March 20, 2021, on the 1-year anniversary of the first COVID-19 lockdown, people in more than 40 countries took to the streets to peacefully demonstrate against COVID-19 lies and tyrannical measures.

The documentary above, "The Pushback," details the day the world stood together against government overreach and the destruction of human rights — and why we must unite, every day, and push back.

Chances are, you didn't hear about this global rallying cry for freedom, as the mainstream media have near-universally censored any news of it. The few that did report it either understated the global nature of the event and its attendance, or misrepresented the intent of this "Worldwide Freedom Day."

Freedom From Fear

So, just what was the intent behind this global demonstration? In short, to tell our elected officials and unelected global leaders that we withdraw our consent to these unconstitutional overreaches and attempts to strip us of our rights and freedoms, and that we will no longer submit to and cower in fear. As noted in the film, fear and hysteria were carefully nurtured using a false narrative that said:

- A deadly novel virus is sweeping across the planet
- No one is immune and there's no cure
- Asymptomatic people are major disease vectors, and therefore:
- We have to shut everything down, isolate everyone and wear masks until the whole world has been vaccinated

And, of course, anyone who challenges this crazy narrative is labeled a danger to society. Every part of this narrative is false and unrealistic. In reality:

SARS-CoV-2 poses a high risk to a very limited group of people and a negligible risk to the vast majority

Few are susceptible to severe illness or death

There are several effective treatments available

Asymptomatic people – historically known as healthy people – do not spread the infection

Lockdowns and mask mandates did not work and have caused great harm

Vulnerable people have been harmed instead of helped

Ground Zero of the False Narrative

March 3, 2020, the World Health Organization tweeted out a comment by WHO director-general Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, which said:

"Globally, about 3.4% of reported COVID-19 cases have died. By comparison, seasonal flu generally kills far fewer than 1% of those infected."

It makes COVID-19 sound like a serious problem indeed. The problem is that Ghebreyesus compared apples and oranges. He reported the case fatality rate (CFR) of COVID-19, versus the infection fatality rate (IFR) for the flu.

As explained in the film, CFR is the proportion of deaths from a disease compared to the number of people diagnosed (the total number of confirmed cases). The IFR, meanwhile, is the proportion of deaths from a disease compared to the total number of infected individuals, confirmed or suspected.

Since CFR requires the infection to be confirmed through laboratory testing and clinical evaluation, and the total number of infected people can be hard to determine and includes suspected cases, the CFR is always lower than the IFR.

By conflating CFR and IFR in the same sentence, comparing two different sets of statistics, Ghebreyesus grossly overstated the threat of COVID-19. Stanford University researcher John Ioannidis pointed this out in a March 7, 2020, response, in which he said, "Reported case fatality rates, like the official 3.4% rate from the WHO, cause horror — and are meaningless."

October 14, 2020, Ioannidis published a review of 61 seroprevalence studies¹ showing that the IFR for COVID-19 was actually only 0.23% — a far cry from the CFR of 3.4% — and for people under the age of 70, the IFR was just 0.05%. In other words, COVID-19 is actually less deadly than the flu. Many have noted that the IFR for flu is typically only around 0.1%, and even at that, COVID-19 is less deadly for people under the age of 70.

PCR Test Added Fuel to the False Narrative

As noted in the documentary, at this point, there are so many false narratives it's hard to know where to begin, but a good place is the reverse transcription polymerase chain reaction (RT-PCR) test, as it is at the heart of this scam. If it weren't for this flawed test, there would be no pandemic to speak of.

The fact is, the PCR test is not designed to be used as a diagnostic tool as it cannot distinguish between inactive viruses and "live" or reproductive ones.² This is a crucial point, since inactive and reproductive viruses are not interchangeable in terms of infectivity. If you have a nonreproductive virus in your body, you will not get sick and you cannot spread it to others.

What's more, the test was developed using nothing more than computer modeling of a genetic sequence. No actual viral isolate from a patient was ever used in the development of this test.

November 30, 2020, a team of 22 international scientists published a review³ challenging the scientific paper⁴ on PCR testing for SARS-CoV-2 written by Christian Drosten, Ph.D., and Victor Corman. The Corman-Drosten paper was quickly accepted by the WHO and the workflow described therein was adopted as the standard across the world.

The 22 scientists demanded the Corman-Drosten paper be retracted due to "fatal errors,"⁵ one of which is the fact that it was written (and the test itself developed) before any viral isolate was available. All they used was the genetic sequence published online by Chinese scientists in January 2020.

As if that doesn't make the test unreliable enough, laboratories were instructed to amplify the RNA collected far too many times, resulting in healthy people testing "positive." The number of amplifications is known as the cycle threshold (CT).

When you get a positive result using a CT of 35 or higher, you're looking at the equivalent of a single copy of viral DNA. The likelihood of that causing a health problem is minuscule. Yet the WHO,^{6,7,8} the U.S. Food and Drug Administration and the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention⁹ were recommending CTs between 40 and 45, thereby guaranteeing a vast majority of "cases" were in fact false positives.

How the Greatest Hoax in History Was Fashioned

As detailed in the featured film, widespread PCR testing gave the mainstream media the fodder needed to create hysteria. For months on end, every broadcast had a tickertape showing the number of "cases" detected.

Other fear-induction tactics included universal masking and 6-foot social distancing rules, replete with plastic barriers everywhere and signs on every floor telling you where to stand and in which direction to walk.

One of the primary tactics that drove the narrative that masking and social distancing were necessities was the lie that asymptomatic people were spreading the infection. Anyone could be a lethal threat. No one was to be exempted from suspicion.

That old man with a cough? Lethal threat. That muscular jogger, flushed from fresh air and exercise? Lethal threat. That pink-faced precocious 2-year-old? Lethal threat. A fearful public soaked up the propaganda and started verbally and physically attacking non-maskers without regard for logic, reason or science.

Without the PCR fraud and the asymptomatic spreader lie, the COVID-19 pandemic would have been a short-lived blip. The lies were able to stand for one reason and one reason only, and that was the implementation of universal censorship of anyone who spoke the truth and pointed out the scientific fallacies that were driving the pandemic narrative.

With these psychological tools — preceded by a single carefully crafted revision of the definition of "pandemic" a decade ago — they manufactured the greatest hoax the world has ever seen. Indeed, you could say the redefinition of pandemic was what brought us to this precipice in the first place. The WHO's original definition of a pandemic was:^{10,11}

"... when a new influenza virus appears against which the human population has no immunity, resulting in several, simultaneous epidemics worldwide with enormous numbers of deaths and illness."

The key portion of that definition is "enormous numbers of deaths and illness." This definition was changed in the month leading up to the 2009 swine flu pandemic. The change was a simple but substantial one: They merely removed the severity and high mortality criteria, leaving the definition of a pandemic as "a worldwide epidemic of a disease."¹²

By removing the criteria of severe illness causing high morbidity, leaving geographically widespread infection as the only criteria for a pandemic, the WHO and technocratic leaders of the world were able to bamboozle the global population into believing we were in mortal danger.

What Works and What Doesn't

The total discarding of science is perhaps the most perplexing part of this pandemic. We're told to follow the science, but what they actually mean is that we must do as we're told, without evidence. As noted in the film, we've long known what works and what doesn't, when it comes to pandemic disease mitigation.

Effective measures include hand-washing and isolating the sick. Everything we've been told to do over this past year falls squarely in the "proven ineffective" category, and that includes large scale quarantines, border closures, school closures, social distancing and universal mask use. What's worse, everything we've been told that is necessary to save lives, actually fuels disease.

What Was the Pandemic Really About?

In my best-selling book, "The Truth About COVID-19 – Exposing the Great Reset, Lockdowns, Vaccine Passports and the New Normal," I detail the backstory of how the COVID-19 pandemic was created and, more importantly, why. If you do not understand the geopolitical landscape we're in right now, you will struggle to understand why anyone would possibly lie about a virus and create a pandemic out of smoke and mirrors.

In a nutshell, a small but highly organized technocratic elite have used this pandemic as a justification for eroding liberty, freedom and democracy from Day 1, and the reason is because they want to usher in a whole new global system. The global elite refer to this new system as the Great Reset, the Fourth Industrial Revolution and the Build Back Better plan.

Make no mistake, the plan – as laid out in various papers and reports, including a 2010 Rockefeller Foundation report,¹³ in which they describe their "Lockstep" scenario, which is a coordinated global response to a lethal pandemic, and its 2020 white paper,¹⁴ "National COVID-19 Testing Action Plan" – is to use bioterrorism to take control of the world's resources, wealth and people.

The plan is to use the need for coordinated pandemic response as the justification for permanent surveillance and social controls that hobble personal liberty and freedom of choice.

To learn more about the hidden power structure running this global reorganization toward authoritarian control, see "Bill Gates Wants to Realize Global Vision in His Lifetime," "The Great Reset and Build Back Better," "Technocracy and the Great Reset" and "Who Pressed the Great Reset Button?"

The Time to Stand for Freedom Is Right NOW

In 2007, Naomi Wolf published "The End of America: Letter of Warning to a Young Patriot," in which she lays out the 10 steps to tyranny. She's now warning everyone, everywhere, that we are at Step 10. Once Step 10 locks into place, there's no going back. It'll be too dangerous to fight back.

Right now, you might face police brutality or censorship. If that dissuades you from doing your part in standing against the totalitarian dictates right now, in the future, you'll lose everything.

The good news is the would-be tyrants have not won yet. That said, we have no time to spare. We have no time to remain idle, hoping it will all just go back to normal on its own. In countries where citizens do not have a Second Amendment right to bear arms, the answer is peaceful mass civil disobedience.

In the U.S., we do have the Second Amendment, which allows citizens to own and bear arms, and the mere possibility of an armed uprising makes it more difficult for a tyrannical government to get their way. That said, peaceful disobedience is the primary strategy in armed countries as well.

We must also rally behind legislation that prevents the alteration of laws that safeguard our freedoms. To that end, Wolf has started the Five Freedoms Campaign, which you can find on her Daily Clout website.

The campaign focuses on creating legislation to preserve key freedoms and prevent emergency laws from infringing on our freedom to assemble, worship, protest and engage in business. Legislation is also being crafted to open schools, remove mask mandates and eliminate requirements for vaccine passports.

Hope, in the Face of Tyranny

I have no doubt that we will ultimately stop the globalists' drive toward global tyranny. It's not going to be easy. It may take years, and it may get far worse before it gets better.

The founders of the U.S. fled repressive societies or were children or grandchildren of those who did. They had to personally reckon with criminalized speech, arbitrary arrests and state sanctioned torture and even murder. The men who signed the Declaration of Independence knew that if they lost the war, they would be executed for treason.

These men and women were radicals, fighting for liberty and personal freedoms. They had a vision of reality that was an absolute slap in the face of what the rest of the world tolerated. They were willing to sacrifice their lives to turn that vision into a reality. Most all of us have forgotten their sacrifices and have capitulated to the carefully constructed narrative to create fear that allows most to give up their claim to freedom.

The Founders trusted us to remember our history and remain ever vigilant, to keep the precious web of liberty and personal freedom that they constructed from evaporating so that there would never be an American tyrant. The creators of the U.S. Constitution understood that the price of liberty was eternal vigilance.

Hopefully, enough people will see through the mainstream fog and see the truth of where we're headed and how we got here (if you don't, read "The Truth About COVID-19"), and once you understand who the actual enemy is, you become less fearful and more efficient. You can now help educate others, so that they understand what's going on, how they're being deceived and what they're actually about to give up.

Lastly, there are legal solutions that can help thwart the globalist takeover, technological solutions that can strengthen citizens' lobbying power, and censor-proof technologies that will allow us to circumvent current Big Tech monopolies. We have to work on all of these fronts but, together, I believe we can resecure freedom for our children and future generations.

A key element of the psy-op is occurring outside of the medical realm. It is a mental virus being spread in classrooms, promoting racism, injustice and unconscious compliance, all couched in terms that indicate their opposites. People so indoctrinated are now occupying key positions in government, corporations and society, like an invading army slipping-in under cover of generational gradualism. That gradualism drifts from bedrock moral precepts through moral-relativism's downward-wending way. To resist this psy-op, it must be seen for what it is, but the acuity needed to make those determinations is under systematized assault.

The net effect is a divide-and-conquer program. Various wedges are being driven into societies, families and friendships. False enmities are created to blind many against their real, common foe. We can clearly see this wedging action applied across life's spectrum; the most insidious is to define a man as simply a biological machine—something primarily material. This has the effect of driving a wedge between one's physical existence and his/her own higher faculties of consciousness. Such a person is being set-up for the "bio-digital convergence" as a controllable, functional unit in a technocratic vision. That vision seeks to replace everything life-supporting with an inferior technological surrogate. We see this with food, health, environment and in all the realms of mind that they seek to replace with programmed implants. Instead of the miracle of sunlight, water, air, earth and life's spark alchemically combined into our various sustenances, they see lab-made substitutes. Instead of the struggle for transcendent Self-discovery, they see the download of transhumanist operating systems.

That anyone can see through this attack is a sign of hope. The powers that sustain us are beyond the ken of technocratic tyrants. If we rise to those levels, they cannot. "Survival" literally means "to live above"; that we must.

"survive (v.) mid-15c. (implied in surviving), "to outlive, continue in existence after the death of another," originally in the legal (inheritance) sense, from Anglo-French survivre, Old French souvivre (12c., Modern French survivre), from Latin supervivere "live beyond, live longer than," from super "over, beyond" (see super-) + vivere "to live" (from PIE root *gwei- "to live"). Intransitive sense "to live on" is from late 15c. Related: Survived; surviving. "

You possess great clarity, David. Covid is indeed, a total PsyOp! The fact that the majority of the population fail to see the huge elephant in the room, can be quite discouraging. I've been calling this insanity a HOAX from the beginning. It's good to see people coming around to my way of thinking. ;)

I'm surprised that Dr. Mercola hasn't mentioned the international lawyers and others who are taking this to the courts, in a global effort to reinstate our "Rights and Freedoms"; because, from where I'm sitting, I see them disappearing - fast!

All I can see these days; all around me, is fear, paranoia and delusion! The globalists have done their job well.

I am so tired of attempting to get the word out; and have it falling on deaf ears and it is truly exhausting! I'm forwarding this article today, with a note that it will be the last one, to my usual recipients. There is just too much stress involved, trying to get through to people who refuse to listen. I've done my best - for years! I don't think that anyone can fault that. I know all too well, what's coming and I really need to focus on my own health and well-being.

BTW: I couldn't access the video.

Yes, connect the dots & realize this is more than the various jabs & is involving the 1%'s system in all areas from soup to nuts, emphasis on the Nuts.

The desperation on their part to bully, beg, bribe people, to include children after a year of stating they are the least affected just to get numbers so they can claim Vaccine Victory. By the way, now the big story is the variants attacking children, to back up that push.

Legacy Media is reporting healthcare workers in one facility laid off for refusing the jab. As the article reports how much more is being suppressed? For anyone who has been around for any of the major efforts for reform for much of anything that could prove positive for Life & our Birth Rights has seen story's like this buried for decades.

When I tell people some of what I have learned from Dr. Mercola about the pandemic and vaccine they bring up India and all the people dying there. I don't know what to answer to that. Why are so many dying ? They blame Covid. Is that true? I am not as smart as many who post here and seems a simple question , but I do not know how to address it. I want to help people understand what is going on.

Very good Darzoum. I would just say I like to differentiate between "divide and conquer" and "divide to conquer". Divide and conquer sounds like a done deal, saying we are conquered if divided. I try to say we are being divided in order to conquer but we are fighting back in many ways. This Mercola forum is one. What I am saying sounds like just dicing words but when you give it thought, imho, it has strong meaning to say we are being divided in order to conquer but that is not going to happen as long as we fight back.

In answer to MAR on this thread: Well for a start, you could in theory at least link the mortality rate in India to the high vaccination rate. The rate in India peaked in October 2020 then declined at a normal steady rate, as natural herd immunity took control, then rose steeply after vaccination.

Check out each country featured in alphabetical order at: https://youtu.be/xSrc_s2Gqfw Compare India with Cambodia which had zero deaths until mass vaccination. The May 27th analysis by Mike Whitney on mercola.com gives plausible explanations which have since been confirmed by researchers such as Stephanie Seneff and Judy Mikovitz. Think spike protein, not virus and you are half way there.

In response to MAR with regard to what is going on in India, one should go to thehighwire.com and watch Episode 215. In that episode, Jefferey Jaxen, subbing for Del Bigtree, discusses, at approximate 45:00 minutes remaining mark, "Issues Post Vaccination" in many countries including India, in which cases significantly increased after start of the vaccination campaigns. This is a signal that is being totally ignored. Jaxen also interviews an India insider describing the horrible conditions in that country for the majority of the population living in slums made worse by their government's response to the declared pandemic. Recently, the health agency in India has been flip flopping on HCQ and ivermectin, bringing them in at the peak of the cases post vaccination driving down the cases, but then removing the meds, which was celebrated by the criminal WHO.

Darzoum, The wedges you speak of were used many times before most recently by a man named Adolf. His NAZI movement made indoctrinated children "turn in" their parents to the Nazi SS if they spoke unflattering words about Nazism. In the very same way strangers are turning in neighbors for not wearing masks or daring to speak against a world wide drug experiment whose long term effects are completely unknown. Or are they?

Darzoum - Well said. It reminds me of an aspect of the plandemic which few are talking about - who stands to benefit the most from the plandemic? We all know that the stock-in-trade of banks is debt. They create wars, not to sell arms, but to generate debt, so that the result is that they control the end game. This has been the case since the kings of Europe were fighting with each other and became indebted to those who loaned them the money to pursue their vainglorious wars. In the history of the world there has never been more debt created than by the plandemic. 'Nuff said.

More details on "survival" from Stanley. We can look to word histories for clues initiating our own thinking; survival is generally thought of as physical, but there is mental, moral and spiritual survival as well. Actual survival must entail all of them.

Randy, yes, the globalists have done their job well, but they couldn't account for everything... this isn't over, or...

as juststeve points out, what's with the "desperation on their part to bully, beg, bribe people" if their position is so powerful?

MAR746294, the statistics & graphs Cabochon and tireguy cite are worth a view—should give you a different interpretation than the mainstream spin.

otis101, thanks, I'm sold; "divide to conquer" it is.

Almond

Darzoum and all...

We still have a long ways to go. However, it is encouraging to see signs of cracking in the belief system. I have been hammering away with facts for a long time now. Even the people who opposed "health foods" are starting to come around. Yesterday, someone admitted they are taking vitamin D for protection against covid. So, it will be a long struggle.

People need to hear the message repeatedly before they begin to question things. That is somewhat like the manner in which they were unthinkingly brain-washed--just thru repetition. Only this time around, I am also asking them to think, not just accept what they are told. People will often cling to belief systems even when there is evidence to the contrary. What they gain is false security by abdicating their individual responsibility to others. They want to be relieved of the stress of decision-making. They believe that if they do as they are told and do not rock the boat, they will be included and taken care of. It is too scary for those who lack confidence to be self-reliant and different. As I have said previously, they would rather be dead than different. Their identity is wrapped up in being part of the herd. So, they must be offered an alternative that promises them something of greater value. People change because they overcome their fears by believing they have more to gain.

Boris Johnson nails his colours to the mast. More than 200 former world leaders and foreign ministers including two former UK prime ministers, Gordon Brown and Tony Blair, wrote to G7 leaders earlier this week, urging them to agree to meet two-thirds of the £46.6bn cost of expanding vaccinations throughout low-income countries.

www.theguardian.com/world/2021/jun/10/from-russia-to-brexit-the-key-is..

“Vaccinating the world by the end of next year would be the single greatest feat in medical history. I’m calling on my fellow G7 leaders to join us to end to this terrible pandemic and pledge we will never allow the devastation wreaked by coronavirus to happen again.” (Boris Johnson)

Translation: Injecting the world’s population with an experimental death shot will be our single most effective genocide attempt since the Holocaust, which now seems a bit amateurish in comparison. We must use the fake plandemic to our advantage - never let a good crisis go to waste - now we can depopulate most of the planet and the rest of the dross can be useful as slaves in our new world order. Let’s “build back better” in this Fourth Industrial Revolution. With good PR from our royal buddies, Charlie and Harry, Mr Blair as our chumocracy champion and Oor Wullie’s dosh there is no limit to what we one per centers can do as the controllers of the sheople. We already passed our handy Coronavirus Act in 2020 so no need for that interminably tedious old fashioned debating nonsense. I think they are mostly trying to get rid of people that are over 65 and those with severe underlying conditions. Those are the people they see as being the greatest burden to their new technocratic society. If you look at VAERS' numbers, you'll notice right off the bat that most of those dying after vaccination are over the age of 75. In many cases, they died the same day they got the jab! We are at 5,100+ deaths and counting in the USA. You have to understand, efficiency is critical for a technocratic (socialist/communist) medical system to function. The USA's medical system, by design, is the most inefficient system in the world! It is totally profit driven. So there is no incentive to be efficient. The longer they can drag something out the more profits they make. Many countries copy the USA's system to a lesser degree, but all of those copy-cats are profit driven. To be more like China and have a government controlled medical system, we will have to cull all of those that are a burden to the system. Everyone with underlying conditions, everyone requiring assisted living, and everyone over 65 will be targeted. This is why I don't see doctors unless it's an emergency and when they ask for insurance I tell them I don't have any. In the USA they still have to provide you services as long as you are willing to pay for. I even pay cash for my biometric screenings. I find it amazing when I go to Kroger's Little Clinic for my biometrics and they ask for insurance. I tell them I don't have any. Their computer system won't allow them to enter me as a patient without all of my insurance credentials, but by law they have to provide me services. After several phone calls to higher ups they just give up and test me without entering it into the system. It's going to be more critical going forward that everyone does this to make it more difficult for them to target you.

Posted On 06/10/2021

Historically, eugenics programs have targeted those who were considered by the elites to be lesser humans - essentially anyone not of European descent. Now that they've trialed the jabs on their own kind in the US, Europe, Australia and NZ and found them to be effective and have gathered the stats on the best ways to use them to reduce the population, the focus will be on everyone else in 'less developed' countries.

If Boris and his ilk claim that the vax will end the pandemic, how will they explain the return of the virus, or a new virus?

One or the other is already expected, and we already know they will try to blame a recurrence on the unvaxed. That won't work if a new virus arrives, and if the vaxed start dying off from the vax, as they already are. It looks like they will have quite a dilemma to deal with since they have painted themselves into a corner.

Indeed steve, there can be no other explanation for risking an experimental injection passed off as a "vaccine" in order to maintain freedom from liability in case of adverse reactions for the manufacturers. When the risks from the remedy are worse than the disease it's time to call a halt. You are probably right in suspecting that the politicians and royals have not had the genuine article. In spite of all my researches and outrage at the plandemic fraud, a part of me still hopes I am wrong and it's all just a bad dream and we will soon wake up to find a normal sane, not perfect but more or less benign world in place. The reason for this is some of my nearest and dearest have had the injection and one of them would like to add to her family so raising fertility issues from an auto-immune reaction to the placenta, thus risking miscarriage.

I agree, JamNjim, the "useless eaters" were being dispensed with first. Why the VAERS statistics go unreported on msm is in itself a crime against humanity. I do not aspire to copy the U.S. health care system. The NHS is far from perfect but Bojo has plans to illegally sell of parts of it by stealth. How can you sell what you do not own? The burden on any medical system is partly created by poisonous processed food, state subsidies of big Ag crops aided and abetted by big Pharma and their toxic chemicals which have wrought havoc with human metabolism - the root cause of the chronic degenerative and cognitive health pandemics we are seeing today. Instead of creating a fake plandemic over a lab engineered virus no worse than the common flu and wasting millions on dangerous injections, they could have subsidised a real food movement and independent organic farming. But then that would not fulfil the globalist, eugenist aim to reduce world population. Interested in your comment that you don't go near medics except in an emergency. I recently decided on exactly the same tactic and am thinking of having annual tests done privately, so that I have as little contact with the NHS as possible. Increasingly I have found their service perfunctory, condescending or unnecessarily intrusive and actually told my GP he was behaving like the medical mafia. I have not yet had the courage to mention that he and the nurse administering an injection would be held personally responsible for any adverse effects.

That makes sense from their distorted view of the human race, Krofter and the presumption that they have been (self)-appointed by virtue of their wealth or power grab to decide who is worthy of living. I am no biblical scholar but some teachings ring true - no less so in the modern world. I am thinking of the saying "it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to get into heaven." To that I would add a powerful man. Power corrupts, so they say, and absolute power corrupts absolutely. No-one has the right to sit in judgement on their fellow men unless of course a crime has been committed. I must admit if there is a convenient tree outside Wastemonster, it would be temptingA far worse punishment for the perpetrators would be appropriation of their assets and a long prison sentence, though it wouldn't be much fun for the other inmates.

We are revisiting our old friend "cognitive dissonance" here, panamadana. There were quite a few articles and comments devoted to that theme at the beginning of the plandemic. It's the art of getting people to believe two opposites simultaneously - a technique perfected by fascist and totalitarian ideology presumably to confuse and disorientate the sheople but which only serves to underline the fact that the whole narrative is a massive fraud from start to finish. As you mum probably warned you when you were little, once you start telling lies, you need another to cover up the first one. My favourite one is about testing healthy, asymptomatic people. Logic demands I should be tested for all other infectious diseases, not just COVID-19. But if I ask my doctor to test me for TB or influenza, the first thing he will ask is about my symptoms. When I admit I don't have any, he will start to question my mental health!

Thanks for the link to the Schwab bio and his "once a Nazi, always a Nazi" ideology. Do you know any reformed ones? Thought not. I had no idea his company was involved in South African apartheid regime's nuclear weapons. Shocked to discover a Scotsman founded the Club of Rome. "The real enemy is humanity itself" sums up the globalist approach to over-population. I have a solution - let's get rid of the globalists - or invite them to set a good example by volunteering to self destruct. The most pertinent question the author poses: Is Schwab trying to create the Fourth Industrial Revolution or the Fourth Reich? Amazon reviews of his scribblings are brutally honest:

"Evil: This has all been in the planning for a long time and Covid was deliberately used to force the Reset. Boris Johnson's recent speech (Oct 2020) even uses the phrase 'cheek by jowl' like written in this manifesto. Let's face it that's not an often used expression. Our PM is a globalist like the lot of them and like all revolutions they don't care if some die or become poor along the way: the end is worth the means. They plan a world where we stay primarily at home (as states in this book) and as you can see the deliberate destruction of the hospitality industry is one way of achieving this. Damn the Rothschilds, Soros types, Freemasons and sell out politicians/MSM to the lowest circle of hell."

"The "Great Reset" may be quite different to what these patronizing authors' think. Highly patronizing book telling us what to expect from now on as United Nations "Agenda 21" is rolled out throughout the world to enslave us all and to rid Nations of their identity (in Scotland we are not permitted to play bagpipes)!!!Practically every world leader uses the same language and is selling out their own people to Big Pharma and Tech companies. This month's jargon is "Build Back Better"..... The "Great reset" will rid the world of Masonic evil and politicians who are terrorising their own people."

jamNjim thinks that they are targeting the elderly. But, doctors have been giving our babies and children a long schedule of vaccines for decades, starting on the day they are born. They give the Hep B vaccine to a newborn. WHY? For money, not out of health concerns. The target consumer for the Hep B didn't buy the vax, so now doctors are palming it off onto the trusting parents of newborns.

And now we are hearing of reproductive issues of men and women who took the Covid jab, excessive bleeding of fertile women, etc. That should be a big red flag. So, no, I think every age, race, gender is at risk in this Covid issue. I think they want to trim down the population any way they can. And since it is random, they don't seem to care about the loss value in our workforce that will occur from this haphazard death lottery. You would think that they would target poor, uneducated countries first, but they haven't.

Erin - On the surface that does seem to be the case. But I'm also seeing a significant wake-up happening... even among some who've gotten the jabs. The recent news of Fuaci's lies and the lab leak story seems to jostling people into considering that everything they've been told for the past 15 months is questionable. I believe we'll be seeing more bits of news about the dubious nature of the plandemic coming out in the near future. As that happens, the house of cards will begin to collapse.

Dear HealthNut,

You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can not fool all of the people all of the time.

I am happy to admit that I was never fooled from the very beginning. I am not a doctor, lawyer, academic or other professional that always seems to be in the news bloviating about their expertise. My reason for being suspicious of the entire Covid Hoax, and I am not afraid to call it a Hoax, is something I have had all my life that has protected me physically and socially. It is called by many labels, intuition, gut feeling, sixth sense. No matter what it is called it told me immediately when I saw and heard Tony Fauci, this guy is evil, this guy is a fraud and his game is a Hoax perpetrated by politics and those who deem to control politics with their massive fortunes. No longer content to have more money that they and their entire families can ever spend in their lifetimes, they now lust for physical control and dominance over every aspect of every life on the globe. And thankfully, within the past week or so the hoax and the agenda is starting to crumble. A mere month ago Tony Fauci was still a media darling and best bud of the democRAT communist party. Today we the people are calling for his "head". I believe this is the beginning of the end for Fauci & Friends. And I would gladly volunteer my services to help "take out the trash". The only question I have is where do we have enough room to put it ? Maybe Leavenworth ??

Erin Elizabeth, as you rightly say many of those who are actually using their brains are on this site. And there is the snag. Those who want to be the masters of the world know that and will make every effort to turn it and, if need be, the Internet off. We must find other means to keep in touch. Via as many intelligent sites as possible so that we keep the knowledge alive. It can all go, in an instant, with the flick of a switch.

Yes, I agree with HealthNut, and it is especially heartbreaking to see people continue to take Big P's chemo/radiation route for cancer. My cousin just told me she would be getting "full brain radiation" so that she can increase the "quality of life" time that she has left. And she was a nutritionist by profession, which boggles my mind. I think some of the hardest people to convince are those in mainstream professions like that. They just do what the doctor tells them, without question, because the doctor has a big certificate on his office wall that makes him "right" all of the time in his decision making. If I were to suggest that she buy a juicer and use it all day long, would she listen to her cousin, who is just an artist? Doubtful! So, all I can do is respect the decision she is making regarding her body, and pray for her.

Since the so called vaccine does not preventing any disease and just, supposedly, makes symptoms of this fake virus less severe, they are basically creating a world full of asymptomatic spreaders. Wonder what they will come up with after they 'uncover' that.

Yes, I am wondering how they will try to explain a return of the virus. No doubt, it will be a new virus, which will require a new vax.

Also, several reports are showing that the vaxed will suffer much worse illness if they get the virus, than the unvaxed.

They will try to blame any return of the virus on the unvaxed, but that won't work if it is a new virus, or if the vaxed continue dying off.

on March 20 2020 I rejected the Drosten/ Ferguson Snake funded and engineered Lockdown - I posted that the mortality figures were false and this was a power grab and wealth confiscation SCAM - I stated that this was an attempted Coup and the sure path to ECONOMIC SUICIDE - now 15 months later the pressure to tear away the Propaganda and outright LIES has revealed what I asserted then to now be proven true - but the Snake and Dr Falsie have not yet been exposed as FRAUDS and CROOKS - but it is getting closer to this realization although the push for the Death Shot continues apace - what does the Future hold for us?? - with over a 100 million US citizens agreeing to the SUICIDAL act of synthetic RNA transcription the casualty rate predicted to be reached in the next two years will dwarf the 17 thousand deaths that the USA and the EU have collected as their mortality stats post vaccination - but Pharma wants YOUR blood money - so the push for more vaccinations continues with "variants" and profitable "boosters" all part and parcel of the FAKE VACCINOLOGICAL SCIENCE that makes utterly FALSE claims for "herd immunity" and "immune memory" {they FALSELY claim that the human organism has NO immune memory} - then there is the research done by Drs Thomas and Lyon Weiller that proved beyond a doubt that UNVACCINATED children were HEALTHIER than vaccinated children - so the whole VACCINATION SCAM is pushed by Pharma Bucks so that the human species will become weaker and more prone to disease - this is the Pharma model - "plenty of disease and NO CURE" - this is how these privately owned for profit entities propose to fleece human beings for their wealth and life - this DISGUSTING state of affairs is the one that is prevalent now - don't get SUCKERED by these CRIMINALS {all of them repeat felons} - fight the power with outraged indignation - there is NO CHOICE

Hard to be more spot on. Yet, another layer to the Fear Machine is the simple fact Big Pharma has very little real medicine. Not only that but the lack of the States ability to provide its own basic needs fed a notion this is all one bigger monster as opposed to regular seasonal illnesses regular people learned the basics of preventing spread ages ago. The 1% power machine revealed way more than they would have liked as when one couldn't buy toilet paper, a Hamburg, & so on, reveals how little the majority of humanity even crosses their minds in any way beneficial to anyone but to the machine.

As always, follow the money. Who got the biggest buckets from get go? Banks, monster monopoly corporations who believe they stand outside of any nation & above very Foundations of Life. They have not only killed people, but even more of the fabric & bonds of society to consolidate to pick winners and losers out of the carnage.

Their fear machine exposes Foxey Falsie & the status quo as another machine who actively short circuit, bypass the innate immune system with the disruption to sell potions and elixir's causing more of the same to sell more of the same. Falsie with his background in HIV must be a Grand Wizard Master understanding how to disrupt our health on a sliding scale, from mild to death.

Time to take stock on our own resources and ability's and who may share healthy values to literally create from the Ground up the Health in our body's, family's, societies that is our birthright.

hi steve - the old moral dilemma of what is "right" and what is "wrong" has correlations with the realm of the spiritual - of interest is the understanding that Godliness is always rejected by those that reject moral obligations for personal predatory gain - Godless people make Godless decisions - and inflict their moral deficiencies on victims that encompass the vast majority of human society - these anti social DEMONS are like the Snake groomed through childhood to demand and take - "gimme, gimme, gimme" - I can just see Snake junior throwing one of his childhood tantrums - if Snake Senior instead of filling his brain with "murdering innocent humans" had told Snakey to "serve Mankind with kindness and gratitude" this whole eugenics fiasco would not have happened

Canadian here too! Under Ford also, unfortunately. But I think it's important to remember that Ford et al are just talking heads that do what they're told; they don't really have any "power" per se. Someone recently posted a video clip of Ontario's health officials admitting this off-camera. But that's a whole other conversation! Lol

About Nuremburg 2.0, this site says it's happening in a few weeks, on July 4th:

nurembergtrials.net/nuremberg-trials-2-0

I've been trying to find out where it's happening, but no go so far. Maybe it will be based in Germany? Apparently, trials will be happening via Zoom. Have a hunch that perhaps they aren't disclosing the base location for the purposes of anonymity...if no one knows where they are, no one can stop them.

In the meantime, <https://www.peoplesrights.org/> is a great site to get yourselves educated on making further plans if necessary. Ontario has a shockingly low number of members right now, but they do have downloadable business card sheets that can be passed along in whatever way you might deem appropriate :)

Talking about tyranny and media suppression, there's a link here to 42 × different pre-hysteria, peer-reviewed, scientific mask studies, all of which find to varying degrees that paper / cloth masks do not block microscopic viruses of 80 to 120 nanometers in size. So it's useful stuff that you can forward to the large number of uninitiated people who are too busy or too scared to educate themselves and fight back. The Google browser is unlikely to find these studies either since the world's largest peddler of misinformation interfered with it. Cheers!

It amazes me that people even need a "study" to tell them, what I believe, should be obvious. None of those masks are capable of blocking a viral "nano" particle; and then there's the fact that many of those masks have gaping holes on both sides (I can actually see people's mouths from the side) - utter insanity! Thanks for the link, anyway. I have told people of the uselessness of the masks and that there are studies proving it. Showing them the studies may help; but, in my experience, most people won't even look at those studies; because, of course "The science is 'settled'!"

I'm sure you know this, Chris, but even in Canada lots of people don't know who Guy Fawkes is, or was, so just for someone who's not familiar with Guy... He tried to blow up the Houses of Parliament. In England on November 5th Guy Fawkes is always celebrated. You ask your Mum for a pair of your Dad's old pyjamas and you stuff them with dry leaves and grass and you make a head with a mask for a face. I always liked to have a hat on his head too. Some children who were older were allowed to take their guy to the local shops and people would stop by and admire the guy and fill their tin can with pennies, sixpences and shillings if you were really lucky - you were going to buy fireworks with the money. Then on the fifth you get a big bonfire going and Guy Fawkes sits on top of it to make a really good blaze. Usually you have the fireworks before the bonfire.

To remove a noxious weed, one must destroy the root, the seeds and correct cultural conditions that favor it....The human weed is "death consciousness" ...it lives in the "ego"..it was cultivated by slave masters through history.. it began with bloody displays of physical domination and then added cultural integration through devious religions...was seeded via evangelism and peer pressure.. creating a "soil" where where no opposition existed.. Death consciousness is unlike immediate fear common to animals in that it is permanently injected into the invisible ego and makes control possible, replaces love with selfishness/greed and allows murderous crimes against others..It stifles joy, happiness and refuses higher states of divine consciousness and human potential...It is behind every sales pitch and propagandists' agenda...It blocks-out freedom, creative imagination and the very light in Plato's cave...All to feed the greedy egos of those who attain power. It is an intentional construct, not "The human condition!"

The first rule of a solution to any problem is to identify the root cause....Any doctor or mechanic or anyone else who does not pinpoint a cause or identifies a secondary cause will fail..They can hide their mistakes or bury them but the truth remains. Pharma-heads have perfected the art of deception...Our institutions and media supported it and now fake science has eclipsed fake religions, and as this paradigm cracks we will likely return to bloody physical domination or utter chaos. History covered in weeds repeating.

forbiddenhealing - absolutely! Deep within the human subconscious is the bloodlust to kill, that is accessed through rhetoric, propaganda, delusion, self-aggrandizement, deception, lies, various modalities of intervention (such as drugs, vaccines, GMO's & psychological exploitation) & fearmongering, et al, for which, manifest today in numerous behaviors as the world is witnessing currently with this "plandemic" fraud. The most common manifestation of this dark & destructive affliction is the pervasive expression of the desire of "being right". The satanic malignant messianic megalomaniacs in most positions of influence & power today are convinced that they are "right", "superior" & "justified" in all of their nefarious & insidious agendas such as this "plandemic", "climate change", "experts", "equality", "diversity", "cultural appropriation", "victimhood", "white man bad", "CO2 bad", "masculinity bad", "two genders bad", "families bad", "freedom bad", "truth is what 'I' say it is", "racism", "no one left behind", "government intervention", "BLM", "ANTIFA", "social justice", "feed the world", "save the whales", etc., etc. The fear porn never ends.....until people find their personal sovereignty & self respect.

Hi Forbidden,

Lions, tigers and bears, oh my! More difficult find a good history outside the defining refrain of 16 vacns in 72 doses until age 18. This 69 Billion per year religion has a horrible track record, a target 10% of the population are slow detoxers; yet everyone is subject to one-size-fits all mentality. By applying political spin to SIDS, ADD, AHAD, and Autism, summarily labeled then swept under the carpet. Adding to that, many kids are being primed for diabetes later in life. Not only death but also careless maiming that rips apart the fabric of society and burdens families living with these events with intense pressure. Somehow this opaque curtain remains intact?

Now the "one-sizers" are offering another subset choices of massive headaches, blood clots, tremors, miscarriages, potential sterility and heart attacks, in 20 and 30 year olds (and older)! Lives ruined, families destroyed. With NNT's up above 80, doubtful "promised protection" is anything more than illusion. Weeds? Weeds are being promoted everywhere!

The doctors channel has been free to listen to on Sirius radio for the past year and a half so they can brainwash even more people with their Vaccine Propaganda. I was listening to the NYCDocs as they call themselves, taking phone calls from citizens who had concerns about the vaccines. The amount of fraud and lies oozing from these people's lips absolutely sickened me. Talk about disinformation...and also the fact that stupid Americans actually call in to these shows and trust the advice they are receiving. 🤔

We truly live in an Age of Deceit. I heard one of these radio doctors tell a caller to "Trust the World Health Organization (WHO) and the Center for Disease Control (CDC). I had mixed emotions hearing this...Rage Against the Machine.... I Hate fraud and deception, and these wicked and deceived doctors deserve to be punished for their role in convincing the masses to commit genocide. However, I simply cannot understand how people cannot see through the obvious propaganda and deceit.

No wonder the elite want to slaughter us all. They perceive us as either stupid or disobedient.

I would like people to know that in Israel all public places have been open to non-vaccinated people for several weeks and the requirement to wear a mask in indoor public places is being removed on June 15th. I do believe this has all been engineered to look good, but this gradual opening is also part of the plan, as if to authenticate the pandemic (plandemic). It's all eyewash and hogwash. Clearly they have reduced the number of cycles on the PCR test which naturally reduces the number of so-called infected people. Meanwhile, I know three men who did succumb to the pressure to be jabbed who are now suffering from chronic headache and a variety of infections and, they say, the most severe form of flu they have ever had. In a doctor's waiting room I overheard two women talk about having had miscarriages a week after being jabbed. More and more people seem to be waking up, a bit late unfortunately. People here succumbed to the pressure to be jabbed, I think, due to a heightened sense of danger and fear of death, as so many deaths in this country are very violent due to the political situation. After so many years of living with wars they are traumatised. Usually the health services in Israel are first rate which I believe gives people too much faith in what they have to offer. And, besides, of course, Mr. Netanyahu is extremely corrupt and only considers his own needs when making decisions that affect all the population.

I know a young couple who made aliyah shortly after Netanyahu made his deal w/ the Pope & they ramped up the so-called non-proselytization laws & began booting Gentile evangelicals who'd been there for years. He was the son of a rabbi converted to born again follower of the Lord Jesus Christ by Isaiah & the Prophets compared w/ the fulfillments in the New Testament, & w/ a love for his people big& true enough to take it on the chin (& perhaps the neck) for them as James Boanerges, & Saul become Paul tangling with those of the Circumcision...am I become your enemy because I tell you the truth? Galatians KJB, & 4:16 in particular. The stage is being set for the first Gog-Magog war of Ezekiel 38-39 removing some 'hindrances' to that final counterfeit saviour & global united system; & beyond that for that terrible time of Jacob's trouble (Jeremiah 30) & Daniel's 70th week (Daniel 9-12; Revelation 6-20). She sharing his love& courage, a true daughter of Israel.

I don't expect them to enter into that terrible time given being of the firstfruits& caught up, but who knows what persecutions or sufferings might transpire in the meantime? I pray for them, & for all Israel to be saved, for the peace of Jerusalem in hope & w/ good will as the Father's proclaimed in the word & by the angels at the incarnation, sending & lowering himself...the holy, holy, holy; Elohim, Jehovah...the mystery of the Godhead reality that man w/ body, soul & spirit created in his image & reconciling the shema of Deuteronomy 6 & 1 John 5, John 8 beyond men's ability to fully comprehend, yet written, evidenced & sure. He sent him even knowing the rejection & crucifixion that he would face, the postponement of the kingdom, the terrible price...yet would not cast his people off utterly, setting his word even above his name. Psalm 138. Therefore we may all trust in the evidenced words & promises of the Faithful & True. May the Lord bless you & cause his face to shine upon you, your hiding place.

Excellent! I'm glad that you keep working to bring us all forward and together. Our governments are working hard to keep us apart, especially anyone who knows anything. I would add one item to the list of "Every part of this narrative is false and unrealistic. In reality:"

In reality, we know how to cure COVID-19. We have known from the start and gotten better and better with the passage of time. However, as the number of RECOVERED passes 150 million the official records do not recognize a single CURED. How is that possible? Every case of CURED is a single case, a story, an anecdote. The official statistics are statistical, not anecdotal, so every CURED can be ignored statistically. The vaccines are also supported by statistics, while every case of vaccine damage or death is anecdotal. The government and corporate bureaucracies decide what and who counts, and what and who doesn't. We're counting on you Mercola and your team to keep counting for us.

To your health, Tracy, Author: The Science of Cure

Posted On 06/10/2021

You can't be cured if you were never sick in the first place. Most of these cases were PCR false positives. Many people were sent to get tested due to contact tracing. If their employer is like mine, they test everyone that has come in close contact. About 20% of those tested come back positive. Because they never have symptoms they keep getting retested. Each positive test a person gets counts as a "case". We had one supervisor test positive 4 times in a row! She missed 3 weeks of work and she never had any symptoms. Our company policy (interim) states you can't come back to work until you test negative.

Yes, jamNjim: you are right, no one can be cured of a disease that is not present. However, we should check the accepted distinctions between illness, disease, and sickness, which are unfortunately not followed for COVID.

"Illness" is what the patient senses, which might not be curable medically - unless it is a "Disease" - what is diagnosed by a doctor. Unfortunately, most diagnosable diseases are considered incurable - even those like the common cold and the common COVID, which are both cured by health.

"Sickness" is the community view. However, there are many communities, ranging from families to corporations to state, national, and international government communities. Each of them can have independent views of illness and of cures. The bureaucratic communities have decided that a positive test indicates a sickness - but they call it a disease, even in the absence of a medical diagnosis, for marketing purposes. The bureaucracies are forced to claim COVID is incurable - in order to sell their "not cure$".

Dr Mercola, it is time to organize a Class Action lawsuit to pursue justice on the fraudulent actions by FDA, CDC, NIH, Fauci, Gates and others. Lawyers should work pro-bono and take their share of any compensations awarded by the Courts. Only the Courts can provide a neutral venue for all parties to present facts and evidence. Media, Government and corporations are exerting their censorship.

Posted On 06/10/2021

Courts are not ours. Bought and paid for now like they have been for decades.

"Not all courts"

doesn't have to be all courts, just has to be the top dog. And that is how the globalist works. For instance, ALL of the workers at the EPA say we should not drink fluoride because it harms brains, causes cancer, and has a lot of bad health effects. While the EPA officially supports water fluoridation because the TOP DOG says so.

All forms of government work the same way, and all the money whores got to do is appoint and buy the top dog.

""The following documents why our union, formerly National Federation of Federal Employees Local 2050 and since April 1998 Chapter 280 of the National Treasury Employees Union, took the stand it did opposing fluoridation of drinking water supplies.....

Since then our opposition to drinking water fluoridation has grown, based on the scientific literature documenting the increasingly out-of-control exposures to fluoride, the lack of benefit to dental health from ingestion of fluoride and the hazards to human health from such ingestion. These hazards include acute toxic hazard, such as to people with impaired kidney function, as well as chronic toxic hazards of gene mutations, cancer, reproductive effects, neurotoxicity, bone pathology and dental fluorosis.""

fluoridealert.org/.../epa-union

I have a license to practice law. I understand discretion. I understand inequality. I understand BIAS. I understand science. The top court will do the globalist bidding, as has every court in the last 20 years done so.

Such lawsuits claiming fraud concerning the pandemic and emergency declarations have been filed against the Federal DHHS, which includes the CDC and FDA, by the group Make Americans Free Again and attorney Thomas Renz. Similar fraud lawsuits have been filed against the states of Ohio, New Mexico, Maine, and Kentucky, and against the city of Anchorage, AK. More lawsuits against tyrannical states will be filled soon. The more the better. Last year, many lawsuits filed against tyrannical states claiming violations of the constitution were dismissed by judges because of the pandemic and emergency declarations, even though there are no exception clauses in the US and state constitutions to suspend any freedoms.

I just posted this (below) on Jon Rappoport's blog, NoMoreFakeNews.com I am not in favour of the version of globalism being pushed at us at all. And I admit, Mumsy used to say, "Be proud of your breeding!" (She said a lot of other weird stuff too). My response was, I am not a dog. But right now, worldwide, we need to unite to out this damn spot and doing it together is the best route.

Hi Jon, I spent ages trying to find the name of the doctors opposing the stand of the College of Physicians & Surgeons to ignore the Hippocratic Oath with no success. How crazy is that?

I'm in Ottawa, Canada. Queen Victoria designated Ottawa the capital of our country and the Houses of Parliament are here. I'm very happy that I can now support Canadian Physicians for Science & Truth. Thank you, Jon. I also support Canadian Frontline Nurses who among other wrongful accusations were faulted for joining a rally in Washington, DC.

Those of us who've always written for the truth, no matter how many sides it has, are so exasperated with the abomination of "journalism" that is printed every day in our newspapers. I've recommended your No More Fake News many times. I managed to get it into the UK Daily Mail a few times, where censorship and manipulation is heavy.

You could almost say what's happened is one of the results of a creative writing project from the dark side. Our lives are stitched together via communication. Something that's first on any psych op's list.

articles.mercola.com/sites/articles/archive/2021/06/10/worldwide-freed..

The Push Back, Oracle Films, (above) on Dr. Joseph Mercola's website is worth watching, especially if you're feeling alone in this fight for justice and freedom.

It's vital we communicate ourselves out of this mess asap. I'm very grateful for the work that you do

Jon and wish you all the best.

One major concern I have is with so many people getting the jab whether or not they get an adverse reaction now or later is what may happen when they get a flu shot later this year? Could the flu shot "activate" something that is considered inert now in the Covid vaccine? If by chance the flu shot would then cause adverse reactions then the blame could then be put on a bad batch of flu vaccine. Could/will the flu vaccine also contain the Covid vaccine?

Considering that many are now refusing the Covid vaccine but are willing to get the flu shot year after year I would not put it past them. Anything is possible nowadays.

Flu shots have activated an epidemic of kidney malfunction. Prominent vax truth author and activist Dr. Suzanne Humphries had her epiphany about vaccine issues while working as a nephrologist after 3 patients in quick succession developed kidney issues right after flu shots. Look at how many dialysis centers there are. Far more than there ever were iron lung wards, but poliomyelitis was never infectious anyway. Once one notices, it's very striking.

The ultimate irony is that while I did some work in dialysis centers, they had posters advertising flu shots. But then, it's quite good for business if one runs a dialysis center.

Those who say the global push back against tyranny has just begun clearly do not realise that the world is deeply controlled and it has been thus for centuries. Men have always been trying to harness the productive effort of other men. It is as old as history. And now, just begun, is the push back. What chance can it have against the organisation, the unity, the orchestration, the planning, the funding of the global parasite class? When you further consider the fragmentation and disorder, among the resistance. Consider also the lack of thinking skills and the fact that most have little capability to grasp the enormity of the enemy. Then consider that the vast majority dont even perceive the problem yet! But it had the will , it had the ability to create those weapons and a military better than the enemies! The rest of the world saw that fight and realised that they to were at risk should that tiny island get beaten ... they would be next and so joined in the fight against tyranny ... and won! The mistake that was made then and is being made today ... is that actually the enemy is within its those of ours who side with the enemy and actually assist them , the allies in 1945 FAILED to put in place such real assurances that it could never happen again ... many of those who waged that war and committed atrocities ...escaped under their noses ..went on and created the EU (did you not know that ...google Walter Hallstein)! Well & good to a point, but we've been warned of the issues w/ electronic voting since 'Votescam' at least in the '90's, & of the web of the informal & 'open' conspiracy since the '80's, w/ a margin of folks pointing to European corporate powers meddling thru banking & covert manipulations from the get-go to seize control over the great American experiment for conscientious Christian liberty to be applied as per our second Constitutional attempt & the inclusion of those elitist- & wouldbe 'gods'- hated Bill of Rights protections for the rights of all individuals, & not just elites/nicolaitans (which set us on the tack of Abolition as achieved in Great Britain by the Evangelicals: bringing a doubling down of the powers to keep that from happening in such a way here: it had to be the costly in bloodshed, strife & lives, but corporate-enriching & power-centralizing, way in which it was eventually contrived) , simultaneously limiting the power of elite/nicolaitan corporate powers.

Neither a tyranny of alchemical overlords & masters of nicolaitan sorcery nor of mechanistic magi tyranny are its equal, let alone the merger compromise of the dialectic errors bypassing & excluding truth to the fruit of 2 equal & opposite errors' union! Selectively excluding truth bringing clear vision & humility to the issues at hand won't save anything & is a fast track to the short celebration of an illegitimate 'salvation' (always demanding evil means to a supposedly good end via the cloak of relativism, & the sacrifice of any abstainers remaining despite the pressures brought to bare), followed by the rude awakening of sudden destruction as God steps in as long foretold. 1 Thess 5 KJB.

Folks can say what they will, but the revisionism & cloak of relativism are brought to bear for a reason: no book or entity on the planet has even a quintillionth of a fraction of evidenced prophecy already fulfilled than the one they either openly hate & despise, or twist into pretzels trying to use as a magi's rod.

Once again, the overarching truth is that the entire "plandemic" is a colossal psyop & satanic constructive fraud based on pseudo-science, corruption & criminality!

Since when:

- 1) does the entire global populace trust anything out of China without extreme due diligence & vigilance?
- 2) does the medical/scientific community accept the claim, without verifiable proof, that an alleged novel virus has been discovered based on allegedly pulling 37 unique base pairs of an alleged 30,000 base pair genome sequence out of a soup of genetic material, for which, 18 base pairs were of Human Chromosome 8?
- 3) are we not highly suspicious of & dismiss rigorous scrutiny of a known scientific fraudster, Drosten, who developed the fake PCR test within 24 hrs. of the release of the alleged novel virus from Chinese using an "in silico" genome sequence?
- 4) do we not listen to what the inventor of the PCR test, Kary Mullis, has to say about his invention, the HIV fraud & criminal Fauci?
- 5) do the people trust a non-elected unaccountable WHO with a horrendous track record of corruption, for which, has a genocidal psychopath at the helm that has committed heinous atrocities in his home country?
- 6) have we ever been so propagandized into believing that everyone, including healthy asymptomatic people, have to get tested?
- 7) have alleged pathogens become so intelligent that they are able to tell time, measure distance & are extremely covertly tactical in their attack?
- 8) do people no longer believe that they have an incredible immune system & allow themselves to be injected with an unapproved untested unknown cocktail that can kill them?
- 9) did we reject truth?

ANSWER: WHEN THE ENTIRE SATANIC SCHEME IS A LONG WELL PLANNED FICITIOUS FANTASYLAND HOLLYWOOD CREATION SOLD ON A PLATFORM OF FANTASY & FEAR!

"THE TIME TO STAND FOR FREEDOM IS RIGHT NOW ". Okay Doc, one more time: YOU CANNOT HAVE LIBERTY and/or Freedom (different things) AND DEMOCRACY at the same time. You pontificate about the Founders and their "risks" in defining "LIBERTY " and "freedom "...OK then, how do you continually miss their collective denouncement and contempt for democracies? Can you please reference that godawful word somewhere-anywhere, it is used in either of our (US of A) founding documents. Otherwise, thank you, Dr. Mercola for everything you do. You are truly an amazing, awesome man. Thank you.

Our Founders understood the history, weaknesses & strengths of both democracies & republics. Democracies are idealist philosophical constructs w/ a supposed principle of citizen representation which historically have consistently self-destructed through anarchy& mob rule to end in tyranny w/ a plutocracy& military force restoring order. Republics are idealist philosophical elite-& plutocratic-established & run systems w/ a supposed principle of citizen representation, which self-destruct when the military goes from servant& tool of the governed & governing class as well, to an absolute dictatorship by military might, direct force under a charismatic general & leader like Julius Caesar. Slaves were ubiquitous to both & never had a meaningful say in any of that.

Most of our Founders were Deists, Universalists & such, while a case can be made for a small, select handful that they might have been Christians in biblical terms. Jefferson & Madison witnessed the tolerance, simplicity & freedom, the voluntary self-control & resistance of the baptists persecuted by the elites& standing order State church in Virginia. When the first attempt at a Constitution empowering the elites over the commoner yet again failed due to Patrick Henry alerting the general citizenry& shooting off his 'I smell a rat in Philadelphia' letter to Madison: they thought that the Bill of Rights modeled after the baptist free& non-hierarchical order in the simplicity of Christ would work for their fledgling nation.

They attempted to exploit the strengths of both systems, & to limit the weaknesses by balancing them against one another, while adding the uniquely Christian biblical principle of 'rights' being endowed to ALL,& not just to the 'elect' or karma-determined (what is is 'right', the strongest, most cunning who survive are the most deserving etc) patricians& elites, the ruling& priestly castes& classes in collaboration managing hierarchical systems over the many with no meaningful say.

2, continuing.

The world elites, including those so minded here, compromised to the addition of the Bill of Rights, but fought it directly & indirectly from the get-go. No one thought it would work, & were astounded when it endured...not taking into account God & his plan of history, his providence & judgments; & pitting the two against one another, distributing powers & so forth really did serve to hinder tyranny by hindering any one power from centralizing all power & control.

The other saving factor in the British colonies of America was their overwhelming literacy. True & they were a mixed lot who came here, but it wasn't like folks came here for easy riches. It was a hard life, & for most freely chosen. Most fled religious tyranny & intolerance, the endless religious wars of Rome & the Daughters under which nonconformists of every stripe, bible believer baptistic types along with every other brand of 'heretic' of the powers that were had suffered greatly. The Bible made them aware of the incongruity of the elitist systems w/ the Book they claimed as their authority & justification for being, & of their own standing as men & women created in the image of God w/ soul liberty so that the common people pursued literacy & liberty; elites who'd hoarded & controlled knowledge, limited literacy & fostered superstition for centuries tended to the pagan classics & corruptions of Rome justifying their aristocracies, hierarchies, presumptions & positions of privilege of the Babylonian order....w/ liberty of their own interpretation, & 'tradition'. Not that either type was sinlessly perfect, or absolutely corrupt: for there is always fallen human nature in general that works & tends to corruption & tyranny as Lord Acton wisely noted: power corrupts & absolute power corrupts absolutely.....but there is also the light of Christ that lighteth every man that cometh into the world, & conscientious soul liberty, free will choice relating to truth faithfully or deceitfully.

fundamentalassumptions

3.... Most of the British regulars sent here to fight were functionally illiterate, & to be sure the Catholic Hessian mercenaries. That was not true of the British American citizenry top to bottom & bottom to top. There was a literacy rate well over 85% & the taverns of the colonies buzzed with sophisticated discussions of Bible, rights of man, and all the classics.

So, with all due respect, our aim & goals with regard to liberty must keep truth in view as the standard, & toleration without imposition, and neither flawed 'democracy' nor 'republicanism' should be our ideal. Those are the things I appreciate about Dr. Mercola's work & of any resistance movement to this current mess that I could associate myself with or join. The cure can't be worse than the ailment, and must be freely chosen. What we had & have lost was actually superior to the two bogus 'choices' being presented us by the handlers & steerers of the new tyrants of the same old tired Babylonian shuck & jive. If it wasn't so bloody, & the stakes so high, & even eternal....we might laugh at it....but the Leviathan beast of corporatism must always be kept on a tight & short leash if it's not to turn upon & devour those its supposed to serve.

For me things are very simple. We witness the last phase of the birth of a new religion. What they call science isn't because it lacks the scrutiny science always needs. Instead, they're asking for obedience. Any heretic is hunted down and punished, especially heretics that were former priests (doctors). I wonder what their idol is - money? That would be simple...

I honestly think that those who have taken the job are, in some way, quelling their deep-down fears of the job by bringing other people along with them. I know there must be a term from psychology that defines this. (If someone knows it, please tell me.) They used to say "misery loves company" but that doesn't quite fit the bill. It's either that or they are just as evil as those who initially hatched this plan and have unabashedly joined "the dark side." I can't imagine having to live with the fear that any moment the spike protein will start attacking me and take me out in a matter of minutes or days with virtually no hope of survival. It just goes to show how powerful peer pressure can be. The more the truth comes out, the more fear will creep into their minds, until they will start to go bonkers. And so, we are dealing with physical AND psychological illness. I believe wholeheartedly what Dr Sherri Tenpenny said recently, "Faith and fear do not go together." I will keep my faith with God and not be fearful!

"KY judge rules Gov. Beshear's COVID, mask orders unconstitutional in breakthrough lawsuit" It took 15 months for a judge to finally apply the Constitution against the most severe and arbitrary violations of our most basic civil liberties, but it's better late than never.

On Tuesday, Boone County, Kentucky, Circuit Judge Richard A. Brueggemann issued a permanent injunction against all of Gov. Andy Beshear's COVID restrictions, including the mask mandate. Unlike the few judicial victories for civil liberties over the past year, this one was broad and sweeping, as it declared these mandates unconstitutional. In granting declaratory relief to a store owner who didn't want to enforce masks on customers, Judge Brueggemann ruled that "all emergency orders imposed by said Defendants, or that are being continued by said Defendants, are unconstitutional, void and without any legal effect."

Although Gov. Beshear planned to let the mask mandate expire on Friday

The Recovery Campaign has produced a handy guide on "How To Create a Scariant in Ten Easy Steps"

1. Learn a basic fact of virology: there are hundreds of thousands of variants of COVID-19, many yet to be discovered.
2. Realise that it's normal for some of these to be better at spreading than others, but that a terrified population doesn't understand this.
3. Find one and give it a name. Hot Tip: A good idea is to name it after a country with a struggling health system where you can easily get footage of swamped hospitals. India is a great example: though the country was well down the list of countries worst affected by COVID-19, it's overstretched health system provided the perfect images for international TV.
4. Call yourself an Expert. Hot Tip: It helps if you have the title Professor – it means that you don't need actual qualifications in medicine, virology or epidemiology to be given an uncritical platform by broadcasters.

5. Ensure that your friends in Ofcom have told broadcasters that they are not allowed to report any data or expert who might suggest that you are scaremongering.
6. Announce that you have found a dangerous new variant: your scariant.
7. Express your fear that the vaccine may be less effective against it: don't worry if there's no evidence.
Bonus Point: Your fiends in the pharmaceutical industry will happily promise to come up with special variant jabs.
8. Use all the tricks of behavioural science to terrify people so they can't think straight.
9. Do more testing for variants than most of the rest of the world combined, ensuring that there's plenty of evidence of your scariant spreading in the UK. Important: Start work on the next scariant ASAP! Don't give people time to see that the first didn't amount to anything before you hit them with the net.
10. Job done.

Really great video and very timely. From the very start of this drama i saw from my inner vision which is beyond the mind and its interpretations and projections ,that this was an attempt to control the whole planet plotted for a long time by the same people who have been attempting to do it for hundreds of years,the Rothschild,Rockefellers and the rest of the megalomaniac elite,greedy for the power they see money can give them in controlling the whole planet.It is right time for people to wake up and stop behaving like sheep,believing everything the media and politicians tell them and following blindly. The cure for this disease?Follow and trust your inner light and the way is meditation.Here in Nepal where I am a teacher mainly of english and meditation,i have been speaking out against this madness since even before it started.And the young people are intelligent enough to listen and get the point:if the masses are all believing it and following,it is wrong.Freedom of the individual is the highest value.Be aware that everything that the media is saying is controlled through money coming from the politicians and other vested interests behind them.Critical is an insight into the psychology:how immature people love to be told what to do so they do not have to take responsibility.It starts in schools.What sort of people do we want graduating from schools and colleges?Sheep?I suspect even the sheep are more intelligent.At least they are natural.

What is worrying to me is if they set up this system that can monitor and control people to give a particular outcome does that not place a certain amount of expectation on the need for demonstrated wisdom, unquestionable integrity, intelligence and non compromising moral observance of those who control the system as well as their advisors. Without a guarantee of such quality abuse is bound to occur. I know of no significant human institution whose stated good character and mission ever crystallized in its purist form without being tainted to some degree by the human condition. If efficiency or delivery is the only real achievement of such a system then it could deliver a poor solution but efficiently. Further more what is to happen to those talented people who have different ideas to the controlling group? There is no way to test their ideas since the system does not permit autonomy but group think and so their ideas have no means of challenging the norm and in fact may lead to some degree of persecution. An economist once told me that it was not always a good idea for countries to have the same currency as it stops individual countries from being able to use their own but devalued currency to trade their way out. Vive la différence!

I for one don't need to read a book to explain to me what I already know when it comes to the con game that was used on all of us. Except for some reason I saw right through it from the get go. Critical thinking is a lost way to look at the world around you and for some reason I was spared the loss of that ability from an early age. Reason, logic and common sense are needed to be able to critically think. The lack of one or more of those gifts leads you down a road to your own destruction.

"Once Step 10 locks into place, there's no going back. It'll be too dangerous to fight back." It is always dangerous to fight back. That is the issue, folks place their lives, liberty and freedom at the bottom of the rung and are unwilling to face the danger that defending yourself, your liberty and their families entails.

Do you think the men at Concord Green faced danger? Do you think in their minds it was too dangerous to fight back? Do you think that maybe they understood a long lost concept and that somethings are worse then death? Like SLAVERY? And yet,I don't know the exact number but I suspect the percentage is extremely high, don't they bow to the slavery that Fed Notes bring? That bow to the slavery that property taxes and "income" taxes bring? Is life so sweet and peace to dear to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Unfortunately the majority say YES. It is.

I drew lines in the sand 40+ years ago and so far none of the plantation overlords have seen fit to cross them. In some cases they might not realize that the lines have been drawn, but I can promise...CROSS THEM and you watch what happens on the evening news.

As for the US becoming socialist or communist...it happened a long time ago folks. Read it and cry. For this is what you are leaving your progeny....www.educate-yourself.org/cn/communistmanifestortenplanks12sep06.shtml

This is from Rebel News, Canada and the lead is, The Montreal Police are Out of Control.

Montreal's a beautiful city in the province of Quebec. The reporter, Alexa Lavoie, has ESL (English as a second language), but she does well with explaining what happens here. Ottawa, Ontario is close to the Quebec border. It's noticeable how the legislation in PQ is often more family oriented. The population in PQ, 2021 (interesting we had a census just this year...) is 8.18 million. It's the second largest province in Canada and accounts for 24% of the population. That proportion causes a host of problems. Our second official language is French and if you don't like that you say, why the heck should it be an official language when Quebec has less than a quarter of the people in Canada? To work for the Federal Government (of Canada) you will do well if you speak French and this affects the employment market in Ottawa as well. My granddaughter is in French Immersion at school and she loves it even though none of us in her close family are bilingual. I think she enjoys the independence ;)

The first thing I noticed in this article is, what appears to be an error:

March 3, 2020, the World Health Organization tweeted out a comment by WHO director-general Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, which said: "Globally, about 3.4% of reported COVID-19 cases have died. By comparison, seasonal flu generally kills far fewer than 1% of those infected."

If CFR (confirmed) is "always lower" than IFR (suspected), then 3.4% confirmed COVID would indeed be cause for alarm, as it is higher that the suspected Flu at 1%. Perhaps you swapped them inadvertently?

I appreciate your reporting, but any flaws in logic make it impossible to justify to my husband. He relies on what he calls "facts." So, right away, this appears non-factual. Especially when your goal is to point out how non-factual the propaganda is.

Second, you call out fear mongering, but are essentially fear mongering.

That does not make anything invalid. It is important to utilize all skills of critical thinking to evaluate everything...

Just be aware that your efforts to address concerns by utilizing the same types of manipulation and emotional-triggers...don't do you any justice.

Please remember that you are either preaching to the choir..."Trumping," or you are informing the public. Let your readers provide the emotional response.

I do want as many facts as I can gather...and information for a variety of sources. I also want to feel "armed" so that I can elicit an open mind in the people I care about. Thank you for citing references to read. Please fact check that your references are 100% accurately excerpted (I catch a lot of errors).

Thank you for sharing solutions as well as problems. Considering creating the world you want...

Trump gained momentum, both positive AND negative, due to all the energy directed his way. Since the majority of the world has joined the band...protecting choice seems to be the highest priority.

As usual, excellent article. That said, PLEASE, refrain from using words that suggest or indicate even one of our rights comes out of any constitution.

One of the principals tied to the FIFTY-ONE constitutions is, our rights existed prior to the forming of local, state and federal governments.

Another key principal tied to those constitutions is an "elephant in the room" thing: The fifty-one constitutions exist because agents of the people cannot be trusted to best serve We The People and many, some with good intentions, will do evil.

Add to the foregoing the critical fact we have MORE than just one constitution (the federal constitution for the District of Columbia) for several good reasons. Among them is, separation of powers between the states and the federal government that work as checks and balances on the power of the fed, or the individual states. Those state constitutions are no less powerful than the federal one. Review the 10th amendment for verification of this fact.

One point was Astrazenca shot got such bad press, US stockpile was nearly immediately donated overseas. Second, the targeted mRNA was set to the initial Wuhan virus, which has mutated. Someone said it is no longer circulating. Therefore, old doses may not help that much. third - the WHO was getting vocal, calling on wealthier nations to share. And other considerations not yet apparent.

Not only was PCR never a diagnostic tool it is the very reason why the lateral flow tests are a disaster too. They relied on the PCR as their "gold standard".

BUT the lateral flow tests had an ulterior motive as did the PCR deceive and make money at the same time.

Sue2613, probably would be a good idea if you researched McCarthy in some different historical sources. The fake news sources of that time, the media, to include Hollywood, were pretty much controlled by who? Fact is McCarthy was (is) right. We are suffering much larger today because he too, was effectively shut down by the brainwashed shillers of the day, exactly as is being done today. Perhaps you actually recognize what is happening today, perhaps believing and supporting 99%+ of what you are learning in our Good Doctors papers and reports? Don't worry, there were "sane", knowledgeable, well spoken and well written, honest historians and media organizations that (re)searched for, and recorded "facts". Please attempt to report and refer to facts in your public comments. Thanks.

Will they live on Impossible Burgers, toxic veggies, and polluted drinking water? Who is going to provide the other essentials, like transportation, keeping all the tech stuff working (AI isn't going to make it possible, at least not with human supervision/assistance) heating/cooling their mansions and who is going to build their shelters? And what makes them think that they will not end up fighting amongst each other the way humans have done since time immemorial?

ina - I think you make a very good point. The word they seems to be used very loosely and ubiquitously to identify a faceless enemy.

I personally think that humanity is full of vultures who are always at the ready to take advantage of a distracted society already enslaved by consumerism. They are the leaders who want more power, the financiers who want more money, the bureaucrats who want more control. You can name names, every country has them. And in this globalised world they are on a feeding frenzy.

They may be 'Lucifer' in this Godless society? And so many many people are mesmerised by the 'bringer of light'.

One paragraph above states the following "Since CFR requires the infection to be confirmed through laboratory testing and clinical evaluation, and the total number of infected people can be hard to determine and includes suspected cases, the CFR is always lower than the IFR." Isn't that backwards. The CFR is always higher than IFR because CFR only counts confirmed cases and not the total number infected which includes individual that did not turn into clinical cases. In a following paragraph that is confirmed when it states that the CFR is 3.4% while he IFR is only 0.23%

If we plan to break this "lockstep" mentality our elected officials are in, who do we vote for when the midterm elections come up in another 15 months? There's only about 5 people on capital hill questioning the narrative here and they call themselves Republicans. However, the majority of Democrats and Republicans on capital hill have bought into this hook, line, and sinker (all the ones that got vaccinated)! You have a few rouge governors out there willing to stick their necks out and go against the narrative. But, do you really trust them? Many of these leaders that are show boating and going against our fraudulent CDC's and FDA's advice are just using this pandemic to advance their careers in politics. They are using this opportunity to get free press.

This has been my conundrum. Having closely followed the political unfolding most of my life & most especially the last 4, it is obvious both parties sold out Americans, most likely to China; or anyone else holding out the cash. None of them have any backbone and cower to the money. You're correct not to trust any of them. They only come out of their holes when it is re-election time, and the majority of fools give them another 2 -4 years. Doesn't anyone pay attention; don't they check a politician's record? I have come to not trust any of them including Trump. I believe we've been played. Our human belief in the underlying goodness of people has been exploited too many times. One important fact, I think most people are unawares of is how at least 2/3 - 3/4 of all politicians are lawyers. Lawyers belong to a different class of people - they get loads of experience of lying, manipulating and pressuring those in the court rooms. So is it any wonder they continue these practices after elected? I do not believe many actually got the same shot as the rest of the world. They are in on it and frankly don't give a damn about anyone except themselves. BIG Pharma and BIG Farma own all of them. It will take a 2nd American revolution but I do not how because those who are willing to fight have no organization to physically rally around.

Lakhana13, I'm with you on the revolution! I don't see any other way out of it. If something doesn't happen real quick it will be too late for a revolution. When the China-types come down and stop all production of ammunition the guns we own will serve no purpose. That was already happening during Obama/Biden administration. During the entire 8 years of Obama's presidency there was a major ammo shortage. A friend of mine that worked at the Remington plant in Arkansas said they were restricted on how much ammo they could produce. I asked him what the hell was going on? Every time I drove buy that plant the parking lot would be empty! They went from having 300+ cars in the parking lot 24/7 (3 shifts) to less than 100 cars for 8 hours a day. He said it was all OBAMA! As a result, Remington is out of business now! Biden is picking up where Obama left off. During the Trump administration we saw a small revival of the ammunition production. The worst part about this wasn't the killing off of American Made Ammunition Facilities, but the IMPORTATION OF CHINESE AMMUNITION!! The Obama/Biden Administration purposely put a choke-hold on US-Made Ammunition Manufacturing and then allowed China to sell us their crap ammunition. I'm serious when I say crap!! All of the Chinese brands of bullets I tried were total junk! I gave them away as Christmas presents as soon as Trump took office and all the stores that sold ammo were able to restock their shelves with USA MADE ammo.

jamNjim.....odd, I stopped off at the local Dunhams to see one of the fellows who works there. For months last summer, a bunch of us called into the store on specific days asking if the truck came in with any ammo. Often, it did but were few and far between pickings. He said they have been receiving slightly more ammo but the cost has sky rocketed. I saved all of what I purchased from last summer but have not gone to the range as I want to hold onto what I have. Also, I think $0r0$ bought out a gun company and put them in the toilet. As for the 8 years of ammo shortage, it wasn't so much there was an actual one, it was the Kenyan-born PIMPS administration buying up all the ammo. I think even G W B started the trend.

Throughout history, people have lived under various persecutions. Sadly, tyrants there will always be. But the grace of God guided human beings and got them through with unbroken spirits. To my thinking, and in response to rights of freedom of truth.Truth itself creates the path away from falsehood, (keeping truth safe)They (the truths) in turn change the truth seeker.That is why solutions involving not only our health in the "now"but into the foreseeable "future"have to be addressed NOW,If the solution is to have a two tier system (those who stay versus those who go from current rhetoric) then "outside the present box" Is not such a bad place.It is not as cold and austere then lies would make one believe and become frightened into doing another persons will. One must believe ones self in the first place,Truly .Honest I been there in other experiences,Where the matter is so horrible to contemplate.There is through positive advancement in knowledge a provision to have a quiet and orderly exit out f this mess into a vista of new experiences and possibilities,Honestly.

"The key portion of that definition is 'enormous numbers of deaths and illness.'" Who defines what is enormous and the cause of death? Even this is vague.

Any country without a "Second Amendment" and with some kind of firearm regulation is abusing its citizens. Even the U.S. isn't blameless and hasn't been since 1934 with its unconstitutional federal gun control "laws." Perhaps these tyrants and their conspirators dream of implementing their goals, but it is doubtful that they will succeed for a number of reasons. With regards to the virus there is an apparent solution - injections - so people can't be continually and perpetually kept afraid.

This was posted in response to your earlier question.

In response to MAR with regard to what is going on in India, one should go to thehighwire.com and watch Episode 215. In that episode, Jefferey Jaxen, subbing for Del Bigtree, discusses, at approximate 45:00 minutes remaining mark, "Issues Post Vaccination" in many countries including India, in which cases significantly increased after start of the vaccination campaigns. This is a signal that is being totally ignored. Jaxen also interviews an India insider describing the horrible conditions in that country for the majority of the population living in slums made worse by their government's response to the declared pandemic. Recently, the health agency in India has been flip flopping on HCQ and ivermectin, bringing them in at the peak of the cases post vaccination driving down the cases, but then removing the meds, which was celebrated by the criminal WHO.

Mar746294, Click on this Worldometers link and then click on the column that says "Deaths-per-Million" and scroll all the way down to 108th place and that's where you find India. The USA is 18th overall. www.worldometers.info/coronavirus

Then go over to the column that says "Cases-Per-Million". India is in 105th place and the USA is in like 13th place.

I've been explaining this almost every day on this forum for the past 4 to 6 months. You can't look at the "TOTAL NUMBER OF CASES/deaths" and determine the severity of a pandemic. You have to compare the total number of cases and deaths to the total number of people! India has 1.4 BILLION people. The USA has only 330 Million people. So India is 4 times larger than the USA. India still has not had more deaths in one day than the US had back in mid-Jan. We had like 4500 people die in 1 day. For India to have a day as bad as our worst day 18,000 people would have to die in one day. The USA is sitting at 34 Million cases since the pandemic started. For India to be worse off than the USA they would have to have 136 Million cases, but India only has 29 Million cases. That means India is doing almost 5 TIMES BETTER than the USA is doing!

I don't know how else to put it, but did I clarify this for you?

Posted On 06/10/2021

jamNjim numbers are correct. India, with 1.4 billion people is 4 times our size but with far fewer fatalities. Just people everywhere in cities. We in Los Angeles joke that if Mayor Garcetti takes ambassador post, he will be right at home with all the homeless people on the streets there.

Their diets are heavily based on veges and grains/legumes which are not high in Vitamin D and their darker skin doesn't make Vitamin D as well as fair skin. Also, zinc, important antiviral, is found in greatest concentrations in shellfish like oysters, crab, lobster, red meat and poultry. They eat some poultry but cows are sacred (and skinny so not a lot of meat there) so they are doing well despite their native diet.

Just to clarify: are you saying the millions of people who died last year did not die of Covid? Or what is happening in India right now isn't really happening?

jamNjim

Viruses don't kill people. Underlying conditions kill people. 99.9% of all the people with Covid-19 on their death certificate had 2 or more of the following conditions: 1) Type-2 Diabetes; 2) Insulin Resistance; 3) Obesity; 4) High Blood Pressure; 5) Congestive Heart Failure; 6) COPD; 7) Asthma; 8) Deep vein thrombosis; 9) Low Vit-D levels; 10) Low Zinc levels; 11) Over age 65; 12) and Kidney disease.

Prior to this Plandemic, anyone who has 2 or more of these conditions and is an assisted living facility and got the flu and died would have as a cause of death one of the 12 preexisting conditions listed above. Or they would have had the cause of death being pneumonia caused by complications of their preexisting condition.

In other words, if viruses killed people we would all be dead already. It is secondary infections like pneumonia that kills people. Secondary infections are caused by low vitamin-D levels and a really $hity medical system that tells everyone to "Stay Home if you think you have Covid-19 and do NOT go to the Hospital Unless YOU CAN'T BREATHE"! By then it's too late. Early treatment is critical.

As for India, I don't know what your talking about. I'm looking at the Worldometers Covid-19 statistics webpage right now. India is in 109th place for Covid-19 related deaths and they are in 105th place for Covid-19 infections. That compares to the USA's 18th and 13th places respectfully. So the question you should be asking is how in the hell is a 3rd world country like India doing so much better than the USA?

It didn't happen in New York where more people were catching Covid-19 per day than all the rest of the USA combined back in April/May 2020!! Remember Trump sending a Military HOSPITAL SHIP to New York city that never got used? Then there was the tent hospital that Trump had sent to New York that never got used! Don't you think if those hospitals were "over flowing" they would have used the tent and boat hospitals?? Then there's all the respirators/ventilators Trump had Ford Motor company produce that ended up being shipped to

3rd world countries because we didn't need them. Let me guess, you get your news/information from main stream media like MSNBC? I do recall those MSM types perpetuating this nonsense! Anew a lot of FAKE NEWS in this article : where was the media-suppression in march ? In all news outlets i read about it. When comparing the numbers of protesters : no surprise : I myself did a factcheck of some numbers via police / media L & R, the protesting group included. In one place I was in person (an advantage when you've a double nationality) and could make an estimation myself : 700 , police : max 1000, protesting group : 7000 , CNN 'a crowd', Fox : 10000, and so on I wonder which are in your view the "mainstream media", and which the "honest ones" ? Steenhout: You do not understand the media - newspaper, television and radio. I do. I am a former newspaper reporter and I know the power an editor has over the content of the newspaper. Example: One of the newspapers I was with was a small town Canadian paper and privately owned. The owner editor of that newspaper had financial holdings in that small town. As a consequence, any bad news was stifled or relegated to a position that was not quickly seen, not on the front page, when that is where it should have been. It was the totally perfect town to live in because it was presented as idyllic. But it was not a true reporting of the news in that town.

When I was with Procter & Gamble and Crest Toothpaste was given the Dental Seal of Approval, the Brand Man and his assistant were over the moon about it because they had beaten Colgate to this "seal of approval." I never once saw any medical literature in our office about the harm fluoride could cause. Why do you think now we have so many seniors with signs of dementia and Alzheimers? It is a proven fact that Fluoride affects the Pineal gland in the brain and thus the memory is affected.

I suggest that you stick to what you know when you're making accusations about fake news in an article and film which is entirely the opposite and the purpose is to save lives around the world. You are absolutely wrong with your opinion about this. All you are stating here is that you swallow the bait from the media with your "fact check."

The mainstream media in Canada is paid by the government. Do you think that makes them without prejudice? It is not appropriate that the government subsidizes newspapers - with taxpayers funds no less! You might extrapolate from that, that the government then tells the newspapers what to print do you not think? We only have one news agency that is independent, Rebel News and they have always published accurate reports.

If you are a healer, please listen to Dr. Mercola.
