Yes. Bringing down the West will allow a certain group to consolidate power, or so they think. Italy goes the way of South Africa. I live in a rural poorer area of Hawaii and we are being flooded with Mexicans and other Latins, people speaking Spanish only, many fighting age men with tattoos, just buying lots, dozing and then installing trailers etc for a pop up home. I see lots of overweight Latin families at Costco just after the first of the month here in this far flung part of the USA. I cannot help but think that there is a government subsidy to this ongoing replacement of Polynesians and Caucasians. I have not taken a week off work in 37 years. I am the model worker, slaving away, chasing the American dream, and here are thousands of people given advantages over the native population. It is diabolical. When it comes to Spain and Italy, it is on them to patrol boats and helicopters with shoot to kill orders on any approaching vessel that don't turn around or cooperate. NO ONE should be allowed entry a sovereign nation without following protocol. This is an at least partly a self inflicted wound.

The realization the "Right" was correct will arrive on populations too late for correction. Migrants too ingrained. The suicidal empathy of the young female population too great to overcome. Some ethnicities are superior to others and deserve accommodation.

One in particular reminds us that God loves them best. After all, they were chosen.
