We have seen unprecedented changes in live blood since the roll out of the C19 injections. I have reported extensively on the findings of abnormal structures found in vaccinated blood around the world and now in unvaccinated blood due to the effects of environmental contamination and vaccine shedding. I found out I was Morgellons positive in 2014. It took a while but I made peace with it. By going alkaline and taking anti-parasitics - I was able to reduce the level of contamination to the point where my body still operated well.

But these injected people... and whatever is being sprayed now in the chemtrails - is really messing me up. IF someone has gotten the whole cocktail or been heavily contaminated - I cannot be around them without my musculoskelal system degradation. It has happened over 5 times now, so denial is a luxury I can't afford. Watching "Died Suddenly" and Dr. Ana's work on un-injected contamination sealed the deal.

One of my friends says it is the frequency the injected are radiating that harms me. It's too late now for me to want to get near anyone who's injected with my EMR meter to find out. I'm done. When my turn comes to sue and get all litigious, I am going to do so on the basis of being denied free association with my fellow ciitizens.

This may sound crazy, but I love everyone on some level and I adore chatting with strangers - so this is a real hardship for me and I'm really pissed about it.

Thanks much for that info as I avoided this bioweapon but fear the same - how frequencies are amping up the activity of the poison flowing now in ALL of us. I take some natural meds too to cope but wonder how much I am radiating myself using 5G cellular signals, WIFI, etc. We have to shut all of this down soon or we won't be around for too much longer. Leaving for heaven doesn't sound too shabby when you realize how many (68+%) of people have taken at least 1 of these clot shots. It's insane, evil and the Lord will have his way with all of them in the end. Pray for justice!

The demographic leaving soonest is the older white male. For some crazy reason, that group really still believed the viciously for-profit and statistically deadly medical industry was benevolent. Bizarre. The ones that survive have to man up and start using their experience and communication abilities. My friends are finally starting to grasp the urgency of educating others.

I've informed my hairdresser for the last two years with packets of info. She's one of my litmus tests to see if I'm getting through. Last week we were catching up on what's happening and she said, "They'll have to stop this." So I asked her - who has to stop it? And she said, "the people who are doing it." I gently pointed out that they aren't stopping anything. They are making a LOT of money off of killing us. WE have to stop them.

I don't think up to that point, she had ever understood that she herself was responsible for doing anything about what is happening today. So I explained about Constitutional Republics, and how if you want to live in one, you have to defend them - and that's why we live here. Or, she could just go back to the Philippines and enjoy the dictatorship. That sounds harsh but it really wasn't like that - and I think she finally understood what's going on here in the USA.

I promise you that the faster we all forgive these sub-humans for what they've done to us - the faster the karmic whip is going to dish up some retribution tailored for each and every one of them. Keep your positive energy close and listen to this short podcast:

Bless you and all of us. Forgiveness is the hardest but what the Lord blesses us to do (in addition to hating evil which is allowed/warranted/needed). Very hard knowing and coping with the prospect of many still having a ticking time bomb in them. I was laid-off Dec 1 last year and based on the fact shedding is a real phenomenon, I feel lucky in a sense that I'm not in an office environment for any amt of time - money is important but sub to healing in times like these.

Can you imagine what once regular people are going to do to all these sham doctors, hospital directors, et al who authorized (and were paid handsomely) to kill our loved ones with both Covid and Remdemesvir + Ventilator protocols? Not even close to what Hell probably has waiting for these demons in their afterlife.

In spite of it all, it is great seeing Twitter tonight blowing up w/over 30k tweets about Vaccines, so there's hope and look at France! And you're right but it is up to ALL of us to put the Holy Spirit Armor on, Pray and share as much as we can, even when it's uncomfortable.

LOVE AND HOPE TO ALL OF YOU - GOD'S CHILDREN WILL ENDURE! --kevin

You are so right. We need to turn off our WiFi and put down our phones as much as possible to avoid these risks until the evil ones get the boot! Quantum internet is being implemented. There will be no more need for 5G, 6G in near future. We are getting Starlink satellites and new phones are being made just for that. It is my hope our bodies will be able to detox through methods like Gene Decode's alfalfa hay bath:

I think this why they stopped pushing the vaccine so hard now. 1 they knew that they were pushing a portion of population a bridge too far and it was beginning to look suspicious and 2 they knew that with vaccine shedding it would make into the water system and involuntarily vaccinate the unvaccinated. The wife sent me a list of the freest countries in the world. US ranked 23rd, not even in the top 10.

Have you tried shungite wearables (like a shungite necklace) to protect yourself from EMF ? I also believe most of the harm comes from the EMF that some of them emit (not all, i'd say). Also, diatomaceous earth (DE) is great for the musculoskelal system because of silica's ability to help fixate better the calcium.

Dr. Ana, in a comment attached to the Michael Roth memorial, I mentioned that I had my blood recently examined under dark field microscopy by a cell biologist PhD. She lives 5 min from me (what a gift!). Although I haven't been vaccinated since 1969 and pursued a healthy dietary journey I was a bit shocked and humbled to find many of the slides resemble exactly your photos of blood with Rouleaux, clumping and bundles of fibrin. She (the biologist) follows your work and would like to know the brand of microscope from S. Africa that you have mentioned.

Also of interest: there are scalar frequency generators that entrain the biofield to mitigate potential EMF damage. Before and after dark field blood work show a complete de-clumping of Rouleaux formation most likely by depolarization of the cell wall with the consequence of freeing up oxygen.

Thank you for your continued vigilance, urgency, and insight.

Hello Jonm. The cell biologist as I mentioned, lives within a 10 min. walk. She was part of an unvaxxed/prepper group that we had going here in Julian CA. Her first name is Nila and strangely I don't know her last (yet). Degrees from UCSD. Excellent dietary and lifestyle advice. She is bit of a recluse with a landline only which she never answers-have to leave a voicemail. To honor her privacy, I would have to contact her first before giving out her number. Let me know.

What are those generators you mention , who has or cells them and we have to be careful about scalar the deadly smart meters are scalar wave weapons. Who has the evidence of this research?

 LIKE (2)  REPLY (1) ...

Thomas Mar 26

Hello Thomas. Yes, scalar can be and has been weaponized (thank you DOD and DARPA). Even unauthorized knockoffs of Rife machines, which use scalar to target particular organs, have been found to cause harm. When smart meters were first rolled out, often without homeowner's consent, early dark field microscopy showed similar results of what Dr. Ana has posted, i.e., Rouleaux and clumping. I purchased my device from Blushield.com. The site has generous info about scalar and effects on the body. Yes, they are selling a product, but the info is well worth a visit.

60GigaHertz has said almost everything I was about to say, exactly. I love you, man—intellectually, of course. I've always loved people—the intelligent individual, diversity and culture...so being forced to stay isolated from the majority-vaccinated makes it impossible to live a normal life—whatever the hell that means, anymore. Everything is so bloody backwards. I'm sorry to say this, but the vaccinated should be the ones to be forced into isolation or mandatorily-forced to wear laboratory-grade space suits in public, paid for by the lawyers who trapped us all. How the bloody hell does it make any sense that those of us who protested and resisted following the blinded sheep must be forced to suffer the costs of the brainwashed and stubborn-stupid still insisting, lining up for their third, fourth, fifth...vaxx still wearing those ridiculous face diapers? I just had an exchange with Michael Moore's chat, and it was so painful to still have random, intelligent, beautiful people treat me like shit for insisting they have it all wrong. I've never been a conspiracy theorist. I've always been a "Things Just Don't Make Any Goddamn Sense, researcher. We are living the same life!:) My Baltimore public school brainwashing was so complete. I managed to graduate from high school in a nearly robotic state. Thank God for marijuana and science/speculative fiction.

I've been thinking about what it would really take to eradicate yet another thing we can't see - self-reproducing bio-synthetic organisms with no kill switch.

All the chemtrailing would have to stop. All the pharma food and nano-additives would have to stop. All uses of nano-tech would have to be screened and those with self-replicating capacity banned and eliminated with massive penalties for creating them. And then everyone on Earth would have to be detoxed simultaneously for an extended time period - what six months? a year? - with EDTA or some other way. Insane.

But I bet the Rothschilds could afford to make it happen.

This is the only way, Thomas, not wars or worthless demonstrations destroying our own country—just to be beaten down or murdered in the process by our own brainwashed cops and soldiers, who also need help to escape the fraud of fascist controls via corrupt and unconstitutional laws.

I understand your sentiments, but I cannot run for anything in my state that is not a state, but merely a corrupt corporation criminal cartel. I'm not part of this defacto system. Personally I think it's gone way too far to be saved, revived or recreated by electoral process, or anything like that. It would be like treating cancer that is all the way to the bone and in all major organs with aspirin. I have screamed about all this for more than 4 decades, maybe 2 decades ago there was a chance for what you're talking about to make a difference, not now. We have not even begun to fully experience the collapse of the human infrastructure from the death shots, and a destroyed military, and completely corrupted judicial system. ALL THOSE behind or complicit in all these evil agendas have no intention of backing down or changing.. They also have not thrown their big guns [like phase 2 of plandemics] into FULL action yet. I try to support everyone doing what they can and what they believe in, but there really is no time to waste. We don't want war and violence, but when someone is determined to kill you and your family, and is in the process of it, your choices are limited to, stop them, or be victimized and a statistic. We are there now.

But Thomas, you did say, "Let's talk about the solutions." I totally understand, though. And I agree with most of your sentiments. I've never cared for false hope or blind faith, as some often say, "It's in God's hands." Nonsense. It's up to us, humanity, not the lawyers trapping everyone to disparity. But I do believe in humanity. I'm going to show you, being from Missouri, if I live long enough, that we can punish enough lawyers to make a difference. They are at the center of all the problems, and I intend to "correct" all of them. Please do me a favor and read my last two substack publications, but start with this "whistle blower" video who's exposing the vaxx bioweapons and DARPA's complicity. Hope springs eternal. If we don't win we die a different kind of death... this year the national guard and law enforcement folks are really perked up. I can't make enough hand out packets. The local media people still think a paper that doesn't have news qualifies as news....:))))))))) Some of the locals have even started vandalizing the street furniture (wi-fi smart grid shit on the poles).

I told the principal of the school where they are going to put the 5G tower up that I would help her customers sue when their kids got cancer and leukemia. I did that in writing and I will make myself known to that group of people - all because she refused to return my calls - which is disrespectful.

It is hysterical watching them wrap their brains into mental pretzels to try to make sense of the insane world without taking any ownership whatsoever for changing it. Lately I've been pointing out that if they think their lives are hard now - just wait until everything is under Central Bank control. There won't be any US Minimum Wage to degrade.... They'll get just enough to barely survive and no other support unless they are injected.

So we have to win or we're gonna be Clive Owens

I remember reading stories a few years ago about people who were suffering from Morgellons.

Doctors didn't believe them and often said it was "all in their head" or caused by stress, anxiety, etc.

So how did those fibers end up coming out of people's skin?

Were they vaccinated recently? Or is there a connection to Lyme disease? The weaponized ticks created at Plum Island, Long Island...another US government disaster.

look up demodex skin mite. This information was left out of physician education. This mite causes acne, rosacea and skin ageing. Sometimes, with 15 X magnification, one can see a black demodex brevis project straight out of the skin after applying a substance toxic to them, like green tea! I highly doubt it was confused with Morgellons and am not suggesting it was or is, just that physicians are kept ignorant. Someone needs to tell Brian Ardis about it. He said he was sure rosacea was parasites and I believe he was correct although he probably thought intestinal parasites!

That's a great tip! I have met people who do gum pulling with Sesame Oil and a couple drops of Oregano Oil. I use Oregano Oil tincture in water if I feel a cold coming on.

I have non-lesion Morgellons. I only know because of the Carnicom Institute's Gum Pulling (Red Wine or Grape Juice) Test/Sample method (carnicominstitute.org) The biggest symptoms I had (before the C19 bioweapon started) were exhaustion, brain fog, and slow recovery from exercise. Once I got the contamination level down, (and worked on getting rid of the EMR exposure too) I was almost back to normal... until 5G was installed....

Spitballing here... I think the dear souls who got Morgellons early on, back in the late 1990's to 2008ish - often got earlier versions of micro-electrical mechanical sensors (MEMS). I think the technology had to evolve because the military couldn't have people running around with wires and filaments coming out of their skin with numbers on them.

I went looking for a Carnicom Institute symposium with Elana Freeland where she has .mov files of bio-synthetic organisms with arms and wings pushing things around... but I couldn't find it.

But I did find the ABC clip that outs the biologist who came up with the name Morgellons. She's supposed to be in hiding now:

There are whistleblowers and military info sources that say this tech came from aliens - which is hard for people who don't know about Area 51 and the APIS programs around the world to hear... I do believe that DARPA & Co. had to fix their microelectrical mechanical sensors (MEMS) quick when the Morgellons patients first started to surface.

IF you can find it, this 45 minute episode will give you a run down on the original deployment of MEMS in our atmosphere:

She was pulling blue threads out of her hands and head over 10 years ago and even saving them in a little jewelry box so she could show people it's true and she is not crazy. Some of my friends saw the tiny blue threads but still thought she was insane. I lost touch with her years ago. I have a lot of compassion and empathy for her now. She was telling the truth all this time and everyone turned their backs. Such a tragedy.

I just ordered the oral EDTA. Can't hurt. I use the Clinoptil and looking for Zeolite for more detoxing. Already take a good heart lineup Ivermectin, Black Seed Oil, CoQ10, D3 and K1/2, going to add the EDTA 2x daily. And I take some Magnesium plus a digestive pill Wobenzyme (papain, and other digestive enzymes). And I've been spurred on to get my heart looked at via a Telemed Dr. who works on helping prevent chronic disease with focus on the diabetic/heart connection. Given my blood is pure (eg not vaxxed) and I don't spend or haven't in the last year a lot of time around the vaxxed (work bars, gyms, shops nor do I live with one etc) I'm thinking low exposure. I added an Alexapure filter recently and put some shugalite in. Got some orgonite (I don't know if it helps with EMF but..) Thinking of some paint for the wall where the smart meter for electricity is. And I now unplug the WiFi router and all electrical things minus the fridge at night (shocking how much I saved on the electric bill too. All ways on standby appliances are vampires for electricity). And no, none of my appliances are smart! Except the SmartTV which is permanently unplugged unless I want to watch the Roku. Which I never do, as I'm on the computer more than that... Small things. Now, a Rife machine may also be helpful. I don't want to spend all my time worrying, and I don't think we will ever be completely CLEAN of these effects. BUT we can minimize things, work to protect as much as we can. Do frequent courses of detoxing. And mix it up. Sadly, these things have poisoned our world. And there's no coming back from that. I console myself that my genetic code hasn't been tampered with WILLINGLY at any rate since I didn't take the miRNA and all the other poison straight into my veins...

It's weird with him. I like his content. I learn something new every time I listen to one of his speeches... and those of us who have been in this for a few years flip his stuff back and forth. We just don't distribute it because we're not sure.

Back in 2014, the documentary producer Michael Murphy received a $75,000 donation after What On Earth Are They Spraying? and Why On Earth Are They Spraying? were released. The story is that Mr. Wigington, who had worked with him on both of them, took the money and wouldn't give it back.

Mr. Murphy's next film was going to focus on a chemical analysis of jet fuel samples he had obtained - but without the money he got stalled... and then he was targeted with directed energy no-touch torture and voice to skull (V2K). Mr. Wigington never gave the money back and did not help him. At one point I heard he was living under a bridge in LA (?) and then I heard he had passed.

So that's where that comes from. The original, surviving members of the geoengineering fight back believe Dane Wigington is subsidized by the intel community and basically controlled oppo.

Agreed. When I first learned about Targeted Individualism in 2014 I got drunk. It's the worst violation (next to physical torture and annihilation) possible to do to someone.

The Law of Attraction: Stay positive and happy No Matter What to continue to attract what you put out is key on this topic. Angelic protection and spirit guides were/are critical for me. Know of it. Be wise and aware - but do not dwell too much.

If you want to learn about it there are a LOT of decent books out there now. As with almost everything we need to get stopped, it is multi-faceted and hidden from the view of most people.

The first book I picked up, The President's Mob Bankers by John Nagel, taught me about the patents and how global organized crime now has control of the software to use direct the satellite technology that perform the no touch torture/V2K. Plus the ancillary violence they use to intimidate, eliminate and control people. I think this happened to President Obama.

The next book covered the use of loosely controlled (or un-regulated) Private Investigators. I used to work for one so it really hit home. Guinea Pigs by Dr. John Hall (an anesthesiologist in San Antonio; 2014). A doctor he networked with caused the nightmare. His follow-on book is A New Breed: Satellite Terrorism in America.

Then I read Project Soul Catcher Vol. 2 by Dr. Robert Duncan, physicist and former DOD/Intel contractor who built the systems and decided to expose them. Much more technical. Volume 1 is nowhere to be found, so it probably had information on how to really fight back, or who's responsible for developing these programs. He is a speaker at The Bases Project conferences in the UK that focus on this nightmare.

Michael Bell's book came next - The Invisible Crime. This one covered actual abduction and implantation by Asian gangs operating on the West Coast of America. A lot of money changed hands to reduce him to a drugged and implanted pet sitting on the floor at parties. There are actual gangs of people who target a person for whatever reason and then bet on how long it will take to gaslight and mentally torture them into suicide and various other states of being.

And then I found Our Life Beyond MK Ultra, Books 1 & 2 by Elisa E. Talk about a descent into madness. To have military parents actually give you up as an infant to have your mind shattered by torture and rape - we're talking as an infant. Then to be raised to be a sex slave and assassin - and then dumped out as a "rotter" with no economic support whatsoever because it would be just as easy to kill you... might as well let our grinding labor market do that instead. These books introduced demonism and inter-dimensionality. Her follow-on just came out: Our Life Beyond MK Ultra: Then and Now. What an incredible person and beacon to those who suffer.

Many of the authors and participants in the efforts to help T.I.'s believe that this program was expanded many years ago to include politicians at all levels and bureaucrats in key positions - like Health Policy, Law Enforcement, National Guard, Military, etc. Private businesses are not excluded. Non-Profits like St. Jude's Hospital for children, Shriners, Knights of Columbus, etc., are in it up to their necks.

I've personally met two T.I.s. One was being gang stalked because of marriage to a deceased country music star. It was shocking to hear how much residual income is at stake when a music performer dies. I'd never even heard of the guy. So, his ex went after her. The story has a happy ending but I watched her endure some of the craziest shit for about two years.

The other person I did not know. We were total strangers who met in an airport. I was there to help her understand what was happening, and she was there to help me know for sure that this shit is way too real. I warned her about moving to get away from it - because every move impoverishes you and that is what they want. We are in a money system, so if you are impoverished you are powerless. The attacks can be performed anywhere on Earth because the satellites are everywhere. So it's better to ask for angelic protection and physically protect yourself as much as you can - and then start fighting back. There are many more books out now that show how to do this.

The energetic veil between dimensions is very thin now. This means that energetically negative influences can get to us more easily - but it cuts both ways. The forces of benevolence are able to protect us in ways that are really incredible. Just always remember to ask. You have to ask for protection and assistance in terrifying situations. So ask ahead of time and maybe those situations won't be able to arrive.:))

Ferocity is a good thing. The Law of Attraction says that what you think about you bring about. So, if you EVER experience even the tiniest little bit of something you think comes from this phenomena - you stop right there and you ask your spirit guides and your angels for protection.

Then you say to the owners of whatever has just been done: "You are going to leave me alone. If you do not, I WILL FIND YOU and I WILL TAKE. YOU. DOWN." Under the Law of Attraction, you will be able to do this - and they know it. But they must hear your determination to go on the offensive and make it your sole focus until they are stopped. Then they will back off and go find someone easier to mess with.

We are in a war of the unseen foe. Our faith in the forces of good and wonderful throughout the Universe(s) is the key to our ability to finally prevail this time around. I don't know about you, but I am sick of endless evil, drudgery, war... I will see them gone, and those that come after me will live happy high frequency lives.

Correct. Fluoridation and chlorine and the stuff they use to 'buffer' the chlorine to prevent pipe scaling. Here's a funny thing I noticed looking at water operations in FL, KY, NC and Balto... NONE of their annual, or bi-annual, reports EVER say that the levels of the various contaminants are out of bounds or greater than the tolerances required by law for those chemicals or elements.

These are human managed systems and nobody's perfect. So 100% compliance isn't statistically possible. When I dug into the reporting in KY, I found out that they entire state's water delivery district reporting (sometimes extremely small areas) is outsourced to a private contractor. I know the rule on data reporting is GIGO (Garbage In Garbage Out). So, if the water district provides inaccurate data then the resulting report would be based on that... but nobody was auditing the data submission integrity, and the water district just said they turn the data over to the private contractor. I couldn't get any real clarification from the staff at the KY DEP. They responded, but lacked any details on the process.

No way all those locations/water districts were perfect all the time. If you are going to start testing water - use plastic container and send it off pronto. Using glass will erase your toxic heavy metal determination because silica binds to metals. (think food grade diatomaceous earth :) I did this in Ft. Myers and got 1600 ppm sulphur and no heavy metals.

If you want to see lab test results for rainwater around the country and some internationally go to: zerogeoengineering.com. Ask them what lab they are using and use that lab. These labs get bought out once they start responding to requests from the fight back community. After that you can't trust the results.

I did the EWG look up too. It would be interesting to find out about the missing zip codes from EWG. They might not have been able to get the data.

Fort Myers was WAY over EWG's limits for 70+ chemicals when I checked. Where I am now has fewer 'over the limit' chemicals.... but if I remember right on a positive note, the EWG limits are stricter and NOT the government's limits.

Coconut Oil Pulls will help pull chemicals out of your body and your head especially. I think much better when I am doing coconut oil pulls and my teeth are whiter - and it does help to smile:)))

How are you going to be able to prove that live blood has changed since COVID shots? Without some kind of proof, the work of you and your colleagues is going to continue to be ignored.

Here's an idea. Take a look at animal blood. But were you ever looking at animal blood before COIVD? Has any animal blood changed? Sure, some animals can get COVID. But pick an animal that does not get COVID and see if that blood has changed. Or take a look at animal blood of animals that got COVID and compare it to blood from animals that did not get COVID.

If it's something that's raining down on us from airplanes spraying it out, then it should be seen in animal as well as human blood.

Have you tried products that "ground" you electrically, via the ground hole in a three-prong socket? Earthing.com is one brand; similar brands exist. This was mentioned by my acupuncturist, who says some of her patients are helped by her acupuncture in alleviating EMF effects.

The Weston A Price Foundation, which warns strenuously against 5G and EMFs in general, may be another source of information. In particular, they have a post discussing products from EMFRocks, which claims to change the nature of the EMF wave so it is not toxic:

Yes. I forgot about those... !! I can't remember the manufacturer but it was a yellow plug in that was supposed to turn the entire townhouse's wiring into a faraday cage... I don't know how you would tell directly that it was working, but I bought two of them and kept them plugged in for years.

OMG. You reminded me of the time I overdosed on Niacin (1981)!! It was hysterical. I was driving around downtown Mpls with my friend when it hit, and I had no idea what was happening... I learned later on - but we were both blown away. I am going to find a supplement with niacin in combination - because that damn blood cell clumping comes from irradiation too and we are all getting irradiated thank you f-ing Elon Musk's 12,000 satellites and the vicious utility smart grid.

Your information is so much more granular than mine.! I have recently started learning to take Moringa powder - which has a ton of B vitamins. I feel human again and my energy is back. BUT, it is not for the faint hearted. A little too much without cooking it first and you are on a colon flush...

I'm still digging out here- but when I get to a quieter place on the information, I will subscribe to your substack. Your information is fantastic!!! I did capture Animals are being targeted with the mRNA vaccines now. There is a way to legally opt out of getting your dog vaccinated. I can't remember the name for it... and when I went looking for it just now, I got nothing but pro-pet vax articles. Some of the comments were just like the mean things injected people said about un-injected people in 2021. I'll ask my friend who told me about it.

Yes, I know, and they intend to include all birds, cows, bison and probably even fish. It's totally insane this is happening. You know, I've been needing to take my cat to the vet, and I've also needed to see a dentist for the past three years, but I've been forced to hold off until all of this forced vaccination nonsense has been ended.

Regarding the cat. They do NOT need a rabies vaccine IF they can prove by blood titer the animal still has protection. The yearly shot for rabies is a scam as it is the same one given every 3. And I will bet you doughnuts to dollars that the rabies titers are high for 5 to 6 years in the cat. Why? Because that's how long the entire series lasts in humans before they have to get rabies updates. (I had to get the whole series, so I educated myself.) As for the other 'vaccines' ... well. Let your cat get over the cat corona virus (even if he/she may catch FIP from the 'mutated' version of corona.) And as far as dentists go, I've not had fillings done and I'm a bit in terror of going to dentist for one since I like/need Novocain and there are stories of the jabbing dentists...

Thank you, you're right. I've added an expanded response below to 60GigaHertz. Vets have become deranged over the past several years. They used to be better than human practitioners. I've been refusing all vaccinations for me and my animals for over thirty years now. Of course, they are indoor animals and go outside only to get vet care.

My old state required the rabies vaccine NO MATTER IF INDOOR OR NOT. That is they had to have the rabies series at least 1 time in their lives. My 17 year old cat that died of kidney failure recently - they wanted to vax him!

I was like no way Jose, he's got a kidney failure issue and I am NOT making that any worse for him! Imagine, they told me it was...Required for him to get treatment (eg to sell me fluids or give prescription for such). And the cat they knew was on the downward spiral! Amazed. They also started in with the cat/dog license fees being required. My other cat now age 16.5 has had no vaccines since she was 5 years old, and maybe 2 rabies her entire life? I haven't had her to a vet in years or given any of the FLuke or other vaxes, and when I get asked about rabies my reply is "well, I'm not worried about that since I had the full series for rabies in 2020 due to bat exposure. She can't give it to me, she lives indoors and the yard. So who's she going to give it to?" Silence I get back silence, LOL. I think she will last for another year or so, I worry about her kidneys though. It seems all cats go from kidney or cancer. My old cats from the 70s and 80s lived for 18 years to 20 years. Cats from the 90s/2000s don't seem as long lived. 17 was the best I got out of the bunch I have from then. And heart issues are up too. And they make you jab to kennel them, jab to travel with them, jab to even TREAT them. Plus the food is getting worse with more chemicals in it. Always trying to better that. Found Peak Ziwi super expensive lamb only from NZ. The cat loves it. But, it is hard to find. Solved poop issues and digestive issues

That's crazy, but you aren't the first to tell me these things about veterinary health and medicine and the problem it causes individuals trying to provide the best care for their animals. I give my cat "Science Diet" from Amazon.com, urinary/hairball type wet can food mixed 50/50 with grass fed bison or beef, as well as added fats from same source. I also use a supplement called "Break It Up" from Amazon.com, on and off, for bladder/kidney stone prevention. I agree, most of the food out there, to include the can food from Science Diet can never be fully trusted. I also stay away from all kibble dry foods, which is "all" garbage. You really have to examine the damn labels, but still, they don't really tell you what the hell's in it. If I had the time, I'd make it all from scratch and stay away from all pet food, which even the scratch and stay away from all pet food, which even the veterinarians seem oblivious, just like human doctors when it comes to food and diet. I literally had to teach myself over thousands of hours of reading entire libraries and independent studies, becoming my own doctor and scientist. Of course now our fascist country is burning not just individual books, but entire libraries. I think my next phase to attempt to fix the problems of this country is to run for senate here in Missouri. Really.

Hunt for a holistic vet. They are out there and some of them will really work with you once they get to know you.

Look for a holistic dentist too. Do coconut oil pulls for your teeth. They will kill cavities, heal gum disease, restore the enamel, make you teeth white, and dissolve plaque. You will never have to go to a dentist again unless it's an extraction or something really crazy. I stopped having cracked teeth when I started doing this and taking calcium. There are funny videos on youtube about how to do it. My favorite was the dental hippie but I can't find her now.

I was lucky to be motivated to remove the one root canal (I watched "Root Cause" and that was enough of that)... and then I found a holistic dentist to remove the last of the mercury amalgam fillings. Don't give up!!

Yes, exactly. I've been self-practicing wholistic medicine and doing organic coconut/olive oil pulling for about ten years—an intelligent move away from alternative—which I call conventional medicine, most pharmaceuticals, surgery & synthetics. It's all so backward, the Rockefeller "alternatives" of the early 1800's that has progressively replaced the conventional wisdom of our ancient ancestors evolution of wholistic medicine. You know, it wasn't that long ago doctors also did veterinary medicine and would come to your home, even for surgery, and never expected payment from the poor for the privilege of practicing and expanding human health science knowledge. All their money came only from the very wealthy via science seminars followed by donations in conclusion. The problem with finding a dentist are my mercury fillings needing to be removed, plus one extraction from a tooth that lost a filling, then finding someone who's intelligent and competent to do it all in one process, rather than several horrific appointment-procedures. As soon as I find a qualified dentist, then fill out all their paperwork (questions and concerns checklist), they'll either refuse to speak to me further, require vaccinations or will refuse to provide pre-op sedatives, which is a must for me to even step foot into a dentists office. I've had a very horrible history of bad dentists going back to grade school, then again in the military.

I have seen their hair turn white in one year and many have become too ill to work (including my neighbor).

When I found out from that LifesiteNews article in 04/21 that the injections were contagious... I asked the folks I'd gotten to know if they could look for other non-public jobs. There is no time like now to do customer service work from your home. Where a person works is a life or death decision.

No. The mark is received unknowingly by deception. Read here:

Mark of the beast will be received by deception and/or by force:

And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. CHIZAYON (REVELATION) 19:20 תא CEPHER

And he causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: CHIZAYON (REVELATION) 13:16 תא CEPHER

The mark is on the forehead ( rt-pcr ), OR on either hand ( jab ) :

And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Yahusha, and for the Word of Elohiym, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Mashiach a thousand years. Of note, a new street drug noticed by Kevin dalgren in SF & Seattle who works w/street ppl, have started seeing bizarre new overdoses & strange drug reactions. It's a mixture of fentanyl & zombie drug that does not respond to Narcan. Fentanyl alone will respond to Narcan but not the new mix. Sorry I don't have the name yet but Mike Adams goes into detail on his podcast today. Just know they're gearing up to shut the world down again as they cry 'bird flu' is creating a zombie disease. I am so glad I found out recently about your work. Your reporting that blood of uninjected people have begun to be damaged only within the last few months suggests to me a new catalyst has emerged. Your report here about the damage caused by extremely low electric currents makes me think of the expanding rollout of 5G mobile transmission towers.

Can you correlate with mobile G5 usage?

Have you looked at ways to mitigate EMF exposure? Products exist to ground the human body electrically, and EMFRocks sells a "grounding bag," about which I learned from a post on the Weston A Price Foundation (which has long warned about EMF exposure, as has (less insistently) the Price-Pottenger Nutrition Foundation). I just don't know how effective they are, or for whom.

There are a lot of pendants out now so it's hard to know which one will really work. I even saw one for $10,000 once. Dios mio!! No way.

I'm going to learn to make chemtrail busters soon. I have enough stuff to build six of the big ones that clear the air for a 10 mile radius and people who will stash them on their properties. The'y're going to be anchored to the ground, camo painted and have caution signs on them...

Dr Ana I just saw 2 vaxed pts yesterday and found new objects with my microscope. These were fresh wet mounts. Your picture with bullseye looking structures showed up. There was severe rouloux and a grey substance between the blood pools and the usual strands of materials not seen in normal blood. About every two or three months I see new changes in blood that have not been present before ie., chalk like chunks, these new round objects or instant grid like brown connected irregular grid like formations. Others look like metals as they reflect color and black sharp looking spikes that show in a layer under the red blood cells. I've also noted that the spikes do not show up initially. It happens when twenty or so minutes have passed. I have two years of pictures of non covid pts, Covid pts and vaxed pts in my collection showing changes over this time period. New things keep showing up.

I'm not vaccinated, but lived with mother-in-law for 2 years taking care of her and she was vaccinated(before she passed in Dec.2022). I'm 47 and I eat fairly healthy, not a terrible diet, but I'm 40lbs overweight. About 45 days ago I had an angina attack or mild heart attack which lasted for about an hour. I started on DMSO right away as it helps break up blood clots and repair damaged cells. I believe my issue is from shedding. Just last week I checked my blood(I have a microscope), against pictures I had almost a year ago. It freaked me out. I believe I have blood clots that caused my issue. Waiting on a D-dimer test results, to verify. I'm feeling better and noticed a marked improvement when adding CDS as well(no more heart flutters). After much research, I am leaning toward the bioweapon shedding causing blood changes.

This article would seem to support that.

My greater concern is that I checked my 16yr old daughters blood and it is not as bad as mine, but her red blood cells are starting to look similar to mine, which is very concerning. As i try different things. I'm going to continue and monitor my blood for hopeful improvements.

Get a copy of 1992 book Gods of Eden by William Bramley... many other authors have written on parts of his research. He provides so much clarity on the real purpose of religion. I am glad that it provides solace and fellowship for those who can find neither... but it has also been the irrational reason for most of the violence and recurring wars we have endured throughout the history we know about.

The Brotherhood was an organization created with a noble purpose, but became corrupted into the satanic/luciferian/secret orders and societies that proliferate to cause the massive pain and suffering this planet is apparently uniquely known for...

Today the Brotherhood controls these purely evil bloodline families:

- Goldman Sachs Family
- The Rothschilds Families of Paris and London
- The Rockefeller Family
- The Warburg Family of Hamburg
- The Lehmans Family
- The Lazard Family of Paris
- Kuhn Loeb's of New York Family
- The Israel Moses Seif Family of Rome

I'm sure there are people within these families who don't participate in the global control and democide programs. Just like there are Shriners who don't know their organization is sex trafficking kids, or the Freemasons who don't know that the inner core has been guided by The Brotherhood's off-worlders for its entire existence.

Everyone needs to ask the questions that bring us to an understanding of who exactly is calling the shots. Then our sanity will be preserved. Because what is being done to us, down the generations is insane.
