By now, you’ve probably started hearing world leaders speak of “the Great Reset,”¹ “the Fourth Industrial Revolution”² and the call to “Build Back Better.”³ One example among many is this speech by Matt Hancock, British Minister for Digital, Culture, Media & Sport, given during an All-Party Parliamentary Group meeting on the Fourth Industrial Revolution in 2017:⁴

“One of the roles of Parliament is to cast ahead ... and tackle the great challenges of our time ... The nature of the technologies is materially different to what has come before. In the past, we’ve thought of consumption as a one-off, and capital investment as additive.

Yet put resources into the networks that now connect half the world, or into AI, and the effects are exponential ... I’m delighted to speak alongside so many impressive colleagues who really understand this, and alongside Professor Klaus Schwab who literally ‘wrote the book’ on the 4th Industrial Revolution.

Your work, bringing together as you do all the best minds on the planet, has informed what we are doing ... Our Digital Strategy, embedded within the wider Industrial Strategy, sets out the seven pillars on which we can build our success.

And inside that fits our 5G strategy, like a set of Russian Dolls. Our Strategy covers infrastructure, skills, rules and ethics of big data use, cyber security, supporting the tech sector, the digitization of industry, and digitization of government.”

What Is the Great Reset?

But what do the terms “Great Reset,” “Fourth Industrial Revolution” and “Build Back Better” actually mean? What do they refer to? In the October 16, 2020, Corbett Report⁵ above, journalist James Corbett breaks down the new social contract planned for the world, otherwise known as “the great reset.”

“ The Great Reset not only ties you to it through an electronic ID linked to your bank account and health records, but even gives you a “social credit” ID that can run every facet of your life.”

While the current pandemic is being used as a justification for the movement, the agenda has nothing to do with health and everything to do with a long-term plan to monitor and control the world through technical surveillance. In other words, the world will be reset to depend on digital technocracy run by self-appointed elitists.

It's a power grab of unprecedented magnitude, and involves the restructuring of social classes to dismantle democracy, erase national borders and allow for the governing of communities from a distance by a group of unelected leaders. What was in the past referred to as the "new world order" is now known as "the Great Reset."

This Great Reset not only ties you to it through an electronic ID linked to your bank account and health records, but even gives you a "social credit" ID that can run every facet of your life. This isn't a lofty conspiracy theory – it's real. It's happening now. And you need to know how to fight it before it's too late.

Ultimately, it's a technocratic agenda that seeks to integrate mankind into a technological surveillance apparatus overseen by powerful artificial intelligence. Ironically, while the real plan is to usher in a tech-driven dystopia free of democratic controls, they speak of this plan as a way to bring us back into harmony with Nature.

If you're unfamiliar with the term "technocracy," be sure to go back and listen to my interview with Patrick Wood, author of "Technocracy Rising: The Trojan Horse of Global Transformation" and "Technocracy: The Hard Road to World Order." You can also learn more on Wood's website, Technocracy.news.

In a nutshell, technocracy is an economic system of resource allocation that revolves around technology – in particular artificial intelligence, digital surveillance and Big Data collection – and the digitization of industry (which includes banking) and government, which in turn allows for the automation of social engineering and social rule, thereby doing away with the need for elected government leaders.

Your Guide to the Great Reset

According to the World Economic Forum,⁶ the Great Reset “will address the need for a more fair, sustainable and resilient future, and a new social contract centered on human dignity, social justice and where societal progress does not fall behind economic development.”

And what is the World Economic Forum? It's an international organization for public-private cooperation that “engages the foremost political, business, cultural and other leaders of society to shape global, regional and industry agendas.”⁷

The founder and executive chairman of the World Economic Forum is professor Klaus Schwab, who, as mentioned by Hancock in his 2017 speech, wrote the book on the Fourth Industrial Revolution. Schwab announced the World Economic Forum's Great Reset Initiative in June 2020. In his report, Corbett summarizes the Great Reset thus:

“At base, the Great Reset is nothing more, and nothing less, than a great propaganda, marketing rollout campaign for a new brand that the would-be global elite are trying to shove down the public's throats ... It's just a fresh coat of lipstick on a very old pig. This is The New World Order, just redefined. It's just a new label for it.”

And, as explained by Corbett, for those who forgot about what the New World Order was/is all about, it was all about “centralization of control into fewer hands, globalization [and] transformation of society through Orwellian surveillance technologies.”

In other words, it's technocracy, where we the people know nothing about the ruling elite while every aspect of our lives is surveilled, tracked and manipulated for their gain. Four key take-aways from Corbett's research into the Great Reset are:

1. The Great Reset has NOTHING to do with a virus, the COVID-19 pandemic or anything else related to public health.

- 2. The Great Reset is a coordinated agenda that has been years in the making – The pandemic is simply being used as a convenient “cover” for an elitist, globalist agenda that has been planned for decades.
- 3. The Great Reset is NOT the end of globalization – On the contrary, it is globalization turbo-charged. As noted by Schwab in the policy book, “COVID-19: The Great Reset,” co-written with Thierry Malleret and cited in Corbett’s report:

“If no one power can enforce order, our world will suffer from a ‘global order deficit.’ Unless individual nations and international organizations succeed in finding solutions to better collaborate at the global level, we risk entering an ‘age of entropy’ in which retrenchment, fragmentation, anger and parochialism will increasingly define our global landscape, making it less intelligible and more disorderly.”

In other words, there’s no room for the spontaneously arising social order that occurs when people are allowed to freely interact. Instead, there must be “one power” to enforce whatever the desired social-environmental-economic-geopolitical order is.

- 4. This process is not meant to end – The end of the pandemic will not be the end of this totalitarian, digital enslavement agenda. The plan is not to “reset” the world back to some earlier state that will allow us all to start over with a cleaner environment and more equitable social structures. The plan is to circumvent democracy and shift global governance into the hands of the few. As noted by Schwab in “COVID-19: The Great Reset”:

“When confronted with it, some industry leaders and senior executives may be tempted to equate reset with restart, hoping to go back to the old normal and restore what worked in the past: traditions, tested procedures and familiar ways of doing things – in short, a return to business as usual.

This won't happen because it can't happen. For the most part, 'business as usual' died from (or at the very least was infected by) COVID-19."

COVID-19 Transformation Map

What might the Great Reset transformation look like? As noted by Corbett, the following illustration, created and released by the World Economic Forum, shows the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on various aspects of life, and how pandemic responses are transforming these areas.

If you go to the original site for the illustration,⁸ you'll also find listings of publications, videos and data relating to all of these facets. Around the 25-minute mark, Corbett explains how you can use this map to get a feel for the scope of the transformation being prepared – everything from finance, business and education to health care, human rights and global governance.

Importantly, the pandemic is being used to destroy the local economies around the world, which will then allow the World Economic Forum to come in and “rescue” debt-ridden countries.

However, the price for this salvation is your personal freedom and liberty. The World Economic Forum and the central banks will, through their facilitated financial bailouts, be able to effectively control most countries in the world. And, again, one of the aspects of the technocratic plan is to eliminate nation borders and nationalism in general.

The Fourth Industrial Revolution

A related term to the Great Reset is “the Fourth Industrial Revolution.” This refers to the merging of digital, physical and biological systems. As noted by Schwab, “It doesn't change what we are doing, but it changes us.”⁹

What they're talking about is the creation of a new economic system built around the merger of the human body and mind with machines and artificial intelligence. In other words, technocracy – a resource-based economic system with centralized control by a technocratic elite who have the know-how to program the computer systems will ultimately dictate the lives of everyone.

Of course, it's sold to us as a means to harness and elevate human potential, when in fact it will do the complete opposite. Ultimately, they're not just trying to change the definition of what it means to be human – they're openly conspiring to alter humanity through technological means.

In addition to the sources cited earlier, Corbett also fleshed out the history of technocracy in his December 28, 2015, report,¹⁰ "How Big Oil Conquered the World." In short, the Fourth Industrial Revolution is nothing but a rebranding of technocracy, melded with the transhumanist movement.

You can also learn more about Schwab, the figurehead of modern technocracy, by reading the June 29, 2020, Technocracy.news article¹¹ "The Elite Technocrats Behind the Global 'Great Reset,'" and the October 12, 2020, Off-Guardian article,¹² "Klaus Schwab & His Great Fascist Reset."

According to Off-Guardian,¹³ Schwab ensures us that "smart" Big Data technologies will "deliver new and innovative ways to service citizens and customers' and we will have to stop objecting to businesses profiting from harnessing and selling information about every aspect of our personal lives."

In that article, Schwab is also quoted as saying, "Establishing trust in the data and algorithms used to make decisions will be vital" – which about sums up the technocratic view of "government."

Coronavirus 'Circuit Breaker'

In some parts of the world, a second wave of COVID-19 is reportedly¹⁴ emerging, and according to some researchers, the best way to combat it is to implement another round of more stringent lockdown measures — a so-called “circuit breaker” strategy to bring the infection rate under control.

Meanwhile, other reports¹⁵ warn that while COVID-19 can be deadly for a small minority of people, so are lockdowns, thanks to the poverty, famine and mental health challenges they bring about.

Lockdowns Are a Failed Experiment

According to an October 13, 2020, article¹⁶ in The Sun, COVID-19 restrictions “could hurl 90 million into ‘extreme poverty,’” with the poorest nations bearing the brunt of the economic collapse. The New York Post also recently reported¹⁷ that “COVID-19 lockdowns were a risky experiment” that failed, and have proven deadlier than the virus itself.

“No ethical scientist would conduct such a risky experiment without carefully considering the dangers and monitoring the results, which have turned out to be dismal,” the New York Post writes.¹⁸

“While the economic and social harms have been enormous, it isn’t clear that the lockdowns have brought significant health benefits beyond what was achieved by people’s voluntary social distancing and other actions.

In a comparison of 50 countries, a team led by Rabail Chaudhry of the University of Toronto found that COVID-19 was deadlier in places with older populations and higher rates of obesity (like the United States), but the mortality rate was no lower in countries that closed their borders or enforced full lockdowns.

After analyzing 23 countries and 25 U.S. states with widely varying policies, Andrew Atkeson of UCLA and fellow economists found that the mortality trend was similar everywhere once the disease took hold: The number of daily deaths rose rapidly for 20 to 30 days, then fell rapidly ...

The cost-benefit rationale becomes even bleaker if you use the standard metric for determining whether a drug or other intervention is worthwhile: How much money will society spend for each year of life being saved?

By that metric, the lockdowns must be the most cost-ineffective intervention in the history of public health, because so many of the intended beneficiaries are near the end of life. In America, nearly 80 percent of COVID-19 victims have been over 65, and more than 40 percent were living in nursing homes, where the median life expectancy after admission is just five months ...

No one wants to hasten the demise of the elderly, but they and other vulnerable people can be shielded without shutting down the rest of the society, as Sweden and other countries have demonstrated ...

Early in the pandemic, Scott Atlas at the Hoover Institution and researchers at Swansea University independently calculated that the lockdowns would ultimately cost more years of life than COVID-19 in the United States and Britain, and the toll seems certain to be worse in poor countries.

The World Bank estimates that the coronavirus recession could push 60 million people into extreme poverty, which inevitably means more disease and death."

The Cure That Is Worse Than the Disease

We're now also seeing reports¹⁹ that "unexplained excess deaths at home" are outpacing COVID-19 deaths by nearly 900%, likely due to people with chronic illnesses avoiding medical care. Unfortunately, physicians and scientists continue to butt heads when it comes to the sanest path forward.

As noted in an October 6, 2020, article²⁰ in The Conversation, whether or not the coronavirus cure is worse than the disease has become “the most divisive question of 2020,” with dozens of doctors signing on to one side or the other.

A recent Kaiser Health News story²¹ also highlights the impact of “pandemic stress” on public health, as more and more people are reporting problems ranging from insomnia and excruciating headaches to hair loss and cracked teeth:

“Throughout the pandemic, people who never had the coronavirus have been reporting a host of seemingly unrelated symptoms: excruciating headaches, episodes of hair loss, upset stomach for weeks on end, sudden outbreaks of shingles and flare-ups of autoimmune disorders.

The disparate symptoms, often in otherwise healthy individuals, have puzzled doctors and patients alike, sometimes resulting in a series of visits to specialists with few answers. But it turns out there’s a common thread among many of these conditions, one that has been months in the making: chronic stress.

Although people often underestimate the influence of the mind on the body, a growing catalog of research shows that high levels of stress over an extended time can drastically alter physical function and affect nearly every organ system.

Now, at least eight months into the pandemic, alongside a divisive election cycle and racial unrest, those effects are showing up in a variety of symptoms. ‘The mental health component of COVID is starting to come like a tsunami,’ said Dr. Jennifer Love, a California-based psychiatrist.”

The Coronavirus Fraud

As detailed in “Coronavirus Fraud Scandal – The Biggest Fight Has Just Begun,” an international network of legal experts and health professionals are preparing to launch the largest class-action lawsuit in history, against all those responsible for the global lockdowns, from local policy makers to the World Health Organization and everyone in between.

According to the four attorneys who founded the German Corona Extra-Parliamentary Inquiry Committee, which is leading the tort case, the COVID-19 pandemic is “probably the greatest crime against humanity ever committed.” Pandemic measures were intended to sow panic in order to allow for a massive transfer of wealth, and fraudulent testing has been used to keep the ruse going.

In reality, mortality statistics reveal COVID-19 has not led to an excess of deaths above the annual norm, the proposed action says, and there’s no evidence lockdowns and economic shutdowns have produced favorable results.

While the Corona Extra-Parliamentary Inquiry Committee hasn’t specifically addressed the pandemic as a vehicle for a technocratic revolution, it highlights that it has been fraudulently used as a means for wealth transfer and elimination of basic human rights.

As noted in the June 29, 2020, Technocracy.news article,²² “The Elite Technocrats Behind the Global ‘Great Reset’”:²³

“The UN Agenda 2030 with its Sustainable Development Goals is claimed to ‘ensure peace and prosperity for people and the planet.’ The actions are said to tackle poverty and hunger, bring better health and education, reduce inequalities, and save the oceans, forests and the climate. Who can argue against such benevolent goals?

But the promised Utopia comes with a price – it sets shackles on our personal freedom ... The leading partners of the United Nations Global Goals project reveal the real technocratic agenda that lies behind the polished feel-good façade – it involves a plan to fully integrate mankind into a technological surveillance apparatus overseen by a powerful AI.

The current pandemic scare has been a perfect trigger to kickstart this nefarious agenda ... The current COVID-19 crisis is seen by the World Economic Forum and its chairman Klaus Schwab as the perfect trigger to implement their grandiose technocratic plan. Big Tech will come to 'rescue' the world ...

This techno-fascist recipe will then, in an utmost non-democratic fashion without any public debate or skeptic inquiry, soon be integrated into the agenda of G20 and the European Union – relabeled as the Great Green Deal ...

Unsurprisingly, Klaus Schwab fails to mention his own and his cronies' role in creating this global economic mess in the first place – as it was 'foreseen' with stunning accuracy in World Economic Forum's and Bill Gate's Event 201 (October 2019) and in the Rockefeller Foundation report²⁴ Scenarios for the Future of Technology and International Development (2010)."

As I discuss in "The Global Takeover Is Underway," technocracy is inherently a technological society run through social engineering, and Big Tech censorship is part and parcel of this. In other words, the medical tyranny and censorship of anti-groupthink that has emerged during this pandemic are an unavoidable element of the Great Reset, and if you think it's bad now, just wait until the whole system is brought fully online.

The mere idea of dissent will become a thought of the past, because your life – your health, educational and work opportunities, your finances and your very identity – will be so meshed with the automated technological infrastructure that any attempt to break free will result in you being locked out or erased from the system, leaving you with no ability to learn, work, travel or purchase anything.

It sounds far-fetched, I know, but when you follow the technocratic plan to its inevitable end, that's basically what you end up with. The warning signs are all around us, if we're willing to see them for what they actually are. The only question now is whether enough people are willing to resist it to make a difference.

Darzoum

For months now, we've all added our stories, findings and insights about the glaring inconsistencies behind the "science" of the "pandemic." In an era of real journalism, any one of those revelations would have been blockbuster "Watergate level" news to bring the entire facade crashing down. But expose whatever you will about PCR tests, Anthony Fauci, hydroxychloroquine/zinc, Neil Ferguson, sending COVID patients into old age homes, vitamin D, masks, gain of function, mRNA vaccines, Moderna, ventilators, Google, censorship, conflicts of interest, etc, nothing changes.

Go outside and people are still socially distancing and wearing masks that barely conceal their fright. Media shills are still announcing the 2nd wave with eager anticipation. No matter what actual science is presented to refute the official narrative, nothing changes because this is not about science or a virus. That's not the issue; if it were, these extreme, unproven measures would have already been over. The agenda is the Great Reset, Technocracy, Transhumanism, the Fourth Industrial Revolution, the New World Order or whatever else you care to call it. It's an agenda with long roots.

It hitched a ride on 9/11 and it's hitching a ride on an invisible, non-isolated SARS-CoV-2 virus. It uses fear of a terrifying enemy to herd unsuspecting, gullible people no less than was done in Nazi Germany. The completely misplaced blind trust people still have in institutions of government and media—agents of control, propaganda & censorship—is all that is still keeping this going. That makes this a battle over minds, a battle of narrative with extremely high stakes. We have to keep speaking out—we need "truth warriors"—but we need to know what this is really about so can adjust our messages accordingly. Just attacking the virus narrative is important, but as has been demonstrated so far, it's not enough.

Good morning David, Yes, "The Great Reset and the Fourth Industrial Revolution are rebranded terms for technocracy and the old" New World Order "melded with the transhumanist movement". Everything serves to achieve the objectives of power and money, of domination of people and material goods, We are in a digital surveillance framework served by Big Data, technocratic control of the government and the end of democracy. We are facing tyranny in all systems of power. The truth about the political class and the oligarchies that dominate this world of false information, must be inscribed in the minds of the people. Bioengineering, the expansion of individuals through digital media change this society. People are being aligned to a transformation and predestined to be commanded by bioengineering, robotics, intelligent computer systems will decide what people must do so that welfare is crushed by the power of corrupt oligarchies.

The coronavirus crisis is an act of war against humanity. We must reach out to all those who are victims of the crown crisis. The legitimacy of the COVID-19 pandemic depends on fear, misinformation, and submission to higher authority. We must fight against propaganda to break a criminal project of global destruction, in which the search for profit is the primary force. Confinement at home, restrictions to go out into the streets, population control through mobile phones, apps and drones, more militarization and vaccination that causes diseases and autoimmune reactions: where are the corrupt elites leading humanity? Under the pretext of the coronavirus, these intrusions act in "false democracies", and end in a new world order.

By comparing the current COVID operation with the 9/11 operation, we can make a similarity to the politics of fear, the hyperactivity of the government. Events that were not investigated, A war of bioterrorism instead of terrorism. Mock pandemic drills and hijacked planes. Control of information and inside information, and up to 16 similarities of COVID and 9/11 that can be many more. The objective is to put people in states of anxiety, stress and fear of accepting any level of state security, corporatocratic surveillance, invasion of privacy and violation of their rights and freedoms.

In March, the ACLU warned: "Now that the COVID-19 pandemic has created an unprecedented opportunity for EdTech companies to make the use of their privacy-violating educational products nearly universal, there is a real risk that these companies, under the guise of a generous act, will use this opportunity to create personal information dossiers on an entire generation of young Americans."

"The Gates Foundation started shaping EdTech in the U.S. in 2011, when the foundation teamed up with the Carnegie Corporation to fund, to the tune of $100 million, an EdTech initiative called inBloom. inBloom aimed to create a centralized platform for data sharing and curricula. The initiative collected information from public school students, including test scores, attendance, health records, race and ethnicity data and economic and disability status. inBloom stored the information on Amazon servers, then analyzed and distributed the data to specified for-profit third parties".

You think Attila the Hun, Napoleon Hitler, Mao etc etc, were just quirks of history? They, like some today, are just pawns in the game of human evolution.

Dr.Steven

Excellent commentary, Darzoum: I resonate with everything you say; nothing seems to break the media/big tech wall of censorship or "sins of omission" in refusing to even consider reporting the science-based alternative views on the virus presented by Dr. Mercola and other independent outlets. The connections between elite technocrats and this "pandemic" are frightening. I've been a newspaper "junkie" since I was 16; I'm 61, and could never have anticipated the blatant bias in today's major media outlets. In an earlier time, the media would jump at alternative views that offer hope and a light out of the darkness of this ongoing, wearying assault on normative human life and interaction;

But no, today's "mainstream" outlets for some reason thrive on, even celebrate "surges, upticks, and record case counts," breathlessly reporting, without context. They never discuss evidence of false positives, asymptomatic "cases," evidence of T-Cell immunity, alternative treatments, falsely elevated "death" numbers, and so forth. They seem to collectively want more restrictions and misery--apparently until they get their leftist agenda enacted. Whatever happened to "investigative reporting" that exposes corruption?

Another issue is censorship of free speech and honest, open debate by the "woke" crowd dominating our media and increasingly "infecting" education; speech codes, identity politics victim hierarchies, false revisionist views of American history, support for Marxist ideologies--case in point, the leaders of BLM--and advocacy for increasing government control and "mandates." The way in which governors and mayors have used this "pandemic" to arrogate near-dictatorial powers to themselves, while one presidential candidate talks about nationwide "mandates" and openness to considering a mandatory coronavirus vaccine, is truly frightening; add the increasing power of Big Tech over information and the rollout of 5G and we are fast becoming like China.

I don't disagree with anything you have said so far but 'truth warriors'? Nice concept but so far my attempts to be over at local level have met with polite indifference, comparison with "truth " as filtered by social media i.e. lies, or downright ridicule or worse. Aspiring to be a truth warrior is a bit like advocating "inclusivity" or some other high ideal which only becomes meaningful when translated into action. Any suggestions ?

Darzoum, come out to East TN. I was there last week and there were so many people you couldn't walk on the side walks! It took us 2 hours to drive 10 miles!!! And, there were no accidents on the highway/city streets. There were so many people/cars it was 100% grid lock and NO ONE WAS WEARING MASKS!!! I've been going to Gatlinburg/Pigeon Forge most of my adult life at least once every 3 years and this was the most people I've ever seen there. So, "whatever-gate level" this is, no one in East TN cares! I LOVE IT! I may have to relocate.

Thanks, Darzoum. Between your post and today's article, I don't see how the truth of this situation could be any clearer. It's great to see Dr. Mercola confirming what many of us have understood for quite awhile. I've seen so many strange things happening on the internet (mostly youtube), and I'm convinced that Google's A.I. has already been loosed upon the internet! Speaking of Nazi Germany; is Schwab not German? Is he any different from Hitler; trying to take over the entire planet? Meanwhile; we have the idiots running around yelling; Russia, Russia, Russia! Any and every time I see one of those evil minions speak, I want to puke! Yes; they are that sickening!

We are in the fight of our lives - for our lives; and the fact that the majority of the population is still totally oblivious, isn't helping one iota! The way that I see the situation is; anyone believing in and going along with this insanity, must be a little insane themselves. BTW: To illustrate a point; another anomaly, which just happened again; is when I first click on "submit", instead of submitting the post, the article jumps to the top...this is very strange behavior!

Cogent and succinct. Things are unravelling and have been since the start. As with, I'm guessing, many people here I had my 'awakening' as a child. I was a voracious reader, I still am, I learned history from reading fiction; prose and poetry because through them I could glimpse the World that 'factual' history books conveniently left out. Recent history, I discovered, through talking and listening to my grandparents, great aunts and uncles. I had grandparents who were two generations apart, one in WWI (including being in Germany during the Weimar) and one in WW2. Later I did hundreds of temporary jobs for various big companies in various big cities and with both amazing insights into the workings of companies and a real understanding of the the word 'copy' when applied to the media. Everything has always been in the hands of so few except your mind and that seemingly is what they want now. They co-opt everything they touch and they pay high sums or hold so much information that they can bend those ostensibly 'in power' to their will but they don't read Shakespeare because: 'Though he divide the realm and give thee half, It is too little, helping him to all.' To me there are two factions at least warring here, divide and rule may be their leitmotif but that is because they understand it so well in their own ranks. Who is going to have the job of King of the World? There can only be one. Everything is so out in the open only be because someone allowed it to be so, someone is wanting to reveal the plot of this illogical screenplay. Do we think this is just to rub our noses in the mud, kick us when we're down? One of my grandfathers was awarded the MM for an act of extraordinary bravery, he should have got the VC but there was no other officer left alive to witness it. To allow us to end up and remain in this mess is to betray everything he knew he wasn't fighting for and all those writers who left us all those breadcrumbs down through the centuries.

Darzoum - Much of what you said could have also been said in the early years of Hitlers regime. Of course there were the true believers who thought Hitler could do no wrong, just as there are those today who believe that technocracy is a good thing - most of whom stand to benefit from the program, just as happened in Germany. But there were also many people who instinctively knew that the  were bad juju and that their program was not going to end well (of course, it did not), just as many of us today believe that technocracy will not end well.

Hitler ended up committing suicide and many of his cohorts were killed or disappeared, and Nazism was largely relegated to the annals of history... until now. I think - and hope - that we will see a similar pattern evolve with the evolution of technocracy. I see ever more people waking up to whats going on, especially those over 60 who were part of the "Question Authority" generation. It's been my experience that the millennial generation, and younger, are the ones who seem most oblivious to what's going on.

Like jamNjim says, there are a lot of people who are fed up and not complying, and the very high percentage of people who want nothing to do with a COVID vaccine are well represented among them. I see people not wearing masks in many places. Enforcement is lax, and that if good for public health, helping achieve true herd immunity faster.

And there is also a large religious community, who wisely wants nothing to do with "the mark of the beast". HR6666, the track and trace everyone bill, hasn't gotten out of committee, and I'm sure all of its co-sponsors are reeling from the blowback of horrified constituents like myself telling them in no uncertain terms we will NOT vote for anyone who supports such authoritarian legislation. And the text of the bill is quite benign compared to the ultimate plan.

India defeated British imperialism by staying firm with peaceful resistance, the atrocities having opened people's eyes and the British soldiers unable to stomach committing such atrocities on peaceful people who were just minding their business. On the subject of the British, British freedom lovers have been assembling to protest and partying on the beach, the authorities simply not having the ability to arrest so many people.

To boil frogs in water without them jumping out, the heat has to be turned up slowly. The heat is being turned up too fast, and many are already jumping out, recognizing the soullessness of this for what it is. Stay firm, freedom lovers. All we need is a little bit o' soul, man.

Dr. Mercola, I can appreciate that some of your followers would prefer you to stick to health matters and not get into 'the political'. But increasingly, TPTB are making health matters political. And I for one appreciate your commenting on that fact, as you did in this excellent article.

Unfortunately, politics has become the exercise of power and this power is in the hands of the technocrats associated with a government, and this has led to a phase that is weighed down by corruption, unscientific opinions, arbitrary points of view, partisanship and interests. personal. One of the great ruptures that we have in contemporary false democracies is the one between technocracy and populism. The technocratic solution would be to dispense with the people and give power to the experts. It has become a maneuver for the distribution of power and corruption. It is evident that the technocracy is immersed in all fields of health.

The technocratic empire has also become apparent during the pandemic. The censorship and manipulation of medical information is a fundamental part of the social engineering of this system. The medical technocracy has lied to us about several factors, starting with the risk of death from COVID-19. Based on deaths per capita, the global average death rate is 0.009%. The probability of surviving this disease is 99.991%. We live in the cognitive dissonance that we face today, when what they say does not correspond with facts or logical thinking. They have been wrong about initial risk assessment, testing, preventive measures, wearing masks, and social distancing. They have mixed the "cases" or positive tests with the actual disease. They are also guilty of errors of omission, since they do not express what the true science says, excellently represented by the reports of Dr. Mercola.

Thank you Dr. Mercola for finally speaking out about what has been going on - things I have come to realize 7 months ago. I know you have been sticking mainly to health issues - but GRATEFUL you are finally speaking out and waking up the brainwashed stupid Americans who have drunk the Convid Kool-Aid. I honestly want to pull my hair out and the stupidity around me. I have lived all over the world (4 continents), just returning from a year in S. E. Asia, to see how duped Americans are - I have to say that dumbed-down education has truly worked - along with the tainted food supply - the garbage processed foods/GMOs/ChemTrails/hijacked media - among a million other things - I am not surprised at what I have been seeing. How can these people not use any logic at all - they think a piece of plexiglass at the top of your booth at a restaurant will keep all those coronavirus germs contained in someone's booth - the air clearly stops right there! OMG THE STUPIDITY!!! On a recent Qatar Airways flight - once again another example - if you sat in coach you were forced to wear not only a mask but a plastic full-face shield (like a welder) on top of your surgical mask - for the entire 28+ hours flight! Except when eating you were allowed to take it off! Oh but wait, if you were sitting in Business Class - you were NOT required to wear ANY face covering whatsoever! OMG REALLY? Oh I guess if you are rich and can afford business class you have no germs and they seem to linger only in the front of the plane and are not circulated anywhere else!! THIS IS OUTRAGEOUS and has to stop....But unfortunately it will not. America doesn't have a history to reflect back on - like many other places, so this will be there great reset. They will go down with the ship in utter stupidity. To any of you morons criticizing Dr. Mercola for 'political' articles - go F*%k yourselves - we don't want you here. I am grateful to Dr. Mercola for having the balls to post what he has - because I couldn't have said it better myself! The big wheel of propaganda never seems to stop rolling. Thanks to the alignment of Big Tech, Social Media, and Big Pharma with the extreme left we now are being bombarded with FAKE news designed to take everyone down the path of MAN MADE DISEASES! I've been saying it for more than 15 years and all 12 years I've been on this forum.....If it is on PRIME TIME it is FAKE NEWS!! DO THE OPPOSITE of what they say and you will be successful. Anything they criticize you should investigate and try it for yourself. It will most likely be BENEFICIAL for you! If they promote Remdesivir and condemn Hydroxychloroquine you should throw Remdesivir in the trash and take Hydroxychloroquine. Why can't you sue these corrupt entities creating all the fake news? They're all protected just like the makers of vaccines! So their only accountability is pleasing the sponsors paying for the FAKE NEWS/COMMERCIALS! Just walk away from the medical system. Techno-fascism with the COVID-19 vaccine, mind control surveillance is a new brand of the beast. This apocalyptic seal exists to mark all people on earth using a technology that makes humanity prey to a horizon where human thought is enslaved and controlled. Flagging everyone who doesn't swear allegiance to techno-fascist powers is not technically possible. The beast will culminate economic economic globalization, which will force people to swear allegiance and receive an economic "seal of approval" or be excluded from all services. In the words of Dr. Mercola: "While the real plan is to usher in a tech-driven dystopia free of democratic controls, they speak of this plan as a way to bring us back into harmony with nature"

We also need to keep in mind the fact that this world is full of wickedness and at the head of the pack is Satan himself. Satan has managed to control thousands of wicked people across the world so it's not surprising to hear of such evil plans for the world at large. The only way this whole scenario will be changed is for good people to act by appealing to God through vigilant prayers. The only way this whole scenario will NOT be changed is for good people to do nothing!

The best anyone can do is to understand beyond their own little daily personal bubbles & to do what what they understand is right, as best they can. Not because we are guaranteed some kind of 'Win,' but because it is right. We have to continue to expose & share real facts despite massive suppression from the Power's that Be. Their whole message is 'Disinformation' needs to be shut down. Problem is the only 'Disinformation' to concern them is anything that is a legitimate question, anything that is factual information that challenges their official narrative, anything that points out their habit as one poster pointed out is 'word's mean what I say they mean.'

Yes we are meeting a lot of people with deer in the headlight eyes, or exhausted worn out submission as people often have after being completely having their whole life turned completely upside down & inside out.

The whole thing about all this Digital Artificial Intelligence is - Garbage In, Garbage Out. One doesn't have to be the brightest bulb in the pack to see throughout their lives Educated Idiots, disconnected in so many ways running things yet more than likely it is those kinds of disconnect incomplete evolved people setting these things in motion. Another thing to consider is cosmic events such as Sun Spots killing 'Digital Brain Cells,' so to speak. All sorts of any kind of natural disaster rip such a digital dictatorial hold apart beyond repair or return to function. Dumb. There is also as Krofter pointed out the other day, the difference between the Master's of the Universes Order Out of Chaos M.O. and Creations Order Out of Chaos. Sometimes known as the Butterfly Affect, a Butterfly's flapping wings could well be a trigger for a storm on the other side of the continent. Yes, JUST, unfortunately we are in the history of Humanity in which a small group of men can dominate the entire world without moving from an office passing through the lining of a desired democracy. A change of the magnitude of which we are living with very serious effects on the lives of people and nature must be responded to by people of good will. We cannot allow this techno-fascist revolution to achieve a massive lobotomization of billions of individuals who dream of a world. We must convince minds lost in ignorance of the coming disaster if we do not fight for freedom.

Several technology companies monopolizing the market, moving in a dark market of evading taxes, with few workers and destroying jobs around the world. They are mainly Google, Facebook, Apple and Amazon, companies that are followed by many others that will soon make us see that work is a thing of the past and democracy as well. The new technologies will only be good for everyone when they have been domesticated and put at the service of Humanity, the new labor realities are regulated, the working hours are reduced, the machines that replace people are listed and subjected to the general interest and the laws emanating from Parliaments driven by true democracy.

At last, the plan is being recognized. 9 11 was the trigger, to a/ test the level of cognitive dissonance of the general population with a sequence of absurd "explanations", and b/ To let world leaders who would not participate, what will happen if they resist. Every group or name you can link are actually "pawns in the game". This shift has been on the same track as the Renaissance, industrial and tech revolution, and every "believer group" have a limited understanding of what is really going on. The next level of paradigm shift evolution takes us away from medicine, education, food and justice for profit where millions were brainwashed into mutual mass slaughter by the few. Having thousands of children dying of starvation daily, while the western pop. dies of excesses was another step. Remember when we used to send young children "up the chimneys and down the coal mines??? BTW, the word Armageddon means change, but "believers" of various castes have a belief biased understanding, just like they believed two towers nearly 1/2 k high could not disintegrate before their very eyes.

Yes, September 11 and COVID-19 are potential reflections of a society that enters cognitive dissonance, the tension or internal disharmony of the system of ideas, beliefs and emotions are in debate in the minds of people, raising conflicts that must solve. However, a cognitive dissonance can be an optimal starting point to initiate a reworking of some belief and / or attitude that until now we considered as valuable and immovable and that we are now putting in crisis. Faced with this new situation, foreclosure is not a valid option for those of us who intend to advance in the "truth".

There are several coping strategies to mitigate this problem. Yoga and mindfulness / meditation and be selective with the information we consume, avoiding the infodemic. Maintaining our social connections is essential to counteract the negative effects of the pandemic on our mental health.

Humanity has grounds for cognitive dissonance. The medical technocrats, the so-called medical experts and political leaders who have driven the world mad in response to COVID-19, have been wrong in everything they have been telling us. They have been wrong about initial risk assessment, testing, preventive measures, wearing masks, and social distancing. They have mixed the "cases" or positive tests with the actual disease.

The current 2020 economic crisis is linked to the logic of the COVID-19 pandemic: it is not necessary for the IMF and the World Bank to negotiate a structural adjustment loan with national governments. What has occurred under the COVID-19 crisis is a "Global Adjustment" in the structure of the world economy. In one fell swoop, this Global Adjustment unleashes a worldwide process of bankruptcy, unemployment, poverty and total despair. We have changed from a state of freedom to a state of totalitarianism. And this was achieved through the technocratic mechanisms of social engineering, which of course involves psychological manipulation.

Posted On 10/28/2020

Mind manipulation is not necessary for the " leader pawns". The threat of vaporising parts of their respective countries will force them around the table. The manipulation is for the masses. Always has been. The only way people engage in mass mutual slaughter.

Sadly, bul51293, ALL nations are in a state of deep capture by the global elite. I spent many years doing original research to verify this myself. Even supposed outliers such as Venezuela and Iran were captured long ago and behind the facade of geopolitical Kabuki theater (a deadly theater often harming multitudes of innocent people) these nations have been adopting all facets of UN Agendas 21 and 2030 to include privatization of public assets and the creation of elaborate surveillance systems. There are many gatekeepers in the alternative media that have been interfering with an understanding of just how far the Technocracy cancer has metastasized by interjecting false narratives of government white hats in other nations and in the US. Time to stand our ground for the final battle, imho.

Thanks Pete.Smith. These attributes have social media. "The Social Dilemma," a new documentary that explores the dark side of social media, has been a hot topic online since its Netflix release in August. Directed by Jeff Orlowski, the movie makes the case that widespread use of social media has led to a decline in mental health and an increase in political polarization. Here are six insights former Silicon Valley insiders offer into how the social media industry has lost its way: 1. Profit, not user experience, now drives social media functionality 2. Social media firms want your data – and will do anything to get it 3. Social media's 'addiction-by-design' model damages mental health 4. Social media's fostering of political polarization erodes critical thinking skills 5. Social media thrives on spreading 'fake news' 6. It is evil British Empire and evil US elites like the Rockefellers and today Bill Gates which promote eugenism and truly the War on the Poor. Their goal today is not extermination of the Jews, Gypsies or others but general control and eventual mass extermination and sterilization of third world countries. Covid 19 draconian lockdown apart from ruining western economies, the middle class, small business and the working poor has a good chance of mass murdering just through starvation hundreds of million of people in poor countries. People like Bill Gates and Fauci but also the Chinese government, must be considered as criminals against humanity. We will eventually need a new Nuremberg trial for these disgusting tyrants !!!!!

Evil is much older than the establishment of the United States! At its founding the U.S. was an escape from those ancient powers for those seeking truth out from under the old Babylonian order, manmade Eastern despotic order & Western alike. Not lawlessness or the utter lack of order which is folly, & leaves men without excuse as they deny the light & conscience within them that points to God & righteousness beyond men's reach & ability. When men abandon truth, they abandon God, his blessings & protections.

The first attempt at a U.S. Constitution limited rights to the elite & their hierarchical Babylonish order, but the second was a blessing & reprieve w/ the inclusion of the Bill of Rights for all men, holding its own potential weaknesses & heavy responsibility of diligence & vigilance to maintain. The extremes of the corporatists & anarchists have fought against distributed & balanced powers from the get-go, seeking an imbalance to one side or the other abandoning truth according to their own preferred idolatrous bent, & here we are.

The ideals of truth-bound liberty were there from the beginning, though not necessarily (& generally not) the practice on the part of the majority: with the abandonment of truth goes life & liberty. The antichristian world always tends to centralized power & the ubermensch, survival of the fittest, hierarchies. The Jews require signs, the Greeks wisdom, but for Christians Christ is the truth, the way & the life. America allowed men the liberty to choose truth & Christ freely, or to irrationally reject it. Without the establishment of a state religious tyranny imposing order externally. Even tolerating true & free biblical Christianity, the offence of the cross, brings blessings of liberty for those societies permitting the salt & light it brings with eternal hope. Those rejecting it lose the blessing & reap the judgment of tyranny. The tragedy of the human condition without Christ according to the scripture.

As I see it, there is only one route towards a solution; the law. There are laws against what is occurring, and as some already know, I have done my best to set the law into motion on behalf of humanity. If the law turns its back on their ultimate responsibility; then there is nothing else other than a road no one has any interest in travelling upon. The law is our only solution.

I absolutely agree. The laws are already there just no one bothers to find out what their legal rights are. Most people have no idea even that they can demand their cash back for returned and/or faulty goods, so how much do they actually know about their human rights!

If they had, they'd have bum-rushed the guards and taken their weapons, figuring better for some to live and others to die heroic, fast deaths than all to die. We must make a stand before it comes to that or the equivalent.

The New World Order is the Great Tribulation (Distress/Persecution) that is taught in the Bible. (Mt. 24:29) Central to it is the Mark of the Beast needed to buy and sell(though the "elites" call it the Digital ID, Immunity Passport, etc to "get back to normal" As damaging as it is to health, etc.. THE REAL DANGER OF THE MARK (coming with the vaccine) is this: "A third angel followed them and said in a loud voice: "If anyone worships the beast and its image and receives its mark on their forehead or on their hand, they, too, will drink the wine of God's fury, which has been poured full strength into the cup of his wrath. They will be tormented with burning sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb. And the smoke of their torment will rise for ever and ever. There will be no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and its image, or for anyone who receives the mark of its name." This calls for patient endurance on the part of the people of God who keep his commands and remain faithful to Jesus. "(Rev. 14:9) START WARNING PEOPLE.

Keep thinking! It is eerily close to the collective; however, some larger corporations are currently in trouble, and no one seems to notice. Airlines are having a difficult time, so is Boeing. Big Oil is shaky at best, and may never return to its former glory. Its possible that we are close to or near the point where several other big industries start to consolidate and shrink. The stock market is not happy right now, that's clear. At some point, if tourism, airports and travel in general do not recover, the balance of power and its questionable support-structure may shift on its own. A quick assessment: the mask mentality is not only hurting small business, its also hurting entire countries that rely on tourism.

Well, one thing they are actually correct about is the removal of nations and nationalism. Nationalism is glorified tribalism and this is where many problems begin, division brings about conflict. Us vs. them mentality causes most human problems. Man against man the horror show.

We must reject harsh nationalism, but we have to consider globalization also contains tendencies that can provoke nationalism. Challenging "the national" with globalization has promoted nationalism around the world. The success of nationalism for two centuries can be attributed in part to the way nationalists adapt their vision, culture, solidarity, and program to various situations and interests. Such flexibility has allowed nationalism to continually resurface and spread, at the expense of its ideological rivals. The causes of contemporary nationalism lie within the processes of globalization that have eroded the ability of many states to monopolize loyalties and have intensified fears of cultural and physical survival.

Perhaps like others who began this video, my immediate first response was "What's so "great" about it"?? A label to sell an ideology has to be soft, clever, alluring, at first glances. We know the power of marketing imagery. It's classically repeated to sell. At first glance of the great reset, my mind quickly recognized prior events that reset masses. The 1929 stock market crash is one such similar event. It evolved a "Great" depression. The planned collapse of faith in money by uber-wealthy was a history "Great" for only one segment of citizenry of the entire nation. It was only "Great" for the bankers!! They now got the control of the dollar and most resources of basic commodity. They foreclosed on every home, apartment/rental property, small business, farm, livestock, cow, pig, chicken and tractor. (the food growers) Pow triple whammy. The Dust Bowl days. You name it, they took possession of the circle of life in most every commerce. Hence my personal view when I see the words "Great Reset", I spot a hoax upon the many, while again cementing massive benefits for only a few. Also note worthy is the similarity of COV19 transformation map (on page above) and the artist depictions of the Virus (while in air or bloodstream??) Never been clear about that have they? Looks ominous to me. As does a great reset of humanity. Remember, it's not about your health. When you change the way you look at things. The things you look at will change! Dr. Wayne Dyer

The day the FCC deregulated media ownership was the day "The Music Died," and the "Hive mind" began...consolidating information into a new reality and turning once noble homo sapiens into insects....One queen, a few sperm drones and many many expendable short lived well-armed workers where strong colonies robbed-out weaker to swarm, spread their kind and dominate forage.....and the keepers kept the honey...Boomers have witnessed both kingdoms and sang, "Bye Bye Miss American Pie." You can call it evil or simply the result of burgeoning populations vs declining resources. Now the only question is who gets to eat the last slice of pie?

Yes, Randall, FCC had the audacity to cast a final line on how the FCC is responsible for implementing and enforcing US communications laws and regulations. FCC raised their hands, discarded regulations and moved away from the law that must govern the FCC. Now honey is for executives of large corporations. US FCC is the very definition of "corruption." A blog post from the Project on Government Oversight (POGO) shows that more than half of the members of the Communications Security, Reliability and Interoperability Council (CSRIC) were direct employees of private companies or industry trade groups. Instead of working for American consumers, the FCC is working for "giant telecommunications companies."

As power elites take the honey, people's voices are silenced in defending their health, for example in refusing to review and enact radio frequency emissions that adequately protect public health from radiation from wireless technology. CHD's report shows that scientific and human evidence of damage caused by wireless networks and 5G well below thermal levels was presented to the FCC, but the agency officially closed the file on and ignored all reports submitted. CHD contends that the FCC's decision not to review the "health guidelines" is whimsical, arbitrary, not based on evidence, and an abuse of discretion.

This is a 'must share' for all those who haven't yet fully connected all the 'dots', or been able to comprehend the extent of the global deception and intended technocratic takeover of our planet. Thank you, Dr Mercola. Another stunning and valuable resource to summarise the vastness of this agenda and also help awaken those still to become aware of this fact.

When people get implanted with small microchips then they will be like walking human robots, because the G5 communication will be everywhere unless you hang on to your older phones, and hope for the better. The chip combined with the G5 technology is really for mass control of people including reproduction. I read how Julian Assange was complaining that in his English prison he was bombarded with voices invading to his mind. This is the future and no one wanted to hear about it. Do we deserve it? yes and no. People were asleep busy with their material goods or simply uneducated because the powers didn't see the need for their intelligence or slave labour. If you can see the movie Metropolis, you can understand how society has been sleeping. Its a silent movie and very long but I watched it fast forwarding in some parts and I got the good picture of our current world situation. Unfortunately Americans are willing to trade liberty for faux security. “Those who would give up essential Liberty, to purchase a little temporary Safety, deserve neither Liberty nor Safety.” – Benjamin Franklin A video about the benefits of living in Mexico mentions how Americans have become so addicted to media and politics that they’re easily mind programmed and this is an unstable dynamic (e.g. my point that the MAGA faithful may be fooled into a lurch to the far right and the center-left has already been fooled into a lurch to the far left) – the designed pretext for a Civil War, only a Trump assassination in 2022 awaits as the Schelling point.

youtu.be/U-jT0JL_7gU

Also this expat American couple mention that the U.S. food isn’t natural (e.g. all chicken is soaked in bleach in the USA) and so many people are developing allergies to food. Note her health improved after she had her breast implants (from Arizona) ‘explanted’ (i.e. removed) while in Mexico. It could also be the change in lifestyle being outdoors in the sunshine more (vitamin D3 and zinc being essential) and off the computer and other electronic devices as we tend to be in the USA (chronic blue light saturation being perhaps adverse to healthy immune and neurological systems), which is evident in their other video where they mention the food issue again: youtu.be/5D_YsbwE_Q4

She mentions the food imported into the USA being sprayed by people in Hazmat suits. Being able to source natural food from small farmers at the source as needed could be vital for this coming period of health and food totalitarianism. And they discuss that our freedom in the USA is becoming conditional because Americans love laws and order so much. Americans are going to be murdered by the healthcare system because that is what we asked for. We want everything ordered, controlled, perfected and we are afraid of everything:

Martin Armstrong blogged:

www.armstrongeconomics.com/armstrongeconomics101/economics/what-klaus-.. “I went behind the Berlin Wall. I saw the conditions firsthand. Like Schwab, they lied to the people and said the wall was to keep people out because they all wanted to share the glorious utopia of Communism.” They always fool us into enslaving ourselves with our ignorance, biases and fear. I think one the key points that Americans need to realize is that this Great Reset is never going to end unless we fight back. I am happy to see that key bullet point emphasized in this article and in James Corbett's video. Most Americans have their focus diverted on ideological nonsense, pet peeves, politics and just assumed that everything will go back to normal eventually.

Americans have no idea the extent of the planning and attacks that are going to be coming against them over the coming years. The powers-that-be are planning to collapse the global financial system and essentially starve us into submission. They know already that we will resist with our guns and sheriffs and what not. They have a plan to defeat that. They have thought this out far several steps ahead of where our thinking will be at any juncture.

For example most people don't realize how they're planning to use Bitcoin as the new monetary reserve currency when they destroy the dollar, and how they have foisted an imposter (aka "official") Bitcoin on us that will go "poof it's gone" circa 2022 from wince the legacy Bitcoin will rise from the ashes as the 1988 Economist magazine foretold (Rothschild owned): www.corbettreport.com/greatreset (click link to read a summary of the details) There's so much more down these rabbit holes and Mercola and even James Corbett are only scratching the surface of it.

Since this site is primarily medical info I wonder how one of most important (medical) information slept under the radar. It connects the "reset"agenda with medical neurology and the much more sinister consequences of muzzles (masks) mandate. I know that we are flooded with info and have to filter a lot. Still this is survival ON BOTH SIDES. Over one hundred years of social engineering since the "federal reserve" is not going to be abandoned willingly. To paraphrase President Reagan, "If you can't make them see the light, make them feel the heat". Ultimately the cross road we found ourselves at would be resolved as the history books ALWAYS resolve it when the "great unwashed" refuse to eat cakes. The pivot is on the difference between the two components of the law; the words and the deeds (enforcement). The later is the deciding factor. Sixpack Joe may not be up on the intellectual details but has good survival instincts, hence gun sales going through the roof. Most important video bellow. www.youtube.com/watch

The first measuring stick I use when evaluating these "new" ideas is whether they acknowledge last-century advances in our spiritual knowledge. The World Economic Forum does NOT acknowledge any of this. Unfortunately, many of its critics aren't aware of this, either! Among other results of this research is the realization that all this HAS been tried before. Maybe not on this planet, but certainly on others. And it results in a level of slavery seldom seen here on Earth! You need to have a very stable certainty on the value of individual freedom to counter these moves effectively.

Great article: I've been thinking this way for some time and getting more and more concerned about the potential loss of our individual freedoms and liberties, not to mention the plethora of misinformation that abounds. However, awareness of what is going on is one thing; action is another. What, therefore, can we do to stop this seemingly inexorable march to our mental and physical enslavement before it is too late? Strength usually lies in numbers, so how can we all band together to get our voices heard and become a force with which to be reckoned?

According to Good Morning America a few days ago black people are dying from Covid at 2.3 times the rate of white people making up 21% of fatalities but only consist of 12.7% of the U.S. population. 1% or less of the U.S. population lives in long term care facilities but make up 41% of Covid deaths. So if those numbers are correct 47,250 African Americans out of the estimated 225K died from Covid and 92,250 died in long term facilities. They did not specify how many African Americans died in nursing homes so adding these figures together may not be entirely correct but close. They did not distinguish whether they had Covid or died FROM Covid.

How many African Americans died needlessly due to lack of proper health care especially in inner cities. Low Vitamin D levels are a major contributor to this disease and other health problems. Add in low magnesium/B vitamins/zinc and other essential nutrients and this is the perfect storm for the death rates. How many patients in nursing homes have optimum nutrient levels? Probably very few if any and if they did they would possibly not be there other than short term rehab. How many African Americans are tested for low Vitamin D? My guess very few. How many medications deplete Vitamin D and vital minerals that the body needs to heal itself? Most of them. I think back to the beginning when the Diamond Princess cruise ship was quarantined and that couple who was interviewed. He was very sick and she was fine even though they were confined to a small room. What medications was he on and she was not. Was he on statin's/BP meds/diabetes meds/PPI's/etc.

Knowing what medications people were on who died could give us a good indication if the severity of Covid is an indirect side effect of medications but hipaa law protects their privacy at the expense of our health. We do not need to know a specific persons health and medication history just in general or a random sampling like were they low in Vit D or magnesium/etc.

Compare this questionable reporting to that of any deaths in Africa. If you listen to MSM it is laughable to think the so-called virus is racist which is what lies beneath such reporting. The implications again being it is white Americans who somehow have it made.

Only partially a low vit D and C issue. Have you visited long term care or assisted living facilities recently? The staff (in some cases short staffed) was working to help people with inadequate protection, and they also succumbed...and as horrible as this is, due to lack of initial tests or slow to report testing and scarce PPE's they brought the virus home to their families. This is also true for first responders: bus drivers, subway drivers, traffic cops, a lot of essential workers and their families. We have no idea how many were affected, except these people are the backbone to our services, many could not afford to stay home.

The bible was edited and censored by those men who believed they had something to gain for themselves at Nicene. Most of the bible was taken from already ancient Sumerian and Babylonian texts. Much of the bible, most especially Revelations, has been the "Playbook" of the elite throughout history. Their family blood lines go back centuries. They have taught their children down through the centuries they are better than the rest of us and deserve to rule over us, hence the "Royal" bloodlines, AKA Blue Blood. True Christianity was hijacked a long, long time ago and we are now seeing the results of it.

mommaoftripletangels

Lakhana13 Your assessment of the Bible is a regurgitation of an absurd argument from those who clearly know nothing of what the Bible actually says nor do they know much of history. All of the Apostles died horrible deaths save John, who, tradition tells, was boiled in oil, he didn't die so they exiled him to Patmos. Why would these men put forth a lie that would lead to their deaths? Also, what did the men at Nicaea (not Nicene, that's the name of the creed) have to gain from "editing" the Bible? Persecution? Death? Even today, in much of the world, Christians face tremendous persecution for their faith. That was the promise of the Bible and it has held true over the centuries. We also see the Western World becoming increasingly hostile towards Orthodox Christianity. So again, what did they (and we) have to gain by this "edited/censored" version of the Bible.

The fact that ancient Sumerian and Babylonian texts corroborate some of the stories in the Bible in no way discounts the truthfulness of the Bible. Under greater scrutiny, than any other text in the history of the world, the Bible has shown itself to be historically accurate. In fact, the more artifacts that are found, the more they line up with the Bible. The others have been shown to be works of fiction.

Lastly, you say that much of the Bible is the "Playbook" of the elite. Can you give me some specific texts the "elite" have used to teach their children they are better than "the rest of us" and "deserve to rule over us"? Maybe it's in Matt. 20:25-27, "But Jesus called them to him and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. It shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be your slave." Or when Jesus said in Luke 14:11, "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted." Or Colossians 3:12, James 3:13?

This pandemic may not have been sufficiently convincing. Whether planned or due to chance, keep your masks handy as I anticipate there will be more of these pandemics in the future. This is not over and done with. Crises are used to frighten people into submission. Perhaps we should have just had a big corona party this summer when people were healthy, getting sunshine and eating fresh food. They were much more likely to survive covid with minimal disruption to their lives. it will be much worse if spread continues indoors over the winter. Get your vitamin D level checked and optimized. Hi Almond. It is devastating to walk through the centers of many European capitals and see shops closed permanently. The local commerce is sunk and the aid of the governments coming from the European Union will only console temporarily. The closure of many small and medium-sized companies (SMEs) end up being absorbed by large monopolies and corporations that provide low taxation. The workers will be slaves of the new business market, with low wages and no possibility of vindication. This has repercussions on social services and increases an elite with great fortunes. We are in a corrupt capitalism of power inequalities and creates more misery and hunger. Over half of Europe's small and medium-sized businesses say they face bankruptcy in the next year if revenues don't pick up, underscoring the breadth of damage wrought by the Covid-19 crisis.

www.bloomberg.com/news/articles/2020-10-22/half-of-europe-s-smaller-bu.. (October 22, 2020)

"Yelp released its latest Economic Impact Report, revealing business closures across the U.S. are increasing as a result of the coronavirus pandemic's economic toll. As of Aug, 31, 163,735 businesses that they have closed. That's down from the 180,000 that closed at the very beginning of the pandemic. However, it actually shows a 23% increase in the number of closures since mid-July. In addition to monitoring closed businesses, Yelp also takes into account the businesses whose closures have become permanent. That number has steadily increased throughout the past six months, now reaching 97,966, representing 60% of closed businesses that won't be reopening".

With serious environmental destruction (moving towards collapse), healthcare mis-application, rapidly increasing rates of diabetes, autism and dementia; and financial crisis on the brink right now, cannot imagine the puppetmasters can dust off fascist theories and pass these off as new! My view is potential backlash may be intense, chaos awaits? This snippet is from Wikipedia - and due to Star Trek's wide success, few Americans are unaware of this potential, as outlined in the last sentence - : "The Borg are an alien group that appear as recurring antagonists in the Star Trek franchise. The Borg are cybernetic organisms linked in a hive mind called "the Collective".

The Borg co-opt the technology and knowledge of other alien species to the Collective through the process of "assimilation": forcibly transforming individual beings into "drones" by injecting nanoprobes into their bodies and surgically augmenting them with cybernetic components. The Borg's ultimate goal is "achieving perfection".[1][2] Aside from being recurring antagonists in the Next Generation television series, they are depicted as the main threat in the film Star Trek: First Contact. In addition, they played major roles in the Voyager series, and serve as the way home to the Alpha Quadrant for the isolated Federation starship USS Voyager. The Borg have become a symbol in popular culture for any juggernaut against which "resistance is futile", a common phrase uttered by the Borg." (to me, this is the false narrative.)

Years ago, when Obama's government mandated the move to "digital" under the disguise of providing better TV my sixth sense said "wait a minute". The big question was "why the heck would Obama give a damn about our TV experiences? The fact is he didn't care one iota. What his agenda to "fundamentally change America" had a far more ominous tone. Socialism / communism cannot operate without total control of the public. To do that Obama's government had to get control in several ways. First they needed to take control of health care. With this the very lives of the residents were at stake. Then they needed to control information, they needed to be listening to everything that went over a wire.

They needed to collect every phone call, every text, every picture and every electronic transaction, everything that went through a wire. The amount of information they needed to have access to could only be stored in it's most efficient form. That form is digital. How do you manage to get that massive transformation to occur? It's easy when you con the public with an outright lie for the reason for going digital. Without Edward Snowden's leak of what was going on at the NSA we would never had known how evil Obama's government really was. The government calls him a traitor. The man is a hero. He did not leak any "classified data" or "strategic information".

What he exposed was the government devious and illegal activity against the American people by an administration gone rogue. Going digital has allowed the hacking disasters by despot nations all over the globe. One country can now steal information from another without even physically coming to that country. They can interfere with everything that is now stored digitally. Anything that is transmitted over a network, through the air without wires is vulnerable. No matter how much protection you think you may have with contracts with companies like Life Lock and Norton and all the others is pure hokum. They have all your info in one convenient place. If you were a hacker what better places to focus your attention on than on the critical data repositories that have your data? With individual companies that you do business with that have your critical data being hacked with impunity with no consequences it's only a matter of time that the repositories will be breached. This is the nightmare that "going digital" has created. It wasn't long ago that Gary McKinnon, David Dworken, and Jonathan James, all high school teenager, hacked into the Pentagon's computer network and systems. Private sector businesses are even more flippant when it comes to keeping your life critical data secure. And even if you do not have an account with a business don't be fooled that they do not have your data. Even acting as a "guest" your data is collected and saved. They would like you to believe that as a guest your data is not stored on their computer, but it is.

At least do a different illustration. You have him so wrong. Both his sons are environmentalists and socially active because of him. Do you really think that someone who promotes the Slow Food Movement, crafts, localizing is on board for what you say???? Think. Then check your reality....

Looking around at the state of the world, and the people in it, I agree things need to change. As a global culture, we mindlessly consume resources and spew toxins. In my heart, it feels like we either have a population problem right now, or we will before long. I realize some (all?) of these problems have been fueled by the elite, so to an extent these global affairs are manufactured crises; False Flags for Silent Wars, you might say. Still, to a point, I see eye-to-eye with the elite: If individuals and groups won't make responsible, hard decisions on their own....they may need to be guided through a change. HOWEVER, there's a difference between "guided" and "dominated". I am completely at odds with the methods being used to enact change. Force. Deception. Fear. Pain. It would be stupid to assume any lasting system of control they build for humanity will operate by other methods, or on higher principles. We need to shift our power back to the local level. Perhaps federal taxes should be paid directly to municipalities. Ideas welcome.

PEOPLE TALK ABOUT THE ILLUMINATI, BILDERBERG, CFR etc, BUT THE GROUP YOU ALL NEED TO RESEARCH IS: SCHIFF AND THE PILGRIMS SOCIETY Jacob H. Schiff, Pilgrims Society, partner in Kuhn, Loeb & Company investment bankers, was a founding member of The Pilgrims Society of the United States (page 154, "The Pilgrims of the United States," 2003) and was a director of National City Bank of New York; Central Trust Company; Western Union; New York Foundation; and National Employment Exchange— The Schiffs and Warburgs are related, and John M. Schiff (director of large corporations) became treasurer of The Pilgrims New York, 1968-1985. His son David T. Schiff became a member. "We're mostly family in The Pilgrims Society!" Before any unjust person plays the religion card, rest assured this is a financial inquiry, not a religious one; and greed, I believe, transcends all denominations.

The pattern I want to establish is this—just after the end of the 19th century a Secret Society of financiers and aristocrats on both sides of the Atlantic was formed, calling itself The Pilgrims, with branches in London and New York; though the Society had no official existence until 1902, its founders were active against silver in some cases, generations beforehand; ancestors of some members were active against silver and gold as money back into medieval times. That can be the subject of another historical probe. There are some very interesting comments in this post which I have appreciated reading. I notice that mostly the so called 'elites' are blamed for everything, and their financial power and impact is certainly ubiquitous to a level which is destructive. But I think that the 'consumer' whose greed and selfishness is never satisfied is also complicit. Surely there are two sides to what is happening. I recommend watching Yuri Bezmenov's warning to America (1984), and Alexander Solzhenitsyn's address at Harvard (1978). They both gave warnings to the Western World that the degradation of culture, social values, family and religion would lead to disaster. These are the qualities which grow from caring and give meaning to life. Their absence leads to what we see happening now, the growth of ideologies and anti-hero worship and the corresponding success of opportunistic vultures ready to claim their prey.

Why is the propaganda continuing in such a relentless manner?? $$$$$$$$$ There is a seemingly bottomless pit of cash with which the psychopaths have purchased every news outlet in the world, focusing, it seems on social media. I like to 'connect dots' I believe much of this $$$$ comes from the last 50 years of draining the pockets and bank accounts of many average Americans with CANCER. Which is also a fraud - a VERY CLEVERLY disguised fraud. My position is that cancer is actually caused by a fungus. The evidence is significant. Why does the 'ketogenic' diet combat cancer so effectively? www.youtube.com/watch This information is not spread enthusiastically by big pharma or the AMA but if an individual is determined to find the truth, it can be found. Fungus lives on carbs and can NOT survive on ketones! Go figure out the rest.

realrose. I did not know how to reply to your kind comment. Thank you. My wife's relatives work in a nursing home as a CNA where in our area there were many deaths to Covid. This was a while back when she called my wife and said she had 102.9 fever and did not get her test results back yet and wanted to know what to do. I gave her zinc 50mg tablets/Vitamin D with K2-2,500 iu's/Vitamin C complex and probiotics. Enough for about 10 days. Within 2 days or so her fever broke but lost a little sense of smell and taste and test came back positive. She felt good enough to go back to work after 3-4 days but had to quarantine for 14 days. I told her if this works let the doctors know what you took and see if this protocol would help the patients. Not sure if doctors took her advice. I wish I had enough for everyone there. I guess it worked for her. Take Care and be Well!

And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. Daniel 2:43 For those who have eyes to see, this verse is talking about the final Kingdom before Jesus Returns. I believe the above verse is referring to mixing technology within their bodies. God formed Man from the dust of the Earth, and our bodies are often referred to as clay vessels within the scriptures. The Coming Mark of the Beast will implement some form of digital technology within the human body, and it will be located on the right hand or forehead. Those who refuse this mark will not be able to buy or sell, and they will be persecuted. Those who accept this mark will literally have HELL to pay for it, as Revelations 14: 9-11 says the following:

And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: and the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. The Word of God has told us what's coming to prove that it is indeed reliable and true. Stop wasting your time listening to Mainstream Media, and pick up a Bible. Salvation lies within!

I've tried to look into this myself. Back when this pandemic was still new (around June) I tried to get data from the CDC for the death rates of 2020 vs 2019. I couldn't! The CDC stopped updating their death rate statistics in APRIL! I have not gone back to see if they have updated anything since July. I gave up. We know that 232,000+ people have died from Covid-19. We know more people with life threatening conditions died this year than in 2019 simply because they couldn't see a doctor or have surgery. There have been WAY MORE HOMICIDES this year than in 2019!!! Here in TN, we have already had more people die in car accidents than the entire year of 2019 and we still have 2 months to go! Without this data from the CDC you can't accurately calculate the number of Covid-19 deaths. Again, this is how they manipulate you and spew their propoganda. The fact that the CDC stopped updating their death statistics in April is a BIG RED FLAG!!! I searched several different websites that track this kind of data (spent days on this) and couldn't come up with the numbers I needed to make an accurate calculation. Dr. Mercola probably has access to the data needed to make this calculation. Everyone assumes that Covid-19 has increased the total deaths in the USA. The only way to prove that is to compare last years numbers to this years. The only numbers they allow you to see is the COVID-19 deaths and not the TOTAL deaths. So there's no way to make a calculation! This is deliberate! This is how countries like communist China manipulate their citizens.

Dr. Mercola, I love your articles on health and nutrition, PLEASE just post those!!! I have to be honest I dislike the political rant, no place in a business really, I would never do it, I would lose business. I'm sure I will be attacked like the last time I wrote something about being a vegan. People ask me what am I doing on the forum. Well, freedom of speech I am expressing my opinion I do not have to agree with everything here. Also, a couple of people were quite demeaning in their reply to me about not eating meat, I was vegan shamed, yes people, and one man was rude and not diplomatic, making fun of my name, shame on you, you know who you are. Please stick to your health topics something you know a lot about and I respect you highly for that, but this stuff, I am losing respect. Who the h... would want to babysit and control and look after the rest of mankind, and how in heavens name can all countries governments be on board with this. Honestly, if I had all the money and power in the world I would not want to do that, would you? really? Just look to see if there is a money trail, like I said before who is making tons of money off covid? maybe those buying up companies that went under, CHina possibly, but people are losing money and the government is going into debt. No one wants this pandemic and those who think it's fake probably think everything is fake, honestly, just deal with it, and focus on your health and be happy, find your joy, and keep safe, and be positive. We are lucky to be alive and healthy. So let's be positive. BTW when I tried to respond to people's nasty remarks about eating meat (last few posts ago) I was cut off from responding, all day an under construction sign went up, something about removing toxic material. I'm not impressed at all, was that deliberate, was my freedom of speech taken away. Well, you can block me go ahead, I feel rather disappointed in your political articles. Stick to the good stuff please.

Mehinda, I will relate this to health for you and not just you, but those empowered by mainstream media as they call themselves (they also like to portray themselves as the authoritative source), but I more accurately call them network owning Luciferian globalists and they have an agenda. The Luciferian globalists intend to reduce the world population from nearly eight billion people to less than five hundred million people to serve them. From a health perspective, consider it unhealthy if you are eliminated by them. This is not unprecedented as the communist nations of the world have killed tens of millions of to facilitate them turning communist and even those who help them are killed for being not trusted for betraying their countrymen. Either way, from a health perspective, consider that unhealthy and contrary to everything you do to live healthy. You might be blind to this or you might be one who wants this suppressed and it is mostly everywhere else which is why I especially appreciate Mercola.com, but rather than having just one more censored, you have the power at your fingertips to click and start reading something else. I gather you like the valuable health information here and I agree and you can skim to glean that and even switch to a different article, so what you are really asking is for information valuable to me and others here to be removed for us to not be aware. Are you aware that there are a lot of powerful entities trying to do just that? Are you working for them or just inadvertently taking up their cause? World population: 7,684,292,383 (July 2020 est.)

If society is not rotten to the core in every country due to its divorce from nature thousands of years ago you would not need health articles. If humans lived the way they were supposed to live, health would take care of itself on its own. The awful corruption of pretty much everything including food and healthcare has led to the existence of this website here. If it were not so, natural health websites will get under in a heartbeat. The obvious fact that the vast majority of people in ALL countries are unhealthful speaks for itself.

Vladimera, An accurate observation, but a limited understanding. It is only when the population has to live with its creation (all predictable b.t.w.), does it wake up to its creative power. This is how consciousness, but individual and group, evolves. Ancients were not motivated to "wake up"...a bit different from today ehhhh...

I don't know how you can't see that this topic is VERY much tied in to your health! Whether you choose to believe this is going on is your choice, but I am very happy Dr. Mercola is brave enough to post about this to warn people. The people engineering this "reset" (I hate the term "elites" - I'd rather call them pond scum) want to reduce the global population and keep those remaining under total control. Is that how you want to live? I doubt they will consider you of any value and may choose you to be one of the people eliminated.

This topic is not political - it is a matter of life and death.

The good news is that nobody really minds if you are vegan or a meat eater and if non vegans hurl abuse at you, that is more a reflection of their own lack of breeding. There are, however, cogent nutritional and evolutionary reasons for meat eating. Nutritional ones focus on efficient uptake of B12, iron and fatty acids from fish and grass-fed animal foods. I'm no palaeontologist, but it seems the human brain grew in size and complexity as a result of consuming seafood, wild animals and birds. Therefore, human biochemistry is best adapted to those food sources. That does not mean that we cannot survive on other foods, nor do we require loads of meat and fish every day. It does mean that we should pay attention to our evolutionary biology while avoid unnatural factory or fish farmed adulterated food sources. Probably the best diet is plant-BASED, meaning most of the diet is from non-GMO plants and includes sea and land animals produced in an organic way without chemicals and pesticides.

The bad news: that nasty man Mr Hitler insisted on invading peaceful countries and arresting innocent people in the 1930's, leading to war. Now several nasty people want to take over the whole world! If that happens, you might be grateful to eat pig's trotters, tripe (sheep's stomach) and the heart, liver and brain of farmed animals as well as wild rabbit caught in the fields. These foods kept us alive during the last world war. Now that another much bigger war is looming, your choices might be limited. Dr Mercola is trying to protect your choices from evil forces. Trying to separate health and politics is like telling Mr Hitler not to be naughty - it did not work last time. Now that our political masters control the food supply and want to fill us with unhealthy items such as processed or genetically modified fake foods, chemically tainted produce and dangerous vaccines. So what will you do if you don't have a choice any more about being healthy?

Leave, don't come on here with your views and opinions if you do not like what he posts ON HIS OWN SITE. Also if you post that you are vegan and others posts their opinion about it, just move on. They have a right to post their opinion too, dear. Get your own site and post, delete, and accept any post that you want. I remember growing up in a house with 8 people, being very opinionated myself, I was always reminded by my mother that others lived in the house too and I could not always have things my own way. I took that lesson into adulthood, sage advice that I think you should heed to.

Melinda this is an existential crisis – there will be no more business soon if we allow Western civilization to collapse to this Great Reset totalitarianism. Katy69, I wrote a similar comment about the health benefits of meat on the prior Mercola blog, The Global Takeover is Underway. I was not shaming the vegans but I am not willing to accept their veganism as an excuse or politics to allow the Great Reset's plan to ban livestock for human consumption. That would result in economic collapse. We can't get enough fat-based energy directly from plants in an economically efficient way. Also plant based foods contain phylates which are poisons to prevent the plants from being eaten by non-ruminant species. Phytates may be beneficial to humans in some amounts, but humans did not evolve to eat only plants all the time. We're hunters and meat eaters. (Note males with low testosterone from eating only plants are presumably easier to enslave)

Vegans typically eat a lot of carbs to compensate for the expensive and poor quality fats obtains from non-meat (including fish) sources. And carbs are very unhealthy evidenced by replacing carbs with animal fats allegedly cures Type 2 diabetes:

www.virtahealth.com/blog/dr-sarah-hallberg-ted-talk-reversing-diabetes

Apparently all the chicken in the USA is soaked in bleach. We aren't allowed to source raw milk. Bait and switch such as selling "grass fed" beef that was actually finished (i.e. the bulk of the weight gain) with non-grass. Etc... P.S. I replying to those who are downplaying the severity of what we face and instead focusing the discussion on their pet peeves such as veganism. This lack of unity and clarity of focus among Westerners will lead to the rapid demise of Western civilization.

"Who the h... would want to babysit and control and look after the rest of mankind, and how in heavens name can all countries governments be on board with this? " - a fair and reasonable question, Mehlinda, and one that Dr Mercola has been attempting to answer over the last eight months. You see, as I was explaining to my eight year old nephew, there have always been bad people in the world and the good people have no choice but to try to stop them taking over so that good people like you and me will still be able to choose what kind of food we prefer to eat, whether it is from plants or animals or made in a factory. You may not have a choice in future when the world is ruled by those who do not care about you personally and only want to have all the world's wealth (= money) for themselves so that they have the power to control not just you but the population of the whole world. Having looked at all the evidence including the lack of scientific truth in what has been said by those bad people and our governments who believe what they say, Dr Mercola has our best interests at heart and wants us to be free and healthy.

Why do governments go along with this, you asked. Well, one reason is that they may believe what their medical advisors say and their medical advisors believe what big drug companies say so that they too can get lots of your money and have lots of power over you. The Governments also believe what they hear from the people who bring you TV news or who own websites such as Facebook etc, forgetting that these owners and news people may not be telling the truth. So if you could draw a little sketch for yourself, as I did for my nephew, you could put you and me and Dr Mercola and most of his readers on one side. On the other side you could put the bad people. Or if you like reading, you could read Vandana Shiva's book "Oneness against the 1%" which gives you all the information you might need. The kindle version is quite inexpensive. Good luck!

Dear Mercola, In your very first sentence you cleverly lump Joe Biden's campaign slogan in with the evil "4th industrial revolution" and the "great reset". The article promises to define each of these but never gets to explaining how "Build Back Better" has anything whatsoever to do with technocratic tyranny. I too, do not believe lockdowns work. But your socio-political warnings are long on Paranoia and short on solutions. Like your well-written health articles, the intro is always a catastrophic warning; "Rots your brain", Takes years off your life"; Destroys your mitochondria". I guess Dark messaging gets the clicks. And for all of the echo-chamber commenters out there, NO, I am not a pharmaceutical troll. FU! Just someone who wants to know why climate science is never mentioned as a "Takes years off your life" danger. How about an article on that? We will be (are being surveilled) by BIG CAPITALIST TECH because we have allowed our democratic government to be controlled by BIG MONEY. Prior to Citizens United, it was possible to put a check on warrantless searches. Now your data can be searched without a warrant and submitted to AI analysis. Get the Dark money out government and we might have a chance before we turn this planet into VENUS. Sorry but supplements won't stop that catastrophe.

Government is always captured by BIG MONEY. There are no exceptions throughout the 3000 years of human civilization. It is a fact of the entirely natural power-law distribution of wealth. The collective is a power vacuum because it is a resource for the taking only by the most ruthless. Collectives are tragedies-of-the-commons.

No amount nor kind of politics can change that economic fact.

If you want a solution, there is only one and that is what Jesus said. Give up everything, walk with nothing and stop coveting this sordid earthly life.

The fundamental reason that central banks' stimulus always ends up in the hands of the rich, is because it's impossible for the central banks to discern the economic efficiency of individual actors in the economy. Only Adam Smith's Invisible Hand (i.e. the dynamic market of diverse actors itself) can anneal such phenomena. Thus central banks do not even attempt to drop money from helicopters unless they're in terminal spiral into hyperinflation and total loss of public confidence. So central banks have no choice but to direct liquidity at capitalists and hope the capitalists have more market knowledge. But the fact of natural law is that smaller things grow faster. Large capital is also incapable of efficiently directing its capital. And this is generative essence that necessitated the Great Reset because large capital has no economically viable means of sustaining itself, so it instead desperately enslaves its own system as it dies.

A commentator on a recent Armstrong blog also posited an analogous point:

Martin Armstrong the China apologist who refuses connect the dots of China's complicity:

www.armstrongeconomics.com/armstrongeconomics101/economics/schwab-soro..

"The USA will decline as Schwab and Soros seek to end it as a superpower. They think they can muster the power inside the United Nations to take over the world. Both China and Russia will resist, and in the end, China will rise as the next #1 world economy." China is not resisting the U.N. and the WHO, they're controlling those organizations presumably with bribes and kompromat. Evidence that China allowed the travelers from the alleged source of virus in Wuhan to fly out everywhere internationally but prevented them from traveling to other regions of China.

(Note I think there is no new virus as confirmed by the CDC, only a propaganda spread which China helped foment) Evidence Armstrong's recent blog post:

www.armstrongeconomics.com/world-news/corruption/united-nations-handin..

And evidence what China is alleged to have been doing on Twitter:

www.youtube.com/watch

(Sen Wicker Calls Out Twitter CEO: Allowed China To Blame US Military For COVID For 2 Months)

Armstrong selling out to the Chinese also?

Note I realize that the Deep State could be framing China (e.g. the Twitter allegations) but we know for a fact that Chinese Premiere Winnie-the-Poo was in Wuhan in the first week of January so was fully aware of what was transpiring.

Thanks for your comments wcs7043 ... you are absolutely correct about the scourge of dark money, which was greatly exacerbated by the poorly decided, judicially activist Citizens United.

Everybody should read Dark Money by Jane Mayer.

It's all happening just like the Bible said it would. The only real safety is in Jesus! It looks like the Tribulation is coming to our world very soon. Christians will be removed before it starts, in the Rapture. Sounds crazy, I know, but Bible prophecy has been 100% right in the past, so, it will be in the future. One man will control the world in the New World Order -- the Antichrist. Revelation chapter 6 tells of the start. Revelation 13:16-18 spells out the Mark of the Beast 666.

Ask Jesus to be your Lord -- before it's too late!

You've 'jumped the shark' Doc. I've referred to this website for your insight on all things health for over a decade but it's beginning to read like a QAnon message board. Now political endorsements are even being posted in the comments. Anyone monitoring this anymore?

And now epa1375 is saying "love it or leave it". Well if no one can debate the Dr's "analysis" then why does he sponsor a comments section"? Or is it only for bible quoters and echo heads?

And so this is how Western civilization collapses when Anglo-Saxons can no longer discern black and white. And I am pointing the finger at you buddy.

This is nonsense. Maybe the secret cabal is actually taking advantage of people who are open to ideas outside of typical norms - many of them positive, based on innate knowledge of health and spirituality that has been quashed long ago - to propogate the next way for humanity to stifle our true selves and maintain a patriarchial oppressive society. THIS MAKES NO SENSE and you know it. You're disqualifying yourself as a true health activist by peddling this junk.

The cabal is not secret anymore. It is all out in the open. They're daring us to do anything to stop them. And we are failing remarkably well, as they calculated we would. Look at us here in these blog comments unable to focus on the existential threat. WESTERN CIVILIZATION COLLAPSE IS UNSTOPPABLE

Per my recent comments shared in the other email thread, the collapse of Western civilization is baked into the cake already. The only question is what form does the collapse take in each of our nations. Specifically I am interested in whether I can continue a viable life in the USA. The generative essence point I will be making below is that the USA is gripped by a control freak and faux safety porn mantra that pervades our culture and politics, and thus I expect the USA turns authoritarian in a far-right versus far-left battle. We will be squeezed between states' rights and federal edicts, combined with fiscal insolvency of states (and revenge against opposing colored states from which ever side controls the federal spigot) leading to a combination of authoritarian edicts combined with fiscal impotence and predatory taxation and civil asset forfeiture (seizing of assets with fabricated justifications). Essentially it is going to be very, very difficult to hold onto to personal property.

On a practical level interstate travel may become onerous (e.g. COVID pass documents at road check points).

In some future decade the decline in the USA will be arrested, but getting from here to there without being caught up in systemic collateral damage is going to perhaps require some careful, out-of-the-box thinking and planning.

Ok, so this site has been bought by some Rightwing group. That is a pity since I used to like Dr. Mercola's helpful nutritional insights. This conspiracy nonsense is sadly surprising here. While to dispute many of the allegations regarding the COVID issue would not only take too much time it would also be a waste of time as I see even in other comments this is an entrenched group going on about the fantasy evils of the world. Too bad since there are so many real plots of power that are now killing many innocents in the world. Oh well never mind as I now see this page is not worth anymore visits.
