TRANSCRIPT

Since the dawn of the corona crisis, we have been told over and over that the world has changed forever.

MARIA VAN KERKHOVE: What we're going to have to figure out, and I think what we're all going to have to figure out together, is what our new normal looks like. Our new normal includes physical distancing from others. Our new normal includes wearing masks where appropriate. Our new normal includes us knowing where this virus is each and every day, where we live, where we work, where we want to travel.

SOURCE: What the New Normal Looks Like After Covid-19

DUCEY: What we've gone through and the challenges that I'm sharing with you really is Arizona's new normal. And it's our new normal for the foreseeable future. I really want ask people to get their heads around that.

SOURCE: Arizona Gov. Ducey Holds Coronavirus Briefing

JUSTIN TRUDEAU: This pandemic has provided an opportunity for a reset. This is our chance to accelerate our pre-pandemic efforts to reimagine economic systems that actually address global challenges like extreme poverty, inequality and climate change.

SOURCE: Coronavirus: Trudeau tells UN conference that pandemic provided "opportunity for a reset"

This "New Normal" with which we are being threatened brings with it great uncertainty. Uncertainty over work. Uncertainty over travel. Uncertainty over what our lives will look like on the other side of this "Great Reset."

But there is one thing that we can be certain about: If the Gateses and the Faucis and the representatives of the international medical establishment get their way, life will not return to normal until the entire planet is vaccinated against SARS-CoV-2.

GATES: It is fair to say things won't go back to truly normal until we have a vaccine that we've gotten out to basically the entire world.

SOURCE: Bill Gates on his 2015 'virus' warning, efforts to fight coronavirus pandemic

ZEKE EMANUEL: Realistically, COVID-19 will be here for the next 18 months or more. We will not be able to return to normalcy until we find a vaccine or effective medications.

SOURCE: Dr. Zeke Emanuel On The Return To 'Normal'

DOUG FORD: The hard fact is, until we find a vaccine, going back to normal means putting lives at risk.

JUSTIN TRUDEAU: This will be the new normal until a vaccine is developed.

GAVIN NEWSOM: As I said: normal it will not be, at least until we have herd immunity and we have a vaccine.

SOURCE: California Gov. Newsom Holds Coronavirus Briefing

ANTHONY FAUCI: So, if we get the overwhelming majority of people taking the vaccine, and you have, on the one hand, an effective vaccine, on the other hand, a high degree of uptake of the vaccine, we could start getting things back to relative normal as we get into the second and third quarter of the year, where people can start thinking about doing things that were too dangerous just months ago.

SOURCE: Fauci: We'll Get Back to Normal Gradually After Vaccine; You Don't Know How Effective Vaccine Is for You

NORMAN SWAN: The only thing that will really allow life as we once knew it to resume is a vaccine.

SOURCE: Life will only return to normal when there's a coronavirus vaccine, Dr Norman Swan says

This message has been repeated so frequently and so consistently by public health officials, political "leaders" and media commentators that many have begun to believe it. And now, the public is being prepared for an unprecedented global vaccination campaign. Taking the form of a military operation . . .

GENERAL GUSTAVE PERNA: It is this effort that I can look you in the face and say to you, "E.U.A. [Emergency Use Authorization] comes, 24 hours later vaccines will be distributed out to the American people and be ready for administration.”

SOURCE: General Perna says vaccine distribution will begin 24 hours after Emergency Use Authorization

. . .the plan is to rush a new generation of experimental vaccines to market and deliver them at “warp speed” before any long term testing has even been attempted. What many do not yet understand, however, is that the vaccines that are being developed for SARS-Cov-2 are unlike any vaccines that have ever been used on the human population before.

And, as radically different as these vaccines appear, they represent only the very beginning of a complete transformation of vaccine technology that is currently taking place in research labs across the planet.

This is a study of The Future of Vaccines.

You’re tuned in to The Corbett Report.

For almost the entirety of 2020, a traumatized public has been told that nothing resembling our pre-corona lives will return until there is a COVID vaccine.

So it is no surprise that the same media sources that have been promoting this talking point would celebrate the hopeful pronouncements of the Big Pharma manufacturers regarding their COVID vaccine candidates.

BECKY QUICK: Welcome back to Squawk Box everybody. We have some breaking news from Pfizer. Meg Tirrell joins us right now. Meg, good morning.

MEG TIRELL: Good morning, Becky. This is the news that we’ve been waiting to hear. Pfizer and BioNTech reporting the first results from their phase 3 vaccine trial saying that in this interim look the vaccine showed to be more than 90 percent effective.

SOURCE: Pfizer, BioNTech announce Covid-19 vaccine candidate is 90% effective

JAKE WHITTENBERG: Well, we begin with breaking news this morning. The push to find a coronavirus vaccine. This morning, Moderna says its vaccine is more than 94 percent effective.

SOURCE: BREAKING: Moderna coronavirus vaccine “more than 94% effective”

TIM STENOVEC: Vaccine headlines are rolling in. One of AstraZeneca’s doses stopped an average of 70 percent of patients from falling ill and that even rose to 90 percent with additional regimens now the head of the government’s operation warp speed is saying that quote hopefully vaccinations in the u.s will start in less than three weeks.

SOURCE: AstraZeneca-Oxford Vaccine Found Effective in Preventing Covid

But lost amid the hype of this media-led celebration are some sobering facts.

Firstly, these news stories were not generated on the back of publicly accessible data, but literal corporate press releases. This announcement-by-press-release style of corporate self-reporting was immediately exposed as a sham when AstraZeneca was found to have given an “unintentionally” lower dose to one group of trial participants and then touted the results of that smaller dose group without clarifying the confusion.

FRANCINE LACQUA: I’m not really sure what to make of this AstraZeneca-Oxford trial there’s confusion about whether it’s 60 efficacy whether it’s 90 what exactly happened.

ANDREW PEKOSZ: Well it is a little bit unclear, but let’s start with what we think we know. which is some of the patients that were in their phase three clinical trial ended up getting a half-dose of their of the initial inoculation and it turns out that the group that got that half dose followed by a boost had a much higher rate of protection from covid19 disease than the group that got the dosing schedule that the company wanted to give to everybody

SOURCE: AstraZeneca Vaccine Trial Likely Needs a Restart: Johns Hopkins

Secondly, the “success” of these vaccines is not being measured by their ability to prevent infection with SARS-CoV-2, as many in the general public believe, but merely to lessen the severity of the symptoms associated with COVID-19, like coughs and headaches.

ANJALEE KHEMLANI: Do you anticipate that the first sets of vaccines out the door will be more of a less effective blocker of the virus?

FAUCI: Well that’s the primary—that’s a great question, and that’s the primary endpoint of most of the virus, is to prevent clinical disease. To prevent symptomatic disease, not necessarily to prevent infection.

SOURCE: Fauci Happy if Vaccine Permits Infection w/ Fewer Symptoms

Thirdly, the studies are touted as involving tens of thousands of people, but in Pfizer’s trial, only 170 of them were reported as being “diagnosed with COVID-19” during the trial. Of those, 162 were in the placebo group and eight were in the vaccine group. From this, it is inferred that the vaccine prevented 154/162 people from developing the disease, or “95%”. But as even the British Medical Journal points out, “a relative risk reduction is being reported, not absolute risk reduction, which appears to be less than 1%.”

Fourthly, the trials are still ongoing. Although several countries have now issued “emergency use authorization” allowing these companies to begin distributing these vaccines to the public, the stage III trials of the vaccines are ongoing, with several of the planned “endpoints” for the data not being collected for 24 months after injection. As a result, as even the UK’s own “Information for UK Healthcare Professionals” pamphlet regarding Pfizer’s vaccine points out, “Animal reproductive toxicity studies have not been completed,” meaning that, “It is unknown whether COVID-19 mRNA Vaccine BNT162b2 has an impact on fertility.”

Even more chillingly, it is not healthcare professionals who are leading the charge to deliver this vaccine to the world, but the military

MURRAY BREWSTER: He commanded Canada’s NATO mission in Iraq. Now he’s in charge of making sure Canadians get the COVID vaccine.

TRUDEAU: Major General Dany Fortin will be heading up the logistics and operations within the centre.

SOURCE: Senior military commander to lead Canada’s COVID-19 vaccine distribution

SAMANTHA GALVEZ: Operation Warp Speed is a Department of Defense / CDC operation to distribute 300 million vaccines to the US.

MATTHEW YIENGST: As soon as the FDA authorizes an emergency use, if they chose to do so, we will move vaccine to all jurisdictions within 24 hours.

SOURCE: Adams County native plays vital role in military operation to distribute vaccine

RICHARD PASCOE: You know, we’re about to turn the corner here into 2021 and I think the American public should be very proud of what the army and the Department of Defense and our partners on the science side have done to bring these vaccines to the market.

SOURCE: Operation Warp Speed and US Army Role in Vaccine Distribution

BREWSTER: How much more involved the military will get is unclear. Public Health is still developing its plan. Defense Minister Harjit Sajjan acknowledges it is not beyond the realm of possibility in some parts of Canada troops could be running clinics and administering vaccine.

SOURCE: Senior military commander to lead Canada’s COVID-19 vaccine distribution

And most importantly, as incredible as this headlong rush to push an experimental vaccine on the majority of the world’s population is, it is even more incredible when it is revealed that Moderna and Pfizer’s vaccines are not, in fact, “vaccines” as anyone in the general public understands them. They are mRNA vaccines, a novel method of vaccination that has never before been approved for human use.

RHIJU DAS: So the concept of an RNA vaccine is: Let’s inject the RNA molecule that encodes for the spike protein.

ANGELA RASMUSSEN: It’s making your cell do the work of creating this viral protein that is going to be recognized by your immune system and trigger the development of these antibodies.

DAS: Our bodies won’t make a full-fledged infectious virus. They’ll just make a little piece and then learn to recognize it and then get ready to destroy the virus if it then later comes and invades us.

[. . .]

DAS: It’s a relatively new, unproven technology. And there’s still no example of an RNA vaccine that’s been deployed worldwide in the way that we need for the coronavirus.

RASMUSSEN: There is the possibility for unforeseen, adverse effects.

AKIKO IWASAKI: So this is all new territory. Whether it would elicit protective immune response against this virus is just unknown right now.

SOURCE: Can Scientists Use RNA to Create a Coronavirus Vaccine?

To be sure, the new mRNA vaccines work on an entirely different principle than any other vaccine that has ever been used on the human population. In order to understand that, it is important to understand the history of vaccine technologies.

The concept of “inoculation” has been around for centuries, with one of its earliest instances in China several centuries ago, where dried-out scabs of lightly infected smallpox sufferers were powdered and then blown up the nostrils of healthy people. The procedure aimed to infect the patient with a mild strain of smallpox, thus conferring immunity on them. This practice was brought over to Europe via Turkey and was eventually adopted around the world.

“Vaccination” developed in the late 18th century when Edward Jenner discovered that those who had been exposed to cowpox—a less virulent relative of smallpox—were themselves immune from smallpox. He “vaccinated” a boy with a cowpox vesicle from a milkmaid and then inoculated him with smallpox two months later. The boy did not develop smallpox, and the procedure was hailed as a breakthrough of medical science. The term “vaccination,” derived from the Latin word for cow, eventually came to refer to the general process of introducing immunogens or attenuated infectious agents into the body in order to stimulate the immune system to fight infections.

But this is not how mRNA vaccines function. In contrast to vaccination, which involves introducing an immunogen into the body, mRNA vaccines seek to introduce messenger RNA into the body in order to “trick” that body’s cells into producing immunogens, which then stimulate an immune response.

ELENA GUOBYTE: Two types of genetic vaccines are being investigated for COVID-19: mRNA and DNA. mRNA needs to reach the cytoplasm of host cells, while DNA needs to enter the nucleus. Then this genetic material gets taken up by the cell’s machinery, and the cell expresses the spike protein. These spike proteins are then recognized by the immune system, hopefully stimulating a protective response.

SOURCE: Coronavirus Vaccines – An Introduction

PAUL OFFIT: So the way this is going to work, the mRNA vaccine is—it’s the mRNA that codes for that coronavirus spike protein. You’re inoculated with that small little piece of genetic material. That genetic material then enters your cells and is translated into a protein—in this case, the coronavirus spike protein—which is then excreted from the cell. So, in essence, your body makes the spike protein and then your body makes antibodies to the spike protein, all because it’s been instructed to do that. Your cells have been instructed to do that by this little piece of messenger RNA.

SOURCE: How Do mRNA Vaccines Work?

NARRATOR: Protein factories in the cytoplasm, called ribosomes, bind to the messenger RNA. The ribosome reads the code in the messenger RNA to produce a chain made up of amino acids. There are 20 different types of amino acid. Transfer RNA molecules carry the amino acids to the ribosome. The messenger RNA is read three bases at a time. As each triplet is read, a transfer RNA delivers the corresponding amino acid. This is added to a growing chain of amino acids. Once the last amino acid has been added, the chain folds into a complex 3D shape to form the protein.

SOURCE: From DNA to protein – 3D

Any and all questions about this rushed, experimental vaccine technology are being labeled by the pharmaceutical manufacturers and the corporate press that runs on their advertising dollars as “anti-vax misinformation” and being actively censored. But despite the straw man argument that opposition to the vaccine comes solely from ignorant members of the public who are worried about being “injected with microchips,” there are genuine concerns about the long-term safety of these vaccines coming from within the scientific community, and even from whistleblowers from within the ranks of the Big Pharma manufacturers themselves.

On December 1st, the former chair of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe Health Committee, Dr. Wolfgang Wodarg, joined Dr. Michael Yeadon, a former Vice-President and Chief Scientific Officer at Pfizer Global R&D, to file a petition calling on the European Medicine Agency to halt the Phase III clinical trials of the Pfizer mRNA vaccine until they are restructured to address critical safety concerns associated with this experimental technology.

DEL BIGTREE: There is a petition now to try and stop the vaccine from being released in Europe and stop the trials in their tracks until some serious errors are fixed. The complaints are the potential dangers, if they are not rectified, of this vaccine. Let me very quickly just read through these before I bring on my next guest.

Here are the four major elements that are being pointed out by Dr. Wodarg and Dr. Yeadon.

- The formation of so-called “non-neutralizing antibodies” can lead to an exaggerated immune reaction, especially when the test person is confronted with the real, “wild” virus after vaccination. This so-called antibody-dependent amplification, ADE, has long been known from experiments with corona vaccines in cats, for example. In the course of these studies all cats that initially tolerated the vaccination well died after catching the wild virus.
- The mRNA vaccines from BioNTech/Pfizer contain polyethylene glycol (PEG). 70% of people develop antibodies against this substance – this means that many people can develop allergic, potentially fatal reactions to the vaccination.
- The vaccinations are expected to produce antibodies against spike proteins of SARS-CoV-2. However, spike proteins also contain syncytin-homologous proteins, which are essential for the formation of the placenta in mammals such as humans. It must be absolutely ruled out that a vaccine against SARS-CoV-2 could trigger an immune reaction against syncytin-1, as otherwise infertility of indefinite duration could result in vaccinated women.
- The much too short duration of the study does not allow a realistic estimation of the late effects. As in the narcolepsy cases after the swine flu vaccination, millions of healthy people would be exposed to an unacceptable risk if an emergency approval were to be granted and the possibility of observing the late effects of the vaccination were to follow. Nevertheless, BioNTech/Pfizer apparently submitted an application for emergency approval on December 1, 2020.

We’ve just updated you that that vaccine has been approved for the UK as we speak.

BIGTREE: What is it that people can do what—your fellow scientists and doctors—what do we need to do to make sure we don't make one of the greatest scientific errors in human history?

WOLFGNG WODARG: Protect yourself and protect all your neighbors and friends so that they don't get this vaccine. and you have to be —you have to show up, you have to tell the politicians that you will blame them for what they do with this. I think what what's happening, it's a great betrayal. We are betrayed. And people who betray normally are punished, and we won't forget this if they go on doing this with us.

SOURCE: Health Expert: "Stop COVID Vax Experiments"

Before the combined weight of the pharmaceutical manufacturers, global health bodies, governments and the corporate media combined to suppress any questions about this unprecedented rush for a globally-distributed, experimental vaccine, there were widespread calls for caution from within the heart of the scientific community.

Even mainstream publications like Scientific American were compelled to note back in June of this year that there are reasons for concern over the way the COVID-19 vaccines are being rushed to market:

Telescoping testing timelines and approvals may expose all of us to unnecessary dangers related to the vaccine. While preclinical trials to evaluate the potential safety and efficacy of vaccine candidates are likely to include tens of thousands of patients, it is still unclear whether that number will be large enough and a trial will last long enough to evaluate safety for a drug that would be administered to so many. The US alone plans to vaccinate hundreds of millions of people with the first successful candidate. One serious adverse event per thousand of a vaccine given to 100 million people means harm to 100,000 otherwise healthy people.

The potential dangers of these vaccines—not just the mRNA vaccines that hijack your body's cells to begin producing proteins to stimulate an immune response, but vaccines like AstraZeneca's that uses a chimpanzee adenovirus to express the SARS-CoV-2 spike protein—are numerous. Not only do these vaccines present the potential for the antibody-dependent enhancement phenomenon that makes people more susceptible to the wild virus after having been vaccinated against it—which is a problem common to previous coronavirus vaccine candidates—but their potential impact on fertility has, even by the UK government's own admission, not been tested at this point and remains "unknown."

But even more fundamental than these particular safety concerns about these particular vaccines is the way that this fanatical, reckless and unprecedented headlong rush to push (and potentially even mandate) these vaccines on billions of people worldwide—women and children, young and old, healthy and unhealthy alike—is setting the most dangerous public health precedent in the history of humanity, a precedent that threatens to undermine our most cherished health freedoms in the name of a panic-induced "emergency."

One of these core freedoms is the ability to refuse an experimental medical procedure, a freedom that was acknowledged in the Nuremberg Code of 1947 and enshrined in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, which states that "no one shall be subjected without his free consent to medical or scientific experimentation."

Despite the fact that the clinical trials surrounding these experimental vaccines are ongoing and that the FDA itself admits that there is "currently insufficient data to make conclusions about the safety of the vaccine in subpopulations such as children less than 16 years of age, pregnant and lactating individuals, and immunocompromised individuals" and "risk of vaccine-enhanced disease over time, potentially associated with waning immunity, remains unknown," governments around the world are contemplating making these vaccinations mandatory, or compelling people to take them against their will by restricting their access to public life until they subject themselves to this medical experimentation.

ANCHOR: It's a controversial idea that could end up being the law: "no jab, no job," with some businesses considering making the COVID-19 vaccine mandatory for employees.

SOURCE: Coronavirus: Businesses considering making vaccine mandatory | 9 News Australia

CHRISTINE ELLIOTT: There may be some restrictions that may be placed on people that don't have vaccines for travel purposes, to be able to go to theaters and other places. But that will be up to the individual person to decide.

SOURCE: COVID-19 vaccine won't be mandatory, but those who don't get it could face restrictions: Elliott

JO LING KENT: So here's how it works: The app gives you a health pass to show before you go into big stadiums like this to streamline the process to make it safer and faster to get to your seat.

SOURCE: NBC Nightly News Broadcast \(Full\) – December 7th, 2020 | NBC Nightly News

TRACY GRIMSHAW: Alan, when there is a vaccine are you going to require all of your passengers to be vaccinated before they get on a plane?

ALAN JOYCE: Yeah we are looking at changing our terms and conditions to say for international travellers that we will ask people to have a vaccination before they can get on the aircraft.

SOURCE: Qantas boss says COVID-19 vaccination compulsory for international flights

The threat of forcing or compelling people to become unwilling guinea pigs in an ongoing medical experiment is immoral on its face. But even the prospect of enforcing such mandates would entail the erection of a surveillance and tracking system that further threatens basic rights and liberties. After all, in order to determine who has been vaccinated—and thus who is allowed to board an airplane or access a stadium or enter a store with a vaccine policy—there will need to be a system for identifying and tracking each vaccine recipient.

Whereas in days past, such tracking systems might have worked with identification papers, special badges to identify people’s status or other outwardly identifying marks, in the modern age, such schemes will take the form of digital apps and other technologically advanced methods for tracking, categorizing and identifying billions of people and their movements in real time.

There are already apps like IBM’s Digital Health Pass and CLEAR’s Health Pass that envision a world where our biometric ID will be linked via our smartphones to our health data in order to grant or deny access from public spaces and public events

NARRATOR: Here’s how Jane opens the CLEAR app and verifies her identity with a photo and real-time health insights. CLEAR’s developed touchless technology can take her temperature and confirm Jane is Jane so she can walk in with confidence

SOURCE: Health Passport Ireland

Once the COVID vaccines are widely distributed, it would simply be a question of linking one’s vaccination record to the health pass app to prevent the unvaccinated from accessing any given space.

And while this future—sold through glossy corporate advertising but rejected by the vast majority of the public—may seem like a science-fiction dystopia, such systems are already being used to control the movements of people in China, where access to certain building or the ability to leave one’s own neighbourhood can be restricted to those whose phone-based apps show a “green” immunity status.

Worse, the COVID vaccine presents governments, intelligence agencies and corporations that have a direct interest in suppressing dissent, monitoring dissidents and controlling their populations with the perfect opportunity to make such systems a permanent fixture of daily life. After the immediate “threat” of the declared public health crisis subsides, the public is already being warned that these apps will be transitioned seamlessly into general monitoring of the population.

ANCHOR 1: Well during the summer spike, Palm Beach County launched something called a Combat COVID app. they spent a huge chunk of CARES Act money to do it. The app can alert you if you come into contact with a COVID positive person.

ANCHOR 2: The problem is it only works if there’s widespread use and there isn’t. So was this just a big waste of money?

[. . .]

DANIELLE WAUGH: Palm Beach County officials would not make anybody available for an interview for this story but I did get a written statement from a county spokesperson, who tells me they will still have use for this app even after the pandemic is over. He says they plan on transitioning its functions to be a more general community app.

SOURCE: Palm Beach County COVID app: Big investment, few users

As chilling as these “immunity passports” opening the door for governments to implement persistent digital tracking of their entire population is, it represents only the most visible privacy invasion that is being enacted on the back of this unprecedented vaccine rollout.

As viewers of the “Who Is Bill Gates?” documentary will know, these smartphone apps and voluntary reporting mechanisms will eventually be replaced by an even more invasive technological means of certifying vaccination. Not the “microchip” strawman that the fact checkers use to attempt to debunk these concerns, but the verifiable existence of a program to develop quantum dot tags to instantly identify who has received a given vaccine.

Late last year, Gates once again turned to Robert Langer and his MIT colleagues to investigate new ways to permanently store and record the vaccination information of each individual. The result of their research was a new vaccine delivery method. They found that by using “dissolvable microneedles that deliver patterns of near-infrared light-emitting microparticles to the skin,” they could create “particle patterns” in the skin of vaccine recipients which are “invisible to the eye but can be imaged using modified smartphones.”

Rice University describes the quantum dot tags left behind by the microneedles as “something like a bar-code tattoo.”

So who was behind this development? As lead researcher Kevin McHugh explains:

“The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation came to us and said, ‘Hey, we have a real problem—knowing who’s vaccinated [. . .] So our idea was to put the record on the person. This way, later on, people can scan over the area to see what vaccines have been administered and give only the ones still needed.’”

SOURCE: Who Is Bill Gates?

Experimental vaccine technologies. Rushed testing. Mandates and health apps. And, eventually, quantum dot tags and biometric IDs. The future that is coming into view on the back of this COVID nightmare is truly dystopian.

But as worrying as all of this, the most worrying aspect is the precedent that it sets for a new era of biosecurity. An era in which public health authorities will claim to have the right to force rushed, untested and experimental technologies on the public in the name of public “health.”

At the moment, these new technologies—like mRNA vaccines which reprogram cells to produce antigens or the DNA vaccines that seek to insert foreign genetic material directly into the cells’ nucleus and that even biotech giant Moderna admit “have a risk of permanently changing a person’s DNA”—are still understood by the public as “vaccines.” But they bare as little resemblance to the vaccines that have previously been given to the public as Edward Jenner’s cowpox vaccine bore to the old Chinese art of blowing smallpox scabs up the nose. And the medical technologies that are emerging now will once again utterly transform our understanding of “vaccines.”

One such technology is being actively developed by Profusa, Inc., a company that in 2016 received a \$7.5 million grant from DARPA—the research and development agency of the US military—to “develop implantable biosensors that can continuously monitor multiple body chemistries.” Earlier this year, Profusa announced a study that will examine how the company’s technology—including a “wireless reader that adheres to the skin and collects and reports tissue oxygen levels” and a 3mm string of hydrogel, which can be inserted under the skin with a syringe and programmed to send “a fluorescent signal outside of the body when the body begins to fight an infection”—can be used to “develop an early identification system to detect not only disease outbreaks, but biological attacks and pandemics up to three weeks earlier than current methods.” The study is expected to be completed next year.

Hydrogels—networks of crosslinked polymer chains—are increasingly being turned to by proponents of these new technologies as potential delivery devices for drugs, cells, proteins, and bioactive molecules. In 2013, for instance, a team of European researchers announced a novel method for injecting a vaccine-containing hydrogel sphere to a spot beneath the skin, which could be released at a later time by swallowing a “stimulusresponsive biohybrid material.” Touted as a “remote-controlled vaccine delivery system,” the researchers proved their concept by injecting mice with a hydrogel containing human papillomavirus vaccine and later giving them a pill containing fluorescein, which dissolved the hydrogel mesh and released the vaccine. The research on this vaccine delivery method continues, with a Chinese team publishing research just this year on a self-adjuvanted hydrogel which “had both adjuvant potential and the ability to sustained release antigen.”

As viewers of the “Who Is Bill Gates?” documentary will know, the idea of implanting remote-controlled vaccines in large populations has been around since at least 2012, when, according to MIT Technology Review, Bill Gates personally asked MIT researcher Robert Langer to create an implantable birth control device that could be turned on or off remotely. The resulting device—a wireless birth control microchip that, as the National Post noted in 2014, “can be turned on and off with a remote control and that is designed to last up to 16 years”—was developed by Microchips Biotech, now part of Daré Bioscience, and has so far received $17.9 million in grant funding from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.

From bioelectronics to nanorobotics to synthetic biology, ever more incredible technologies are being pioneered that, whether or not they are marketed to the public under the catch-all term of “vaccine,” will operate in ways that are fundamentally unlike anything before used on the human population.

University of Ottawa researchers are working on creating “edible vaccines.”

Researchers at Harvard Medical School are developing autonomous DNA nanorobots capable of transporting molecular payloads directly into cells.

A team of scientists at Johns Hopkins University are working on shape-changing microdevices called “theragrippers” that can reside in the GI tract to aid in extended drug delivery.

Nanobots. Shape-changing bioelectronic devices. Remote-controlled vaccines. This is not the stuff of science fiction but of science fact, and the precedent that is being set during the COVID era to rush experimental and unproven medical technologies into use on the back of a declared crisis is the same precedent that could be used to foist these injectable technologies on the public in the future.

And, as Catherine Austin Fitts—former United States Assistant Secretary of Housing and Urban Development and founder of Solari, Inc.—explains, these injectables are part of an elaborate system of biological, economic, and political control that is being bankrolled into existence by powerful special interests.

CATHERINE AUSTIN FITTS: So let me go through where I think he’s going. I think where they’re going—and they’re they’re prototyping tons of technology, so I don’t think they have it yet—but where they want to go is they want to download a Microsoft Office system into your body, into your brain, and hook it up to the Jedi cloud contract and the Amazon Cloud contract at the CIA. And if they can get seven people seven billion people hooked up directly to their cloud contracts and use viruses—I mean, it’s very clever—use viruses to keep those updates coming. You know, just keep those updates coming.

So you saw my most recent article, “The Injection Fraud.” I think it’s a fraud to call these vaccines they’re not vaccines, they’re not medicine. But I think it’s the exact same model you used in the computers and the ideas. Just like Bill Gates made it possible for the intelligence agencies to get a backdoor into our—you know, our data—and our computers. They want a backdoor into our mind and it’s very hard if you haven’t if you haven’t looked into the creepy technology, the Charles Lieber kind of technology, it’s hard to fathom but we’re beginning to fathom it.

So what we have are people who have unimaginable liabilities for what they’ve done in the health area and what they’ve done in the financial area. And what they’re trying to do is they’re trying to do two things: one is to load an operating system into our bodies—I call it the injection fraud because they're calling it a vaccine and under law a vaccine is medicine, this is not medicine, so to me what they're up to is a fraud. And then the second thing they're trying to do is implement contract tracing so they they can have—before they get the operating system in everybody they can have complete control. You know, kidnap you, put you in prison with no warrants, break into your house, take your kids.

And I keep saying to people: “Do you notice that it's the people who flew Epstein Air who all want contract tracing? Why is that?” You know, why would you want the people who did Epstein Air to be able to come into your house and kidnap your kids?

Despite the protestations of those like Bill Gates who have a financial interest in these experimental vaccines, and the Big Pharma corporations that are selling these vaccines, and the governments that are being bribed by the international public health cartel to purchase these vaccines and pressure their public to accept them, and the corporate media who relies on these Big Pharma corporations for their advertising dollars, some facts about these novel coronavirus vaccines are indisputable:

- They are the most rushed vaccines ever developed.
- The manufacturers have been given total immunity from liability if their experimental vaccines cause injury.
- The clinical trials testing the safety of these injections are not finished, meaning that every member of the public who takes one is now a human guinea pig in an ongoing medical experiment with the population of the planet.
- The Pfizer and Moderna mRNA vaccines are themselves part of an experimental class of injection that has never before been given to the public;
- These vaccines have not been tested for their ability to prevent infection or spread of SARS-CoV-2 and are not intended to do so.
- And there is absolutely no long-term data about these vaccines to determine what their effects may be on fertility, the potential for pathogenic priming, or any other serious adverse reaction.

That this represents the most reckless and brazen experiment in the history of the world is undeniable on its face. Never before have billions of people been pressured to submit to a completely experimental, invasive medical procedure on the basis of a disease with a greater than 99% survival rate.

But large-scale, emergency vaccination campaigns have been tried before with sobering lessons about the danger of such a wide-scale experiment that are being deliberately ignored right now.

In the late 1950s and early 1960s, hundreds of millions of people were injected with polio vaccines that, years later, were discovered to have been contaminated with SV40, a cancer-causing virus found in the rhesus monkey kidney cells that were used to create the vaccine.

In 1976, twelve soldiers at Fort Dix were diagnosed with swine flu. This kicked off a round of public health hysteria that led the US government to mandate that every citizen in the country be vaccinated. In the end, only one soldier at Fort Dix died of the swine flu and no one outside of the base even tested positive for it, but the emergency immunization program went ahead. It was brought to an abrupt end after hundreds who had received the rushed vaccine began to display severe neurological disorders.

MIKE WALLACE: Remember the swine flu scare of 1976? That was the year the U.S. government told us all that swine flu could turn out to be a killer that could spread across the nation, and Washington decided that every man, woman and child in the nation should get a shot to prevent a nation-wide outbreak, a pandemic.

Well 46 million of us obediently took the shot, and now 4,000 Americans are claiming damages from Uncle Sam amounting to three and a half billion dollars because of what happened when they took that shot. By far the greatest number of the claims – two thirds of them are for neurological damage, or even death, allegedly triggered by the flu shot.

SOURCE: 60 Minutes Mike Wallace Exposes the 1976 Swine Flu Pandemic Vaccine Injuries

During the hysteria over swine flu in 2009, GlaxoSmithKline rushed a vaccine called Pandemrix to market in several European countries that was later associated with increased risk of narcolepsy. Years later, it was admitted that the 2009 flu season was no deadlier than any other flu season, but the British Medical Journal revealed that the body that advised the WHO on the declaration of the public health emergency that caused governments to purchase billions of dollars of vaccines was itself populated by advisors with direct financial ties to the Big Pharma vaccine manufacturers.

In each of these cases, the public was told to “follow the science,” and in each of these cases an unknown and perhaps unknowable number of people paid for that blind faith with their health. Now the revolver is once again being put to our heads and, with an assurance that that revolver probably contains a lot of empty chambers, the public is being asked to play Russian Roulette in the name of “trusting the science.”

NEIL DEGRASSE TYSON: I think we're in the middle of a massive experiment worldwide. And that is—

STEPHEN COLBERT: —And we're the guinea pigs?

TYSON: Maybe. The experiment is: will people listen to scientists?

SOURCE: Neil deGrasse Tyson On Coronavirus: Will People Listen To Science?

Surely those who wish to be the test subjects in this ongoing experiment should be free to make themselves into guinea pigs for the Big Pharma manufacturers. But every mandate or compulsion to force the vaccine on an unwilling recipient sets a dangerous precedent, a precedent that will one day lead to a tracked and surveilled population unable to resist the next generation of injectable bioelectronics.

This is not a game, this is not a test. Billions of people are being asked to participate in a gigantic experiment, not just an experiment in medical technology, but an experiment in compliance and blind trust.

The pressure to say yes and to go along with the crowd in this experiment is enormous. But if we lose the freedom to say “no” to this, then we may lose control over our bodily autonomy—and, ultimately, our humanity—forever.

The choice is ours . . . but for how much longer?

What is actually new? The mRNA technology is not new at all. It was a constant failure and became irrelevant. Governments are just re-releasing it exactly as is and hoping the public is ignorant of it's past failures. Just like coronaviruses vaccines, preventing asymptomatic spread, masks, quarantines, social distancing. All of these failed to be proven effective in past studies and never made it to the public as a viable solution. Now the past is ignored and they are releasing the same outdated, debunked, irrelevant information and presenting it a new breakthrough.

If I understood correctly DNA vaccine should not change your DNA because injected DNA exists separately inside of plasmid. Vector based vaccines also work in a similar way (gene based vaccines) and again if I understood correctly these do change one's DNA in a same way that a natural virus (In this case 'vector') does. Difference is that instead of a genetic material of a virus only, encoded message for creation of say spike proteins is also transferred.

IMO worth noticing is that (all) gene based vaccines are probably going to have some of the same drawbacks (+ some specific) as regular non live vaccines. Both types of vaccines use only few out of many antigens a say natural virus has are used to incite immune reaction.

Regarding non specific effects of non live vaccines:

Is it MS Office or an Operating System they want to 'load into our bodes'. She provided any source for this claim? Because in this context her statement sounds ridiculous. Operating system or MS Office require bit more hardware than a microchip.

Excellent James, thank you! About the comment from Catherine Austin Fitts and the operating system, I couldn’t help but think it may be related to my recent posts in the “Our Annum Horribilis” comment section regarding optogenetics. If you take a look at that information, optogenetics could be the operating system being installed in our bodies. Take the time to look at the TED talk I provided a link to. At the end of it they describe different colors of light triggering “On” and “Off” – just like a binary computer system. James, please consider looking at the topic. After watching your excellent vaccine expose, I felt it was right in line with what you are talking about.

Here is that TED talk again:

“Luminopsins integrate opto- and chemogenetics by using physical and biological light sources for opsin activation”

Ken Berglund, Kara Clissold, Haofang E. Li, Lei Wen, Sung Young Park, Jan Gleixner, Marguerita E. Klein, Dongye Lu, Joseph W. Barter, Mark A. Rossi, George J. Augustine, Henry H. Yin and Ute Hochgeschwender

Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences of the United States of America
Vol. 113, No. 3 (January 19, 2016), pp. E358-E367 (10 pages)

Abstract

Luminopsins are fusion proteins of luciferase and opsin that allow interrogation of neuronal circuits at different temporal and spatial resolutions by choosing either extrinsic physical or intrinsic biological light for its activation. Building on previous development of fusions of wild-type Gaussia luciferase with channelrhodopsin, here we expanded the utility of luminopsins by fusing bright Gaussia luciferase variants with either channelrhodopsin to excite neurons (luminescent opsin, LMO) or a proton pump to inhibit neurons (inhibitory LMO, iLMO). These improved LMOs could reliably activate or silence neurons in vitro and in vivo. Expression of the improved LMO in hippocampal circuits not only enabled mapping of synaptic activation of CA1 neurons with fine spatiotemporal resolution but also could drive rhythmic circuit excitation over a large spatiotemporal scale. Furthermore, virus-mediated expression of either LMO or iLMO in the substantia nigra in vivo produced not only the expected bidirectional control of single unit activity but also opposing effects on circling behavior in response to systemic injection of a luciferase substrate. Thus, although preserving the ability to be activated by external light sources, LMOs expand the use of optogenetics by making the same opsins accessible to noninvasive, chemogenetic control, thereby allowing the same probe to manipulate neuronal activity over a range of spatial and temporal scales.

So I thought I would dig into the actual ingredients of the Moderna vaccine and see if I could verify the light reactive agents. Here is a link:

<https://www.fda.gov/media/144638/download>

...halfway down that sheet is a short ingredient list. (I do not think that is the half of it. If you go to the Moderna patent page, you can get a lot more info.) But, that short ingredient list does list “phosphocholine”. Here is a detailed paper where that substance is described to aid photo-manipulation in subjects:

<https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pmc/articles/PMC3244831/>

...an excerpt:

DC8,9PC

The photopolymerizable phospholipid, (1,2 bis(tricoso-10,12-diynoyl)-sn-glycero-3-phosphocholine (DC8,9PC, figure 6D.i), is present in lower organisms (Figure 6D.ii) [49], and has been shown to uniquely assemble into the lipid bilayer due to the presence of triple bonds in the fatty acyl chains. UV (254 nm)-induced photopolymerization of DC8,9PC, as well as the analysis of chemical modifications in this molecule upon UV treatment has been well documented since 1980’s (Figure 6D.ii) [54,63]. Photo-crosslinking properties of DC8,9PC have been exploited for potential biological applications that include functionalized polymerized vesicles for vascular targeted molecular imaging[41], candidates for oral vaccine preparations [7], and DNA delivery [18,77].

...and BTW, those patent pages do have several hits for luciferase as well.

Light wavelengths – Viewing the SARS-CoV-2 virus and its structures

While not directly related to optogenetics, I found the following Webinar very interesting. Visible light is much larger than an atom. Thus, it takes something like electron microscopy to capture extremely small images.

studiotwoseven,

my first thought was this shit is produced by some postmodern-text-generator.

“Lucifer-asa, wild-type Gaussia luciferase, substantia nigra,...rhythmic circuit excitation....opposing effects on circling behavior in response to systemic injection ...”

WTF

I've checked some of these words and they are legit, of course as far as I can check as informed layman. Still, it can be a pile of shit.

We had to approach this from different angle.

Read carefully again article “Use of channelrhodopsin for activation of CNS neurons” you linked before.

They are way from “...manipulate neuronal activity over a range of spatial and temporal scales” because they need external source of light for this creepy technology to work. They are talking about lasers, LEDs and optic fibers to introduce the light. Maybe this could be solved with Matrix-type PostHumanSocket(tm).

At the beginning of this discussion it was about installing some kind of MS-humanhive-OS.

For controlling human brain you would first need some pretty thorough understanding of it and they are way, long way from it. Then source of light, certainly on lots of places in brain and precisely placed and not all brains are the same.

I believe they will never be able to overcome all obstacles that I've enumerated.

I will go even further. If one believe this will ever be possible one should consider that he might be infested with science&technologism.

Thanks mik. I hope you are correct. All the sources I link are official statements by those conducting the research. I do not think they are using weird text generators to write the government papers. I do not know if you took the time to look at the TED talk I linked twice, but it seems definitive. The light reactive elements, like luciferase, as I understand it, would allow internal light triggering without all the clunky hardware.

A semi-random addition to your detailed research, lucifer means the light bringer. This resonates quite well with the other points you have dug up.

<https://www.latin-is-simple.com/en/vocabulary/adverb/5789/>

Also, it recently came to my attention that Lucifer is apparently not the same as Satan, two terms I used to equate without thinking about it. I haven't yet found time to dig deeper into that.

Beginning of my comment are my first impressions while reading. Nowadays you can't be sure which part of "government" is behind.

I fast read that article and didn't watch ted-talk, nor will.
I suggest you to read luciferasa article on wikipedia.

As been said, my approach goes from other side, knowledge of brain is very basic. All that talking about mind control is just propaganda, what they are showing is below rudimentary stuff and of course they will improve, yea, no doubt for believers.

The only possibility I see is to count on neuroplasticity and manipulate brain in a such a way that brains by themself will connect to some artificial devices, but that is just an idea for SF.

Still, no doubt they are able to induce some totally weird behavior in population in some way. Put some LSD into flour in local bakery and results are proven guaranteed. But fine control is just SF.

It's not that I don't have time or, what is most of the time behind, mental capacity to watch 18min video clip (you know that fucking TLDR concept). Nor am I a pussy not able to subject myself to 18min of mental torture, something I expected from proposed ted talk. It's just about avoiding unpleasant activities....at the end I watched it.

It was a mental torture. Looking from the most abstract values perspective this guy is researcher, scientist yea, and he is doing research. Why??? Because he can, he is able to, he gets money and awards(certainly won't watch that award ritual). Good law abiding citizen, among best specimen.

Yea, it's his humanism, he would like to help 1 billion people (chart at 3:28). Holy crap, god save me from such a people. Lets look at the chart....depression. Millions of people are living in appalling conditions and they are rightfully depressed. Excellent solution, install PostHumanSocket. PTSD...what about not using hundred-thousands of people as cannon fodder and 90% of these cases are gone. And so on.

Presentation has to be simplified because of target audience, but his simplification went further towards lies, like comparing brains to digital computer and that is miles from truth. Sure, from here to downloading memories is not too long way, you just have to be into science&technologism.

For his technology "to work" he needs outside light source, I don't know where you've seen he doesn't. Control he achieves is so rudimentary that talking about it is actually misleading. Who knows how much is this better than shock therapy. Radiating with light something that has evolved to be in dark, supposedly without side effects...I'm suspicious.

I just scratch the surface.

You said you hope I'm correct. Try to look from other perspective, take some time (+hour and a half 😊) and watch

DNA on and off functions controlled by using light

<https://www.sott.net/article/446475-DNA-on-and-off-functions-controlled-by-using-light>

EXCERPTS

Biochemists use protein engineering to transfer photocaging groups to DNA

DNA (deoxyribonucleic acid) is the basis of life on earth. The function of DNA is to store all the genetic information, which an organism needs to develop, function and reproduce. It is essentially a biological instruction manual found in every cell. Biochemists at the University of Münster have now developed a strategy for controlling the biological functions of DNA with the aid of light.

This enables researchers to better understand and control the different processes which take place in the cell – for example epigenetics, the key chemical change and regulatory lever in DNA. The results have been published in the journal Angewandte Chemie.

Background and methodology

The cell's functions depend on special molecules, the enzymes. Enzymes are proteins, which carry out chemical reactions in the cell. They help to synthesize metabolic products, make copies of the DNA molecules, convert energy for the cell's activities, change DNA epigenetically and break down certain molecules. A team of researchers headed by Prof. Andrea Rentmeister from the Institute of Biochemistry at the University of Münster used a so-called enzymatic cascade reaction in order to understand and track these functions better. This sequence of successive reaction steps involving different enzymes makes it possible to transfer so-called photocaging groups – chemical groups, which can be removed by means of irradiation with light – to DNA. Previously, studies had shown that only small residues (small modifications such as methyl groups) could be transferred very selectively to DNA, RNA (ribonucleic acid) or proteins.

“As a result of our work, it is now possible to transfer larger residues or modifications such as the photocaging groups just mentioned,” explains Nils Klöcker, one of the lead authors of the study and a PhD student at the Institute of Biochemistry.

Working together with structural biologist Prof. Daniel Kümmel, who also works at the Institute of Biochemistry, it was also possible to explain the basis for the changed activity at a molecular level.

Using so-called protein engineering – a method for which a Nobel prize was awarded in 2018 – the Münster researchers engineered one enzyme in the cascade, making it possible to switch DNA functions on and off by means of light.

With the aid of protein design, it was possible to expand the substrate spectrum of enzymes – in this case, methionine adenosyltransferases (MATs)....

Right on HomeRemedySupply! Thank you for that link. Very interesting indeed.

So, I have been thinking about how this could be practically applied on a large enough scale for it to be worth their effort. At the end of the TED talk I have referenced, the one with Edward Boyden, he describes curing blind people with optogenetic therapies. He describes manipulating the structure of the human eye itself, fixing the dead photo-receptors. What if the light activation, for the “ON” and “OFF of the binary computer/brain, will be enabled through a modification of the eye? -by something that is in the vaccine...

Right on HomeRemedySupply! Thank you for that link. Very interesting indeed.

So, I have been thinking about how this could be practically applied on a large enough scale for it to be worth their effort. At the end of the TED talk I have referenced, the one with Edward Boyden, he describes curing blind people with optogenetic therapies. He describes manipulating the structure of the human eye itself, fixing the dead photo-receptors. What if the light activation, for the “ON” and “OFF of the binary computer/brain, will be enabled through a modification of the eye? -by something that is in the vaccine...

Here is that TED talk again:

<https://m.youtube.com/watch?v=hupHAPF1fHY>

here is a paper about optogenetics curing blindness:

...so this Edward Boyden is very clever boy. Here is a WIRED article from way back in 2012. Just think what he could have been up to since then...

<https://www.wired.co.uk/article/seeing-the-light>
an excerpt:

“Boyden is still mining the tree of life for more opsins, especially those that respond to red light. Red penetrates deeper into the brain and it’s less likely to accidentally trigger a blue-sensitive opsin such as ChR2 by mistake, since it sits at a far end of the visible spectrum. And Boyden has just received a grant from the US Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) to scour the genomes of plants for other light-activated proteins — not just gates like the opsins, but also hinges, motors and other molecular machines.”

...another golden nugget in the WIRED article linked above:

“...Others have been quick to realise the robot’s potential. “At the Society for Neuroscience meeting in Washington DC in November, over 100 people left me their email and asked me to contact them as soon as this is commercially available,” says Forest. “We also talked to Pfizer and they said this could allow them to test how drugs affect neurons in a living brain.”

I think she meant it metaphorically, that humanity will require updates (vaccine boosters or some other type of vaccine update) for new viral strains. I think that what they are trying to do is create a dependency on pharma so that the human immune system requires these drugs to live. Pharma will supplant a person’s own natural ability to fight off an infection as humanity has done for thousands of years.

I certainly don’t trust the crap they are pushing on the public and as a nurse, I have seen people very sick from Covid, the vast majority of people are elderly or sick already. I would rather trust my own immune system than put some experimental drug in my body that is still being researched. We are essentially guinea pigs and are not even being paid to take part in this experiment.

You’ve seen sick people. There is no covid 19 disease. It’s a made-up disease.

Yes, I treat sick people at work. There is a respiratory illness that in some individuals presents with shortness of breath, fever, chills, cough, low oxygen saturation, and requires oxygen supplementation and medications to reduce inflammation and also treat blood clotting issues.

The people who actually get sick tend to be obese, have diabetes, or are elderly (and sick).

Whether you believe that a virus causes these symptoms or not, it’s not a made-up disease.

I think if there were an honest comparison of prior flu seasons, particularly 2015-2017 the numbers of deaths might be comparable or less. But there is a syndrome people are getting that’s a little different than 2018.

In the severe presentation of this syndrome the following lab values will be elevated: Increases in liver enzymes, increases in D Dimer (blood clotting disorder), increases in CRP.

This same cluster of symptoms didn’t appear in 2015-2017. If they did, I didn’t remember the presentation that also included abnormal liver function.

I don’t think it’s a made-up disease because these patients are real and a few people I have worked with also came down with a flu-like illness, two were hospitalized when they developed a severe inflammatory syndrome.

I am a germ theory believer, I also think terrain theory explains a lot. I think germs are real and that if the terrain is also susceptible germs can develop a disease.

Maybe this is all a dream though? Is that what you’re telling me? And where’s your proof?

Of course there’s disease out there. How could there not be? They’ve poisoned our planet, and, to varying degrees, all of us. Is there a covid 19 disease? Nope. Not a chance. You need to keep up. Sars CoV 2 causes covid 19. There’s no Sars CoV 2. Artists renditions don’t equal production of the actual, physical virus. You can ‘not’ claim that there’s a disease caused by a virus that you can’t produce. How many reports of them not producing that virus do you have to see before you realize that? Start with Christine Massey’s report. Her’s, as Jon Rappoport notes, should have settled the issue for once and all and be getting coverage on every news outlet, corporate and alternative, out there. But it isn’t. But those who visit sites like this, and aren’t actually enemy agents (self-appointed or appointed), would by now know what I’ve just said.

What a person concludes or takes away from what a person says may be quite different from what they intended to convey. Some of that could be reduced by paying closer attention ...but not always.

My take:

First of all, she was speculating on where she “Thought they were wanting to go with all this”...

If one were to conclude that a microprocessor that can receive input (via certain particulates, a 5G or 6G signal, or another injection) to release a drug (or signal to other injectables to do same) that would cause a person to act or think differently (or be more susceptible to propaganda or other programming) than they would have...

— Such might be considered an operating system, just not the exact kind one may typically have thought of when one hears Microsoft OS; which was given as an Example of an operating system.

— For this limited discussion, an operating system takes input and directs output for the programs or apps that it is designed to run.

People have to keep in mind that what they don’t know about (what is kept from them) regarding technology is a lot. And what scientists/doctors don’t know about most everything they think they do, is even more limited.

...and I am so far behind in that respect I don’t expect to catch up...

I guess you are all right and she probably did mean it metaphorically, but to me it appeared too specific. She stressed the idea of them wanting to upload MS Office (Analogy used because it’s proprietary?) and Operating System to our bodies and repeated it a couple of times. Not sure this was the best way to communicate the message (They want to control us with tech, quantum dots, microchips, vaccines etc.? Which is btw correct.) because it implies some things one maybe shouldn’t want to imply.

Moderna likened their mRNA vaccine to software, so maybe that’s what she’s referring to.

I think that is where this may be going, that pharmaceutical companies will be supplanting natural biological mechanisms involved in immunity.

This technology could potentially be used for good purposes, but easily exploited and also very risky because it’s so new and there is so much that is not known about cell biology. Living systems are highly complex and I don’t think that scientists understand exactly how things work and what could go wrong.

It’s very brazen that they are pushing an experimental vaccine on the public and that people are willing to take part in it is mind-boggling.

I think that she sees where this technology could be headed and may be correct that they do want to be able to inject people and program them, tag them for monitoring and also control them or make it so that they need these drugs to survive at all. If they cripple our immune systems or make it so that we require these injections to live, they would have complete control over the population.

Having said that, I don’t think we are at that point yet and I don’t think that they could achieve that in my lifetime.

“It’s very brazen that they are pushing an experimental vaccine on the public and that people are willing to take part in it is mind-boggling.”

Let’s break your sentence down into two parts:

“It’s very brazen that they are pushing an experimental vaccine on the public...”

Yes, couldn't agree with you more!

“... and that people are willing to take part in it is mind-boggling.”

The vast majority of the public who are taking and will be taking the vaccines have no idea at all that they are experimental.

Would they still take them even if they knew they were experimental?
Even if they were aware of all the implications of what the experimental vaccines could do to them?

Those are the million dollar questions!

I was offered this so-called vaccine at work and I read the info sheet that was provided.

Pfizer admits clinical trials are ongoing and that (2 weeks ago only 20K people received the vaccine).

They admit this is new technology openly, and people just go along and take it as nothing could possibly go wrong? That's insane. I was shocked that so many people at work took it.

Here's a link to the info sheet that I received when they graciously offered me this experimental drug to which I said hell no.

BUMP
BUMP
FACT SHEET for PFIZER-BIONTECH COVID-19 VACCINE

At the bottom of the fact sheet, it talks about the “EMERGENCY USE AUTHORIZATION (EUA)”.

What stands out for me is the fact that if Hydroxychloroquine or Ivermectin were in use, then the vaccines would NOT be “available under an emergency access mechanism called an EUA.”

In other words, the vaccines never would have gotten out of the gate if Hydroxychloroquine was considered to be an appropriate treatment.

From the FACT SHEET, this is the line which brings up that point.
“*FDA may issue an EUA when certain criteria are met, which includes that there are no adequate, approved, available alternatives.”

HCQ and Ivermectin are “no brainers” for adequate available Covid treatment. But they can't be made “official”, because then the vaccine agenda could not occur.

The Powers That Should Not Be do not want people to get well. They want dead people. They want a submissive populace which is weak and scared and stupid.

There were two different recent Senate Hearings with medical professionals testifying to the science behind HCQ and Ivermectin. Democrats left the room in a huff, and would not even listen to the testimonies.

If the wicked TransHumanists are out to put chips in everybody's heads... Didn't that Elon Musk battery car guy talk some about chip implants?

Rather than speculating on what someone else said, or assuming they are wrong, ...since they are still alive, seems wiser to just ask her specifically what she meant.

Family of Tuskegee Syphilis Study participant say they'll take COVID-19 vaccine but understand the distrust

How low. Do most people think the govt has only injected people with Syphilis once?!?! Take a look at Dr. Hideyo Noguchi in 1911 with cough the Rockefeller Institute. University of Chicago, a well-known rockefeller funded institution with malaria in the 40s. The man who led the Tuskegee experiments, John Charles Cutler, did the same thing in Guatemala, direct inoculations of syphilis straight into the penis. A lawsuit was launched against Rockefeller Institute.

and what about people like Ewen Cameron? Cameron induced insulin comas in his subjects by giving them large injections of insulin, twice a day, for up to two months at a time. Several of the children who Cameron experimented on were sexually abused, in at least one case by several men. One of the children was filmed numerous times performing sexual acts with high-ranking federal government officials, in a scheme set up by Cameron and other MKULTRA researchers, to blackmail the officials to ensure further funding for the experiments. Roy Cohn? Jeffrey Epstein?

The Right to Health at the World Health Organization states that we have the right to be free from non-consensual medical treatment. The Nuremberg Code requires respect for informed consent. The UN Universal Declaration on Bioethics declares "Any preventive, diagnostic and therapeutic medical intervention is only to be carried out with the prior, free and informed consent of the person concerned." The American Cancer Society's Patient Bill of Rights states, "If you are an adult and you're able to make your own decisions, you are the only person who can choose whether to get treatment and which treatment to get. This is done through a process called informed consent."

Thank you for the summary, I am going to keep a copy handy.

Unfortunately we are getting hammered with things we have not agreed to by informed consent already: GMO Food, Pesticide and Herbicide laced food, air laced with chemtrails, contaminates added to the water, Electro Magnetic Radiation via smart meters and communications transmitters (5G, etc)

Clearly, the evil and their minions, who think they are doing the world a favor by depopulation, could care less about Natural Inherent Rights — or The (US) Constitution, the purpose of which is to limit govt power to that expressly stated therein, leaving everything else to the individual states or to the individuals themselves
...that is if you believe some dudes in history signing an agreement, has power over you; that agreement being the only thing which gives any authority to the federal or state governments; besides weaponry.

I used to think that they could never do what they really wanted to do, until they were able to disarm the populace.
— It seems they have found a way around that, when they can just get rid of us via vaccines and bio-weapons ... and make the rest susceptible to programming via chemicals they put in the food, water, air, vaccines, and electromagnetic spectrum.

A good reason to take things which cleanse the body as well as avoid vaccines and EM radiation.

Indeed. But as Spiro Skouras's recent guest, Pamela Potter, pointed out, none of that helps in the courts (which she has too much confidence in in my view). She rightly pointed out that the (police State) government just comes along and says "Emergency conditions exempt us" and, because that is the law, judges respond to the government with "Okay."

This website is specifically intended for youtube. Some sites offer direct download, others will require some kind of a downloader application on the side.

What I typically do when I browse stuff on my mobile is to “bookmark” what I would want to download for later when I get to my PC. A simple way to share stuff between my mobile and the PC is to have a private telegram channel to which I “share” and later can easily pick up links from. That way you don’t use various sync services (that I don’t trust) and maintain some privacy with reasonable utility.

I think we should stop calling these mRNA shots ‘vaccines’.

“The basic tool for the manipulation of reality is the manipulation of words. If you can control the meaning of words, you can control the people who must use them.” – Philip K. Dick

Like I recently showed in a short video, the American Society of Gene and Cell Therapy says the Moderna and Pfizer shots demonstrate that Gene Therapy is a viable strategy for developing COVID vaccines. Do they just get to lump any technology into the term vaccine? I feel like if we call it what they say it is, Gene Therapy, maybe it would help. Might not draw the automatic Anti-Vax label if we aren’t talking vaccines.

I would call it “Gene Manipulation” through Injects.

Indeed, by using the term “Vaccination” the Madd-ufactures are able to sneak this experimental technology into wide spread use, and still be “protected” from being prosecuted from the harm they do.

In a “Just” World, no government, or employer, would be able to force such a thing on anybody, but then, most of what I see is people volunteering to get this “Shot” which is being presented to them as a “Safe Vaccination”.

Having some idea how the minds of these greedy bastards work, I can see where they would be happy to provide the first “Shots” for free so that they can get people Hooked.

Note that the CIA has much well documented history of creating Drug Additions among the population. It provides a substantial hidden income which Congress never see’s.

What, you went to goolag translate?

It’s not that easy.

I don’t understand Chinese. Maybe I should have said they didn’t have a precise word for freedom.

Here is an essay discussing this.

I don’t google.

I see that Mr. Johnson claims that there is no word that is exactly the same as freedom. It also seems that, although he is aware, he is not able to empathize with the cultural and historical differences that form such ideas.

He states: But defense against the other type of totalitarianism (and perhaps in the end also the Marxist type)

Is Marxism a type of totalitarianism?

Anyway, thanks for the link it was interesting.

In 45 min you've been able to digest that essay....what to say.... amazing or unbelievable....

However....then, from an essay that is basically about something else, you single out totalitarianism and Marx.

What to say about that?

And coming to me (not somebody else) with that loaded question?

Let me ask you, read the following paragraph and tell me: could an anarchist stand behind these words?

“Only when the real, individual man reabsorbs in himself the abstract citizen, and as an individual human being has become a species-being in his every day life, in his particular work, and in his particular situation, only when man has recognized and organized his “own powers” as social powers, and, consequently, no longer separates social power from himself in the shape of political power, only then will human emancipation have been accomplished.”

So Bill was driving around the streets of Seattle with some buddies and got one of them to go see one of his buddies about an operating system that buddie had lying about the house...and then Bill could on-sell that system to the world's biggest computing corporation for billions.

It worked, of course. Who hasn't done that?

Later Bill, despite appearing to be an inarticulate oaf with severe personality disorder, was a multi-billionaire worried about who'd been vaccinated. As you do when you are a multi-billionaire!

So Bill went to see some buddie and that buddie told him there was indeed a way to know who'd been vaccinated, and also (by the way) to trace everyone in the whole world, and not just to know who'd been vaccinated for one thing but for lots of things forever...

Either that, or there never was a Bill, or Jeff, or Elon, or buddies. Just the state. From the very start. The REAL state.

Excellent coverage James.
 The sense of urgency in your voice was palpable.

One thing that wasn't covered that forms an important part of this whole equation and also complicates it, is the fact that there are multiple vaccines being made by multiple manufacturers around the world.

Here are just some of the complications that are bound to arise. I'm sure others here will be able to come up with many more.

Manufacturer A's vaccine in Country G produces these negative side-effects (a,b,c) and is 75% 'effective' at reducing symptoms.

Manufacturer B's vaccine in Country H produces these negative side-effects (d,e,f) and is 70% 'effective' at reducing symptoms.

Manufacturer C's vaccine in Country I produces these negative side-effects (g,h,i) and is 60% 'effective' at reducing symptoms.

etc.

Countries M,L,N,O and P won't permit anyone to enter their country unless they have been vaccinated by Manufacturer B's vaccine.

Countries Q,R,S and T won't permit anyone to enter their country unless they have been vaccinated by Manufacturer C's vaccine.

Countries U,V,W and X won't permit anyone to enter their country unless they have been vaccinated by Manufacturer A or B's vaccine.

etc.

Brazil, Chile and Indonesia refuse to allow any vaccines to be sold to their country other than those manufactured in China.

etc.

etc.

Mmmmm... har har har

I suspect these vaccines they want to inject the world with have been around for a while. I am 100% certain there are laboratories hidden around the world that have been experimenting on people for years(they're there!). The batches of vaccines will never be the same for all people. Different batches will be given to different regions of the world, for different experiments.

The mutation 'wild card' is a sneaky trick and was to be expected by the pandemic planners.

But its purpose is not to get us to take 'the vaccine'.

Vaccines code for very specific gene sequences.
A virus mutation can quickly render any given vaccine ineffective.

Mutations can still increase Big Pharma's profits however, by allowing them to create vaccines v.2 and v.3 etc.
So soon it won't be sufficient to have simply taken 'the vaccine'. We will be asked if our CV vaccine schedule is "up to date"?

What mutations are good at is allowing the CV case numbers to continue to rise and to ‘justify’ more lockdowns (England).

Expect to see the ‘mutation card’ used more and more frequently in the months and (cough) years to come. 😞

At around the 10 minute mark, discussion starts about the m-RNA vaccine and antibodies (those ‘Y’ shaped images).

I’m a layman on all this, because the immune system is very complex.

It is my understanding that antibodies are like pawns on a chess board.

It’s a numbers game of one to one “combat”. One antibody against one viral particle, and they both bite the dust. But what happens when the viral particles outnumber the antibodies?

Yes, I understand that there are B-Cells and memory antibodies.

Yes, I can understand how the vaccine might prompt the production of antibodies in theory.

My problem with the antibodies hypothesis of the m-RNA vaccine is that there is much more to the immune system.

PREDICTABLE LIABILITY

To me, it seems that Dr. Sucharit Bhakdi brought up a VERY IMPORTANT aspect about the immune system with Del Bigtree on The Highwire show of Thursday 12/17/2020.

He brought up the Natural Killer Cells, the Large Lymphocytes.

A liability of the m-RNA vaccine becomes predictable when one looks at this aspect.

<https://www.corbettreport.com/december-open-thread/#comment-100813>

Dr. Sucharit Bhakdi is famous for his discoveries about the immune system and microbiology.

Lymphocytes help to explain why younger people with a large Thymus easily survive the coronavirus. But older people (small Thymus) or people with weak immune function do not fair well.

Antibodies are not proof of immunity. Lots of people got the very illnesses that vaccines were alleged to protect them from. Presence of “antibodies” was part of the approval. I have thought for at least 25 years now that, due to history of vaccines, antibodies are just the “science” needed as an excuse to sell snake oils. IMO

Here is what I am trying to point out:

Killer Cells (T-Cell & Natural Killer Cell Lymphocytes) are DELIBERATELY BEING IGNORED by m-RNA vaccine pushers.

Dr. Sucharit Bhakdi explains this very well with Del Bigtree, and how this obvious aspect of the immune system (Killer Cells) will result in grief for those who get the m-RNA vaccine.

Killer Cells destroy the cells of the body which produce ABNORMAL substances.
The m-RNA vaccine is designed to program cells to make an ABNORMAL substance (a viral protein).

Autoimmune diseases, such as Lupus, is when the T-Cells fight the body.

It doesn't take a genius to figure this out. It is a predictable event of the m-RNA vaccines that they will cause the Killer Cells to destroy human cells, to attack the body's own cells. (With the caveat...that is...if they genuinely are using this m-RNA application in the vaccines which produces an ABNORMAL cellular substance.)

In his garage, Vincent Stevenson gives us a 5 minute lowdown of How your T Cells fight the Coronavirus.
<https://youtu.be/RtCoZA14gRc>

ABNORMAL

This 8 minute University presentation on the “innate immune system”, Mechanism of Natural Killer (NK) Cells, discusses how NK Cells destroy human cells that are ABNORMAL.
<https://youtu.be/BEYsKjcGySE>

T-Cells (and B-Cells) are part of the “adaptive immune system”. (Antibodies come into play here.) 16 minutes.

Great episode. There has been a lot of pressure to take this new “vaccine” at my workplace. Thus far it's optional, no declination form needs to be signed. But people keep asking me if I got it and I say no. My manager even told me that she wants everyone to get it.

I have been looking into the law and it looks like they can't mandate it. Next time if the subject comes up again, I will tell her I have no intention of taking it and ask if there is a form I need to fill out to decline it. I will let her know that it is not mandatory and I am refusing it and would prefer not to discuss this matter again.

People are really stupid who are taking this drug. It blows me away.

“My manager even told me that she wants everyone to get it.”

Classic Herd mentality. “If this turns out to be folly, then I demand everybody commit the same folly!”

It's a perverse manifestation of the Herd's innate sense of safety-in-numbers.

The Machine is exploiting that flaw in the Human psyche, to flip its result on its head: rather than the Herd being preserved by clustering together, knowing that a few on the fringes will be sacrificed, now the whole Herd is being willingly rounded up and sacrificed, due to each individual's need to be surrounded under the specter of “danger.”

Now the Herd will all be branded with proprietary designer proteins, which will be manufactured by their own biological mechanisms, and will mark them permanently as goyim, a blood offering to the Machine as it ascends to power. The Brand is only the first step. Once the Brand is taken up by every goy, then the Herd will be divided up into different experimental cohorts, to be converted into “Bio-Reactors” (as DARPA puts it). Their bodies will be commandeered as foundries to generate god-knows-what-kinds-of-unholy half-organic, half-artificial mutant dark matter...as the mass of Humanity is transformed into the body of the infernal Beast itself...

HAPPY CHRISTMAS EVERYONE!!!

Yes, I think you are on to something and it's very creepy. We are the "goyim" or the "useless eaters" to the "elites" who want to control everything.

Though technically I am Jewish, my mother found the characterization of Non-jews or "goyim" to demonstrate a type of elitism and tribalism that disgusted her. She never raised us in a culture of tribalism.

But this is exactly the way the Gates, Rockefellers, Rothschilds, et. al see everyone else, less than them. They think that they have the right to dispose of humanity. It's sickening actually that they are allowed to get away with this, just like Jeffrey Epstein was allowed to get away with all of his disgusting crimes all those years.

Because the religious texts of Judaism say that non-Jews are beasts and not human. And because the Old Testament allows usury to strangers, so the Jews have an economic incentive to not allow us to be their brothers.

Judaism is at the core of the threat against the goyim. But God put the Jews here because the goyim love to eat the forbidden fruits such as usury so as to enslave themselves.

The Byzantine Empire stood for 1000 years because it made forbade usury and made it illegal for Jews to hold public office, participate in banking and participate in the educational system. Constantine had to flee Rome which had come under destructive control of the Jews. Constantine had to employ religion to keep the goyim disciplined which in itself was corruption. The Jews proliferated in Western Europe and were waiting in the wings when the Byzantine Empire finally collapsed. And so now we are entirely enslaved by the Jews who have been angry at Jesus ever since they crucified him.

Jews are inherently evil and perhaps the only solution is they must be exterminated?

If you dig you will find the Jews are the instigators of everything that is destroying the world. They even control the CCP of China.

Emotions destroy logic. I was speaking logically. The truth seems to offend the normalcy bias of sheep-slaves.

There are Jews who semi-reject the “goyim are inferior” aspect of their Talmud religious texts, but actually they just pity us because they’ve lived with us and developed some familiarity. They still don’t think we’re at their level of intellect and religious piety.

Numerous Jewish elders have commented that we goyim fight the wars they decide we shall fight.

They program your mind so you will not know the truth. Sheep-slaves have Stockholm Syndrome.

For example Hitler did not gas millions of Jews. This is a propaganda lie gifted to us by the Jewish control over all media. They’re also recently accelerating the purging the truth from the Internet.

- cu.h.j says:

No, it is not dying. This is how the “elites” view humanity, Jews, and non-Jews alike.

It is what keeps people in tribal affiliations. It’s very unfortunate divide and conquer tactics.

The Rothschilds don’t care about random Jews who may suffer. What matters is about the “owners” being about to take the planet and resources for themselves.

Indeed, “The Money Changers” are a self-proclaimed elite group who have been taking advantage of other Jews prior to the time of Jesus Christ. Yet, it seems that they do use the Jewish Region as a means to create a Tribal mentality whereby people outside the “Race” are considered inferior, and thus subject to acts that would be considered immoral if done to another Jew.

“Re: CCP and the Jews

Excerpt from Edward Hendrie's book along with several articles:-

“Jews were behind the rise to power of Mao Tse Tung, the communist dictator of China, who tortured and murdered tens of millions of Chinese during his brutal reign. Sidney Shapiro, an American Jew, was in charge of China's propaganda organ. Another Jew, Israel Epstein, was Mao's Minister of Appropriations (Finance). Texe Marrs explains how the Pollard spy scandal sheds some light on the Jewish-communist connection:

The covert Jewish control of Mao and the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) explains why convicted Jewish spy Jonathan Pollard, found guilty of stealing thousands of classified documents from the Defense Department where he worked, gave these materials to his masters, the Israeli Mossad operating in the U.S.A. The Israelis, in turn, transferred these valuable military secrets straight to Red Chinese dictators in Beijing.

Pollard, a Jew born in Galveston, Texas, sits in a federal prison today. Recently, when Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu came to America, he visited Pollard in prison and assured the despicable turncoat Israeli spy that the Israeli government was working behind-the-scenes with Obama's White House to pardon the convicted spy. Meanwhile, Pollard is a national hero in Israel-honored for stealing America's most precious military secrets which Israel gave to Communist China!"

Note even in current U.S politics that the communists (a creation of the Jews) always falsely accuse (e.g. Trump and whites) of doing what they're actually doing, whether it be the 100s of million they've genocided that (via their control over all mass propaganda and education) they falsely accuse Hitler of doing to the Jews, or that slave trade for which they accuse white goyim but of which they were the actual instigators and leading purveyors (as admitted even by black scholars).

While most goyim are enslaved in a Stockholm Syndrome (because propaganda has taught us to love and defend those who enslave us) such that we're offended by any classification of groups by the evil they do, the Israeli Prime Minister and powerful Jewish elders don't seem to suffer from the disease they programmed into our brains with their control over all our media and education systems.

Netanyahu and the Laws of Killing 'Goyim':

“It was Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu’s announcement saluting a Torah giant, teacher and arbiter of Jewish law. We’re talking about Rabbi Yaakov Yosef, who was arrested for giving a letter of approbation to the work “The King’s Torah – Laws of Killing Non-Jews.”

As a rabbi, Yosef contributed to and expanded the body of racist halakha (Jewish religious law) against Arabs, “goyim” and homosexuals until his recent death. But all this is dwarfed by the simple and unnerving fact that the prime minister of Israel referred to one of the people behind the “The Laws of Killing Non-Jews” as a posek gadol – a great halakhic arbiter.”

“We must realize that our party’s most powerful weapon is racial tensions. By propounding into the consciousness of the dark races that for centuries they have been oppressed by whites, we can mold them to the program of the Communist Party. In America we will aim for subtle victory. While inflaming the Negro minority against the whites, we will endeavor to instill in the whites a guilt complex for their exploitation of the Negroes. We will aid the Negroes to rise in prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige, the Negro will be able to intermarry with the whites and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause.”

I found this Definition for “Goyim”

<https://www.urbandictionary.com/define.php?term=goyim>

Apparently it can be used to mean different things in different contexts.

To call for the extermination of any Race is “not” Christian and does lead to immoral acts.

From my prospective, Jesus Christ was an all out Anarchist. He condemned the Jewish High Priests as well as the Roman Empire, while giving spiritual strength to the individual.

Followers of Jesus Christ's Philosophy can be of any Race, and all that do good for others (of their own free will) are acceptable to God.

On the other hand, those that do bad, can be of any Race and should be stripped of their powers to do bad.

This has more to do with putting the power in the Right hands than eliminating anybody.
End the Fed!

I like your take on Jesus and who he was. He exposed the money changers and they persecuted him for telling the truth.

I think that people of any race or religion can be evil and corrupt. There are many people that are jews who are good and not evil or corrupt. People should not be persecuted based on their identity or how others identify them. That is wrong and against the teachings of Jesus.

Even in the cases of Bill Gates or the Rockefellers, their descendants shouldn't be persecuted for the acts of the family.

I don't know Gate's kids, but I don't hate them just because Bill Gates is their father. I think they have a right to live and thrive and be free even if their father is evil.

People should be judged based on their own acts as individuals in my opinion.

You might want to say that it is "Gene Therapy" not a vaccine as Camille helpfully commented somewhere on this discussion. Also it is experimental. Also, look up possible side effects and list them. Since this gene therapy has never before been done on human beings in large populations, it is impossible to predict all possible side effects — hence the term experimental. Participation must be consensual or it violates Nuremberg Principles. There should be a website where all legal arguments and ramifications are listed.

Hey, have you ever said drain the swamp? Or heard that expression and wished for it to happen? And what would that entail?

And who would be those in the swamp? Or do you even have a clue? Guess who wants to exterminate you? Oh, my we must not be upset and wish not so good things for them now would we? Really? Draw the line in the sand?

Remember jew is a weaponized word and no matter what anyone says, there is a great misunderstanding and misuse of the word.

It's kinda like the word vaccine. Weaponized insanity. Do you have a clue what it really means? Of course your a self professed expert on everything with an anecdote for every occasion, kind of like the MC at a banquet, controlling the room with flattery and deceitful dissemination.

Time for some reflections. I'm sure as James said maybe a review of his comment section would be of interest. We all are on a journey. Everyone different from the other. The synthetic rooms we choose to enter and spend time is of utmost importance as time and energy is spent. I think I prefer a spirit of a little more truth and light.

It's getting way to predictable, like walking into a bar reeking of booze and smokes finding the same old bunch just waitin' to bounce out anyone who is isn't part of the clique.

Same ol' parroting of the death cult, and snake charmers. Holdin' on to a remote Link Switch to drive the traffic the come in for a drink.

Big dark BLACK 'attention letters' put up on the bar room screen to control the patrons. Lest they have a thought of their own, or maybe are zealous in trying to wake up the guys sleeping in the corner. "You who call yourselves conspiracy theorists, who are not". You are simple conspiracy hobbyists hanging out spreading the same old, repeating the grifters lies and disseminating propaganda pieces supporting your own demise and managing the crowd with flattery and fluff, to win a gullible buddy.

Maybe our problems are not with flesh and blood so much, but with spiritual powers driving division and conquest. Personally, for some time I have not enjoyed coming in your room. It's annoying and disturbing.

I love it in the bush, and often get caught, jabbed and bleed from thorny bushes, especially this time of year. It stings and then gets painful. Annoying and painful as thorns can b, one hard fact I have to face is I've never had a single thorn come and find me. Whenever I wince at the sting of a sharp pointy barb that cut my skin or heard the cash consuming rip of my clothes it was due to one solitary reason: I put myself in the situation.

Being it's that time of year to consider changes, I think I'll quietly walk out of this bar and close the door, resolving to not put myself in this situation again. Time to radically minimize synthetic environments. Be blessed in your journeys. JC has wonderful links, especially Agamben et al. Love to print it off sit under a tree and just be.

I was cooking while listening, but did hear one odd error, I have to point out. Not your error, but Dr. Tenpenny. I can't imagine why she would think the new covid-19 concoction is not medicine, but vaccines are by law???

Ah, no. I looked up medicine, to be sure I wasn't somehow ignorant all my life as to the meaning of medicine.

Vaccines are not medicine either. Not by definition, and not by law either. Not being medicine, or a drug, is one of the ways "they" obtained immunity from liability, or from being bothered by the FDA.

I am still not sure of a proper definition for this highly experimental, known to be dangerous, unwarranted and unneeded, mRNA, maybe DNA altering, GMO, syndrome symptom reducing(maybe), concoction.....so I call it snake oil 🐍

I didn’t see vaccination in there, though “prevention” does describe, what vaccination is supposed to be. So one could make the argument that a well made, actual vaccine, that actually worked, was medicine. I lean toward medicine being a treatment or cure. Prevention should be by being healthy. Let food be thy medicine, and medicine be thy food?

Va33ines were proven in the latter 1800’s to be nothing more than a superstitious myth perpetrated by the combined lies of Jenner and Pasteur. Problem is the Rothskefellers never did have health in mind when the sorcery and puss serums were concocted, they had the same goal as they do today, PROFIT. And they set about to build an empire on contagions that were not. Just like the Jews that said they were Jews, but were not. It’ all really pretty simple, but then along comes the liars, con men, and grifters broadcast on many different mediums to persuade and suggest the wonders of let’s call it snake oil and put it into a needle so a willing body takes the sting of serpent venom via syringe (syrizein ‘hiss’). Voila! Abra Cadabra! (Safe lie effective lie informed consent lie) Wow, some controlled op’s are making a whole lotta double cross, XX money creating magic shows to uphold the illusion, and they have many idolmakers disseminating the lies, to help humanity of course. The sad part is even when these celebrities say the are pro va33ine right out of their own mouth the fans deny it. Oh! Yuri Bezmenov was right! The subversion is complete and minds are sealed. Eyes are blind and ears are deaf.

SARS 1 2003 never existed. SARS CoV-2 Virus has never been isolated; therefore no “Mutant CoV-2 Virus” exists; therefore no reliable Test for SARS CoV-2 exists; therefore no Coronavirus Vaccine exists.

Somebody is making a whole lotta money creating magic shows to uphold the illusion, and many are accessories in disseminating the lies, for posterity.

There is the possibility that this new vaccine will require ongoing treatment to prevent serious health problems, much like the drugs used by so-called "psychiatry," only much, much worse. To receive this ongoing treatment, one will have to submit to the demands of the World Health Organization. Not receiving this treatment, "shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them"... but the new Bill C-7 in Canada will make it very easy to facilitate their death.

Given a current Covid survival rate greater than 99%, many have decried the necessity for a "vaccine." Seems to me that in constructing this psyop, it would make sense to allow for high initial survivability morphing into greater lethality once a "vaccine" is released.

In this way, those who claimed the virus was not deadly can be debunked and ridiculed, while also providing the requisite fear for widespread compliance. Watch for upcoming targeted biological releases which will be reported as mutations. These releases will actually impact children and cause mortality.

It's one thing to be told to comply for the benefit of granny. It's an entirely different order of impetus to be commanded into compliance for the children.

If you ever wondered about the safety of vaccines then this article of mine gets you the most important facts regarding vaccine safety.

If you think vaccines are safe, consider these things

<https://steemit.com/health/@johnblaid/if-you-think-vaccines-are-safe-consider-these-things>

I would also like to address the idea of "immunity". We are taught the idea that "antibodies", which is just proteins, are being produced because of a "virus" when other research suggest that the proteins are created as a result toxicity in order to keep the structure of cells intact. In other words, these proteins are not attacking anything, they are working as band-aids but don't take my word for it, take it from Dr Stefan Lanka which is the same guy that proved 2016 in court that there is no scientific evidence for the measles "virus".

"The Misinterpretation of the Antibodies" with Dr Stefan Lanka

<https://truthseeker.se/stefan-lanka-the-misinterpretation-of-the-antibodies-english-translation/>

In 2019 during the Global Vaccine Health Summit the WHO admitted that adjuvants(aluminium,thimerosal,mercury) are necessary for vaccines to "work" and by working they mean that "antibodies" are being produced. But as I highlighted earlier, the reason the "antibodies" are being produced is because of toxins, not any "virus" and this is how the scientific fraud and misconception of things continues.

“Controversy around adjuvants in vaccines”

https://odysee.com/@The\_HighWire\_with\_Del\_Bigtree:4/CONTROVERSY-AROUND-ADJUVANTS-IN-VACCINES:3

In my view, the idea of “antibodies” comes from the idea that we have an “immune system” and that all humans need one in our war with nature where our enemy is the harmful bacteria and “viruses”. Remove the harmful bacteria and “viruses” and you also remove the need of an “immune system” where “antibodies” gets to play healer instead of warrior. If there are no “viruses” or harmful bacteria then the justification for vaccines regardless of how safe they are is completely gone.

Here are very relevant information that should be required read for any serious researcher.

Slide show presentation of the Covid-19 Vaccine Development

by Dr. Barney S Graham, Deputy Director of the Vaccine Research Center at NIAID | NIH

(National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases at the National Institute of Health)

Dr. Anthony S Fauci was appointed director of NIAID in 1984.

QUEUED VIDEO FROM WEBINAR – 46 minute mark

<https://youtu.be/CBXCm3NNeMw?t=2763>

I found this slide show very interesting.

Barney walks people through the evolution of the Covid-19 m-RNA vaccine while NIAID was working with Moderna. A few eyebrows might be raised at different points, such as when they were experimenting on the spike protein in bats.

At the 25 minute mark, Michael Diamond discusses the problems with experimenting with mice. The mice could not naturally get the SARS-CoV-2 virus, unless....

38:20 minute mark is a brief slide which shows “Approaches to Viral Vaccine Development”.

One of the very last questions/comments at the very end of the video, Michael points out that we may not know the safety of these vaccines for a couple years.

The lack of effective treatment options are lightly mentioned in the Q & A at the end of the video. (If there were effective treatments, such as hydroxychloroquine or Ivermectin or others, then the ‘emergency’ Covid-19 vaccine push would be unnecessary.)

It is unbelievably shocking how little the mass population has given critical thought to this grand social experiment that is happening from the Technocratic Establishment!

It goes to show that fear short circuits the ability to think critically and evaluate whether the so-called “news” is in fact propaganda.

It bothers me that so many have willingly submitted without question...but as you so effectively stated, they are also under an unwarranted amount of pressure to conform – with state power to boot.

I have been trying to evaluate what I would do if indeed we are forced to take the vaccine – certainly not by mandate, but if we have to travel or continue to work if our job happens to be within the corporate fascist grid.

If it’s not...great. But if it is, what pressure we are under.

I have been entertaining the possibility of preparing the body and detoxifying the body from these invasive vaccines. But as you brought out, these are not like any other vaccines that have been propagated before...and I am worried.

There's always a way to cheat. You'll find a way if you need to. I'm sure this whole thing will open up a new market for fake papers.

I don't think this experimental drug can be mandated at this point since it's not FDA approved yet. That will take a while. And, people are allowed to use a religious exemption. I would consult an attorney if you are concerned. That's what I'm attempting to do, but there are attorney's working on this issue now.

I would not risk the vaccine because of the points raised in this podcast. If you have to work and feed a family there are no guarantees that you will recover from potential injuries. It could make you disabled and you will be living on government aid with a miserable life. That's a non zero possibility. That's definitely not something I'm going to risk. I don't want to get sick from the vaccine and refuse to take that risk. I like to walk and talk and think. This vaccine poses a risk to those basic things that I value most.

"Fake papers"? You're kidding right?

That's exactly why all of these technologies are permanently integrated into the body.

There won't be a way to "fake" having the proprietary Moderna or Pfizer mRNA-coded proteins, which will now be readable by nasal swab. Just like the nasal-swab test can detect any minute trace of anything the PCR is set to detect, it will now be checking for whatever this mRNA is designed to express in your body. So now, when you get a "Covid test," what They will really be checking for is your mRNA-carrier status. If you have the shot, you are a good, compliant goy.

And all the Universities and healthcare institutions are steadily implementing bi-weekly "Covid testing." From here on out, the real data point They will be assessing is injection-uptake status. Then, once the Herd is accustomed to having their injection-uptake status surveilled routinely, then it will be hydrogel/quantum-dot arrays that can be read with a tricorder, without the fuss of a swab-test. Although, of course, the swab tests will continue to be routine, because those have the added "benefit" of being invasive compliance-reinforcement.

That said, I agree with everything you say about the risk not being worth it. You say, "there are no guarantees that you will recover." True, and it's worse still. There's no guarantee that the mandates will stop with just this one shot. Indeed, it is virtually guaranteed it won't stop there. We are already being told this "one shot" is actually two. Then will come the "booster" for the "UK New Strain," then another for the "South Africa New Strain," then another for...you get the idea. This mRNA shot is just the precedent-setting, camel's-nose into your genome. The process will not stop until we are all "Neuralink-pig-chipped" and permanently jacked into the Hive-mind, with the line between Human and Machine not just "blurred," but permanently erased.

Once They're inside your body, your are at Their mercy. And as the global "lockdowns" amply demonstrate, the Machine has no mercy.

I repeat, there is always a way to cheat. But, that is not a good way to go about this because it legitimizes this campaign.

People need to stop complying and see what a simple no will do. I have found that an emphatic no often gets me a long way when I don't want something.

The demand to take an experimental drug that's new and is not even finished clinical trials is very brazen. People who do this are agreeing to take part in the experiment without pay. I read the Pfizer document and it said the vaccine is NOT FDA approved and has NOT been proven to work. It also said, taking it is a CHOICE.

The propaganda that is put out shows that they need consent to be able to pull this off. People need to stop complying.

I know this is wrong to say or feel, but in a way, I hope people get sick soon from the new vaccine. It will dissuade people from taking it. I think this experiment will go badly, unfortunately for people who just went along with the program.

People don't value their health until they are sick. Once you are sick and infirm, you have no choice. You are at the mercy of the medical establishment. I see it every day.

Well put.

I wrote in my Telegram group chat:

“Adam and I discussed upthread that the banksters who are alleged to be elite Jews employ usury and deception to lure the goyim into enslaving themselves.

I explained why it’s an unsustainable attack on the inviolable Second Law of Thermodynamics to attempt to conflate church and state as Jim and Adam both propose to do in order to attempt to prevent goyim from enslaving themselves by controlling them (by strictly controlling the state). People must be given their freewill. The U.S. would not be in the predicament it is in if the people had not gorged on debt and delegated their governance to Caesar. The Lord warned about the outcome of doing so in 1 Samuel 8 and in 1 Samuel 15 the fulfillment of the warning was carried out with all even babies slaughtered. This is not an evil God but rather honesty about the inviolable facts of economics, the power-law distribution of wealth and nature.

The Jews parasite and leech on the goyim. Instead of making ourselves easy prey by tying our shoelaces together in collectives which the Jews can subvert by tempting the weak among us, we would instead be decentralized and parasite on the Jews as we are doing now by profiting on their Bitcoin deception.

As I suggested by video example to Adam that the hillbillies in the hills around the southeast of the U.S. don’t involve themselves in Caesar’s system as much we city slickers do. And thus they are more immune to the power of the Jews.

We should endeavor to profit in Caesar’s system and extract wealth out of it, but not partake of its trappings. Live as Jesus did by walking with nothing, not even a bag in the ideal.

The meek will inherit the earth. Those who live simply will have less worries.

We can’t fix good versus evil. We can only control ourselves and influence our family by example and with education about this wisdom and the correct understanding of the wisdom in the scriptures.”

Being born into a religion doesn’t make a person that religion. One must actually subscribe to the religious covenants of the religion to be of said religion.

It’s obvious that Jesus was in a battle with the Jewish Pharisees and created his own ministry and religion in absentia. It’s obvious from his testimony in Matthew which stands in direct contradiction, that Jesus rejected the vile edicts of the Talmud.

So if one is born with the Muslim parents is that person incapable of making their own choice of religion when they mature? Jesus’ father was a gentile/goyim.

Here’s a mini-review of the book
Christ was not a Jew – December 1, 1997
 by Jacob Elon Conner

“This is a very obvious fact to anyone who’s read the entire bible, which too many ‘Christians’ have not; it's hard reading that's been largely reinterpreted to divide.

Did God have therapy in between the 'kill them all, except the virgin girls who you can 'keep for yourself' Numbers 31, to the "Forgive and forget" loving, slave friendly, New Testament of Christ?

If that is not enough read "Anacalypsis by Higgins" which proves, in the first 100 pages, the OT, [and NT] have been enhanced by a certain tribe who stood to gain great power over their slaves by making "JESUS", [renamed Christ], a 'Jew'. The word "JEW" was an invention by this KULT claiming to be the Israelites of the bible that edited plagiarized sacred texts before stamping their name upon them.

As an ex-Christian, disgusted by the Jewishness and anti-Western attitude of modern Christianity, I am having a higher esteem of Christianity after studying this book by Prof. Conner. This is an academic work that contains a lot of information (historical, theological, religious, sociological, anthropological...) about the Ancient Near-East. I will not review here all what is covered in the book, but only the main points: Science shows that Christ's genealogies in the gospels are not authentic, and all scholars agree on this. Then there is much evidence that Galileans (such as Jesus) were not Semites, but a mixtures of Hindu-European people. Also Christ's opposition to Judaism is analyzed, as well as the role of Paul [...]" @mkey you have outwitted yourself with your baseless ad hominem. If a former Jew or someone born into the Jewish faith has rejected that religion then they are no longer a Jew and thus the facts about Jews which I have shared would not apply to them. Logic is a skill you will need to work on if you want to avoid being enslaved and falling into the Stockholm Syndrome traps the clever overlords have laid for you.

It's quite repugnant yet indicative of the truth I'm revealing that goyim experience cognitive dissonance and lash out at their savior messenger when their depraved, enslaving mind programming is laid bare.

Was the link changed or something?

"By the World Health Organization's official tally, the flu pandemic of 2009-10 killed 18,449 people around the world. Those are deaths of people who had laboratory-confirmed cases of the so-called swine flu.

But a fresh analysis says the real toll was 10 times higher — up to 203,000 deaths. And maybe it was twice that, if you count people who died of things like heart attacks precipitated by the flu."

I mentioned previously that I am reading a book titled "The Accidental Superpower" by Peter Zeihan. I don't want to judge it yet but the chapter I just finished has triggered some thoughts that have been percolating and I thought I would share.

The author was writing about demographics. He really seemed to be stressing the economic issues arising from the relative sizes of the various generations.

"The "good ol' days" of high growth and abundant and cheap capital should be more accurately thought of as a windfall. That magic mix will not return in our lifetimes. The soonest it might return would be around 2065 when Gen Z will be as old as today's Boomers, and even that will only happen if the generation that starts being born in 2020 happens to be considerably smaller than Gen Z.”

“So how does a country deal with aging populations? The short version is “badly.”

Here’s the longer version:

Some Boomers—and their international peers—may work longer to supplement their savings, and that may well provide a few extra bits of capital to help the overall system adjust. More working years certainly help the financial calculus both from an individual and a government point of view. But there are limits. Worker productivity—and consequently, income—typically falls off after age sixty-four, and the American retirement age is already sixty-seven. Every bit helps, but most workers who choose (or are forced) to work longer are delving deeply into a world of diminishing returns.

What is needed is heavy research into technologies that improve the ability of the old to work, rather than the ability of the old to live.”

Excerpt From

The Accidental Superpower

Peter Zeihan

This material may be protected by copyright.”

There are lots of other excerpts that I found interesting but I won’t include them here.

I am going to continue my disjointed thoughts in another post because this might be long and because I just accidentally clicked the submit comment button.

The author of this book seems to be stressing how unbalanced demographics have led to the economic woes of the world and that got me thinking about what we are going through today.

If there are nefarious underlying reasons for the “Great Deception”, might the desire to create a mechanism to be used for balancing the generations be a reason for it?

In reading the book I was struck by the thought that what was being bemoaned was not so much that one generation was not numerous enough to pay for the needs of the following one so much as that there exists no way that these imbalances can be controlled.

Maybe that’s why they are creating a vaccine that has the potential to change the genetic makeup of people so that the numbers of those people can be manipulated to a degree.

Perhaps when the numbers of people who are retiring and start to consume more than they create a “switch” will be flipped that will sicken and perhaps eliminate enough of them to restore the balance.

Perhaps if too many children are being born to a particular generation a “switch” could be flipped to cause difficulties in conception. And then flipped back when more workers are projected to be needed.

My thoughts are not very refined about this yet but in light of the eugenic background of so many of the elites and the timing of all this I am really starting to think that they are planning on reducing drastically the “regular” people on earth to numbers that will allow them to have ample supplies of drones for the production of food, goods and services to ensure their comfortable survival. But also to create a new way to control or fine tune those numbers as they see fit in the future. ie the vaccine. Which I personally don’t believe any of the elites are taking in spite of the photo ops.

I know that I probably didn’t verbalize this very well but I hope I got the main idea across.

I hope that outliers like myself who will almost certainly be cut off from normal economic life because of our refusal to comply with the “recommendations” will be allowed to live out our lives as sort of societal lepers. I believe that I will be able to survive without the benefits of being part of everyday society if I am allowed to but I am not convinced that they will let that happen.

My only other hope, and yes I am starting to actually hope for it is that there is truly a great reset. A real one brought about by a coronal mass ejection that pulls the rug out from under the psychopathic planners. Or a visit from actual good ETs who come to enlighten mankind. (Not holding my breath for that one)

Or last but certainly not least, that we are truly entering into the “last days” that the Bible tells us about. A horrible, fearful time of great suffering that is only desirable because it signals the coming of if not a new beginning but at least the end of this intractable mess.

My apologies if the previous musings are only making sense in my head.

Another thought struck me a couple days ago about negative emotions and thoughts.

I wrote a comment the other day that was pretty negative. Not malicious or negative towards anyone but simply not positive or inspiring.

The thought struck me that negative thoughts are kind of like splinters. Eventually, after being stuck in your brain long enough, they get infected and have to be expelled. Once gone, the pressure is relieved and you feel better.

But then I realized that negative thoughts are not so much like splinters as much as they are like an abscessed tooth. You can get relief from relieving the pressure by expressing the thought. But unless you are able to get rid of what is causing the infection, the abscess returns along with the accompanying pressure and pain.

Still working on what conclusions to draw from all that.

Very astute observation. I have found that anger is actually a healthy emotion, but it is how it is directed that can make it effective or not.

Anger at what the controllers are attempting to do and resisting it in real-world ways can channel the anger effectively. Like how JC has done with his work, to teach and awaken humanity.

I appreciate you sharing these thoughts.

The population/demographic link to trends and economies is very interesting. Especially in light of how the younger generation is being trained.

Harry Dent

CORRECT PREDICTIONS

In the late 1980s, Dent forecast that the Japanese economy, then the darling of the world, would soon enter a slowdown that would last more than a decade. In the early 1990s, he predicted that the DJIA would reach 10,000. Both of these predictions were met with much skepticism, and yet both eventually came to pass.

In Japan, Dent was using their peak of 45- to 50-year-olds (1990–1994) as the beginning of a long slowdown. In the US, he used, and continues to use, the peak year for 48-year-olds, 2009, as the top of a long term growth pattern.

The basis of Dent’s investment thesis, spending wave theory, is that consumer spending related to the generational formation of families has a profound effect on the market value of investments such as financial securities, real estate, and gold. Dent’s spending wave theory posits that young adults spend little within the greater economy, and spending increases while they rear children. It peaks as children leave home and then slows during the last 15 years of working life (48-63). According to Dent, the decreased spending patterns of the current generation of US baby boomers entering retirement will cause a pronounced downturn in the greater macroeconomy and an associated decline in the value of financial markets. (Copied from Wikipedia)

Here, Harry Dent predicts that Stocks to crash 40% by April and won’t rebound for decades.

No “Coronal Mass Ejection” came to halt the steady displacement of the aborigines by the White Man, and no such miracle is going to halt this cataclysmic displacement of the Herd by the globalist trans-humans.

The cyclical displacement of one group by a technologically superior minority is simply a natural, inexorable economic process, pre-determined by the savage, brutal and merciless Laws of Nature. C’est la vie.

I think the situation in Europe after the great plague would be more descriptive of what's coming our way. The wave after wave of vaccinations along with 5g, gmo, Rx, is all going to greatly reduce the world population, not as fast as the Black Death did, but over thirty years or so we're going to see people leave and few to none coming back. These elites are eugenicists, they're moving forward and although I see some people getting wise to it, not nearly enough. People are getting these shots!

Do you think the typical devout, orthodox Jew doesn't think goyim are scum of the earth not worthy of protection from any deceptions and manipulations? My comment was directly responding to @mkey's reply about the Jewish controlled Twitter censoring the nurse's video.

I wrote facts. The Jews have programmed the minds of the goyim with their total control over mass media and education such that goyim are no longer capable of speaking or thinking the verboten facts about the Jewish.

When you can't even discuss how your enemy is enslaving you then this is epitome of the Stockholm Syndrome and total enslavement. What comes next is the usual genocide engineered behind curtain by our enemy.

Your holier-than-thou virtue signaling and white knighting against uncomfortable facts is the epitome of the mind programming that has been achieved by our Jewish overlords.

The Jews are taught by their religion that all other races and creeds of humans are not human but are instead beasts who are slaves to serve the Jews. I quoted their religious texts and their High Priests which clearly and unequivocally confirm this fact. No amount of wishing the world is not what it is, will help you. As the Jewish IRS Commissioner told Aaron Russo in Yiddish about there being no law that requires U.S. citizens to pay income tax, "nothing will help you."

"Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send [or bring] peace, but a sword." — Matthew 10:34 (Jesus' words)

Why are you viciously defending our mortal enemy? You are even insinuating that you speak for every goyim who reads the Corbett Report and insinuating that I should be banned from posting the truth here.

Exterminating the banksters wouldn't solve anything because new individuals would just spring into their role.

The goyim love to be debt slaves. The Jews view us as savages not their brothers, as their religious text clearly states.

I am an open book. I am happy to share every aspect of my life with you and everyone else. Including my financial situation. You familiarize yourself with my life and situation and judge it according to your experience and opinions we can educate everyone. You can show me how to become less of a slave. Sound like a deal?
 Because honestly, I have no idea how anything that you wrote pertains to me. I am certainly interested in how it does though. Where I replied to you my comment was addressed to the person you were replying to in context of your reply so I put my reply under your reply. Surely you could reason that my reply doesn't apply to you if it doesn't apply to you.

First of all, James, let me be the 1,537,298th to wish you a splendid vacation from your brilliant reportage and commentary on the maddening corona craziness and related world events. I would humbly suggest an alternative title to – “Our annum horribilis”. How about – “The Anus Trium Horribilis”: Gates, WHO, WEF. It occurred to me the 21st century version of King Midas would be William Henry Gates III, who, similar to Phrygian monarch, lives in an elegant 66,000 sq. foot mansion overlooking a beautiful lake with enough money to reach Saturn and back several times. However, Dionysus has granted Bill a wish without even having to ask: Everything the mendacious Microsoft mogul touches turns to shit; especially computer operating systems and vaccines.

On a recent post by Red Pill Germany on Bitchute, I see Japan has now closed its borders. The exception: returning residents or anyone who can prove they have a reason to land in Japan, then submit documentation (two recent negative Covid tests) they are not an ambulatory biological hazard, willing to subsequently quarantine themselves (at their own expense) for 14 days. E yōkoso Japan!

However, there are those like ex-Merck sales rep and outspoken Vioxx whistle blower, Brandy Vaughn, who will never see the Land of Cherry Blossoms. Cause of death according to the latest Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Dept. release, "...appears to be natural". Pending a toxicology report. The video she made prior to her accelerated natural death is reminiscent of what happened to Gary Webb:

Remember Tiffany Dover? The nurse at CHI Memorial Hospital in Chattanooga, Tennessee, who fainted during a live channel 3 broadcast? The Pfizer damage control squad is now on a full scale corporate media fake news shell game muddy-the-waters campaign following news that Tiffany, in spite of her subsequent claims to be perfectly OK, is now perfectly dead:

The internet is rife with claims and counter claims as to the veracity of the report. I suppose for a definitive answer one must find a way to run the NWO/Great Reset Covid PCR checkpoint gauntlet, arrive in Chattanooga, then talk friends and/or relatives.

Here in the Land of Smiles, no lockdown, but the masks are back up. The news coming down the pike is the recent terrifying revelation: there is a new strain of the virus. Even more deadly than the previous one which killed almost no one. With the exception of isolated seniors in rest homes dying of viral loneliness.

Wherever you find yourselves amidst this Covid craziness, I wish you peace and a semblance of sanity in the shaky shifty times to come. Namaste. "The answers are all out there. We just need to ask the right questions." Oscar Wilde

Armstrong made some astute and important observations in this recent private blog:

<https://www.armstrongeconomics.com/armstrongeconomics101/economics/private-blog-2020-into-the-abyss/>

1. The central banks tried to manipulate the free markets in the late 1920s thinking that democracy and the wealthy were "vulgar" and so they lowered interest rates in the U.S. to attempt to incentivize capital flows to return to Europe but this just caused capital to sniff that there was a rat and it poured in the U.S. causing massive financial contagion in Europe.

2. The elite are trying to do this again but also ramping up to totalitarianism [presumably to prevent the free market from acting independently although Armstrong did not make this point, it was only implied].

3. The main goal of the vaccines is to separate the sheep from those who the elite need to destroy because they refuse the vaccines. The vaccines also target fertility at least for the placenta in women if not also for men. [C.f. what expert virologist Wolfgang said:

<https://www.corbettreport.com/futurevaccines/> ]

4. The next major turning point in politics and markets is 2022.

Fauci admits to LYING about Covid-19 herd immunity threshold to manipulate public support for vaccine, moves goal post to 90%

"Dr. Anthony Fauci, the epidemiologist revered almost religiously as a hero by mainstream media outlets and Democrat politicians, has admitted that he lied to Americans to manipulate their acceptance of a new Covid-19 vaccine.

The intentional deception involved estimates for what percentage of the population will need to be immunized to achieve herd immunity against Covid-19 and enable a return to normalcy.

Earlier this year, Fauci said 60-70 percent – a typical range for such a virus – but he moved the goalposts to 70-75 percent in television interviews about a month ago. Last week, he told CNBC that the magic number would be around "75, 80, 85 percent."

When pressed on the moving target in a New York Times interview, Fauci said he purposely revised his estimates gradually. The newspaper, which posted the article on Thursday, said Fauci changed his answers partly based on "science" and partly on his hunch "that the country is finally ready to hear what he really thinks."

A couple of points I'd like to make, related to the most important issue at hand as I see it – What will it take to awaken the zombies?

1. Seeing as nothing else has worked thus far, perhaps this is worth a try? Notice how all of the sports stars, politicians, celebrities, etc. that have supposedly contracted corona flu have not caused the slightest sense of concern from the media that they may actually suffer some sort of long-term detrimental health problems, let alone death, from the infection? The only concern seems to be that they may be unavailable for work whilst they self-quarantine for a few weeks. No mention is even made of any attempt to treat the infection. So why do we have to avoid infection at all costs?

2. In theory, any vaccine is supposed to replicate the body's natural immune response. In no way is it expected to exceed the natural immune response, and I dare say it is not even meant to match it. It is merely meant to be a less effective alternative with the upside being that one need not tackle the target virus and risk losing, in order to gain immunity. With corona flu, they are trying to tell you that actually contracting it and winning, will not give you immunity (See Boris Johnson), therefore how on earth could a vaccine do anything at all to mitigate the effects of the supposed pandemic? So even if, as the zombies generally believe, the vaccine was completely harmless in regards to side effects, it has absolutely no positives whatsoever.

Yes that's illogical isn't it. A good plan would have been to shelter the elderly and fragile voluntarily and build herd immunity in the healthy. It might have been a month or so according to Dr. Witkowski. He did an interview with journeyman pictures in the beginning of the mess.

Thanks for the heads up on this. These are certainly sincere and bright people, trying to restore democracy, with a nice platform, etc. The main problem I see is that they are working within an utterly defunct system in which all of their proposals will fail because they do not address root issues: a fraudulent debt-based money system, the need to return to the rule of the Law of the Land, and the enormous fraud of the last 57 years since the fall of the republic. These fundamental flaws in the social contract have led to far too much genocide and cognitive deterioration to be remedied by mere tinkering. In these days of the totalitarian new normal covid globalist fraud, I am far more inclined to join a redneck guns and ammo party, the last holdouts keeping alive at least the dream of a republic. If they were even a faction in this so-called people's party, I'd give it more credence.

I used to really like “Democracy Now” with Amy Goodman and KPFA radio. But I started to notice topics they wouldn’t touch like 911. I think they get funding from the Ford Foundation. If peoplesparty gets funding from Ford Foundation or other organizations like that, like Open Society (Soros), I think they will influence content.

Unfortunately, I think the left has been highjacked by the elite funders to steer the message towards a neo-liberal agenda that if you examine it really is not about liberty or freedom but more control.

Libya

Human Rights Watch and Amnesty International corroborated fabricated claims that Qaddafi was going to massacre civilians in Benghazi. Democracy Now interviewed Juan Cole who had first fabricated the lie. He is not challenged for his lie, but is given free reign to repeat these untrue allegations.

Syria

Human Rights Watch and Amnesty International claim that the Syrian government used nerve gas on civilians in Damascus. This turned out to be a total fabrication. Democracy Now interviews Steven Clemons of The Atlantic who claims Israeli intelligence has proof it was done by the government. To pretend to be presenting both sides, Tariq Ali was invited to counter these claims. Tariq Ali is in full support of the US agenda to take down Syria and Iran.

Ukraine

Democracy Now reports that a separatist commander in Ukraine claims a Buk missile was fired by the rebels. A claim that was later proven false.

Of course, the overwhelmingly likely truth is that the “New strain” is merely this season’s flu (Likely to be dubbed COVID-20 or 21), but it is interesting that it came onto the scene at exactly the same time as the vaccine was rolled out. Could it be that the vaccine has created the new strain?

Also, the vaccine seems to lead to Auto-Immune issues in the body. Is there a supposed disease that is categorised by that very problem? AIDS? The Australian vaccine candidate was abandoned because of concerns over trial participants testing positive to AIDS. Hmmm...

In regards to how all this is going to play out, there is really no need to fear. Here are my thoughts:

The old world system is gone. There is no need to make any decisions based on how the old system worked. The one thing they are absolutely correct about is the new normal. The only thing is, that the new normal need not resemble THEIR new normal, it can be OUR new normal, but rest assured, there IS A new normal.

So worrying about things like money and job security is all pointless. In THIER new normal we’ll all be chipped drones with a UBI. In OURS there’ll be no need for money and jobs because the things that we need money and jobs for are abundant and ours already (food, water, shelter, community).

Unfortunately, there are too many zombies to honestly be hopeful that OUR new normal will prevail, so even then there is an amazing get out of jail free card, available to all of us – Natural death (not suicide). This physical life is just a speck in the grand scheme of things, and death is merely the waking up from a dream (perhaps nightmare at the moment). There will be many more dreams to come.

“In OURS there’ll be no need for money and jobs because the things that we need money and jobs for are abundant and ours already (food, water, shelter, community).”

Uuuuuh wut?

Food is not abundant. That’s why I have to wear a humiliating mask to get any. If they make the mRNA shot mandatory, I will starve in a matter of weeks. In what sense is food “abundant”?

Water. Same. I am completely dependent on the City infrastructure to deliver my (extremely expensive) water. It is also low-quality, forcing me to buy drinking water from the store. And again, to get that, I must debase and efface myself with a mask. If the City decides, as they very well can, to make the mRNA shot mandatory to receive any utilities, again, I will die of thirst not to mention crippled hygiene. How is water “abundant”?

Shelter. If I fail to work, to make enough money to pay my property taxes, the government will forcibly eject me. How is shelter “abundant”?

Community. Now this one is just ridiculous. There is no community. There is a mindless, evil horde of masked zombies. The only people I can communicate with are over the internet. If the City, corporations, or military decide to interrupt my internet connection, for failure to pay or any other reason, there goes even the last shadowy simulacrum of “community” that is available to me.

How on Earth is “community” abundant?

Now onto this nonsense about death being “waking up from a dream.” What’s your basis for this outlandish proposition? The fact is that death is just the end of your “speck”-like existence. Period. Simple. Perhaps the Apex Parasites’ greatest strength is that They understand and accept that brutal truth. Anything else is mental self-medication, and subscribing to such infantile fantasy is why you’re the prey, and They the predators.

Since you’re in a community here, let me offer this advice. Invest in a Berkey water filter. Or something similar. Collect whatever rain water you can from your house and use that for your drinking water. If you only use collected rain, no matter how dirty, the filters will last for years.

It will pay for itself quickly if you use lots of water.

I understand the perspective of disbelief and when I was much younger only believed that we were a random occurrence in the universe, that once we die that is it. But I can't prove this, and I know that there are many things I don't know or understand or see.

Why does matter exist at all? What created it? I'm not well versed in astrophysics but the big bang theory, if it is correct is a great mystery. What was before the big bang? I don't think anyone knows the answer to these questions, thus there may be something else when a life form dies that we do not see or know. It's a mystery.

Log in to Reply

- Fact Checker says:
12/31/2020 at 12:12 am

The origin of matter is completely irrelevant to the question of whether there is an "afterlife." Reference to one mystery in no way implies there's a "mystery" in the other. (We logicians call your unannounced change-in-topic a non sequitur or whataboutism.)

There is simply no "mystery" about the "afterlife question." It's a facile delusion born of wishful thinking, that allows people to put aside their existential dread so as to function in this nightmarish material realm without "going fetal." The "afterlife" is a bald, positive assertion that does not solve any mystery. In fact, all it does is raise an infinite number of questions, much like the concept of "God" does not explain anything, but only raises more questions due to its arbitrariness. But I'll give "God" Its due: "God," unlike "afterlife," is at least aimed at solving the bona fide mystery of where stuff came from.

"Afterlife," on the other hand, is an unwarranted, desperate means of coping with the objective, empirical reality of human mortality. Rather than attempting to explain some phenomenon that is not understood, it instead tries explain away a phenomenon that is fully understood, and in fact to contradict empirical observation. ("Oh don't worry about that rotting-in-the-ground thing! Your GHOST will be eating peeled grapes on a cloud!")

Again, part of the strength of the "Elites" (Apex Parasites) is that they have the fortitude to accept reality. They are not content to say, "I will just endure this life—things will be made right in the Afterlife." Instead, They have labored for generations to solve the problems of scarcity and mortality (for Themselves). This resolve and cohesion on the Elites' part come from Their unflinching acknowledgement of the unforgiving nature of our cold, brutal, apathetic Universe. That character is largely what separates Them from the goyim.

For Fact Checker

I was thinking that you might appreciate this essay.

<https://www.stevpavlina.com/blog/2005/12/spirituality-vs-intelligence/>

A few excerpts.

“In terms of the question of intelligence vs. spirituality, the problem arises from the perceived sense of conflict between these two supposed opposites. This perception prevents us from trusting and following either side far enough. We’ll only go so far down one side or the other before flipping back to the other side. We have our intellectual pursuits and our spiritual pursuits, and never the twain shall meet.”

“Few things will change your results in life so dramatically as a shift in your spiritual beliefs. Yet this type of optimization requires the utmost intelligence. It is not a fanciful spree through the grassy hills of Woo Woo Land.

Get curious about your most sacred beliefs. Ask questions. Is there a God? If there is then what is its nature? Is there an afterlife, and if so, what might it be like? Are psychic experiences possible, and if so, how do they occur?”

“Never assume that your operating system is finally bug-free and optimal. Upgrading is a lifelong process, and sometimes in order to achieve performance gains, you have to go back and refactor old code that you once considered beyond reproach.”

“You may fool all your peers into thinking that you are a victim of the world, but you will not fool me. You and I are fully responsible for what we contribute to the world, either directly or indirectly. You can give up control, but you can never give up responsibility. At any time you are faced with the choice between living in denial and ignoring information, or living consciously and summoning the courage to act for the highest good of all. If you have not yet deliberately chosen the latter, then you have chosen the former. But it’s never too late to change your mind.”

- RedPill4Me says:

It is not my intention to turn this into a religious debate/discussion or to antagonize anyone. I agree with Steve Smith’s comment below that just because you can’t/don’t see something doesn’t mean it doesn’t exist. I wish to expand on that while responding to your request for proof from any man of God and an afterlife.

No man can prove God or an afterlife to another man. God proves those things to a man who seeks Him with his whole heart. Men who seek Him wholeheartedly become/are Witnesses for God.

Demons are witnesses too. Do you honestly believe because you are alone in a room that there is nothing with you? Just because you don’t/can’t see them doesn’t mean they aren’t present. I will witness that I have seen them several times and also know they are around by other means. Why are they around? They witness the good and bad and are waiting for any opportunity.

Eph 6:12 is an example.

You may ponder thoughts and questions to God without saying a word out loud. However, the confession of sins, asking forgiveness and accepting Jesus (by stating you believe He came in the flesh, died for your sins, rose on the third day and lives forevermore) must be spoken with your mouth even if there is no one else with you.

Rom 10:10 is an example.

If God knows every man’s heart then there must be a reason for the necessity to state these things aloud.

You may not be a believer. I wasn’t always a believer. I will bear witness to these things and say that my statements are true. I am in no way try to cause an argument or push a religious agenda. I only want to give you my account as a witness to contemplate things unseen and proof of God.

Peace and Grace.

Homo Sapiens will be able to use their large highly developed brain to exploit food and resources out of Homo Vaxiens. In fact they might even make good pets or slaves. I think the mRNA vaccine would probably be more likely to cause autoimmune issues in susceptible people since it supposedly causes a marked immune response. This is one of the reasons I would avoid it personally because of my history of autoimmune disease in my family in addition to the fact that I don't need it.

I think this is like another flu vaccine scam, the new strain, and new vaccine and lots of money for pharma and they get to test weird shit on the public without compensation.

As far as actual new strains, I haven't heard of it in my area. I work in a hospital in CA. We do get Covid patients, some are quite ill and require hospitalization. It's a little different from the flu, but virulence wise, I would compare it to influenza b that has also killed healthy people.

Fact Checker:

Almost all of the points you raise relate to THEIR new normal, not OURS. You need to rethink your position I think. If THEY get THEIR way then of course the abundance I speak of will not come to fruition. However, THEY will give everyone a Universal Basic Income and you won't starve. You'll just be a slave with absolutely no self determination or decision making ability whatsoever. If that's what you want, go for it.

I don't want that and will not be submitting NO MATTER WHAT! If that means I starve to death, so be it. I'm prepared and like I said, death is no biggie. We all die eventually. Live free or die trying. That's what I'll be doing.

As far as abundance goes. Water rains from the sky – collect it. Land has been here since the beginning of time and everyone fits. Food grows in the ground – Grow as much as you like. People are everywhere and many of them are just like you. There's actually a whole bunch of us communicating with each other right now on The Corbett Report comments page. Are any of these easily verifiable facts, in dispute?

“If that means I starve to death, so be it.”

Fair enough. Because with infantile thinking like this: “Water rains from the sky – collect it. Land has been here since the beginning of time and everyone fits. Food grows in the ground – Grow as much as you like.”

...starving is exactly what will happen.

If things were as easy as you fatuously imagine, all stores, farms, restaurants, and utilities would have gone out of business immediately because, like—everyone can just collect their own rainwater and grow their own subsistence rutabagas!

And regarding my fellow Corbetteers... maybe they're real, but frankly, I can't be sure! That's the beauty of the atomized, isolated virtual cage we're all locked in! I sure know I won't bank on my good buddy “AB” to supply me with crucial chorine to treat my tin pot of collected Los Angeles rainwater! (Incidentally, I'm hoping to fill the pot in about four years, given L.A. rain patterns. That's assuming we'll have an El Nino system within the next year. And also...rainwater doesn't evaporate...right?)

Try to enjoy the moment at hand instead of catastrophizing about the future. Things can certainly be grim and I feel similarly pessimistic at times, but right now at this moment, my life is fine. I am healthy, warm, well-fed, and feel pretty good. If I only look at how bad things might come to be, I squander the moment I have now.

I have noticed some members on these comment boards are very smart and think a whole lot and sometimes that is a weakness. It's good to get out of your head and into the moment now.

With a good water filter you definitely don't need to add chlorine. Quit your whining and get busy. Even doing one little thing towards being more self sufficient and independent will make you feel better.

Get a damn rain barrel and a Berkey water filter. Get a little indoor growing system and start producing some micro greens. DO SOMETHING!

Bitching and moaning about your helplessness is the surest way to remain helpless.

I have deliberated on functionality of Berkey filters and have reached the conclusion that they are a vastly overpriced product. All said and done, that's just a carbon filter.

Here is an example of an inexpensive and quite natural water filtration installation. Of course, this would be a good solution for a large family or a small community, even if this method should be scalable.

<https://www.aqsolutions.org/charcoal-biochar-water-treatment/>

A lot depends on what kind of water one hopes to filter. For rainwater or maybe water coming from a pond or a creek, berkey could be a good but still overpriced solution and would require a strainer to keep the crud out as to lessen the maintenance.

If one plans to filter the water coming from the faucet, berkey alone IMO will not cut it since, depending on one's area, there can be quite a lot of pollutants in the water in form of metals and chemicals.

I agree. Berkey won't cut it.

My degree is in the Environmental Sciences, and part of those studies involved Hydrology and Municipal Water Treatment for waste water and drinking water — I have toured both types of facilities.

Mkey's link gives a good simple overview of the basic tech used in municipal drinking water treatment, although there are also other methods used in the municipal setting.

Example: Alum (aluminum sulfate) is used as coagulant/flocculation in raw water, which drops out the muddy stuff at the get-go. It is quite amazing to see massive quantities of muddy water entering the flocculation tower and come out clear like a swimming pool.

Home water filtration gets tricky, even with reverse osmosis systems. Example: The storage reservoir can harbor and grow microbes, eventually leading to gut issues with odd flora.

Some folks recommend distilled water, but be sure to take minerals. Actually, minerals need to be taken with most highly filtered water.

“Water Futures” are now being traded on the exchanges like other commodities. (Go figure on that one.)

~WWW zerohedge.com/commodities/wall-street-gears-trade-water-futures-scarcity-fears-surge

Robert Bowcock (assistant to Erin Brockovich) often cites (GAC) Granulated Activated Carbon as a relatively cheap, easy, and fast method to help have cleaner drinking water for municipal applications.

Erin Brockovich has long studied the drinking water issue. Her website might offer some insights for home water treatment.

Scroll down just a bit on this webpage, and you will see more on Bowcock, Brockovich and water filtration.

I have been using mine for about fifteen years now. I replaced the two filters once but didn't really need to so I saved them for future use.

I can't remember what I paid for mine but I know that it has paid for itself many times over.

While it is probably better not to fill the unit with muddy water. There is no problem with doing so. Just have to wash the surface of the filters more often.

If you do use the system for city water, the filters won't last nearly as long as they would using only rain or run off water. The city water has too many chemicals.

I am sure that there are less expensive alternatives though. Any of which would be better than buying bottled water or drinking the poison that comes through the pipes.

Reverse osmosis is energy intensive and requites adding minerals to the water as it produces dstilled water. Other than that, that's a sure way to get crap (along with everything else) out of the water.

Here's what I initially wrote on Dec 23 in my Telegram group in response to the person who initially made the claim that the Jews are the masterminds of all the collectivized evil in the world including 100s of millions of goyim they've intentionally genocided via their cultivation of Communism in the Soviet Union, China and Cambodia:

“Adam even before analyzing your claims, I at least concur strong likelihood:

1. There are psychopath overlords.
2. There are iatrogenic medications.
3. Perhaps Judaism is culturally conducive to rationalized genocide.

Now to go from there to concluding that Judaism is the only root cause of the blight of human civilization is probably not going to hold up. For example, don't sheep have any culpability for their decision to remain sheep? Would you propose we attempt to genocide Jews as a “final solution”?

Also on the subject of causation of disease, I think the corruption is in enumerating specific causes and thus enabling the government to dictate specific treatments and vaccines. I can leave open the strong possibility of communicability of diseases and still reject the junk science (lacking falsifiability) that claims to know the causative agents of communicable disease.b>”

I was swayed by the overwhelming evidence presented, only some of which I have re-posted on this comments section.

I followed up with:

“The Byzantine Empire solution was not successful at all, and it was actually a scheme to steal assets from pagans under the virtue signaling of Christianity. And all it accomplished was to give Jews a monopoly on usury in Europe.

<https://www.armstrongeconomics.com/world-news/religion/anti-semitism-christianity-confiscating-assets-banking-conspiracies-capitalism/>

My thesis is you can not outlaw usury, nor can you outlaw Jews. Nature will not allow such Coasian barriers. Nature disintermediates Coasian barriers. Byzantine Empire fell and waiting in the wings was a Jewish banking and merchant class monopoly or at least dominance in Europe. The Byzantine Empire made the outcome arguably worse if anything.

The capture of the power vacuum of civilization is an insoluble demand that will always be fulfilled by the power of psychopaths.

This is why we are told in the Bible that there is no solution until Jesus returns. We should not wish for a solution in this sordid earthly life.

I try to work on a technological solution but even if it provides some relief I don't expect it to entirely eliminate what I wrote above. It is what it is.

My view is the Lord put Judaism here on purpose to tempt the goyim into usury and disobeying 1 Samuel 8. To test who are his people. To give people their free will to destroy themselves. The Jews are thus a part of the divine plan.

What I mean by simpleton is not that your research is not extensive because it appears to be extensive. James A. Donald of the recently defunct blog.jim.com wanted to restore Victorian England as if that was sustainable when it wasn't sustainable. The Lord (or nature) apparently doesn't want to allow a Coasian barrier against usury to stand sustainably. Because the people must be allowed their free will. Without individual free will there can be no distinguishing those who held the faith and are worthy of the everlasting life.”

As I explained in my reply to Steve Smith, you're ostensibly so proud of the cognitive dissonance which has been planted into your brain by the Jewish control over all mass media and education.

Steve Smith you want facts?

Yeah buddy, I want facts. I have been aware of the information that you seem to be under the impression that you are enlightening me with for years.
You think that you can wield the word “slave” like a weapon against people you don’t know and then post a bunch of crap like that?

I want specific information about how you think that a old fellow like me who treats everyone as individuals and judges them by the way they treat me and others classifies as a slave to the Jewish religion. Or is it the Jewish race?

See, the thing is that I could talk to another small minded person and they might tell me that I have to fear “the blacks”. Or “the Muslims”, or “the white patriarchy”

They are just as full of shit and blinded to reality as you are. Because the reality is that authoritarians, whatever race, religion, color or nationality they might be are the only people who I have a problem with. And while I might be considered a slave in that I choose to relinquish the money they steal from me without too much of a fight in order to avoid jail. I don’t think that I really am because I resist to the extent possible.

But you sir may very well be enslaved by your inability to accept people on an individual level. You may be enslaved by your fear of a religion that in all probability never impacts your life.

You are perhaps enslaved by your narcissistic habit of thinking that you are in a moral position to decide what group of people might do with being “eliminated” as if you speak for God.

You are a typical narrow minded bigot who hopefully will grow up someday and realize how childish your philosophy of hatred is.

Steve I for most of my life rejected the notion that the Jews could be behind all the collectivized evil in the world until the overwhelming evidence was presented to me, including “crypto-jews” (e.g. Fauci and Gates) who deceive the public about their adherence to the evil principles of the Talmud which I have cited in my comments on this page. Someone had tried to present this information to me circa ~2011 but I rejected the claim that the Jewish Holocaust was fiction. Now my Stock Syndrome mind programming is melting away and I’m attempting to free myself from self-sustained, self-flagellation slavery.

C.f. my reply to @HomeRemedySupply. If you can’t identify your enemy then you’re destined to remain a slave. And as the Jewish former IRS Commissioner spoke in Yiddish to Aaron Russo (who was born Jewish but obviously rejected the Talmud) about the unconstitutionality of the U.S. income tax, “gornisht vet helfn ir.” (“nothing will help you”)

You’re so proud of the cognitive dissonance which has been planted into your brain by the Jewish control over all mass media and education. I’ll quote from one of my prior comments:

“We must realize that our party’s most powerful weapon is racial tensions. By propounding into the consciousness of the dark races that for centuries they have been oppressed by whites, we can mold them to the program of the Communist Party. In America we will aim for subtle victory. While inflaming the Negro minority against the whites, we will endeavor to instill in the whites a guilt complex for their exploitation of the Negroes. We will aid the Negroes to rise in prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige, the Negro will be able to intermarry with the whites and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause.”

Israel Cohen, A Racial Program for the Twentieth Century, 1912. Also in the Congressional Record, Vol. 103, p. 8559, June 7, 1957”

You’re even regurgitating the political correct, memebot weasel words they have programmed into your mind such as ‘bigot’. The Talmud requires the Jews to hate goyim yet you accuse your woke goyim, savior messenger brethren of hating when in fact Christianity doesn’t instruct us to hate Jews. Identifying and purging the enemy from our lives is not equivalent to hate. I don’t want to enslave the Jews even though they’ve enslaved us.

P.S. Why do you ostensibly refuse to reply in context to the prior comments and instead place your replies disjointly at the bottom of the comments section?

Dear Junior Mint,

If you had expressed yourself in that way when you decided to stir up this nonsense then I would not have bothered to waste my time responding at all.

But you didn't. Instead you began with this sentiment ;

“ And so now we are entirely enslaved by the Jews who have been angry at Jesus ever since they crucified him.

Jews are inherently evil and perhaps the only solution is they must be exterminated?”

You can call that whatever you want but in my book, that's kinda hateful.

You owe an apology to those fellow Corbett Report friends who have been there, seen it all before and have moved on to more productive things.

Look, I know that you feel like you have been given a special understanding that the rest of us mortals don't understand. Trust me, every true religionist of every stripe goes through it. Bible thumpers, Hari Krishnas, flat earthers.

You'll grow out of it if you're an intelligent person and you haven't stopped learning.

When I was a kid roaming the streets of Monterey turning into a horrible little misfit. Me and another 13 year old buddy got our asses kicked by the owner of a local liquor store because we were unfairly treating a slightly mentally retarded peer.

I learned a couple of valuable lessons that day. One is pretty obvious. Don't Be A Dick!

But I also learned that someone needs to be the one to tell a friend that they are being an asshole.

Now I figure that its up to you to decide whether being a friend is worth swallowing your pride and doing the right thing. Cause you buddy are being an asshole.

Therefore if the uncircumcision (gentiles) keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

One question, are you circumcised? I don't care about your personal answer, but if you take a look around there's a whole lotta doctor's and hospitallier's that got a whole lotta circumcision goin' on. And guess where that foreskin and blood goes? And guess how that child is traumatized? There are those that call themselves Jews that are not. And J was not a letter until the 1600's. You see that's why Immanuel came to us, to do away with religion and the traditions of men. “The outwardly” which is of the wrong tree, He came to fulfill the promise and reconcile the spirit man with the Father, by making the ultimate sacrifice. The fake Israel is a creation of man. What we think we know is only a drop in the ocean of lies, play actors and bloodline sorcery. The whole conspiracy hobbyist scenario was set up so people would feel hopeless year in and year out with unresolved scenarios and trauma. Millions and millions have been made off these sink holes. Everything is a distraction for the Reset, so the Lords and Peers in the House will be doin' a few jigs! The Crown is Corona and Covid19 is a registered corporation. That's why you keep hearing about all the fake money transfers, the real one's comin'. That's why all these hospital administrators are playing death for dollars. Big money, maybe waste management will be a booming investment. Sorry, Gates beat you to it! and he's just a widdle pastel bag boy for the Serpent kings.

And no group of people has more value than another regardless of what particular religion or spiritual practice they have. It is how we treat others that matters. No one is more worthy because they were born a certain race or were born into a religion and culture.

If there is one takeaway from the bible that I have tried to internalize that may be the new testament is “do unto others as you would have them do unto you.”

It is wrong to hate and condemn groups of people based on the actions of a few (or even many). It would be wrong to hate and condemn the descendants of Gates just because they were of his bloodline since they are individuals who may do acts of good and are capable of doing good.

I like the passage you posted because I think that it says something to the same effect.

“We must all become spiritual Jews.”

Or said another way, “You must be born again.” Because once you are, you are complete and can’t be “unborn”. Contrary to the protestant and catholic gospel, salvation is not a lifelong process. You are a new creation, acceptable, loved and cherished forevermore.

“There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus.” Romans 8:1

Nice to see the CR tag team is out and about. Thanks Steve. The above scripture that you wrote is not A scripture. You wrote KJV Romans 2:17 then left out v18-24 then wrote Romans 2:25-26 Then you skipped v.27 and went to the first 10 words of verse 28 left out the rest of v28, then went to v29 and skipped the first 9 words of the scripture and used the rest.

Firstly lets reason together and recognize, the word jew is weaponized beyond redemption, if you want to introduce chaos where someone will be murdered in spirit, just say that word. The attack is on, and being mind controlled most people don’t even understand why nor do they care. Ask someone what is a jew and see the look in their eyes. Look in the mirror. See how the father of lies introduces complete confusion. Ignorance and blindness is the fruit from the wrong tree. The word circumcision you quoted in verse 25 is from the Greek, and is the diabolical ritual of physical circumcision. And men have walked around ritually mutilated and are completely blind to their assault. Traditions of men. We would all do well to read the entire Chapter 2 of Romans. The basic instructions before leaving earth are there. The words are not to be thrown around carelessly, but handled with care. I saw you were curious about the evolution big bang narrative, so introduced you to the originator the prominent Jesuit Priest Pierre Tiellhard du Chardin. The Roots come before the branches.
Have a blessed New Year.

I think this is a really important piece of journalism from James.

Most of my family is rushing to get this vaccine and I've shared this content with them.

I know in my heart what The Illuminati are up to, but James builds a bridge that can allow people who are in “the matrix” to potentially wake up. And it is an awakening.

I've been told so many times over the last decade that that term is insulting, etc.

Unfortunately “the asleep” act and behave like intelligent “normal” people, but they are completely mind-controlled and believe in authority.

I think that in 2021 half of the population will be killed by these vaccines. I hope I am wrong and that I can at least save a few loved ones, even though they seem to resent everything I try to do.

In peace,

Maybe it's time to move on from last spring, don't you think?

The information on manufactured products put into syringes and injected, had no basis in truth when considering the actual history of Jenner's lies in depth.

The word Vaccines Vacca=cow Cines=many is simply a cloak for a weaponized injection. V is a superstitious myth that trillions of dollars have been made on. period. end of story. virology is psuedo science created for the sting Ask the premier virologist in the world who will not even classify as one Stefan Lanka, who proved measles virus does not exist. All the information will be gone. But that's okay, you'll still have your idols and celebrity actors, running the con on your unsuspecting minds.

The only time I heard the v word repeated so many times was in the last v report, here. Repetition, like a jack hammer with a theatrical cadence. What I heard was a scripted newsy piece, variety show, that missed the root again entirely, in fact the history intro sounded like a cut and paste from the last one. One word did linger after, as prescribed. That's okay, telling the real truth and exposing the roots is not allowed in this world. It can be dangerous. All the minions suddenly appear!

Voice scripted kind of like Orson Wells. No depth to Jenner's fraud, Pasteur's fraud or the fraud around smallpox. Sorry, I'm just not interested much on castles built on sand. Dawn Lester and David Parker did over 10 yrs and 800 pages of in depth study, in this area which was released in 2019 and spoken of many times in this thread by many people. Now that castle was built on a rock complete with mote, and a gift to mankind for such a time as this.

Do you have it? What really makes you ill? is the name, based on a famous quote by Voltaire; Doctors are men who prescribe medicines of which they know little, to cure diseases of which they know less, in human beings of whom they know nothing”

Regarding the posting of Gemma, she is a friend of Amazing Polly we are trying to get this out to other sites as it is crucial.

By the way that was not Gemma speaking outside, it was one of her colleagues.

Gemma also has her own website. She was recently arrested (kidnapped) and released for putting information out to the Irish people and posting a large sign about the lying virus and depopulation agenda.

The "Vaccine Research Center" at Dr. Fauci's NIAID | NIH

Dr. Barney S Graham, Deputy Director of the "Vaccine Research Center" gives a presentation which walks a person through the development of the Covid vaccine. He cites the "spike protein" which Dr. Fauci had mentioned in the Bloomberg YouTube video.

It is worth noting how these different agencies and companies create designer strains of viruses, and also other genetically designed biological material.

Around the 54 minute mark of this video presentation by Dr. Barney Graham, he briefly discusses the delivery of the m-RNA into the cell.

not about vaccines (cow based cures), but small slice of current state of rona:

"BEAST EATS CAKE"

Byron bay, Australia, green, towns right on the beaches, stunning subtropic rain-forested mountains, ridges, creeks.. its a tourist hot spot with extreme gentrification econocide bubble in process, + the population has doubly soared due to refugees from urban heavy handed lock-downs (covid restrictions have been nearly nil here). Our weekly drumming circle of friends (a 30+yr old tradition) has suddenly become a happening: 6,8,14,20 drummers playing to a few dancers in the park by the beach sunday afternoon, everyone happy, spirits rising,, then as it becomes 5,6,7pm (still light out but), and now the fun has attracted a couple hundred; the drummers double, the dancers become 20 or 30 but most of the crowd is sitting talking, listening to the drumming (it can be pretty decent drumming, at least half are pro's,,so its kind-of a free concert),, everybody's happy, a few wild grifty ferrals are cause for mild attentiveness otherwise the vibe is peaceful but vibrant: we are making resonance. In my book thats aligning with natural law.

But then, comes the police. They want us to “disperse due to covid regs: maximum 100 people per gathering without permit or covid plan” (ffs); we try to talk respectfully with them to understand why we cant have good clean fun, happiness for the betterment of immunity, but they're way too brain washed to admit the hypocrisy of the fact that 200m away the pub is going full noise with twice the numbers of people, in much closer proximity, all getting on the piss, which is sadly about domination,,

After 20mins of attending to their suppositions and misinformation, it became clear that they had no ability to begin to process the truth being presented. several cops went from a considered thread of discourse to suddenly looking away or walking away from me. as if they were ALMOST gonna face the unjust order they'd been given to enforce, but chose denial instead. They are under oath to disobey an unjust order. So because they are too weak to admit that scale of deception, they dig themselves in deeper and deeper.

This lockdown nonsense keeps skulking along. I could have pressed on with calm verbal deconstruction, but even my diplomatic efforts were not enough to keep the demonic from beginning to flare. Next came 3 paddy wagons 6 cars 12 or was it 15 cops vs a crowd of 150ish. Big hira-soldiers, they were keen for a fight, and they had lotsa weaponry.

fucking cowards.

We dispersed slowly, reluctantly, and another piece of the cake which we call culture, or “inalienable pursuit of happiness” was eaten by the beast..

The Big Lie about Asymptomatic Transmission of SARS-CoV-2 by Jeremy Hammond

<https://www.jeremyhammond.com/2020/12/15/the-big-lie-about-asymptomatic-transmission-of-sars-cov-2/>

In this article Jeremy Hammond goes into the reference provided by the CDC regarding the claim that asymptomatic spread is responsible for approximately 50% of transmission. The reference is a modeling study from the PNAS journal called The implications of silent transmission for the control of COVID-19 outbreaks

<https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pmc/articles/PMC7395516/>

The modeling study did not conclude that 50% of transmission was from asymptomatic individuals. It concluded just 3.4 percent, assuming that 17.9 percent of infections are asymptomatic, or 6.6 percent, assuming that 30.8 percent of people who are infected never develop symptoms. Yet this misinformation was widely reported by the MSM WITH fact checkers supporting it.

COVID19 plan is not pertaining to a virus – but instead has to do with particles – more specifically, nano technology particles, in which thousands of types of either a bacteria, a fungus, a virus, a parasitical, a demonic, a pathos, and many more of these types of things is downloaded into the nano technology. The nano technology is given through geoengineering, via rainfall and snow, and even may be given during testing for coronavirus. The hydrogel is put into tomatoes and tomato products, and can get into humans via rainfall and snow, and geoengineering (don't know if this list is exhaustive). The hydrogel will skull out a person, and the person will be susceptible to demonic entities as well as deteriorate while the hydrogel grows within that person and will take that person over.

This is all according to Celeste Solum (she would explain it much better as well as clarify it better) TheCelestialReport.

As of January 1, 2021 (Agenda 21) all food even if it looks organic or real will be synthesized. According to the World Economic Forum – they state ‘no nature’ for food.

This is not new on this comments board but I thought this conversation in the comments section of a Science Translational Medicine in reaction to an article entitled “Antibody-Dependent Enhancement” by Derek Lowe published on December 18th, 2020 was very, very interesting:

Moran says:

Very interesting post. However, it does not seem to discuss the worry that the vaccine induced neutralizing antibodies might induce ADE when their titre goes down over time (i.e., after a few months or years). I wonder whether there is any evidence regarding the possibility of such a scenario.

Reply

Calvin says:

18 December, 2020 at 3:54 pm

Derek, great post. In all of this ADE of some flavor is the one thing that still worries me a little.

A couple of points about Dengue. We have no idea how long it takes each individual to develop antibodies such that they will have ADE. It is generally believed that it takes months to years, so the effect is not immediate unlike other viruses like RSV or Ebola. But break-bone fever (the second infection) is almost certainly caused by ADE.

This was graphically demonstrated by Sanofi’s vaccine [Dengvaxia] where it took around 18-24 months for the ADE to show up (it was completely absent preclinically). The hypothesis is that there is some B cell maturation process that goes on and so the effect takes some time.

**The Sanofi vaccine primed the immune system and they saw ADE on subsequent infection.*****

The interesting part is that it does not show such effects for those who were seropositive at immunization. So a prior infection does not lead to ADE when you are immunized.

The effect in Dengue is extremely well lived. Those that were infected in Cuba in the 70s had severe Dengue when Dengue re-emerged a few years back. So it is a lasting effect.

And just to add to this, dengue antibodies are definitely cross reactive to zika (and so presumably Chikungunya also) so you can see, preclinical at least, ADE between different viral infections of the same overall family. A real hornets nest.

I think we’ll just have to cross our fingers a bit that we don’t see this with the COVID-19 vaccines. It would be a bit of a disaster.....

Pablo says:

19 December, 2020 at 6:42 am

“It would be a bit of a disaster.....”

wouldn’t repeated boosters be the solution?...”

How to bring a population to its knees: life-or-death dependency to “repeated boosters”?

Is this the kind of medical ADE the pharmaceutical industry plans to bring to the world?

Just a follow-up post documenting my meagre attempt at understanding this issue of Disease Enhancement due to Pathogenic Priming – Antibody Dependent Enhancement through this article about the Sanofi-Pasteur Dengvaxia Scandal in the Philippines:

<https://www.sciencemag.org/news/2019/04/dengue-vaccine-fiasco-leads-criminal-charges-researcher-philippines>

“...The Philippine FDA greenlighted the vaccine [Dengvaxia] in December 2015, based on research funded by Sanofi Pasteur in which Capeding played an important role. For example, she was the first author on a 2014 paper in The Lancet detailing a study among more than 10,000 children in five Asian countries that showed Dengvaxia worked and had a good safety profile. In April 2016, the Philippine government launched a $67 million public school–based immunization program for Dengvaxia...”

That alarmed some scientists, because the dengue virus is peculiar: A first infection is rarely fatal, but a second one with a different virus type can lead to much more serious disease, because of what is called antibody-dependent enhancement (ADE), in which the immune response to the first virus amplifies the effect of the second type. Scott Halstead, a retired dengue expert formerly at the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences in Bethesda, Maryland, argued that dengue vaccines could have the same effect, and warned that Dengvaxia should not be given to children never infected with dengue.

But a vaccine panel at the World Health Organization (WHO) concluded in 2016 that Dengvaxia was safe for children aged 9 and older...”

Halstead says the trials Capeding helped conduct were not well designed; if the researchers had looked separately at outcomes for children who did and didn’t have dengue before the shot, they would have identified the ADE risk, he says. He notes that Sanofi and WHO committees designed the trials, however, not Capeding.

The Sanofi and WHO committees may’ve designed the trials, nevertheless:

“...On February 21, 2018 Senator Richard Gordon said that the DOH must be liable for the controversy.[37] On March 13, Senator Gordon formally terminated the investigation of the controversy.[38]

The retrospective whitewashing wikipedia article dedicated to this scandal (who oddly doesn’t mention Capeding at all, hmmm?) admits that:

“...700,000 individuals received at least one dose of the vaccine...As of August 2019, over 600 people (mostly children) that had received at least a single dose of the vaccine had died...”

It would seem that the number of deaths might have been significantly higher but

” On February 2, 2018, the University of the Philippines-Philippine General Hospital (UP-PGH) issued a report stating that three out of 14 children who died after receiving Dengvaxia indicated “dengue” despite immunization.[34] On February 3, a group of doctors, including former health secretary Esperanza Cabral, urged the Public Attorney’s Office (PAO) to stop conducting autopsies.[35]

The good news is:

“...In 2018 Dengvaxia was approved in Europe[43] and USA in 2019.[44]...”

New Year’s Eve Calvinistic contemplation of vaccine-induced antigenic cross-reactivity, ADE and Original Antigenic Sin

On December 18, 2020 at 3:54 pm Calvin said:

“...And just to add to this, dengue antibodies are definitely cross reactive to zika (and so presumably Chikungunya also) so you can see, preclinical at least, ADE between different viral infections of the same overall family. A real hornets nest...”

In 2018 Shawn Smallman cited:

“...Zika was first discovered at the Foundation-supported Virus Research Institute in Entebbe, Uganda in 1947, and a sample of the virus was given to ATCC (a nonprofit organization that authenticates and preserves microorganisms for research) by J. Casals of The Rockefeller Foundation in 1953...”

On AUGUST 27, 2020 Kara Mankel wrote:

“...In a new study, the research team reports that children who have antibodies to the Zika virus are more susceptible to getting sick with dengue...findings confirm earlier suspicions that some antibodies to the Zika virus, which usually serve to protect the body from infection, may actually interact with dengue viruses in ways that can make dengue infection worse. This interaction, known as antibody-dependent enhancement, could make it harder for researchers to design a safe and effective vaccine that protects against Zika without also increasing the risk of dengue...

...This research was funded by ... the Pediatric Dengue Vaccine Initiative grant VE-1 and FIRST grant, both from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation..."

On May 22, 2020 Vinu Arumugham stated:

"COVID-19 immune response may not be unique. It looks similar to dengue secondary infection response...There are many common observations between COVID-19 and dengue. Elevated levels of ferritin, interleukin-6 (IL-6), vascular endothelial growth factor (VEGF), D-dimer, coagulopathy, urticaria and ARDS are reported in both diseases..."

In 2013 Suzanne Humphries explained:

"Original Antigenic Sin Committed by Vaccination...In natural immunity, the body reacts very strongly to ACT, but because of original antigenic sin and the absence of ACT in the vaccine, the vaccinated are not programmed to respond to it at all. Vaccines do not boost antibody to this toxin, because as of yet, nobody has figured how to put that antigen into the vaccine..."

05 June 2020 Walter Fierzl* and Brigitte Walz2 warned:

Antibody Dependent Enhancement Due to Original Antigenic Sin and the Development of SARS...due to cross-reaction to related coronavirus strains from earlier infections, the patient's viral history of coronavirus infection might be crucial to the severity of the course of the current infection with SARS-CoV-2, a phenomenon that has been called in the context of influenza infections "original antigenic sin."

Calvin concluded:

"...I think we'll just have to cross our fingers a bit that we don't see this with the COVID-19 vaccines. It would be a bit of a disaster."

Thank you very much for this video and all your previous videos on Covid-1984. I think you first mentioned it back in February, but of course you had already warned about Medical Martial Law in previous videos. Because of your work and that of others like Media Monarchy, Last American Vagabond, and Conscious Resistance, my reaction to the official virus story is not the same as it was to the official terrorist story back in 2001. They had me hook, line, and sinker back then (Why would they lie????). The information pushback took a long time to gain momentum over the next decade. By 2011, when I reluctantly admitted to myself that 9/11 was an inside job, planned, carried out, and covered up by Americans, the majority of my compatriots still believed the official story, and still believe it to this day. The difference is that, this time, the information pushback was so immediate, constant and consistent, that there are significant numbers of Americans (I can only speak for my own country) in outright opposition to the story, and millions of others willing to entertain doubts. This is a battle for the minds of billions. The weapons are facts. Again, thank you for making it easier to gain access to the facts and to resist the propaganda.

It killed your black panther if you demand answers
They move around the truth more than a tap dancer
Shhh there's meth & crack in the community
They rather force face masks over immunity
What could you do to me fans are pouring in Ain't tryna live in a mask like mandalorian
Don't need historians to see the future now
Google changes the facts so you look stupid now
Got a ruthless style it takes concentration
The same ones said chem trails is condensation
All depopulation it's all inoculation
Keep tryna play god they wanna stop creation
Had to stop debaten wit these little geeks
Realized I'm a GOAT and they just silly sheep

I expose the system and it's true flaws
They only treat the symptoms not the root cause
Read about the risks and a new clause
They wanna mandate shh and make new laws
Cmon they don't care about life stop it
The Covie vax is mainly driven by profit
But I'm a prophet so I bring you the truth
Our leaders lost it misleading the youth
The school system where the thinkings induced identity politics you seeing the proof
Leaving the roof I need to know facts
I'd rather take borax than the Cov vax
I need some moe stats I ain't no dummy politicians sold us out for moe money

I love the clever word manipulation that the hoaxsters employ. The better outcomes for those in the trial who received a smaller dose of the vaccine were said to have received better protection from covid 19. Does that make sense? Or does that reveal the hoax?

What that talking head would have said if he were honest (or not completely brainwashed) is: Those who received less poison were better able to resist it and recover than those who received more poison.

Thousands of deaths have occurred, according to pro covid 1984 spokespersons. Okay. Then why can't you produce a SINGLE Sars CoV 2 virus. (Will James be interviewing Jon Rappoport again, on this subject? Will he perhaps talk to Christine Massey or Andrew Kaufman, on this subject? There's now a flood of reports about the fact that they haven't produced the physical virus. Iain Davis discussed it. Have Iain back again, James, to talk about that.) So, How do you have a disease caused by a virus that doesn't exist? Yes, You can have such a disease if it's imaginary. But they destroyed on a massive scale based on bogus tests for a bogus virus said to cause a bogus disease.

A friend of the family who is a health care worker, has allowed herself to be vaccinated. Cab drivers and health care workers are people who come in contact with many other people My suspicious mind has invented the scenario where the Evil Ones put it out there that a Second Wave Worser Virus has suddenly appeared at the same time that they are vaccinating people who are Super Spreaders in order to cover themselves in case the vaccine develops into a deadly Evil Twin. They can blame it all on SuperCovid, instead of the real culprit—the Vaccine. Just a scenario. No evidence whatsoever.

So are you JC's comment manager or just a self-appointed greeter say like Wal-Mart? Just so everyone knows cause we're all in this together, right?

See how even your intro wields the BLACK 'attention letters', kinda like magic. You are truly a craftsmen at your art and engage your flattery, with such kindness.

It is so nice that you speak for 'all of us' members of the group, and offer your help and advice on almost every issue, it's amazing really. Watching you work the thread appearing over and over offering your tireless input is so caring of you, you'd almost think it was a full time job. Here are some links for you before I leave that may help you understand a little more about that word Jew. The first one is James Corbett giving a very informative talk on the Rothschild's and Hitler. I'm sure you could use it in your repertoire:

Here James gives an excellent presentation; The Hitler Rothschild Connection along with an exemplary written report by Henry Makow who is an author and journalist, with extensive complot experience, and every qualification there is to speak to the Jewish question. Of course you know none of the names of these imperialists and zionists you see are real, right?

<https://www.savethemales.ca/001260.html>

Now after you open that, on the left hand margin is list of an extensive history on the New World Order, Jewish British Imperialism, Is the New World Order Jewish, etc etc.

Of course you likely think you know what the word Jew means, how the anti-semitic propaganda train rolls, what Jewish is what Hebrew, Isreal and all the conflag means.

I agree people do get passionate and sometimes people opposing an issue are as well that is what real debate is, however if one takes the high road and actually learns the lesson maybe through curious questioning, rather than shoot the teacher, things calm down. UNLESS THE INTENT was to get rid of the information all together, that could be also and I have witnessed that in here more than once.

Now it's time for you and your cohorts, to settle down. That's why crowds to me are not appealing. Gang leaders form gangs, and often the leader is looking for new recruits every time the door open. Nice when another member breaks out a brawl, and the Boss moves in for the kill. God it's so easy to see.

Corbett Hitler Rothschild Connection

Media is plural for 'medium' 'channel' e.g. anon was talking about the media, but you could not SEE that I'm not taking sides, 99 % are still blind and think they can see. Just like Brandy Vaughn, this is the second time she died. The media is full of fakery, crisis actors and scripted video news releases. SO IS THE INERNET.

Sometimes we use the wrong approach at getting a point across especially where weaponized language is concerned. Then we have to in humility, learn that lesson and move on again till the next time. It's gonna get really rough in the next while so please at least be a little kinder.

The reason this is coming to you is because I have been around a long time, years and you really do act as a comptroller here. So don't play your childish troll tiff, you are the player of the role. Name calling is childish sandbox games.

I’m wondering if there isn’t some distraction going on here.

When an episode gets close to the bone it brings out odd comments, some meant to start brawls, others simply to fatigue. Certain offered links work to associate the site with wild extrapolations from reasonable propositions. (eg Bill Gates as partial fabrication is stretched to Bill Gates = Peter Sellers. Just as “a little fun for the end of the year”, mind you.)

Based on the distraction levels, James’ last few entries are indeed getting close to the bone. So well done, James. And keep slicing.

Influenza activity remains very low to date this season in San Diego County. This is very likely due to the social distancing, hand washing, and mask wearing interventions instituted to reduce the transmission of SARS-CoV2, [obfuscation]

<http://www.kusi.com>

We are well into flu season, but San Diego County’s data for flu infections only shows 36 reported cases so far this year. Carl DeMaio tweeted out this shocking revelation, comparing it to this time in other years saying, “In a typical year we get over 17,073 on average!”

DeMaio explained, “if you are going to use a set of numbers like COVID stats to shut down the economy, to take people’s livelihoods away, then we have to really look closely at what those numbers really mean, and whether those numbers are giving us the right picture.” Continuing, “my concern has been from the get go, that we are relying on numbers from government agencies, that may have a different agenda at stake. We would benefit from having a different set of eyes looking at them, such as an auditor or a citizens review committee. Because again, the decisions being made on these data sets are sweeping, the lockdowns are far reaching in terms of their impact.” [warrior]

The Great 2020 Seasonal Flu/Influenza Disappearing Act
(Some great images/Charts in article)
<https://www.zerohedge.com/covid-19/great-2020-seasonal-fluinfluenza-disappearing-act>

EXCERPTS

According to the WHO, seasonal flu/influenza practically disappeared this year in the southern hemisphere.
"In tropical South America, there were no influenza detections..."
"Globally... influenza activity remained at lower levels than expected for this time of the year."

Lower means flu practically didn't show up this year like always before.
[IMAGES – from CDC]

Where have all the flu outbreaks gone?
See below.

Separately, the WHO claimed that "various hygiene (including mask wearing) and physical distancing measures...likely played a role in reducing influenza virus transmission."

Mask-wearing is ineffective and potentially harmful to health.

Masks are porous. They have to be. Otherwise wearers would suffocate.

Aerosol spores are minuscule. Able to penetrate all masks and concentrate beneath them risks greater harm to wearers than avoiding their use.

Everything ordered or recommended this year for protection did infinitely more harm than good – notably from lost jobs and income during lockdowns and quarantines.

The CDC casually said “(s)easonal influenza activity in the United States remains lower than usual for this time of year.”
[GRAPH – comparing previous seasons]

It practically disappeared — or did it?

Covid is “seasonal influenza” in disguise — in the US and worldwide.

In its latest weekly reporting period pre-year-end, the CDC said:

“The percentage of respiratory specimens testing positive for influenza at clinical laboratories is” one-tenth of 1%.

It’s practically nonexistent.

For the three-month period in the US ending in late December, findings were virtually the same.

There’s almost no seasonal influenza showing up this year because their outbreaks are called covid.

Overall worldwide, seasonal influenza is around 98% lower this year than in earlier flu seasons....

Pfizer’s Covid-19 vaccine first in the world to receive emergency use authorization from WHO

(TWEET from WHO in article)

<https://www.rt.com/news/511268-pfizer-vaccine-approved-who/>

EXCERPTS

The first vaccine against the novel coronavirus approved for emergency use by the World Health Organization is Comirnaty COVID-19 mRNA one produced by Pfizer/BioNTech, the WHO has announced.

The world health body announced the emergency approval on Thursday, as 2020 came to a close. Its Emergency Use Listing (EUL) will enable countries to expedite their own regulatory approval of the vaccine, and allow UNICEF and the Pan-American Health Organization to buy it for distribution, the WHO said.

“This is a very positive step towards ensuring global access to [Covid]-19 vaccines,” Dr Mariângela Simão, WHO’s assistant-Director General for access to medicines and health products, said in a statement. She added that “an even greater global effort” is needed to come up with enough of a supply to meet the needs of “priority populations everywhere,” however.

The WHO is “working night and day to evaluate other vaccines that have reached safety and efficacy standards,” said Simão, urging other developers to “come forward for review and assessment.”

The first vaccine against Covid-19 in the world was actually registered by Russia, which had requested EUL from the WHO in late October for its Sputnik-V jab. That certification is still pending.

Pfizer’s vaccine was the first to be approved for emergency use in the US, on December 11. Moderna’s vaccine followed a week later.

The anti-vaxx movement’s main focus is the corrupt actions of pharmaceutical companies and health authorities when it comes to vaccines. No matter what you think of the movement, at the very least you can address the main topic. Reporting on anti-vaxx only being about not believing vaccinations is the equivalent of covering anti-war movements and reporting that they just don’t believe in weapons.

The Nuremberg Codes and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights are good documents for discussion. Although they still come back to use the In time of public emergency excuse. No doubt the legal definition of emergency has dramatically changed since then (1966).

I watched this and I liked it. I found it raised more basic questions for me like why are people doing these evil things to us. Bill Gates will die eventually and so will all of these other “elites”. They still don't have a cure for aging and death and are just as vulnerable to death as we are. Don't they realize they are creating hatred and animosity that might catch up with them?

I understand that psychopaths don't think like “normal” people that have a conscience but still, it seems like such a waste of time to put effort to cause so much damage.

She also mentions the MS office analogy again. Do they really want to chip us? I know this is mentioned, but it blows my mind. Suppose they get everything they set out to do, then what? Will that really give them what they want? What I think they want is to live forever, but that can't happen in their lifetime if at all.

It reminds me of a quote from the book 1984 “Power is in tearing human minds to pieces and putting them together again in new shapes of your own choosing.”

“Power is not a means; it is an end. One does not establish a dictatorship in order to safeguard a revolution; one makes the revolution in order to establish the dictatorship.”

Is that what they want? To chip people and just have a class of people that are mindless automatons, where no one can even think an “impure” thought where they push a button and we just do whatever they want. That seems so boring to me, so narrowminded and unfulfilling.

fairly early on in my recovery process, while flooding with internal computer stuff, a part of me came forward that had learnt computer languages & coding, at one point stated our internal alter system is a computer OS, which made sense. as someone who got designer, complex polyfragmented multiplicity (DID), thru various alters/parts i had to perform a wide range of tasks/assignments — trauma & trance state was used to create a multi-talented, polymath automaton. thru the years parts hv emerged with astonishing abilities which tripped me out, albeit transitory for me, i experienced only when the particular alters carrying came forward/out. a great deal of specialization in skill, & there were parts that had their own system, multiple w/in a multiple. some had no feelings whatsoever, one example — as a trained assassin i killed without emotion — on the other hand, upon demand i also killed with frenzied programmed rage. sadistic (as well as masochistic) alters were created. there were also feeling parts, buried deep w/in, when they came out, so intense, held terror & grief of traumatization. its like i was a trophy child — which i grew to despise, i was used over & over again, & had to use others... ugly manipulation :(( hate is a such a destructive force, ive needed to repeatedly face within myself, resolve anger towards my abusers & heal underlying pain — ongoing process. and i was raised with superiority bs, contempt for “lessers”, as well as programmed to take vengeance upon & incite hatred against. that said, also got small world — diversity programming/trng to work with all races & nationalities. last but certainly not least, my elitest father welcomed hatred, flat out said so when he lectured me on the power of hate, a key point being hate directed against him from outsiders made “us” stronger, like nourishment. he was, & no doubt still is a hate eater ~ which i see as a form of enslavement, & i believe the “elites” are enslaved by an unquenchable thirst for power. as well as enslaved by various perverse addictions such as paedophilia, bestiality, necrophilia, cannibalism, murder, etc. and methinks with ongoing/upcoming scientific transhumanist “advancements”, TPTsB seek to create a world where such addictions become the norm by streamlining, bringing ppl on board with their dark agenda thru altering dna. big step beyond normalization via media industry & educational system, which will of course also be continued.
