

The Great Reset Brings You The Great Narrative

For anyone who hasn't heard of The Great Reset, a plan by the World Economic Forum (WEF) to reform the way the world runs on political, economic and social platforms, then The Great Narrative is set to educate you.

The Narrative will "contribute fresh ideas for the future," the WEF says on its website. To facilitate this, "top thinkers from a variety of geographies and disciplines – including futurists, scientists and philosophers" – are gathering in Dubai in November 2021 to plan your life for you.

The only problem is, while The Great Reset and Narrative are designed to overhaul society from the inside-out, the WEF is leaving society out in the overhaul. Instead of inviting the world in to plan a reset, the elite authoritarians – the ones running the WEF – are doing that for you.

Put plainly, in a form of unparalleled hubris, these global rulers have appointed themselves the masters of the future world they plan to have up and operating by 2030, with "build back better" as their mantra.

But will it work? And even more importantly, what right do they have to sit in one little corner of the world playing with people's lives as if they were pawns in a game of chess? In a commentary, The Sociable recounts the grand narratives of years and ages past, and lays out some of the failings of previous attempts to reset the world.

"Authoritarians use great narratives to legitimize their own power," The Sociable points out, "and they do this by claiming to have knowledge and understanding that speaks to a universal truth. At the same time, authoritarians use these grand narratives in an 'attempt to translate alternative accounts into their own language and to suppress all objections to what they themselves are saying."

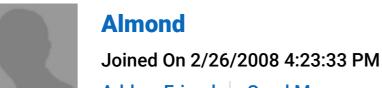

The WEF plan, in fact, is one the world has seen before, and it's called Marxism. "The WEF claims that its great reset agenda will help emancipate society from the unsustainable and inequitable practices of shareholder capitalism," The Sociable says. But their mantra is merely a façade for unelected globalists to expand their own wealth and elevate their powers over everyone else.

From climate change to land use to energy use and more, the WEF will use its Great Narrative to stamp out dissent with a top-down ideology that will label any disagreement with The Great Reset as "conspiracy, misinformation or extremism that must be censored and suppressed for the greater, collective good."

The next few years are going to be more difficult than any of us can imagine. If you want to remain healthy and survive, you need to understand that you must be self-reliant. And, you must live close to nature. There will be many changes. Already, in many high crime areas, when you call 911, no one comes to help. You will be unable to rely on police. We are already seeing many stores leave certain areas due to shoplifting. Often this is an opportunistic crime rather than done out of need. Violent crime will increase. There will be a collapse of social services and churches will be even more controlled by govt. Many food banks rely on govt funding--gleaners are becoming a thing of the past. There are few people even capable of being conscientious pickers welcomed by farmers. Many meds are already in short supply and we cannot expect imports to continue. There is the matter of having gasoline to get to town or have items delivered. Many of us unvaxed will not be allowed into stores to even buy food, new underwear, shoes/boots/sox. (No cash, controlled currency.) You should be saving heirloom seed and composting. Buy and set aside a large bag of diatomaceous earth and get your perennials and fruit trees planted. (DE is also useful for ant control.) As for guerilla gardening, know which ornamentals are food sources. Innoculate lawn mushrooms of various types in your backyard or less visible areas. Have books available to home school your children. Home schoolers can set up networks to swap hand-me-down clothing and infant items. How will you heat, cook or preserve food without electricity or gas? Store salt. Consider some LUCI Lights. What will you do for water?

If you are thinking of a 3-day supply of food for a crisis, you will not make it. You need to think even beyond the 1100 meals this year. All of us will have to work harder and smarter because the agenda is depopulation. Consider yourself a California Fruit Fly that those in power are trying to erradicate.

Thank you, Dr. Mercola and the greater Mercola community.

Societies are tribe-based. Tribes provide an identity, protection, and community for an individual. Thus one's cognitive biases are huge and often blinding. Lots of emotions. Tribes; Vaxer, Anti-Vaxer, Trumpster, Orange-Man-Bad, etc.

The Power That Be (TPTB) understands this and plays people against each other. Keep people divided, fearful, and destabilized (to control-first destabilize). Critical to understanding TPTB create their "Pseudo-realities" with Corporate & Social media via their; gaslighting, narrative, gatekeepers, and algorithm.

We need people to the tribe of; reason, logic, and truth. The tribe where reality is "common sense and truth." It appears to be a very small tribe.

Action item: Get a sheet of paper, divide it into two columns with the headings as such:

1. Pseudo-reality of COVID-19 (Dr. Fauci) (1st entry - "Conformist")

2. Common Sense. (1st entry – "Critical Thinker")

1. Pseudo-reality of COVID-19 (Dr. Fauci) (2nd entry – Fear, control, & coercion)

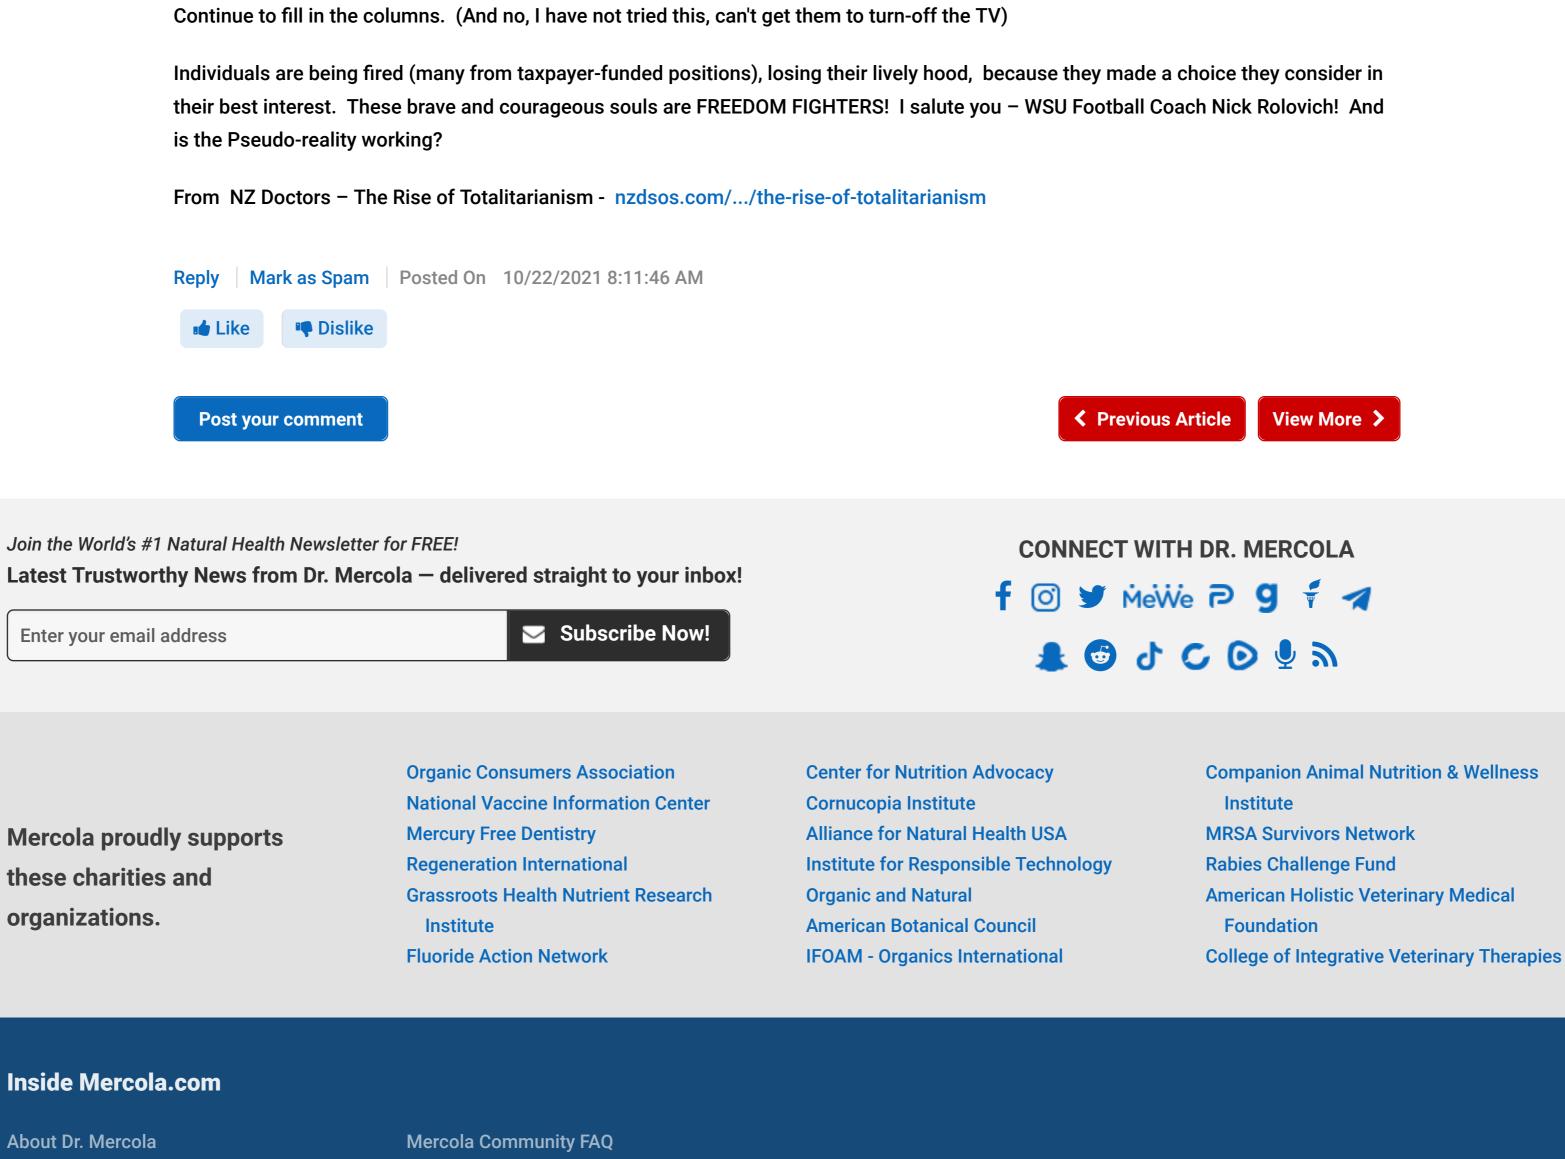

2. Common Sense. (2nd entry – Life, liberty & the pursuit of happiness)

1. Pseudo-reality of COVID-19 (Dr. Fauci) (3rd entry – "Jab" only solution)

2. Common Sense. (3rd entry – Early treatment saves lives)

1. Pseudo-reality of COVID-19 (Dr. Fauci) (4th entry – The science is settled)

2. Common Sense. (4th entry – Open discussion and discourse lead to the best solution)
