIGGEST GRIPE is that I can't post my REAL NUMBERS for my biometric screenings. I regularly challenge this forum to match and/or exceed my numbers. Once upon a time Dr. Mercola even engaged in debates on this forum. Him and I went head to head on several occasions. I continuously get negged to the bottom of these forum debates, but no one including Dr. Mercola has better numbers than I have. They all hate me! Don't let this get you down. I parade my numbers DAILY! I marched around my office today eating SPAM just to rub it into all the brainwashed zombies faces who quiver at the thought of losing their brainwashed sponsored health insurance. They struggle to keep their insurance premiums/contributions down while I coast through it with no stress. What's my advantage? I paid THOUSANDS of dollars back in the 90's to PHD research scientists to tell me the TRUTH! My goal was to sue the FDA, BIG PHARMA, the USDA, and the NIH. I used the Scientific Method to document my medical history and ALL of their FAILED METHODS of treating my medical problems. Remember, they only make money if you are sick. Learn and Live by the Scientific Method of problem solving and challenge every doctor with this. 99% of all doctors will tell you they will no longer treat/see you when you approach them with the Scientific Method. The very SCIENTIFIC community they represent will disown you the moment you present them with the scientific method of problem solving. The medical system is a total fraud that is 100% profit driven. I laugh when I read the fake news headlines that hospitals are LAYING OFF employees/doctors/nurses due to Covid-19. GOOD RIDENCE! The day this very forum allows me to actually publish my numbers I will be less critical.
