If Defense Department runs the Covid injection operation, who runs them?

[Redacted] tricks Americans into wars and taking biowarfare shots, claim US general and NIH insider (Updated 4/12/23)

Sasha Latypova and Katherine Watt have provided evidence the US Department of Defense (DOD) controls the Covid bioweapon program and its accompanying brutal propaganda and suppression of early treatment to coerce Americans to accept toxic spike protein-producing “shots in every arm.”

So who runs the DOD?

The media tells you it was President Joe Biden and Defense Secretary Lloyd Austin who came up with the idea of ordering all American civilians and military to take leaky injections reportedly having metal particles, inconsistent ingredients across vials, no serial numbers, concealed death data, devastating neurological outcomes, and other horrific safety concerns.

Do you really think Biden and Austin conceived this operation, which also included harmful masking and lockdowns, and led the Pentagon in it?

Or could those dictating injection policies be the same [redacted] group directing the DOD since before the World Trade Center destruction of September 11, 2001?

Real bosses

In the 2007 video above, retired four-star US Army General Wesley Clark reveals who ran DOD policy before and after the attacks of September 11, explicitly to extend mass surveillance of US citizens without search warrants through the Patriot Act and for the takeover of countries to benefit [redacted], not America.

General Clark (video above):

What happened in 911 is we didn't have a strategy. ...

We didn't have American understanding of it.

And we had instead a policy coup in this country — a coup, a policy coup.

Some hard-nosed people took over the direction of American policy, and they never bothered to inform the rest of us.

I went through the Pentagon ten days after 9/11, ... and an officer from the Joint Staff called me into his office and said, “I want you to know, Sir, we're going to attack Iraq.”

And I said, “Why?”

He said, “We don't know.”

I said, “Well, did they tie Saddam to 911?”

He said, “No.” ...

Well, I walked out of there pretty upset. And then we attacked Afghanistan. ...

Then I came back to the Pentagon about six weeks later. I saw the same officer.

I said, “Why haven't we attacked Iraq? We're still gonna attack Iraq?”

He said, “Oh, sir, it's worse than that.”

He pulled up a piece of paper off his desk. “I just got this memo from the Secretary of Defense that says we're going to attack and destroy the governments in seven countries in five years.

“We're going to start with Iraq. And then we're going to move to Syria, Lebanon, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, and Iran. Seven countries in five years.”

These people took control of the policy in the United States.

And I realized — it came back to me: a 1991 meeting I had with Paul Wolfowitz.

You know, in 2001, he was Deputy Secretary of Defense, but in 1991 he was the Undersecretary of Defense for Policy, the number three position in the Pentagon.

And I had gone to see him when I was a one star general. ...

I thought I'll just go. Who can I see? I think I'll see Wolfowitz. So I called him up there, and he was available. Scooter Libby came to the door. I met Scooter for the first time.

And he brought me in, and I said to Paul, and this is 1991, “Mr. Secretary, you must be pretty happy with the performance of the troops. And Desert Storm.”

And he said, “Well, yeah, but not really. Because the truth is we should have gotten rid of Saddam Hussein, and we didn't.”

And this was just after the Shia uprising in March of '91, which we had provoked, and then we kept our troops on the sidelines and didn't intervene.

And [Wolfowitz] said, “But one thing we did learn — we learned that we can use our military in the region in the Middle East, and the Soviets won't stop us. And we've got about five or 10 years to clean up those old Soviet client regimes — Syria, Iran, Iraq — before the next great superpower comes on to challenge us.” ...

It was a pretty stunning thing. I mean, the purpose of the military is to start wars and change governments? It's not to deter conflict? We're going to invade countries? ...

This country was taken over by a group of people with a policy coup: Wolfowitz and Cheney and Rumsfeld, and you could name a half dozen other collaborators from the ## Project for a New American Century.

They wanted us to destabilize the Middle East, turn it upside down, make it under our control.

It went back to those comments in 1991. Now, did anybody ever tell you this?

Was there a national dialogue on this?

Did senators and congressmen stand up and denounce this plan?

Was there a full fledged American debate on it?

Absolutely not. And there still isn't.

And that's why we're failing in Iraq. Because Iran and Syria know about the plan.

All you have to do is read the Weekly Standard and listen to Bill Kristol. And he blabbermouths it all over the world.

Richard Perle the same way. They could hardly wait to finish Iraq so they could move into Syria.

Summary of Clark's points

- The policy of invading countries after 9/11 is not an American one. It is a [redacted] one.
- Top US generals working within the Joint Chiefs of Staff had no idea why Iraq was being invaded when it had nothing to do with 9/11.
- Those who decided to take down seven Middle East countries in five years after 9/11 were principally members of the Project for a New American Century (PNAC).

Ethnic bioweapon shots

PNAC's policy paper Rebuilding America's Defenses says genotype-specific bioweapons can be a "politically useful tool" (page 60):

[A]dvanced forms of biological warfare that can "target" specific genotypes may transform biological warfare from the realm of terror to a politically useful tool.

This is consistent with a former NIH scientist's revelation that [redacted] military intelligence designed and deployed the Covid virus and injection campaign to harm certain ethnic groups, primarily people of European descent.

I think it's the same cast of characters running the show.

This Sikorski guy (former MP Poland) tweeted out "Thank you USA"

<https://www.rt.com/news/563752-sikorski-deletes-tweet-nordstream/>

And he's married to Anne Applebaum (of the tribe, but I'm not sure if she's a neocon, though probably). I remember seeing her years ago on CSPAN--something on accessing the soviet archives. I kind of assumed that was the case so they could hide who was really running the show over there (though Solzhenitsyn I think wrote about it in one of his books). I just looked up her on wikipedia, and apparently a couple of years into the Trump Admin she wrote something "Is this the end of the West"--so apparently, in the war-mongering world of the neocons, if America gets a President who speaks about ending the wars, that is translated into end of the West.

That link didn't work for me

that link didn't work for me.

fwiw- More from Martin Armstrong on the neocons:

Both Martin Armstrong and Paul Craig Roberts believe the Neocons are in charge:

<https://www.armstrongeconomics.com/world-news/neocons/us-sent-365-attack-craft-to-confront-russia/>

As I have explained, the Neocons are in full control of US foreign policy. They are intent on starting a war BEFORE 2024. They have 300,000 troops on the border of Russia in Poland. They have used Ukraine to weaken Russia's conventional forces. They think they can take Russia in less than one week. They believe that Russia will not push the button. What if they are wrong? They believe in their own propaganda.

They have waged a brilliant campaign. They pretend their warmongering is being patriotic. They do not care about America, its people, or anything honorable. They used Ukraine as cannon fodder and they will do the same with Americans. They killed 58,000 Americans in Vietnam. For what?

They are INTERNATIONALISTS, not Americans, and in their view, they must rule the world. Who cares about Americans? There are too many of us anyhow. Thin the herd is their view.

Welcome to World War III

Yes, the neocons control US foreign policy--there were recent posts from Paul Craig Roberts and Martin Armstrong, both acknowledging this as well as the fact that they are setting us up for WW3

<https://www.paulcraigroberts.org/2023/03/30/does-america-have-a-future-3/> "Quit worrying about the future. The neoconservatives have assured that you don't have one."

<https://www.armstrongeconomics.com/world-news/neocons/neocon-always-lose-but-they-are-never-down-for-the-count/> "Don't worry, the Neocons will stage a false flag to make sure World War III begins"

<https://www.armstrongeconomics.com/world-news/neocons/us-is-losing-another-war-ukraine/> "What must be understood, is that the Biden Administration, the puppet of the Neocons led now by Victoria Nuland, has brought the entire world to the brink of World War III and they have now begun the countdown to the decline and fall of Western Civilization"

Here's a good book (a quick read) on them:

Michael Collins Piper- The High Priests of War

<https://archive.org/details/HighPriestsOfWar/page/n1/mode/2up>

After reading that book, I became convinced that there was a power behind the Neocons that kept them in power. And after researching the central bankers, I became convinced that that was who they really worked for. For those who don't understand the relationship between the central bankers and the wars, here are a couple of good documentaries:

Mike Rivero's All Wars Are Bankers Wars

Bill Still's The Money Masters.

And for info on why America got into WW1, listen to Benjamin Freedman's 1961 Speech at the Willard Hotel (on bithcute). Freedman was an insider, assistant to Bernard Baruch (yesterday's Soros/Rothschild front man), and witnessed the behind-the-scenes intrigues. He basically says the Zionists got America into the war (which led to the deaths of 116,000 American men) in order to get Palestine and their Balfour Declaration. Freedman also said that the Zionists controlled America like they were absolute monarchs (and this was back in 1961--they probably had this level of control and power because they had already gotten control of the national currency in 1913 with the Federal Reserve Act)

Yes, that's how they get control over nations- by getting the power to issue currency out of thin air and loan it to governments at interest.

Here are some books:

A History Of Central Banking And The Enslavement Of Mankind - Stephen Mitford Goodson <https://archive.org/details/a-history-of-central-banking-and-the-enslavement-of-mankind-pdfdrive/page/n9/mode/2up>

John Coleman The Rothschild Dynasty <https://archive.org/details/coleman-john-the-rothschild-dynasty/page/199/mode/2up> (he seems accurate in terms of timing, since on last page, he predicts the world will be plunged into a brutal one world government dictatorship by 2025 and look at where we are now)

The Nameless War

Yes, the US govt has basically operated like a gangster mafia for a long time. There are so many stories like that. but we have no media so nobody knows.

There's a guy Schaeffer Cox who accused state (Alaska) and federal officials of drug trafficking and child prostitution and then he ends up targeted by the FBI. He gets a rigged trial and is now in prison <https://freeschaeffer.com/story/>

Eustace Mullins wrote about the Federal Reserve and was targeted by the FBI for 30 years http://whale.to/b/mullins\_b\_writ.html

Recently there's a story about a guy named James Meeks and the feds are accusing him of child porn--which what they usually do when someone has evidence of US govt crimes and it looks like that is the case:

<https://www.voltairenet.org/article218319.html>

More evidence of US govt crimes (US govt is basically an international organized crime operation masquerading as a govt, though some say it is actually a corporation):

Thanks for these links. I've been in the pro-2A movement since the 90's and never heard of Mr. Cox's story till now. Very disgusted! Especially since nearly every instance of domestic terrorism since the 90's (especially nowadays "mass shooters") has involved someone at the FBI knowing the perpetrator at some level. His story sounds so familiar-NOBODY in the 2A community, aside from a few loudmouth BS'ers, wants to get in a shooting match with anybody because they know they would get hammered like Waco/Ruby Ridge and give the feds more justification in screaming for more gun control. Plus, we are law-abiding, decent people to start with--shooting is an absolute last resort to a confrontation with a violent criminal. But the current administration is literally running the exact same playbook as those days trying to provoke one. Evil White right wingers, militias, conspiracy theorists, etc. are somehow a domestic threat. This is what happens when ADL/SPLC advises federal law enforcement. I lived within walking distance of the Murrah building in the 90's and saw the gas lighting and cover-up first hand they did in OKC. Little known fact, but around 7 OKC newscasters died in motor vehicle "accidents" in the years after the bombing. I'm at the point I'd trust a long haired, tattooed biker high on speed before anybody in a suit. And even then, odds are the biker is a fed. My opinion is a LOT of America's problems would disappear if ADL/SPLC were designated subversive terrorist groups. They definitely enable antifa.

Yes, that Schaeffer Cox story is horrible--and nobody knows about it. So anytime I have an opening to mention him, I do.

FBI has been dirty since the inception--the fact that they targeted Eustace Mullins for writing a book about the Federal Reserve tells you all you need to know about who they work for.

On the mass shootings, whenever those happen, I'd suggest immediately rejecting the official story and looking for Professor James/Jim Fetzer on bitchute--he's an expert on these. Bear in mind, there's a video out there of Eric Holder literally saying "we have to brainwash the people against guns." And note the sudden uptick in alleged mass shooting events after they passed the Smith Mundt Modernization Act in 2012 which made domestic propaganda legal. Also bear in mind, after 9/11 they started doing mass casualty drills all over the nation, with props, moulage kits, etc. And you have to remember, these people control the media--it's easy for them to make people believe just about anything. I did extensive research on Sandy Hook (I'm a clinical psychologist, have experience working with Aspergers and have even worked in a school, so I immediately saw major problems with that story, spent countless hours on it, including going through all the evidence released by the CT police) and they are 100% lying about that event.

Yes, on OKC, I know that was all a lie too--James Corbett has tons of videos on that--I think there was a series Requiem for the Suicided- Terrance

Sincerely appreciate the detailed response. Tracking on Ms. Latypova and Watts Substacks and Dr. Yeadon's Telegram. Been reading JBS stuff for years and voted for Dr. Paul. You have given me a goldmine of homework to research, so please excuse the brevity. I'm ex-military, medically retired for an auto-immune disorder I'm convinced is linked to all the vaccines I was forced to take on active duty. Add in all the CBRNE and prevmed training, COVID is particularly interesting/disturbing to me. If for nothing else, having to go through mask mandates with severe breathing problems has given me a genuine eh-h, dislike shall we say, of these bastards. Wife lost both parents in PI during lockdowns, not allowed to attend either funeral. And her dad died alone in the hospital, not even immediate family allowed thanks to Duterte's ironfist public health BS. He also authorized LE/MIL shooting anyone caught breaking COVID curfews. Best thing I learned doing 2 degrees is sociopaths are drawn to positions of authority. COVID drove that message home like nothing else could.

Oh, I'm so sorry for all you and your wife have been through. And then having to go through all of this with when you have an auto-immune disorder--yes, I'm sure it's related to the vaccines you were forced to take. I used to listen to Joyce Riley's radio show years ago, and she spent a lot of time covering the damage from the vaccines. And how absolutely horrific for your wife to have lost both parents during lockdowns and then to not be able to go to their funerals. Yes, I heard about Duterte's policies.

Thank you for the kind words, we try to not ever give up. I don't really like throwing all that out in public (kind of IDs me) but gives a bit of relevant background info. I got out of the military before the covid shot mandate cutoff. Never got it, and urged all immediate family to not get it either. Got into a few confrontations with a couple providers but stood my ground (thanks largely to a medical background). Most Dr's. in my AO let me go without a mask and blow off vaccine status due to my medical condition, thank god. But what about everybody else? Covid mandates were/are insidious.

And here's some info the hell the neocons unleashed on Iraq:

Article from 2014-

Easter in Fallujah: US Military "Commemorates" Its Iraq Massacre. "Tell Them It's the Sound of Freedom." General Mark Kimmitt's Easter Day Mistruths

<https://www.globalresearch.ca/us-military-commemorates-its-iraq-massacre-tell-them-its-the-sound-of-freedom/5378894> (just the first paragraphs reveals the utter horror the neocons in control of the US govt unleashed upon the Iraqis--I bet Hollywood won't make a movie about this)

DeSantis was a JAG attorney in Guantanamo and Fallujah (this could have made him a "made man" but I think that goes back further to him being a member of a secret society at Yale)

https://www.democracynow.org/2023/4/3/desantis\_guantanamo

Also, fwiw, a law professor from Seton Hall College in NJ looked into who those people being held in Guantanamo really were and it looked like most were just there because the US offered money to people who were extremely poor and willing to accuse others of being terrorists, so they could collect money (e.g. Flyer reads: "You can receive millions of dollars for helping the Anti-Taliban Force catch Al-Qaida and Taliban murderers). So, more state-craft to make the American sheep believe there really were terrorists out there (when the real terrorists were in the US govt)

Good post from Katherine Watt on Switzerland here:

<https://bailiwicknews.substack.com/p/on-the-alleged-neutrality-of-switzerland>

ZeroHedge has published a very interesting homage to Switzerland's so-called political neutrality, at a very interesting time. April 10, 2023 - Swiss Neutrality Is Needed Now, More Than Ever (Vahan Roth, CIO, RealUnit Schweiz AG, posted at ZeroHedge.

Roth falsely attributes the globalist central bankers' own rapacious, global economic warfare over the last century and especially recent decades, to the United States government alone.

He does this to provide the pretextual justification for calling on the Swiss National Bank to de-dollarize and move the world another step closer to BIS-controlled Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC).

Roth provides a fraudulent overview of the history of Swiss "neutrality" and impartiality since 1815, leading to a globalist-serving conclusion that coincidentally supports the overall momentum toward one-world government of, by and for central bankers, as slave masters to the rest of humanity:

Yet, the Christian fundamentalists pray for the global government to become the reality ASAP, associating with the Kingdom to come. We'll live it by 2030, it seems?

Great post. May truth and justice prevail eventually. While demoralizing because of the scope of these operations it also leads us closer to those who control and instruct these neo cons as the next question after "Who runs the Pentagon?" is "Who runs those who run the Pentagon?" I think we all know who they are but getting that proof will be another problem.

Well, fwiw, years ago, I read the book The Host and the Parasite by Greg Felton, and I'm pretty sure it was in that book that I read that something on Lt. Col. Karen Kwiatkowski, who said something along the lines of seeing Israeli's arrive at the Pentagon and the "walked around like they owned the place" ( I think she might have even used those words). I think the idea was that any foreigner would have to be escorted around the building, but not these guys. I just did a quick search to see if I could find anything on that, and I found this:

A senior Air Force officer watches as the neocons consolidate their Pentagon coup.

Also, fwiw, ex-FBI whistleblower, Sibel Edmonds basically accused some of these neocons of being involved in nuclear espionage--so she ends up being the most gagged person in history. Since she wasn't allowed to name names she posted photos:

Hi Sandra. It's a hell of a time to be an aware person! The Israelis you mention and that Edmonds alluded to are all members of the "pyramid cap's' managerial class. The pyramid cap is composed of individual members of intergenerational families who own the money as debt slavery creation business and their entourage of symbiotic corporations and their chief operations managers that are vetted and of the same ideological headspace. These corporations, both that large systemically important commercial banks (as designated by the BIS as NWO central bank headquarters) and the most important industrial and tech corporations used for carrying out operations where the people live, makes up the head of the pyramid cap. They have been waiting for the technological ability to instigate their agenda and now that they have the ability they are proceeding on a full spectrum of fronts and levels within fronts to this end. We are the few that get the big picture. Many see bits and pieces but are reluctant to see the entirety of what is going down. Then there is the huge swath of the people who are so deeply programmed that are being used as an anchor to drag us all down. Our work to fight and disrupt the "cap's" encroaching plans while also trying to enlighten the semi aware, as it IS a numbers game and a time frame war means we have our work and destiny cut out for us. Do not become demoralized, distracted or fearful. Instead use your awareness to fight back with everything your body and soul can muster. There is now no going back to 'normal.' Only victory where humanity may/can reach its full potential as a caring and cooperative species or the end of our species as transformed into individual parts of Their borg singularity. Cheers to our success....Slainte!!

Oh, Dr. Hill, I just scanned your posts and have to thank you for these two:

<https://hillmd.substack.com/p/four-ways-they-hide-redacted-s-role>

<https://hillmd.substack.com/p/vera-sharav-movie-deceives-on-covid>

Yes, though I did not watch the movie, that was my general reaction--actually, it's been extremely frustrating/annoying/maddening to see them use the on-going global genocide of billions as an opportunity to promote their false narrative of the past and as a way to cover for the role of the criminals behind the operation. And the quickness with which the documentary came out and the way it was heavily promoted in the "health freedom" community, it almost felt like an operation to me. It was just earlier today that Mark Crispin Miller had yet another post on his substack promoting this documentary. And a while back there was this:

<https://sashalatypova.substack.com/p/i-talked-to-vera-sharav-today> (I thought it was strange that this woman contacted Sasha--to get her to promote the documentar? it kind of felt like there was a coordinated operation on substack, since it's not necessarily under their control). I also noticed that on Dr. Paul Alexander's substack there was a woman complaining about "hate" and wanting "hate" to be banned, yet I have yet to see anyone expressing or talking about hate on any substack. People are just talking about what is going on with the Great Reset global genocide and enslavement program and who is behind it.

Glad you appreciated those posts, Sandra.

Certain groups use "hate" as a reason for the government -- or its proxies like Twitter and Facebook -- to shut down free speech in violation of the First Amendment. We need strong leaders to resist this, but those groups fund campaigns and have great sway. Too many uneducated citizens go along with the "shut it down for hate" narrative.

Thank you for the informative links.

Thank you, James for your research and all of your posts. I'm so glad you are sharing this information. I'm attempting to share it with acquaintances, but it's tough, I have to be gentle in introducing the subject. My mom and dad are very receptive, though, thank God, and they are telling their friends who are also receptive.

I believe this is still an active Bill. It passed in the House, now in the Senate.

"The bill authorizes the Department of State to work with Israel on research and development to establish directed energy capabilities."

<https://www.congress.gov/bill/116th-congress/house-bill/1837>

Description:

United States-Israel Cooperation Enhancement and Regional Security Act

This bill authorizes various joint research and cooperation programs between the United States and Israel, reauthorizes security assistance to Israel, and establishes reporting requirements regarding various related issues.

The bill authorizes the Department of State to work with Israel on research and development to establish directed energy capabilities. It authorizes through FY2024 cooperative projects involving the United States, Israel, and developing countries to identify and address sustainability challenges related to water resources, agriculture, and energy storage.

The bill authorizes through FY2022 (1) activities of the U.S.-Israel Energy Center; (2) cooperation with and assistance to Israel related to security, explosives detection, and cybersecurity; (3) activities related to the U.S.-Israel Binational Agricultural Research and Development Fund; and (4) activities to establish a cooperative program with Israel to develop health technologies.

The State Department shall establish a grant program to support cybersecurity research and development and commercialization of cybersecurity technology open to joint ventures involving U.S. and Israeli entities.

The President shall establish contingency plans to provide Israel with necessary defense articles and services and assess plans to assist and supply Israel with munitions in the event of a sustained armed confrontation with Hezbollah.

The bill authorizes the President to (1) waive export control requirements and immediately transfer defense articles to Israel in response to an existing or imminent military threat, and (2) transfer precision guided munitions to Israel as necessary for legitimate self-defense.

The bill extends through FY2024 security assistance and loan guarantees for Israel.
