What I am wondering if the elite understand the phenomenon of no person left behind or do they have an antidote? See if you can do an analysis of billy gates' blood if he has any

They want to be transhuman. Change every living cell and organism into synthetic biology and upload themselves to AI supercomputer cloud and in their deluded satanic views they think they become greater than God by destroying all life. Has been their plan for many decades. They despise humanity.

Couldn't they all just jump into a volcano? They certainly wouldn't be human anymore.

I don't think they qualify as human right now anyway.

I don't despise them . I love them  The only way out of this is with heart . Don't get me wrong . I'll fight til I can no longer if that may be the path . But ... to overcome this , we need love in our collective hearts , not anger and especially not fear !

Let me get this right ... we're going to defeat the great reset with the collective love in our hearts? ... what an incredibly naive comment ... please tell me, what exactly will a love-based assault on evil actually look like? ...

Eagerly awaiting your reply!

Yeah, we also despise them for what it's worth, but so what! ...

Eventually the globalists have their way with us ... just watch what happens in France ... those massive protests will eventually die out and Macron will then have it his way ...

It has been going on for 100's of years. They may no have had the technology but the same peavey been trying to run the world for many centuries. Long before Europe was even close to what it is today.

Ask yourself why is Ukraine so damn important. Then do some history.

I became a bit frustrated in reading about the how these structures tend to grow in the blood of unvaxxed when electrical currents are present ... electrical currents in what form? ... are you saying that for example, the reading lamp on my desk actually acts as a catalyst by providing the electrical current needed to trigger the growth of these structures? ... WTF does "electrical current" mean in the context of this article?

EMFs. It comes from anything electrical. Most people talk about it from cell phones, lap tops, cell towers, smart meters, etc.

EMF can also come from anything electrical. Any time a current runs through a wire it creates an electric field around the wire.

This also happens in the natural world. It us the same basis Tesla used to say he could get free power from the earth.

The magnetic fields around the earth that are protecting us from the cosmic a the sun's rays are essentially EMF's. They don't just go from pole to pole. There are small less powerful ones that are essentially everywhere on the planet.

Depending on the makeup of the ground they don't even have to be aligned North and South, because they are weaker.

Bottom line you cannot get away from them. They are in nature as much as they are man made. Some are just stronger than others.

I didn't even consider all the cell phone towers shooting signals 360 degrees, mostly, from every tower you see. And on top and inside buildings and stadiums, malls, etc.

I know, as my career was in electrical engineering and wireless industry for 30 plus years.

Huh. I thought I covered that with, "It comes from anything electrical." Since there are more artificial generators of electricity everywhere, until they are gone I won't worry about the electrical lay lines on the Earth.

Excuse me for elaborating. And until some sort of cataclysmic event takes out all electrical grids ,have fun with your thoughts on that.

yes, they want to be transhuman but these substances would damage them too in the same way they can damage us....their plans for transhumanism don't include them having blood clots and inflammation from microcurrents....they must have a way to get their bodies to automatically destroy these filaments and stuff just what? not edta too taxing in the long run but something else

Yes, she actually could have said it better - she never explained the specific nature and role of electrical currents in facilitating the growth of these structures ... what you don't know will in this case hurt you ... but not to worry, I'm the only person in this hemisphere who notices such things!

'Remember when adrenochrome was a "conspiracy theory?" Now it's conspiracy FACT in the form of "youth transplants" Ethan Huff 6/12/2022

(For years, it was called a wild conspiracy theory. But the idea that "elitists" are siphoning the blood and life essence of young people in an effort to live forever has now been vindicated..."

Youth transplants' is a euphemism for sucking out the vital fluids of baby / child 'donors' and injecting them into aging recipients," writes Ben Bartee for The Daily Bell...Bartee explains that in 2019, a United States-based startup called Ambrosia – a name that is creepy in and of itself, considering the focus of its business – started selling teenage blood plasma to Silicon Valley billionaires for $8,000 a liter..!

We've allowed this. Why is anyone surprised?

63 million plus legally sacrificed in the US alone since '73.

Maybe we're getting what we deserve. When you look the other way from a Genocide, don't be shocked when you're invited to the party next.

30,000 children die every day preventable hunger and disease while we watch the rich hoard the resources. Flouride, vaccines pesticides,, they have poisoned us for over half a century. Guess it wasnt going quick enough.

Soon they will have authority to force inject us. One has the admit, the planning and execution has been extraordinarily excellent on the part of the globalist fascists. They been busy these last few decades.

Fix it. USE others, ESPECIALLY 'fit young people '...would you agree they're 'at risk'? Just MAYBE? What if they just 'seem to die', recover, then blood is drained, THEN they die? Possible? Or not?

The day soon cometh when the servants of the father of all lies will know that it is they who are the ultimate "useful idiots." Those who seek power for their own benefit, are ultimately left helpless, an empty shell, vassals for the legions of Satan; the first to desire power via absolute control.

I can not help but wonder - if the pawns of evil could glimpse their awful final state, if the could (for a moment) glimpse past the fog and fantasy of the devils lies - would they then change their heart? Or harden it more; convince themselves (once again), that the lies are not lies? In the end, All Things shall be known.

With the many trillions of money the [d]elites have stolen from us, they probably understand exactly what they are doing, but are very clever with what they share with us, they like to keep us guessing, and diverted from figuring out how to turn the tide. This whole thing appears to have been carefully planned for decades. They are always expanding the many ways they harm humanity. Their ability to harm humanity must be stopped.
