

Republican Debate: COVID Vaccine Question Blacked Out by Unknown Third Party

December 12, 2023

Previous Next

In the Republican debate on News Nation December 7, 2023, Vivek Ramaswamy promised to repeal Reagan-era legislation that makes the vaccine industry liability-free if someone's injured from a vaccine. "People who have been harmed by those vaccines deserve accountability," he said.

He added, "I think one of the top lessons we learned from that COVID pandemic is that free speech in this country is most important in those alleged times of emergency. If we had been allowed to openly debate the merits of those vaccines they would have been never mandated in the way that they were."

He had other things to say, too, but no one saw or heard that part of Ramaswamy's comments unless they listened to News Nation's full recording on YouTube later, beginning at the 1:30:06 mark, when host Megyn Kelly asks him about Operation Warp Speed.

At that point, in the live version, the debate screen and sound are blacked out for eight minutes with, first, a dead screen and then five straight minutes of commercials, before returning to the final question of the debate.

The black-out caused an internet stir with comments on Twitter/X as well as in Newsweek, which referenced it as stirring up Republican "conspiracy theories" in its headline on the missing footage.

Rumble, which aired the debate for News Nation, denied blacking out the comments, saying a third party actually did it. "The stream on our end did not go down at all, but the feed coming in (the source feed from a 3rd party) failed for a few minutes when sending to us," Rumble CEO Chris Pavlovski wrote. "This is a different source that the TV channels got and we are unsure why the source to Rumble went dark for a few minutes."

More political theater! Why is that Tricky Nikki even up on that stage? She's obviously in bed with the big money! She worked for Boeing. Boeing is a Defense Contractor! The oligarchs have already given her eight million dollars...they OWN her!

That is really scary. They must have known that news nation was recording but not broadcasting at that time and there would be proof of what happened and what was said. They are not even afraid of being found out for this kind of manipulation -why- because they feel so absolutely in control they can shut down dissenting voices with minimal effort and the sheeple are trained to clap like seals on demand. We are in a period of massive change. I am old enough to get out relatively unscathed - but my children and grandchildren will be subjected to a fascist regime that has not been know in recorded history. I believe all thing fall eventually, and I have hope society will rebuild itself but it may take many many generations.

And YouTube hasn't banned it yet?!?! What happened to them - did they take the shot and get damaged?!?! But why do they ban anything?): The claim of the [antisocial media companies is that Freedom of Speech applies only to government. However, are their actions in the SPIRIT of Democracy? Granted, it can get complicated - such as when it comes to those promoting Nazism etc. - what should be banned; the line must be drawn somewhere, especially when they promote violence. (Such as: jewishchronicle.timesofisrael.com/pittsburgh-synagogue-shooter-threatened-jews-on-gab-com-witnesses-reveal) But when it comes to something that is extremely controversial and has major, leading doctors against it (Dr. Peter McCullough, Susan Humphries, inventor of mRNA, Ryan Cole, Joseph Mercola!: etc. etc.), how can they black it out - based on what?!

With so many smartphones it seems likely there is a recording of the missing minutes out there. Someone may come forth with the missing minutes.

There is a reason WHY the greatest crime perpetrated in the history of time upon humanity is being covered up at every turn and a reason WHY not one person responsible for orchestrating the entire pre-planning and execution of the entire plandemic are not remotely being held accountable.

They are so blatant when they try to deceive us these days. The Republicans AND the Democrats are all in the pocket of big pharma.

Not ALL of Congress on both sides of the aisle are in Big Pharma's pocket but the majority are. There are a few hold outs on both sides that are not compromised.

Why does this type of thing not surprise me anymore? The Newsweek piece on this story was total BS and filled with lies about the Co-Vid shots. And nobody knows who did this...right? This country is in trouble and sooner rather than later someone needs to wake up and do something about this.

Notice how Vivek avoids answering about CBCDCs unlike DeSantis who promised to ban any possibility. The REAL Vivek RamaSWAMPY "All that glitters is not gold". Is Vivek just ANOTHER WEF-puppetician in politics? scientificprogress.substack.com/.../the-real-vivek-ramaswampy
