

The Plan for a Global System of Slavery

How do you market and implement a financial system that nobody would want if they understood its full ramifications — a change so huge that it not only would mean the end of currency as we know it, but a total revision of sovereignty and individual rights?

In the interview above, which is part of the full-length documentary, "Planet Lockdown,"¹ financial guru Catherine Austin Fitts — publisher of The Solari Report² — describes the complicated, "messy" plan to use the current health care crisis to engineer a total remake of world currencies and our entire way of life.

Comparing the move to herding sheep to a slaughterhouse, Fitts explains how the pandemic is lining people up to depend on their governments for protection from an invisible enemy (COVID-19) and then using fear to keep people from living what once was considered a normal life.

The herd mentality includes encouraging debt entrapment to the point that people become desperate for any type of cash flow that can help them meet their day-to-day living expenses, until they willingly give up their rights in exchange for any relief offered to them.

The bottom line is that a slavery system, steeped in the ideologies of transhumanism and technocracy, is being created right under the noses of the people of the world — and the current lockdowns, closing of small businesses and the redefinition of "normal" are all part of a planned global governance system that will end sovereignty and individual rights, unless it's stopped now.

The End of Currencies

As explained by Fitts, the central banks are currently working to bring a new economic transaction system online. This would be CBDCs, aka central bank digital currencies.

This is one of the reasons why I strongly believe that holding crypto assets like Bitcoin, Ethereum and Polkadot, could serve to protect you from their plan. Not only will they appreciate by anywhere from 10 to 100 times, but they are decentralized and can immunize you and your family against this nefarious plan.

However, the new system is not yet fully ready, so while they're speeding up the roll-out of that system – which Fitts describes as "the end of currencies" – they're also trying to extend the life of the current system, which is crashing.

The problem, as mentioned earlier, is how do you implement a financial system, globally, no less, that no one wants? You frighten people with an invisible enemy, such as a virus, and then capitalize on that fear, saying that this new system is necessary because the pandemic destroyed the old system.

The pandemic also allows for the implementation of new, more invasive surveillance systems. There's the tracking and tracing of infections, of course, but that's not all. As noted by Fitts, "If you can get people to do their work and education online, you can listen to everything they're saying."

Already, pandemic measures have severely limited people's ability to congregate and share information face-to-face. Internet censorship by Big Tech has decimated information sharing even further. Ultimately, what they're trying to do is get people to buy into a solution before they understand the full ramifications of doing so.

The Central Bank Digital Currency

So, what is this new system? Importantly, it's a transaction system that is not based on currency in the way we know it. As explained by Fitts, it's a social control system. By removing paper currency and replacing it with an all-digital central bank digital currency (CBDC), your ability to engage in transactions can be turned on and off.

An August 13, 2020, article³ on the Federal Reserve website discusses the supposed benefits of a CBDC. There's general agreement among experts that most major countries will implement CBDC within the next two to four years. Many assume these new CBDCs will be very similar to existing cryptocurrencies like Bitcoin, but that's not the case.

It is crucial to understand that Bitcoin is decentralized. Governments could restrict it, but they could never take it down as it is the strongest computing network in the world and is incapable of being taken down. Interestingly, in the last six weeks, it has seen explosive appreciation and has tripled in price. Many experts predict it will go up another 10 times in the next year.

While decentralized cryptos like Bitcoin are a rational strategy to opt out of the existing central bank controlled system, the CBDC will be centralized and completely controlled by the central banks. They will have "smart contracts" that allow the banks to surveil and control your life.

Everything you buy and sell will be monitored, and punishment can be meted out if a transaction, your behavior or even your thoughts are deemed undesirable. As explained by Fitts, the transhumanist agenda is also part of this. For example, through the use of injections or some other means of getting biosensors into you, your actual physical body will be connected, literally, to the financial system.

Already, there are four pilot CBDC programs underway at the People's Bank of China, the Eastern Caribbean Central Bank, the Bank of Korea and Sveriges (Sweden's) Riksbank. The Sand Dollar CBDC project in the Bahamas is already live.⁴ As noted in a December 30, 2020, article on Coindesk.com:⁵

"2021 will ... see many central banks continue to step up their development efforts ... CBDC research and design efforts have grown strongly throughout 2020. The European Central Bank (ECB) is intensifying its work on a digital euro, while ... the U.S. Federal Reserve system is in the midst of a number of research projects, among others partnering with MIT's Digital Currency Initiative."

What Have the Lockdowns Achieved?

According to Fitts, the purpose behind the lockdowns is to dramatically centralize economic and political control. In short, the aim of the lockdowns is to make people dependent on government aid by destroying their ability to earn an independent income. She gives the following example:

"We have 100 small businesses on Main Street in a community. You declare them nonessential, shut them down, [and] suddenly Amazon, Walmart and the big box stores can come in and take away all the market shares.

The people on Main Street have to keep paying off their credit cards or their mortgage, so they're in a debt trap, and they're desperate to get cash flow to cover their debts and day-to-day expenses.

In the meantime, you have the federal reserve institute a form of quantitative easing where they're buying corporate bonds and the guys who are taking up the market share can basically finance at 0% to 1%, while everybody on Main Street are paying 16% to 17% interest on their credit cards without income. So, basically, you've got them over the barrel and you can take away their market share ..."

A War Like No Other

Without doubt, this is an economic war on the working class. Since the beginning of the pandemic around March 2020, the greatest transfer of wealth has taken place, from the middle class to the wealthiest among us. Back in August 2020, Bloomberg reported⁶ that more than half of all small business owners feared their businesses wouldn't survive. They were right.

According to a September 2020 economic impact report⁷ by Yelp, 163,735 U.S. businesses had closed their doors as of August 31, 2020, and of those, 60% – a total of 97,966 businesses – were permanent closures.⁸ Meanwhile, the collective wealth of 651 billionaires in the U.S. has risen by more than 36% ($1 trillion) since the beginning of the pandemic.⁹

As noted by Frank Clemente, executive director of Americans for Tax Fairness, "Never before has America seen such an accumulation of wealth in so few hands."¹⁰ A December 14, 2020, article¹¹ in The Defender reviews who has benefited from pandemic measures the most, from the finance and tech industries to the pharmaceutical and military-intelligence sectors.

"I would describe COVID-19 as ... the institution of the control necessary to convert the planet from democratic processes to technocracy," Fitts says.

"What we're watching is a change in control, and the engineering of new control systems. Think of this as a coup d'état."

Essentially, the virus will be blamed for all our economic devastation, from the erosion of our social security funds to the empty coffers in the treasury, and the answer will be to transition into this technocratic control system disguised as a new, more convenient financial transaction system.

Riots as a Real Estate Acquisition Plan

In her interview, Fitts also explains research done by her team that shows the rioting that occurred in 2020 primarily occurred in opportunity zones in cities that have a central bank location. The U.S. Economic Development Administration describes opportunity zones as "an economically-distressed community where private investments, under certain conditions, may be eligible for capital gain tax incentives."¹²

Fitts is a bit blunter in her description, saying opportunity zones are a tax shelter mechanism that allows wealthy individuals to avoid capital gains tax when selling off stock. By rolling the proceeds over into opportunity zone investments, they can avoid paying capital gains tax. "So, this is fantastically profitable," she says, adding:

"When I first saw how all the buildings and businesses destroyed ... were right at the bottom of the opportunity zone, I started to laugh and I said, 'I was assistant secretary of housing. That's not a riot pattern, that's a real estate acquisition plan.'"

Essentially, by shutting down private businesses in the opportunity zones, and then looting and literally burning them to the ground in some cases, those businesses and buildings can be bought up for next to nothing. "It's called disaster capitalism," Fitts says.

Now, 34 of the 37 U.S. cities that have a federal reserve bank branch were destroyed by riots. Why is this important? Because now that real estate can be bought on the cheap, and be rebuilt with smart technology – a necessity for a well-functioning technocratic system – built in.

"This makes building out the smart cities around the federal reserve banks much cheaper," Fitts explains, "which I assume you'll want to do if you're going to come out with a [central bank] crypto system."

From Freedom to Digital Slavery

As mentioned earlier, the transhumanist agenda is part and parcel of technocracy. The basic idea is to insert biosensors into everyone, which Fitts says can be equated to an operating system, which is then connected to the cloud and other digitized systems, such as the health care and financial systems. Fitts explains:

"You're basically talking about being able to digitally identify and track people in connection with their financial transactions. So, it's a world of zero privacy. But more importantly ... if you then institute one or more central bank cryptos, you're now talking about a system where every central bank in the world can shut you off individually from transacting if they don't like the way you're behaving.

Many people are familiar with the social credit system in China. It's very similar. If you install a smart grid into their car, their community, and now literally in their body, you have 24/7 surveillance and if people don't do what you say and behave the way you want, you can shut off their money.

You also have spatial control. If you say people cannot travel more than 5 miles, that's it, because they're in a complete digital control system ... So, this system comes with control of not only your ability to transact financially ... but also very sophisticated mind control through the media and those cloud connections.

So, transhumanism and technocracy go hand-in-hand. I would describe this as a slavery system. We're talking about shifting out of freedom where we have freedom to roam and say what we want, to a complete control system 24/7."

Human Resource Management

As explained by Fitts, the technocratic view of humanity is very different from the view most of us have of what it means to be human. Most will probably agree with Fitts, who believes humans are sovereign beings who are free by divine authority. This is the view enshrined in the U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights.

Technocracy, on the other hand, views humans as a natural resource, no different from an oil deposit or livestock, and they are to be used as such. Humans may be more or less efficient than a robot, for example, depending on the job at hand, and efficiency trumps humanity.

“ We're talking about a world where most people are under 24/7 surveillance and then their financial incentives and their financial power is related to how well-behaved they are. ~ Catherine Austin Fitts ”

To minimize problems within this human resource management system, there needs to be maximum compliance with minimal effort, and this is where social engineering through media propaganda (brainwashing), censorship and artificial intelligence comes in. For the most part, once fully implemented, the control system will be fully automated.

If you miss your vaccination date, for example, the system will know and access to banking might be cut off until it registers that you got your shot. There doesn't even need to be another human involved, because your physical body, health records, geolocation, activities and financials are all connected and trackable in real time by artificial intelligence-driven software that analyzes everything you do.

"The Chinese have a system called the social credit system and it's very much tied in with their financial transactions and different abilities – travel and [being able to do] other things – through their behavior ...

We're talking about a world where most people are under 24/7 surveillance and then their financial incentives and their financial power is related to how well-behaved they are.

I would describe it essentially as a slavery system, because there's no personal freedom. So, to a certain extent, what technocracy will do is turn us into a similar type of system as the Chinese social credit system."

According to Fitts, the technocrats don't even think of themselves as being part of humanity anymore. They see themselves as separate and superior to the rest of us. And, in the future, they undoubtedly will be, as medical advancements and life extension technology are perfected.

Transparency Is the Answer

The good news is that while the trap has been sprung, the door has not yet closed. And, as Fitts notes, "transparency can blow the game." If enough people end up understanding what's really going on and what the goal of this "Great Reset" is, they won't be able to implement it.

The technocratic elite need us all to passively acquiesce, because there are far more of us than there are of them. Again, that's what the pandemic measures are achieving. We're growing to accept work and travel restrictions. We're growing to accept government telling us where and how we can celebrate holidays, and with whom. All of this would have been unthinkable a mere year ago. But we cannot let this acceptance continue to grow.

As noted by Fitts, slavery is the most profitable business in the history of the world, and with modern technology, complete control is now possible. Any and all rebellion can be quenched. Technology also allows a much smaller group of people to wield tremendous power over the masses.

That said, it's crucial to realize that we are actually the ones financing and helping build the very control system that is meant to enslave us. We work for companies that are building the system. We buy products from them, which allows them to generate the needed revenue. If we stop buying their products and we stop working for them, they cannot build the system.

"The solution is for everyone to come clean," Fitts says. "You're either for the transhumanist slavery system, or you're for a human system. If you're for a human system, then you're going to have to find a way to make money, and engage socially, in the human system, and stop building a transhuman system ...

Don't help the government build Operation Warp Speed. Don't help [Big Tech] figure out how to inject nanoparticles into your body and hook them up to the cloud. Don't help Big Pharma make injections that are poisoning American children to death.

Don't help Big Ag make and grow GMO foods that are poisoning America. Don't help the government institute corrupt health crises regulations that are really disaster capitalism and making billionaires rich. And on and on and on."

We've done this before. The organic movement, for example, was built by average people who decided to put their time and money into a food system that aligned with their basic values. As a result, we have options today when it comes to food. It's not all GMOs and fake food. If we want to live free, we now have to act on that wish, carefully reconstructing how we live and interact in order to minimize our contribution to the transhumanist technocratic control system.

I believe Catherine Austin Fitts when she says that the Antifa/ BLM riots were orchestrated as a "REAL ESTATE acquisition scheme ~ this is consistent with the GREEDHEAD'S "wet dream" of total ownership of all the commodities and wealth that our planet possesses ~ this is a clear assumption that cannot be denied when considering the trajectory of "wealth for wealth's sake" that these GREEDHEADS chase as their constant drive to ascendancy ~ to be worth 100 billion dollars like the SNAKE and the retailer Bezos have each so far piled high in their respective published financial accounts ~ to syphon off this amount of money and then use it to leverage further "gains of wealth" is totally and utterly MEANINGLESS ~

the game of marbles played at school when I was an infant illustrates the point ~ this is like having to win every marble on the planet so that in the end no one can play with you because you own all the marbles ~ then your personality demands that others respect your monopoly of the marble market ~ when others ignore your status as the "man with the most marbles" you become resentful and want to punish these inferior humans who lack marbles which you have monopolised ~ in order to demonstrate that your prowess at accumulating excessive marbles gives you the power to inflict pain ~ then the infliction of pain becomes unsatisfactory as a means of self importance ~ so then you decide that like God you can dispose of the crowds by stealth and conceit so you develop a Master Plan where people will willingly commit suicide by taking your hypodermic in the upper bicep of you right arm ~ this works like a dream when millions die and BILLIONS are STERILIZED ~ now your paranoia finally finds some relief and your FEAR of the "MANY" will be assuaged by your Godlike ability to destroy because destruction leads to creation and that means you are behaving like a God ~ this is how the PARANOID mind of the SNAKE works ~ the DANGER is CLEAR and PRESENT ~ wake up or DIE

Hi Stan, your marble analogy makes an interesting read, while I get the clear picture of the psyche of these megalomaniacs. In the game of marbles, rightly the lesser mortals have 'lost all their marbles'.

Excellent analogy, to the marbles game/take over. Thank you. We are seeing a digital wallet system introduced in Belize, optional at this point. We are in the extreme Western Caribbean (noting the article says rollout in Eastern Caribbean)... I hope we are not next on their agenda but fear we are. Belize is considered as both Caribbean (member of CARICOM trading system) and physically we're also in Central America and do some business with our neighbours. Mostly we export commodities (corn and beans) to CARICOM countries, and import processed goods and some veggies from Mexico, Guatemala. Due to WTO, we cannot test the imported foods for pesticide residues etc - because that would be 'unfair trading practice' since we have no mandated residue testing for domestically produced foods. Thanks WTO (not). Yes time for us all to WAKE UP! Thank you Dr. Mercola and commenters.

Good Analogy Stanley. I always sense in Gates a disdain for people when he give interviews or 'Ted Talks', almost like he is playing with us. You can see it in his body language & smirk. All elite have an arrogance about them, but with Gates, it is as if he sees things like a game, a cat & mouse game where he knows he's the winner & his interaction with us is just a token visit with no real interest in "us". There is a similar essence that runs through all of high tech's upper management...I know, as I used to work for 2 of the power houses today, mostly as they needed my translation services for language, but I was there enough time to catch a glimpse. They really do think they walk on water.

Hi, Stan. There are many pieces to this evil puzzle and the following article ties in with Dr. Mercola's article nicely. There is a master plan to transform all natural food into genetically engineered and synthetic food. The oligarchs are buying up land as if it's a garage sale! "Snake" is not the only one involved in this. Soon, there will be no real food left. I suggest that people read this one carefully. We all know what "Sustainable Agriculture" is, don't we?

hi Randy ~ read the Forbes article ~ this trend of buying up the land for cents to the dollar is in line with the quest for "more marbles" than anyone else ~ Gates once again is investing in a commodity he has NO interest in ~ agriculture will suffer at his hands as the GMO failure makes clear ~ Gates will exploit his ownership of the land in every disastrous way his CRACKED mind can think of ~ here is a man so CRAZED that he is completely divorced from human spiritual yearning ~ an automaton foisted on us like Hitler was foisted on the German nation ~ everything this Midas touches turns to DROSS including all these acres he now controls

I've never commented here before, but - and I have no idea where you stand on religion - if this is not what Christians would call Satanic, I don't know what is. This is exactly why democracy or a semi-libertarianism cannot exist without the transcendent. If you think these things out from the Biblical meta-narrative, and I'm Orthodox so I have a different take than Western theology, there's no way out except by resistance. If you think from the perspective of an eternal being who is anti-human (in the Bible the Satan is not so much anti-God except that he is anti-human - and yes -

The Biblical portrayal of Satan doesn't take full shape until much later than the earliest portions of the OT - regardless there is continuity) then the marble game makes perfect sense. And what do the technocratic elite want most but immortality. In some sense, the history of the world is a technocratic elite trying to realize immortality. But if they achieve extending their lives by means of AI, or even in the perpetuation of their hate through AI (as I don't think AI is truly possible in terms of consciousness), or if, say, they knew how to extend life by 50-100 years - the imagination has no real work to do to compare them to a fallen god.

The further you go back in the hierarchies that we have, you always end up with Snake/Devil, always, at any time. Death is the only thing that has effectively stopped/curbed the perpetuation, but it is also what perpetuates the hate. In short, the Snake's mission has never been diverted - the takedown of the human project. Exposing the Snake exposes his death, his weakness, along with those who live in want of immortality and fear of death - and their anti-human project is revealed for what it is. Then people awake. But, in a world where the transcendent is completely necessary for believing that humanity has any inherent teleology - and that being lost on us for generations - yes, people may be aroused by fear but a meta-narrative is needed also.

Stanley, I only partially agree with you. It is not only the elite that are power crazed, there are a lot of "regular" people who are power crazed and evil. In fact, I would argue that most people are not good people, rich and poor alike. I, actually, do not mind, the elites exterminate the evil regular people. They will do us a favor. Then we have to find a way to remove the elites. This will make the earth a better place. I, genuinely and wholeheartedly do not value most lives out there (just as Snake Gates, but nobody indoctrinated me), because as I spend time with them I feel that my time has been wasted and I feel suffocated. Lives are not equal! We are all born unique.

Capn ~ yes, teleology or purpose is relevant when God has no part in human discourse ~ with regard to your points about mortality and the forestalling of Thanatos ~ this is not the belief system that my controlling ego subscribes to ~ "here but for the GRACE of God" has always been my attitude ~ why these SOULLESS types want immortality is reminiscent of the void clinging to the void ~ their role in this life does involve some sort of antagonism to life in an emptiness that has lost all touch with the Ur Paradise known as Eden ~ what we know of Eden is that it was lush and alive ~ but the drive now is burnt earth and destruction ~ our beliefs are constantly tested against our residual fragment of our first experiences ~ certainly, I look to the garden that is being shunned and abused mercilessly by these antagonists that HATE Life

hi Vladimira ~ yes, you have many versions of personality dysfunction where especially in the business/ money arena people behave in a selfish immoral grasping echo of the magnified greed of the plutocratic class ~ they admire rich people as having been blessed with "good fortune" ~ this is a superstition that has always been part of the folk world like seeing disease as a portent of "evil intervention" ~ people are so primitive ~ don't be fooled by the technology

Isn't it pathetic, truebluehealth, how the present not only mirrors science "fiction" of the past but seems to have used it as a blueprint for the globalist coup d'etat and replacement of parliamentary democracy and federal constitution by totalitarian technocracy and the surveillance state? As well as the Orwell and Huxley guidebooks, it appears the globalists wrote their thesis based on ideas from old films such as the 'The Hamburg Syndrome' 1979 https://youtu.be/etekvGN4R_g and even on old episodes of The Twilight Zone where "logic is the enemy and the truth a menace". I think we learned all about that in 2020. "This is not a new world, it is simply an extension of what began in the old one.... It has refinements, technological advances, and a more sophisticated approach to the destruction of human freedom.....it has one iron rule: logic is an enemy and truth is a menace. Watched this video on brandnewtube a couple weeks ago, and she is spot on. The new system will fail, people need property, possessions, and responsibilities for said ownerships, of body, labour, property, their own children and a shared ownership in the political compact that laws and governance embodies, equality under the law, free speech, and common law freedoms to engage in economic activity, if you take any of those basic rights away, you are violating the human condition for life, freedom, liberty, peace and prosperity. If the globalists want to own and control everything, how can they not empathize that every individual also wants self control and ownership of the means for shelter and productivity? Well, they do, but they are psychopaths, so they want to kill you if you don't let them steal and control everything, including you body, your children's bodies, etc. It's satanic and destructive of humanity to the core, is the globalist ideology, our needs, demand a revolt against them, their corporate bodies, enables, aiders and abettors, criminals and threats against humanity, all of them. Illuminati, Masons, media, secret cults and secret service, so called elites who think like street thugs, and behave worse than street thugs.

This is an example of the wider debate that Dr. Mercola has realised he has a responsibility to deliver; we all need to understand that what is going on, right now; is a direct threat to our health, both mental and physical. Again all of us need to keep in mind the work of Children's Health Defence lead by Robert F Kennedy Jr. As also the Critical Care team resulting from the work of Dr. Paul Marik <https://.../> and watch the video on that page. Those of you reporting that you see friends with long term health problems caused by COVID need to understand that their problems are being deliberately caused by the treatments they have received, that never involve the simplest things such as vitamin C, vitamin D3 and the like. That their friends should go back and insist that they are treated under the protocols set out in great detail on that covid19criticalcare.com web page. Just scroll down the page, they are right there, available for everyone to read and understand.

Turning to the matter of banking and finance, a subject that I have been directly involved with since being invited into a conversation with the then Governor of the Bank of England, Eddie George, which originated from a letter of mine published in The Times London, Tuesday June 2, 1992, asking the question; Who leads the savings institutions towards longer term investment in the nation and away from short term property speculation? All this stemmed from my delivering a copies of my Evidence of Due Diligence, related to my own thinking, which I later set out in much more detail in my free PDF book; The Road Ahead from a Grass Roots Perspective.

We have is a profoundly bankrupt, both intellectually and financially, banking and finance system that is signally failing, right in front of us all. As such I suggest another viewpoint, Daniel Amerman, who has been writing chapters of a book; latest here danielamerman.com/.../H3TwoCenturies.html read and learn.

So everything that Dr. Mercola has highlighted is the result of intellectual bankruptcy; in their desperation, they have lost sight of their ethics, have clearly failed to understand the origins of civilisation; have an irrational desperate fear of the historical foundations of a free society built upon the concept of free enterprise; where the manager of a business owned the business which in turn was always founded upon the help of their local communities investment into what became . . . their local source of employment and thus household income.

The origins of our past successful civilisation go back more than a thousand years to strip farming; where local land owners realised that the prosperity of their communities would increase, if they allowed ordinary members of their community to have access to a strip of their land upon which they could grow a crop of food for onward sale into the local farmers market; the origin of Market Towns here in England. If you can get a copy I recommend you read; The English Village Community, examined in its relations to the manorial and tribal systems and to the common or open field system of husbandry, An Essay In Economic History by Frederic Seebohm, LL.D, F.S.A., my copy being a reprint from the fourth edition, Longmans, Green, and co, 1896

What we have to fully understand is everything we can see is the result of bankruptcy; desperation to avoid the consequences of their failures. And we must address them with those facts. Tell them, every way we can that we see they are intellectually bankrupt. Force the debate right out into the open, where then everyone will see, they have no clothes. May I take this opportunity to thank everyone who has already stepped forward to join in and support me; I really do appreciate their kind words. Thank you, all of you; very much appreciated.

Chris ~ I have reflected on your thesis that a paucity of creative thinking is the major failing in our present dilemma ~ the conclusion I came to is that certain human mental activities oppose "creative thinking" because their tools for wealth accumulation would than become futile ~ examples would be the exposure of PROPAGANDA and the actions that the PROPAGANDA instrumentally achieves would be neutralized by general public recognition of the stealth goals of these megalomaniacs ~ the idea of "intellectual bankruptcy" founders when the level of intellect per human unit is analysed and found to be NON EXISTENT ~ the one situation "intellectual bankruptcy" equals the corollary of "intellectual VOID" ~ the Sex Pistols hit "Pretty Vacant" illustrates this point stanleybecker The bankrupt always tries to cover up their lack of sufficient income by doing everything they can to go on borrowing; rather than face the truth, that their ideas, concepts . . . simply do not work . . . have failed. So my take on the warnings presented today by Dr. Mercola should be seen in that light, rather than his; and that is not to detract from what he tells us, because he is correct . . . these are the things they are trying to do to take control of what is clearly coming down the line. My point is we must concentrate our minds on their failures; rather than what they are trying to implement to cover them up. One last important point to make; I have no financial relationship with Daniel Amerman, I have never spoken to him, nor have I ever bought his DVD sets; it is simply that I believe his viewpoint is very valuable, when we wish to know what is going on in the background.

Chris ~ your paradigm is the duality of "success" versus "failure" which is a common grouping to be sure ~ however, looking at both sides of the coin is always recommended in critical thinking ~ the weaknesses and strengths are always revised to suit the argument that the claimant to a particular standpoint adheres to ~ yes, I agree that the motives MUST be brought to the surface ~ this site is one of a few that subscribes to this necessity ~ understanding the mystique that clouds the scenario is possible but highly unlikely ~ most people have no interest in interpreting their own dreams let alone social signals that dissemble and mislead ~ now you enter the realm of the partially blind versus the permanently blind as in the metaphorical "the BLIND lead the BLIND" ~

Jesus often spoke about the reality of love and what it does to sight ~

a public confession by these MADMEN who dominate world politics is impossible ~ so who is going to lead the people out of the wilderness and back to Eden ??? ~ PS. looked at your Amerman link ~ am well aware of the never never world of "money supply" politics ~ this implies the "snake" part of the "snakes and ladders" game ~ the inflation is momentarily delayed by fiat currency ~ but the planet continues to be abused by short term carpetbaggers who maintain stock prices by consuming stimulus payouts ~ this is a daisy chain of nothingness dressed up as fiduciary programs ~ the wolves are eating the sheep as they have always done in the past and even more so in the Future ~ FREEDOM has become obsolete

Catherine lays it all out with this one! I think it's funny how the interviewer reacts. I think her take on this is as accurate as any other. She is hoping that enough sane people are left to make the right decisions. And yes, we do have to come clean! My own only intellectual defense against this trend was knowing I was being lied to because of the other lies being perpetrated earlier by those same control structures. A lot of people haven't realized how much they were being lied to until very recently, or else they still don't realize it. A Facebook friend recently ran a "poll" to find out who among her friends thought Biden had won the election fair and square. They all voted "yes" except me.

One of them asked me what proof I had, as if she was totally unaware of all the data gathering and litigation and briefings that have been going on since 3 November. They all have effectively shut themselves off from the facts. I was not surprised, but it is appalling that so many highly educated people could get this so wrong and apparently not care about their own freedom and their own futures. The grim joke is that we DO come back. When I die in roughly 20 years, someone who is 5 or 10 now will get married and have kids, and I will be one of those kids. And I will have to live through the future that I allowed to happen! So I really hope it doesn't come out as grim as Catherine describes, because I'm not sure how many more "learning experiences" I want to live through!

And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: so Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. Hebrews 9:27-28 Reincarnation isn't true. The 10 Commandments are God's moral law. The standard by which everyone will be judged by on Judgement day. Since everyone of us are guilty of violating His Law, we will be given the penalty for it, which is eternal damnation. Luckily for us, God has provided us a way to be pardoned.

He sent His son to be a Sacrificial Lamb, to pay the fine for the sins of many. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. Isaiah 53:5-7 be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Acts 4:10-12 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. John 3:16-17 that if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. Romans 10:9

The only way to tackle the Great Reset is by creating our own currency. Not digital currency, because the technocrats control your access. Considering that my tiny country bank closed my account (the so-called "Compliance Officer" stepped in) simply because I expressed my view that mask-wearing is illegal in a financial institution and it causes a LOT more harm than good, basically amounting to torture), it seems just about impossible to succeed and remain human and alive at the same time. I am not sure if the following is a ripoff or not, but something like this might work: <https://goldback.com/> Of course, when Gaddafi tried this, the result was not pretty. JFK also tried to issue dollars and you know how that ended.

What about that thing where police can just take your money if they decide to? I guess it happens at airports a lot. I tend to wear my mask below the nose... and when I did this at a branch I usually don't go to, the young lady by the counter was super ADAMANT!!!! that I keep my mask up!!! There was plexiglass between us. No reason about previous pandemics that were at least 1-1/2 times the magnitude of this... or about masks not doing any good because viruses aren't like that... etc etc, did any good. The heart-tug-to-the-fear she conveyed is that someone in her family died of COVID.... and I know they died of something and that is sad, but it very well could have been a dozen other things and not COVID.

We do not as of yet need a new paper currency. Just hoard as much as you can. Even in the middle of Armageddon you will be able to use paper currency like $, euros, pesos, pounds easier than gold. The local farmer or green grocer will not be set up to take gold or bitcoins but real coins will still buy eggs.

I am so glad I found Dr Mercola website actually just pre pandemic, having suffered a minor stroke. The stroke I now believe was caused by Covid. As I say just pre pandemic when Covid was an unknown entity but was definitely around in my area of the U.K. Lots of people had a terrible flu and they even started calling it East Yorkshire flu, around Christmas 2019. Luckily lead me to Dr Mercola. But readers comments lead mr to drcharlieward.com And it is to drcharlieward.com that I must direct all you good American folk. President Trump who cannot get a voice anywhere in our corrupt evil media has chosen drcharlieward.com to try to get his message to the people. Dr Charlie has been seeking the truth since the beginning of the pandemic and has grown from zero followers on YouTube to over 8 million on his own platform. He was along with others removed from YouTube for broadcasting the truth. The endgame is here and Biden will not be the President.

I was extremely sick for a couple weeks and then had a persistent cough for six weeks after. ... First: August is a mighty strange time to get the "flu". ... Second: My neighbor got apparently the same thing some time after I did and he has never recovered. He has been bedridden since November of 2019. I'd love to be tested for antibodies, but I think it's best to avoid the places where one could get tested. :~(

While this takeover is horrifying, truly the stuff of the most frightening Matrix like sci-fi movies, the wealthy who are profiting from the pandemic and from the changeover of the financial system are not thinking very clearly. Because as they amass greater and greater fortunes they are destroying the world, destroying the lives of hundreds of millions of not billions of people. So once they conquer the world, they will have destroyed it. Then their gain will be to have a colossal fortune even larger than their previously colossal fortune, and no world to enjoy it in.

Because the world will have been destroyed. Imagine having billions of dollars but no stores to buy things in, no people who have good lives to share your lives with, no place your children can have a life, become contributing members of society, where your children and grandchildren must remain leeches on your bloated fortune for their entire lives because the world is too hostile and dysfunctional place for them to live in. Additionally, the people will be so angry at having been dispossessed that you literally will take your life into your own hands by leaving your private estate. You will need to lock yourself into a well-defended compound to protect yourself from the murderous rage of the masses whom you've dispossessed. Like most megalomaniacal schemes, the consequences of success are rarely conceived, and prove fatal to the schemers in the end. A lot of damage occurs along the way, though, and this must be prepared for.

So, for them, it's not so much suicide as it is sacrifice. The only people who will be worried about the rage of the masses will be those who are not truly loyal to the occult. The lie they must believe is that they will inherit the earth when it will be given to the meek. It's a bad deal for them in the end, finding out they were pawns.

ChrisColes - Thanks for your link. My boss has been talking about "The Fairness Act" being rescinded a lot lately. Here's the gist, taken from your link: "Back in the heyday of broadcast television, the Federal Communications Commission's fairness doctrine required networks to maintain "balanced" coverage of political issues. Republicans relentlessly attacked the doctrine, claiming the networks were biased against conservatives, and the Federal Communications Commission rescinded it in 1987. So imagine a public regulator trying to decide whether to block a presidential tweet today. Whatever the decision, it would be massively controversial."

This alternate media with the URL: X22Report.com that is pro President Trump has been saying that he is going to bring down the Federal Reserve/Central Bank and replace it with a system - and then the description of the system seems hazy to me. I've lived in the states, but I'm not sophisticated enough to understand the banking system. Dave, the moderator, claims the banking system in the states only has a life of about 50 yrs., and he goes into the history of the various changes it's gone through. The other claim is that President Trump will be embarking on his plan, which is legal, to retain the presidency and that the declassification project, either today or Monday, is part of it.

There's an article about this in the January 15/21 UK Daily Mail and this newspaper prints total rubbish and is anti-Trump as is all MSM. I didn't read the article, but more than one of those commenting stated that the material won't be redacted. The X22Report is not on YouTube any longer, but imitators are. I'm on the mailing list and think you can access it on Bitchute. Alex Jones, Infowars has heralded this slavery system being invoked for quite a long time. Please, I am not endorsing these sources and have no wish to defend them. Even a dental office can administer nanobots with a mouth swab. Considering the incentives hospitals have been receiving for misdiagnosis and deadly treatments along with an occasional threat, even this might not be too far-fetched. Moreover, the dentist and the staff does not even need to know about this. As for Covid-19 symptoms, I primarily suspect disinfectants delivered to stores. Besides 5G, those are probably the second most likely causes of "COVID symptoms." In the last eight months, I have also been noticing frequent chemtrails, even an unmarked chopper with a spray tank. Mask-wearing surely contributes to the symptoms, as it ultimately causes bacterial pneumonia, the cause of 95% of deaths in the 1918 pandemic, according to a 2008 study published by the CDC.

I have known it in the past 48 years that medicine is full of myths that tend to change every 5-10 years. It doesn't even have a universally working paradigm for a human being. An alternative view is that viral shedding is actually part of the body's way to detoxify itself through the endocrine system, sounds more accurate to me than the "infectious viral diseases" assumption. Also, it looks like pandemics in history overlap periods when the human immune system was weakened by increased electromagnetic environments caused by excessive solar activity or the installation of new electric paraphernalia.

I don't think that the MSM fear porn alone can explain the mass compliance and the sheepish behavior of the masses. During lockdowns, 5G towers have been installed even in schools. Nanobots can be delivered with a mouth swab, even the fake test that robs you from your DNA, or in a spray form (which is a lot faster and cheaper than, say, your tap water). Resilience can be enhanced by not watching TV, not listening to the radio, and checking info, esp. comments on alt-m, but the average person is fundamentally defenseless. The last stand of those with a heart will be lonely and not pretty at all.

Astonished, have you read "The Invisable Rainbow" by Arthur Firstenberg? He says that the 1918 flu was caused by the new radio towers and also in the second world war a lot of the radar operators got sick with flu like symptoms. I wonder with all the EMFs around nowadays that it is affecting us with what we think are viruses, but maybe these are just debri from cells in our body that have become toxic from toxic food and chemicals and EMFs and pollution in the air.

Gardenmad: Nope, our sources are different, but they amount to the same conclusion. E.g. fitzinfo.net/2020/08/29/growing-evidence-covid-19-symptoms-a-result-of.. . Viral infection remains an unproven theory and the only vaccine ever proven to work was for smallpox. It is a lot more logical explanation to assume that viruses are products of the body's detoxification, while viral shedding can cause poisoning (viral overload) that result in the same end product, while making the other party sick. Besides, the 1918 epidemic seems to have been elevated by the vaccine servicemen received against meningitis (these days, small children are given such a vaccine multiple times), increasing the poisons in people's bodies. Here is a source: www.globalresearch.ca/true-story-1918-viral-influenza-pandemic/5728776 It looks like there is an uncanny coincidence between the introduction of drastically more powerful electromagnetic fields and "pandemics," including the medieval plagues, when extreme solar activity did the same.

I watched this CAF interview when it was first aired. What impressed me most was her talent for sleuthing out the overlap between the "opportunity zones" and the rioting. A few years ago she first alerted us to the missing trillions. MSU economist Mark Skidmore and his coterie of grad students then joined forces with her declaring that there was at least 21 trillion unaccountable. In more recent interviews she's stated further investigation has become difficult because as of August 2019 the GAO could no longer provide reliable data since the numbers no longer were available due to systemic redaction practices. And yet Skidmore's rigorous analysis now shows that number has since been revised to 90 trillion. Former CIA intelligence operative Robert David Steele claims that Wall Street alone has pilfered a documentable 100 trillion and perhaps as much as 200 trillion through derivatives, more specifically, naked short selling. Grow your own or buy from someone who does. Stash cash. It will always be acceptable for eggs. Start a local, county or state public bank where your local taxes will be used locally. Join a student loan strike. Build a community distillery to make ethanol to run your vehicles. Democratize and localize everything you can. Run for local office or support those whose values are human. As Fitts makes clear money is not the objective control is.

It would be great if someone dared to write it out. I've stopped shopping Amazon for their stupid stunt against Parler last week. That move was HUGE for me. Not sure if I should skip over to Walmart.com or Target.com when I need convenience and can't shop local? Probably not, I know. I use an Apple phone. Google is on the computers, but use Duck duck Go as a main browser. How can I be sure they aren't making advertising dollars off me? Facebook, too. Fitts intimates that Mr. Global are the International Central Banksters. They are pathological narcissists that do not look upon the 99% as the same species just like the Louis & Georges did not look upon the people in their countries & colonies as people of the same order. Unlike the 99% they did not learn their humanity in the arms of their mothers. They all had hired caretakers. The connection that those children formed to their caretakers was broken. They learned that their caretakers & the rest of the 99% were less & under control of other people & as a children they are part of the controlling class with certain privileges & duties only to fellow members.

That try very hard to be & remain hidden is an indication of how much they fear the 99%. They are not even on Forbes list of billionaires. There is no Getty, Morgan, Rockefeller, Stanley or Rothschild on the list only new money like Bezos. We can build a more humane system by not cooperating. Start local & state public banks. Do not pay your student loans. Grow your own food &/or buy directly from someone who does. Build a community distillery to make ethanol to run your vehicles. Put aside as much cash as possible. When the digital money system does not work one way or another, people will still accept $bills. Not many will be set up to take gold or bitcoins for eggs. We are not helpless against the .00001%. To achieve their eugenics targets of over 500 Million by 2025 & of over 7 Billion by 2050, they will utilize all means necessary. The 'vaccines', drugs, EMF, AI, technology, psychological warfare, food control, lack of medical access/services, restrict/prevent movement, activities or public gatherings, isolation, execution, destroy family & friend relationships, destroy jobs, theft of wealth, surveillance, etc., are their Modus Operandi (MO). What we are experiencing so far is minor compared to where they will take it if we let them. Never forget that these Satanic psychopaths have no empathy & once they get a taste of power, they just want more & more, for the lust for power is insatiable, & they absolutely revel in inflicting massive pain, suffering, destruction, death, while pompously gloat in self-adulation, aggrandizement, & idolatry.

They absolutely hate the 'US Constitution' & the 'Ten Commandments' & constantly try to find ways to subvert, undermine & change the 'definition' of words & meaning (intention) so that they can cleverly manipulate these pillars of peaceful free society into so called "living documents" (translation - change them for our purposes - end justifies the means). These psychopaths & megalomaniacs are posers, usurpers & destroyers of anything truly 'good'.

These cornerstones of a peaceful free society have been under attack since their creation. But, its been the lack of vigilance, arrogant naivety, vanity, cowardice, laziness, ignorance, gullibility, gluttony, hedonism, debacherchy, selfishness, & lack of responsibility & accountability of the people that have allowed these evil forces to get the upper hand. Greasing the squeaky wheel today never resolves the bigger underlying problem of tomorrow. One would think it to be quite reasonable to never let children play with matches around the house, but, yet, we allow the petulant children (in the body of an adult) have all the matches they want within the institutions of our countries!

The Joint Chiefs of Staff just issued a memo to all members of the Armed Forces declaring that Biden will be the next president. But people in the U.S. are still under the delusion that they have a federal government ruling the country. Not so. The military and the intelligence agencies are in control, running not a republic but a national security state. No president or lawmaker has dared to challenge this after Kennedy. The Supreme Court has bowed down to the military and intelligence overlords, repeatedly: 1) 1950s Supreme Court granted Pentagon demand for the state-secrets doctrine, circumventing the legislature; 2) Giving power of assassination to the national security establishment (even against Americans), circumventing the Bill of Rights.

As I have been saying for some time, the self-anointed elites among us, who are very few in number, are working to create a 21st Century version of medieval feudalism, where all of the money/finances, all of the resources, and all of the military/police are controlled by the elites, all for their own gain and benefit, and all to the detriment of the entire rest of the population, who will be nothing more than serfs, slaves without chains, whose continued existence will depend solely on their usefulness to the elites. We are heading to this unless a stop is put to it now.

Based on all the information I have seen, there is growing hope this technocracy will not happen although online disinformation is quite rampant making it very difficult to know what info/who to trust until its proven true. I am posting something allegedly from an AF pilot who leaked it to family, and it got out: This Sunday or Monday, Trump will make a "My fellow americans, the storm is upon us." announcement on TV. Then, 7 EBS announcements will be pushed through everyones phone and tv sets worldwide, that will outline what happens next and instructs people to stay home as GLOBAL martial law will be implemented for the following 10 days. Over those 10 days, the US military will have control over ALL broadcast media and will broadcast evidence gathered, including confessions from various defendants during military tribunals. Mass arrests will occur, especially in DC I would assume with the troop buildup there. Blackouts are expected in the short term including internet, phone, cable and some power. Make sure you have drinking water and food for a couple weeks because travel will be restricted and stores will probably be closed? This part I am speculating about because its not known yet what the EBS alerts will say.

Hi Rose, Norway's health authorities have allegedly changed their recommendations for injecting the elderly, as all 23 deaths were among people older than 80 years old. Chinese health experts called on Norway and other countries to suspend the use of mRNA-based COVID-19 vaccines produced by companies such as Pfizer, especially among elderly people, due to the vaccines' safety uncertainties following the deaths of 23 elderly Norwegian people who received the vaccine. www.globaltimes.cn/page/202101/1212915.shtml#.YAH4cOM0a0Q.twitter 24 Dead And 137 Infected In Nursing Home After COVID-19 Vaccination – Previously, They Had ZERO Deaths From Covid humansarefree.com/2021/01/24-dead-and-137-infected-in-nursing-home-aft.. this marks the fourth time an Israeli in his or her 70s or 80s with underlying conditions has passed away shortly after receiving a Pfizer Covid vaccine. www.israelnationalnews.com/.../294861 10 deaths in germany www.n-tv.de/panorama/Institut-prueft-zehn-Todesfaelle-nach-Impfung-art..

As I mentioned back on 12/8 articles.mercola.com/sites/articles/archive/2020/12/08/coronavirus-vac.. This research however showed anti-Spike IgG antibodies from serum of severely ill COVID-19 patients strongly amplifies pro-inflammatory responses by human macrophages, and can contribute to subsequent endothelial barrier disruption and thrombosis (blood clotting). <http://sha.rest/QbuNmW> This raises a possibility that spike-targeting vaccines may pose some hidden risks in people with already higher pro inflammatory macrophages and complement activation. The demographic will include older people, smokers, or those with chronic inflammation, obesity, type 2 diabetes, cancer, or autoimmune disease.

Posted On 01/16/2021

The complement system can be activated during an adaptive immune response by the binding of C1q to antibody:antigen complexes and complement activation also elicits secretion of both IL-1 β and IL-18 via the NLRP3 inflammasome which is essential for the development of a cytokine storm and regardless of a possible vaccine risk, NLRP3 are now a target in late stage covid-19 where this complement/NLRP3 hyperactivation is occurring as mentioned. Hi Stan, always good to be prepared just in case, there is clearly a lot going on that is not being announced to the public at this point.

We need SOLUTIONS to this treacherous Agenda. And perhaps the answer to ending this Covid Tyranny is a right in front of our eyes? We may already have the key to open the prison of Government Stasi Pharma control, and at the same time bring to justice the perpetrators of this Global assault on our freedoms. And that key is Hydroxychloroquine which was falsely given a red flag when certain entities overdosed and murdered patients on "trials" to demonise it. These trials (among them the "Recovery" and "Solidarity" trials) were sponsored by the Wellcome Trust and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation among others.

It was obvious that HCQ would be a threat to their hugely profiteering vaccine & control Agenda. Conversely, where HCQ has been used it keeps people safe as a prophylactic. It can be used as part of an early-use home treatment which would stop most hospitalisation IF used early. So many people have died because of criminal negligence disguised as "health advice". Gates and the Medical Mafia's lucrative plan is to vaccinate all and use this as a weapon of control through "Health" passports - to say nothing of the injuries caused by vaccine side effects have added to the numbers of countless dead.

If this could be made public on the main stream media it would surely bring down complicit Govt's and corrupt "health" bureaucrats and free up society, bring back real Democracy and personal freedom and get Big Pharma $$, Bill Gates and his cronies into prison and seize their assets for the benefit and reparation of those who have suffered terribly in various ways. Front-line American doctors are exposing this sinister agenda: www.youtube.com/watch This cartoon says it all: twitter.com/.../1 This survey back up the value of HCQ world-wide: <https://c19study.com/> Ivermectin. Hello Newlands ! We here in M'ville know by now how to keep the corona wolf away from the doorstep or send him packing should he somehow cross the threshold. Hi epi-cure: Good video - thanks. My post is providing the precise tool with which to call out the so-called Medical Emergency. If the health bureaucrats were to use a prophylactic and life-saving early-use preventative drug - they cannot then claim a "medical emergency". HCQ would make it a demonstrable false flag.

So my emphasis on HCQ is a huge weapon in any legal matter. The medical mafia should be brought to justice for poisoning unsuspecting patients with 4 times the recommended dose on "trials" to demonise this life-saver. This put off thousands of doctors from prescribing it causing the loss of countless thousands more lives. It's a verifiable crime against humanity. I have sent a letter about this with proof to lawyer Reiner Fuellmich. I hope other lawyers can be informed, because this simple cheap drug could be like David in his fight with Goliath. If this issue can fully reach the public arena - all the lying complicit scoundrels will be shown to have committed huge crimes against humanity dressed up as "keeping you safe".

I have read so much about the great reset, there are many versions of it. However I read Prince Charles Terra Carta Charter last night, (on the Terra Carta Sustainable Markets Website "download the charter") He is all for change, however, he is pushing for Nature to be the reference point and centre of the change, along with technology etc... If change must happen I think that this approach of having Nature at the centre of change is a good one. He has global reach, and a somewhat unique position of being able to reach the poorest in society and the richest and most powerful.

Beware what "change" you seek! Our inherent freedom led us to attempt mastery over Nature. To accept Nature's supremacy would be just another form of slavery. Nature is part of our creation. Our bodies may be a part of Nature, but we aren't. Until we realize this, we will remain confused.

middle-class gen pop has nowhere to go. We've become an isolated people who have forgotten what a collective is, what unity is, what giving and sharing is all about. Norman Rockwell is dead and so is the sense of community. Competition and lavish accumulation of mostly junk have destroyed the basics of community. Where do we go. How do we get there. Quit our jobs? Sell our homes? Live out of a van? It's time to start saying what this really is ... drop out of society and prepare for a down-low underground lifestyle. I agree with another poster who wants concrete ideas of how to combat this, especially for the common individual. I am 69 and my husband is 73. We have little options already. He had a stroke 2-1/2 years ago and has not recovered so I am his caretaker. Savings are long gone. I don't know what Bitcoin is even after reading about it. As far as getting rid of a smart phone, that is stupid. How do you think I even follow Dr Mercola if not for a smart phone? I am blessed with good health and follow a lifestyle he has promoted for years. Lately there is little on health and all this transhuman theory. I don't see a mainstream doctor and I don't vaccinate but beyond that I have no idea what to do. Quite frankly I am more worried for my children and grandchildren and their future. By the way, I personally know people who have died of Covid, one being a healthy fit 41 year old man. I don't know what is really going on but I do know people are dying that shouldn't be. I also know people dealing with long term health issues after a mild case. I just wish there were concrete answers to whatever this is. I know with every article I read from Mercola I find myself getting more stressed and that's not healthy. I consider myself reasonably intelligent and an independent thinker but I'm at my wits end. I can't jump through hoops at this point in my life.

Many of them have been kicked off the major internet platforms, but some of them own their own platforms and are continuing to operate. Just a suggestion I hope you take as friendly. elbice, I agree with you to some degree. I feel and have heard that people that died early on into the virus were not given the right medication. Using ventilators instead of oxygen. I read a good book about a nurse from Florida, Erin Marie Olszewski, who went to NYC to help out with the Pandemic. Mercola also recommends this book. She said what they did in the Elmhurst hospital led to unnecessary deaths. I know people have died but to close down our country and the media instilling fear into everyone is totally criminal.

We have people dying every year of TB, flu and other diseases. Hospitals were getting money for covid deaths. Elmhurst hospital in NYC is a poor hospital and every covid death our government was giving them money. Again corruption. Not just with our government system but with our medical system. Now they have put out that Vitamin D does not help you for covid. Don't believe it and will continue taking D and Zinc. I take only vitamins and only had one flu vaccine at the age of 15. Just turned 70. Not getting the vaccine for this virus either. Thanks to Mercola and other doctors I have been following I would trust them than any doctor who follows western medicine. I am also worried about my granddaughter's future.

Elbice, My wife and I are 73, and I certainly understand your concern -- especially for children and grandchildren. The article and the posts on this topic are definitely frightening and stress-inducing. They are certainly intended as a warning (stress-inducing) and a wake-up call for the future (frightening).

There have been several posts talking about "what to do" in our practical day to day lives -- which is all we have control over. We cannot individually stop the elites from using their billions to wield power in whatever direction they choose. But we do have control over the life bubble that surrounds us -- loving and caring for family, protecting privacy as we are able, making good choices. I don't have money to spare to invest in BitCoin, and do not place my faith there anyway (all those buying gold must have forgotten when gold was confiscated for the war effort by FDR).

I hesitate to spiritualize the matter, but the practical fact of the matter is that my family and I have found peace and personal security in our Christian faith. It is not the faith per se, but the Lord Who provides grace and contentment in the face of chaos that grows more demonic every day. Beyond peace-in-the-now, despite circumstances, there are prophecies that mirror what we see happening around us. While there are wide-ranging interpretations of such Scripture passages, we find references that are hard to mistake. "Israel stands alone against the world." (This written by John -- 90s AD -- after the destruction of Judea, Jerusalem and the Temple in 70 AD -- but which also portends the demise of the USA, re-born Israel's greatest ally). "buying and selling controlled by the mark of the Beast" (this present article on digitalized slavery). "a third of the world destroyed by fire" (nuclear weapons). "world-wide government under the AntiChrist" (globalism, the collapse of nation-states). And I could go on. But . . .

OleDad1948

OleDad1948 continued - to Elbice But I have no control over End Time events either. If the alignment of the things we see around us and biblical prophecies that are centuries -- millenia -- old mean anything, then what we are seeing points us to the One Who is in charge of it all. And that One has made a way for us to live in peace and joy despite the surrounding chaos, just as the martyrs of old went to their deaths with confidence in the One Who overcame death itself. So I will love and care for my family, share with friends, share my faith, and live in the Eternal Now as we face the evils of the world, as believers of all ages have done. At 73, we do not have many years left, and as one poster said, "living in constant fear" is not life.

I would appreciate actual concrete suggestions to combat this, not theories - what can I, an ordinary person do? Give actual examples please.

Having , this article suggests that which is postulated to be occurring , It does not suggest that it knows the answers to mitigate it , which would obviously be something beyond it's capability.

The article that someone posted above . . .

www.foreignaffairs.com/articles/united-states/2020-11-24/fukuyama-how-..

. . . shows that there are many voices ringing alarm bells. The drastic changes to American society that have been made by leaders and more or less accepted by citizens will not continue in a straight line. Pushback against lockdowns is growing. Tangible actions are being taken politically against the worst offenders -- Newsome (CA), Cuomo (NY), Whitmer (MI). Democrats, having succeeded in getting Biden elected, are now calling for an easing of lockdowns, showing that the lockdowns were as much political as medical.

Politically, vote for candidates who are for the US rather than Globalism, for the Bill of Rights rather than government oppression, for control of Big Tech censorship rather than use of Big Tech censorship, for transparency rather than hidden bills which have to be "passed so we can see what is in it." In short, vote for freedom over enslavement, more choices in communication over fewer choices. Elect such voices at local, State, and Federal levels. Government leaders are making decisions that drive us toward liberty (1A 2A), or away from it (PC, speech codes, preferred people groups).

Personally, follow the advice of those who explain how to keep us at arm's length from data gathering. The people of the world have freely given the most intimate details of their lives to government and Big Tech entities, and those details are increasingly enslaving us.

If most people do nothing, the enslavement will continue, and it is beyond any of us individually to stop it --

No one wants to know the answer to that question. What if I said "learn Scientology?" Would that satisfy your curiosity? Most don't want to fight; they just want it to go away, or to blame it for their own problems. If we don't like the petty little games they play here on Earth, we must create better ones. To fight something just makes you the enemy.

This is somewhat over the top. To believe all this , one would have to ascribe to the theory that millions have been purposely killed by this virus to its ends . I don't believe that . That the entire Medical Community is "in on it"? Opportunity Zones are a viable means of revitalizing otherwise uninvestable venues to the end of creating jobs and housing . Ironically , it accomplishes what this article fears - the directing of assets into desired directions . We've been doing that sort of financial directing via the income tax system for a very long time . There are some very real issues noted in this article , but I do not believe that it is a Mastuh Plan developed in secret from the start to control the world , But rather that some of the consequences are nonetheless of concern .

The medical community, there are the odd good ones, the majority are brainwashed in school and uni etc... like vets. All money making model now, despite the Hippocratic oath they take.

Oh come on. They can use technology to spy on us, for sure. Agreed. Protecting ourselves is key (turn off Alexa, leave your cell phone at home, etc). But they can Not use technology per se, to control us. That is ridiculous. We know our own minds.

They know enough of us simply from our posting here. We cannot hide and, anyway, we might as well stay human for the little time left. Once you have "Contacts" anywhere, they can even predict your actions. It is a good idea to remove batteries from your cell phone (there are still a few models that can do this), but as long as you have a computer in the room with a microphone or a built-in speaker, they can record everything. Laptops can do this even when they are turned off. Desktop RAM can also behave as an EPROM. However, you can unplug a desktop, while you have to remove the battery from a laptop. If you are not smart enough to connect your "smart" TV to the internet (the Wi-Fi cannot be turned off, so once you typed in your password, it can access your internet connection (I'm quite certain that the latest models even probe your wireless connection until they find your password, unless you have something that is at least 32 characters long).

It's about gas lighting your children against you 😂 in school, your coworkers against you on TV, mad paranoia preaching everyone is sick, everyone is a threat, trust no one, hate everyone, blame who the media tells you to blame, be a sucker, buy and eat  food, take the nano kill switch vaccine or no work, no travel, no banking, wtf are you thinking...la de da it's ok we'll be fine...see how long that mantra works... 'come on man' Joe Biden, seriously, you're practically quoting Biden...omfg...zinovius, how did humanity survive 100,000 years, without essential smart phones, essential vaccines 🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔, dang you stupid... Dependant on your control grid much, your human autoimmune causing vaccines, because hey, if we weren't turning humans into damaged, disfunctional, medically dependant cripples, we'd all be dead right...dang the corporate blind faith is strong in this one...broke the dumb scale...

Dear everybody: Absolutely Nobody can control us by subliminal suggestion unless we agree with it. Nobody, but I mean nobody, can control us when we know our own minds. It sounds like most people don't know their own minds? Just ridiculous. I don't blame social control on subliminal suggestions, I blame it on gullibility. Do research and know your own thinking. That is my solution to what almost everybody here is saying. I will repeat, it is absolutely ridiculous. Because a crow says "caw" and a parrot says "wrak" we don't have to say it back! And damned well, nobody is going to tell me that "The devil made me do it". Sheesh.

As for protecting ourselves, there are many ways. Support the sources that don't censor, like Bitchute. Put your cellphone inside a mylar bag, this will bounce off the radio signals. Astonished, thank you for providing us with some solutions, that is exactly what we need. Appreciation! You are absolutely right about microphones, ditch Alexa! Tape over the camera on your computer with masking tape, and turn off your microphone (not sure if they can record regardless? Get a computer with no computer and no mic). Don't use "Smart" gadgets, they are nothing more than spy mechanisms, this includes your smart meter et al. We can buck the system and we must.

Also work to defund the beast. Boycott anything that Bill Gates is all about: MSN, Microsoft, etc. Boycott social media, GMOs, boycott BigPharma, boycott anywhere you can, and speak out. Join the grassroots and civil liberties organizations. That's it. We have choices.

There are certainly elements of truth in this article which are once again manipulated into an ANTI VAX tirade of nonsense. Hospitals in the UK have run out of ITU beds and inter-regional transfers of some very sick people are increasing. COVID has show itself to be a chronic disease for many people and most people are very keen to have the vaccine and the protection it offers. With the oceans heating up rapidly, hope anything getting back to normal is naive, and we are all going to have to change our behaviour, particularly in the US where it is least likely to happen. Hoping to get back to the past of "Freedom" (as if!) is a myth. For me, predictions of dystopia are like paradise compared to how it will be in a heating world with collapsing ecosystems, food shortages, social breakdown and death. Please get real about the reality of our times.

I tried to reply to your nonsense, but every time I tried I couldn't because it made me laugh. You are a very uninformed, naive person. Manatees have lived in Florida for eons. In the winter months the water is now so cold, that many of these massive creatures must be taken to rescue facilities where they're warmed up. Otherwise they would perish. How do you explain that away?
