

Understanding the Psychology Behind the COVID Pandemic

Analysis by Dr. Joseph Mercola

STORY AT-A-GLANCE

- › A psychological condition of society known as “mass formation psychosis” is a condition for totalitarianism. Under mass formation psychosis, a population enters a hypnotic-type trance that makes them willing to sacrifice anything, including their lives and their freedom. That’s what’s happening right now
- › There are four key conditions that must be in place for mass formation psychosis to occur: Lack of societal bonding, experiencing life as meaningless and senseless, widespread free-floating anxiety/free-floating discontent, and free-floating frustration/aggression
- › Once these four conditions are widespread, mass formation can occur, which allows for totalitarianism to rise and thrive
- › A key strategy to break mass formation and prevent totalitarianism is to speak out against it. We also need to give those hypnotized a greater fear to replace the fear of the virus with, namely the fear of totalitarianism and the loss of their and their children’s lives, livelihoods and freedoms that go along with it
- › Dissenters need to join together, thereby giving fence-sitters who are not yet fully hypnotized an alternative to going along with the totalitarians

 From Dr. Joseph Mercola

Since COVID-19 first entered the scene, exchange of ideas has basically been outlawed. By sharing my views and those from various experts throughout the pandemic on COVID treatments and the experimental COVID jabs, I became a main target of the White House, the political establishment and the global cabal.

Propaganda and pervasive censorship have been deployed to seize control over every part of your life, including your health, finances and food supply. The major media are key players and have been instrumental in creating and fueling fear.

I am republishing this article in its original form so that you can see how the progression unfolded.

Originally published: December 18, 2021

In the video above, Dr. Robert Malone, inventor of the mRNA and DNA vaccine core platform technology,<sup>1</sup> reviews a theory professor Mattias Desmet, a Belgian psychologist and statistician, believes explains the absurd and irrational behavior we're now seeing worldwide with regard to the COVID pandemic and its countermeasures.

He calls this phenomenon "mass formation psychosis," a type of crowd hypnosis that results in literally converting a large segment of the population into psychosis. Mass formation psychosis is the explanation for how the Germans accepted the atrocities by the Nazi party in the 1930s, and it's the explanation for why so many around the world support medical apartheid and the destruction of the unvaccinated now.

It's so irrational and inhumane, many have wondered how we got here. As it turns out, the psychology of totalitarianism has been studied for decades, and the whole thing is in fact explainable as a psychiatric phenomenon that arises when certain conditions exist in a society.

The Four Base Conditions for 'Mass Formation'

The four central conditions that need to exist in order for mass formation psychosis to take root are:

- 1. Lack of social bonding – Social isolation was a widespread problem long before the pandemic. In one survey, 25% of respondents said they didn't have a single close friend. The COVID lockdowns also contributed and worsened already existing isolation. We were all told that any contact with others, including members of our own family, could be a death sentence.
- 2. Seeing life as meaningless, purposelessness and senseless, and/or being faced with persistent circumstances that don't make rational sense – Desmet cites research showing that half of all adults feel their jobs are completely meaningless, providing no value to either themselves or others.

In another poll, done in 2012, 63% of respondents said they were "sleepwalking" through their workdays, putting no passion into their work whatsoever. So, condition No. 2 for mass formation hypnosis was also fulfilled, even before the pandemic hit.

Events that occurred in late 2019 and early 2020, such as the many questions surrounding the presidential election and the initial COVID lockdowns, added fuel to the widespread confusion and uncertainty, resulting in the next condition: free-floating anxiety.

- 3. Widespread free-floating anxiety and free-floating discontent – Free-floating anxiety refers to anxiety that has no apparent or distinct cause. Judging by the popularity of antidepressants and other psychiatric drugs, condition No. 3 was also fulfilled long before the pandemic, but additional fuel was piled on just before the pandemic.

Many felt, and still feel, that "things just aren't right." Through 2020, it became increasingly apparent to many that most if not all of the systems we depend on are broken, and likely broken beyond repair, including our medical system, our voting system and our judicial system.

- 4. Widespread free-floating frustration and aggression – This tends to naturally follow the previous three. Here, again, the frustration and aggression have no discernible cause.

How Mass Formation Allows Totalitarianism to Rise

When these four conditions are fulfilled by a large enough portion of society, they are ripe for the picking to convert to a psychosis, being totally out of touch with reality, which in turn leads to the rise of totalitarianism. As explained by Malone, when the pandemic broke out, people around the world became obsessed with one thing: the virus.

People everywhere thought about, read about and talked about the virus almost exclusively to everything else. This singular focus, this obsession, having the base conditions for mass formation already firmly in place, allowed for large portions of the population to enter into a hypnotic-like state.

In that hypnotic-like state (it's very similar to conventional hypnotism but with minor differences), people lose their ability to have rational thought and judgment.

As noted by Malone, there is evidence that suggests at least parts of this psychological operation were done intentionally, by “some entity that has financial benefit or power to gain from doing this, which gets to the point of global totalitarianism.” Now, once a large portion of a society is hyper-focused on and fused in their joint discontent and anxiety, all a leader or leaders need to do to convince many that totalitarian control and loss of their freedom is best for them is to:

- a) Present a story in which the cause of the anxiety is identified, and then

b) Offer a strategy for neutralizing that cause

Social Bonding Is Key

By accepting and participating in whatever that strategy is, people with free-floating anxiety feel equipped with the means to control their anxiety and avoid panic. They also feel a strong bond with others, because they've all identified the same nemesis. As explained by Desmet in the Peak Prosperity interview below:

"Because many people participate in the same strategy to deal with the object of anxiety, a new kind of social bond emerges a new kind of solidarity. So, people feel connected again in a new way. And that's actually the most crucial thing.

If you look at the corona crisis and listen to the mainstream narrative, you will hear that everything is about solidarity. You have to participate, you have to accept the vaccine. You have to respect social distancing, because if you don't, you lack citizenship, you show no solidarity. That's the most crucial thing, always, in mass formation.

That's the real reason why people buy into the story, even if it is utterly absurd. It's not because they believe in the narrative. It is because the narrative leads to a new social bond. That's the real reason.

There's [also another] advantage. All the frustration and aggression can be directed at an object. And that object is the people who, for one reason or another, do not want to participate in the mass formation ...

So, you have this very strange situation where people start from a very negative and divisive mental state; [they have a] lack of social bond, lack of meaning-making, free floating anxiety and a lot of frustration and aggression.

They switch from this very highly aversive mental state to a symptomatic positive state where they feel connected. Their life makes sense again through this heroic struggle with the object of anxiety ... That's why people continue to believe in the narrative, even if it is utterly absurd."

Mass Formation Psychosis Is a Self-Destructive Condition

The crazy thing is that the story can be an obvious lie, yet those under this hypnotic spell will believe it. The remedy can be utterly absurd, yet they'll obey. This is how totalitarianism is allowed to rise.

Of course, there must always be a common enemy that must be obliterated – the “cause” for the peoples’ fear and anxiety – and under totalitarian rule, that enemy is anyone who is not spellbound. The dissenters are the enemy. In 2021, the unmasked and unvaccinated are the enemy.

“ Mass formation psychosis is a very dangerous condition, both for those under its spell and those who aren't, because the 'mental intoxication' that results makes people willing to do things that are clearly wrong and utterly immoral, up to and including voluntarily killing their own families and themselves, if told it's for the greater good.”

If everyone would just get the experimental jab, COVID would vanish and everyone could go back to feeling safe again. That's the narrative. It makes no sense, it's irrational, inhumane and unscientific, but those who are in mass formation psychosis believe it's just that simple, and that's why some are able to wish death on the unmasked and/or unvaccinated.

So, as noted by Malone, “If it seems to you that the rest of the world has gone mad, the truth is, they have.” A problem far greater than any virus now is mass formation itself.

It’s a very dangerous condition, both for those under its spell and those who aren’t, because the “mental intoxication” that results makes people willing to do things that are clearly wrong and utterly immoral, up to and including voluntarily killing their own families and themselves, if told it’s for the greater good. In short, masses of people become profoundly gullible and self-destructive, which is a frightening combination.

As noted by Desmet, in a dictatorship, people comply because they fear the dictator. In a totalitarian regime, however, mass formation psychosis is at work, and this gives the regime extreme power over the individual, as the people, when in this hypnotic trance, voluntarily destroy their own families, their lives and themselves, along with the stated enemy.

Is Totalitarianism Unavoidable?

Malone says that in his conversations with Desmet, Desmet has said he believes the mass formation psychosis is so widespread at this point that global totalitarianism may be unavoidable. He believes it’ll take over, as we’re seeing in a number of countries already. So, what, if anything, can we do? A summary of suggestions are as follows:

- Continue providing true and accurate information to counter the false narrative. Some who aren’t yet fully hypnotized may still be routed back to sanity. Speaking out can also help to limit the atrocities the totalitarian regime is emboldened to implement, because in totalitarianism, atrocities and crimes against humanity increase as dissent decreases.
- Substitute fear of the virus narratives with narratives that highlight an even greater fear – fear of totalitarianism. “Totalitarianism is a bigger boogeyman than the virus is,” Malone says. “Losing control to Bill Gates, the World Economic Forum, BlackRock and Vanguard is a bigger threat than SARS-CoV-2 is for you and your children, by far.”

Desmet has tested this theory, and found you CAN break the hypnotic focus on COVID if you’re able to refocus their attention on something that’s of even greater concern to them.

- Join with other dissenters into larger groups. This gives the larger majority who aren’t fully hypnotized but too fearful to go against the grain an alternative to going along with the totalitarians.
- Build parallel structures within your local communities. Think globally, act locally. Start developing parallel structures to heal the four underlying conditions that allowed mass formation to occur in the first place.

A parallel structure is any kind of business, organization, technology, movement or creative pursuit that fits within a totalitarian society while being morally outside of it. Once enough parallel structures are created, a parallel culture is born that functions as a sanctuary of sanity within the totalitarian world.

The Gravity of Our Situation

To hear from Desmet himself, listen to his hour-long interview with Dr. Chris Martenson. As noted by Desmet, since self-destructiveness is built into the totalitarian system from the ground up, totalitarian regimes cannot be sustained forever. They fall apart as they’re destroyed from within. That’s the good news.

The bad news is it can be hell while it lasts, as totalitarianism built on mass formation almost always leads to heinous atrocities being committed in the name of doing good. There are usually few survivors at the end.

That said, Desmet believes this new global totalitarianism is more unstable than regional dictator-led totalitarian systems, so it may self-destruct faster. He has just finished writing a book, "The Psychology of Totalitarianism," which is expected to be published in January 2022.

Guillermou

Mass formation psychosis is then a form of brainwashing and mind control by the deep state media. These media hypnotize the masses into believing that there is a terrifying "virus" floating in the air, and the only way to stop it is by wearing a mask and getting "vaccinated"; otherwise, you could die a horrible death while endangering your own family and friends or fellow professionals. It is not about rational thought, it is about fear flooding your feelings based on misinformation. It's the kind of mindset and thought process that actually gives someone that privilege on a television screen or on social media.

Geopolitical expert Pedro Baos, who has been the head of Counterintelligence and Security of the European Army Corps in Strasbourg, wrote a book on Mind Control and the 22 secret strategies of global power. Baos assures that we have entered "the society of resignation, such a state of passivity, they have us in such a state of passivity and atony, that we are not capable of reacting, despite the fact that we see every day how they deceive us, how they lie to us " .

articulo30.org/politica-defensa/how-they-rule-the-world-pedro-banos/ According to Kant, the reasons for not being able to think for oneself are laziness and cowardice. It's comfortable to be immature, and independent thinking is "tiring business." This makes it easier for others, Kant says, to become "guardians" for these immature people. Psychologically, it is more "comfortable" for a spoiled and inconsiderate person to follow the guidance of an authority or leader. In this way, he is in tune with a supposedly powerful person and his media who belongs to his circle of courtiers.

Kennedy says this about efforts to destroy Covid Tyranny dissent: “According to a Pew Research Center poll, 65% of Democrats currently support government censorship of unauthorized opinion. “That surprising result suggests that Democrats have lost faith not only in their party traditions, but also in democracy. Most Democrats seem to believe that the Demos—the people—can no longer be trusted to govern themselves and that elites are therefore allowed to manipulate the public with propaganda and even censor information that could infect the population with dangerous thoughts.

Liberals have long agreed that censorship of dissent is the hallmark of totalitarian systems. The new strategy of silencing government critics is repugnant to the core values of liberalism and clearly offensive to the US Constitution's guarantee of free speech. . Instead of scientific citations, they are based on appeals to often unworthy authorities who have fabricated a "scientific consensus" by selecting data to support predetermined policy. More often than not they mean a blind and dogmatic trust in the official, and often capricious, pronouncements of amoral pharmaceutical companies and their venal government vassals in captive agencies like the CDC, FDA, NIH, and WHO.

Unable to defend the scientific foundations of their ideology in debate, liberals rely on book bans and an arsenal of coercive gagging strategies including deplatforming, delicensing, doxing, gaslighting, defunding , the recantation, marginalization, and vilification of scientists, doctors, journalists, and vaccine-injured Americans who complied but now refuse to toe the official line. Gui, regardless of what the future brings, Kennedy's run is a shot on the largest platform available to expose WEF/Gates/Fauci Flu destroy the economy for the 99% with Mass Formation & the Global Monopoly Corporate takeover of our Gov't's & the Institutions. More than likely, if Biden lives long enough to run, the primary's will be cancelled, just like they did with Bernie. The GOP doesn't use Super Delegates - yet - so they were at a loss to do the dirty deed to Trump. Those who have not been mentally poisoned by the Mass Formation Psychosis have to make the noise so Kennedy can put forth the full picture. A bigger picture beyond the exceptional Smear Campaign already in motion, already like the Mass Formation C-19 narrative void of truth, heavy on Bull Spit. It cannot be just Kennedy is our Saviour, We must make the effort to save ourselves. To put it all on one man's shoulders is more weight than even Atlas could carry.

In fairness, Gui, it is conservatives who are censoring and banning books with a vengeance. Years of unfettered gerrymandering has made a mockery of the democratic process. The privatization and anti-union drive, a hallmark of conservatives, is shoveling money upward. Deregulation of important protections for the environment, workers, and consumers is a long standing goal. Do we really want to privatize Social Security? The liberals you refer to are neoliberals---status-quo or regressive, corporate corrupted. Look to the progressive wing for some semblance of humanity.

Very true Just, in addition to Dr. Mercola's post, Robert F. Kennedy, Jr., founder of Children's Health Defense (CHD), on Wednesday moved one step closer to seeking the Democratic nomination for U.S. president by filing the requisite paperwork with the Federal Election Commission. In an email sent earlier today by CHD Acting President Laura Bono to CHD members, Kennedy said: "My top priority is to end the corrupt merger between state and corporate power that has ruined our economy, shattered the middle class, polluted our landscapes and waters, poisoned our children and robbed us of our values and freedom." Stating that these goals have always been "central to CHD's mission," Kennedy explained that he founded CHD "after parents concerned about the meteoric rise in childhood chronic diseases approached me time and time again, urging me to look beyond what mainstream media and government health agencies were telling the public about what was causing these increases."

eiggod8, part of what goes on is for nearly everyone in the states the labels used liberal, conservative, progressive, socialist or what not are not only played with by a Predator owned Legacy Media, but the various labels can also mean something completely different in the many overseas countries. Daze and Confuse to Divide and Conquer so as the people in the many floors of the Modern Tower of Babble are incapable of seeing where is possible to agree on issues & solutions instead of locked into my way or the highway then nothing positive ever changes or happens. With mix matching labels it leads to for many just discounting what real content may be due to a label.

One size does not fit all, and a good recipe often includes many ingredients that at first may sound unpleasant. All the things you stated were accomplished by the two parties owned by the Predator$. Usually, no matter which one is crying foul, they actually did little to nothing when it mattered, or they when they could have done something about it. The real middle in the States is not between the Red Blue divide. It is outside all that. The current power brokers will very likely push for what they will call the middle with it being between the current bunch. Meaning - second boss, same as the first boss.

Yes? You all may want to listen again to the end of the Chris Martenson interview, from about 45 minutes in to the end. Mattias Desmet describes what a totalitarian system is, where "they" attempt to replace everything with man-made substitutes they think they can control...its the final segment that nails this topic, the beginning descriptions are only laying groundwork. Look around at their attempts at: fake food, fake shots, shoot up farm animals, zoo animals, fake currency, fake environmental urgency and a new economy based on CARBON CREDITS - its going to implode as more people wake up to the dangers around them!

Last night, someone mentioned that many believe we are at the beginning of these attempts whereas we are close to the end game, this "push" has been ongoing for several decades. And this is today's Epoch Times headline: "UN Seeks Vast New Powers for Global Emergencies Lawmakers and critics are sounding the alarm, but the White House supports the agenda" (sorry this is premium limited access article) The United Nations is seeking vast new powers and stronger "global governance" tools to deal with international emergencies such as pandemics and economic crises, a new U.N.

policy brief has revealed, and the Biden administration appears to support the proposal. The plan to create an "Emergency Platform," which would involve a set of protocols activated during crises that could affect billions of people, has already drawn strong concern and criticism from U.S. policymakers and analysts.

Thanks Rose, this article is also very interesting. No system of government becomes totalitarian overnight. It must first go through a stage of authoritarianism, where liberties are slowly stripped away, as lords rule on what their subjects can no longer do. One of the first to disappear, perhaps the most important, is the freedom to express ourselves without restrictions or censorship. The US lost free speech a long time ago. We agreed to replace the word "theft" with "fairness", "revenge" with "social justice"..whoever controls language controls society. The American people no longer control their language. Authoritarians do it, and only they decide what the words mean and who gets to use them.

In addition to taking control of the language, authoritarians also exercise control through censorship. Dr. Mark McDonald came under fire in July 2020, when I spoke about the Supreme Court's steps with America's frontline doctors, condemning the closing of America's schools and the sacrifice of the nation's children to relieve the anxiety of frightened adults. Totalitarianism abhors freedom, covets absolute control, and demands compliance. If we fail to identify it and reject it, we will go from authoritarian to totalitarian rule, and America as we have always known it will be over, perhaps forever.

Dordee

It is this total submission that I do not understand about my ex friend, she is Jewish, her people were severely persecuted by Hitler. Why cannot they see this and recognize it for what it is?? Has it been so long since WWII that their people have forgotten this? Another friend, German Jew remembered it, had the tattoo from Auschwitz on her arm to remind her. Another friend German remembered because the family was forced to flee in the night after her father was gunned down by SS/Gestapo for speaking against Hitler. Why would someone want to be subjected to this again??

Guillermou

Yes, Dordee we can forget if we thus avoid suffering but not forget so as not to fall into the same trap as the totalitarianism and fascism of the Great Reset. The totalitarianism imposed by Adolf Hitler was evident, since he established a rigorously centralized dictatorial government; set fire to Parliament in 1933 accusing the communists, imprisoned and murdered opponents, abolished the Weimar Constitution, dissolved the Reichstag (parliament), suppressed political parties (except the Nazi), murdered competitors -among which Ernst Rohm- within his own party during "The Night of Long Knives"; he allied himself with big financial magnates like the Schroeder and Thyssen group to ensure economic power and the workers' associations ceased to exist, in their place a single union appeared, the German Labor Front.

GLOBAL CHILDREN'S VACCINE MARKET TO EXCEED $69 BILLION BY 2030 A report from Coherent Market Insights shows that the childhood vaccine market will exceed $69.482 billion by 2030.[1] Leading pharmaceutical companies in the global pediatric vaccine market include Bharat Biotech, Emergent BioSolutions, GSK, Indian Immunologicals, Merck, Panacea Biotec, Pfizer, Sanofi, Serum Institute, and Zydus Cadila. GOVERNMENT APPROVALS OF CHILDREN'S VACCINES WILL DRIVE GROWTH IN THE VACCINES MARKET According to the World Health Organization (WHO), the prevalence (occurrence) of infectious diseases will increase by 57 percent by 2020 and this rise is predicted to drive demand for childhood vaccines.

The report states that the rising prevalence of infectious diseases such as tuberculosis, diphtheria and pneumonia in the age group of 15 years and younger is expected to contribute to the growth of the childhood vaccines market. It is also speculated that increasing approvals for pediatric vaccine candidates by government regulatory agencies in countries around the world may be the reason for the growth of the market over the forecast period.

For example, the US Food and Drug Administration (FDA) approved in 2022 the extensive use of Merck's pneumococcal 15-valent conjugate vaccine, known as VAXNEUVANCE, for infants from six weeks of age to 17 years of age. In October 2021, Seqirus, one of the world's largest flu vaccine manufacturers, announced that the FDA had approved its Flucelvax Quadrivalent flu vaccine for an expanded age range for children six months and older. BLACKMAKING OF AMERICAN PARENTS WHO REFUSE VACCINES HAS BOOSTED THE GROWING CHILDREN'S VACCINE MARKET IN 2021.

I agree with what is said and I have a caution for the sayers - mercola and malone. If you both actually believe that you as men are superior to women, you are part of the problem and threat. I've noticed mercola feeling threatened by a powerful and affective woman he has invited. And malone just chuckled at the thought that mothers/women just might be part of a solution. So while I am grateful for what you do for the good of all, I am also aware that you have also bought a lie which makes no sense when viewed objectively. No I'm not bothering to give examples - either you will consider it and notice your own feelings or not. We are reliant on women for way more than we give credit for. One comparison is that christians (others?) are raised to believe in dominion - that humans are superior to everything on Earth. Meanwhile everything part of our life is dependent on Earth. It took me until adulthood to see how this has corrupted and about destroyed everything we know.

"Dr. Gregory Poland, director of vaccine research at the Mayo Clinic, delivered the opening remarks. He then moderated a panel discussion with Marks; Paul Burton, chief medical officer at Moderna; Isabel Oliver, chief scientific advisor transition lead at UKHSA; and Dr. Penny Heaton, vaccines global therapeutic area head, Johnson & Johnson. This first session was possibly the most fascinating 90 minutes of the entire week. Poland, I learned in a brief conversation with him after the conference, is also a pastor.

His oratory skills were on full display during his opening and closing remarks. He also is vaccine-injured. In February 2022, Poland reported suffering from significant tinnitus after receiving the second dose of "an mRNA vaccine." At the time, Poland described his symptoms as "extraordinarily bothersome." Nevertheless, he chose to receive a third dose (monovalent booster). Poland's commentary on the COVID-19 mRNA vaccines was extremely positive. He said the rapid deployment of the new therapy saved millions of lives and would have saved millions more if it weren't for the disturbing trend of growing vaccine hesitancy.

I assumed that his vaccine-induced tinnitus had resolved over the last year. It was only at the end of the conference, several days later, when he told me personally that his symptoms were still debilitating, making his unmitigated support of these products even more astonishing." When I first heard Desmet's "theory" of Mass Formation" I dismissed it as BS pop psychology, a variation on themes I have heard many times over decades in my graduate education (retired mental health field/psychology and clinical social worker) and an attempt to ride the coat-tails of the famous Swiss psychologist Carl Yung. The danger of promulgating his theory (aside promoting ignorance and self-deception) had not occurred to me until I heard Peter Breggin express it. Factor in, as Breggin has pointed out, that Malone appended "Psychosis" to the term (w/o approval by and causing concern to Desmet, as I understand it) and then Malone's proceeding to promote his amended version of Desmet's theory. To my mind, this clearly demonstrates Breggin's point.

Jeremiah.8

3" Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?" The lie is posed as a question. 2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: 3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. Not true. God never said that they would die if they touched it. There is alot of circuitous psychology here that I won't get into, but the gaslighting is fully under way. 4 "And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: 5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil." And here we are.

Nothing makes any sense until you view the events of today with the understanding that Jewish banking cartels control all of the instruments and agencies of power and are using the entire US establishment as an engine to advance and consolidate the Jewish grip on our economies and societies. This show is a MUST SEE for every single journalist and man or woman in uniform or in the intelligence agencies because this video describes the mechanism by which these Jewish bankers have tightened their grip around the necks or every man women and child in the West. This show is not going to get in front of the eyes of those who need this information and can act on this information unless you all work to place this video in front of the eyes of our military, police, investigators, and journalists. I would respectfully ask that Dr. Mercola refrain from distributing anything coming from Dr. Robert Malone. From all of the videos I have watched of his and from other information about him, he appears to be primarily interested in notoriety and perhaps money. He is not interested in civil discussion. He is suing Dr. Peter Breggin and his wife for $25,000,000 for them disagreeing with his term "Mass Formation Psychosis". In fact, Robert Malone did not come up with that theory himself. He "acquired" it from others. Why would ANY humanity-serving person/doctor seek to completely financially destroy and debilitate another Dr. and his wife simply for disagreeing? I am not sure that this man is entirely sane. Opinion only, but something is way off.

I've never trusted the arrogant Robert Malone, arriving just a tad late on the "Vaccine Perils" scene despite being a so-called inventor of the murderous stuff, knowing of its dangers and keeping all of that to himself for a very long time. The Joe Rogan interview, a painful 3 hours long, clinched it for me. I also don't set much store by Desmet's Mass Psychosis theory, doesn't ring true, and takes all blame away from the pharmaceutical, etc. perpetrators and places it squarely on us.

In fact, no one forced us to do anything. We made up our minds based on the pervasive flood of propaganda AND the actual truth, but we weren't forced unless we were children or the incapacitated. For me it was a call to arms, to attempt to understand what I felt to be the wrongness of such an invasive and untested treatment about which I knew nothing. I soon knew I would never put that stuff in my body and why, and I have never stopped looking past the "truths" handed to us about life in an effort to discover Truth, regardless of what we're fed.

This journey will never end and I'm waking up at the age of (now) 76. We're not taught to pay attention to our intuitive inner promptings though we should be, yet we can figure that out on our own if we want to. Hence Robert Malone...lots of important people hold him in high regard as a scientist and a friend, but his arrogance, his quick but very late rise to the top of the health freedom movement (what took him so long, when he could have prevented millions of deaths???) always gave me a creepy feeling about him from the start.

So I read much from and about him, watched interviews, and it never changed. We are weak in our unwillingness to relentlessly seek the truth of a matter, especially this one which has wreaked such immense havoc and destruction on humanity, and then conclude that we "had no choice" when we had only choice, which so many of us refused to exercise. No clear-thinking person would allow that poison in their bodies.

I agree with EAR's comment on every point. Our situation is overwhelming, yet we continue learning, integrating and being intuitive. My focus is on detoxing, based on information from Dr. Ana Mihalcea.

Re reading latest issue of Imprimis from Hillsdale College, article by John Abramson regarding Covid and Big Pharma' creation of the present condition of America's broken health care. He says Pharma is doing it's job very efficiently, to create dividends for stockholders, not a healthy population. Healthy people do not benefit their profit , sick people do. We the people need to stop this, government will not because government is owned by them!

I agree 100% regarding Malone. Since first encountering him in the well-know "Darkhorse" podcast (or whatever/Bret wot's-his-face) appearance with Steve Kirsch I have felt him to be suspect. All my digging has only added to that distrust. If looking for a resource to learn more about Malone I suggest Mark Kulacz (Housatonic.Live) and George Webb. They both continue to dig into Malone's decades of deep involvement in the ugly and evil "vaccine-virus game" (as Webb aptly terms it) right down to the present day and sleuthing where he is heading in his strategic and deceiving maneuvering.
