Jill Stein Raises Enough Money To Force Wisconsin Recount – Michigan & Pennsylvania Up Next

A couple of days ago we wrote about a group of scientists, which included voting–rights attorney John Bonifaz and J. Alex Halderman, the director of the University of Michigan Center for Computer Security and Society, who announced they had found "persuasive evidence" that results in Wisconsin, Michigan, and Pennsylvania may have been manipulated or hacked. Of course, they presented absolutely no evidence to support their startling claim other than to point out that Clinton received, on average, 7% fewer votes in counties that used electronic voting machines rather than optical scanners and paper ballots.

Apparently that was all the evidence that Jill Stein needed to be convinced that she might have a chance in Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and Michigan where she received 1.1%, 0.8% and 1.1% of the vote, respectively. So she started an online funding campaign to raise the millions of dollars required to force the recounts.

We joke, of course, as Jill Stein's effort to raise money for recounts in WI, PA and MI is obviously being done on behalf of the Hillary Clinton campaign. It's a very clever approach (we would expect nothing less) as it allows Hillary to maintain the high road as the gracious loser while allowing someone else to play the bad guy...typical Clinton politics really.

So, in less than 1 day, Jill Stein raised over $3mm, which is more than the $2mm needed to force a recount in Wisconsin. While she attributed the accomplishment to "the power of grassroots organizing," we would tend to be a little more skeptical and would love to see exactly where those donations came from. Then again, maybe we're wrong and there really are just that many disaffected snowflakes out there willing to blow their money on an extreme long shot.
"Congratulations on meeting the recount costs for Wisconsin. Raising money to pay for the first round so quickly is a miraculous feat and a tribute to the power of grassroots organizing," her campaign said.

"Now that we have nearly completed funding Wisconsin's recount (which is due on Friday), we can begin to tackle the funding for Michigan's recount (due Monday) and Pennsylvania's recount (due Wednesday)."

Stein said Wednesday that many Americans are wondering if the election results were reliable after a "divisive and painful" race and reported hacks into voter and party databases and individual email accounts.

"These concerns need to be investigated before the 2016 presidential election is certified," she said in a statement released by her campaign.
Meanwhile, what the "scientists" and the hopeful NY Mag didn't report, is exactly which counties in Wisconsin used electronic voting machines vs. paper ballots. As anyone can easily see by taking a look at the election breakdown in Wisconsin, Trump's margins of victory were over 40 points in multiple rural counties. So while 7% may seem like huge margin to a bunch of disaffected Hillary voters, it's not unreasonable at all once you start to dig into the details.

And, of course, Trump won most of the counties in Wisconsin outside of the major population centers.
But let's not allow logic to get in the way...onward to Pennsylvania and Michigan!

She is also hoping to raise $500,000 for filing fees in Pennsylvania and $600,000 for fees in Michigan.

The total cost of the effort in the three states could be as high as $7 million, her campaign said.

Of course, this all comes after months of Hillary and the left lecturing Donald Trump over his refusal to blindly accept the results of the election....something she repeatedly called "a direct threat to our democracy."

Hillary says she …

Meanwhile, it didn't take long for liberal elites around the country to completely reverse their rhetoric on challenging election results. Here are some of Paul Krugman's before and after thoughts:

This election was totally rigged against Hillary! First, we had the false accusations about her emails, which were debunked and rejected by the FBI and attorney general, and now finally Trump has had to admit that there is not enough evidence for a case. Then we had the Russians hacking into Democratic servers and attempting to use the stolen Wikileaks documents to smear Hillary – thankfully most media outlets wisely ignored this attempt to rig our elections. And finally, there is evidence from multiple accredited sources that Russia actually hacked our election results to put Trump in the white house. How did the result turn out to be so different from the accredited polls? Russian hacking is the only explanation.

Oh I see milliondoll ardogshit is back shooting of his moron mouth. I've lived in Wisconsin for 63 years. The election have always been totally rigged by the democrats. I can recall seeing them cheating as far back as 1971. Every election they bus in thousands of people from surrounding states to assume phony names on our voter registry which has 18,000 phony names listed. They go all over town casting votes for dead people, felons and illegals. They've been doing it for years. If anything what will come of a recount will be that Trump actually won by more than the original counts show. The local republican party always factors in at least 10% fraudulent voting by the democrats every election. It's that bad and always has been. So go find yourself a crying room milliondoll ardogshit because this is only going to get worse for morons like you.

Stein's next fundraiser: raise $50.00 to try to show impact of 3M illegals voting for Hillary Rotten. Let justice be done.
Stein is just acting as an agent for Hillary. The other purpose is to prime the anti Trump radicals to continue the fight for 4 yrs. The jewish msm will work with her on this.

If Hillary had called for recounts, and then won, it would be obvious. Instead they have the jewish 3rd party candidate, who has no chance of winning anything, spearhead the effort.

The degree to which the jewish/zionist have taken over the media is amazing. They are actually making progress to censor the infor and news. The other night I flipped channels and all had segments where Trump was skewered, debased or made to look like a hate monger.

First there was Operation Mockingbird.
Then in the 70s there was the Soviet Aliya. Hmmm.... If only a connection between the two could be made... I did hear anecdotally that former Bolsheviks were very fond of changing their names, and thus, their identities.

There are a "few" loyal Americans in the CIA so they should be the starting group for a new agency.

Most of "our" CIA screwballs can be found spreading murder and mayhem in false flags at home and abroad, upheavals in Ukraine, Syria, Libya, Asia, etc.

The CIA has no real cost benefit.

They have to go.

Give them nice packages to retire and stay out of trouble or face imprisonment.
for the remainder of their good for nothing lives.

If they violate the terms of retirement, their packages and bank accounts, holdings, etc. can be taken back and used for their prison expenses, and any unused money put into the prison budget and give the taxpayers a break.

Their families can go on welfare.

My question is whether or not you have to show cause to do recounts, not just pay a fee.
The statistical analysis used is bogus by its own selection methods. I suspect they took well chosen counties to do it. Besides, perhaps the average Hillary voter was probably too dumb or intimidated to use something more complicated like use a machine.

Over a large set of data, statistical anomalies are actually normal. For example, if you rolled dice 36 times it would be improbable that you would get a 2 and a 12 one time each, a 7 six times and so on.

If these leftist statisticians are serious, go back and do the odds on precincts that had zero Romney votes last time. Analyze all the precincts, especially where Hillary won. I have no doubt you will find cheating,
That is why leftist statisticians would never think like you.

They do the same thing all the time to get what they want -- climate change, social laws and requirements, etc., -- and they get the equally socialist MSM to back them up.

They simply cannot think clearly.

No way would a sleaze like him get that far up unless he went along with things.

Vetting citizens and their votes won't go as Dems planned at all. Trump calls the same and there's 3 million Mexican Citizens voting records exposed... yeah that's going to go well. The electorate was pissed before the election results. As of now, I'd multiply that by 1.2 at least.

depends who is counting.

I agree, but not in Wisconsin. They started requiring picture id's and making sure people didn't vote twice. Worst democratic turnout in 30 years.
To paraphrase: it matters not who is counting, but who is recounting votes. Source of funds will define who gets a benefit. I sincerely doubt Trump has any interest in a recount or that Jill Stein thinks her number of 'stolen' votes is of any consequence to the overall picture.

I doubt it. Who has been guarding the votes since the election? Look for Trump votes to be disqualified and hundreds of thousands of Hillary votes to somehow appear.

It ain't over till it's over.

Is the good Dr. Stein that stupid? Is she oblivious to all the FBI investigations and fraud?

The problem with a recount is it must also apply to paper ballots in the cities. You do not get to choose where the recounts are applied. Democratic party actions in ballot stuffing and illegal voters just may come back to bite them in the butt. Probably why Jill Stein was picked to spearhead this little piece of divisive tactics. Even if the votes are upheld, some people will feel justified in disclaiming the results. Just as the electoral college arguments and popular vote numbers hope to create problems as well. Look around the world: you are seeing countless actions designed to destroy trust in governmental leaders, in favor of what? While I am NOT a proponent of the State or law systems, both of which are used to maintain modern slavery systems, still, what type of solutions will be offered? The probable answers do not instill any hope in me. By the way, is it just me or do billionaire cabinet selections cause any concern? Happy Thanksgiving and may the Creator bless you and keep you.

Why is the assumption that the electronic voting was manipulated? Couldn't the difference be due to the DNC padding the vote in the paper-vote districts? And, what about all the mail in votes that were or were not counted?

If this recount goes forward, shouldn't it include some kind of verification of the voter lists to make sure that each vote was legitimate?

dexter_morgan

Wisconsin has voter ID laws now, didn't prior to this election. Dane countr, home to Madison, UofW regularly had more votes than voters, so that is likely one break in the pattern they think they saw.

Because that's what the "scientists" said. they believe there was a 7% discrepancy between the paper ballots and the electronic vote. This article doesn't make that clear.

Thoughts on J. Stein recount
Trump is a genius
1. Recount will prove that the DNC was involved in voter fraud

2. Recount is paid for by Liberals, not taxpayers

3. Recount will further damage the democratic party and show the need for voter reform and voter registration which will easily pass in the congress now

4. Recount will take the spotlight off Trump so he can focus in appointments and plans

5. Recount may show Stein or Johnson with over 5%, further the argument for 3rd party

6. Recount will quash any questions of who won, Trump will have won twice

4 Sure, How about recounting California without the votes cast by illegals?
Nancy Pelosi and Lizzie Borden Warren have begun a petition to allow the Transgendered—either already trannied, or thinking about it—to vote twice. Once as a man and then again as a woman.

Chuckie Schumer acting for hillary rodman has added a further corollary to the petition to add hermaphrodites to the mix, making one human bean, but 3 votes.

Brucie Jenner applauded this effort and voted 3 times in the past election.

No way. What's the number of gender classifications they have now? 56 right? That's 56 freak votes for the Dems.

The count wants a recount, (Forgive ym dyxlesia)
Hillary conceded defeat. She phoned Mr Trump to congratulate him on winning the election. Now calling for a recount is just sad and pathetic.

The argument regarding how Trump won in large margin in small suburb counties is just plain stupid. What counts is the total vote in the State. This happened exactly the same way in the primaries when Bernie won in a landslide in all counties in the country but lost in high population counties. The result was maps with almost 95% counties for Bernie and 5% for Clinton but Clinton won.

I'm surprised this isn't getting more coverage here. I think they are about to steal those three states. They've probably been stuffing the ballots. This may well be a real coup.

Nobody is talking about investigating how many votes were stolen from Trump.
This shit is unbelievable.

Standing is necessary to start the legal procedure for ordering a recount. Beyond that, standing and $.99 will get you a cup of bad coffee at 7-11.
This country is getting ready for a civil war and it won't be nice. Civil War north and south resulted in over 700,000 casualties. This time it will be total war and the result will be much worse. The democrats need to understand that the dudes in the red states have more firepower and the ability to enter safe places and throw away all the play dough. The history for this country is not looking good.

I'm in the North East. I guess I'll have to be a spy. Or part of the underground. (like I'm not already:)

"the dudes in the red states have more firepower and the ability to enter safe places and throw away all the play dough."

Well, not exactly. For the time being, Obama has the US military and FLEA apparatus. That kinds of nullifies the part about more firepower.

What if those Soros machines fixed it just a little bit for Trump? Then they could go in find it was fixed for Trump.
All hell would break loose...Evil is very deceiving.

WTF! This bitch had already noted during the campaign that Trump was a better choice than Hillary and now this. Guess it just goes two prove that the election featured Hillary and Stein as two cunts running, Johnson the pussy, and Trump as the only one with balls,,big brass balls.

gdpetti 🦁 Bloodstock • Nov 24, 2016 11:57 AM
Not a female thing, it's an ego thing... and Trump should welcome this opportunity to help the crybabies realize how rigged the system really is... and perhaps how many votes were found in Hillary's side that didn't belong there... though Chicago and NYC et al would be better places to start. Psychopaths like the CLinton camp don't know when to stop... suicide is painless, so I hear.

Dre4dwolf • Nov 24, 2016 11:59 AM Waste of money........and time, not to mention now the democrats know how many votes more or less they have to alter in order to steal the state.

Dont be surprised when 100,000 newly discovered freshly printed ballots appear this time around.

Hillary is in like...hiding because shes obviously too sick to go on and these people are trying to force a corpse into office after they lost already.

Add to the fact that they just spent two weeks violently assaulting people and shooting cops, do people actually think republicans will turn the other cheek and let them change the results of the election? Also, Trump can afford many recounts if he likes, he doesnt have to go around raising money for one, maybe he should recount some of these blue states?

I dont understand what Stein has to gain from this.

Nor do I understand why she would waste her time to raise money for a recount since obviously it wont change anything in her favor.

Maybe shes just trying to look like an SJW to get more votes next time around? these people dont get it, next time around people will have a job, lower taxes and money in the bank, they wont vote democratic to have that taken away from them.... Trump is going to usher in a new industrial revolution if he plays his cards right.
Dre4dwolf
Absolutely target the blue states for recounts..perhaps the Libertarian party would like to raise the money..Oh no I forgot the democrats have already parachuted their people into the leadership of that party!!!

ArthurDaley-Old...
Its not Stein. Its Soros pulling the strings.

Skiprrrdog
Good LORD when will we be able to STOP having to look at pictures of that wrinkled, bloated, mishapen old mug of Cuntess Clinton?
Could you imagine living in a world where ALL of the women looked like Bill Clinton’s wife? There would be like three billion Rodents, and three billion gay guys...

gsp9993
Can you say George Soros? Michigan just finished its own recount due to the close race. Trump won again by 10704 votes. They won't recount again.

25or6to4
And I wonder how much of that 3 million came from that famous grassroots root himself Mr ((Soros)))? 2.99999 million?

Indeed. We must excommunicate this Dr. Evil to Anartica

WOW!!!

Just when Scumbag Soros & Canki were scratching their heads wondering how the hell they could possibly find a couple of $million to contest the election when - OMG!!! - Jill Stain saves the day - and "grass-roots" THREE MILLION!!!! YeeeHAAAA!!!!

A pathetic, laughable, ruse that a dyslexic fruit-fly could see thru!!

It's sad in that it's so embarrassingly cringe-worthy that there's real;ly nothing left to say... – like the 5-year-old with the chocoalt-covered pie-hole pointing at her brother and sasying@ He ate the candy bar!

Geez... sometimes you just have to shake your head & walk away.– and accept that they really are beyond help – just too far gone for any reason or compassion...

"a dyslexic fruit-fly"?
Is that John McCain?

gsp9993 • Nov 24, 2016 12:04 PM

A Hilary decision will lead to an immediate civil war with the bicoastal loonies being kicked out of America.

Bill of Rights • Nov 24, 2016 12:04 PM

Three weeks later still reaching for shit, fuck the left...

RagnarRedux • Nov 24, 2016 12:17 PM

Of course STEIN raised enough money, her nepotistic cohort collective networks for their interests. That is fine, unless you explicitly point it out, and of course it certainly isn't ok for whites to act toward their collective interests, because then that is considered "racist", "supremacist", "bigoted", and "xenophobic".

john milton • Nov 24, 2016 12:04 PM

Only in banana republic...;)} Who?

"Congratulations on meeting the recount costs for Wisconsin. Raising money to pay for the first round so quickly is a miraculous feat and a tribute to the power of grassroots organizing."

I guess in today's bizarro world, a check written by George Soros meets the definition of "grassroots organizing".

ASTROTURF... not grassroots.

Does the name Soros ring a bell?

The only time I want to see Soros again is right after the floorboards creek beneath his feet and the platform door opens beneath his roped-head.

Wilbur it is.

Euhhh... Jill is very good at burning money without ROI I noticed... Other peoples money that is.

Having quickly reviewed a history of recounts, this is idiotic to continue this. We are talking about recounts that maybe add 1,000 votes and there is no way Clinton will add 80,000 to take PA from Trump or 30,000 to take MI and WI. We already know Philly was filled with DEM fraud and still Trump won.

Total waste of money.

hahahaha, this is so stupid it's laughable,

C: if Jill Stein does it, it has nothing do with me, dont jail me...

T: if next director of FBI does something, it's nothing do with me, out of my hands...

Hillary conceded didn't she?

So it's over.

Anyone care to notice that Mercer contributed far more to Trump than Soro did for Clinton?

Gladi8tor • Nov 24, 2016 12:28 PM

Lemme Guess... Stein Owns the recount company

StinkyLebinowitz • Nov 24, 2016 12:29 PM

This is the FIRST year Wisconsin has had VOTER ID in place for a presidential election.

So any drop in vote %s, is more likely due to VOTER ID being mandatory in the counties of reliable and terrible vote fraud, Milwaukee–Dane–Kenosha–Racine, those close to the border.

skipweston • Nov 24, 2016 12:29 PM

The recount will only show more manipulation from the Progressives/Socialists/Globalists. Jill Stein will regret bringing up a recount.

Concerns are being raised over ties between George Soros, a billionaire and political activist with deep ties to Hillary Clinton, and an electronic voting company with machines in 16 states.

The chairman of the London–based company,
Smartmatic International, is Lord Mark Malloch-Brown, who also works under Soros.

Carl LaFong • Nov 24, 2016 12:31 PM

As long as the jpg images are intact on the voting machines, they can do a recount. If not, there can be no real recount. Of course, when did reality enter into any of this?

Vardaman • Nov 24, 2016 12:32 PM

I don’t think it’s as simple as “here’s money for a recount that we want!” Of course, leftists never really research anything they try to do...

inosent • Nov 24, 2016 12:33 PM

Jill stein. wtf ever. trolling for the jews, soros, hellary, the DNC ... as my wife would say, can it be any more obvious? Here, Jill was all about her 'progressive' bulls--, standing up against the 'man', in pursuit of commie utopia (which very recent history shows leads to a dystopia that crashes [soviet union] or current events dystopia in pre-crash mode [venezuela] – but let's not have the facts get in the way of Jill's dementia), specifically and expressly calling out the hideousness of hellary, and the rank hypocrisy of the demonrat party for having manipulated evrything and everybody to kill bernie.
yet here she comes.
f off and die jew bitch.

Kulafarmer • Nov 24, 2016 12:34 PM
Ok, good, go ahead and recount, VERIFY THE ELIGIBILITY OF ALL VOTERS WHILE YOUR AT IT

Bopper09 🐝 Kulafarmer • Nov 24, 2016 12:40 PM
Exactly. Are they going to recount the dead person vote? Recount the numerous empty ballot's filled in by election officials? Recount the machines that automatically switched the Trump vote to clinton?

VOTER ID should be mandatory nationally. Your vote should not count without it. And if you don't show it, you don't get to vote. It's sad that myself, as a Canadian, could have went across and voted numerous times in different States.

BadDog • Nov 24, 2016 12:38 PM
Jill Stein lost what credibility she had with this recount stunt. It is doubtful that she will ever hold an elective office on a national scale. She has shown her true colors just like Elizabeth (Soros) Warren. Both of them should just go away. At this point the only Democrat that is worth a dime is Tulsi Gabbard who has a political future if she doesn't sell out with the rest. Donald Trump is the new president, and the snowflakes are going to have to just suck it up like the rest of have had to for past 30 years.

Let's be honest. If we do the recounts, do Philly, Detroit, Madison, Milwaukee, Chicago, east saint Louis, etc. all the corrupt third world cities. You will find minimum 10% of the vote was illegal/dead Democrats. You want a fair election, institute voter ids. The right to vote is not “free”, it requires a level of participation, including registering, and proving yourself legitimate. If you can't afford the $15 to $25 to get an ID, save the money. Buy less beer, chips, smokes for 1 week...

If they reverse this election, which is unlikely, but still a possibility, get ready to go Atlas Shrugged...

Btw, the odds are:
Trump sworn on Jan 20 – 65%
Clinton sworn on Jan 20 – 15%
Other, such as a constitutional crisis in which we have no President –10%
Obama still president after Jan 20– 10%

This is the revolution by other means...
Damn bookie odds, just trying to get you into sucker bets, I'd want 20:1 or more to put a dime on a Hildabeast coronation.

So, they've got $3 million for a meaningless recount quite easily.

How much would they be able to raise once it is for the homeless, the abolished?

"Oh boy, here it comes. Bring it on you commie bastards."

Spoken like a true Republitard shill. Champion the power of a skeptical republic when it works your way, and bitch and moan like a baby when someone with whom you disagree uses those same tools.

Useless bitch.

Buying a recount is boring, how much are they asking to buy a win?

I seek input from my fellow ZH'ers. Trump made the following comment the other day, which I found curious:
US PRESIDENT-elect Donald Trump has revealed what he spoke about with President Barack Obama at their White House meeting for the first time. The New York billionaire said he liked President Obama “a lot” and the pair had “great chemistry” at the meeting which came two days after the election result. “He said very nice things after the meeting and I said very nice things about him,” Mr Trump told the New York Times in a wideranging meeting on Tuesday. “I really enjoyed my meeting with him ... I really enjoyed him a lot. I’ve spoken to him since the meeting.” “He did tell me what he thought were the biggest problems, in particular one problem that he thought was a big problem for the country, which I’d rather have you ask him,” Mr Trump said. He declined to disclose what they were due to the private nature of their conversation but said he hopes they have a long-term relationship.

Here’s link to full article: http://bit.ly/2g8ADt3

I’d like to know, what in your opinion, is the 'big problem for the country' that Obama identified?

new TheAntiProgressive • Nov 24, 2016 12:46 PM

Why the fuck do you give a shit on this topic Jill, you think your gonna take the vote. This is total BS and here we go again scheming Clintons along with Uncle George putting up a strawman to front thier duplicity. Get a life Greenie.

new bthunder  •  Nov 24, 2016 12:46 PM

Wait, this the sme person who went to the RT gala and sat at the same table with Putin, right? And you'all loved her for that!

Well, dear Trump-tards, how do you'all like her now?
