I'll tell you how this farce over florida is working. Because it is not about deaths, it is about cases. And while it is somewhat easy to fake a car wreck death as a covid, it is downright easy to fake the case numbers.

The CDC has guidance in place right now to use a 40 cycle count for unvaxxed people and a 28 cycle count for vaxxed people. That is proof right there that they are tampering with and making up numbers of cases to suit their politics. And it is only one tiny baby step from there to inflating the number of cases in a state you want to bash for political reasons. The testing companies are surely in on the whole thing.

I remember there being a story a while ago about the UK where most of the COVID hospitalisations were diagnosed after admission. I.e. they went to hospital for some other reason and either had COVID in their system (not necessarily suffering from it) or they contracted it while in hospital. Even so, they were counted as COVID hospitalisations.

▲3 ▼ Reply ►

Stop testing people, there is no COVID anymore.

They test perfectly healthy people and tell them they are "asymptomatic carriers."

Frito 19 hours ago (Edited)

I'm fully aware of the fucked nature of all of this and the difference between an actual case and a positive test result.

It's all bullshit, the goal seeming to be to kill as many as possible with the kill shot "vaccine" and to assert total control over the remainder.

People are forgetting the number one destination of our new chock full of covid Democrat voters is Florida. One Florida women drove to Texas to pick some of our new guests at a detention center and found most of the hotels in that area were chock full of border jumpers with Covid. $150 bucks a night of our tax money, plus cash for meals cloths etc, for people getting more rights upon stepping onto our soil than those of us who have lived and worked here since birth. Paid taxes too.

Now we have really stupid white trash like that Jennifer Rubin at the Washington Compost celebrating the percentage of whites in this country declining. Would love a source link re: different cycle thresholds for vaxd vs unvaxd to share with people in my peer (argument) group!

It's so exhausting constantly fighting with colleagues, friends and family that have 6 hours a day to follow celebrities, watch cat videos, scan CNN headlines, and pontificate... but somehow are "too busy" to read, take on deep and balanced learning, and critically think their way to conclusions.

Share the link of you can!

flyonmywall 1 day ago

Haven't found the specific cycle thresholds for Florida, but there are some good links in this article, including a link to Florida reporting requirements and some other links.

Anything over 35 cycles is pretty suspect to me.

ZiggyStarDust 1 day ago

Any PCR a test above 20 cycles makes the result invalid, all you are doing above that is injecting noise into the measurement. 40 cycles is a joke and will result in 100% positive rate.

CondZero 1 day ago

Right. And the CDC has reduced / eliminated "Breakthrough Cases" of the vaxxed by changing the rules once again to keep these numbers low. It's all a bloody sham.

El Vaquero 1 day ago

This isn't about public health. If it was, ivermectin would be over the counter with well advertised guidance on how to use it. This is about control. The people in power are going to lose that power when the banking system implodes, they know this and they are trying to reassert themselves in a new, far more authoritarian way. It will fail, but the damage done in the meantime will be incalculable. Vaccine passports are not about proving that you've had the vax. They're the wedge to crack open a new avenue of control.

Very well said my friend. If the Public ever wakes up one day and realizes we don't need private central banks, the world would be a much more free place.

A currency ran by its own country, that only prints enough money each year to match population growth would be a great starting point. Meaning assets should retain value, year after year. No need for this banker inflation.

Do you not remember that the cdc used a phony cycle count on the pcr tests of 40 plus to make the data on covid a complete and utter fraud? and how they applied these tests to people who died of heart attacks and gunshot wounds and car wrecks to fraudulently claim that they died of covid? and that they tested everyone who came into the hospitals for heart attacks, appendicitis and every other reason and if they tested positive from the fraudulent pcr test, they were counted as a covid hospitalization and not what they originally were admitted to the hospital for?

There was only a very small number of excess deaths. covid was no more than a bad flu. and the delta variant, if there even is one, is even less lethal, so it is no more than the flu.

So what in sam hell is everyone so concerned about? unless they have another agenda. Which they do. Last year liberals were all over tv saying they would never take the vax. Now they're for it?

Think for a change and don't just accept the horse pucky they're trying to get you to believe.

There would be no need for ICU care if the standard, over-the-counter antivirals like HCQ (and others) were employed in a timely manner, IF the patient even actually has Covid.. which of course is highly questionable when the PCR tests are deliberately overamped.

But yes, we all remember that "running out of beds" bullshit...they used the same excuse to coerce people into getting flu shots every year.

Take NSW Australia for Instance

Population 8.1 Million, 801150 square kilometers

The whole state is locked down, and Sydney is basically under a Martial Law

Why? because 93 have died of "Covid" in 18 months and 3/4 of those were over 70

The total deaths for Influenza in NSW for 2019 was 66, compared to 93 over 18 Months

If any of that makes any sense then I'm as dumb as Bat-Shit

But the real con here is the Cases, it's all about the Number of Cases.

So if you can tell somebody that is healthy they are sick, that's a Case!

If you can con 8.1 Million healthy people they are sick, but nobody dies, it's the worst epidemic in history! And nobody died, because the Government did a really great job.

You nailed it 100%

Total hysteria and cynical political manipulation to distract from economic Depression and an idiotic 'war' with China -- the main customer and supplier. We have economic subaltern trailors in Canberra.

I look at Sweden to get an alternative view -- e.g., "17. Sweden: In Sweden, covid mortality in 2020, without a lockdown, was comparable to a strong influenza season and somewhat below the EU average. About 50% of Swedish deaths occurred in nursing homes and the median age of Swedish covid deaths was about 84 years." https://swprs.org/facts-about-covid-19/

On the West coast life is fairy normal atm -- but we have secure borders which makes it easier. Not that the politicians won't jump at any opportunity to blow their dog-whistle for some more distracting 'squirrel' training. It gives them an excuse to pump helicopter money into key (voting) sectors without having to touch/dismantle/accept sacred economic theory/ideology. The sad and scarey part is -- the majority of the lemmings love it. Figure that one out?

The Florida numbers are faked for political reasons

CDC already got caught padding the recent florida numbers by 50%

Hospitals empty / doctors offices empty / etc

There is an RSV outbreak going on thats pumping up the numbers a bit, and they are most likely counting these cases as "Covid" just like they did with the flu last year. but again not one dies from that unless they are already weak from something else, and they are overhospitalizing the kids out of an over abundance of caution and for political reasons

"The vaccine doesn't prevent infection, unless everyone is inoculated. Because, you don't get the vaccine to protect you, you get it to protect others from you."

Somehow the inside of the mask prevents transmission, but anything from the outside comes right through according to the generally accepted theory.

The logic fail is that if you are not sick, the mask or the vaccine has no ability to protect others. Because, if you aren't sick, you can't infect anyone.

Besides, if either did work, then wearing a mask or getting the vaccine would prevent infection.

Vaccine escape is caused by people becoming infected before they have formed a sterilizing vaccine response. Ideally the CDC should have mounted a multi-prong attack on the virus to eliminate the creation of new variants. All Fauci managed to do was make it bad for pretty much everyone until the end of time.

"Generally, the more people are infected, the more the chances for vaccine resistance to emerge," said Fyodor Kondrashov of the Institute of Science and Technology Austria.

"So the more Delta is infectious, the more reason for concern," Kondrashov said. "By having a situation where you vaccinate everybody, a vaccine-resistant mutant actually gains a selective advantage

You're right its not about vaccines, viruses or pandemics.

I've posted links here before about the great reset. I try to tell people that.

One more thing, why not let the technology evolve gradually, why rush all this? Internet, television, telephones, cell phones, radio, computers and so on all evolved gradually.

I think they are rushing this great reset on us because they are scared that the new technology will be used against them. There will reach a point soon were the government will not be the only entity using very powerful technology.

In Toronto with 3 million people, 90% of cases are the "deadly" Delta variant but there are exactly 20 people hospitalized and only 5 in ICU. With about 1200 cases in the last 10 days, that's a 2% hospitalization rate. So we have 80% herd immunity together with a weaker virus, but the hysteria continues unabated.

YES. They died because the gene-editing jab destroyed their Cleanup macrophages following their other macrophages killing the germ with protein spikes as they are supposed to do in an organic immune system. ALL the debris caused by the germ deaths needed to be removed so the LUNGS could breathe. The artificial gene-edited system has no STOP for generating protein spikes so it just keeps going and causes the cytokine storm which shuts down major organs. This is only ONE of the deadly scenarios being caused by gene-ediiting your immune system. The Jabbed are the ones generating the variants. Blood clots, myocarditis and other "side effects" may effect you. It depends on your DNA how well you tolerate this gene edit. Just because you had it and have had no ill effects means almost nothing. You will have to have updates for the rest if your life. Predictions of severe ill health and deaths over the next 3-5 years

Never underestimate the nefarious lefties that inhabit academia, media, government agencies and increasingly, medicine. Any malady affecting the respiratory tract will immediately be written off as Covid. Here's the influenza numbers according to the CDC:

"During September 28, 2020–May 22, 2021 in the United States, 1,675 (0.2%) of 818,939 respiratory specimens tested by U.S. clinical laboratories were positive for an influenza virus".

"For comparison, during the last three seasons before the pandemic, the proportion of respiratory specimens testing positive for influenza peaked between 26.2% and 30.3%"

Evidently Covid battled with the flu and won.

I live here in FL. I detest the amount of effen traffic and people who drive like they are the only ones on the road, and it has nothing to do with Jersey.

People are moving to Florida in droves. The housing prices are skyrocketing and started doing that before Delta or whatever.

I live between two rather popular burial companies, and yet, the Hurst moves seldom. Yes, I do track it. I've not seen one service on their site on Old CR54 in the NPR/Trinity area, near where I live.

I've got cemeteries all over the place in FL, Hudson, NPR, PR, Trinity, yet none of them are busier now than when I moved here prior to the 'pandemic'. Why/how do I know this? Cause I go visit my brothers/sisters who have lost their lives in the line of duty.

Where are all of the bodies from this 'pandemic'? Where? I drive around Pasco, Hillsborough, Pinellas, Henderson, Citrius Counties looking, and yet, I can only find my brothers/sisters who gave their live for country, community, and God. I've visited lots of cemeteries and have yet to find someone who gave their live because of covid.

Got a huge, absolutely huge cemetery on hwy54 just East of Trinity. They ain't busy bury anyone, let alone covid dead.

"COVID Pandemic Can Never End Because 50% of People Have Been Vaccinated"

https://www.armstrongeconomics.com/international-news/vaccine/covid-pandemic-can-never-end-because-50-of-people-have-been-vaccinated/

Nearly 50% of those who have COVID in Israel were fully vaccinated. The significance of this overlooked detail is that getting vaccinated will NOT STOP COVID. This means there will NEVER be a return to normal – it is impossible. A staff member went to a party in Miami and returned with the Delta COVID. At 25, she was sick with mild flu symptoms for 3 days – end of the story. The media continues to terrorize people and New York City has decreed that UNVACCINATED can not go out to dinner or go to any play. But is COVID is among the vaccinated, then what is the point?

More importantly, COVID is a respiratory virus. All attempts to create vaccines for coronavirus have failed. Most important is that such respiratory viruses come in the fall for that is when exposure to sun declines (Vitamin D). Because we have had a surge among vaccinated people in the middle of summer, this is a serious WARNING that this virus is highly unusual and the vaccines are c creating a serious health issue.

When Emperor Aurelian came to power, he sent in his troops to confront the bureaucrats in Rome who debased the coinage because they were robbing the treasury of silver. In the process, 7,000 people died in this battle against the bureaucratic corruption that invested Rome. This will come to that one day. The corruption in these agencies is off the charts.

From the very beginning, Gates has been pitching that the vaccines will eliminate COVID-19. This has been proven to be completely false. So why are we locking down economies, and destroy our future because of a virus that is the equivalent of the flu? Gates and his vaccine companies in which he has a HUGE financial interest are dominating our future and if he benefits by just $1 per shot for the world, that is $7 billion+. Ther are pushing booster shots now around the world be use they are not working so you just keep them coming. Now they are saying you may need 5 shots. This is like medieval medicine. Keep bleeding you until you die and blame the disease. He stands to make far more money than anyone ever in history.

Worse still, this virus was most likely engineered and as such, it is mutating rapidly.

Just as there has been over-use of antibiotics and the emergence of diseases that defeat all of our antibiotics, what Gates has been pushing as vaccines are already becoming ineffective. A number of models considering the rapid mutations imply that the dynamics of the spread of a vaccine-resistant strain in the population are increasing dramatically. This may pose a greater risk than COVID come 2022. It is unlikely that there will be any success to developed new vaccines to meet every new mutation. There are others starting to look at this issue of new mutating strains that are already resistant to Gates' miracle vaccines.

What has been unleashed on the world by those seeking to BUILD BACK BETTER to alter the world economy for climate change, just may have opened Pandora's Box and set free upon the world an engineered virus that is far more capable of mutating faster than any before it. Only time will answer that question

THERE IS NO POINT TO VACCINATION

SINCE WE WILL NEVER RETURN TO NORMAL UNTIL IT IS ZERO%

"What is the REAL Agenda with Vaccines & Climate Change" videos

https://www.armstrongeconomics.com/world-news/conspiracy/what-is-the-real-agenda-with-vaccines-climate-change/

This has all been a coordinated effort for the REAL AGENDA which is not vaccines or even saving the planet from global warming. The true agenda is in front of everyone's eyes, but mainstream media refuses to allow the dots to be connected and anyone who dares to simply open their eyes is immediately called a conspiracy theorist. Climate Change is also merely a tool just as this virus scam that the press pretends is so lethal that they have convinced companies to fire anyone who is not vaccinated. The supposed brilliant CEOs are really just being manipulated and because the media makes it sound like if they do not become tyrants they will be the odd-man-out. Firing people who refuse to go along with this agenda in a time of a labor shortage is a recipe for economic disaster.

While people argue that the virus is not real and has never been isolated, they have succeeded in getting people arguing over the nonsense that will never be proven when they control the media. This is like putting someone on the witness stand in court to testify who they saw commit murder and asking them instead when was the last time you beat your wife. The credibility of the witness is sent off into never-never-land and the real question of what he saw becomes marginal at best.

They told you what the REAL AGENDA is using flowery indirect words. The US will no longer be a superpower for its power will be handed to the United Nations and "shared" among nations as Schwab's 8 point agenda states. They also told you that democracy, which they regard as "populism" cannot stand. However, they will still respect human rights if you are really gullible enough to swallow that one. They view us as the great unwashed not worthy of rights that interfere with their thirst for power.

They erected the Climate Clock which is now down to 6 years and change which is the selling point to hand over all power to the United Nations or the world will be beyond repair. At the UN climate summit, they would not allow anyone to speak in opposition to their agenda. Why? The Climate Change argument is based on the principle that humanity faces doom and this is beyond the power of a single nation to reverse the trend. This is all about handing DICTATORIAL POWER to the United Nations, who is also lobbying nations to impose a 10% income tax that is payable to the United Nations

The vaccines are more conditioning and break down the human will to accept the decrees of what is to come. The timeline for this takeover has been set for 2023 saying that after 2027, we are all doomed and the world will somehow end.

This is not really about arguing over vaccines and climate change, it is about world domination and power. The United Nations is engaging in scare tactics to gain power for itself. NONE of this is what it seems if we just focus on vaccines and climate change. The objective here is to take over the world and use the manufactured climate crisis to create a one-world government – Soros and Schwab's dream. This is the ONLY way to further their agenda by manufacturing a common threat.

The U.N.'s climate panel, which bans anyone with a critical view, warns that limiting global warming to close to 1.5 degrees Celsius or even 2 degrees Celsius above preindustrial levels "will be beyond reach" in the next two decades without immediate, rapid, and large-scale reductions in greenhouse gas emissions. That is accomplished with lockdowns, COVID Passports to end international travel and restrict tourism to like the good old days of the Soviet Union.

They have their cronies in the White House who are telling Biden to even threaten war with China and Russia if they do not surrender to the United Nations. In the debates with Trump, Biden said clearly he would rejoin the UN Paris Accord to "FORCE" China to comply. This has been the story I keep getting from sources post-election.

John Kerry was supported by Schwab's WEF to become climate czar. It has been Kerry who has been pushing the Schwab agenda. Kerry has stated very clearly there is NO RETURN TO NORMAL because the system was "broken" before. Everyone lining up for vaccines thinks this will return to normal are simply sublime fools.

Now listen to Schwab. The same words come from his mouth about using the COVID-19 Crisis they manufactured, to create a Great Reset which also involved "inequality" which is why his 2030 agenda says you will own nothing.

Of course, just outlining these trends and connecting the dots will automatically be called a conspiracy theory. How many tiny steps and coincidence need to be taken before a conspiracy theory become reality?

Faeriedust 1 day ago

That may be *A* plan. I doubt it's the only one. The "elites" aren't a uniform, organized class. They very much have private agendas, most of them centered on private advantage and gain. Schwab may be the public face of a group of embedded European technocrats and Kerry may be their willing slave, but neither Bezos nor Xi are subordinate to him and Musk is a totally loose cannon with enough weight to throw a dozen projects off-track. They are all pursuing their own programs.

Our hospital on the gulf coast is overflowing with covid19 patients. I first learned this from someone I know well who works at the emergency room admission desk. All rooms are full and beds have been set up in the hallways. Tents have been set up to handle overflow at the emergency room. Two months ago our area cases were extremely low. However, if you look at the case numbers in Michigan you will see that they had a similar surge a couple of months before it hit Florida. Cases are now low in Michigan. So this too shall pass here along the gulf coast states.

Carbon dioxide increases with face masks but remains below short-term NIOSH limits

Use of face masks (KN95 and valved-respirator) resulted in significant increases in CO2 concentrations, which exceeded the 8-h NIOSH exposure threshold limit value-weighted average (TLV-TWA). However, the increases in CO2 concentrations did not breach short-term (15-min) limits.

Conclusion: Although, significant increase in CO2 concentrations are noted with routinely used face-masks, the levels still remain within the NIOSH limits for short-term use. Therefore, there should not be a concern in their regular day-to-day use for healthcare providers. The clinical implications of elevated CO2 levels with long-term use of face masks needs further studies. Use of PAPR prevents relative hypercapnoea. However, whether PAPR should be advocated for healthcare workers requiring PPE for extended hours needs to evaluated in further studies.

Greed is King 1 day ago

Slightly off subject, but a timely warning article.

Every woman of child-bearing age should read this warning on the Covid vaccines.

AN insight into the propaganda currently putting our world at risk of a Covid vaccine disaster was provided by a BBC News report yesterday, dismissing fears that the vaccines could harm fertility or cause miscarriages.

The report especially criticises Dr Mike Yeadon, the former Pfizer senior researcher who last week reiterated his concerns about particular risks from the vaccines to women of child-bearing age.

As so often in these acrimonious arguments, some of the report's targets are 'Aunt Sallies' drawn from the internet. People who cannot believe their governments could be so foolhardy as to medicate millions with an experimental product post angry and often exaggerated claims.

Yesterday's BBC 'reality check', however, begins by mentioning a relevant Japanese study that has caused several leading researchers (see here, here and here) much concern. So let's fact-check the BBC fact-checker.

Most governments, in line with World Health Organisation guidance, have not required manufacturers to show what happens to their vaccine once injected into the body. Japan appears to have been unique in requiring such a 'biodistribution' study, performed mainly on rats.

Under the heading 'A study shows the vaccine accumulating in the ovaries – False', the BBC report claims:

1. The theory comes from a misreading of the study, which 'involved giving rats a much higher dose of vaccine than that given to humans (1,333 times higher)'.

Infact, the study (commissioned by Pfizer) used a 50 microgram dose, hardly more than the 30 micrograms standard dose in Pfizer's human trial. Even if we acknowledge that rats are more than 100 times smaller than humans, the figure of 1,333 times higher is FALSE. Besides, if the study in rats was to give meaningful results, the researchers could be expected to use a proportionately larger dose in these tiny animals.

2. 'Only 0.1 per cent of the total dose ended up in the animals' ovaries, 48 hours after injection. Far more – 53 per cent after one hour and 25 per cent after 48 hours – was found at the injection site. The next most common place was the liver (16 per cent after 48 hours), which helps get rid of waste products from the blood.'

No mention of the study's finding that the jab was cleared at a vastly lower rate from the ovaries, in particular, as well as from the spleen and adrenals, compared with the injection site and the liver. So there IS accumulation in the ovaries. Verdict: FALSE.

3. 'The vaccine is delivered using a bubble of fat containing the virus's genetic material, which kick-starts the body's immune system. Those promoting this claim cherry-picked a figure which actually referred to the concentration of fat found in the ovaries. Fat levels in the ovaries did increase in the 48 hours after the jab, as the vaccine contents moved from the injection site around the body. But, crucially, there was no evidence it still contained the virus's genetic material.'

In fact, the study itself states that the distribution in the body of the vaccine's active component 'is considered to depend on the LNP distribution' – the lipid nanoparticles, or 'bubbles of fat' as the BBC reassuringly calls them. So once again, the BBC's assertion is

FALSE.

4. Finally, the BBC 'fact-checker' challenges the claim that the study was leaked, 'though it was in fact publicly available online'.

It is available now, but it certainly wasn't. It was obtained through a request by international researchers to the Japanese regulatory agency. Anyone who actually looks at it will see immediately that every page is marked 'Pfizer confidential'. And the translation is poor, indicating that it is a far from official release. Verdict: FALSE.

The BBC report goes on to criticise Yeadon, described as 'a scientific researcher who has made other misleading statements about Covid', for claiming that the spike protein produced by the vaccines is similar to one involved in forming the placenta. One of his concerns is that the protein might produce antibodies that could block pregnancy.

Yeadon worked for 32 years in the drug industry, leaving Pfizer ten years ago as the most senior scientist in charge of respiratory research. He went on to found his own biotechnology company, which he sold for hundreds of millions of dollars, and has been a consultant to 30 biotech start-ups.

But hey; he's a quack according to the BBC, why?, because he's speaking out against the narrative, and that's heresy!!.

People need to unplug and see the world around them.

strych10 1 day ago (Edited)

The question that pops to my head is if part of this spike can be attributed to people finally going back to the doc and ending up hospitalized for something else.

Sure boss, you test positive for Covid but what we're really worried about is that intestinal cancer you've got going on.

That could easily be true.

Around here for months and months we had radio ads begging people to see a doc, or preferably go to a hospital, if they had certain symptoms. Everything they listed for symptoms was for a heart attack, stroke or aneurysm.

So, I asked a couple doctor friends of mine about it and they stated that there had been a huge drop in normal but serious cases they expected to see, and that this was particularly pronounced among people over the age of 65.

The media scared people so badly that they wouldn't go to a hospital even if they thought they were having a heart attack. Family was keeping people with obvious signs of stroke away from medical care too. Serious strokes, not minor ones.

Why? Fear of fuckin' Covid.

They're expecting a big uptick in cancer deaths from people who've had an issue and knew they had a problem but were too scared to go get it checked out. They're thinking a lot of Stage 1 and 2 cancers won't be caught until they're Stage 3 and 4, especially with how backed up imaging is after all this nonsense.

TwoDrinkMinimum 14 hours ago

You are absolutely correct. One of my family members developed a blood clot in the leg after an accident and was terrified of going to the hospital. Instead, she treated the painful leg swelling with a heating pad and aspirin!! Finally she was forced to go to the doctor, months after the accident, and was indeed found to have a large blood clot. The doctor said that undoubtedly she had small blood clots circulating throughout her body and lungs and she had indeed had some minor facial paralysis just the day before probably from one of these small circulating clots getting stuck but then 'unstuck', narrowly avoiding a stroke and/or death. So, yes, you are absolutely correct.

Both Ivermectin and Hydroxychloroquine are cheap,safe,generic drugs that have been taken by millions of people for decades. They both should have been made available over the counter a long time ago,IMO. Outrageous that Covid patients are being denied access to these drugs.

If there was an honest person in congress, I don't see why they would not introduce a bill to make these drugs available over the counter to people who want it.

Keep in mind these drugs could also turn out to be effective in treating flu and other viruses. Also keep in mind that emergency use authorization for vaccines could not have been approved if Ivermectin and Hydroxychloroquine were approved treatments, hence their suppression.

"general" testing for "asymptomatic cases" is a key aspect of the problem.

They did something similar with AIDS / HIV back in the day...started giving people NON_SPECIFIC antibody tests (because they had no specific indicators for HIV) and then, if you had "antibodies" (again, non-specific, estimated based on blood samples of AIDS patients) then you got a PCR and presto! you are HIV +

If you then got panicked, as many many people did, they could start you on the deadly antivirals like AZT which again was authorized for emergency use because it was highly highly toxic... and within a year you could be dead, proving how deadly AIDS is.

In the meantime it is now obvious that:

- 1. being HIV+ doesn't mean crap
- 2. If there even is an HIV, which is doubtful since it has never been adequately isolated, purified or photographed, it is doubtful that it even harms people (Luc Montagnier)
- 3. AIDS is an acquired deficiency resulting from drug use, lousy nutrition and a contaminated environment.
- 4. What was never acknowledged, from the beginning is that AIDS is primarily a lifestyle disease and drug use is a MAJOR MAJOR factor.
- 5. AIDS is not sexually transmitted, and if you are ever stupid enough to be tested for it and found positive, DO NOT let them give you antivirals. Ask Magic Johnson or Charlie Sheen. both alive and kicking today.

That 2012 meta analysis was full of shit, if it was for real (you can't trust anything you read on Wikipedia). Their own year by year figures don't show it ever getting above 60% "effective" — whatever the he!! that means.

White Domestic Tourist 1 day ago

Not saying you're wrong, as I didn't read the report, but beware of meta-analysis because the underlying reports might be sloppy and invalid.

It's a lab and computer created pandemic. Dr Andy Kaufman explains it plainly in layman's terms. COVID19 is a catch all phrase for every respiratory infection, ever. It's nothing new and will be taking out the weak and compromised for many many years. You cannot engineer a human immune system without dire consequences.

Alice-the-dog 1 day ago (Edited)

There has never been any rhyme or reason behind anything we've been told. No evidence, just opinions of "experts" and "officials" in a position to gain from promoting a fraud. Either in power or profit, or both. If there is a pandemic virus, its obvious they have no clue how to deal with it. The destruction of our economic, social, and mental health to contain a "virus" that suspiciously presents an average age of death about the same as life expectancy sure as hell didn't work. It did make a lot of us sick though. Alcohol sales in the US went up FIVE HINDRED PERCENT last year, teen suicides have doubled, opiate overdose is still rapidly rising. Which may account for why hospitals that prefer not to pay for adequate staffing are now "overwhelmed".

▲1 ▼ Reply ←

Faeriedust 1 day ago

Don't forget that the truly critical hospital "staffing" are FEMALE NURSES, at least half of whom have children for whom daycare has become a nightmare. Not to mention that they and their families are already naturally immune, as they caught it during the first wave of hospitalizations, and many of them aren't interested in useless vaxes for a disease which they have already "been there, done that". So a lot of that inadequate staffing isn't about the increase in cases. It's about a decrease in available staff due to the incompetent behavior of government and hospital management.

And the second wave hasn't even hit us yet. Just wait until fall and winter season this year. We are all primed now with the vaccines, and the delta variant. Next comes the Lambda variant, and we will not be able to flatten the curve. Only solution is to walk around like Bubble Boy.

Engineer Oldenborger PREMIUM 1 day ago

When talking about thousands of hospitalizations in states with millions of people, small variants make large differences in the small number being assessed.

Per/capita is supposed to clear some of that up, but hides disparities in populations.

Florida is old. 80% are fully vaxxed. That leaves a fairly large amount of susceptible people that don't exactly do well with this virus that can create a seemingly large hospitalization metric even if Florida is doing what ever one else is doing.

But even Australia is seeing increases and they have absolutely lost their crap and gone over to the darkside.

I think Florida has it right... government is not here to protect everyone, they are here to provide options (on the realm of public safety)... and maybe if things get really bad, so something more dramatic.

Simple. People who are vaccinated with last year's "flu" "vaccine" that doens't work against this year's variant are taking less basic precautions than the unvaccinated. Less handwashing and more doorknob licking. Just cuz I don't have the vaccine doesn't mean I'm jumping all in. Answered.

Seriously?

If the UK Delta numbers are to be "believed", then it looks to be slightly more transmissible with about 10% of the death toll, and we are going to peak in 10 or so days.

Oh, as a side note, the one "jab" most of us "neanderthals" are waiting for is being cockblocked by the FDA/Biden cabal. You know, the one that has been safety tested for 20+ years and is in use TODAY in the MMR/Flu vaccine.

So you think the government is not lying about everything?

Go back to your hole, cover with dirt, and let the adults speak.
