Governments are using fear to control and manipulate their citizens. That has now been admitted by members of the Scientific Pandemic Influenza Group on Behavior

(SPI-B), a subcommittee that advises the Scientific Advisory Group for Emergencies (SAGE) in the U.K. And they should know, because they advocated for it, and now say it was a regrettable mistake. As reported by The Telegraph, May 14, 2021:¹

“Scientists on a committee that encouraged the use of fear to control people’s behavior during the COVID pandemic have admitted its work was ‘unethical’ and ‘totalitarian.’ Members of the Scientific Pandemic Influenza Group on Behavior (SPI-B) expressed regret about the tactics in a new book about the role of psychology in the Government’s COVID-19 response.

SPI-B warned in March last year that ministers needed to increase ‘the perceived level of personal threat’ from COVID-19 because ‘a substantial number of people still do not feel sufficiently personally threatened.’

Gavin Morgan, a psychologist on the team, said: ‘Clearly, using fear as a means of control is not ethical. Using fear smacks of totalitarianism. It’s not an ethical stance for any modern government. By nature I am an optimistic person, but all this has given me a more pessimistic view of people.’”

Psychological Warfare Is Real

The Telegraph quotes several of the SPI-B members, all of whom are also quoted in the newly released book, “A State of Fear: How the UK Government Weaponised Fear During the Covid-19 Pandemic,” written by Laura Dodsworth:²

“One SPI-B scientist told Ms Dodsworth: ‘In March [2020] the Government was very worried about compliance and they thought people wouldn’t want to be locked down. There were discussions about fear being needed to encourage compliance, and decisions were made about how to ramp up the fear. The way we have used fear is dystopian.

The use of fear has definitely been ethically questionable. It's been like a weird experiment. Ultimately, it backfired because people became too scared'

One warned that 'people use the pandemic to grab power and drive through things that wouldn't happen otherwise ... We have to be very careful about the authoritarianism that is creeping in' ...

Another member of SPI-B said they were 'stunned by the weaponization of behavioral psychology' during the pandemic, and that 'psychologists didn't seem to notice when it stopped being altruistic and became manipulative. They have too much power and it intoxicates them.'

Steve Baker, the deputy chairman of the COVID Recovery Group of Tory MPs, said: 'If it is true that the state took the decision to terrify the public to get compliance with rules, that raises extremely serious questions about the type of society we want to become. If we're being really honest, do I fear that government policy today is playing into the roots of totalitarianism? Yes, of course it is.'"

The Manufacture of Fear

For nearly a year and a half, governments around the world, with few exceptions, have fed their citizens a steady diet of frightening news. For months on end, you couldn't turn on the television without facing a tickertape detailing the number of hospitalizations and deaths.

Even when it became clear that people weren't really dying in excessive numbers, the mainstream media fed us continuous updates on the growing number of "cases," without ever putting such figures into context or explaining that the vast majority were false positives.

“ People don’t enjoy being hoodwinked and they don’t want to live in a state of fear. We maybe need to be a bit bolder about standing up more quickly when something is not right. ~ Laura Dodsworth ”

Information that would have balanced out the bad news — such as recovery rates and just how many so-called “cases” actually weren’t, because they never had a single symptom — were censored and suppressed.

They also refused to put any of the data into context, such as reviewing whether the death toll actually differed significantly from previous years. Instead, each new case was treated as an emergency and a sign of catastrophic doom.

Don’t Be Confused — Contradiction Is a Warfare Tactic

Aside from the barrage of bad-news-only data — which, by the way, was heavily manipulated in a variety of ways — fear and anxiety are also generated by keeping you confused. According to Dodsworth, giving out contradictory recommendations and vague instructions is being done intentionally, to keep you psychologically vulnerable.

“When you create a state of confusion, people become ever more reliant on the messaging. Instead of feeling confident about making decisions, they end up waiting for instructions from the Government,” she said in a May 20, 2021, interview on the Planet Normal podcast.³

An example provided by Dodsworth are the pandemic measures implemented over

Christmas 2020:

“Family Christmases were on, then off, then back on, then off again. You have got someone tightening the screw, then loosening the screw, then tightening it again. It’s like a torture scenario.”

But that’s not all. As explained by psychiatrist Dr. Peter Breggin, by layering confusion and uncertainty on top of fear, you can bring an individual to a state in which they can no longer think rationally. Once driven into an illogical state, they are easily manipulated. I have no doubt driving people into a state where logic and reason no longer registers is the whole point behind much of the conflicting information we’re given.

The Fear Factory

In her book, Dodsworth details a number of branches of the British government that are using psychological warfare methods in their interaction with the public. In addition to the SPI-B, there’s the:⁴

- Behavioral Insights team, the so-called “nudge unit,” a semi-independent government body that applies “behavioral insights to inform policy, improve public services and deliver positive results for people and communities.”⁵ This team also advises foreign nations.
- Home Office’s Research, Information and Communications Unit (RICU), which is part of the U.K.’s Office for Security and Counter-Terrorism, advises front groups disguised as public “grassroots” organizations on how to “covertly engineer the thoughts of people.”
- Rapid Response Unit, launched in 2018, operates across the British Cabinet

Office and the Prime Minister's office (colloquially known as "Number 10" as in the physical address, 10 Downing Street in London) to "counter misinformation and disinformation." They also work with the National Security Communications Team during crises to ensure "official information" gets maximum visibility.⁶

- Counter Disinformation Cell, which is part of the Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport. Both monitor social media and combat "fake news" about science in general and COVID-19 in particular, with "fake news" being anything that contradicts the World Health Organization's guidance.⁷
- Government Communications Headquarters (QCHQ), an intelligence and security organization that provides information to the U.K. government and the armed forces. According to Dodsworth, QCHQ personnel, and even members of the 77th Brigade, have been enlisted as so-called sockpuppets and trolls to combat anti-vaccine and anti-lockdown messaging on social media.

According to Dodsworth, there are many others. In her book, she claims at least 10 different government departments in the U.K. are working with "behavioral insights teams" to manipulate the public.

We're Just Seeing It Now

Importantly, government's reliance on behavioral psychology didn't just happen as a result of the pandemic. These tactics have been used for years, for myriad PR purposes, and while the pandemic may be winding down, Dodsworth warns that more and more behavioral scientists are being hired:⁸

"It's growing and growing. Right now, I feel we are in a maelstrom of nudge," she says. "In the past, there have been calls to consult the public on the use of behavioral psychology, and those calls have come from the behavioral scientists themselves. And yet it hasn't happened. We haven't yet been consulted on the use of subconscious techniques which effectively strip away our choices ...

I fervently hope this book ['The State of Fear'] is actually going to inspire a much-needed conversation about the use of fear, not just in the epidemic, but the way we use behavioral psychology overall.

It's not just a genie that has been let out the bottle. It's like we've unleashed a Hydra and you can keep chopping its head off, but they keep employing more of these behavioral scientists throughout different government departments. It's very much how the Government now does business. It's the business of fear ...

I think ultimately people don't want to be manipulated. People don't enjoy being hoodwinked and they don't want to live in a state of fear. We maybe need to be a bit bolder about standing up more quickly when something is not right."

Fear Is Contagious

Fear has long been the tool of tyrants. It's profoundly effective, in part because it spreads from person to person, just like a virus. The contagion of fear is the topic of the Nova "Gross Science" video above, originally aired in mid-February 2017. Among animals, emotional distress responses are telegraphed through pheromones emitted through various bodily secretions such as sweat and saliva.

As explained in the video, when encountering what is perceived as a serious threat, animals with strong social structures, such as bees and ants, will release alarm pheromone. The scent attracts other members of the hive or colony to collectively address the threat.

Humans appear to have a very similar capability. When scared or stressed, humans produce chemosignals, and while you may not consciously recognize the smell of fear or stress, it can have a subconscious impact, making you feel afraid or stressed too.

Humans also tend to mimic the feelings of those around us, and this is yet another way through which an emotion can spread like wildfire through a community or an entire nation – for better or worse. Behavioral psychologists refer to this as “emotional contagion,” and it works both positive and negative emotions.

For example, if you’re greeted by a smile when meeting someone, you’re likely to smile back, mimicking their facial expression and behavior. If someone looks at you with an angry scowl, you’re likely to suddenly feel angry too, even if you weren’t before and have no subjective reason to – other than that someone looked at you the “wrong” way.

However, while both positive and negative emotions are contagious, certain emotions spread faster and easier than others. Research cited in the Nova report found that “high arousal” emotions such as awe (high-arousal positive emotion) and anger or anxiety (high-arousal negative emotion) are more “viral” than low-arousal emotions such as happiness or sadness.

The Nova report also points out that researchers have been mining Twitter and other social media data to better understand how emotions are spread, and the types of messages that spread the fastest. However, they ignored the primary culprits, Google and Facebook both of which steal your private data and use it to manipulate your behavior.

At the time, in 2017, they said this information was being harvested and used to develop ways to avoid public messaging that might incite mass panic. But the COVID-19 pandemic suggests the complete opposite. Clearly, behavioral experts have been busy developing ways to generate maximum fear, anxiety and panic.

How to Inoculate Yourself Against Negative Contagion

At the end of the report, Nova cites research detailing three effective ways to “immunize” yourself against negative emotional contagions.

1. Distract yourself from the source of the negative contagion — In the case of pandemic fearporn, that might entail not reading or listening to mainstream media news that for the past year have proven themselves incapable of levelheadedness.
2. Project your own positive emotions back at the source of the negative contagion — If talking to someone who is fearful, they might end up “catching” your optimism rather than the other way around.
3. Speak up — If someone is unwittingly spreading “negative vibes,” telling them so might help them realize what they’re doing. (This won’t work if the source is knowingly and purposely spreading fear or anxiety though.)

Pandemic of Panic

In a recent Tweet,⁹ Ivor Cummins, a biochemical engineer who researches the root causes of chronic disease, shared a short video detailing the root cause of the panic pandemic. Why has the whole world seemingly gone mad from fear?

As explained by Cummins, the outsized level of public fear is the result of a catastrophic feedback loop system where political and mainstream media drivers are pushing fear onto the public, and public fears are then feeding the media (fear sells) and pushing politicians to take action, which generates more fear messages. And so, round and round it goes.

However, at a certain point, this engine of fear starts losing steam. To keep the pandemic pandemonium going, academics bearing doomsday predictions were brought in to scare politicians and provide more fearporn fodder for the media.

Aiding the academic drivers are unelected, undemocratic organizations such as the World Health Organization, the World Economic Forum, the United Nations, the International Monetary Fund, the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation and Big Pharma (just to name a few), all of which support these academic doomsday prophets from behind the scenes or openly promote them.

All of the organizations Cummins mentions are part of a technocratic, unelected elite that are making decisions for the entire world. If we were to somehow shut down this secondary engine that feeds into the first, the global insanity would probably start to abate.

The question is, can that be done? Robert F. Kennedy Jr. has likened our current predicament to “an apocalyptic battle,”¹⁰ as we’re facing formidable undemocratic forces with seemingly unlimited financial resources, political influence and the ability to control the global landscape of communications.

We’re facing a globalist agenda that ultimately seeks to gain total control by stripping away human rights and the rights of countries, and they’re using “biosecurity” as justification for it all.

Exposing the Grand Plan

As explained by journalist James Corbett in his October 16, 2020, Corbett Report,¹¹ the Great Reset is a new “social contract” that ties every person to it through an electronic ID linked to your bank account and health records, and a social credit ID that will end up dictating every facet of your life.

It’s about getting rid of capitalism and free enterprise, and replacing them with “sustainable development” and “stakeholder capitalism” – terms that belie their nefarious, antihumanity intents. As noted in the book, “Technocracy: The Hard Road to World Order”:¹²

“... Sustainable Development is Technocracy ... The Sustainable Development movement has taken careful steps to conceal its true identity, strategy and purpose, but once the veil is lifted, you will never see it any other way. Once its strategy is unmasked, everything else will start to make sense.”

In her blog post “The Great Reset for Dummies,” journalist Tessa Lena summarizes the purpose behind the call for a global “reset”:¹³

“The mathematical reason for the Great Reset is that thanks to technology, the planet has gotten small, and the infinite expansion economic model is bust – but obviously, the super wealthy want to continue staying super wealthy, and so they need a miracle, another bubble, plus a surgically precise system for managing what they perceive as ‘their limited resources.’

Thus, they desperately want a bubble providing new growth out of thin air – literally – while simultaneously they seek to tighten the peasants’ belts, an effort that starts with ‘behavioral modification,’ a.k.a. resetting the western peasants’ sense of entitlement to high life standards and liberties ... The practical aim of the Great Reset is to fundamentally restructure the world’s economy and geopolitical relations based on two assumptions:

One, that every element of nature and every life form is a part of the global inventory (managed by the allegedly benevolent state, which, in turn, is owned by several suddenly benevolent wealthy people, via technology).

And two, that all inventory needs to be strictly accounted for: be registered in a central database, be readable by a scanner and easily ID'ed, and be managed by AI, using the latest 'science.'

The goal is to count and then efficiently manage and control all resources, including people, on an unprecedented scale, with unprecedented digital ... precision – all while the masters keep indulging, enjoying vast patches of conserved nature, free of unnecessary sovereign peasants and their unpredictability.”

These new global “assets” can also be turned into brand-new financial instruments that can then be traded. For example, Zero-Budget Natural Farming is now being introduced in India. This is a brand-new concept of farming in which farmers must trade the carbon rate in their soil on the global market if they want to make a living. They'll get no money at all for the crops they actually grow.

The Pandemic Has Been a Psychological Operation

There's not a single area of life that is left out of this Great Reset plan. The planned reform will affect everything from government, energy and finance to food, medicine, real estate, policing and even how we interact with our fellow human beings in general.

It goes without saying that to radically transform every last part of society has its challenges. No person in their right mind would agree to it if aware of the details of the whole plan. So, to roll this out, they had to use psychological manipulation, and fear is the most effective tool for inducing compliance there is.

The following graphic illustrates the central role of fearmongering for the successful rollout of the Great Reset.

Social Engineering Is Central to Technocratic Rule

Technocracy is inherently a technological society run through social engineering. Fear is but one manipulation tool. The focus on “science” is another. Anytime someone dissents, they’re simply accused of being “anti-science,” and any science that conflicts with the status quo is declared “debunked science.”

The only science that matters is whatever the technocrats deem to be true, no matter how much evidence there is against it. We’ve seen this first-hand during this pandemic, as Big Tech has censored and banned anything going against the opinions of the WHO, which is just another cog in the technocratic machine.

If we allow this censorship to continue, the end result will be nothing short of devastating. So, we simply must keep pushing for transparency, truth, medical freedom, personal liberty and the right to privacy.

Recognizing that the fear we feel has been carefully manufactured can help free us from its grip, and once we – en masse – no longer believe the lies being put before us, the engine driving the fear and panic will eventually run out of steam.

Dr. Mercola has advised the application of cycling to maximize the effectiveness of various health practices. Ketogenic diets are effective when cycled to maintain metabolic flexibility. Likewise, heavy workout days need to be interspersed with recovery days; fasting days interspersed with feasting days; various nutrients and foods need to be cycled as well to receive their maximum benefit. Cycling is simply what works. The same principle can be found everywhere: music cannot crescendo indefinitely... impact must contrast with repose; a painting section pops out when set it against darkness, as Rembrandt knew.

One of the indications that the "pandemic" policies were a deliberate psy-op was in the application of the principle of cycling to the administration of fear. That doesn't happen by accident. This is a know torture technique used in psychological warfare. "You have got someone tightening the screw, then loosening the screw, then tightening it again. It's like a torture scenario," as Laura Dodsworth is quoted in the article. The anticipation of the next round magnifies the fear by getting one's own imagination working against oneself.

Cycling occurs across various time scales, like a fractal. California just announced a cessation of the various policy mandates... I don't know the details since I didn't pay attention in the first place. This may mark a winding down of the large-scale covid episode, within which there were various lesser cycles of the state-sponsored terrorism. If this marks a relative closure to covid, a repose, we now know, by the principles of cycling, to expect the next iteration... another "pandemic," a global cyber-attack/economic-collapse, space aliens... these things are all being set up. The article suggests ways to "inoculate" against the fear, but perhaps the best way is in actually seeing the pattern and the game being played against us. It is said perfect love casts out fear, but in a pinch, being pissed off will also work.

If the "vaccines" do their intended job of mimicking a more virulent viral strain, the next cycle will be covid once more. The only ways this won't happen is if the "vaccines" don't do their job; the public figures out the truth; or those in power decide they don't want "The Great Reset" after all. That's not to say that they won't also keep the other panic cycles, like climate change or WW3, going too.

"The anticipation of the next round magnifies the fear by getting one's own imagination working against oneself." That one sentence is extremely relevant, David. I've seen this as a Total PsyOps from the beginning. All the criminal oligarchs had to do was; plant the seeds of fear and doubt, stoke those fires occasionally; and then it would be a matter of "Nothing to fear; but fear, itself"! People are not getting sick; and yet, they have a totally irrational fear of getting "sick with covid" - even almost a year and a half later; during which time - they have not been sick! I think I'm running out of ways to state this obvious fact! Should they begin to worry about all the other diseases that they DON'T have?

The other "pandemics" are already underway. This is supposed to be the year where disclosure happens about UFOs and such. We have CRT setting up more and more discontent and furthered racial tension. Then CRT will be applied to gender identity. Then we have Biden poking at Russia. We have the normal looming ecological disasters. Throw on some virus variants and - Dr. Mercola wrote recently about this - but I was saying at the beginning - what about bacterial resistance that got everyone to stop using hand sanitizer years ago? If you just made a short list, of the artificial exacerbation of fear through "threat to your survival", it seems pretty concocted. The cultural "threat to your survival" tactic, has been employed brilliantly by teaching people to assume, that their identity is an outward projection of their psychology unhindered. So, there's never going to be any peace, only bad guys - as no group/person, can ever truly project themselves outwardly without resistance. This was manufactured. The environment "threat to your survival" tactic, works by creating new enemies/threats/pipeline hacks/etc. I just think the timing of this so called "disclosure" moment, is interesting. I mean you just think for a while, and if you were a bunch of billionaires wanting to rule the world, how you would convince people to obey/forfeit/whatever - you'd cook up scenario after scenario. I'm not saying there are no threats, but some are manufactured.

I found it very interesting that when vaccine tests were going on, Russia preemptively stated they had their own vaccine. It seems like they were saying, "We don't want your vaccine." Russia and the US, it seems to me, when under Trump, were fighting against globalism. The impetus to get rid of Trump, and to constantly keep Russia a villain, seems quite predictable if globalism was an enemy for them.

Yes, Darzoum you've got it right. I was thinking while reading this article, which I thank Dr. Mercola for, that I am like a walking body of emotion. It's emotions that drive my thoughts, an awful lot of the time. Then I was thinking about how the warrior appears in me, when damage is being done, and my only thoughts rise, from above the din. It's a nightmare world these billionaires have envisioned, which can't possibly work the way they would like. They need to put down their various "weapons of mass destruction," (I think that came from "W's" administration.) Make peace not war, I'll credit the Flower Children of the 60's for that, I am one. Now, why should they do this? Because, it is the people who have made what they have possible, and they blame the people for their own lack of insight. Their lack of faith in people has caused them to use treacherous means, yet they have been guilty of weakening everyone - through the weakening of laws that were supposed to reduce the use of dangerous chemicals, pollution and the degradation of soil and water. Let God be by our sides.

California's governor just signed an executive order that fully vaccinated workers can go maskless, while unvaccinated workers cannot. How does this prevent the vaccinated maskless from transmitting the virus?

CA governor also says vaccinated people can get a digital vaccine record from the CA Dept of Public Health but insists it's not a vaccine passport besides retaining his emergency powers! Really hope there are enough votes to recall and replace him.

I can sense the heartache from the other commentators. Since March 2020, I, too, have done everything in my power to tactfully point out the massive Holocaust that is headed our way. However, I disagree with calling these people who are lining up for these shots as stupid or sheeple. They are fearful tortured souls. I understand what's in their hearts and heads. Let me explain how I know. Up until a breast cancer diagnosis in 2018, I was one of them. I let fear rule my decisions, and made the most regrettable choice to listen to conventional medicine and get a double mastectomy. I even became defensive to a good friend of mine who gently told me that mammograms are harmful. I was not ready to listen to anything that could rock my world. Once that ordeal was over, I decided to pour my energies into getting to the bottom of things so that my daughter and nieces can learn from my nightmare. I slowly figured out the massive scam I fell for. It took about a year of research. I would spend about 4 hours daily, while the kids were in school, pouring over everything online, including scientific literature. I connected all the dots, I could see the octopus and its millions of tentacles into our everyday thoughts. How I desperately thought "please let me be wrong about all this so that I can go back into my safe little reality". Once I accepted my new reality, I suppose it's known as being red-pilled, I approached the next rats nest, better known as "vaccines", and noticed the exact same psychological tactics being used! It was the same pattern! The exact same narrative! I used to be pro-vaccines, never bothered to look into these "crazy conspiracies", and quickly realized the monumental scam I fell for. Then when 2020 hit, I was like "aha! Here we go again, but now on a global scale!" My warnings to my loved ones fell on deaf ears. I think it takes a massive personal tragedy to "wake up". But I will never stop trying.

"The Greatest trick Satan ever pulled was to convince humanity he did not exist". The level of fear so many have experienced is the Fear of Death ~ whether real or not. The media keeps pounding that message into the sub-conscious world-wide by ONLY reporting "New cases" and "COVID" deaths. Sheeple implies an unwillingness to stop and wake up to observe what is going on around oneself and simply following everyone else - like lemmings running off a cliff. Even when presented with factual information they refuse to see the truth & one cannot help wonder the level of brain function. While "stupid" is insulting it does portray an accurate description. The root word stupid comes from the Latin verb stupere for being numb or astonished, and is related to the word stupor, itself meaning a lack of critical mental function and level of consciousness, in which a person is mostly unresponsive and responds only to intense stimuli such as pain or fear. Still, most of the commenters have shown great restraint and compassion in continuing to try educating the sheep. We are acutely aware of what all this means and we see where this can potentially lead to. We are fighting evil on a Spiritual and physical level and we have the numbers if only we can awaken them to this evil.

Though fear itself is often counterproductive, there actually is a real basis for fear: THE STATE, being the embodiment of the moral corruption of a society, creates actual threats; dangers; and destruction to life; liberty; and civilized order to exploit and plunder its victims with its perpetual promotion of divisiveness; anarchy; and wars and using misdirection camouflaged by fear and disinformation. Germ warfare is real and it seems that it may kill billions. That they try to blame it on nature; or that the key component of the bio-weapon turns out to be the so called "vaccines", does not mean there is no basis for fear, only that in mindless panic; blind faith in the state; and the relinquishment of personal responsibility in exchange for promises of security and other free stuff, like food and medical care, lies only ruin and death. More than anything else, it's the zombies I see everywhere around me that gives me reason to feel fear that I'm part of a society suffering from dementia and on its death bed.

Well said, Markuzick. That last sentence, "I'm part of a society suffering from dementia on it's death bed," really nails it. The blind panic I observe in the public at large is stunning. I was reading letters to the editor daily in my local propaganda sheet of people begging for mandatory vaccination of others so that THEY can feel safe(ignoring the concept that the vaccine is supposed to be protecting them in the first place). Others beg for the digital vaccine passports, which fascist Cuomo has obliged them with in NY, so that only the "protected" may enter public places. I had to cancel my subscription to the newspaper when I could see that fear was being used to peddle their papers and they were ignoring facts that were counter to their disinformation. Even when I would send them links to research that proved their stories wrong, they continued to print nonsense from their supposed experts(usually just university medical teachers who parrot the CDC press-releases). The worst was several opinion columns by a guy who was head of ethics at NYU medical demanding mandatory vaccination. That's ethics?

One could also say that the fear is justified---it's just that it is being misdirected. I am reminded of something I was told by a horse lover. Many people are afraid of horses. If a fearful approach a horse while "shedding" fear pheromones, the horse senses the fear. It does not conclude that a human is afraid of ITSELF, the horse. The horse concludes that there is something else nearby that is causing the human's fear. The human's fear is thus communicated to the horse. The fear it feels is not of the human, but of the unseen danger the human seems to be reacting too. Maybe the horse rears up in its own fear. Now the human is even more scared of horses . . .

I have said this a number of time over the past 15 months: I am less afraid of covid-19 than I am of the entities that creating mass panic and feeding off the fear. Oddly enough, when I have tried to communicate alternative information to friends and to warn them of what I perceive as the real danger behind the propaganda and manipulations (not to mention, of the jabs themselves), I have been accused of "fear mongering."

This is, in a nutshell, the purpose of the use of the "conspiracy theory" weapon: to divert the people away from the real source of danger or from even considering alternative self-protective actions (which is the purpose of the fight or flight reaction to perceived danger).

A friend of mine, an osteopath doctor who is well aware of what has been going on the past 16 months, made a homeopathic recommendation for me after making an incorrect assumption. She said, due to my fear of COVID I could take Aconite. I quickly corrected her saying I am NOT afraid of COVID, but afraid of the massive overreach of governments and planned obsolescence of our freedoms and liberties; the destruction of America as it is the last stronghold of those principles in the world. Once America falls, so too the world falls. I added, the level of anger over this is cause enough for a 2nd American Rev..... "Fear is a motivator; Fear of Death is the Great manipulator."

mark - I see things a bit differently. I see massive overreach by those running the plandemic, to the point that the entire scam is backfiring on them. I see an awakening the likes of which have not been seen since the '60's. Thanks to this, a massive uprising against the elites is underway. The weapon of fear is being redirected at those few who created it. In other words, instead of widespread fear, I see widespread hope.

I've tried since the day I first read about the plan-demic in the UK rag, the Daily Mail, to keep all my friends informed about real and imagined dangers via factual articles about Covid 19. People I've known for years know what I've done - journalism, mental health, law, the three main areas. What's relevant is that my mother eliminated the excellent education I'd had in the UK and replaced it with a spit 'em out quick secretarial college in Toronto, so that I would always have a job was her rationale - and I concede to her logic; I was usually employed. In retrospect I suppose I used my employment as an education.

A couple of side-bars to my employment were Advertising and Public Health. The psychology of advertising fascinated me and I was also a Graphic Designer. I took myself to college as a 'mature student' (deplorable title) and we had courses in university level Psychology and Advertising as part of the Journalism curriculum. When I was a Court Reporter, like any of us, I always knew the outcome of the trial before it finished. It's just an ability you develop after recording at so many trials.

All that stuff I know is useful and I never ever thought the Covid 19 scare project was worthy of instilling fear. But I did read most of the malarky the endorsers published. I knew my friends might be frightened so I'd regularly forward something re-assuring from people like Dr. Mercola and Jon Rappoport, who's also brilliant at dissecting scams. How shocked I was when one of my friends (known her 40 years +) emailed, you must have too much time on your hands. Aren't you scared? So, of course, I wrote back, no I've never been scared. That's what all the "journalists" are trying to do, is scare you. That friend of mine and her children have had one shot that I know of. I still keep in touch with all my friends and I still try to help them understand the manipulation.

Posted On 06/18/2021

Retsbew

But my friends and relatives are so scared, I think their critical thinking has been sidelined and conformity is a great attraction if you don't know what to do. And it's the "journalists" (in that I include so-called, News Anchors, etc.) we can thank for this state of affairs. Get your shot now, it's your big chance, what if we run out of vaccines?!! Briefly put, I think Nuclear Plants scared me much more and still do because the stupidity, greed and purposeful ignorance today gives me no confidence in the plants or the people overseeing them. You earn a whack of $$$ in Ontario if you're employed at a nuclear plant. And, hey, who worries about the pollution or cancer in late life? To call nuclear plants green or electric cars green, (that will cause the proliferation of plants), is bizarre and demonic in my opinion.

I think the only way to stop the fear is to be more outspoken. Write letters to agencies, like the College of Physicians & Surgeons in Ontario, why they are wrong to dictate to doctors that they are not allowed to be in open discussion with patients and must follow the party line. I've already sent the interview with Dr. Christiane Northrup and Mike Adam to Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto, because Christiane is so good at hitting home with the real issue. She was a gynaecologist and obstetrician and she sees the path of destruction aimed at women via Covid 19.

I'm never rude and I show respect when I write a serious complaint. If this was 10 years ago I'd be demonstrating. But the police are too often out of control now. We never had that problem in the '60's with passive resistance. We have to change this one step at a time and we can't do that preaching to the choir. Every day more and more sane people are taking a stand publicly. They need our support. It takes a lot of bravery to do that in this climate, but I am 100% with what they're trying to achieve and I'm too busy thinking of what to do next than to be fearful.

I know what you mean about people being scared - last Christmas my sister proudly told me her son was sitting in their dining room - with all the windows open (all the time he was there), wanting to see his parents at Christmas but terrified (as were they) of killing them with this virus. I tried to reason with her, but social media had done its work too well - and so often! (These two were highly qualified University professors too - but they had just given up the ability to reason their way out of a paper bag - it just shows, because you have a couple of degrees doesn't mean you could make an informed decision under stress...). That interview with Dr Christiane Northrup that you found was brilliant, wasn't it? I've been politely writing to my political representative from the get go on this whole mess, but not one word have I had in reply I still don't know if he agrees but knows until the tide turns it would be unwise to agree, or if he's either immoral or unbearably stupid.

Very well written! I have noticed and have experienced much of what you talk about. I too have observed over the course of some 50 years how easily people can be molded in how they think and conduct themselves. I use to be far more trusting but over time that trust has eroded due to abuse of power. It is much easier to conform than it is to resist! A friend once said that people will choose the course of least resistance. Watching the developments over the past year and a half have demonstrated that observation to be true. I really didn't think that so many would actually cut in line to get these untested experimental vaccines. That was unexpected! I thought that there would be more questioning in the safety and effectiveness. People put more research in the shampoo they use than they did getting this jab. Like you, I forwarded articles on building up our immunity before the vaccines were released. I got very little feedback. I did however get a reply from a friend who appreciated the information and asked me more questions. I have never told people what they should do but have encouraged them to do their homework before rolling up their sleeves. Those around me know where I stand! That is important! My body! My choice!

You are doing good work by reaching out to help people. Fear is a debilitating emotion, and reassuring people with your advice and letting people know about Dr Mercola's articles and good advice along with others of like minds must give some hope, even if they don't see it at the time.

MoMac46, what you wrote touched me - if you have an artistic temperament it's not that easy conforming. Early on after reading some sad stories, I decided I'd be existential because it made sense. So occasionally I'd find the train hurtling down the track and have to act at the last minute. It did work out, or I wouldn't still be here... I was anti Gov. George Wallace, anti Vietnam, anti nuclear power, etc. Even though I'm very right brain, I had to use the other side to stop stuff. Did my own NAFTA (North Atlantic Free Trade Agreement) visa ap because lawyers charge $1,000 +. Lots of people here are hi on the social comprehension level, which is why it's such a great place to come. Then there are those brill types who do maths and words... OMG. I think one of the ways to get this situation fixed is to come together - to stop divide and conquer. It's important to help people who've taken the "vaccine" and I keep on with emails to them with suggestions from Dr. Mercola to mitigate the results of the "vaccine" if possible. I don't know how much longer they'll be here, but I can't stop trying - when I did Different Drummer for Canadian Mental Health, there was a saying inside the front cover: There but for the grace of God go I.

For those who haven't heard, we are witnessing a globally coordinated plan (conspiracy) to use fear and "safety" as cover for a "reset" of the world economy and society. This is a planned and internationally coordinated strategy by the most powerful global elites-the ruling class There's lots of different terminology and branding, for example: Great Reset, Fourth Industrial Revolution, Technocracy. The main aim of this plan is the concentration of power over capital, wealth, people and nature in the hands of the very largest corporations and monopolies. This plan for a new phase of global capitalism is enabled by national states and governments, international organizations and quangos (EU, UN, NATO, IMF, WTO, WHO, Gates, GAVI). With no clear lines between state and non-state actors, this is also a form of global corporatism. Environmentalist and egalitarian-sounding narratives and slogans such as sustainability, identity, fairness and equity are used to both obscure the class nature of the plan and to appeal to and co-opt 'left' and 'progressive' people and movements.

This is not in any way a "conspiracy theory" and anyone who rejects it as such is just not paying attention. It is being done in plain sight, in front of our eyes, openly. "Public Safety" is being used as the catch-all justification to entrench the Biosecurity State.

You can only understand the lockdown imperative in this context, for example it is an ideal opportunity for big capitalists and their state facilitators to crush SMEs and expand monopolies and for western states to permanently curtail 'legacy freedoms' that are hurdles to their dominance. I believe that people with immense wealth and power conspire- this is not a theory it is a proven historical fact. If you still cannot fathom that people with immense wealth and power conspire, then that doesn't make me a "conspiracy theorist" – it makes you a coincidence theorist. And an idiot.

It sounds like something an AI might come up with as an "appropriate response" to awareness of guilt. This is like Himmler "expressing regret" for genocide. Unfortunately this now sounds like just another layer of manipulation and sowing confusion, also attempting to disarm opponents. If "mistakes were made," then those who "made" those "mistakes" belong in jail or worse. At the very least they are fired, their pensions canceled, and their operation shut down for good. Could have been something else in India or maybe an everyday occurrence as hundreds of thousands die every year there. I also don't believe the numbers they give of people dying from this so-called virus. What happened to critical thinking? The hospital near me is dead and quiet even at the beginning of this plandemic and ever since after. When they put up tents practically NOBODY showed up. That went quiet really fast. But it's too late now. Millions have taken the mRNA shot trusting blindly. Already the deaths have begun with 4 pilots in Britain dead from the same airlines after taking the shots. All were reported healthy men.

Yeah, where were all the ambulances? If this many people had called 911 to get taken to the hospital because they couldn't breath there would have been NONSTOP SIRENS blaring! Remember, here in the USA they were telling people with symptoms to STAY HOME and not go to the hospital or doctor's office. They wanted you to do a zoom meeting with your doctor and they would mail you your meds. They said ONLY people with breathing difficulties will be admitted to the hospital/emergency room! I never saw a single ambulance drive by my house throughout this entire pandemic and I live on a busy street.

What's more phenomenal about this is I live next door to a Jewish Nursing Home! It's a very large facility. The only thing separating my property from the nursing home's is a drainage canal. I Googled this story about the 4 pilots and, yes, not only is it true and ongoing but there is a growing fear of allowing jabbed pilots of which 85% have been jabbed to continue to fly. Additionally, one of the posters of the story, in order to post it on Twitter, referred throughout the story and in the headline to the jab as "Maxine"..... Last night I had the strangest dream, I ever dreamed before, //I dreamed the world had all agreed that Covid's NOT a war. // I dreamed I saw a mighty room, the the room was filled with men, //and the papers they were signing said we'd all be free again. //And when the papers all were signed and a million copies made //They all joined hands and hugged again and grateful prayers were prayed //And the people in the streets below were dancing round and round, //and jabs and masks and all the lies were scattered on the ground. //Last night I had the strangest dream, I ever had before //I dreamed the world had all agreed that Covid's NOT a war!!!!

Distancing - treat your friends and family like strangers. Be afraid. •Sanitize - everything you touch is dangerous. Be afraid. •Isolate - you might be infected. Be afraid. •Mask - do not show your face, your smile, your emotions. Fear anyone who dares. •Ashamed be ashamed if you can't confirm. Shame those who do not conform. •Vaccinate - protect yourself from the virus. •Believe the media. Fear the truth.

Don't believe the data, believe in the vaccine. Most important: cures are not allowed. No one is cured. Nothing cures. Why? Cures and cured decrease fear. Fear cures - they are false. Fear cured - they are lying. ...to your health, Tracy

It's all for the same end game, just using different strategies, tactics & schemes. It's the most invasive & pervasive covert & overt psyop war ever. Further to your reference to cloning, there is no doubt that this is also a big part of the end game. It would likely be foolish & naïvely dismissive to think that this isn't already under way through the death shots. A person like Gates, Schwab, Fauci, Epstein, Obama, Hillary, Soros, Biden, many politicians & celebs, et al, would marvel at the idea of having their "superior" DNA is every human on the planet, even if it was nothing more at this point than an innocuous fragment, or, a stepping stone to further annexation & subjugation of everyone's DNA. I wonder how people would react if they were told that if they take/got the death shot, they will also be getting/have some of Snake Bill's DNA? Rather, the assumption that "perfect people" will somehow escape dastardly effects of these shots may be seriously flawed. The mRNA is encased in lipid nanoparticles, which for some unknown? reason distribute or are taken up primarily in (mouse or rat study?) reproductive organs.

It now appears the FDA was assured and thought they were approving one thing vs. what is actually occurring. This is no surprise. It was well-documented that Moderna's development work hit a safety wall in 2017 and needed a serious boost to get their technology out of the barn...this so-called pandemic provided a perfect opportunity. Last night, listened to Canadian pathologist from Alberta, CA, Dr. Rodger Hodgkinson discussing possible ramifications on the Highwire here: www.bitchute.com/.../wJTYH03KJRbW --- What does their discussion of serious oversights and tidbits tell you about their plans? This new book has gaslighting & further psychological manipulation/warfare written all over it. This appears to be another obvious normalization & pseudo-accountability tactic, but, this time, to also cover their ass & keep kicking the can down the road! They knew exactly what they were doing from the get-go, & now are trying to garner sympathy as another phase in the psyop, in spite of the damage is already done & the initial goal achieved! They've set the deck & are merely playing out the game. A very cruel, but, successful tactic of mind control is to first use gross exaggeration, displays of shock & awe, blatant lies & deception as an affront to the real agenda, then, do the dirty deeds, followed by start revealing some of the truth & feign innocence/fallibility, for which, by this point, has the subject/s under total mind control & truth is then dismissed & rejected for falsity by the targeted subjects.

In the rare case that any of these "useful idiots" is genuinely seeking to make amends, the only way that any of these zealots can ever be considered for forgiveness is via full accountability, transparency, deep humility & complete transformation through genuine humble atonement. They are never to be trusted or believed until such point that they can honestly demonstrate & sustain a life of integrity, humility & atonement, for which, is a very rare desire & transformative occurrence.

Do not under estimate the astounding, demonic & reprehensible level of sophistry & willful contempt used against the people. They have employed a vast arsenal of deleterious tools/tactics & do not expect them to back off because this is an all or nothing game. It's war! The people must flat out REJECT this tyranny, or, these satanic psychopaths will continue to use more & more clever, merciless & barbaric means to obfuscate, oppress, humiliate, exploit, subjugate & destroy the populace. Never forget that a leopard will change it's tactics, but, it will never changes it's spots.

Well Joe and friends,I am really happy to have read the above because it is EXACTLY the information that the general public needs to learn about and to be aware of.It is essential to be aware of the mindset of the "technocratic elite"and how it is being used in the service of an attempted totalitarian control of the planet.Here in Nepal i am actively now speaking out to intelligent friends about this ,many of whom are school principals and teachers and also to the children.It is amazing and positive that so many are open to listening rather than mindlessly believing in the mass media propaganda.

I teach and share meditation and this helps in two ways.Firstly ,by keeping the brain neurology at a low frequency(below 8 hertz which is the natural frequency of nature}folks can stay calm and peaceful within and most importantly ,intelligent.This low frequency also maximises healing of the body and the maintenance of good health.Secondly ,by helping people to become centred in their being ,their original intelligence,rather than in their conditioning and programming,which is the source of unintelligent behaviour approved of by politicians and the elite.None of the vested interests want intelligent ,self-trusting individuals.They want instead obedient,programmed sheep whose behaviours can be easily controlled by the mass media propaganda and who will not cause any inconvenient disturbance to their control agenda.I have to be courageous and honest enough to say that regrettably,this kind of deep conditioning starts in the education systems of the world,where the emphasis lies not on the true meaning of the word education,namely to draw out through loving acceptance the unique original essence and intelligence of the individual,but instead to turn out carbon copies who are ready to regurgitate the right answers in order to get ahead in a competitive society.I know i cannot change people :it is the individual's freedom to believe whatever,but at least i can share my truth.

Dear Siriousbe 1. How do you manage to keep the main frequency level down at or below 8 hertz? That may be easier with mountains and a national philosophy of calmness and appreciation of nature and spirituality, but here in the USA with all the electronic artificial manipulation of emotions, that would be a challenge. I'd love to help spread that sense of calm but would appreciate some guidance from you. Thank you.

In our recorded history, we have had many paradigm shifts from the stone age onwards. This is another one, and necessary on a number of fronts. Not just education needing reform , as you well stated, but also medicine, law, economics and politics all ready to evolve; all based on accumulated belief memories. Each system has outlived its usefulness. As with previous shifts, some think certain people are responsible, when in fact they are just playing a role, unknowingly of course.

That shows how your tax dollars are being spent, and why you should avoid paying them as much as possible. It also shows you that your government is not your friend, and cannot be trusted. That tactic is also very easy to defeat. When you have enough evidence that they are lying, and deceiving you, simply ignore them and everything they say. As if they did not exist. It works very well. Of course, it won't work for those who can't or won't bother to think critically.

Mainstream media is stating that all COVID-19 patients who are hospitalized at this time are unvaccinated. That is an alarm bell for me, not that it makes me want to go get vaccinated, but makes me want to know what is it about these patients that isn't being told? Such as: Are they overweight? Do they have diabetes? Do they have hypertension? What is their Vitamin D level? How much zinc, Vitamin A, C & E do they get in their diet? Were they given any proven COVID-19 treatment to keep them out of the hospital? How many vaccinated people have been hospitalized? I know the data exists. We're just not being told about the other health factors necessitating hospitalization. It works to instill fear.

What they are not telling you is that many vaccinated are dying or being hospitalized with serious complications, especially those under 30. An 18 year old healthy young lady died. One who is suffering greatly is a fifteen year old boy who was perfectly healthy. Check out Children's Health Defense.

The vaccinated have the spike proteins throughout their bodies. I believe the release of another covid is planned for later this year. I saw a graphic of some "authority" doing a power point presentation and she had a look of shock and "oops!" on her face when a slide came up showing Covid-19 and below that, Covid-21. When the vaccinated are exposed to 19 or another spike protein virus, their immune system will attack their body's organs and many will be seriously ill or die. The plan of eugenicist Bill Gates and George Soros, the Bilderbirger, the Illuminati, the WHO, and probably many we don't know about. I remember that George Dubya talked about the New World Order. Just posted this in the National Post, Canadian newspaper. "The "vaccine" is gene treatment. It is killing and injuring people. The communications media needs to cease and desist from pushing the envelope that the "vaccine" is in any way a good thing. You may not have symptoms now, but later on the results of having this "vaccine" may be disastrous. I am not an anti-vaxxer, but a person who has researched this crime against humanity since it started in the UK. The UK Daily Mail is often first with the news, but it is also a vial of deceit and fraud. Does the National Post also qualify for this description? There are many sources, which are increasing, where you can find the truth. There are people stepping forward to reveal that they can't deal with the fraud any longer. Yes, there's what is termed a virus that's harmful, but it's been jazzed up into the champion creative writing project of all time. Dr. Reiner Fuellmich, German lawyer, who brought Volkswagen and Deutsch Bank to justice for wrongdoing will be at trial in Nuremberg proving that the PCR test is not fit for purpose. I believe that he is a very clever and sincere man who will win at trial. So what happens next National Post? You keep that news out of circulation? Why are you journalists? Why did you go into the business of running a newspaper? Is it not for the common good? Bluntly put, what the hell are you doing?"

A fabricated virus released from the Wuhan lab in conjunction with the radical morons of the left wing aka Democrats and Rino's. I wonder how many people are really paying attention to the fact that that the Biden Reich was put in place to finish what Adolph Hitler proposed but was never stopped despite what Americans were led to believe. If you go back a mere 58 years and study the murder of then President JFK and move forward you should be able to determine what the agenda of those you allegedly elected to represent you are really doing. Let's start with LBJ who amplified the Vietnam fiasco which resulted in countless deaths and ongoing misery to this very day. Nixon the Republican was in bed with China and while he did end the Vietnam fiasco his other actions cast a huge shadow over ending the Vietnam war. Gerald Ford was a pawn and in case you missed it there was a fake 'flu' epidemic which resulted in thousands of deaths from a bogus vaccine. Along came Jimmy Carter and he excused those who deserted to Canada to avoid the military draft and welcomed them back while our Veterans (like today) were starving in the streets. Ron Reagan came along and while his intentions were very pro American the attempted murder of Reagan by a stooge sent out by the communist left wingers failed but did put Reagan on notice to back off or else. George H. Bush the phony Rino and ex head of the criminal CIA put the former USA into the Gulf war which resulted in more needless deaths and homeless Vets and accomplished nothing. more to come

I believe that ultimately we will learn the hard way that we cannot outwit real science. Our world operates based on its own very specific scientific laws, and human endeavors in the realm of science have, since the dawn of time, been about testing hypotheses to suss out the mysteries, the details of those laws. We are foolhardy to think that we can change or rewrite those laws, and yet that's exactly what these technocrats are attempting to do. The more we label good science as "anti-science" or "debunked" science and proceed to operate based on the junk science being forced on us, the more quickly we will find ourselves to be too greatly at odds with the realities of our planet, a position from which it will be impossible to recover. And our world will have no choice but to throw us a real (as opposed to a technocratically fabricated) comeuppance. I hope we can wake the rest of the family before the house is fully consumed and they die in the fire.

Good_Hands - It is critically important, especially as the world is today, to avoid conferring or implying meaning using incorrect terminology. Our world operates as a condition of what it 'IS', it's own Creation/natural phenomena, without "input" from man. When Creation/natural phenomena is referred to as "science", "science" is then lauded as the supreme highest authority & all those who work in "science" are held as the gods/creators/rulers of all things, for which, has proven to be extremely problematic. Science is a label creation of man & prone to mischaracterization, falsity & idolatry. Currently, words & terms are inferred with many different definitions & meanings, subjectively, as a means to confuse, dramatize & manipulate intention to suit an agenda through the use of sophistry by means of relativistic deconstruction of universal absolutes/Reality. I trust you never intended to imply meaning to "science" in this way, however, this is an example to never forget perception is 9/10's of the law, as the saying goes. If we wish to share truth, we must all be wise with the tools we use to do so. With so much overt emphasis on "words matter", we must be mindful of the use of "selective words" such as "science", "experts", "authority", "viruses", "isolated & purified", "studies", "research", "vaccines", "news", "disinformation/misinformation", "fact checkers", etc. As we see as commonplace today, "feelings" dominate, whereas, universal truth, integrous actions & genuine virtue are attacked, vilified, oppressed & ostracized.

Real science is the study & observation of Creation/natural phenomena. Science can only prove what already IS! When science is used for exploitation, manipulation, & usurping God, then it is a gross mischaracterization & abomination of what it is generally perceived as. The scourge of relativism, sophistry & elimination of free speech is the obfuscation of truth & the death knell of Freedom & Peace & serves as satan's welcome mat for tyranny.

The concept of cycling makes so much sense. It perfectly depicts what Fauci, the WHO, CDC, et al, have been doing - disseminating confusing and contradictory guidance. I'm particularly concerned over the claim of "Herd Immunity". On the one hand, governments are pushing mass vaccination to achieve herd immunity. Yet at the same time, we are told that mRNA vaccines were not developed, tested, approved, or even claimed to provide immunity. They are designed to reduce the severity of symptoms.

Several comments point to the next pandemic, a predictable step in the cycle of fear. As reported in the article, this current phase "overachieved" in its impact to create fear and confusion leading to draconian controls of the population. This is where I suspect the role of vaccinated individuals comes into play. If indeed they are less susceptible to severe symptoms, how likely is it that a vaccinated individual would even suspect COVID when experiencing mild respiratory issues? We are seeing fear-mongering emerge concerning new variants, more transmissible and more deadly. Deception is most effective when mingled with elements of truth, leading me to believe that variants are real and perhaps planned. I wonder if the next phase will be driven by "super spreaders", the vaccinated population unknowingly spreading infection, while also serving as walking incubators of the new variants.

A word of caution regarding Rife devices. I knew John Crane, Rife's associate who himself was imprisoned in place of Rife because Rife was too ill to serve the time. The original Rife devices used cathode ray tubes filled with noble gasses; helium, argon, neon, etc. There was some speculation in those days of the gasses themselves, along with the frequencies playing a part in the healing process. I attended the First International Conference of Alternative Medicine on AIDS in 1989 and met a few doctors who had some of the original Rife Ray devices who, through their own personal observations agreed with this association. Steve Ross of the World Research Foundation is also in agreement. Steve Ross was one of the few people who knew Crane, had a few of Rife's original devices and 1 of Rife's original microscopes. He also had the Rife's infamous Universal Scope for a breif period. As such, Ross is quite an expert on Rife. Most of the newer devices use transistor-based, digital signaling as opposed to the older "analog" signaling from cathode ray tubes. There is some arguing as to which mode works. Many argue for the digital but are those who manufacture them. Others have tried manufacturing the original devices; it is questionable as to some of their efficiency. Ross is one for the cathode-ray, noble gas device as I am also having tried both. What I am saying is "Buyer Beware" especially with the digital devices.

Although during the pandemic from March 2020 up until mid-April there were still some messages by government calling to vaccinate, but since May with ZERO Covid, the government is not any more pushing to vaccinate. It is now clear that intentionally or not, many behavioral psychology studies by scientists such as Asch and Milgram on humans, as well as animal studies on learned helplessness in effect have been Gain of Function, much like what has been done with viruses, leading to the "weaponization of behavioral psychology". The excuse is "we need to study XYZ to understand it better" whereas in reality, the goal is to add yet another weapon to the arsenal, to better control and manage the population.

Targeting behavioral psychology: I very much agree with putting this subject under the microscope! It started with Pavlov and Wundt before the turn of the last century, and has been eagerly supported by many governments right up to present time. Governments - and managers in general - hate unpredictability in their operations. And their idea of what to do about it is to force everyone into predictable patterns of behavior. That this destroys freedom, the cornerstone of human happiness, seems to escape them until it's too late.

JUST BUSINESS Q: Why have global and national health authorities done everything in their power to discourage and prevent people from knowing about and accessing any treatment? A: Because if an approved, effective treatment exists, then an experimental vaccine can not be authorized legally.

"An Emergency Use Authorization (EUA) is a mechanism to facilitate the availability and use of medical countermeasures, including vaccines, during public health emergencies, such as the current COVID-19 pandemic. Under an EUA, FDA may allow the use of unapproved medical products, or unapproved uses of approved medical products in an emergency to diagnose, treat, or prevent serious or life-threatening diseases or conditions when certain statutory criteria have been met, including that there are no adequate, approved, and available alternatives."

It was an existential decision from the beginning: Do you want to live in a world like this, even if this was the Black Plague? Of course, by March, 2020, the hoax was clear. However, the multiple forms of poisoning the population produced symptoms (think of 5G and military radars for which you cannot even buy an instrument to measure the radiation). Of course, when you check SAERS, most of the deceased had "preexisting conditions" by the time of their untimely departure. (Well, lots of entries simply disappear from SAERS, too.) If you know what you want and it's greater than mere survival, you cannot be intimidated or confused, because you keep your eyes on the target. I just hope, you mean well...

Don't forget something else. Even with all the manipulated numbers, especially of deaths (as we all now know, the overwhelming majority of "deaths from Covid" were actually not), people were not dying fast enough or in sufficient quantity for the powers that be, so they quietly had the WHO redefine the word "pandemic" so they could keep using that very frightening word to instill even more fear among the public.

When your faith is in God, you don't fear! You pray, Trust, and Obey! The Bible has been available for everyone to find out what's coming, and for those who don't believe....be afraid, be very afraid. That's probably because Jesuits have crept in unawares. I've noticed first hand how pathetic the "church" has become in America today. Impossible to even pass a church without noticing pagan symbolism all over their buildings, and signs inviting you to their "Easter, Halloween or Christmas events"

I'm so grateful I haven't had cable to watch TV for the last 11 years. What a blessing it is to research, discuss with friends, family, acquaintances & strangers in the grocery stores or parks then come to my own conclusion. Fear of covid was never an option. There was never any data to support their narrative and it became obvious real quick that to question "them" meant being attacked and ostracized by some friends and family. Wonder if an apology will come my way? Lolloollolol Just kidding

" On Thursday, the Biden administration announced a commitment of $3.2 billion to developing antiviral pills to treat COVID-19. At the briefing Thursday, Dr. Anthony Fauci told reporters that while vaccines are still "the centerpiece of our arsenal" in fighting the disease, antivirals would complement them. He explained that those who are more vulnerable, like those who are immunosuppressed and may not receive as much protection from vaccines, could be helped by antivirals that treat COVID-19. And antivirals, Fauci said, would also provide "a line of defense against other unexpected emerging things, like variants of concern that we are currently dealing with." The funding will be used both to accelerate clinical testing of promising drugs that are already being developed and to discover new medications."

A fear of death is perhaps greatest in those without religious faith. Thus, the systematic destruction of religion. Destroy any and all things that stand in the way of fear.

Posted On 06/18/2021

Retsbew

Sorry, Palazzolo, but I disagree. I am not at all religious. But my decision is not without thought. I attended a Catholic convent for eight years; when we emigrated to Canada from England my first friend in public school was an orthodox Jew. We went to B'nai Brith Camp together and I've been to bar and bat mitzvahs and at the time I learnt to speak Hebrew. I don't like the human folderol accompanying religion, nor the threats involved that I find offensive. But, I've had what's known as a crossing over experience and there is no doubt in my mind that there is a G-d. Each of us has the right to worship whatever/whoever we see as G-d. Fear of death tends to be universal I think, not exempting those who are religious. The only church I've ever been to that I kind of enjoyed was a Baptist church in New Church, VA because we sang songs and shook hands with each other as part of the service. What was more interesting was that NASA has a base there with a load of old space ships. ...Maybe they'll be refurbishing a few for the next shocker we might expect after this one?!! Something that I like and admire about Dr. Reiner Fuellmich is that he describes himself as not religious, but spiritual. I could really feel that he is - he's not a "typical lawyer" but a genuine human being who cares for humanity and I see no signs that he's going to drop the ball.

The opposite could be argued. Barring family tradition and social needs, religion is how we suppress the fear of death. We can cheat death by holding the right thoughts in our head, saying certain things and performing certain acts and rituals. We can then remain calm when confronted with our mortality. We are in effect immortal. At least in some cases the fear of death is less for those without religion; they feel no need for it. Everyone dies, why get all upset. And everyone is afraid of death in a foxhole; no atheists there.

Delivering those who 'through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage'.....only one can do that, & not man who is subject to death & vanity by the Holy Spirit of Truth & the seed of the word of truth received with repentance toward God & faith in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ according to the scriptures who overcame death for whosoever will receive it. John 1,3 & 8; 10-16; 1 Peter 1, 1 Corinthians 15 KJB. For flesh & blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God. It must be transformed by the power of God, not of knowledge or man's righteousness which are insufficient, hindered by sin & corruption. The beginning of wisdom is the fear of God who is holy, holy, holy: incorruptible, faithful & true. The fear of man bringeth a snare.

Hebrews 2:14-18 KJB ¶ Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

Heb 2:15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

Heb 2:16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

Heb 2:17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

Heb 2:18 For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

1 Corinthians 15:50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

She said "well, I have to ask because if you have had the shot, you have to wait 2 weeks to get your mammogram because it causes white spots on your images...what???" I asked "what is that from"? and she said "we don't know", but it is recommended you wait the 2 weeks. So....what is it???" Anyone else heard about this?

Issues with the lymph nodes. Dr. Stephanie Seneff and some others have reported on this, as well as Dr. Mercola. And I can testify that those who work in healthcare & with the public know this, having learned the hard way by sending folks for cancer screening according to the old normal protocol. Because it's vaccine related it's not supposed to be called signs of cancer, but ignored.

The other aspect of this is the msm picking up and reporting that this was all due to a lab leak. It may have been so but why is this being said now is the question? And why the calls for Fauci to be fired? This is just another straw man set up by the cabal. If people think Ok then it was a dangerous virus leaked from a lab even though it may have only been another bad flu season (why no flu last winter - and don't believe the lie that it died out due to masks otherwise why did the masks not work against the "virus"? Then there is a new level of fear ramped up by "variants" to get any holdouts on the vaxx to get in line. Leading again to total control. Look at what is happening now in the UK v what Desantis did in Florida.

Clearly the next turn of the screw will be the "variants". It's no coincidence that most of the vaccine roll out has been just prior to the warmer months of the year to give the impression that it is the vaxx that is working rather than seasonality. The vaxx is not an end in itself it is a Trojan horse to implement total control

Vaccine shedding isn't just an issue of aerosols, and masks can't help even with that. Especially not if they are intentionally contaminated as was found with children's masks in Florida recently. Simply touching or being in close proximity with vaccinated persons is sufficient to contaminate the unvaccinated with fragmental dna, viral protein particles etc.

This is the type of 'news' that people in NW Indiana are getting from our local paper. ignorance is also contagious. it seems that most doctors don't bother to think. They automatically call this "SHOT THAT KILLS" a vaccine. They automatically follow whatever NIH, AMA, CDC or the FDA say. Our lives are at risk from taking a "shot' that magnetizes our body and spreads spike proteins that are a toxin. Hoosiers will find out in about 6 months to 2 years that getting The Shot to have our country attain herd immunity was all a lie. ...Dr. Kristina Box, the Indiana state health commissioner, said the best way to not die from COVID-19 is to not get infected with the virus in the first place. And she said the best way for Hoosiers to protect themselves from the virus is to get vaccinated as soon as possible....

One must work at locating local meat sources as may assure no injections. The other, and very frightening possibility, is the feed is laced with the shot ingredients or is raining down on feed animals as in chemtrails.

We all knew this from day one. It was why everyone on this forum called the entire pandemic fake news. It was so obvious even a blind man could see it. All you had to do to figure this out was watch all your elected officials actions. NONE of them showed any signs of fear. They were going out to eat right after locking down their cities/states. They were getting their hair done after closing all the hair salons. They were out boating in their yachts after banning any and all recreational activities. Even the Surgeon General got busted walking out on the beach in Hawaii where all the beaches were closed! What? Can he not READ?? www.cnn.com/2020/10/08/politics/jerome-adams-hawaii-citation-trnd/inde.. He has ran this rhetoric nonstop since day 1. Even Joe Biden has slipped and forgotten to put his masks own. His wife had to remind him several times to put it on. If you are really that scared of something you don't forget about it. I bet no one would forget the dangers of being bitten/attacked by alligators and snakes if they had to swim across a body of water in a Louisiana swamp! How dumb is Biden? Maybe he's not not so dumb. He was smart enough to use these same fear tactics to get elected and it worked. Of course, he had a lot of help from some key local governments.
