DeeLeo0827 2 weeks ago Big Pharma is already making money off injuries from the shots. I have friends who have developed the onset of new health issues and guess what? Their docs are putting them on meds to manage their "new" illness. It's so wrong. 36 likes Reply

This entire "pandemic" saga is nothing less mass-murder on an unprecedented scale that already exceeds the efforts of the Nazis in WW2 and has been undertaken by their virtual modern equivalent, a Global Socialist criminal cabal, with various elements all exploiting their little niches in this scheme, justifying it to support the control agenda, including "saving the planet" by depopulation, all for money, power and control.

It was planned and not only committed in two key phases but with more still contemplated, employing both the original virus(es) and the fake "malleable to any number of purposes" vaccines, from which millions have already become ill or died and will continue to do so, as the vaccine effects are likely irreversible for many, now on long slow death sentences, often with little advance warning of their own demise. AND it was a racket under the US RICO Act.

And every other "contertemps" on the planet today is or has been fomented by the same criminals to defraud nations of as much of their wealth as possible and to sow global disorder and chaos, and for defence of their agenda, such as Ukraine, which is a US-NATO-DS proxy war against Russia, while Russia is the only country openly stating that it is fighting the Nazis and trying to dispose of the US bio-weapons labs in Ukraine and defending themselves over an attempted heist of their country for purposes of stealing Russian resources. Every day our news assails us with pro-Ukraine propaganda to obscure these basic facts.

Likely First Order guilty parties are: Soros Past and present members of the US administration. Fauci FDA, NIH, NIAID, WHO Principals Gates Schwab Assorted banksters the Big Pharma involvees Peter Daszak Ralph Baric FB principles and ex-principles incl past and/or present CRISPR gene editing executives University of Nth Carolina University of Wisconsin

Dammitisadog 2 weeks ago I can't thank Project Veritas enough! They do what our "Trusted Media Sources" won't do. Remember when Main Stream Media had REAL investigative Reporters?? Of course, you don't. You'd have to be over 60 like I am. For many people, they would not believe this type of Evil exists and mere allegations would be construed, by the sleepers, as "conspiracy theory." (coined by the CIA for that very purpose) They must be shown! And, if it takes a little deception, so be it! There is a WAR being waged on our country, the world and humanity. It's a dangerous dirty job to go into the hell realms to get the proof the world needs, but thank GOD that Project Veritas is brave enough to do it! They have suffered immeasurably for their efforts and have had to deal with attacks from every vector. They have lost everything TWICE! I won't donate to either party, but I will donate to certain "elected" individuals in office and to Judicial Watch and Project Veritas. WE NEED THEM!! 23 likes Reply

PurebloodWarrior 2 weeks ago MSM is trying to make fun of people wanting to protect themselves with cheap and proven drugs. Ivermectin has been FDA approved for human use since 1996. It also beats Pfizer's new wonder drug hands down, and costs next to nothing. Ivermectin doesn't make tons of money. So they know the Covid shot is on its final gasp, so they take it add something different to it, rebrand under another name and charge 20 times what they would for ivermectin. I cannot wrap my head around this nonsense. When I explain this to my relatives they label me as crazy and ask me if I know better than science. I don't make up these information out of my ass. All this information is true and proven. For some people it is near impossible for them to wake up. They are comfortable in their clown world life. If you want to get Ivermectin you can visit ivmpharmacy.com 17 likes Reply

AnubisMRM 2 weeks ago What is the FBI doing about this? Are they too busy with investigations about parents who protest about school indoctrination? 8 likes Reply

OinkQuack 2 weeks ago Jordan Trishton Walker seems like a childish idiot with the vocabulary and verbal skills of the average teenager. His manner is so casual, unserious and unscientific. I find it hard to believe that he is highly educated in anything worthwhile. 7 likes Reply

Dammitisadog 2 weeks ago Jordan Walker flipped out and lost his mind toward the end here, because he started to realize just how much trouble he was in. I bet his very life is in jeopardy right now. I would guess that he is in hiding and has not shown up to work since that confrontation. I hope someone keeps tabs on Mr Walker, or checks the death or missing persons reports often where ever he lives. 7 likes Reply

browner010 2 weeks ago I'm willing to bet this exec will either be a missing person in a few days or will be suicided with 2 different calibers to the back of the head, he'll jump from the sears tower or empire state building 5 likes Reply

Lindabelinda 2 weeks ago He probably is a liar since the actual c19 virus was never isolated or purified. % fraud. C19 doesn't exist. The PCR test was pure fraud. It was always about selling the quackccine! And depopulation. 4 likes Reply kryptos4u 2 weeks ago Well as it stands right now, the consequences for Pfizer have been great, they have made close to US$100bn out of it... 3 likes Reply johnhobbs 2 weeks ago Please know there is a lot of truth coming out of Tucker's mouth! BUT BE NOT DECEIVED because he is working to instill the advance of a virus that has never been isolated nor met a single one of Koshi's 4 Postulates on what defines a virus. Oh, and by all means do not connect the dots so you realize the virus is the bioweapon injection AKA virus. 3 likes Reply
