The covid scare was the biggest mistake in the Trump has made. Never should have shut down the economy as numbers used had no basis in reality. Just would have had to keep the oldies locked up, masks and extra safety precautions. The next biggest mistake Trump made was not to bring Assange to the country as the whole Russian Hoax blew up with no one discrediting what he said. The Deep State operatives hate Assange. So sad as Seth Rich gave his life for nothing.

Elections are rigged well before anyone gets to the voting booths. What's the utility in selecting between one compromised Zio-shill or another?

Look, Trump's been in office for 3 & 1/2 years, 2 of which were with a majority Republican House and Senate, yet what has he achieved in that time-span? You tell me. Sure, his campaign rhetoric sounded great, but be honest with yourself. Are we better off than we were when he first took office? If your retort is that Hillary would've been even worse then you're not seeing the big picture.

I agree in one manner...Trump had to make a decision....trust Fauci and submit to his pushing to shut-down America....or get blamed for each and every death of an American. I think he thought the shut-down was for a short time and then return rapidly but that did not happen..You can imagine what the Media would have done to him...each and every death the NY Gov and the rest of the Dem Govs who returned people to the nursing homes..infective and more deaths..

I think Fauci did not tell him all that was needed to fully inform him that Faucci's idea of a shut-down was 6-12 months....I think if Trump had allowed the American people to decide via some method and being informed of the nature of the potential deaths...then he could have NOT closed the Nation and had a much better outcome. I think Fauci and the WHO/Chinese were all working together...Fauci was against the travel ban..interesting...and Fauci KNEW !! this virus targeted primarily the aged with health issues...NOT kids and young adult.

That's odd I thought Trump delegated the decision to shut down economies to the states at a state level. Its almost as if you don't realize that and comment like a babbling idiot. Also, the safest place for Assange was in the Embassy in England, taking Assange to USA in the early stages when deep state ruled and was in full attack mode against Trump would have gotten Assange killed early. Now that the Russia hoax is spent, Assange can be repatriated. Also the left would have simply dismissed Assange's word as something that could not be trusted, so now that the Russia hoax is exposed, and the deep state is on the run, it will be advantageous to bring Assange to USA to provide clarity on matters as indictments happen.

Trump didn't make a mistake - he is still hamstrung by 5th columnists hiding in plain sight but he made his objections well known by his support for HCQ as a treatment in the face of massive opposition and media attacks.

The extent of internal betrayal is not fully understood by the public and no one - not even his own GOP - are prepared to stand by him.

The level and depth of corruption with the attendant possibility of criminal actions being held over members of Congress is simply (for now) insurmountable.

The measures taken have destroyed the livelihoods of half of the world's population. This virus hardly affects anyone of working age. You tell me how these ongoing draconian measures aren't a surreptitious way of getting an agenda through.

At the beginning, perhaps the information was unclear. But we are well past that point. If the powers that be were acting in good faith, we wouldn't be talking about Covid-19 anymore. We'd have nursing homes isolated and that's it. What's going on is destructive beyond belief. It is pure evil, and I don't know what I as an individual can do about it. This is the most helpless I've felt in my entire life.

I am in my late 70s and have a heart condition, COPD and an enlarged prostate to boot. I knew from the very beginning that the whole thing was the work of total rsoles and I have ignored the lock down (I'm in the UK) completely. Now its not as though I have any social life to talk about, but I have done my twice weekly shop (going by bus to town) and generally wandered about talking to people I know. The weird thing about this farce in the UK, is that the local country bus service which I use ran fully throughout this farce and did so empty apart from me. Indeed, the bus capable of carrying 65 people blanked of all the seats except 7 of them, to comply with social distancing. This continues to the present day, but now mask wearing on all UK transport is compulsory. So I find I'm the only passenger on the bus, wearing a make shift mask and the driver isn't wearing one anyway. Its surreal !!!

It's clear to anyone taking a hard look at what is going on, that there is a widespread concerted effort to overthrow our gov't and way of life. It's clear that the Demtards and Deep State are behind it. It's also linked to the financial/monetary system in some way, likely acts taken to cover up the failure of Central banking among other goals.

How do we combat this widespread brainwashing that we are witnessing about racism? Crime statistics, arrest statistics, cop killing statistics, etc., all disprove the narrative being pushed by every fucking mainstream media outlet in the nation, to include FOX and likely OANN (although I am not able to watch that channel). How do we keep our country and it's laws equitable to all people instead of carving out large swaths of special privileges for those of a specific skin color? How do we keep our heritage when even the Speaker of the House is tearing down pictures and statues?

We are witnessing the destruction of our country, nothing less, and the Demtards/Deep State are behind it because this is an existential event for them. They are caught in high Treason, which brings the death penalty in this country. They are just the public face of the Deep State, which are also likely caught although not certain since we aren't privy to inside activities.

So how far does this go before someone actually speaks up or does something? Are the Demtards going to be allowed to shut down the country and enact their mail in voter fraud scheme? You know they are cooking up something, no fucking way does Biden get elected, probably not even going to be on the ballot in the general if they have their way. So what to do here?

How do we convince the vast majority of Americans that this is insanity when all they see on TV is our political leadership taking a knee and bad mouthing the police?

Still working on my anti COVID blog post.

What we are seeing right now, this "lockstep" of every corporation and government to herd the cattle into their slaughterhouse, is exactly what our predecessors predicted 200+ years ago. With 100's of $trillions in the hands of the privately controlled Illuminist banking families, and with EVERYONE of significance in the public space (who is permitted a voice) is compromised, then everyone will get steamrolled. It will be hard to stand up to this, but we must.

We are all masked and on a leash, including our pets. The Rothschilds control The Economist. They project their intentions through its covers, frequently.

The same psychology is used for Covid as for climate change with the same groups. The snake oil salesmen and stupid are obvious but the largest group by far are what I unkindly term the cowards.

For both CC and Covid the statements put out by the snake oil salesmen have been repeatedly proven to be false and people know this but still accept the message. Its not because they are physical cowards but they are moral cowards. Accepting the reality that virtually everyone in authority is lying to you is a reality a large number of people are unable or unwilling to face.

Its a well documented propaganda trick. People don't want to destabilize their belief system so the mind will ignore contrary messages or will forget them almost immediately know as selective attention, selective perception and selective recall.

Going back in the data for five years, against five of the six currencies – the yen as the exception – the dollar peaked anywhere from November 2015 through February 2016. The dollar peaked against the yen a bit earlier, in June 2015.

In the past six months, the USD has declined against all six of these currencies. From a low in the range of a 5–7% pullback against the pound, Canadian dollar, Euro, and Swiss franc since the respective highs to a 10% and 12% decline against the yen and krona, respectively, the USD has a trend: down.

Conclusion:

The relative strength that the U.S. dollar has seen in recent years is fading.

And the further acceleration is likely in coming years, only adding fuel to the inevitable inflationary fire. Which means less and less purchasing power for those holding dollars.

Unfortunately, all fiat currencies are in a race to the bottom. But it's not all gloom and doom. Fortunately, there are alternatives – currencies in other jurisdictions that will better hold your purchasing power.

Certainly, as will be evident in the coming years, U.S. dollars are no longer a place to store your entire life's savings. Diversification into other currencies is paramount.

US products that are imported are slapped with a tariff that is ridiculous. On the other hand, local/national food products are relatively sane.

Example: 1 kilo of fresh mangoes for 50 cents; fresh fish at $1.50 a kilo; tuna 60 cents. You get the idea.

In my humble opinion is it not wise to ask what was your reaction to a government forced narrative? Did you obey or continue with your life as normal?

It is important to not convey your response to the question but to truly understand it for yourself.

A very weak uprising to the forced locked down didn't occur until much later in this game. It is one thing to give the benefit of doubt and another thing to give time to allow you to become surrounded and captured.

War games, emergency response training events are not done just to see how proficient the people participating are at doing their job but how well the public will react and be controlled.

A disoriented enemy is the best position to put your enemy in. A divided enemy can regroup. The old divide and conquer only goes so far.

The powers that be want you to be focused on only the Divide and Conquer method. They are dividing us so we can't come together. That method has been done a long time ago to the people to the point it has become a life on its own. It has moved well beyond that stage and into the next.

A disoriented enemy will not take the time to question its options but will also panic react to find a way to become stable again.

It is also easier during that panic time to be able to force the type of outcome you desire to see happen to your enemy.

That is why it is important to keep up a constant state of attack to keep your enemy disoriented. This can only happen if you keep up a constant push of disinformation and or violence that leads to people reacting in a disoriented fashion.

If you can't grasp what is really going on then you can't really plan the right way to not only save your life but the life of your family, friends, neighborhood let alone your own country.

The only outcome is you become trapped. Just because you think your in a remote area doesn't mean you can't be found. Because it takes a little longer it doesn't mean you are in the clear of what is to come.

I can't suggest what you need to do for it is your life. I can only suggest that you figure it out really quick for the time being afforded you is running out.

The author has it wrong about Pravda. The Soviets had what they called the 60-40 rule. Articles had to be 60 percent truthful and the 40 percent was propaganda. The articles were also written by academics who new what they were talking about. It was easier to sell BS that way. If you actually read the articles you know it is propaganda but you could actually, by reading between the lines, work out what the truth was.

The horseshit written by mainstream news on the other hand applies no such rule. It is almost 100 percent percent propaganda and written by idiots who have no idea WTF they are talking about. But just like the Soviets if you don't agree their are consequences like censorship, fines, job loss and even prison terms.

Overall, the CDC estimates that 12,000 and 61,000 deaths annually since 2010 can be blamed on the flu. Globally, the World Health Organization (WHO) estimates that the flu kills 290,000 to 650,000 people per year.

The annual death rate depends on the specific strain of the virus that is dominant, how well the vaccine is working to protect against that strain, and how many people got vaccinated, according to Dr. Adalja. The flu can be harder to fight off for specific populations, such as infants and young children, the elderly, and people who are immunocompromised due to chronic illnesses such as HIV or cancer.

If politicians were to denounce mandates from health care officials they would be eaten alive in court and at the polls. Now that the data no longer supports these mandates they can now claim they were fooled or misdirected. When this all started the UK and US resisted going along as they knew it would cause more harm than good but the last TDS stab at the common innocents was in play and well organized through MSM. They were blind sided and legal advisors and political advisors told the higher up you have no choice but to play along as the opposition will use it to mislead your supporters.

Trump will turn this thing around and use it against so called health experts who lied to his administration and us working for the Democrats and closely connected to pharma and China. Maybe Bojo will also use the opportunity but he's not 4 months from an election and so far his nation is not pitched forked at 10 Downing like the white house. The sheep in Britain and Canada seem to be enjoying their little pandemic like some sort of novelty giving voice to angry remainers and drooling feminist liberals in Ontario who get to whip the single white males into compliance.

Bojo can also turn this thing around but knowing the Brits probably waiting for a shift in direction within the US. Many still refuse to admit the US and UK are still formidable allies on the world stage. They have the ability combined to recruit allied nations in a cause and influence policy. I'm sure many who wish a return to the grand sell out of the empires economy and democracy would love us to forget that but when push comes to shove even Putin recognizes you don't mess with that gang.

This is now the globalist Achilles heel as they may have gone too far this time. Way way too far this time and I think it's about to come back and rip a piece right off their backsides. The electorate is fed up with the lies and obvious deceptions promoted by important institutions especially in health care getting promises of position by outright lies.

The economic damage caused by illegal mandates and flawed outright treasonous models sanctioned from officials with questionable motives and ties like Fauci and Professor Neil Ferguson is thoroughly rubbing the majority the wrong way.

Best writing on ZH in many years, and the supporting links are valuable explanations about our police state as well. I wish he had included additional background on defining the exact legal scope and origins of "quarantining" against the vastly cooked up term "shelter in place." But at least I'm now more educated and curious enough to search that myself.

Yes, we live in a police state. Repeat that until you believe it.

It's really quite simple. The fiat currency debt based world economy is approaching it's end. Money can be printed, but wealth cannot. Printing money is an exceptional tool for extracting wealth from those who create it. Debt can only be accrued as long as it falls inside the ability to repay. All such economies end tragically. It's been tried many times. It always fails. ALWAYS. Corona flu is nothing more than a disguise of the fact.

Likewise, those who are afraid of dying and believe they are at an extreme risk from covid are responsible individually for staying indoors, wearing virus-proof protection, avoiding others - especially me. It is not my responsibility to protect them against my best interest of a job, money, health, Liberty and pursuit of happiness.

Agree that the pandemic is exploited for political gain. What isn't However, as someone recently diagnosed with emphysema, I recognize the dangerous COVID-19 poses to me. Even before the diagnosis, I took what reasonable precautions I could: most importantly, I wear a mask if I must be around crowds, I generally avoid being near people especially indoors when possible, and I santiize my hands. These won't guarantee my safety, but they do maximize the chances of avoiding the bug. To be fair to the health authorities, much of the advice they offer is logical and based on what is known about the disease. In other forums, I often cite that reality doesn't care about politics, and the equivalent here would be that the virus does what it does, and doesn't care about what the people think about it.

Thanks for Confucious quote. I prefer a snarkier modern version: "Call a thing by its name. An asshole doesn't turn into a vase just because you put a flower in it."

There are legitimate concerns about constitutionality here.

There's also revisionist history. Mr Leshner acts as if the facts--as we know them today, and presuming they are solid--were known back in January and February and March. It's easy to be a Monday-morning quarterback.

My son has a PhD in Microbiology. I've consulted him heavily on all this as we've gone along. He has access to the research, the preprint servers, the best knowledge in the field. He felt it was an emergency, and here's the kicker: HE HAS NO REASON WHATSOEVER TO LIE TO ME.

I also have a PhD, different field, and what I want more than anything is the data on all this. I want to see the actual numbers, the data on infections, the data on testing (which oddly enough affects the number of confirmed infections), in fact, I want to see it all.

Why? Because I want to make my own analysis and conclusions.

So. Constitutional concerns? Absolutely. Revisionist history? I'd like none of that, please.

▲ 4 ▼ 1 Reply ↩

squib 12 hours ago

If your son sees all the data given out by MSM, then he will be correct, regarding that data.

Truths are not found in MSM (in this case MSM science).

Ask your son in which publications they prove a virus is causing this disease, which group has isolated it and how, pls find the publications where they prove Koch's Postulates of etiology of microbes causing disease Etc.

I can't find them. You can do this for many 'viruses', many doctors can see clearly the second word in Germ Theory.

▲ 1 ▼ 1 Reply ↩

goose3 10 hours ago

My point of pointing out that he has access to the studies, the preprint servers and so on, plus he's an expert in the field, means he's far beyond anything the MSM can offer us.

▲ 1 ▼ Reply ↩

rwe2late 11 hours ago (Edited)

"revisionist history" ?

What about your "ahistorical history" ?

For many years if not decades, the dangers of new diseases and global pandemics have been known. Ask your son about that.

Also known has been the possibility of diseases arising and spreading from feed lots, wildlife interaction, overuse of antibiotics, bio-warfare 'research', and privatized for-profit research & production of poisons and genetic engineering. And yet measures to curtail and control and deter have been greatly lacking, if not absent altogether. Ask your son about that.

Nonetheless, for years the medical system has been short-changed in prevention and preparedness.

All the foregoing points to political failure and corruption on a colossal scale for years if not decades.

In 2020, with no good means of response prepared and available, the political leaders chose to cover their past failures by deception and control of dissent. In their flailing about, they mandated harmful policies which directly caused thousands of deaths and suffering , and will certainly cause many more future deaths and suffering. They shut down economies and medical care for others the dismal short-term and long-term effects of which are daily unfolding.

"Revisionist history"? Back in early March they knew the virus was lethal and severe almost exclusively to the aged and infirm, and many were saying that. They mandated the introduction of contagious patients into nursing facilities. But in hindsight, that is proving to be the least worst of their counter-productive, harmful, and deceitful actions. Ask your son about that.

▲ 4 ▼ 1 Reply ↩

goose3 10 hours ago

More revisionist history. I was thinking about this in mid-January, not March. You skipping ahead to March ignores what we had access to back in January and February.

Many do not realize that the September 11, 2001 so-called "terror attacks" are related to the so-called coronavirus "pandemic." The evidence indicates that they are related as part of a Masonic cult ritual from the Luciferian power elite. Consider that the number 19 plays a very observable role in these two ritualistic events. poster below reminds us about the cluster of VAPING DEATHS which occurred in Maryland, notably, and elsewhere prior to the Wuhan military games and the outbreak in Wuhan itself.

First cases of corona syndrome were reported in the fall of 2019, and the outbreak, which occurred right before the lunar new year and in a main chinese transport hub, was deliberately exported from china by allowing air transport outwards until it was obvious the outbreak would spread to the US and elsewhere.

I'll be honest, I don't think the vaping deaths have anything to do with Covid-19. But I agree that the virus was intentionally exported out of China. Either intentionally, or through willful negligence on the part of the Chinese government.

What Zero Hedge became, in essence, was a forum for the hateful, conspiracy-driven voices of the angry white men of the alt-right. Racists, anti-Semites, extreme right-wingers, and conspiracy nuts were an underserved audience, and, as it turns out, a profitable one. Steve Bannon, the former White House adviser who recently described himself as a “huge fan” of Zero Hedge, has largely built his career around the similar recognition that these overlooked masses represented an untapped well of anger that could be shaped into a powerful political force.

The reason is that money, not ideology, is what drives Ivandjiiski and other successful entrepreneurs in the burgeoning conspiracy business. “They care what generates page views. Clicks. Money,” Colin Lokey, the former Zero Hedge employee, told Bloomberg. Ivandjiiski’s personal beliefs have little to do with the site’s content. “He may believe with 2 percent of his body that everything’s going to blow up,” another former employee told me, “but the other 98 percent knows this is what makes money.” Another person who knows him well says, “He’ll write about what brings in readers.”

Zero Hedge says it has been profitable from day one, but how much money the site makes is a closely guarded secret. Dan Ivandjiiski took the unusual step of requiring his wife to sign a nondisclosure agreement during the divorce to prevent disclosure of Zero Hedge’s business secrets “That’s how he is. He’s very secretive,” says the person who knows him well, adding that leaving Wall Street to start Zero Hedge may have been an even more lucrative career path. In a sign of just how profitable the site might be, Daniel Ivandjiiski and his wife paid off a $1.7 million mortgage on their New Jersey home in less than two years.

Are any US individuals / groups challenging the lockdowns, social distancing, obligatory masks, business shutdowns In The Courts?

<https://www.keepbritainfree.com/>

Britain is where globalist ideas first gained traction in the 1800s. The globalist agenda (total global control) centres in, emanates from the Anglosphere

Brits are challenging the current coup d'etat in the courts. US states and the US federal courts should face similar challenges from the people. Where are these challenges? What are thinking still-sentient citizens doing? Sitting around doing nothing constructive?

If nothing is done Very Soon global tyranny is assured; humanity will be lost perhaps for ever, certainly for many centuries.

1 The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;

2 To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding;

3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity;

4 To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.

5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

7 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

The great amount of new cases proves that the lock-down ended too early. The Corona Virus has been here for decades in one form or another, the world's scientists have been working day and night for a vaccine without success. There will be no vaccine for this plague. The world's population must return to total lockdown until this deadly virus goes away even if it takes one hundred years. Social distancing must be extended - unless protesting for racial equality, of course - to 12 feet. Masks will need to be worn 24-7. New laws must be enacted and rigidly enforced. New prisons expressly designed for those who break the Covid-19 laws must be built. If these things are not done PEOPLE WILL DIE. Fear is good, fear saves lives. People that do not understand the gravity of this plague, such as the author of this insane article, must be placed in prison. All Covid-19 deniers should face imprisonment.

The sad part is, the Government and Media are so far into this, they can't back out from it.

"They have to keep perpetuating the bullshit or the public will never trust them again on anything."

We are well beyond that now; witness the "Push Back" by Americans. The Deep State Operatives that sold the bogus predictions of a fraudulent Modeling fom Imperial College that 2.2 million Americans would die, knew it was Bullshit. Wey know this was a "Plandemic" foretold by none other than Dr. "Fauxi" shortly after mopping up all of his tears after he learned his "Pantsuit Drunk" lost the election in 2016. Start the video at about 3:21 to hear his prediction.

<https://conservativemedia.com/news/watch-dr-fauci-2017-trump-will-faced-surprise-global-disease-outbreak/>

The "Plandemic" was just "The Next Thing" to be attempted to get President Trump gone after the Phony Russia Collusion Coup and the Dimtard's Partisan Impeachment Sham failed. It was not only that, but and attempt for profit by the Global Healthcare Mafia to sell their "Vaccines Only Protection Racket" while denigrating cheaper and already approved for human use certain therapuetics like Hydroxychloroquine.

It was the combined effort of the Communist Chinese with their Covid-19 Wuhan Bioweapon Flu probably funded with Dr. Fauxi's $3.7 Million Grant to the Wuhan Lab; the Chicom Centric World Health Organization, The Gates Foundation, and the Cabal of Government Healthcare Weenies like Dr. "Fauxi". Dr. Scarf Lady, and the 30,000+ employed in the bowel of NIH, CDC, FDA, and the Dept. of HHS costing Taxpayers about $50 Billion per year to ensure that a robust economy and full employment could not be used to justify his reelection.

IT'S NOT GOING TO WORK, ESPECIALLY GIVEN THAT THE FAR LEFT COMMUNISTS OF THE JACKASS PARTY DON'T HAVE A PLATFORM MUCH LESS A CANDIDATE WHO IS NOT SUFFERING FROM DEMENTIA.

Municipality: Girdwood gatherings lead to 5 positive COVID cases, more with symptoms

<https://www.ktuu.com/content/news/Municipality-Girdwood-gatherings-lead-to-5-positive-cases-more-with-symptoms-571379711.html>

ANCHORAGE (KTUU) – The Municipality of Anchorage Health Department is monitoring 42 people as close contacts of five people who have tested positive for COVID-19 after attending two private gatherings in Girdwood. The Municipality is reiterating the importance for residents to continue wearing masks and practice physical distancing.

The Girdwood events were a combination of indoors and outdoors, though were mostly outdoors, Pineda said.

Deciding not to be tested

Pineda says some of the people identified through contact tracing relating to the Girdwood events have begun to show symptoms of COVID-19, and some have decided not to get tested. The city can't force people to be tested, but is recommending anyone showing symptoms to act as though they have received a positive test

I think that people should do whatever they choose until hospitals are overwhelmed. With 1,220,151 in the U.S. currently infected with the disease it is not like it isn't serious. It is not like the flu where you get over it and you are all better. And, you can get it a second time within a four month period. So, my choice of proceeding is forcing everybody to wear masks and go back to work for a month and be done with it. But, you can't get Stupid people to wear masks except at places of employment.

They shut down the restaurant.

They didn't give the waitresses unemployment.

The owner didn't get the promised payroll monies.

So the owner reopened to get some money coming in for herself and the staff.

And while the owner was out getting supplies the cops showed up and issued a criminal citation to the waitresses.

Class B misdemeanor - criminal penalty for waitressing to pay ones bills.
