

Operation Warp Speed – A Technocratic Chess Piece?

Analysis by Dr. Joseph Mercola

✓ Fact Checked

STORY AT-A-GLANCE

- › Many of the same surveillance initiatives proposed after 9/11 have been resurrected, with updated technology, under the guise of combating COVID-19
- › Operation Warp Speed, the White House Administration's effort to produce a fast-tracked COVID-19 vaccine and other therapeutics, is almost entirely funded and operated by the CIA and the U.S. military
- › Operation Warp Speed is supporting the creation of several COVID-19 vaccines, all of which will be deployed, but to different "critical populations"
- › Operation Warp Speed is shrouded in secrecy that makes it difficult to ascertain the true agenda, but part of the plan is to monitor vaccine recipients for 24 months after the first dose using biosensors that record and share biological data
- › Like 9/11, the COVID-19 pandemic is being used as justification for the implementation of more tyrannical controls. It appears they're laying down the infrastructure for a totalitarian control system set to be fully deployed later

In this interview, investigative journalist Whitney Webb, who does both independent work and collaborations with The Last American Vagabond, discusses the little-known details of Operation Warp Speed, a joint operation between U.S. Health and Human Services (HHS) and the Department of Defense to produce a fast-tracked COVID-19 vaccine and other therapeutics.

As you may have noticed by now, Google, YouTube, Facebook, Twitter and a host of other platforms are censoring information relating to COVID-19 in general and vaccine information in particular. Many commentators who touch on these issues have been deplatformed altogether, so information on these crucial topics are getting harder to come by.

“We're at a point where the line between Silicon Valley and the national security state has become so blurred, you really can't distinguish where one begins and where the other ends,” Webb says. This in large part helps explain how and why big tech is getting away with such blatant censorship as deplatforming of individuals who discuss issues the mainstream media refuse to touch.

“You can definitely make the argument that it's state censorship to a degree,” she says. “I think it's quite telling that a lot of these companies, from the very beginning of their existence, had some sort of funding from U.S. intelligence.”

Operation Warp Speed

As noted by Webb, you'd expect Operation Warp Speed, being a government program, to be governed by some federal regulatory agency like the Food and Drug Administration or the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, or even the HHS, but no. It's almost entirely funded and operated by the CIA and the U.S. military. Webb explains:

“When Operation Warp Speed was announced ... it was essentially sold to the public as a joint operation between HHS and the Department of Defense. So, the military was involved from the beginning. But oddly enough, last month, a lot of information about Warp Speed started to come to light.

One was the organizational chart of its leadership, which showed that by and large, the entire operation is dominated by military. There were very few civilian health officials, and most of those civilian health officials are involved in the therapeutic side of Warp Speed, which as we know now is the most drastically underfunded part of this initiative.

It was initially given a $10 billion budget, and they've already spent $10 billion on the vaccine. Only $450 million have been given through Warp Speed to a therapeutics project, which of course we now know is Regeneron, which is allegedly what Trump received when he was at Walter Reed.

What I'm saying is that most, the vast majority, of the money and time and energy has gone to a vaccine specifically, not really therapeutics. And so, if you look at the organizational chart, the people that aren't directly deployed by the DoD or military intelligence were essentially put in the therapeutics part, which was drastically underfunded. It's focused largely on the vaccine.

What's also interesting is we know that Operation Warp Speed currently has about six vaccine candidates. And we know now that they plan to use them all, and that they plan to allocate a specific vaccine to specific populations — what they identify in their official guidance as critical populations — which they announced just a few days ago.”

Palantir

A company called Palantir was given the contract to come up with the vaccine allocation strategy and determine the critical populations each vaccine should be distributed to. Palantir, founded by Peter Thiel, was initially funded by QTL, the CIA's venture capital arm.

The CIA was its only client for the first three years of its existence. At present, Palantir is a contractor to 17 U.S. intelligence agencies and also the U.S. military. The company is also in charge of COVID-19 data under the auspices of the HHS. Hospitals must now report their COVID-19 data to Palantir or lose their Medicaid and Medicare funding. Palantir is also involved in things like predictive policing.

“There are a lot of things in Warp Speed that are concerning. One of the things I read about recently is that Google and Oracle, two large tech companies that have longstanding ties to the CIA, are going to be involved in what they describe as a pharmacovigilance surveillance system, or what was more recently referred to by the head of Warp Speed as an incredibly precise tracking system, whereby everyone who receives one of these vaccines will be tracked and surveilled, not just to make sure that they get a second dose ...

... but also to see what happens to people's physiology, because they admit that every single one of these vaccine candidates ... has never been brought to market or licensed by the government before,” Webb says.

Pharmacovigilance Surveillance

According to Webb, the plan is to monitor vaccine recipients for 24 months after the first dose. The question is, how do you monitor such a large population? One way would be to employ biosensors that collect and send biological metrics automatically.

Monsef Salafi, a long-time head of GlaxoSmithKline's vaccine division, who is now part of Warp Speed, is a leading proponent of bioelectronic medicine, the use of injectable or implantable technology for the purpose of treating nerve conditions. The MIT Technology review has referred to it as hacking the nervous system. But it also allows you to monitor the physiology of the human body from the inside.

“ A lot of the same initiatives proposed after 9/11 have essentially been resurrected, with updated technology, under the guise of combating COVID-19. ~ Whitney Webb ”

The vaccine coordinator for Operation Warp Speed is Matt Hepburn, a former program manager for DARPA, where he oversaw the development of ProfusA,<sup>1</sup> an implantable biosensor that allows a person's physiology to be examined at a distance via smartphone connectivity. ProfusA is also backed by Google, the largest data mining company in the world. Salafi is also invested in a company called Galvani Bioelectronics, which was cofounded by a Google subsidiary.

“So, you have Google being contracted to monitor this pharmacovigilance surveillance system that aims to monitor the physiology and the human body for two years,” Webb says.

“And then you have the ties to the ProfusA project, which oddly enough is supposed to work inside the human body for 24 months – the exact window they've said will be used to monitor people after the first [vaccine] dose.”

Guinea Pigs 'R Us

In short, rather than doing long-term safety studies on both animals and humans beforehand, what's being put into place is a “safety study” after the fact, where vaccine recipients are monitored for side effects. Unfortunately, Warp Speed, being shrouded in secrecy, has not released details about what biological parameters would actually be monitored and surveilled. As noted by Webb:

"It really doesn't make sense, if you think about it, for something that ... is funded by American taxpayers to produce a medical countermeasure or a vaccine [during] peace time, is being run by the military under extreme secrecy with a lot of involvement of intelligence contractors, or intelligence agencies themselves.

We now know, for example, that the NSA and the Department of Homeland Security are directly involved in Operation Warp Speed, but they won't really say exactly what parts they're doing. But there are some indications as to what they could be involved with.

And the fact that Silicon Valley companies that have been known to collaborate with intelligence [agencies] for the purpose of spying on innocent Americans – Google and Oracle, for example – are going to be involved in this surveillance system ... for everyone that gets the vaccine.

It's certainly alarming, and it seems to point to the fulfillment of an agenda that was attempted to be pushed through or foisted on the American public after 9/11, called Total Information Awareness, which was managed, originally, by DARPA.

It was about using medical data and non-medical data – essentially all data about you – to prevent terror attacks before they could happen, and also to prevent bioterror attacks and even prevent naturally occurring disease outbreaks.

A lot of the same initiatives proposed under that original program after 9/11 have essentially been resurrected, with updated technology, under the guise of combating COVID-19."

Human Trials Reveal Plenty of Risk

Webb also discusses the vaccine trials currently underway around the world, and the fact that even though the vaccines are being given to perfectly healthy, younger individuals, they're reporting lots of side effects, including serious ones. Most recently, a volunteer physician in the Brazilian arm of AstraZeneca's trial died from receiving the placebo, which was not sterile saline but the meningitis vaccine.<sup>2</sup>

As detailed in "How COVID-19 Vaccine Trials Are Rigged," none of the vaccines are designed to actually prevent infection. The primary measure of success is whether or not the vaccine results in fewer symptoms when you're infected with SARS-CoV-2.

While the AstraZeneca trial initially stated the vaccine was being tested against a saline placebo,<sup>3</sup> as I mentioned earlier, it's since been revealed that they're using the meningitis vaccine as the "placebo," which can help hide a variety of side effects. The study was not halted following that death, but it's already been paused twice due to unexpected serious illnesses. Both instances were deemed unrelated to the vaccine, of course.

"These are really things that have the potential to be very drastic because you have to consider that the sample sizes are quite small. [If] you extrapolate to the size of the U.S. population, potentially hundreds of thousands of people [may] suffer very adverse health effects," Webb says.

Why the Lack of Transparency?

Webb also points out that rather than being contracts between government and the vaccine companies, the vaccine contracts have been funneled via a third party. Why? One potential reason is because this exempts them from Freedom of Information Act requests. It also exempts vaccines made under those contracts from many federal regulations, including federal safety regulations.

“We also know, because of the changes HHS made per the Prep Act, that any person that produces a COVID-19 vaccine ... associated with Operation Warp Speed will not be liable for any sort of damages it may cause.

And, it's definitely concerning that these vaccine companies, a lot of which just have atrocious track records, are being given billions of dollars and being allowed to operate under the utmost secrecy, developing something for the American public that can very well be mandated, or, for some people, even if it's not an official mandate, if they want to keep their jobs or they want to stay in school, they'll have to receive it anyway. So, it's definitely an issue that more people should be talking about.”

Unfortunately, as mentioned earlier, it's extremely difficult to get this information out. YouTube, which is owned by Google, censors all of it. This is beyond questionable considering Google's involvement with Operation Warp Speed. In short, they're censoring to protect their own interests.

Perishability Heightens Vaccine Failure Risks

Aside from the fact that mRNA vaccines have never been used in humans before now, there's also the issue of their perishability. This is yet another factor that heightens the risk of these vaccines. At best, they may become ineffective unless stored properly; at worst, they may produce unexpected side effects.

Unlike conventional vaccines, which simply need to be refrigerated, mRNA vaccines need to be kept on dry ice in order to maintain a temperature below zero. This clearly complicates delivery and storage, which apparently is one reason why the military will be in charge of distribution.

“The person in the Pentagon who is overseeing [the distribution] aspect is a man named Paul Strauss. He's one of the people who has been most adamant about the secrecy and insisting that they can't release certain things. So, that doesn't instill me, personally, with a lot of confidence as to what's going on,” Webb says.

“But yes, there are a lot more logistical hurdles than there have been in past planned vaccination programs, which of course didn't involve the military, this extreme secrecy, and didn't involve DHS or the NSA. The HHS, like I said earlier, sold this as a joint, essentially 50/50 HHS and DoD initiative. But really, the number of HHS officials on this list is quite small.”

Laying Down Infrastructure for Totalitarian Control

As mentioned, 9/11 became the justification for a series of tyrannical control mechanisms in the form of the Patriot Act that stripped Americans of civil liberties and privacy.

Now, the COVID-19 pandemic, despite the fact that it hasn't resulted in an excess number of deaths above the historical norm for any given year, appears to be used as yet another excuse for the implementation of more tyrannical controls. It appears that what they're doing is laying down the infrastructure for a totalitarian control system set to be deployed later. Webb agrees, saying:

“I tend to agree with you in a big way, and I'll give you an example of an initiative that's being put out right now by HHS that they claim is about preventing coronavirus outbreaks before they happen, and how it plays into this longstanding effort to produce 'smart cities.'

HHS, a few weeks ago, issued a solicitation, which was given to this MIT spinoff company called Biobot Analytics. Essentially, they say it's to create a nationwide wastewater surveillance system where they will be robotically sampling sewage from various cities around the country.

They say that will be done to test for COVID-19 and use an AI algorithm to predictably determine if a COVID-19 outbreak will take place in the future, up to 11 days before symptoms would even allegedly begin to show in that particular population. They say that would be done to enable rapid containment of those communities before this alleged future outbreak could happen.

What you can see there, in my opinion, is what was previously trying to be sold to the public as predictive policing, but now it's sort of the predictive policing approach to healthcare. We have to prevent infection or prevent outbreaks before it happens, which obviously is rife for abuse by a government that is fundamentally corrupt and out of control.

If they wanted to lock down a particular community, all they have to say is, 'Our new surveillance system has identified, through this algorithm, that there will be an outbreak here in 11 days. So we have to shut everything down in this entire city.

What this wastewater surveillance system requires is sensors throughout a sewage system in a particular city, which is the underground infrastructure of what are often today called smart cities – cities filled with sensors that are united by the internet of things, 5G and Wi-Fi.

What's very alarming is that the developers chosen for this wastewater surveillance system come from a lab at MIT called Sensible City Labs, and it's not sensible. It's sensible [in that it's] able to be sensed. Essentially, MIT is a smart cities lab that was chosen by HHS to develop this under the guise of COVID-19.

And what is also alarming, in my opinion, is that this company has partnered with HHS before, not to predict coronavirus or to sample for coronavirus in wastewater, but to detect patterns of illicit drug use in certain populations, which dovetail with the war on drugs in the United States. Whether it has to do with opioids or marijuana use or any other illegal substance, it allows surveillance on what people are ingesting in a particular community.

They also talk about analyzing people's diets, what they're ingesting – if people are eating foods that the government has decided are associated with illnesses, they can see if too many people are eating the wrong foods and then accordingly ban those foods through a municipal or a statewide edict and things like that.

It's really a recipe for the micromanaging of regular human habits where the government was not previously involved ...

[After] 9/11, the invisible enemy [was] these faceless terrorists abroad. Now, under coronavirus, the invisible enemy is a microbe that can exist anywhere, including within your own body. Therefore, to fight and win the war against the microbe we have to know what's going on inside of your body also.

And so, we're seeing the potential for the use of something like ProfusA and

Operation Warp Speed, or this effort to surveil sewage, to determine what people are putting in their bodies. It's definitely a very slippery slope in what I would call the beginnings of a Biosurveillance state."

The Technocratic Underground

Indeed, it all appears to be part and parcel of a longstanding technocratic plan to govern society through technology, programmed by scientists and technicians and automated through the use of artificial intelligence, rather than through democratically elected politicians and government leaders.

Much of it is being developed and implemented in really underhanded ways. For obvious reasons, the true, long-term purpose is never actually admitted. For example, while smart cities have received public pushback, this plan to equip the sewage system with biosensors is essentially a way to build the system from below ground, up.

Since it's underground, people will be far less likely to object to it or understand it as an intrusion of privacy. Ultimately, topside technologies will be added in the form of smart homes, until people are living in smart cities whether they signed up for it or not.

Google's Transhumanist Goals

Webb also discusses the influence and role of Google in greater depth, including the current antitrust case filed against the company by the U.S. Department of Justice.

"There are a lot of things that Eric Schmidt has done over the years that are deeply concerning. He, and a lot of other people involved with Google, including Google's top futurist, as he describes himself, Ray Kurzweil, are very big proponents of what is often called transhumanism, this belief that it's the destiny of the human race, it will be the pinnacle of human evolution, to combine with machines and defeat death.

Schmidt is a person that certainly feels that way and was close with Kurzweil. Now he's in charge of the artificial intelligence modernization efforts of the government.

It's very, very disconcerting, especially when you look at a lot of the military's own modernization plans that are set to begin next year, with having an unprecedented role for artificial intelligence and targeting and flagging people that soldiers will then shoot with these augmented reality helmets the Pentagon has bought.

It's a lot of the Orwellian surveillance structure that we're seeing rolled out, whether through Warp Speed or by HHS under the guise of COVID-19 response, it definitely seems to dovetail significantly with plans that have been developed by people like Schmidt for the modernization of the U.S. government itself, particularly the national security state.

And I really don't think that there's much of a coincidence that those two things are happening in tandem."

Antitrust Case Against Google May Actually Benefit Them

As for the antitrust case against Google filed by the DOJ at the end of October 2020,<sup>4</sup> Webb doubts it will hurt the company. In fact, she suspects Google, just like the Rockefellers' Standard Oil, wants to be broken up in order to be able to expand into other markets.

“The government was able to look like they were actually doing something about Standard Oil, but actually Standard Oil wanted to be broken up. That allowed the Rockefeller family to extend their influence and reach ... far beyond oil.

For example, they got involved with totally remaking Western medicine ... and in shaping what we now know as Big Pharma ... So, I think it's interesting that this is happening with Google now, and that it's only targeting Google's search monopoly, which is what Google began with.

But since then, Google's business has expanded far beyond search and they're poised to have a big role in upcoming health care initiatives, for example. I think they're ready to extend their tentacles, to use that metaphor, into a lot more different sectors, far beyond their search engine.

So maybe people would be assuaged publicly if they think, ‘Oh yeah, Google has been taken down and broken up by the government,’ when in reality they don't care about their monopoly on search anymore, and they're already too big to fail. I honestly think at the end of the day, a lot of this antitrust posturing towards Google, I don't really know if it will go anywhere,” she says.

Data Is the New Oil

Webb also points out that Google's future is secured by its central and ever-growing role in data mining. Google will be harvesting brand new biological data through the upcoming Warp Speed surveillance system, and in September 2020, Google partnered with the Pentagon to develop predictive diagnostics for cancer using AI, which they intend to extend to other diseases as well, including COVID-19.

“There's this big push to create an all-powerful artificial intelligence algorithm in order to enable a lot of the functionality that they want to impose in smart cities and these other initiatives they've been putting forth.

In order to do that, they need access to data. That's why we've heard over the past couple of years that data is the new oil. It feeds back into this race to develop the greatest AI algorithm. This is very concerning when you look at the National Security Commission on AI's objectives.

They say the only way to maintain U.S. global military hegemony, and also economic hegemony, is to harvest more data than any of their adversaries' states from Americans in order to be able to develop a better AI algorithm before China can do the same.

That's what these very powerful and influential organizations are saying. And if you actually look at their documents, they essentially say that there needs to be a total remaking of Americans way of life to facilitate that type of data extraction from a smaller population than the Chinese population.

For example, more data needs to be harvested per American citizen in order to facilitate that leapfrogging of China's artificial intelligence. So, there is a lot to be concerned about, but I think a lot of people have declined to look at these commissions and institutions and what their thought process is ...

And where they're going is nowhere good. It's essentially pointing to tyranny in a technocratic system that's not even governed by humans. It's governed by an algorithm created by man.

So obviously, it's a can of worms they're attempting to open, and the people that are behind this, whether the military and intelligence agencies, when they work in complete secrecy like they are in Warp Speed, they're historically up to no good ... Historically they ruthlessly pursue their own ambitions at the expense of American interests. It's definitely worth considering all of these things."

Bioterror Predictions

Based on her research, Webb suspects there will be another phase to the COVID-19 pandemic, some sort of bioterror event, likely before April 2021.

"I don't have a lot of reasons to be optimistic about the plans there. If you look at the people that predicted the coronavirus crisis before it happened, they were also immediately positioned to benefit from that crisis as it emerged. Bill Gates, for example, in April said that the coronavirus crisis is Pandemic 1, and it will be followed by Pandemic 2, which ... would be a bioterror event.

And the way to respond to this Pandemic 2 would be to do the same types of preparations you would do for bioterrorism. That's straight from Bill Gates ... Gates [also] frequently ... talked about the need to merge international security, i.e., U.S. foreign policy with health security, as he calls it, and essentially merge the war on terror with a war on bioterror."

She points out that Event 201, held by Gates, the World Economic Forum and Johns Hopkins in October 2019, featured a novel coronavirus. Was it really a coincidence that a novel coronavirus outbreak occurred 10 weeks later?

'Dark Winter' – The Signal for an Anthrax-Related Event?

An earlier tabletop pandemic exercise was done in June 2001. The simulation, called “Dark Winter,” predicted major aspects of the subsequent 2001 anthrax attacks. During the last presidential debate, the Democratic nominee, Joe Biden, stated the U.S. is headed for a “dark winter” – an unusual phrase that raised questions among some commentators.

Before that, the former head of the Biomedical Advanced Research and Development Authority (BARDA) testified in front of Congress saying that this winter was going to be the “darkest winter” in modern U.S. history. Somehow, many plans actually seem to be signaled beforehand, if you’re keen enough to pick up the cues. Interestingly, with regard to the “Dark Winter” reference and its anthrax connection:

“The Johns Hopkins center for health security has a sister organization at UPMC (University of Pennsylvania Medical Center) called the UPMC Center for Biosecurity, in Pennsylvania. They’re currently, under the guise of coronavirus vaccine research, attempting to fuse anthrax with the coronavirus spike protein. They are also attempting to do the same for measles.

Those are essentially gain of function studies. The person that runs their center for vaccine research at UPMC is a major proponent of these gain of function studies. And when there was a gain of function moratorium, he was its most vocal opponent and was giving all these talks to government officials about how it needed to be lifted.

What’s very odd about what’s going on at UPMC is that in the beginning of the year they were set to produce what could have easily been the first coronavirus vaccine, a COVID-19 vaccine candidate, but it used traditional and tested vaccination methods that are already on the market ...

Oddly enough after that had made some headlines ... UPMC received a lot of money from CEPI [the Coalition for Epidemic Preparedness Innovations], which of course is backed by Gates, and as soon as that money was received, that vaccine candidate was quietly dropped, and in its place were these experiments to merge measles with the coronavirus spike protein, and then merge anthrax with that same spike protein.

'Dark Winter' may not mean much to the mainstream American public, but it certainly means something to the national security community when they hear that term being thrown around on TV. And then you have Bill Gates saying that after the coronavirus pandemic there's going to be a bioterror attack.

You also have the Council of Europe, a very influential and elitist think tank in Europe, saying that coronavirus will be followed by bioterror. High-ranking former CIA officials [are also saying it]. A lot of the people involved in Dark Winter in the biodefense industrial complex, which was created after the 2001 anthrax attacks, are all saying the same thing.

We really need to start listening to these people. Of course, they in advance have a narrative they create, not unlike the Dark Winter 2001 exercise itself, which initially claimed that the anthrax attacks were committed by Iraq working with Al-Qaeda. And then lo and behold it's traced to the U.S. military (at Ft. Detrick) so obviously it did not come from Iraq or from Al-Qaeda.

What you have now are attempts to seed the similar narrative about who will be blamed for events upcoming in the future. They set it up on purpose, I would argue, so that when the event takes place, people are more receptive to those predetermined narratives about this particular crisis and don't immediately start questioning what could have happened.

They essentially want these events to take place. They want to ramp up the fear, and then they want to conveniently tack blame to something very quickly before an actual thorough investigation can take place. That's what we saw in the aftermath of September 11 and also in the aftermath of the 2001 anthrax attacks."

Be Ready, but Not Fearful

If you listen to the interview in its entirety, you'll have a good idea of why I'm so impressed with Webb's investigative skills. It's important to become educated about what's really happening so that you don't capitulate to the fear they're seeking to imbue in us.

It's a fearful public that allows the technocratic elite to dictate the future and rip away our personal freedoms. It's fear that allows tyranny to flourish. Remember, there are more of us than there are of them. But enough of us must be willing to stand up and say no, we won't accept this plan.

On another level, being aware of the plan allows you to plan for your own safety and security ahead of time, so you're not running around in a panic when something does happen. As the old saying goes, "Being forewarned is being forearmed."

While many of us have been concerned about 5G surveillance from overhead, how many would've imagined sewer surveillance! This shows the depths to which data mining can sink. While we may be covered from above and below, and the choke points of a cashless society, immunity passports, quantum-dot-dye identifications and social credit systems potentially await, the most foreboding idea is implantable brain-machine interfaces, such as Neuralink.

The drive for "Human 2.0," seeks to invade human biology with technology, establishing its bases and hoisting its flag on our "native soil." The resistance to forced vaccination then becomes a line in the sand, since that breach crosses a threshold—our skin—that marks the border to territory Technocracy seeks to colonize through Transhumanism. Such colonies would only represent a "base camp" to the ultimate ascent, the intimate detection and suasion in the realms of human mentality. Any society that can force you to take a vaccine can then force a biometric I.D. to be incorporated into your physiology, and from there an even deeper integration of biology with technology such as Neuralink represents. Technocrats are clever enough to move gradually in order to diffuse resistance, and to bury those "baby steps" in the distractions of hysterical reactions to threats like 9/11 or COVID. The fact that Warp Speed is funded and operated by the CIA and U.S. military should be all the warning we need that anything is possible, with the possible exception of actual beneficent health outcomes.

Tyranny has always been with us. The precipice of great change is not that, but the powerful and invasive technologies now available to the tyrants. Our perennial challenge is in becoming whole in a world controlled by forces that would prefer we don't. Transhumanism does not offer that wholeness; it cannot. It offers what technology can: expediency with the strong likelihood of becoming ensnared and enslaved by the same.

Transhumanism is based on a false premise (that personality resides in the brain). I am attacking it by attempting to push awareness of the truth about personality and its basic source. It is amazing to me how many people who are very concerned about loss of rights and freedoms nevertheless believe that the mind resides in the brain. It is very troubling to me, and so I work.

Yes, David, compelling narrative: "Tyranny has always been with us." The objective is the vaccine and the control of people to see how its effects make us weaker and more fearful for the disease of COVID-19. The global capitalist ruling elite have certainly been doing their best to 'take advantage of the shock inflicted by panic, assuring us that nothing in our lives could ever be the same again. The WHO, Bill Gates, Fauci and all of their ilk have said it: "A complete return to 'normalcy' cannot be foreseen before a vaccine is available." They contemplate the political challenge of getting enough people vaccinated despite the rise in anti-vaccines. This band of undesirables of billionaire globalist elites, that is, the 0.01% who so unjustly own most of the world's wealth are afraid of our potential power of 99.9%, because we can stand up to their terrorist maneuvers and avoid the poison of the snake. We can fight because they do not take away from us the freedom to decide to make them fail in their totalitarian control of the health of humanity of wanting to guide our destiny with an evil imposed to deprive us of our dignity and freedom.

Politicians in a large majority corrupt, allies of an extreme technological advance that observes us that directs us, who only look after the interests of power and profit and the support of the monopolies of great fortunes, are largely responsible for the dehumanization in which the world lives on all fronts of our existence. We are so infected by the virus of unconsciousness and passivity, and we must overcome it by being able to unite in a common front against tyranny, rulers, institutions and monopolies that only deserve to be despised by a true force of our mind, of the people who reject vaccines, we are more and more.

Operation Warp Speed is “paying out billions of dollars to Big Pharma corporations in advance of any results whatsoever,” Conner told Truthout. They are not complying with regulatory oversight and traditional federal contracting mechanisms that create transparency, he noted. “Before any of the companies had done any research or developed any products, they were already reaping windfall profits from their association with Operation Warp Speed.” “Warp Speed is it is a speculative frenzy among competing hedge funds.”

www.globalresearch.ca/trump-administration-paying-big-pharma-billions-.. (October 21, 2020)

We are in a new world order, the creation of the transhuman man, the man with patented genes, just as they patented transgenic seeds, just as drugs are patented, communication technologies, all are patents for the domination and slavery of humanity . GMOs, allopathic medicines and now vaccines that modify the expressions of DNA will create a mentally and physically sick civilization, a humanity in decline, without rights or freedoms, subjected to being simple machines of a technocracy and techno-fascism, dominated by the great fortunes and the governments of the day to submit us to their whims. In addition to BigPharma's lack of responsibility, the first vaccine has a prize.

The winner of the race for the approval of the first COVID-19 vaccine will receive an additional prize: the ability to activate the production of the vaccine without having to undergo the mandatory standard safety and compliance inspection of their manufacturing facilities. larry_e, agreed. It is a materialistic preconception that mind and brain are synonymous. You can slice up the brain as much as you like and you will never find the "stuff" of consciousness. It's a good example of how "science" is often blinded by its own preconceptions, in which case, right out of the gate the scientific method is violated.

Guillermo: "We are so infected by the virus of unconsciousness and passivity, and we must overcome it by being able to unite in a common front against tyranny, rulers, institutions and monopolies that only deserve to be despised...". Yes, Guillermo, and simultaneously, we must find that core identity within ourselves that is simply greater than all this. As larry_e was touching upon, all the Technocrats can attack is the carriage or vehicle, not the essential, "spiritual" man. Of course, we don't want our bodies attacked, but I feel that all these Technocrats are only strong in a narrow "bandwidth"; they seem quite deficient in their imaginations of what is, in truth, possible for humanity. If we can see and operate from a broader, elevated vision, that can only be advantageous... easily said, I suppose.

Yes, larry_e and Darzoum. Transhumanism is above all a materialistic vision of the person, a vision that wants to equate man with artificial intelligence, to make use of "science" and technique to become true robest, people without a soul, confused with the robest themselves. that they want to develop and enhance. Transhumanism will never be able to achieve its purposes of expanding our intellectual capacities and mental states because it takes over the soul to turn us into machines. You never get to ask questions like downloading your mind to a hard drive. We tend to equate artificial intelligence to the human mind, but they are not similar at all. Computers do not learn like humans, they only manage to recognize patterns from data and do not contextualize, so in each different environment

Everything coincides in time with the beginning of the Fourth Industrial Revolution, which begins to leave its first victims. Destruction of jobs, conflicts, migratory crises, wars, violence, increase in inequalities and class struggle. Transhumanism declares that we will all have access to modifications in the body simply, but it is something unreal. It is clear that new technologies have increased inequalities. The rich can have all the advances of artificial intelligence in their own homes, the poor cannot, thank God. These scenarios make species-altering experiments considered potential sources of conflict and violence.

The most pressing existential risks for humanity are pandemics, terrorism and climate change. Strong artificial intelligence can achieve self-awareness and exacerbate these risks. If transhumanism fulfills its predictions, aging will accelerate causing overpopulation. This state can be a great reason to promote mass genocide as it is already being done with agriculture, industrial, vaccines, industrial pollution. Technocracy and transhumanism appear to be complicit in a planned genocide.

Absolutely essential for enough of Humanity to turn inward to see the light, the spirit where there are states of awareness where one looks at nothing yet sees everything so as to become aware of what is causing this. To be connected to that light, that awareness of a shared spirit throughout the Kingdom of Creation. To pursue the material at the expense of everything else is incomplete. It is to lust, to get, it is not love which is to give. When we give it is surprising what we can get. Because these people are blinded by their lust to get, they never will get. They will never be fulfilled & it is a reason why they are Hungry Ghost who will always starve, more will never be enough. They are incapable of seeing what is before their very eyes because they are looking at one or the very few things they lust over.

Fear. Fear...fear...fear. It is our fear, our confusion, our anger, desperation, & so on that is their power over us. Convenience is also a seduction of control. What is their fear? Why do they chase after country folk? Island, jungle, mountain natives many who have lived in harmony living WITH THE LAND, not the 1% way of living OFF THE LAND mining all the life and goodness from anything and everything. Vandana Shiva, {"They deliberately want to get rid of large parts of humanity," - "First through hunger, then through sickness. They want a digital economy, they want a sick economy. Otherwise, you wouldn't be spending all your time on Big Pharma; you'd spend your time making sure that the smaller farmer doesn't get destroyed."} If we spend our time in their system to fight them, we lose. If we build literally from the soil up with Life, we preserve our energies and resources. The 1% way can not succeed and has already failed, it does not value Life or anything other than their selves and their misguided, disconnected Lust.

I think the underground surveillance [control] goes even deeper. While they have already been poisoning us for 75 years with IQ ,thyroid,kidney and bone damaging fluoride; there was an article written by Janet Phelan several years ago about her observance of cities where new water lines were being installed and there were DOUBLE pipelines with shut offs on them. When she tried to question the workers,foremen & govt officials she was shut down hard. Now there have already been plans to add lithium to the water in TX [shut down] and our water is polluted with chemicals,hormones,pharmaceuticals & metals; so who is to say the will not be able to put poison, psychedelics, vaccines, or drugs into specific neighborhoods or even individuals? I am ever grateful I have my own well & septic tank.

The planet is being bombarded day in and day out with man-made toxins polluting land, water and air. And these big corporations are seemingly getting away with doing so. But, there's hope!! Watch the movie "Dark Waters" and read the book "Exposure." This is a true story of how a farmer from the Parkersburg, WV area sounds the alarm to an attorney named Robert Bilott. And he and his law firm Taft (Cincy, OH) take on Dupont. Took nearly a decade and a half, but they prevailed and won. Dupont had conducted their own safety experiments and found health damaging results in their labs. Their own staff members tried to urge Dupont to take better safety measures, but they would not!! Dupont and 3M knew how toxic this class of chemicals are!!! And they did NOTHING for the public. Two of their women employees, who worked with PFOA, gave birth to sons who had birth defects of the nose & eyes sadly.

I highly regard Robert Bilott for all the work he did on behalf of the farmer (Earl Tennant) and for the class action members. I can't even begin to describe how many hours he put into battling Dupont. And the stress he endured was off the charts. He is still educating the world today on the dangers of PFOA; and how almost every living creature on this planet has been poisoned with Dupont's and 3M's dangerous chemicals. In fact, Mr. Bilott has filed a class action lawsuit on behalf of ALL Americans because PFOA has been found in all blood donors' blood. The chemical PFOA is better known as Teflon. And unfortunately it is the Scotchgard that's on our carpets, and the Goretex in sports wear. And what's even more disgusting was the lack of action on the part of the EPA. They languished for many years after Bilott had sent them the d*mnning information in regards to PFOA. Thank goodness there were judges who judged on the side of the plaintiffs along the way. The class action cases were judged, and won, in my home state capitol, Columbus,

OH.

Our evolutionary ability to enforce inconsiderate control over others - and profit from it - has far outpaced our spiritual evolution. We need a set of moral and ethical guidelines to live by. Sadly, the new world religion - Science - has no moral or ethical guidelines, unless one considers ungodly profits to be a guiding force. Indeed, dark winter, dark summer, dark fall... dark times.

I may be living a different realm than most Americans, but most people I know want no part of this, for various reasons, including health effects (EMF exposure), liberty, privacy, not wanting "the mark of the beast". We must spread the word among all who value liberty, health, wisdom, faith, and our very humanity. We WILL defeat this heinous agenda by remaining firm in our truth, like the people of India defeated the British colonialists.

Early in the US Civil War, Union general Grant nervously approached a Confederate installation with his "heart in his throat", only to reach an empty, abandoned camp. He said it then occurred to him that the enemy was just as afraid of him as he was of them. He said it was a position he had not considered before, but never forgot since.

Strange as it may seem, WE lovers of freedom are in Grant's position. We have the stronger forces, including the spiritual force of the universe itself, call it God, the Tao, Mother Nature, or whatever you wish. Their desperate gaslighting and censorship efforts betray this fact. The architects of this madness need us more than we need them.

"Google, just like the Rockefellers' Standard Oil, wants to be broken up in order to be able to expand into other markets. " While there are good reasons to fear expansion of firms like Google, it goes much deeper. Firms like Google, Amazon, Apple, Microsoft, et al are not sovereign corporations. They all share the same Cartel of largest institutional shareholders. These are the largest investment banks, like Vanguard, BlackRock, State Street, the Capital Group, Fidelity, Invesco, Berkshire, and others. Each whom also exist as the largest investors/shareholders of each other. Like a true Cartel. And whom are largely owned by, and thus controlled by the billionaire class (consider the Pareto Principle, the "80/20 rule", then search SEC 13 D/F/G filings for more info/proof). It is a highly-convoluted schema of ownership & control (to defeat antitrust efforts).

Former CEO of Vanguard, William McNabb has stated, in corporate documents: "In the past, some have mistakenly assumed that our predominately passive management style suggests a passive attitude with respect to corporate governance," McNabb wrote. "Nothing could be further from the truth." They use their massive holdings to choose, influence and control CEO's, Executives, Boards, etc.

Even the richest man in the world, Jeff Bezos, CEO of Amazon, is held to their command, and made richer as he remains complicit in their schema (Amazon operations & stock would be nil without investment by these largest investment banks). And it's not limited to just Big Tech, nor Big Data, nor Big Media. In fact, the largest "competing" corporations, in most every single industry, are similarly largely owned by this Cartel. Virtual monopolies. Most every aspect of humans' lives are dominated by a relatively few people & firms. And this isn't confined just to the U.S. The largest of these investment banks now exist as the largest shareholders of the largest corps. in the world, including in Europe, China, Japan, etc.

One should more deeply review & analyze efforts & programs of agencies like DARPA.

Like their Prophecy project (initiated to engage in predicative viral evolutionary analysis).

Or RadioBio, which seeks to control biological cells via electromagnetic waves.

Or N3, the development of bidirectional brain-machine interfaces.

Or their work in programming bacteria cells with light, introducing engineered light sensors in bacteria, then inserting those bacteria in plants, insects and people, to remotely control those bacteria, to perform certain actions/functions.

And this is no conspiracy theory stuff, this info is readily available thru DARPA.

The, one should read & consider historical data.

Like the 19th century writings of John Trenchard & Thomas Gordon, via their Cato's Letters (not to be confused with the pseudo-"Libertarian" Cato Institute).

And their criticisms of how the Elite used their massive wealth to control the British Monarchy (which also was not sovereign leadership - as ALL national leaders are put into place by those covert, true Ruling Elite).

Which was one of the main reasons/inspirations for the American Revolution.

But the U.S. has now come full-circle, back from whence its Founders sought to escape.

Plato's Allegory of the Cave is a story of how, In the allegory, Socrates describes a society of people who have lived chained to the wall of a cave all of their lives, facing a blank wall. The people watch projections on the wall from objects passing in front of a fire behind them (like a projector). The projections are the prisoners' reality but are not accurate representations of the real world.

Plato, via Socrates, then explains how the Philosopher (the Divergent/Thinking Human) is like a prisoner who is freed from the cave and comes to understand that the projections on the wall are not reality at all, but a virtual reality, created to control those people.

Interesting exposition of real events and an allegory of Plato who discovers how this humanity is being deceived and in the end will be prey to the corruption of power and money, techno-fascist manipulation and a direction to transhumanism devoid of soul and ideology. Intermon Oxfam published a devastating report: all of us live in an economic system that works to benefit 1% of the world's population. In other words, the richest 1% of the world's population has more wealth than the remaining 99% of the world's people. This overwhelming inequality has a perverse tendency to grow within a socioeconomic system that, clearly, feeds it: the wealth in the hands of the 62 richest people in the world has increased by 44% in just five years, in More than half a trillion dollars since 2010, reaching 1.76 trillion dollars.

The figures offered by the report are as interesting as they are bleak: in 2015, 62 people owned the same wealth as 3.6 billion people combined, equivalent to the poorest half of humanity. It seems undeniable that the big winners of the world economy have the most and that their power is being used to manipulate the system and thus further widen the gap between rich and poor.

The report denounces that, once the money falls into the hands of the wealthiest, there is "a complex network of tax havens and a whole industry of great wealth managers" that guarantee that this wealth "is not redistributed" and is left out of the reach of citizens as a whole and of governments. Specifically, this system flourishes thanks to a swarm of "highly paid professionals in private and investment banking, law firms or auditors" who can only afford to use people with more resources and large companies, with the aim of avoiding taxation. What really corresponds to them.

Vanguard is the largest mutual fund manager. The way it has attracted capital over the last five years has completely eclipsed traditional rivals like Fidelity Investments or T. Rowe Price, better known for active management. The financial firm currently manages 369 investment funds and has more than 20 million clients. Former Vanguard CEO William McNabb, who will serve as Vanguard's ambassador in his new tenure, expanded the advisory and exchange-traded funds (ETF) businesses during his tenure to become the industry's great titan. It is estimated that it controls half the market for mutual funds and ETFs.

This is what we can expect from the globalist elites that have their power in the great market of funds that make great fortunes grow and that this false pandemic of COVID-19 will enhance as a result of the strengthening of the big monopolies at the expense of the destruction of small and medium-sized companies, and the restart or reconstruction of a predominantly one-color market: large corporations dominating governments, promoting inequalities and enslaving 99% of humanity.

Please, Dr. Mercola and others here that have access to the required knowledge, now we need to get up to speed with anthrax, as it is not a virus, and we all need to know the best ways to do our best to keep us safe. The truth. ChrisColes. is that they are gain-of-function experiments that, under the guise of coronavirus vaccine research, try to fuse anthrax with the coronavirus spike protein or measles. People become infected with anthrax when the spores enter their body. When this happens, the spores can become activated and become the anthrax bacteria called Bacillus anthracis. The bacteria can then multiply, spread throughout the body, produce toxins (poisonous substances) and cause serious illness. This can occur when a person breathes in the spores, drinks water, or eats food that is contaminated with spores, or when the spores enter the body through wounds or scratches on the skin. People who eat raw or undercooked meat from infected animals can get GI anthrax. This usually occurs in countries where animals for consumption are not inspected before they are taken to slaughter. When Anthrax-Laced Letters Terrorized the Nation. Who sent the series of letters in the wake of the 9/11 attacks? Investigators zeroed-in on a possible culprit.

Check this very interesting article : nourishingtraditions.com/anthrax-arsenic-and-old-lace for an alternative view of Anthrax as arsenic poisoning. The symptoms are the same and the 'illness' was very much related to the arsenic-based sheep dips used until they were finally banned after which anthrax virtually died out. All roads at the moment seem to lead back to the same problems: Germ Theory v Terrain Theory. Arsenic is an absolute scourge even today as it formed the basis of a very cheap and originally home-made pesticide - lead arsenate, which was used from the 1890s right up until 1988 for the codling moth. As the moth caterpillar became resistant to the poison so gardeners/farmers just used more and more. Although now banned in most countries, it remains in the soil for centuries and within the first foot or so of the topsoil. It is a real problem with us organic chicken keepers as we always think an old apple orchard is a great place to keep our chickens and then suddenly they get impacted crop which is a tell for both lead and arsenic poisoning. We have an old orchard but have been exceedingly lucky as here they tended to cover the trunks with sticky bands or home-made glue but I have had umpteen comments from subscribers with this problem. I believe in the US it was also used on potatoes for Colorado beetle and on other crops too. Lead arsenate was also, prior to the use of DDT, linked to polio.

Yes Vladimira. All gain-of-function experiments should be prohibited. Defeating this pandemic should be the first priority, but we must be reluctant to also ask questions about who is responsible for the origin of SARS-CoV-2. A gain of function that involves a virus with potential that is judged as a pandemic potential to cause fear and panic to the world population in a world-class laboratory. "But it may happen that the information from the experiment is later used by another scientist who does not have the same training and facilities." These are the words of Anthony Fauci, director of the NIAID, in a 2012 letter to the microbiology journal mBio advocating for gain-of-function experiments. The maneuvers of Dr. Fauci, Bill Gates, WHO, and all partners in this tragedy deserve investigation, particularly considering that the Wuhan Institute of Virology was doing the same type of research established in Dr. Fauci's hypothetical scenario. We want to know who is responsible and we want those who have managed this false pandemic to be judged for their serious mistakes. jvi.asm.org/.../3253

There is still something that to me is missing here and I keep going back to it and that is; there still is no proven indication that any virus can transmit any disease. The more I read, the more I am convinced that Pasteur's Germ Theory was totally flawed thus there is no gain-of-function because that is not the function of a virus. What is being identified as a virus seems to me to come from within the body and is a direct result of the body's detoxification process and that even lines up linguistically with the Latin meaning of virus - poison. Therefore, it is no wonder that these 'viruses' are being found where we would expect them, in all humans who are detoxing from whatever environmental, chemical, food-based, medication-based toxins they have consumed/absorbed through the skin or lungs. Moreover this is the reason why 'viral material' is being found in the sewers. If this is so then the World can keep testing for corona virus until the cows come home because they are always going to be finding poisoned people detoxing . What is killing them is the fact that detoxing is not an easy process for the body, particularly a body already unhealthy and under fear and thus stress, which ends up with a cytokine storm.

Take the symptoms of anthrax and then look at arsenic poisoning and the prevalence of anthrax in sheep that were dipped in an arsenic-based drench and the prevalence of 'anthrax' among the workers dipping the sheep in the last century. Then take the symptoms of polio and look at the prevalence of it in the population when there was a policy of spraying with DDT. You can find the graphs that actually show this correlation. Then take the symptoms of tetanus and look at strychnine poisoning. Finally check the air quality in key countries during the 'first wave of covid' This is a video I really found informative and incidentally very warm and human!

Sue12Cross, as far as I know viruses cannot transmit anything on their own. They need a host cell to survive. These are obviously transmissible. When I was 10, I had shingles on my shoulder, I asked my younger sister to kiss it to make it better and sure enough a few days later she fell ill with chickenpox.

Rrealrose, I do not agree too much with that. Most of the pie produced is junk anyway. You don't want production at full speed as it is not necessary and actually detrimental. Most people over consume. A large part of the economic pie is better not produced, let's start with not producing the vegetable oils, for example. Lots of junk food production and lots of junk goods and services are better not produced. Let's also stop producing vaccines, statins, fast food and so forth. Most people are hard at work producing evil goods and services. I prefer these people to not produce.

Sue12Cross

Hi there Vladimira, the fact that your sister 'caught' chickenpox from you is not at odds with Terrain Theory nor does it prove that viruses are transmissible. You and your sister living in the same house would be subject to the same stressors and the same foods, which have a bearing on both these conditions. Eruptions on the skin are a sign of detox. I traced my shingles to a high intake of L-arginine rich foods coupled with a high level of stress and I cured it in a few days by lowering both, plus coconut oil.

My husband did not get it because he was on the same diet but does not get stressed out for the same reasons as I do, which actually makes for a great relationship as in times of stress, one of us is still functioning at optimum! Here is a book I believe you might be interested in - I just found it as a free download on the Internet Archive - archive.org/.../2up it has a very interesting chapter on the 1918 flu and how doctors and scientists tried repeatedly and unsuccessfully to make a group of very fit sailors catch the same from dying flu patients - it's another very sad chapter in World History because if it hadn't been for medical dogma, they would have been able to help these patients survive but they were insistent that this was a 'flu virus'. Those who were treated by naturopaths for poisoning did survive.

There is also the fact that the way it broke out in various countries and at similar times could no way, given the transportation times at that period, have been transmitted from person to person. Thank heavens this time some doctors and nurses questioned what they were doing early on, particularly with the use of ventilators, they proved themselves to be worthy of their Hippocratic Oath and critical thinkers, which is what we desperately need. There is one other interesting view on detox too, it is believed that when people are close together both physically and emotionally they can trigger each other into detox.

Sue12Cross, your husband did not catch shingles because you cannot get shingles from shingles, you can only get chickenpox from shingles and most likely he developed immunity from it as a child. If transmission and contagion did not exist then hygiene and sanitation will not matter, nor will you be able to develop immunity. The very fact that immunity exists means that contagion does exist. Having a better terrain does not stop transmission but certainly helps for symptomless recovery. In regards to the 1918 "flu" there is strong evidence that it was vaccine induced.

salmartingano.com/2020/05/the-1918-spanish-flu-only-the-vaccinated-die..

The Spanish flu is a bad example. Why not try to give chickenpox to someone who has never had it and is not immunized against it? I am sure you will be quite successful. Contagion exists.

Projected COVID-19 mutation and/or co-infection with a secondary virus (referred to as COVID-21) leading to a third wave with a much higher mortality rate and a higher rate of infection. Expected by February 2021. Expansion of the unemployment program to be transitioned into the universal basic income program. Expected by Q1 2021. the federal government will offer to eliminate all personal debts (mortgages, loans, credit cards, etc.) which all funding will be provided to Canada by the IMF under what will become known as the World Debt Reset program. In exchange for acceptance of this total debt forgiveness, the individual would forfeit ownership of any and all property and assets forever and take the vaccines. We are aware that aid to the crisis can lead to a greater domination of the corrupt capital managed by billionaires in the funds of the big banks. We are in a global epidemic of corruption, we are in a governance of interests of the techno elites. fascists. Some aspects of the study:

Governments in all nine countries and regions have provided financial support to mitigate the impact of the pandemic on communities, announcing substantial emergency budgets to help businesses stay viable, preserve jobs, and ease financial burdens on individuals. and households. In all five Asia Pacific countries and regions, this financial assistance has included one-time cash donations to the public. Japan, with the highest emergency spending, amounting to 42% of its gross domestic product. The messages around what is considered a safe physical distance between people have been confusing and inconsistent, apparently based on a variety of biological and other considerations, as if a great distance would prevent the reopening of some facilities.

With few exceptions, such as Germany, New Zealand, Norway, Scotland, and South Korea, political leaders have struggled to ensure public trust, and thus support, for continued lifestyle changes. More generally, countries with female leaders have performed better in gaining public confidence and adherence to the new measures than countries with male leaders. In Hong Kong, ongoing political unrest has substantially eroded public confidence in the government, although the community has generally shown a high level of adherence that could be attributed to lessons learned from the previous SARS outbreak in 2003.

In Hong Kong, Japan, New Zealand, Spain and the United Kingdom, governments have appointed a temporary panel of experts in public health, epidemiology, and clinical medicine to provide scientific advice on managing the pandemic. In the UK, as in some other countries, mortality from COVID-19 has been disproportionately high among nursing home residents, blacks, Asians and ethnic minority groups, socioeconomically disadvantaged populations and low-wage workers. The experience of Germany shows the benefits of investing in the health protection system for the future. In Spain, medical personnel have represented more than 10% of all COVID-19 cases.

Swine acute diarrhea syndrome coronavirus (SADS-CoV) is a newly discovered, highly pathogenic virus that likely evolved from closely related HKU2 bat coronaviruses. New research from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill suggests that a strain of coronavirus that has recently alarmed the swine industry may have the potential to spread to humans as well. The virus' potential threat to people was demonstrated in lab tests that revealed SADS-CoV efficiently replicated in human liver and gut cells, as well as airway cells. During the COVID-lockdown months from March 1st through June 2nd, the Gates Foundation poured out at least 203 grants totaling no less than $228,261,262 to "Reimagine" education systems across the globe. New York Governor Andrew Cuomo announced on May 5th his emergency COVID plans to “Build Back Better” through a partnership with the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation and Bilderberger Eric Schmidt, who is “Technical Advisor” of Alphabet Inc., which is Google’s parent company. Altogether, these combined grants set up public-private tech infrastructures for “social distance” learning networks to be AI data-mined by Chinese-style “Social Credit” algorithms which score students’ cognitive-behavioral, socio-emotional, and biological health metrics to determine the students’ access to education, employment, healthcare, housing, transportation, and even due process. With more than a quarter billion dollars dumped into a hi-tech concoction of post-human AI tech that tracks psychometric and biometric data for workforce placement and contact tracing of COVID-19, it is evident that the Gates Foundation’s technocratic stratagem to “Reimagine” global education is aiming to “Build Back Better” by setting up a global surveillance grid that institutes a worldwide system of dystopian “Social Credit,” which will utilize the “internet of things” to data-mine students’ digital psychological profiles in order to virtually dictate whether they get access to schools, jobs, hospitals, housing, transportation, and even due process. <http://sha.rest/4IRFuk> datadragon, thanks for your important post. I watched the recent senate hearings of Zuckerberg, Dorsey and Pichai... I was amazed how many times they referred to A.I. for their answers or excuses as to why there may be problems with this or that... my amazement was really in how this theme running through the proceeding went unquestioned, was never dredged up to the surface for an appropriate examination. And here's a fairly recent interview w Dr. Scott Atlas who kinda alludes to various other agendas warping the news media and creating far more fear than necessary, causing who knows how much harm to Americans: www.youtube.com/watch - He's fairly specific as to which Americans are paying the price for current unfounded and idiotic policies.

Instead we get flooded with fear-based agendas about our food supply and future of our bodies vis-a-vis our independence and ability to think. Its not an easy situation to navigate, as the media is clearly creating havoc, actually little is happening other than an election.

This is like waiting for a hurricane, you know it's coming, you board up and then it's over and the clean up begins without power, water and groceries. You can make yourself miserable waiting. "Waiting is the hardest part," sang Tom Petty..so why wait and project?

Guillermou

Yes Randall, "The waiting is the hardest part. Every day you see one more card. You take it on faith, you take it to the heart. The waiting is the hardest part " The wait is tragic, because it is based on the vaccine. While people suffer from COVID-19, they suffer the consequences in their poorly prepared bodies due to the comorbidities that the "health" institutions co-directed by the agri-food industry, BigPharma and the multimillionaires who hope to make great profits in the face of a large number of defeated people out of fear, other people who have been left without work, others who suffer misery. The end is the slavery of a pandemic created by a "gain of function" that in its way of creating vaccines and researching diseases has created a new monopoly: that of disease and the genocide of humanity. If we are facing a hurricane of falsehoods and nonsense that are intended to be cleaned up with a false world where we are all happy with the slavery of thought.

The globalists are behind all this chaos. They control most of the media which has ceaselessly attacked Donald Trump for the past 4 years. They hate Trump for good reason as he has done everything he can to fight their agenda. If Trump were a puppet of the globalists he would not be fighting them as he has done the past 4 years, exposing the media as fake news, withdrawing from the WHO, returning American troops from foreign countries and strengthening the US economy among other things. The globalists aim to destroy America, not rebuild it as Trump has been doing. Watch Donald Trump's statements at the UN in the video below. ## Guillermou

Yes, Randy, a global and terrifying madness to turn false pandemics into a lucrative business and enslave humanity from the power of the big monopolies and their capitals. Operation Warp Speed with six candidate vaccines for the purpose they plan to assign a specific vaccine to specific populations and we have Google and Oracle, two big tech companies that have ties to the CIA, are going to participate in what they describe as a surveillance system. of pharmacovigilance. All at the peak of power, all led by big capital, by the millionaires we are discovering and others who finance this drama from the dark. All of them form a great network, a great network where everyone benefits while the people, the entire nations suffer a horrible drama of deaths and diseases that precisely they have created with the approval of the institutions that direct the broad fields of health.

The labyrinthine graph, Operation Warp Speed, shows that approximately 60 military officers, including at least four generals, are involved in leadership in said operation, many of whom have never worked in health care or vaccine development. Only 29 of the roughly 90 leaders in the graph are not Department of Defense employees; most of them work for the Department of Health and Human Services and its sub-agencies.

"The central goal of Operation Warp Speed is to develop, produce and distribute 300 million doses of a coronavirus vaccine by January, and the military is intimately involved," according to Paul Mango, deputy chief of staff for policy at HHS. The extensive involvement of the military in the development and distribution of a vaccine is a departure from the pandemics of the past. The experience put at the service of the surveillance of a vaccine that will bring serious consequences in the health of people. The serious effects are already being announced in the trials.

Prior to that, Eisenhower was warning us about the growing threat from not only the "military-industrial complex," but a technological elite freed from the constraints of oversight. Here we are. Also, glad to see Dr. Mercola posting from Whitney Webb, James Corbett and others. To those who say this is some "crackpot conspiracy theory," let me point out that conspiracies happen all the time where power and money are involved, and that incomprehensibility is the best cover for any atrocity. Did anybody who boarded the trains to the Nazi death camps know what awaited them? They'd have rushed the guards, a few to die heroic deaths before taking their weapons, rather than all dying miserable deaths in captivity.

One factor that's not getting discussed even in this article is the health effects of all this EMF exposure to a body that is swimming with transmitters. What will be the effects on the genetics of those who are so processed and their descendants?

Maybe the architects of this really do believe their own lies and think they're doing some great thing. It's not like religions - which technocracy has all the characteristics - haven't done so before. These are very, very strange, misguided times, however you cut it. If the human race needs anything, it's more good 'ol fashioned WISDOM, NOT more technical savvy.

Now, more than ever, we MUST make a stand and stand together. THEY need us, not the other way around. It's in OUR hands all the way. That's the secret the architects of this madness are so desperately trying to hide.

Yes, balhawk, the reality is that between vaccines, electromagnetic fields, environmental pollution, GMOs with their pesticides, the human race is degenerating. Published and peer-reviewed research shows a variety of effects, the most important of which is DNA damage which is linked to cancer, neurodegenerative diseases, reproductive impairment, etc. The studies that are much more effective in showing effects employ real-life mobile phone (MT) exposures emitted by commercially available mobile phones. The present review, of the results published from 2006 to 2016, compares DNA fragmentation induced by six different electromagnetic fields in the same biological system. More than 54% of American children have one or more chronic diseases. Autism, ADHD, asthma, and allergies have doubled since then, and autism is now one in 34 children in some regions. Pediatric autoimmune diseases are also on the rise. There is growing evidence that environmental toxins such as heavy metals, environmental pollution, pesticides and herbicides, and vaccines and their toxic vaccine ingredients are causing an epidemic of disease. As a retired schoolteacher, I have to smile when people say but these conspiracies do not exist or when they look down upon those who believe in conspiracies. Having taught high school for 22 years, I can tell you for certain that wherever people are gathered, conspiracies arise. I have seen high school students conspire against another student of whom they were jealous. I have seen football players conspire to intimidate and harass students that were of a different persuasion. I have seen cheerleaders conspire to exclude someone who made the cheerleading team that they did not consider to be worthy. To refuse to see that conspiracies exist to me is a unique and special blindness that puts the person so blinded in great Danger.

Thank You Dr. Mercola! We know, NIH data contain the SARS-CoV-2 genome, but where exactly it comes from?? All what one can do is to analyze the sequences. In regard to Spike protein, which is going to be inside of the most vaccines, that's a comment I left for Fauci today: Why virologists GROW THEIR VIRUSES at 5% CO2 and 37degC, an ideal condition, which 'strangely coincides' exactly with the condition when a person puts the mask on??? You know best what's in the official SARS-CoV-2 genome, so do you feel comfortable to inject everyone with a spike protein which contains pieces of swine flu vaccine ingredients, and also the by NIH in 2008 patented most important portion of the RBD domain docking and multiplying the 'virus', and substantial pieces of the anthrax, botulin, ricin toxins, pieces of human reproductive proteins (FSHR, HCG), of human VMAT-2 protein very similar to the sold anti-VMAT-2 antibody, pieces of human C-Myc, HIV-TAT proteins, pieces of human hemoglobin, substantial pieces of FactorVIII proteins responsible for BLOOD clotting, viral nagalases and SO MUCH MORE that it is just unbelievable to even imagine to inject anyone with such a toxic mix!

And imagine, you want all humans to start building antibodies to their own human proteins, like the one involved in reproduction and believe system??? Didn't you learn anything about normal human immune system, building the right antibodies in the right time on its own, with the GOD given powers of normal human being?? Now with your patented MOD-E-RNA vaccine you want to turn human bodies into viral factories in order to 'help the human body to produce' all those parts working against that human body while working m for the virus? Don't you think to describe this all as an insanity, is only a mild expression??? Why such a super virus, whose parts are in every single VACCINE, is not causing massive deaths on the streets? Why finally masks had to be introduced in order to make people more sick?

Somebody help me. Why would you use a meningitis vaccine as a placebo to help mask the variety of side effects? Is it because the meningitis vaccine will produce side effects as well as the covid vaccine so you can't really tell what's happening?

airsurfer

Yes. You cannot prove a poison is not harmful by comparing it with another poison. Hell, the new poison might even look less poisonous than the old one. As they (at least officially) don't have ways to test the NEW toxic side effects of the new vaccine yet. They can only test (but they even won't) of what is known as side effects. The other ('unknown') harmful effects are just disaster waiting to happen. A placebo has to be a procedure or substance, or other intervention making a participant believe they are getting the real (unproven) thing, that has absolutely no (known) effect (besides the placebo effect) on its own. Doing otherwise is deceptive, criminal and not scientific.

Aldous Huxley warned us of this very thing: "There will be, in the next generation or so, a pharmacological method of making people love their servitude, and producing dictatorship without tears, so to speak, producing a kind of painless concentration camp for entire societies, so that people will in fact have their liberties taken away from them, but will rather enjoy it, because they will be distracted from any desire to rebel by propaganda or brainwashing, or brainwashing enhanced by pharmacological methods. And this seems to be the final revolution." So we've been warned. I'll take liberty and the occasional pain that goes with it. If enough of us do, that's what we shall have. It's ultimately ALL up to us.

airsurfer

I think the part of a concentration camp about being painless is wrong. Your body has its needs, as if you feed it crap and damage it through poison (vax etc), it will scream. Maybe your mouth won't scream because of numbing drugs, but your body will and will lose the will to live. It's a pipedream they have thinking you can take a body away from it's mother nature and expect it to be happy. The part of nature that we carry within us will die out. Only misery of loss, without even having the memory of what we lost, will stay. I am convinced they manufacture as much misery as possible, to feed their lord.

I've been educated in relatively strict cartesianism with hate for religion, so it was not the first reflex to lean on religion for explanations. Observing the world and observing how good things are always being used as an excuse to justify things that do evil/the opposite, I can't do otherwise than conclude all that increase in misery is not the fruit of hazard, but by design. So the 'painless' part of a sort of concentration camp, is just there to stop protest of weaker individuals. Society is already unhappy, hence we waste lifetimes chasing goals that won't make us happy.

Hi Krpfter, a link about it. "We cannot allow this dictatorship to threaten our nation or allies with unimaginable loss of life," he said, vowing to "do what we must do to prevent that from happening and it will be done, if necessary. Believe me." He also said that, moving forward, he expects those in the room to provide him with "a broad range of military options, when needed, at a much faster pace." abc7ny.com/president-donald-trump-politics-calm-before-the-storm/24983.. Trump always refers to the military by saying, "

My generals and my military have decision-making capacity." This has enraged the military is Trump's insistence on saying "my generals" and "my military," which according to some , suggests a mistaken sense of ownership over the country's armed forces.

www.businessinsider.com/trump-my-generals-my-military-2017-10 President Trump gave officials no comfort when he again refused to commit to a peaceful transfer of power no matter who wins the election. On Thursday he doubled down, saying he was not sure the elections could be "honest." The Insurrection Law, a two-century-old law, allows a president to send active duty military troops to quell unrest over governors' objections.

Trump, who refers to the military as "my military" and "my generals."

In this discussion of viruses and pandemics it might be helpful to use the neologism that I first heard from Bush I's Homeland Security Czar, [I've forgotten his name but I call him "Nosferatu,"] namely, our new term for war, "Asymmetrical Warfare." That means that modern war has no boundaries! And by extension it means that everyone is suspect! So quite naturally it must be fought not only abroad but at home as well, and naturally everyone is suspect including every citizen! For example, "You might be sick. You might give that to others. And therefore you must be surveilled by the government for your own good, of course." When war is A-symmetrical everyone is the enemy--with special concern given to those who question the Surveyors!

As a word is was equaled in its monstrous and horrific implications only by that one used by Bush II himself, namely, "elective war." And yes this is government sanctioned censorship, etc., and these Tech corporations are the agents of the Deep State and to not see this is a suicidal attitude. To use the very language of Jefferson, "but when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism," out of self respect we must conclude that they mean to do just that, namely to "reduce" us to something less than full citizenship and make us not free men but mere 'subjects' under the same "absolute Despotism" that we suffered under King George III! I appreciate a lot of this dialog. To interject something, I'm a staunch opponent to vaccines. I'm torn as to what Trump will do about them because he has made a lot of comments questioning them. Perhaps initiating a vaccine trial through all the available companies is providing the crowd that wants them the opportunity to have them. At the same time, he has said he will not mandate them. He also said, IF you want them, they will be given to you quickly.

I also think the fact that Trump has purposefully distanced himself from Fauci speaks volumes.

At the end of the day, Biden has said he'd mandate a lot of things: quarantine extensions, vaccines and masks. That is a LOT scarier than anything Trump has done on this.

On the subject of Red Flag Laws, Trump said publicly "I say get the guns and work out the legal issues later." He actually said this. Now the language of the Law of the Land is categorical, "shall not be infringed," but this word categorical points to something (one of many things) he doesn't seem to understand.

Don't recall where I'd seen this, but It's as funny as is accurate. When you yield your power to the policy makers. They simply become larger Hammers. And at that point...we all look like small nails!! (like Heimlich in the movie Bugs Life. From way up here.... you all look like little ants! ) I'm so sorry....I have to find some humor in all this nonsense of today. Time to outside for a while and just smile. Refresher course for voters. "The way things are supposed to work is that we're supposed to know virtually everything about what [government officials] do: that's why they're called public servants. They're supposed to know virtually nothing about what we do: that's why we're called private individuals.

This dynamic - the hallmark of a healthy and free society - has been radically reversed. Now, they know everything about what we do, and are constantly building systems to know more. Meanwhile, we know less and less about what they do, as they build walls of secrecy behind which they function. That's the imbalance that needs to come to an end. No planet can be healthy and functional if the most consequential acts of those who wield political power are completely unknown to those to whom they are supposed to be accountable." The swamp is murky, the muck is thick and dark. If ever drained and dried by the power of the sun. It will make good fertilizers for anew to begin. A recycling of mankind Exultations. If you cant make it simple.... You don't understand it well enough. A. Einstein

We must hamper those who work for evil NOW. It will be more painful once their apparatus has even more deployed. Cloud coverage is our ally. The sheeple will not be convinced as they prefer all the flavours of the simple tv stories, but if they start to doubt, at least they will be less likely to see us as enemies. WE must do something as most of what I read on forums/comments is that we expect someone to do all the fight in our name, while we remain comfortably lazy :-( We can only be certain of our own impact, the savers on the web might disappear (or change their mind) any minute, and then all that will have 'happened' is organized nothingness! Instead of squandering taxpayer money on "sewer surveillance," the government should be planning to replace all of the old water lines across the nation that contain lead, or are made of lead. Of course, there's no incentive to do that since the symptoms associated with lead intake send people to doctors, who treat the symptoms with pharma drugs.

There is a lot to unpack in this but the fundamental philosophical is: By WHAT RIGHT does this criminal cartel we politely refer as government have authority to manage the human stock. No matter of how you flip it this is human farming. The gate keepers farmers decide which livestock should live or die. The pivot to this is monumental plandemic (read genocide) is the control of energy (money), hence the push for cryptocurrency. The first part is rather prophetic (crypt). Money according to the constitution was non corruptible, hence the coinage act of 1792 which made counterfeiting a FELONY punishable by DEATH. The rest is history going over 100 years back and we are experiencing the logical conclusion.

MEANTIME.....back at them 'cellphone towers' or 5G towers..they keep ramping up the juice, the output power..actually AI does..in the RF frequencies of 60++ gigahertz..at increadable output into multi gain antenna emitting unknown mm and higher frequencies causing unknown damage to living things...bird, frogs cows deer bear and people and every living thing.....eventually eradicating sections that AI selects .. Artificial Intelligence is now nearly totally IN CONTROL And AI doesn't care about the common Goy.....AI was created to "remove the infestation".....me and you...simply put...anything not 'Putting Out' is considered 'worthless feeders' ..

mrrob, you're doing yourself and others here, also Jews a disservice by incorrectly framing the latter as culprits. The problem is collective Zionism, a political movement imbedded within a cultural ethnicity, which IMO is a clandestine subset of the state of Israel. When one views Israel not as the home of former diasporic Jews (the facade) but considers that foremost behind the veneer when founded in 1947 it became the realization of a century old Rothschild dream, all the pieces of the puzzle start to fall into place. The citizens of Israel are no more accountable for the behavior of their covert government and operatives (Mossad, Shin Bet) working for the globalists than we in the U.S. have control over the CIA, etc.

This girl is too nervous for me. Hopefully her data is sound, but this could be considered a form of reverse fear-mongering. It's interesting how the chaos merchants can pull good people into their game. It's a bit contagious, you might say.I am very concerned about this on several levels. On the one hand, I am an older person so will be getting pressure, I imagine, to take this stuff. I also wonder if my freedom of movement or go to church could be severely limited. This also points out how little real control Trump's group has over the military and intelligence bureaucracies. They have a lot of power. They have gotten a lot of good people killed for unclear reasons. There's no way they are going to reveal themselves without a fight.

PenPen13

Yes, unfortunately I think that there is a real fight coming. Maybe the end of most humans in the wash up at the worst but who knows? On my bad days I see no hope as the level of evil and deception are revealed - the cabal and their minions who want to beat God at his game?

What if we realise that our collective consciousness is creating all this strife as a means to wake us all up out of the trance of thinking that governments work for us and that life is a material experience rather than a spiritual one? What if we, the whole human race is creating the chaos in order for us all to see that a new order is needed, but not a New World Order, but a new awareness of what matters as humans?

I find most people as followers, with a low level of awareness (some none) and a complacency of existence that is lacking any real sense of humanity. I find most people I know as willing to do anything for 'the peace' as thus are compliant out of fear. I have lost faith in humanity at this point and yet I see there are millions of people who are not idle, compliant blobs. There is definitely a quickening because of Covid-19, of realisations and having to deal with the utmost horrors that people behind closed doors have thought up. There is, in my mind, notice my mind, an evil entity that is affecting these people: the temptation of the sins of power, status, greed, influence, money, control and malice. Some people are jus plain nasty pieces of 'flesh.'

I will be really pissed if I have to take a vaccine in order to be free and succumb to a slow death of illness when I have worked so hard all my nearly 70 years to be healthy and free of drugs. Stuff it. I hate these evil people and that is the bottom line.

A Future Vaccine to Prevent Knowledge of Soul and Spirit From The Fall of the Spirits of Darkness (Bristol: Rudolf Steiner Press, 1993; GA 177), p. 85. October 7, 1917 85 – “The time will come – and it may not be far off – when quite different tendencies will come up at a congress like the one held in 1912 and people will say: It is pathological for people to even think in terms of spirit and soul. ‘Sound’ people will speak of nothing but the body. It will be considered a sign of illness for anyone to arrive at the idea of any such thing as a spirit or a soul. People who think like that will be considered to be sick and – you can be quite sure of it – a medicine will be found for this. . . . The soul will be made non-existent with the aid of a drug. Taking a ‘sound point of view,’ people will invent a vaccine to influence the organism as early as possible, preferably as soon as it is born, so that this human body never even gets the idea that there is a soul and spirit. “. . . the heirs of modern materialism will look for the vaccine to make the body ‘healthy,’ that is, make its constitution such that this body no longer talks of such rubbish as soul and spirit, but takes a ‘sound’ view of the forces which live in engines and in chemistry and let planets and suns arise from nebulae in the cosmos. Materialistic physicians will be asked to drive the souls out of humanity.”

Quote: "Now, the COVID-19 pandemic, despite the fact that it hasn't resulted in an excess number of deaths above the historical norm for any given year, appears to be used as yet another excuse for the implementation of more tyrannical controls. It appears that what they're doing is laying down the infrastructure for a totalitarian control system set to be deployed later." I agree with the dire tyrannical control prediction. However, I wish Mercola would stop saying that "COVID-19 hasn't resulted in an excess number of deaths above the historical norm." Doesn't getting sick and having permanent internal problems, which is affecting many sufferers from this virus have any meaning? Actions have consequences and Indiana isn't doing well under its Republican governor:

Indiana reported more than 3,000 new coronavirus cases for a third straight day Saturday as the state's new COVID-19 cases and hospitalizations continued to surge. Indiana's seven-day rolling average for newly confirmed cases rose to 2,714, according to the health department's daily update Saturday of its coronavirus dashboard. That is the highest level the state has seen during the pandemic and more than triple the seven-day rolling average of 858 newly confirmed cases the agency reported on Sept. 22. Hospitalizations have grown since Gov. Eric Holcomb announced on Sept. 23 his decision to lift nearly all of Indiana's COVID-19 restrictions while extending the statewide mask mandate.

What makes you SO sure these cases are the Covid 19 or whatever? They have been lying about who actually has 'it' for months. So many people have been hospitalised and end up dying from medical intervention. How do we know it is the common cold with the inserts of HIV that make some people with complications sicker than the flu? Are these people obese and unhealthy and who is sending them to hospital? Are more people going to hospital NOW that they are able since elective surgery was put on hold and sick people were denied medical attention?

The whole debacle has been more about predictions, lies, lack of information, cause and effect hypotheses that are not proven, conclusions drawn with out evidence, postulations and the use of a VERY unreliable and very suspect PCR tests which finds fragments of dead viruses which even the CDC admits could be another virus other than the so-called COVID: a virus that has NEVER been isolated by anyone but the genome sequence, and not all of it, has been the benchmark for want of a better term.

Since I am not a friend of PenPen13, I'll reply here: The Indiana State Department of Health also reported 46 newly recorded COVID-19 deaths, raising the state's pandemic death toll to 4,332, including confirmed and presumed coronavirus infections. Are you saying the Indiana State Department of Health is inaccurate and unreliable? If someone has underlying conditions they could die when they add COVID-19. Any death that terminates early due to this virus is a death that shouldn't have happened.

Read more about the guessing game that is "cause of death". This has been highlighted by Johns Hopkins Medical College (in their report that the U.S. medical industry is likely the 3rd leading cause of deaths in the U.S., via preventable medical error). It is a highly-erroneous guessing game. Then read more about the supposed "covid-19" diagnosis tests (hint: no such "covid-19" test exists). These tests merely detect antibodies, which exist from either past or present infection, from any number of coronavirus, even those causing mild colds. Likely 50% or more of the world's population has these antibodies present, without any current infection from any coronavirus. The U.S., and individual states, have been slow & negligent in providing accurate data. I suggest you review the up-to-date & official data maintained & provided by Sweden (via Stastics Sweden, which is their version of the Census). Despite media reports of some 5,000-plus excess deaths from "covid-19", their yearly death toll is within perfect normal averages. Normal yearly average deaths, from all causes, in Sweden are ~90,500. To-date (as of Oct), Sweden has seen ~71,647 deaths.

Thus they are on pace for a perfectly average number of deaths in 2020. Perhaps even fewer deaths than seen in 2017-2018. So what, did people stop dying of all other causes, in direct proportion to the supposed "covid-19" deaths? No one, I've found, has been able to explain this. I've no stake in this debate either way. I base my beliefs on best available evidence. I don't feel the need to be right, but am simply a knowledge seeker, constantly on the lookout for truths. And willing to change my beliefs based on best evidence. Most people can only think & relate in simplistic terms. The media, and true Ruling Elite, feed off this fact. Thus the reason Big Numbers are pumped 24/7, lacking deeper analysis. I do think its insanely absurd that one can purchase cigarettes, but must wear a mask to do so, to "protect health".

"A COVID-19 case includes confirmed and probable cases and deaths. This change was made to reflect an interim COVID-19 position statement issued by the Council of State and Territorial Epidemiologists on April 5,2020."Thus "probable cases" include- "A probable case or death is defined as: A person meeting clinical criteria AND epidemiologic evidence with NO confirmatory laboratory testing performed for COVID-19; A person meeting presumptive laboratory evidence AND either clinical criteria OR epidemiologic evidence; A person meeting vital records criteriawith no confirmatory laboratory testing performed for COVID-19." The "epidemiological evidence" means that you have been in close proximity (less than 6 feet) with a person who is a confirmed case. Clinical evidence means only that you have COVID-like symptoms and those include colds, flu, allergies, and much more. Thus many of these "infection" and "death" numbers are being based on mere presumption. I'm not willing to put my faiths & beliefs in mere presumption. Nor on a completely failing & inept medical industry (which now exists solely for profit - just read reports generated by Goldman Sachs, and such). Disclaimer directly from the RT-PCR "diagnosis" test: "An IgG positive result may suggest an immune response to a primary infection with SARS-CoV-2, but the relationship between IgG positivity and immunity to SARS-CoV-2 has not yet been firmly established. Antibody tests have not been shown to definitively diagnose or exclude SARS-CoV-2 infection." "This test has not been reviewed by the FDA." "Results from antibody testing should not be used as the sole basis to diagnose or exclude SARS-CoV-2 infection or to inform infection status. Positive results could also be due to past or present infection with non-SARS-CoV-2 coronavirus strains." All this data needs to be combined, and more deeply analyzed & considered, before making any conclusions.

Lastly, read books like "Thinking, Fast & Slow" from Psychologist Daniel Kahneman. Most people tend to put emotional irrationalism above more logical, sound, and evidence-based, more deliberative thought processes. Big death numbers evoke big emotionalism. Which then supersedes logic & deep analysis. Or the book "The Invisible Gorilla", co-authored by Christopher Chabris and Daniel Simons. Regarding how faulty perceptions and intuitions often interfere with more advanced cognitive functions. And result in cognitive biases, and false-beliefs. Then read works by, and about, the "Father of Spin", Edward Bernays (like his 1928 book, "Propaganda"). Read about his campaign with ALCOA to transform the industrial waste Fluoride to a "medical health necessity".

Read about his work covertly linking smoking cigarettes to "freedom" (Torches of Liberty") I worked in PR, Marketing and Advertising for decades. One of the most often used tactics of influence, is emotion, especially fear. Like fear of loss (i.e. loss of life). Consider how so many commercials, ads, PR & such focus on emotions, especially fear (fear of harm, dirt, disease, loss, etc.) People need to be weary of the media, of both the "left" and "right". Consider that most "news" organizations are owned by Entertainment Corporations (and those entertainment corps. owned by the same Cartel of largest investment banks). And that many images, audio, video, etc. in those "news" reports are simply stock footage, not footage of actual events (I used to work in & with the stock footage industry). While so many people think they can easily spot propaganda, like spotting the phallic symbols in the ice cubes in the drink ads, the best propaganda is that which isn't recognized as such. The "news" often serves that purpose. I warn people, there is most always a story, and hidden truth, behind, or besides, the official narratives.

Looks like you have not been reading your Mercola articles very thoroughly, Carol. Maybe too tricky for you to understand. The point is that (1) "cases" may or may not be C-19 cases at all because the PCR test used to diagnose infection is not suitable for making a diagnosis and is being used in order to deliberately confuse and frighten the public. (2) Death certificates are being inaccurately recorded by falsifying or excluding the other co-morbidities of the individual who has not survived. The Diamond Princess, the cruise ship which first was infected from covid-19, the statistics from that ship - that should be the true infected and death count.

3711 total passengers and crew (2,666 passengers and 1,045 crew)

712 got covid (145 crew) (0.18%)

14 died, which were passengers only, (0.37%)

32% of those infected had no symptoms

So, 0.18% of us will be infected and 0.37% of us will die.

14 will die for every 3,711 people ... does this match up with where you live?

True, but it goes way beyond Donald Trump. He is merely the current Shill in Chief. He is merely an entertainer, thus makes a great puppet (read the works of the "Father of Spin, Edward Bernays: "If you can influence the leaders, either with or without their conscious cooperation, you automatically influence the group which they sway.") The "Dems" are remain just as controlled. As do the "Progressives" (are you aware firms like Alphabet, Amazon, Facebook, many large banks, etc. exist as the largest campaign contributors of Politicians like AOD, Sanders, Warren, et al?), the "Libertarians", the Greens", etc.

Politics has become expensive. All candidates rely on Big Money to compete in that expensive endeavor. The Obama "hot-mic" slip during his meeting with the Russians was no accident, nor coincidence. It was used as a method of contrived control. Even supposed billionaire presidents are not match against those, whom collectively, personally own the trillions, and control the tens of trillions of dollars. Those with the power, money & resources to make or break the careers of ANY politician.

"Partisan" politics has become a mere sham. It is a demonstration of Divide & Rule tactics. ALL these national "leaders" are covertly controlled by those with the power, money & resources to control the system. Do some time working deep in politics, you'll come to understand the massive fraud being perpetrated. This is nothing new If you haven't, read the works of Philosophers & people like Jean-Jacques Rousseau: "Man is born free, and everywhere he is in chains. One man thinks himself the master of others, but remains more of a slave than they are." -The Social Contract- Conscientious people need to start learning to start putting their biases, prejudices, beliefs and assumptions behind them Those biases, prejudices, beliefs and assumptions are being used against them. The entire system has become corrupted, and completely controlled.

You're right about Soros and Clinton, but Trump is fighting the deep state, see larry_e correctly pointing this out in the comment above. "This also points out how little real control Trump's group has over the military and intelligence bureaucracies. They have a lot of power."

This is exactly why everyone should be wearing a mask. All the people (henceforth referred to as "sheep") need to be taking control of this situation (TAKING CONTROL OF OUR HEALTH-ring familiar?) and masking up. By not doing so, the only way out of this is to get vaccinated. At least that's what Big Brother would like you to believe. "Don't worry kiddies, daddy will take care of all the bad boogie men under the bed". Talk about taking control of your health? WEAR A MASK. They're not infallible but I'll do it rather than get an experiment stabbed into me. Wearing a mask is NOT A CIVIL LIBERTY INFRINGEMENT. GETTING JABBED WITH AN EXPERIMENT IS. WISE UP! Every time trump has a rally and thousands of sheep aren't masked up, it pushes us more toward the direction of a vaccine mandate. That's EXACTLY WHAT THEY WANT. GET SMART. THINK FOR YOURSELF. GET SOME THERAPY SO YOUR SELF ESTEEM ISN'T DEPENDENT ON THE EGO STROKING OF A NARCISSISTIC MEGALOMANIAC. It's how Hitler murdered millions. Now the agenda is vaccinate billions. WISE UP PEOPLE!
