Once more, dear reader, I put on my hazmat suit and enter the fake world where SARS-Cov2 exists, the Delta Variant exists, the test is meaningful, the case numbers are real, and the vaccine makes sense. These are all lies, as I've been proving for the past year, but even within the fake world of those lies, the experts can't keep their stories straight; they contradict themselves, they expose their own fabrications, and they try to cover up those exposures with new pathetic fabrications. Here we go:

RT, July 30 [1] [1a]: "The CDC has released a study backing up its decision to recommend indoor masking for both vaccinated and unvaccinated Americans. The study examined one outbreak and found three-quarters of people testing positive were vaccinated.”

Select Month

“The CDC released that evidence on Friday. In a study of 469 cases of Covid-19 that broke out in the resort town of Cape Cod, Massachusetts, earlier this month, 74% occurred in ‘fully vaccinated persons.’ Four out of five patients hospitalized were fully vaccinated, and on average the inoculated had completed their two rounds of doses only 86 days before infection.”

Oops.

“Lab testing revealed that 90% of all the Cape Cod infections involved the Delta variant of the coronavirus.”

Oops again. So fully vaccinated people are infected with the Delta Variant.

“The study appears to negate the argument by top health officials that unvaccinated Americans are responsible for the fourfold rise in Covid-19 cases in the US since June. ‘This is an issue predominantly among the unvaccinated, which is the reason why we’re out there, practically pleading with the unvaccinated people to go out and get vaccinated,’ White House coronavirus adviser [and psychopathic liar] Dr. Anthony Fauci told CNN on Sunday, adding that the US is currently moving ‘in the wrong direction’ with regard to stamping out Covid-19.”

Yet another oops.

“The [CDC] report lends weight to the argument that the current crop of vaccines aren’t as effective against the Delta variant, although the CDC and World Health Organization (WHO) both insist that vaccination is effective against ‘severe disease and death' from the virus, to quote WHO technical lead Maria Van Kerkhove in a briefing earlier on Friday.”

More nonsense. As I've been reporting for months, the 3 clinical trials of the major COVID vaccines were DESIGNED to only prove the vaccine could protect against mild disease; e.g., a cough, or chills and fever. Not severe disease. [2]

The CDC new Cape Cod study of vaccinated people has caused a firestorm among “the experts.” A member of the White House coronavirus coffee klatch, Ben Wakana, is claiming only a very small percentage of vaccinated people (who are infected with the virus) can transmit it to others.

RT: “[However] the CDC study noted that similarly high viral loads were found in vaccinated and unvaccinated people.

Walensky [head of the CDC] stated on Friday that ‘high viral loads suggest an increased risk of transmission’ and raised concern that ‘vaccinated people infected with Delta can transmit the virus’.”

RT: [But] “The study itself is less alarmist, stating that ‘microbiological studies are required to confirm these findings’ [that vaccinated people who are infected can spread the virus.]”

Well, if the vaccinated and unvaccinated both have high loads of the virus, why wouldn’t vaccinated people spread the virus easily to others? Is there some magic set of walls in the vaccine that keeps the virus locked up inside the body?

And there you have it, the latest revelations about the vaccine, the virus, the Delta Variant, viral transmission, and the attempt to cover up the whole business up after it's gone public.

The next time someone tells you it's the duty of all Americans to take the shot in the arm, say, "Of course you've heard about the new Cape Cod study, right?"

"What? What's that? Codfish are filled with toxic mercury? They're dying because of global warming?"

"No. Lots of vaccinated people still have the killer virus in their bodies. And it's alive. And it spreads from person to person."

"That can't be true. Dr. Fauci didn't say that."

"Well, he was on vacation when the study came out. Inside sources say he's dumbfounded. Fully vaccinated people have loads and loads of the virus still in their bodies. They're walking time bombs. That's why we have to wear masks, even after we get the shot."

“Do we have to wear masks while we’re in the bathroom? While we’re having sex?”

“Absolutely. Two masks while you’re having sex. And no kissing, even through the masks. No talking, either. Talking can spread the virus.”

“I didn’t know that.”

“Hey, I’m risking my life right now talking to you. But I’m willing to take the risk, for all of humanity.”

“I appreciate that. But what do we do? Do we get vaccinated again?”

“That won’t help. Just wear the mask. Shut up. Stay indoors. In another few years, the doctors might have an answer.”

And that concludes today’s episode of The Wild and Wacky World of COVID, where the fake virus is real, there is a Delta Variant, and the vaccine makes sense.

These lies are brought to Jon.....you MUST see this 17 min. interview with Stew Peters and Canadian Patrick King. YOU have been vindicated. COVID cannot be proven in Canadian court proceeding. They cannot provide proof it was ever isolated. Canada has downgraded COVID to a mild flu. This is a real bombshell interview. PLEASE listen.

Canada has not “downgraded Covid to a mild flu.” Alberta has done this. While a few other provinces

have dropped their mandates,
most provinces
are still holding the continuing

the lie.

Caveat: As a Canadian, a can reassure you Canada has no downgraded to Flu status.

The gentlemen in the video was from Alberta, where, with Saskatchewan, they implemented a government mandate to NOT wear masks. Those Prvonces followed the lead of British Columbia (Canada's warmest area, big hint!), where Covid restrictions were much milder during this madness.

Unfortunately, in most of the other Provinces, restrictions still apply.

Along with all this – fake cases are again ‘surging’ across the Country (except in AB/SK – where they no longer test asymptomatic persons).

The ‘delta’ fake variant (how does something dead mutate anyways!?) Is being plastered all over our propaganda news cycle.

Luckily we live next door to our brothers in the US, as many Canadians fell and inherent ‘Patriotism that is spawned, not from OUR history, but from Americans (thank you again my friends)

I've pretty much had it with all the BS being handed down by the white shirted Gods of the Medical Establishment and their government stooges. I say with regard to new lockdowns and mandates, because of the so called 'Delta Variant', bring it.... I am ready, willing and able to defy these unconstitutional edicts with the force of all my being. I do not fear it. I will not comply with any new mandates and will demonstrate my opposition as such in my daily actions, in my writing (the pen is mightier than the sword) and in every way humanly possible for I am on the true and only road to freedom... the one that leads through the human heart and ends in the heart of the universe. Let these tyrannical measures be the blood of our new birth!

Jon's imaginary conversation above cannot even occur at this point.

Americans, or what-used-to-be-ordinary-people around the world... are just going-along-to-get-along with zero reference points to what-used-to-be-freedom... in their minds. They've become "humanOIDS"... apparently without conscience, obedient to authoritarian edicts, fully capable of cognitive dissonance without hesitation.

"I'm not going to argue with you" is probably the single most important defense against thought that these humanoids have that I've encountered. I will say "I'm not arguing with you, it's a fact you can check yourself... the existence of a virus has not been proven". Another retort is "whatever".

Or “I’m not taking any chances”.
Conversations I’m having simply dead-end after one or two back and forths before becoming frightening.

My confusion has cleared [almost from the get go I might add]. I completely understand what is being done and, as previously mentioned, I won't stand for it. I think Jon is right the real number of American's who wont take the jab is being hidden or at least downplayed. Still it is sad to see how many have taken the jab like some of my loved ones. The human body is the last frontier for colonization by the the lords of the rising tyranny.

Rachel says at 12:42 pm

I notice the CDC, the WHO, and Fauci keep changing the narrative too. Today the CDC is saying that 90% or some huge number of Covid hospitalizations are among the unvaxxed. And previous infection won't protect you like the jab will.

No one points out these incongruities and how the story changes by the same person. Day to day. No admission that a change has occurred.

I have zero trust or impatience for the liars orchestrating this. And zero sympathy for anyone stupid enough to keep believing them. Some people prefer violent, abusive domestic partners. Half the people in the world want a brutal, dishonest, cruel totalitarian state. If they die from obeying known liars it will be their choice. Such willful stupidity IS a choice.

would be spot on
had he referenced Biblical Truth.
All tyrants have done what was good
for their country,
from their, and their follower’s, point of view.
Such is the case with our “leaders”, and
their followers,
today.

They are doing what they think is best for the country.

Isaiah 66:4
I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears
upon them; because
when I called, none
did answer; when I
spake, they did not hear: but they did
evil before mine
eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

deceivableness of unrighteousness in
them that perish;
because they
received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause
God shall send them
strong delusion, that they should believe
a lie:

12 That they all
might be damned
who believed not the

Good,
decent,

At
what point

The

I wish there was a way to quickly give a “hey, great” to your commenters, Jon, who are the most intelligent on this thing we call the internet. I always learn something here from them.

Rick from Phoenix on the “I’m not going to argue with you...” Yes, I’ve gotten that innumerable times. That means: Leave me AND my Mask alone. This is not up for discussion.

And Stephen Langley, you read my mind: I saw from spring of 2020 that Confusion was being used as an essential part of this Psy Op. They rattle you so much you STOP listening and simply obey. It’s obvious. Well, to us.

Jon writes: “Hey, I’m risking my life right now talking to you. But I’m willing to take the risk, for all of humanity.”

And the guy (or gal) says, “I appreciate that.”

As bizarre as the first person is, that second sentence says it all—a Total Non Sequitur. A completely meaningless response to an empty statement. And hence, the Covid movie. On a loop.

If the virus has not been isolated then what is making everybody contagious/dead? It seems to me that most of the deaths reported are from the people that got the vax?? So is all the variants in the shot???????? I think so. They say there are thousands of variants so this is not going away ever, they will always have a reason to lock us down/mask up.....they are killing us. It appears that it does not matter if your vaxed or not, the unvaxed can get infected by the spreaders(vaxed).....so we are screwed whether we get the vax or not? Who the hell wants to live in a #$$% world like this?

Is anyone willing to step up and challenge these statements? In view of how Dr. Anthony Fauci has been called out and bawled out by Sen. Rand Paul for lying to the public in order to put the nation under lockdown. Lying to the public about COVID-19 and it's origin, and perverting the cause of science to back up his falsehoods on coronavirus. The CDC had to finally admit they had a vaccine before there was even a virus to treat! Who is zooming who(m) in this war of words and misinformation, purely based on profitability by the charlatans, Bill Gates and Anthony Fauci?

“... I put on my hazmat suit and enter the fake world where SARS-Cov2 exists, the Delta Variant exists, the test is meaningful, the case numbers are real, and the vaccine makes sense. These are all lies...”

The insanity over this ‘No-It’s-NOT-a-Damn-Vaccine’ puncture of misery and submission is beyond belief. People have gone off-the-rails crazy with the worst kind of faux religious zealotry madness over this obscene violation of body and soul and they are doing this with (un)righteous indignation and a sickening stench of superiority. They have wrapped themselves around a fake dogma of Fake Science and Fake Experts and various public figures who by their actions have shown that what’s left of the souls has been fully purchased by the Devil himself. Hope they got a good price.

When so many people have gone so far off the deep end and turned their thoughts and beliefs (and their very self-identity and not to mention the precious arms of their children over to lunatics in lab coats) in their zeal for this institutionally-sanctioned abomination against the Planet... it is doubtful they can ever return to sane society and thinking. They are just too far gone. And that makes them a dangerous wild-card for the future.

If these aren't the 'Last Days' as well described in the Book of Revelation, then is sure is a damn good approximation.

Hang on tight to your sanity and your humanity (and your arm), everyone. They are trying to drive you crazy and alienate you from your very human (and humane) nature. This is their long-awaited full-court-press and it is succeeding much faster and easier than they could have ever dreamed of.

This is truly one of the Darkest Chapters in human history – maybe the Final one. Orwell's Big Boot is coming down on our heads and way too few people even care.

Just let this go viral somehow ..

This entire pandemic is R.I.C.O.

The reference is an article of “Russia Today” talking about the new study of CDC. On CDC site I couldn’t find that new study.

If Jon or anyone else can produce a link to the ORIGINAL of the much discussed CDC study , that will be great , because I want to see in original the methodology employed .

Thank you !

If your wife/husband repeatedly lied and cheated on you, why

would you be asking
to see their methodology?
Sounds like
masochism to me. \

They lied and cheated, and are completely unrepentant, that's all that matters.

Ah, that would be the vax

In a study of 469 cases of Covid-19 that broke out in the resort town of Cape Cod, Massachusetts, earlier this month, 74% occurred in ‘fully vaccinated persons.’

That was a week long gay orgy. Evey transmissible disease was there in abundance.

I doubt you could find one person there that didn’t have some type of ailment from being immunocompromised.

Those who have been given the DNA changing shot (with oodles of nanorobots as a bonus) are getting the

'virus'. The ones I know of, their 'logic' is that they have to wear masks...even though they got the shot, then got "covid", but they need to all wear masks....man the FOOLS OUT THERE REALLY GET ON MY LAST NERVE, YA KNOW??!?!?

IF the public could understand how USELESS the PCR test is, this would be over! The PCR test is so bad that's all talk of "spiking cases" and "COVID deaths" and "breakthrough cases" and "variants" is meaningless! Perhaps this is a distraction meant to hide the fact that deaths are increasing because vaccinated people are dying from the shots, not from "COVID-19".

There's been too much emphasis about PCR "cycles". We all know that a high number of cycles like 40 is absurd but so is a low number of cycles. Here are some mainstream links that unintentionally show why PCR is useless for determining infection. The claim is that the COVID-19 virus genome is ~30,000

“letters” (nucleotides) long.
A PCR test ONLY CHECKS
for ~50(!) of those letters for a match! How can anyone claim that checking for only 1.7% of the virus is enough to determine you’re infected with that virus—especially when they also claim the SARS-COV-2 coronavirus is 80% similar to other coronaviruses, which only cause a mild cold!

The REAL purpose of PCR is to manufacture a DNA strand. “Primers” at the beginning and the end of the strand denote which segment will be replicated.
Step 4 of this link shows
two typical PCR “primers”, which only consist of 26 +22= 48 letters out of 30,000 letters!

<https://www.otago.ac.nz/biochemistry/research/otago736925.html>

A figure in this link shows the 8 steps of PCR and how the original DNA strand is doubled with every cycle.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Polymerase\_chain\_reaction

PCR is useless for diagnosing COVID-19. PCR is also used to generate the genome sequence for SARS-COV-2, which has never actually been proven to exist in the real world, i.e.
it’s computer-generated (talk about circular reasoning).

Thank you CK for this post! Helps to see this information repeated on various comments and by journalists such as Jon. Much repetition of these facts/common sense helps me to remember them! Another very good “expose” on Odysee: “A Manufactured Illusion...” Dr. David Martin Ph.D, businessman/patent expert interviewed by Reiner Fuellmich, international lawyer constructing lawsuit against the drug cartels.

There was a quote on a meme – can’t remember who said it and not an exact quote.

The intelligent person can no longer say intelligent things, so as not to insult the imbecile.

““Lab testing revealed that 90% of all the Cape Cod infections involved the Delta variant of the coronavirus.”

I assume they know it is the Delta because they are sending blood sample to a very highly specialized lab that can do this type of test. It cannot be done on site in the hospital.

We also have the full on engagement in the “information war” as we have people who are experts in their fields, Dr. Robert Malone – inventor of mRNA and Vaccinologists and Dr. Peter McCollough, Professor of Medicine and in Private Practice saying “This s Biology 101, this is Genetics 1A, even a kid in high-school biology knows that Vaccinating people in the middle of a pandemic will cause variants” – However, apparently there are experts and scientists WHO DENY THIS 100%.

Which begs the question – why is there not consensus on this? Which is pushing me further and further into the corner of VIROLOGY IS

A BOGUS SCIENCE.
Nobody knows what they are talking about.

How do we know that a virus is too small to pass through a mask if there is no virus.

WHAT IN G-D'S NAME
ARE THEY MEASURING?

I must pretend to believe in the virus around my frightened kids because going further will only damage my relationship with them to the point of no repair.

I have told them the 2 & 4 having to wear masks at school is child abuse.
Have told them their private school recommends that every student the vaccinated when the vaccine becomes available is the most disgraceful thing I have ever heard, and being a “religious” school is a joke as they cannot be spouting this bullshit and believe in G-d at the same time.!!!

We are at a place in time in history where everything we once believed and were taught is going to come crashing down on us all.

“There is a cult of ignorance and there always has been.

The strain of anti-intellectualism has been a constant thread winding its way through our political and cultural life, nurtured by the false notion that democracy means that “my ignorance is just as
