LANGUAGE ALERT: Profanity involved at the beginning of the video

In this video, individuals talk about how world society ended up at the point we are now. From being tracked and assigned a social score that determines your freedoms, to ending up quarantined in a concentration camp of unvaccinated people, the message now is, "follow the science means shut up" and take the shot.

The compulsory vaccinations and seemingly endless boosters, along with rules so severe that the unvaccinated are squeezed out of rights and privileges until they, too, get their shots, are stripping the livelihoods from everyday citizens who don't comply.
