

See the Real Evidence Used to Justify the COVID-19 Shots

December 16, 2021

Previous Next

In a stunning 51-page report, the Canadian Covid Care Alliance – a group of over 500 doctors, scientists and health care professionals – unveils the clinical studies upon which health care leaders around the world based their decisions to approve and then mandate the COVID-19 shots.

For example, did you know that Pfizer's original trial report of December 2020 actually showed only two months' worth of safety and efficacy data? Did you know the claim that the shot had a 95% efficacy represented only the "relative" risk reduction, NOT the absolute reduction, i.e., the actual efficacy number, which was 0.84%?

Did you know that Pfizer's most recent report showed an increase in both illness and deaths – meaning there is no benefit to the shot when compared to the risks? In page after page and chart after chart, this report blows the whistle on all the missteps, deceit and misleading demographics used to justify the COVID shots.

I'm not sick with covid and I haven't been; although, I am getting really sick of this conversation after two years of Medical/Techno Tyranny! Covid is an illusion! Whatever happened to colds and flues?

Randy I'm sick of it too. Wish I had never heard the word Covid.

This is sort of old news ... back in November 2020 -- conveniently the day AFTER the election -- Pfizer put out what was more of a press release/investor newsletter with all of this information in it ...

MSM won't report on this because it's 'disinformation'. Fauci/Gates wouldn't approve.

Cannot work out why this report is not the main article today (as well as of course front page news on corrupted mainstream media).

"Vaca" in Portuguese and other Romance languages means "cow". We should not insult cows by using the word "vaccine". A more correct word is "Zombicine".

That report should be mailed to every family here in the US and the world. People are still defending the rattlesnake, with no real knowledge of what is going on, only what mainstream media tells them.

I'm just fed up with the level of incredulity / gullibility from the masses. And I hate to sound like a total jackass, but if you're too effing stupid to see what's really unfolding, then you deserve everything that's coming to you. Harsh words? Yep.

I will look at the links; but before I do, I will give you this fact: They've been working on this technology for decades and now they are using it to genetically engineer our (well; not mine!) bodies with their patented garbage; and claim intellectual property rights to humans! This is the darkest time in history!

Okay...good articles. I saved them as PDF's.
