London Mayor: Mandatory Masks Will Be The "New Normal" For At Least Another Year

by Tyler Durden
Sat, 06/20/2020 - 08:10

Via 21stCenturyWire.com,

One of the great impending disasters of the COVID crisis is that despite the fact that the Coronavirus is rapidly disappearing and its true Infection Fatality Rate is in the exact same range as the seasonal flu, politicians and government health officials seem determined to roll-out the globalist "New Normal" regime.

We're continually told by health officials and the media that the primary reason for requiring face masks is to protect people from the COVID-19 airborne pathogen. There are numerous problems with this government belief system, not least of all because it assumes that every person is equally at risk of illness due to COVID-19, which is false.

The vast majority of the general population are not at risk at all, as it mainly only affects one specific demographic: over 70 years old with chronic long-term health conditions, and within that risk group the majority of complications and fatalities have been with nursing/care home residents (none of these people travel on public transport).

The other reason why this virus is not a threat to the wider population is because it is seasonal in nature; it has followed the exact same trajectory of decline in every country worldwide, and by now has all but extinguished itself in any significant form. But even beyond all of this, it has already been well-established by numerous scientific experts that masks are incapable of protecting people against this or any other respiratory virus.

This means that wearing them is more a psychological reinforcement rather than any real medical prophylactic.

Sadiq Khan says 90 per cent of Londoners now wearing face masks

London Mayor Sadiq Khan said facemasks will be the 'new normal' for commuters in the capital for at least a year.

Protective face coverings are compulsory on public transport across England in a bid to keep coronavirus infection rates low and avoid a second wave of the deadly virus.

Free masks were handed out in their thousands on buses and trains in attempt to kick start the new laws on Monday as 3,000 more police took to the streets looking out for rule-breakers.

Those who don't wear masks will face £100 penalty fines but confusion still reigned about how the regulations - followed by 90 per cent of Londoners on Monday - will be enforced, The Daily Telegraph reports.

Sadiq Khan told LBC: 'This is part of the new normal. The reality is that for the foreseeable future - I predict for the next year or so - wearing face coverings is going to become the norm rather than the exception.'

Confederation of Passenger Transport Executive Graham Vidler told the BBC that those who are unable to wear masks due to a disability will be able to signal to a driver or conductor using a 'journey assistance card'.

He said: 'If passengers aren't following the guidelines then other passengers might have difficulties with that and issues might arise.'

'That's another reason we are encouraging people to use journey assistance cards to indicate that they have a valid reason for not wearing a face covering...'

Continue this story at the Daily Mail...

Even America's health tsar, Anthony Fauci, admitted as much in a 60 Minutes interview in March, where he stated, "There's no reason to be walking around with a mask."

And despite all of that, the New Normal agenda is still being pushed through.

I struggle to understand the need to control others... such a mindset is indicative of a very sick soul, if in fact said creature is not soulless...

On the other hand, years ago my then twelve year old daughter was screaming at me, 'you just want to control my life!'

I told her to enjoy it while it lasted as the day would come when I would no longer accept the responsibility. I remind her of that upon occasion when she asks me to figure things out for her...

Yes, they are. No sane person has any desire to put a gun to their neighbor's head and force them to do, or not do, this or that, except as required to keep their neighbor from doing so to them. Power spaces are, sooner or later regardless what form of government, occupied by psychopaths. It's the perfect environment for them. And so, governments are gangs of extreme psychopaths, with lesser psychopaths enforcing their tyranny. There is one and only one valid secular law, thou shalt not steal. Whether that theft be of property, well being, liberty, or life itself. All other laws are tyranny.

Every man's nature is a sufficient advertisement to him of the character of his fellows. My right and my wrong, is their right and their wrong. Whilst I do what is fit for me, and abstain from what is unfit, my neighbor and I shall often agree in our means, and work together for a time to one end. But whenever I find my dominion over myself not sufficient for me, and undertake the direction of him also, I overstep the truth, and come into false relations to him. I may have so much more skill or strength than he, that he cannot express adequately his sense of wrong, but it is a lie, and hurts like a lie both him and me. Love and nature cannot maintain the assumption: it must be executed by a practical lie, namely, by force. This undertaking for another, is the blunder which stands in colossal ugliness in the governments of the world." -- Emerson's Politics

Good judgement: Yep, the Brits are dumb enough to go along with that.

They will moan, they will complain, but it has been over 400 years since they were gifted democracy, I don't think the Brits have ever fought for anything, of any substance, except during WW2 when they fought a country that wanted to be their allies. Ha ha, that's the Brits for you, dumb fucks. Then they blamed the Nazis. Can't help stupid.

Both the USSR and the USA were rivals of the British Empire. So Brits created Hitler to defeat the USSR to enable them to finally deal with the USA without Russia constantly interfering. This is why the Molotov-Ribbentrop Pact is an evil deed because it allowed Hitler to deal with France first, ruining British plans. This left Brits no choice but to ally with its rivals, the USA and the USSR.

The British are treacherous by nature and very materialistic. Thus, completely different from Germans. Aside from the small minority of actual English in England. The native Brit is very dissimilar to Germans.

And BTW, the BEF wouldn't have lasted but 1 week against the Soviet Union. Germans are a different breed.

A mask is the ultimate symbol of subservience to others – especially your owners/masters – .gov

It lets everyone know in an instant who is a good sheep, and who cannot be trusted to do what the master says.

It has nothing to do with the flu.

Still working on my anti COVID blog post.

What we are seeing right now, this "lockstep" of every corporation and government to herd the cattle into their slaughterhouse, is exactly what our predecessors predicted 200+ years ago. With 100's of $trillions in the hands of the privately controlled Illuminist banking families, and with EVERYONE of significance in the public space (who is permitted a voice) is compromised, then everyone will get steamrolled. It will be hard to stand up to this, but we must.

The puppet masters must see some humour in this. At first for me it was concern, then disgust. Now its kinda funny. When you see someone in their car driving around with a mask on, walking down the sidewalk with no one in sight or at the local forest preserve with no one near them you know that person does not have their wits about them.

MI governor just extended her emergency declaration until July 19. And for what?

We had single digit deaths on May 24. Then the governor decided to start looking into old hospital records, testing prisoners, and increased testing. They have been fighting the downturn with manipulated statistics ever since. Just look at the graph. We've been declining for a month and flat for two weeks. Every other day they find about 20 deaths to add to statistics.

Corporations are thieves, so why would a lottery corp be any different. As for lightening, no. But have we closed down the economy because of lightening? No and wouldn't expect to, far fewer people are struck by lightening than the faux covid, according to government sources which are lies at best and lies at worst. So what exactly is your point.

"You must understand. The leading Bolsheviks who took over Russia were not Russians. They hated Russians. They hated Christians. Driven by ethnic hatred they tortured and slaughtered millions of Russians without a shred of human remorse. The October Revolution was not what you call in America the 'Russian Revolution.' It was an invasion and conquest over the Russian people. More of my countrymen suffered horrific crimes at their bloodstained hands than any people or nation ever suffered in the entirety of human history. It cannot be understated. Bolshevism was the greatest human slaughter of all time. The fact that most of the world is ignorant of this reality is proof that the global media itself is in the hands of the perpetrators."

When you're bringing about new type of slavery it is very important to remove all traces of old types of slavery. It keeps people's minds off of the fact they are being turned into slaves and the slave masters were defeated before.

The new slavery doesn't care about the color of the person or target a color it just demands that you submit.

The message is if you think your going to move somewhere else where this new form of slavery isn't going to happen you might want to think again. It is the reason why it was shown to be worldwide and your constantly being reminded of it.

It has nothing to do with any form of "virus". It has everything to do with a new form of control.

Influenza 1918

Film Description

In September of 1918, soldiers at an army base near Boston suddenly began to die. The cause of death was identified as influenza, but it was unlike any strain ever seen. As the killer virus spread across the country, hospitals overflowed, death carts roamed the streets and helpless city officials dug mass graves. It was the worst epidemic in American history, killing over 600,000 — until it disappeared as mysteriously as it had begun.

No one is wearing a mask that could even potentially filter out a virus as small as covid-19. If you were to wear such a mask, it is unlikely that you would be able to breathe at all, given how small the pores would have to be. So all of this is absolutely asinine and completely ridiculous. The virus is not an airborne pathogen. An airborne pathogen is like pollen, that rides air currents and infects you if you breathe air.

A sickness spread by respiratory droplets is not airborne. In order to be infected, you must touch contaminated surfaces and then touch your face. You can be infected if an infected person coughs directly in your face, but that still isn't airborne.

The study Fauchai and others used to claim it as airborne put viral loads in an industrial nebulizer which created a fine mist that is impossible for a human to produce.

The mask is nothing more than a symbol of compliance of submission.

Just another in a long line of satanic, marxist-globalist sellouts that we call our media and government leaders. If you are being forced to wear a mask, or just want to wear one for fun, here's a nifty idea for you. Get yourself a black sharpie and write HOAX across the front of your mask. Everyone should start doing this as a form of protest.

I'm going to wear a HOAX mask every time I go to do any shopping from now on. The masks CANNOT filter out a virus this tiny, period! The virus hangs in the air for hours and can spread over 25 feet. The idea that we should be 'social distancing' and 'wearing a mask' when this is the case insults our intellect. Wear your hoax proudly, because that's what this is.

Prisoner of the idiocracy signing out.

"The virus hangs in the air for hours and can spread over 25 feet"

That is actually wrong though. The study that "qualified" that, put viral loads in an industrial nebulizer.

The virus actually hangs in the air for less than two minutes and travels about four feet. The 25 foot spread was based on a computer model with completely unrealistic input parameters. The force needed to spread a cloud of particulates 25 feet from your lungs would turn your chest inside out.

I don't know why you feel the need to qualify this for me: I'm telling you what the government officials are telling us which of course is absolute crap. The point is, if I input A into B, I do not get C, even when using their own variables.

Masks are an outward symbol of your capitulation to fantasy.
Might as well be at comic con in your favorite superhero outfit.

It's astounding how some people just roll over. Over and over.

Wearing The Mask is a sign of submission to The Lie.

The Lie is the first and original sin, who sits at the right hand of Ahriman, the original model for Satan.

The Sign of the Beast is already among us, for you apocalyptic nutters.

And yes, I have this all written out in a page-long paper posted on my door in a state office, where we are now all ORDERED to wear masks by the Governor. So far, I have escaped firing. I have made it into a religious matter. Devotees of Apollo do not Lie.

Posters below appear to have forgotten that the globalists shut down the entire globe, clearly operating above the level of local governments, including China, Russia, EU, UK and every other country that counts, and many that don't.

This legal challenge <https://www.crowdjustice.com/case/lockdownlegalchallenge/> is intended for UK specifically and ALSO to inspire other countries and States to do the same:

<https://www.crowdjustice.com/case/lockdownlegalchallenge/>

<https://www.keepbritainfree.com/>

Why is every US State not making legal challenge? Federal, and local.

If you prefer wait for the World Economic Forum to take control of your mind and body, that's fine too

I suspect that legal challenges have been few in America due to lack of money. Most high-profile political challenges in this country are pushed by leftist groups like ACLU. ACLU no longer defends the civil rights of non-leftists like they used to, oh, forty years ago. Conservatives only fund Christian extremists. And members of a "certain" religious sect only fund other members of their sect.

The Corona hoax is one of the most successful operations of the Deep State. The sheeple have been more compliant and docile than anyone could reasonably expect.

The "lockdown" should be useful in combatting political rallies for Trump, while Biden hides in his closet.

The Dems hope to create an election in which their candidate never conducts a live public rally or engages in a debate.

With demented Biden's bumbling, senile track record, you can understand why they are choosing this path.

- Numerous internationally renowned experts in the fields of virology, immunology and epidemiology consider the measures taken to be counterproductive and recommend rapid natural immunisation of the general population and protection of risk groups.
- At no time was there a medical reason for the closure of schools, as the risk of disease and transmission in children is extremely low. There is also no medical reason for small classes, masks or 'social distancing' rules in schools.
- The claim that only (severe) Covid-19 but not influenza may cause venous thrombosis and pulmonary (lung) embolism is not true, as it has been known for 50 years that severe influenza greatly increases the risk of thrombosis and embolism, too.
- Several medical experts described express coronavirus vaccines as unnecessary or even dangerous. Indeed, the vaccine against the so-called swine flu of 2009, for example, led to sometimes severe neurological damage and lawsuits in the millions. In the testing of new coronavirus vaccines, too, serious complications and failures have already occurred.
- A global influenza or corona pandemic can indeed extend over several seasons, but many studies of a "second wave" are based on very unrealistic assumptions, such as a constant risk of illness and death across all age groups.
- Several nurses, e.g. in New York City, described an oftentimes fatal medical mismanagement of Covid patients due to questionable financial incentives or inappropriate medical protocols.
- The number of people suffering from unemployment, depressions and domestic violence as a result of the measures has reached historic record values. Several experts predict that the measures will claim far more lives than the virus itself. According to the UN 1.6 billion people around the world are at immediate risk of losing their livelihood.
- NSA whistleblower Edward Snowden warned that the "corona crisis" will be used for the permanent expansion of global surveillance. Renowned virologist Pablo Goldschmidt spoke of a "global media terror" and "totalitarian measures". Leading British virologist Professor John Oxford spoke of a "media epidemic".
- More than 600 scientists have warned of an "unprecedented surveillance of society" through problematic apps for "contact tracing". In some countries, such "contact tracing" is already carried out directly by the secret service. In several parts of the world, the population is already being monitored by drones and facing serious police overreach.
- A 2019 WHO study on public health measures against pandemic influenza found that from a medical perspective, "contact tracing" is "not recommended in any circumstances". Nevertheless, contact tracing apps have already become partially mandatory in several countries.
