

People Are Rebellng Against Lockdowns, Masks Worldwide

Analysis by Dr. Joseph Mercola

✓ Fact Checked

STORY AT-A-GLANCE

- > The Delta variant has a very low 0.27% case fatality rate (CFR) in the U.K., which drops to 0.03% in those under 50, yet is being used as impetus for COVID-19 restrictions
- > The public, increasingly fed up with the contradictory guidelines and mandates, is speaking out against the draconian measures that are being reinstated
- > In July 2021, more than 160,000 people, including 11,000 in Paris, protested in France against the “health pass,” the country’s version of a vaccine passport
- > Demonstrations against Italy’s similar Green Pass have popped up in Rome, Naples and Turin, with people calling for freedom and chanting “down with the dictatorship”
- > Thousands of protestors also turned up to rebel against extended lockdown orders in Australia and, in India, hundreds of people joined a Freedom Rally to protest COVID lockdowns and mandatory masks, vaccination and COVID testing
- > In the U.S., more than 100 people protested outside the Iowa State Capitol against COVID-19 vaccine mandates, while advocacy groups in California filed a lawsuit against Gov. Gavin Newsom and health officials to challenge COVID restrictions in kindergarten through grade 12 schools

COVID-19 vaccines were supposed to set you free and bring life back to what it looked like in 2019 – no masks, no lockdowns and freedom for everyone, regardless of vaccination status.

Along those lines, the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention updated their guidelines May 13, 2021, to state that vaccinated individuals no longer needed to wear a mask outdoors and in most spaces indoors<sup>1</sup> but, July 27, 2021, they changed the guidance to once again recommend masks for vaccinated people while indoors in areas with "high" or "substantial" COVID-19 transmission.<sup>2</sup>

This time, the about-face about masks – even for the vaccinated – was blamed on the Delta variant of the virus.

At this point, however, with effective treatments like ivermectin available, the documented high survival rate of COVID-19<sup>3</sup> and knowledge that if you've had COVID-19, you're already likely immune to further infection, the rationale for further restrictions is questionable – and even more so when you consider the Delta variant has a very low 0.27% case fatality rate (CFR) in the U.K., which drops to 0.03% in those under 50.<sup>4</sup>

Generally speaking, as a virus becomes more transmissible, it becomes less virulent, as a virus that is highly deadly will kill off its hosts before it can spread. In an op-ed published by The Blaze, Daniel Horowitz cited data showing the Delta variant has a 0.1% CFR, which is the same rate as the flu, and has shown a pattern similar to most other respiratory viruses:<sup>5</sup>

“This is exactly what every respiratory pandemic has done through history: morphed into more transmissible and less virulent form that forces the other mutations out since you get that one. Nothing about masks, lockdowns, or experimental shots did this.

To the extent this really is more transmissible, it's going to be less deadly, as is the case with the common cold. To the extent that there are areas below the herd immunity threshold (for example, in Scotland and the northwestern parts of the U.K.) they will likely get the Delta variant (until something else supplants it), but fatalities will continue to go down."

The public, increasingly fed up with the contradictory guidelines and mandates, is speaking out against the draconian measures that are being reinstated, often due to Delta — a powerful move, since mass, peaceful protests can lead to significant change.

Nationwide Protests in France, Italy Over Vaccine Passports

In July 2021, more than 160,000 people, including 11,000 in Paris, protested in France against the “health pass,” the country’s version of a vaccine passport. Police released tear gas and water cannons against some of the protestors.<sup>6</sup> France’s parliament approved a law that requires a health pass to enter restaurants, trains, planes and certain other public venues.

The health pass will be mandatory for adults and, starting September 30, 2021, children 12 and older as well.<sup>7</sup> In order to get a health pass, individuals must prove they are fully vaccinated against COVID-19, have recently tested negative or have recently recovered from the virus.<sup>8</sup>

Protestors raised concerns that “freedom is being trampled on”<sup>9</sup> and called for liberty and “no to the pass of shame.”<sup>10</sup> The law requiring the health pass also mandated vaccinations for all workers in the health care sector, who will be required to be vaccinated by September 15, 2021, or risk being suspended.<sup>11</sup>

In Italy, a similar pass called the “Green Pass”<sup>12</sup> will be required as of August 6, 2021, to enter gyms, swimming pools, sports stadiums, museums, spas, casinos, cinemas and indoor restaurants. It's already required to travel within the European Union or enter care homes or large wedding receptions in Italy.

Demonstrations against the Green Pass have popped up in Rome, Naples and Turin, with people calling for freedom and chanting "down with the dictatorship."<sup>13</sup> As with France's health pass, the Green Pass serves as proof that an individual has been vaccinated, recently tested negative for COVID-19 or recovered from a previous infection.

People Rebel Against Australian, UK Lockdowns, Tracing

Thousands of protestors also turned up to rebel against extended lockdown orders in Australia.<sup>14</sup> Stay-at-home orders were extended until at least August 28, 2021, in Sydney, which NPR said could prompt a second recession of the economy in two years.

With residents growing increasingly weary and protesting the lockdowns, police were being called in for enforcement and government officials called on individuals to report people who weren't obeying social distancing rules.

Outside of Sydney, about half of Australia's residents were in lockdown as of July 24, 2021, but protestors were increasingly taking to city centers to call for freedom and the truth. At one protest in Melbourne, a banner read, "This is not about a virus it's about total government control of the people."<sup>15</sup> Multiple arrests were made at the Sydney protests, with police stating that crowds "broke through barriers and threw plastic bottles and plants."<sup>16</sup>

In New South Wales, law enforcement stated that while they supported free speech and peaceful assembly, "the protest was a breach of public health orders."<sup>17</sup>

Meanwhile in England, most COVID restrictions were recently lifted, but protests are increasing over the NHS COVID app, which notifies you if you've been in close contact (defined as within 6 feet for 15 minutes or more) with someone who tested positive for COVID.

During the week of July 14, 2021, 618,903 alerts were sent to people using the app, which means, if you're unvaccinated, you're supposed to self-isolate for 10 days since the last contact with the positive person. If you don't self-isolate after being notified, you can be fined £1,000 ($1,390) or more.<sup>18</sup> About 5,000 people also demonstrated against COVID measures in Athens, with banners stating, "Don't touch our children."<sup>19</sup>

Freedom Rally in India Protests COVID Restrictions

In India, hundreds of people joined a Freedom Rally to protest COVID lockdowns and mandatory masks, vaccination and COVID testing, with slogans reading:<sup>20</sup>

- "Mandatory vaccination is tyranny"
- "No more lockdowns. It has brought poverty and hunger"
- "Vaccinating cannot guarantee safety of one's life"
- "WHO says masks are not for healthy people"

The peaceful protests were part of the Awaken India Movement (AIM), which aims to protect freedom of choice and basic human rights, which are rapidly eroding, and prevent mandatory vaccination, masks, social distancing and testing. It's also working to stop lockdowns, GMO foods, 5G and tech censorship. According to AIM:<sup>21</sup>

"We are particularly concerned about health, financial and ecological crisis that humanity is facing, facilitated by misplaced and false narratives that are propagated as its cause. Our collective journey began by revealing the truth behind the ‘Covid-19: The Great Reset’ and communicating with the public about the new norms, global agendas and authoritarian tactics that are unfolding to this end.”

Vaccine, Mask Mandates Under Fire in US

In the U.S., more than 100 people protested outside the Iowa State Capitol against COVID-19 vaccine mandates, including those issued by some hospitals in the state. The rally was organized by Informed Choice Iowa, a nonprofit in support of medical freedom and informed consent.<sup>22</sup>

Speaking with the Des Moines Register, Brei Johnson with Informed Choice Iowa said, “You can take off a mask but you can’t undo a vaccine. That’s a slippery slope to what comes next.”<sup>23</sup> Republican state Rep. Jeff Shipley also spoke at the rally, referring to vaccine mandates as “a crime against humanity.”<sup>24</sup>

Advocacy groups Let Them Breathe and Reopen California Schools took a different approach in California, where they filed a lawsuit against Gov. Gavin Newsom and other health officials to challenge COVID restrictions in kindergarten through grade 12 schools – specifically mask mandates, asymptomatic testing and quarantine guidance for close contacts.<sup>25</sup> Jonathan Zachreson, founder of Reopen California Schools, stated:<sup>26</sup>

“It’s clear that CDPH [California Department of Public Health] has chosen to ignore the overwhelming evidence that show[s] children are at a very low risk from being infected with COVID-19, transmitting it to others, or becoming seriously ill from COVID-19.

A return to a normal school year is crucial to the mental and physical health recovery for all students across California who have endured months of isolation and a majority of who spent last school year entirely in distance learning.”

Sharon McKeeman, founder of Let Them Breathe, added that health officials' claims that face masks don't interfere with education "is faulty in that facial cues, social skills, and comfort are just a few of the essential components of education that masking excludes."<sup>27</sup>

Learning to Live With COVID

As noted by Horowitz in The Blaze, "Natural infection is the only phenomena that will ultimately burn out all variants, and the entire focus should be on getting seniors and other vulnerable people early treatment the minute they feel symptoms and even a prophylactic regimen of ivermectin ... when appropriate."<sup>28</sup>

Instead of locking down society, which is taking an extreme toll on the economy and individual lives, why isn't COVID-19 being treated the way other viruses like influenza are, with symptomatic people staying home to recover while the rest of society goes on?

As I talked about in an earlier article, data compiled by Pandemics ~ Data & Analytics (PANDA) found no relationship between lockdowns and COVID-19 deaths per million people. The disease followed a trajectory of linear decline regardless of whether or not lockdowns were imposed. Yet, this type of information has been censored from the beginning.

The lack of exposure to everyday dirt and germs that is missed when people stay home, socially distanced and sanitized also cannot be ignored. "Our immune system needs a job," Dr. Meg Lemon, a Denver dermatologist, told The New York Times in a 2019 article on the science of the immune system. "We evolved over millions of years to have our immune systems under constant assault. Now they don't have anything to do."<sup>29</sup>

What is perhaps most disturbing is that this comment was made prior to the pandemic. Now, it's exponentially worse, and your immune system is likely missing out on interactions with bacteria and other microorganisms that teach it, train it how to respond and keep it primed throughout your life.

If you don't agree with COVID-19 restrictions in your area, now is the time to speak out in peaceful protest in order to compel positive changes in support of health and overall freedom.

Darzoum

Even before Covid-19, there had been talk of the need for some kind of passport that conferred a person with rights that previously were a given of citizenship in a free society. That "need" did not arise from a burning public desire, but from some of the very institutions "war-gaming" pandemic scenarios. And so, no special powers of precognition were required to predict the calls for an immunity or vaccine "passport"; it was all part of an encroaching Technocracy, with its pretexts for tyranny riding on the new pseudo-ideal of "biosecurity."

The very idea of a "health passport" is a notion that could only arise from a place I would not care to visit and would not choose to belong to. The greatest societies should stand for something beyond the pretense of being obsessively safe through technocratic standardizations of body and mind. The ideals a society purports to uphold are now often symbolized through living icons, increasingly entertainers, sports stars, politicians, faux-journalists or vaunted health "authorities." But when those icons concertedly coax, shame and coerce a type of blind obedience that stands in stark contrast to the land's most cherished values of liberty, and when those icons—effectively glamorous thought police—baldly demonstrate that they front for the established order of corporate power, hard choices should be confronting the average citizen. But that's the problem: in lieu of choice, scheming tyrants are trying slip-in and sustain insanity-as-normalcy long enough for people to get used to it. Obviously many never will. They're the ones with active memories and cognitive abilities. They know they never voted to instate a "new normal," and they know they never voluntarily surrendered their freedom of choice. That hasn't changed. (This message will self-destruct in 48 hours.)

Perhaps it is the folks I know, friends, family, or, maybe it is life in a metro area of a blue state, but many seem quite contented with this loss of freedom. I am horrified by it. One of my observations is that these folks want someone to tell them what to do especially when they are afraid. Similar to children with parents. It doesn't seem to matter that rules/instructions are confusing, contradictory or harmful. These folks appear to think that government leaders and their own doctors are keeping them safe and healthy, often with meds. They have abdicated ( if they ever possessed) responsibility for maintaining a healthy life on their own. Taking a statin will help me more than changing my diet and lifestyle. If you have already capitulated with meds, why not another, the jab? Mercola has another piece today about obesity and covid. Bravo! This is truly an epidemic. Have you ever heard Fauci mention it? A former neighbor of mine was a drug rep. She always told me that docs know that patients don't want to make lifestyle changes, they want the easy way, i.e meds. I never believed her. Guess I was wrong.

As always, I appreciate your comments, Darzoum.

Guillermou

Very good arguments DAVID. Yes, the technocratic tyranny is errible by imposing rules that discriminate freedoms. The purpose is the vaccine and it has always been the vaccine. The third dose of Pfizer is already under approval. President Biden said last week that I expected a fully approved vaccine in early fall. But the FDA's unofficial deadline is Labor Day or sooner, according to multiple people familiar with the plan. The agency said in a statement that its leaders recognized that approval might inspire more public confidence and had "taken an all-hands-on-deck approach" to the work.

Even more surprising: Pete Parada, drummer for the Californian rock band Offspring, said he was ousted from the band because he refused to get a COVID vaccine, despite having already had COVID and acquiring natural immunity. In an Instagram post, Parada said: "Since I am unable to comply with what is increasingly becoming an industry mandate, it has recently been decided that I am unsafe to be around, in the studio and on tour. I mention this because you won't be seeing me at these upcoming shows. I also want to share my story so that anyone else experiencing the agony and isolation of getting left behind right now knows they're not entirely alone. "

Conclusion: The drug mafia wants the future to be all benefits for vaccine-motivated diseases. If the natural immunity is more durable than the vaccine, what is the point of the need to be vaccinated. The clock is ticking, come fall and winter - I fear the worst. I've seen a preview - fully vaxxed elderly couple, they go to see their granddaughter. Granddaughter, unbeknownst to them, is coming down with a cold. They go home and get so sick, he has to go to the hospital and now has Afib. Grandmother sick for 2 weeks, can't breathe, heavy cough. Grandfather finally out of the hospital - more medication. ugh

David; you see the situation most clearly. I'm afraid that millions of oblivious people are already "used to it"! It's baffling; how the masses never question anything. Here's just one thing we should be questioning; as it keeps the fear porn flowing: People all over the planet are 'allegedly' testing positive for covid and are sent home to "self-isolate"; after which, they go about their business. I haven't heard of even one of those people being sick - it's all theater! I can't be the only one seeing such things!

SilentTroubador

In addition to Gui's comment: Beyond the acquisition of natural immunity, drummer Peter Prada's predicament is all the more noteworthy considering he was medically advised not to risk aggravating his autoimmune condition rooted in Guillain-Barre from a childhood vaccine. Instead of a rational response, understanding or compassion - he was then double victimized by being ostracized. I can only hope this is not foreshadowing of even more social division under the pretense of protection.

Hi JuQuDC, you analyze the situation well, and rightfully point out that those behaving like childish dependents are nevertheless trying to impose their ways and standards on those who have already outgrown that stage. It seems to be a common trend across many areas of society to impose a "lower common denominator" approach to things... precursor to collectivism/technocracy?

Hi Guillermo, yes, it seems to all be about the vaccine. And if they can push it this hard under the lie of "Emergency Use Authorization," and in the face of so much countervailing evidence, then we can only imagine what licensure against liberty they envision once they've received (or is it "purchased") FDA approval.

Hi lovestosing6, sorry, I think the moral of your story escapes me, but I suppose a scenario as you describe would just be used as more justification for social distancing and all the rest.

Hi Randy, sometimes I think you ARE the only one seeing such things! Well... there are a few of us. Besides the abuse of the PCR test, the concept of an "asymptomatic carrier" (and subsequent isolation of the healthy) has been a rousing success for the cause of tyranny.

Hi Mirandola, thanks for the links... I'll be curious to see what they say.

Hi har1272, "Has Invasion of the Body Snatchers occurred and in progress here on planet Earth?"
Yes.

Hi SilentTroubadour, Peter Prada is then a double victim of the zeal to poke everything that moves. The increasingly insane childhood program was not enough for them... how convenient to contrive a global "pandemic" to drum up more business. I suspect I'd prefer Prada's idea of drumming more.

Those with cognitive abilities are few and far between I am afraid. Most are proudly compliant and incredibly ignorant about what is going on, and on the available treatments that are life preserving on the chance they need help. I think they are choosing the path of least resistance and hoping for the best. And, it seems the majority are not suffering consequences, only a sub population. We don't know how it will play out though!

My personal experiences over decades is this has been a regular occurrence in the US. One rally in Washington had close if not a million marchers, yet the most coverage it got was a labor day parade was held. Just weeks later, there was another Nation Wide protest with about 10 thousand at the capital in Washington and yet this was covered, for weeks if not months, (as it should have been.) Another example was a similar thing in our state capital and were tens of thousands there, yet it was covered as just a run of the mill protest.

Living in an area of the US, where we are having a "surge" in Covid cases I can say from what I have seen is that the people who have been vaccinated are getting just as sick if not sicker than the ones who have not been vaccinated. And most of the unvaccinated ones have been in close contact with a vaccinated person who was sick, with Covid symptoms, but was not tested for it, because they had been vaccinated.

Mirandola - The preceding comments inherently support the adverb "oddly" as a function of inconsistent action absent the more challenging task of addressing motive. Far be it for me to question a politician whose actions are as you say, "... more common than not" The age old disservice of saying one thing while doing another without "feet being held to the fire" will never transform the current political landscape.

Thanks everyone for your input. Surely the most important element is that DeSantis is pushing back against those behind the Agenda. He is gathering great support. The more support he can get - the bigger the push-back. Hopefully others in "power" will then have the courage to stand up and fight back too. Enthusiasm for standing up against tyranny is probably more infectious than any virus once it takes root. Living in the UK we need politicians like him to act as a lightning rod for freedom.

I have always considered myself a progressive at heart, but now I feel as if I have no home at all. The current environment in some respects reminds me of the "shock and awe" era under the Bush administration. Many people in the U.S. sanctioned the detestable acts our government demonstrated, likely because the devastation did not affect them personally. Well, the chickens have come home to roost, we're heading towards fascism, and far too few people are attempting to stop it. In short, God bless Dr. Mercola and others like him.

What I find most interesting... when I hear reports of 'demonstrations'; the report I don't hear - is of ANY of those protestors being sick with covid! END THIS HOAX NOW! If there were a "deadly" virus "ravaging" the population; then people certainly would be dropping like flies. Here's the current problem: As more and more people succumb to the death jab and more and more have their lights extinguished - we will be told that it's the new "variant" that killed them. Mark my words! Watch for the whirlwind, once the recipients of the nanobot shot start taking the flu vaccine and/or catch the wild coronavirus!

We've always lived with "cold viruses" and never considered them a threat to all humanity..... "You know the drill. Your throat feels scratchy, you start sneezing and coughing, and pretty soon you're in the grip of a nasty cold. To add insult to injury, all that big-time misery is from a tiny invader -- a living thing called a virus. And it's not just one you need to dodge. There are more than "200" that can lay you low. It's likely that someday you'll have a close encounter with one of these types: Rhinovirus, Coronavirus, RSV and parainfluenza. There are also a lot of viruses that doctors haven't identified. About 20%-30% of colds in adults are caused by these "unknown" bugs. www.webmd.com/.../common\_cold\_causes

Why are Governments politicizing a cold virus and using it as a pretext to destroy Western liberal democracies transforming them into technocratic authoritarian biosecurity states.

For those unaware of how to do this: (1) Hit the "PrtScn" key on your keyboard. This copies the page into your Windows Clipboard. >From there, the screenshot can be pasted into something like Irfanview to edit it to remove all but the information you wish to keep. All it takes is: (2) Open the program you want to paste the contents of the Clipboard into. (3) If pasting into a mail program or a word processor, click where you want to paste the information. -- or -- If opening an editing program, just go to step "4." (4) Paste the contents of the clipboard into the program you chose by "RIGHT" clicking your mouse and choosing "Paste." -- or -- Hold down the "Ctrl" key and press "V," which is the shortcut for "Paste." ... You're now in and can do as you wish. For example, if using a photo editor, be it the free Irfanview, Adobe or some other, you can click and drag to select areas you want to keep or remove. You'll find, for example, "Crop" under the "Edit" menu of Irfanview. That same menu will, also, let you click "Undo," if you are unhappy with an edit.

The figures about the demonstrators in France are the official ones, not the true ones. Viewing the videos of demonstrations everywhere in the country suggests 10 times as many. You can count roughly how many people make up a row and then see how many of these rows go by. In some cases, entire neighborhoods are filled with a dense crowd. The videos can be found on FB or if censored on Odysee.

SAMM-O thanks for that link. There are dozens of others on Duckduckgo confirming the story. If true then this is surely the beginning of the end. Many have commented that the virus has never been isolated, which would seem to indicate that there is no actual proof of its existence, So in a court of law, this would presumably be necessary as a piece of evidence that the defendant had broken the law. But if the virus cannot be isolated then the whole scam is exposed. Then what was it that was experimented on in a laboratory to provide gain of function? was it simply a common or garden cold virus or a flu virus. As influenza appears now to be non-existent according to national statistic websites, could this virus simply be the same? We know that flu strains can be dangerous to those suffering from other serious conditions.

The mask BS started up again here in SOCAL, a week or so ago. After seeing masklessness, for several weeks, I was in the post office one day last week and 7 out of 9 of us were back wearing masks again. All medical facilities demand mask or you can't gain entrance. Yesterday, I put it to the test again when going for a blood draw. I walked in without a mask, got my blood drawn and no questions asked and nothing said about my maskless face. Last month, I was refused entrance to a medical building for an appointment because the mask ***, guarding the building, took exception to my mask. All I can say, "Fool my once shame on you, fool me twice shame on me." Although, I was never fooled the first time.

I said this before but it bears repeating: Governments could end this "pandemic" simply and easily within a month if they wanted to. Example: Here in Arizona (USA) people can get dangerously dehydrated, especially during the hot summers. The authorities here recommend "drinking plenty of water" to obviate this condition. PLEASE NOTE: water is NOT an FDA approved drug. Legally, it cannot "diagnose, treat, cure, or prevent" a serious condition like dehydration. All it can do is bring the person back to a normalized state. But it is STILL recommended by the authorities.

Likewise, the recommended (and censored) nutritional supplements cannot (legally) "diagnose, treat, cure, or prevent" COVID19 according to the FDA rules. These do not qualify as "medical standard of care" protocols. They are NOT drugs. All they can do is restore people to "normal health" during an illness. Government officials could recommend them, just like they do water for dehydration, and the "pandemic" would stop.

Stop listening to FDA word games! The COVID vaccines don't "diagnose, treat, cure, or prevent" COVID19 either. Neither do the vaccines prevent people (vaccinated or not) from spreading or getting sick with COVID19. And the pandemic was declared by the World Health Organization BEFORE vaccines even came on the scene. The "selfish unvaccinated" are NOT the ones spreading death and destruction. So stop the useless complaining. Take control! ACT EFFECTIVELY! If people DELIBERATELY DECIDED to stay in normal health, there would be no pandemic.

They provide no clear explanation as to why the tests are being discontinued, but it seems to appear that the current ones cannot differentiate between COVID-19 and influenza. Although the explanation is unclear, probably carefully composed by CDC lawyers, results produced by the current tests have formed the basis of the entire COVID-19 scam. It says they'll be replaced with alternative tests that can differentiate between flu and COVID-19. It's possible that this change-over is just a way to help generate a lot more money for the producers of the tests, and maybe to provide opportunities for new test makers to participate in the very lucrative game of medical testing.

There is an excellent video out there of a fellow calling around to several testing centers for a test. When he talks to them, he informs them he works with vulnerable seniors, so must know which version of Covid he has. In every instance, the test facilities stated their PCR tests do not distinguish between strains. OBVIOUSLY, we are being lied to, regarding the many alleged cases of the Delta variant. I presume this is so, in part, they can claim the new variant and not their useless [to us], but dangerous for profit product works fine, but, JUST LIKE FLU SHOTS, doesn't work but "blah blah" percent against the mutation. At the same time, THEY will claim it does reduce how bad people are hit by the flu, uh, I mean Covid. And it goes on that we are to not look behind the curtain where, if we did, we would see:

1) They have zero idea of if there is a Delta bug infecting thousands. 2) Mask mandates conflict with reports, including those that take time to point out a mask filtering at 100 microns (e.g., hankies and such) doesn't compare with an N-95, which also is not insurance against infection, if only because it's not perfectly sealed. Then there is the absurd ramblings of health care professionals mocking those wearing N-95's, instead of surgeons' masks. 3) The fact the CDC no more records or is made aware of every case of Covid or a flu bug than cops catch every criminal, so the claims their reports of deaths and injuries only reflect 10% of the actual cases should be dismissed outright. 4) States that said no to federal overreach and absurd suggestions did far better than did those that worked to bring about the wants and wishes of tyrants and treasonous scum. 5) . . (add your favorite fact out of the thousands of ones similar to those above here). . .

In Alberta, Canada, due to a $1,200 fine for public gathering, Patrick King challenged the Public Health Act in a court of law. He requested information that proves SARS-Cov2 has been isolated, which would allow the CMHO to enforce mandates. The health officer was unable to provide any scientific evidence that the virus has been isolated, they cannot prove it exists! Therefore, how can masking, distancing, lockdowns, etc, be enforced for a virus that does not exist. We have not heard a peep from the media. Here is a link to the Stew Peters show.

www.redvoicemedia.com/video/2021/08/freedom-fighter-court-victory-ends.. The interview on the Stew Peters show was aired on August 4th. The Premier of Alberta has now downgraded COVID-19 to the seasonal flu and all mandates have been lifted! Coincidence? Unfortunately, Premiers in the remaining provinces are enforcing stricter mandates, especially for children returning to school in September.

People need to flood the courts with suits. There is enough information from which to build a nearly insurmountable complaint. For example:

(1) The fact the CDC cannot catch and report every instance of flu and Covid injuries and deaths, and may be only reporting 10%. (2) Reports from the CDC put deaths in the thousands, but those are paled by injuries from the for profit Corona product. (3) The European data base reporting injuries and deaths from shots pale the U.S. figures. (4) So called break through cases number in the thousands, indicating the shots are a fraud, consistent with the fact we are the test subjects. (5) PCR tests do not distinguish from flu, so reported numbers are, at best, speculation. (6) The demands may equate to extortion and violate various state and federal laws, including, but not limited to state profiteering laws (E.G., Chapter 9A.82 RCW), federal racketeering (RICO) laws (e.g., 18 USC 1961), U.S. postal laws (e.g., 18 USC 876) if the business used the U.S. Mails and Wires more than just three times in a few years to make their demands. (7) The business and most public officials lack first hand information by which they can justify their employees risk their health and lives

One should include discovery demands (Interrogatories and Requests for Admissions and Production of Documents) right up front. For example: (1) The shots are very profitable to investors and it should be determined if the company management profit from the products. . . . .

Show them this www.israelnationalnews.com/.../286920 Get figures from Dr Mercola and RFK regarding deaths and severe medical injuries from the vaccines. Show them. Point out that they quote VAERS, the *government* vaccine injury database, and that the CDC itself has admitted that only 1% report the deaths and injuries.

Some courts are saying it is legal for employers to demand a vaccination. Perhaps, you could get a legally worded document that points out that your employer is responsible for any adverse reactions. If they agree to sign I would look for another job, not worth taking the risk, but worth seeing if they will cave on it. Don't know where you live, and attorneys are expensive, but perhaps you could find one to do the letter for you.

Thank you for this protest video! This is one of the first ones I have seen on a major site. Yes, go out with a bang Dr. Mercola. Finally, something I can show my friends right here on the www. Big heart to you!

These lockdowns are part of the Great Reset whereby Claus Schwab can use them for tyrannical control of the world's populous and set himself and his family up as world emperors; but Bill Gates has other ideas: to decimate human life according to his cult of eugenics with Bill himself as the world emperor. According to Martin Armstrong, he knows from inside sources, "for an absolute fact", that Gates has assured himself the position of leading contender of the throne by tricking Schwab into being fully vaccinated with the suicide jab.

The figures you give for demonstrators in Paris are those given by our government of liars.

Independent journalists (there are a few left) at Blast showed at least double as much and four times more in Paris,west giving a figure of 400.000.

I, myself, was demonstrating in Agen in the south west, the figure given was 1100 whereas 2100 people were counted.

I am French and not proud of it!

I live in Western Australia with no lockdown and no COVID-19 cases. The WA Police Force has just stated that from the 9th of August all personnel must wear a face mask if they are not vaccinated. Really, no Covid 19 and no lockdown, doesn't make sense, common sense.

Mal3793 I think to be fair you should mention that WA may presently be without any lock downs... BUT the State's Premier has excelled with several unnecessary lockdowns all over WA large and in many areas uninhabited, Even demanding that people flying in from say Victoria... they were free to arrive when they departed and midair with ½ to go till landing the Premier told those visitors that they must all go into 14 day quarantine, OR turn around and go back to where they came from!!

All States are playing dirty... with the QR tracking of everybody now even more mandatory with the states to even use police to make sure everybody "complies"... Tasmania for instance ahs had NIL community transmission for over 12 months. And I hear they still have to oblige their stupid mandatory checking in, even at doctor's clinics and day surgery clinics..... where every visitor is in their "books" so would know who they are>> I hear they are even temperature testing and asking all the silly questions have you been.... Etc etc. It's overdue that the people, yes start to object, and write to their local Members and also the PM as it is he who is gutless and leaving the decisions to the premiers. As in handing them the bullet and they have to shoot

Its nothing to do with Covid. It is part of global reset. People without faces are de personalised, so the population stop worrying about others and don't even notice when people vanish. -Jennifer

The only way for a global pandemic to not be a pandemic is to get vaccinated, wear a mask and be socially distant from others. Variants will continue for as long as it can find a host - those who are not vaccinated, do not wear a mask and continue to be around many indoors.

Are you really that dense??? What the heck, do you even have a brain? Maybe you should join Mandelbrot8 and leave as well. Just my humble opinion. Good luck if you take the jabs.

It is very difficult for you to regain clarity. You seem to be very scared and have no real information. You do not know that you are a victim of manipulation. Maybe if you read Dr. Mercola, slowly and without preconceptions ... Try!
